MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

The St. John's Men's Basketball Media Guide was published by the St. John's Athletic Communications office with the intent to serve all media and followers of Red Storm basketball. It is dedicated in memory of Jim O'Connell for his valued contributions to the St. John's basketball program.

Additional copies may be purchased for $25. Mail orders should include $3 for postage and handling.

The guide was written and edited by Stephen Dombroski, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations, with design and layout by Mekale Jackson. Editorial assistance provided by Andrew O'Connell, Nick Diamantis, Eric Robinson, Dylan Smith, Jim O'Connell and Paul Montella. Photography by Vincent Dusovic, Errol Anderson, NBA Properties, NBAE, Getty Images and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The St. John's Athletic Communications staff extends its thanks to all BIG EAST and opponent sports information offices and all members of the past sports information staffs that have assisted in compiling information that is an integral part of this guide. Any corrections or additions to the media guide are welcome and should be directed, via email, to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the exclusive discretion of the St. John's University Athletic Communications Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

- 1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
- Daily newspapers regularly covering St. John's University, the current-game opponent or another BIG EAST Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
- Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.
- Officially recognized St. John's University daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.
- 5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
- All digital-only media outlets will be evaluated based on: a) purpose (e.g. newsgathering), b) news process/operation and c) traffic.

UTHER CHINELINES

Season media credentials are issued to those outlets which cover St. John's Athletics on a regular basis. They do not guarantee working space in the media work area.

With the exception of Red Storm beat reporters covering the team on a regular basis and producing regular reports, all credentials are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.

Credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to anyone but working members of a media outlet.

St. John's University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

Web sites that sponsor message boards or chat rooms where visitors are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are limited for credentials and access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium, but may not be granted additional passes or access.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors no later than five days prior to an event via www.sportssystems.com/Stohns. Requests on official letterhead should be sent to the Athletic Communications Office, Room 157 Camesecca Arena, St. John's University, 8000 Utopia Parkway, Queens, NY 11439. They also may be faxed to 718-969-8468 or e-mailed to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu.

MADISON SOUARE GARDEN INFORMATION

Credentials for Red Storm home men's basketball games at Madison Square Garden should be sent to the Madison Square Garden Public Relations Department. Contact Larry Torres of the MSG Public Relations Department by phone at 212-631-5178 or fax at 212-465-6789.

Radio phone line access and scouting credentials for games played at Madison Square Garden can be obtained by calling the Director of Production, Josephine Traina, at 212-465-6731.

GAME DAY MEDIA PARKING

No parking passes will be issued, but media may make arrangements to use the Blue Parking Lot on game nights for Carnesecca Arena games. Reserved parking can be secured upon request through the Athletic Communications office as far in advance as possible. No parking passes will be issued at Madison Square Garden, where parking garages are located in close proximity to the arena. The media must pay to park in these garages.

TELEPHONES

Telephones and working media spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis. There are a limited number of telephones available in the media room and at courtside. Phone lines can be secured by calling the Athletic Communications office as far in advance as possible.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games.

Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas. No flash units, strobes or tripods of any kind are permitted. Freelance photographers will be granted credentials upon availability of space and at the discretion of the Athletic Communications office.

MEDIA SEATING AND WORK ROOM

Media seating on press row will cater to working press on deadline.

All other priority seating will be made at the discretion of the Athletic Communications office.

The media work room area is limited in numbers for working media. Requests must be made in advance with the St. John's University Athletic Communications office. Wireless Internet, working facility electrical outlets and limited phones are available.

GAME DAY/HOME INTERVIEW POLICIES:

- The St. John's locker room is closed to the media following the game.
 The team is allowed the customary 10-minute cooling off period and time with the coaching staff to meet with the team after each game.
 Players requested for interviews will be brought to the interview room or will be held in designated areas at Madison Square Garden/
 Carneserca Arena.
- The visiting coach and player(s) will be escorted to the interview room after their cooling-off period. Student-athletes chosen for post-game interviews are at the discretion of the visiting Sports Information Director.
- The St. John's Athletic Communications staff will secure coach and student-athletes for the interview room. Coach Mullin will enter with student-athletes, unless detained by radio/television interviews. Coach Mullin and Red Storm student-athletes will complete interviews and be available for one-on-ones.
- St. John's press areas at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden will be run by the same rules and regulations. A time limit for coach/student-athlete interviews will be enforced, a 15-20 minute limit for coaches and a 10-15 minute limit for student-athletes.
- Interviews will take place in designated areas of Carnesecca Arena or Madison Square Garden in addition to the interview room.
- The only pregame interviews allowed on game days will be for St. John's radio, and local or national television productions. All requests for one-on-one interviews during game week will be facilitated by the Athletic Communications office. No game day interviews will be allowed unless specifically requested for televised games.

ROAD GAMES

- Coach Mullin/student-athletes will be available during the week of games for visiting print/radio by phone. No day of game interviews will be granted unless specific requests are approved for televised
- Conference calls can be arranged in specific instances, if requested at least one week prior to the game.
- Practices will be closed on the road unless otherwise specified by the St. John's Athletic Communications Office
- · Postgame and interview room policies will follow the guidelines and policies of the home sports information office.
- No interviews will be conducted at hotels on the road, unless previously approved for televised games.
- · St. John's radio and television interviews with Coach Mullin and student-athletes will be granted first at all away games.

COVERING PRACTICE

St. John's basketball practices are closed to the public and the media. Should a practice be open, the Athletic Communications staff will notify reporters in advance.

RADIO POLICY

St. John's has permanent phone lines available to visiting radio stations at $100 per line. Arrangements for phone lines must be made through the Athletic Communications office. All radio stations will be limited to three working credentials on press row. The fee for phone lines must be paid in advance of the game. Make the check payable to St. John's University.

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

2018-19 ST. JOHN'S BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

MISSION

St. John's is a Catholic, Vincentian, Metropolitan, and Global university that embraces the Judeo-Christian ideals of respect for the rights and dignity of every person, as well as each individual's responsibility for the world in which we live. As a University, we commit ourselves to academic excellence and the pursuit of wisdom, which flows from free inquiry, religious values, and human experience.

PRESIDENT

Conrado "Bobby" Gempesaw, Ph.D., is the University's 17th President.

ENROLLMENT

Total enrollment in 2017 was 21,346 full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students. St John's student body was comprised of 16,766 undergraduate and 4,580 graduate students from 45 states, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, Guam, the US Virgin Islands, and 116 countries. There were 1.177 non-resident (international) students representing 95 countries. Forty-one percent of enrolled students were African-American, Hispanic, Asian, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, American Indian, Alaska Native, or of two or more races. During the 2017-18 academic year, 96 percent of undergraduates received $512 million in financial aid with $285 million coming directly from the University. St. John's offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate programs, including 14 doctoral programs.

FACILITY

More than 94 percent of full-time faculty members hold a doctorate or other terminal degree in their field. With our low 17:1 student-faculty ratio, St. John's offers personal attention to every student.

ST. JOHN'S LOCATIONS

The University has three residential campuses, in Queens and Staten Island (NYC), as well as Rome, Italy. The University also has a Manhattan (NYC) campus. In addition, St. John's has three academic locations: Hauppauge, NY; Paris, France; and Limerick, Ireland.

Queens, NY

Our wireless, 96.5-acre Queens, NY, campus features modern residence halls with state-of-the-art amenities such as cyber lounges, study rooms, and recreational facilities. In addition, there are three-story, townhouse-style residences on campus as well as modern, centrally-located apartment-style housing near campus for graduate, law, and upper-class students. The 127,000-square-foot, five-story D'Angelo Center features banquet space, classrooms, club space, a food court, game rooms, lecture halls, a Starbucks café, and a first-floor lounge with a fireplace. High-tech classroom and laboratory buildings—as well as the 1.7-million volume library—are all designed to ensure student success. The Peter J. ticker measuring 76 feet and multiple Bloomberg Terminals, The Paul and Carol Evanson Career Services Center allows Tohin students to collaborate with their peers and interface with potential employers. The College of Professional Studies (CPS), located in St. Augustine Hall, includes five high-tech labs to prepare students for some of today's fastest-growing careers. The Homeland Security/Emergency Management Simulation Lab allows students to apply classroom theory to virtual, physicsbased environments representing largescale, natural and manmade disasters. The Sanford Family Cyber Security Lab prepares students for intrusion detection, malware analysis, network forensic investigations, and other digital defense activities. In the IDEA (Innovation and Design Enhancing the Arts) Lab, Communication Arts students produce new content and test ideas. The Farella Innovation Laboratory is a hands-on design and test space where students learn how to develop new ideas and products and how to transform them into final "sellable" content/output. The Computer Science Lab is a space for faculty and student collaborations on research projects. The Joseph and Ellen Tufano Control Office is at the heart of the CPS labs—it functions as the command center for their operations.

Located in Sun Yat Sen Memorial Hall, the Inclusivity Resource Center is a space for authentic and informed student peer dialogue on topics of equity and inclusion. The Academic Center for Equity and Inclusion, located in St. Augustine Hall, serves as a central resource to support faculty as they continue to develop high-quality curricula that meet the needs of a diverse student population and promote inclusive excellence and equity in education, Just outside of Marillac Hall. the Media Arts & Design Lab supports programs in digital media, animation, art and design, advertising, and journalism, and the Technology Commons focuses on eSports, virtual reality technology, and 3D printing.

Staten Island, NY

Nestled in the residential Grymes Hill section of New York City's most suburban borough, the 16.5-acre Staten Island, NY, campus blends traditional college buildings with modern facilities. The DaSilva Academic Center offers state-of-the-art computer and media labs. Students also benefit from such resources as the Loretto Memorial Library, a Fitness Center, and a campus center with a full-court gymnasium. Apartment-style student housing is adjacent to campus.

Manhattan, NY

The University's campus in Manhattan is situated in the East Village, one of New York City's most vibrant centers of the arts, education, and technological innovation. The School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science (SRM)—part of the Peter J. Tobin College of Business—is located at the state-of-the-art campus. SRM is a global leader in risk and insurance education and training.

Hauppauge, NY

The 11,000-square-foot Long Island Graduate Center is centrally located in Suffolk Country. With roughly 19,000 square feet of space, St. John's historic, six-story facility includes residences, classrooms, offices, and support services. Students enjoy convenient access to the wealth of academic, cultural, and artistic treasures available in the historic "City of Light."

Limerick, Ireland

At St. John's newest European location, students experience a rewarding immersion in the history and culture of Limerick, Ireland's fourth most populous city. The University partners with Mary Immaculate College to provide students with direct experience of a Catholic campus in Ireland.

COLLEGES AND MAJORS

Students at St. John's choose from more than 100 bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs—as well as courses of study leading to professional certificates—in six schools and colleges:

- St. John's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- · The School of Education
- The Peter J. Tobin College of Business
- College of Professional Studies
- College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences
- St. John's School of Law

STUDENT RESOURCES

St. John's students have access to innovative digital resources. All first-year students have the opportunity to opt-in to the University's laptop program and connect to St. John's award-winning wireless network. Students are immersed in an expanding assortment of sophisticated specialized learning environments designed to enrich the academic experience and create professional atmospheres.

STUDENT OUTCOMES

St. John's was number one among four-year Catholic colleges and universities on The Chronicle of Higher Education's recent ranking of student-mobility rates—a measure of how effectively institutions of higher education enroll students from low-income backgrounds and graduate them into well-paying jobs. St. John's was also ranked the number two private nonprofit university in the same report. In addition, 94.3 percent of 2017 graduates were either employed or pursuing a graduate degree six months after graduation.

GLOBAL STUDIES

With a steady increase of St. John's undergraduates participating in at least one study abroad opportunity, the University has risen to 27th place nationwide among doctorategranting American universities in the Institute of International Education's 2017 Open Doors® Report on International Educational Exchange. The report places St. John's in the top 10 percent in undergraduate study abroad participation in the country. Through the Discover the World: Europe program, students can live and learn in three international cities for a single semester, immersing them in the cultural, artistic, and economic life of each location. The University's extensive study abroad programs also allow students to experience sites throughout Europe, Asia, and Latin America

ACADEMIC SERVICE-LEARNING

Course-related community service provides St. John's students with abundant opportunities to make a positive difference while gaining real-world experience. Through course work and reflection, students examine issues pertaining to social justice and responsibility. Areas include hunger and homelessness, health care, education/youth services, and civic engagement. Students also help those in need through the Midnight Run Program, University Service Day, and a variety of service "plunges."

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MIKE CRAGG Director of Athletics

Mike Cragg was announced as the seventh athletic director in St. John's history on Sept. 27, 2018, following a distinguished tenure at Duke University that spanned more than three decades.

As part of his leadership role at the University, Cragg serves on the President's Advisory Council.

During his 30-plus years in Durham, Cragg played a vital role in shaping the direction of Duke's nationally acclaimed men's basketball program. The senior administrator for the men's basketball team since 2000, Cragg most recently served as the Blue Devils Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer, overseeing facilities and planning for all 27 of Duke's athletic programs.

In addition to spearheading Duke's operations, a key component of orgagy's role also included fundraising, as he helped create the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund near the turn of the last century. Since its implementation, the fund has raised more than $115 million to help support the Blue Devils basketball program. He was also instrumental in developing the program's naming gift endowment program that has received over $25 million in donations.

In his role leading Duke's facilities operations, Cragg was responsible for overseeing more than $300 million of renovation and new construction on campus since the year 2000. He was a member of the pivotal strategic planning team and then chaired a Master Facilities Plan, which serves as Duke's blueprint and mission for the athletics department. Most notably, Cragg proved vital in the building of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center and Pascal Fieldhouse, which have served the needs of the Blue Devil basketball and football programs. respectively.

Cragg played a critical part in reconstructing Wallace Wade Stadium, the home of Duke Football, into a modern facility with improved fan-engagement and a superior gameday experience overall. A new club tower was constructed in 2016 that features 24 suites and a 750-person outdoor seating club.

Outside of football and basketball, Cragg also helped envision new facilities that have furthered nearly all of the university's programs. The Bostock Group, Duke's $150 million facilities planning organization with a specific focus on football, also benefitted from Cragg's leadership and vision. Created with the intention of elevating Duke Football while positively impacting all 27 varsity programs, the comprehensive plan began with the 2013 construction of new practice facilities for soccer and lacrosse. Additionally, the group also helped bring to fruition Morris Williams Track & Field Stadium and Kennedy Tower, the press and hospitality tower for Koskinen Stadium, the home of Duke's soccer and lacrosse teams. Finally, the Scott Family Sports Performance Center, featuring a new Nike team store and a 13,000 square-foot Olympic Sports Strength and Conditioning Center, was constructed.

During his time in Durham, Cragg served as the day-to-day contact with Nike, Inc., as part of a comprehensive all-sport partnership. He also held numerous administrative responsibilities within the basketball program, including the coordination of the annual K Academy basketball fantasy camp, the Duke Venture Capital Co-Investment Fund, the Coach K / Fuqua Conference on Leadership and the establishment of the Fuqua / Coach K Center of Leadership & Ethics (COLE).

After arriving in Durham in 1987 as an assistant sports information director, Cragg spent 10 years as Duke's sports information director beginning in 1990, handling the department's day-to-day media relations. He also aided in running media operations at the NCAA Men's Final Four on five separate occasions between 1993 and 2000.

Cragg was promoted to associate athletics director in 2004 before being elevated once again in 2008 to the role of senior associate athletics director.

Cragg plays an active role in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), serving on numerous committees and programs run by the organization. He also received a certificate in advance sports administration from the Sports Management Institute (SMI).

A native of Yakima, Wash., Cragg graduated from The University of Washington in 1986 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Paige, have two children, Shelby and Michaela.

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Chris Mullin enters his fourth season as the head men's basketball coach at his alma mater in 2018-19.

Thirty years after leading St. John's to the highest point in program history with an appearance in the 1985 Final Four, the longtime NBA star and front office executive was named the 20th head coach in the University's storied men's basketball history on April 1, 2015.

Since inheriting a team in his first year that had lost 96 percent of its scoring from the season prior to his arrival. Mullin has orchestrated one of the nation's most impressive turnarounds in his brief time at the helm of his alma mater. The Johnnies boasted a six-win improvement in 2016-17, including seven BIG EAST victories in a league that sent seven squads to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, Mullin's second-year squad advanced in the BIG EAST Tournament for the first time since the 2010-11 with an opening round victory over Georgetown.

In 2017-18, Mullin led the team to an 11-2 record during the non-conference portion of its schedule, the best such mark of his tenure. The Red Storm capped off that stellar non-conference record with one of the most impressive wins in the recent history of the program, knocking off No. 4 Duke in front of a sold-out crowd of nearly 20,000 at Madison Square Garden. Just a few days later, Mullin guided the Red Storm to an accomplishment that had not been achieved since his senior year, as the Johnnies took down the nation's top-ranked team with a Feb. 7 victory over Villanova in Philadelphia. For the second-consecutive season, Mullin led St. John's to a victory in the BIG EAST Tournament, knocking off rival Georgetown for the second time in as many postseasons.

Boasting nearly a decade of NBA front office experience. Mullin spent two seasons working for the Sacramento Kings organization as a senior advisor from 2013-15, providing guidance to the owner and general manager regarding player transactions and supervising the organization's college and overseas scouting program. Mullin previously served five years as the Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Golden State Warriors.

One of the great collegiate and NBA players of all time, Mullin was inducted into both the Naismith

Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011. A two-time gold medalist who ranks seventh all-time on the USA Basketball Olympic scoring list, Mullin was first enshrined in Springfield in 2010 as a member of the 1992 United States Olympic team, also known as the original "Dream Team." He was the ninth individual affiliated with St. John's basketball program to be inducted into the national hall.

The most-decorated player in program history, Mullin is St. John's all-time scoring leader with 2,440 career points, starring at the University from 1981-85 under Hall of Fame Head Coach Lou Carnesecca. Mullin gave New York a four-year period to rival any other, leading St. John's to four-straight NCAA Tournaments. He was a two-time All American who also garnered consensus First Team All-America honors as a senior.

Mullin is the only player in conference history to be named BIG EAST Player of the Year three times (1983-85). He is also just one of three players to thrice win the Haggerty Award, an honor bestowed upon the best collegiate player in New York City. A member of the 1984 United States Olympic team, Mullin took home his first gold at the 1984 Games in Los Angeles.

In his final season at St. John's, Mullin averaged 19.8 points to lead the program to its second Final Four and its first No. 1 ranking since 1951. Mullin received the John R. Wooden Award at the conclusion of the 1984-85 campaign as the nation's top player. He was also named the Player of the Year by both United Press International and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Mullin not only was the first St. John's player to reach 2,000 points, but he set career records for steals, field goals, and was top five in assists. He still holds St. John's career freethrow percentage and free-throws made records (84.7 pct, 682-of-805), and ranks in the top 10 in program history for 17 different statistical categories.

St. John's conferred Legacy Honors upon Mullin in 2005, permanently enshrining his No. 20 above Carnesecca Arena and at Madison Square Garden during St. John's home games. Mullin was also inducted into the St. John's Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2015.

Selected by the Golden State
Warriors with the seventh-overall pick in the 1985 NBA Draft, Mullin spent 13 years of his 16-season NBA career with the organization. He became the sixth player in franchise history to have his jersey number retired when his
No. 17 was hoisted to the rafters of Golden State's Oracle Arena on March 19, 2012.

Mullin scored 17,911 points over his career playing for the Golden State Warriors (1985-97, 2000-01) and Indiana Pacers (1997-2000). Mullin guided Golden State to five playoff appearances, and is joined by fellow Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain as the only two Warriors to average 25.0 points per game in five-straight seasons (1988-93).

Mullin was a five-time NBA All-Star for the Warriors (1989-93) and garnered All-NBA honors four times, including a selection to the All-NBA First Team in 1992. He averaged 18.2 points per game throughout his career while shooting 50.9 percent from the field and 86.5 percent from the freethrow line. Mullin still holds several Warriors franchise records including games played (807) and steals (1,360), and is fourth on the team's career scoring list.

Following his NBA playing career, Mullin worked in the Warriors' front office from 2002-09 and was named Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations on April 22, 2004. In this role, Mullin oversaw day-to-day operations, including college and international scouting, salary cap management and preparations for the NBA Draft. Mullin served as an NBA analyst for ESPN and ESPN radio for three years before joining the Sacramento Kings' front office on September 5, 2013 as Advisor to the Chairman.

One of New York City's greatest players, Mullin is among the most recognizable figures in the history of Big Apple basketball. The lefty from Brooklyn began his high school career at Power Memorial before starring at Xaverian for his final two years. Mullin led Xaverian on a run to a New York State Championship in 1981 and was named New York State's "Mr. Basketball" and a McDonald's All American that same year.

Born and raised in the Flatlands section of Brooklyn, Mullin and his wife, Liz, who is an alumna of St. John's, have four children, Sean, Christopher, Liam and Kiera.

IN THE COM

Mullin is involved in extensive charity, fundraising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason. A local legend, since Mullin's return to the greater New York City area he has participated in numerous charitable and community initiatives, including the Inner-City Scholarship Fund for the Archdiocese of New York, BTIG's Commissions For Charity Day benefiting St. John's Bread and Life Soup Kitchen, "True Blue" Charity Softball Game benefitting the Silver Shield Foundation and NYC PBA Widows' and Children's Fund, Transit Worker Appreciation Day, Relay For Life to support the American Cancer Society, and the Steve Nash Foundation's Showdown NY dedicated to assisting underserved children in their health, personal development, education and enjoyment of life.

Along with members of the men's and women's basketball teams, Mullin has been part of the annual University Service Day "Dribble for the Cure" event, which has raised over $500,000 for the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation (PCRF). In the offseason, he has joined forces with WFAN's Boomer Esiason to host the Joseph Lemm Memorial Celebrity Basketball Game at Carnesecca Arena, raising funds for the family of a fallen NYPD detective who was killed in Afghanistan while serving in the U.S. Air Force. Mullin also received the John V. Mara Sportsman of the Year Award at the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Club of Champions Tribute, an honor presented to an individual who has exhibited exceptional sportsmanship throughout their career. He joined the likes of Arthur Ashe, Jr., Joe Torre, Tom Seaver, Julius Erving, Yogi Berra, Eli Manning and fellow St. John's alumnus John Franco to receive the prestigious award.

Chris Mullin accepts the John V. Mara Sportsman of the Year Award from John K. Mara, President and Chief Executive Officer of the New York Football Giants at the 79th annual Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Club of Champions Tribute.

MITCH RICHMOND

ASSISTANT COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, six-time NBA All-Star and five-time All-NBA selection Mitch Richmond is in his fourth season with the St. John's men's basketball program in 2018-19. Richmond was named assistant coach prior to the 2016-17 campaign after previously serving as a special assistant during his first year with the program.

One of the premier shooting guards in NBA history, Richmond is involved in all aspects of the program, including player development, recruiting and scouting, as well as practice and game planning.

Richmond was enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014 after playing 14 years in the NBA with the Golden State Warriors, Sacramento Kings, Washington Wizards and Los Angeles Lakers. A member of the Lakers 2002 NBA Championship team, Richmond scored 20,497 points in his NBA career and had his No. 2 jersey retired by the Kings after playing seven seasons with the organization.

A two-time Olympian, Richmond won a gold medal with the United States Olympic Team (Dream Team III) at the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta and a bronze medal in the 1988 Olympics in Seoul.

Following his Hall of Fame playing career, Richmond spent six years working in the Golden State Warriors front office.

He rejoined the organization in 2004 as a Special Assistant, serving in the role for three seasons before being promoted to the Director of Player Personnel from 2007-2009. From 2013-2015, Richmond worked with the Sacramento Kings organization as Special Assistant to the General Manager.

The Kansas State alumnus was selected with the fifth overall pick in the 1988 NBA Draft by the Warriors. He joined forces with Mullin and Tim Hardaway to form "Run TMC", the highest scoring trio in the NBA. Richmond was named the NBA's Rookie of the Year after averaging 22.0 points per game his first season in the league.

Richmond went on to average 21.0 or more points in each of his first 10 professional seasons becoming one of just 10 players in NBA history to do so, joining the likes of Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Michael Jordan, Shaquille O'Neal and Oscar Robertson.

Over his NBA career, Richmond appeared in 976 games and averaged 21.0 points on 45.5 percent shooting, including 39.0 percent from 3-point range. He also recorded 3,801 rebounds, 3,398 assists and 1,211 steals in the league. Richmond was named to the NBA All-Star team each season from 1993-98 and garnered All-Star Game Most Valuable Player honors in 1995 in Phoenix.

Richmond's No. 23 was retired on Feb. 28, 2009, by Kansas State, honoring a remarkable two-year career under head coach Lon Kruger. The Wildcats' back-toback trips to the NCAA Tournament were fueled by Richmond's program-record 1,327 points over a two-year career. As a senior, Richmond led Kansas State's run to the Elite Eight earning All-America honors and breaking the single-season scoring record with 786 points. The Wildcats matched a then program-record with 25 victories, while also finishing second in the Big Eight Conference. He averaged 22.6 points and shot 51.4 percent to go with 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists during the historic 1987-88 campaign.

The Fort Lauderdale, Fla., native made an immediate impact at Kansas State in 1986-87 after transferring from Moberly Community College (Mo.) where he played for head coach Dana Altman. Richmond helped guide the Wildcats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in five years, averaging 18.6 points. 5.7 rebounds and 2.7 assists.

Richmond still ranks in the top-10 for 21 single-game, season and career records at Kansas State. He was inducted into the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame in 1998, and was honored in 2003 as a member of the Kansas State All-Century Basketball Team.

ASSISTANT COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

One of the top young recruiters in the country, St. John's alumnus and former Red Storm men's basketball student manager Matt Abdelmassih is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at his alma mater in 2018-19.

Since his arrival in Queens, Abdelmassih has made a considerable impact on the recruiting trail that has put St. John's back on the national map. The Red Storm will welcome three talented freshmen to campus for the upcoming season in Marcellus Earlington, Josh Roberts, and Greg Williams Jr. along with highly touted junior college transfer LJ Figueroa, who earned All-America honors at Odessa College last season.

Tabbed the top transfer recruiter in the country by ESPN college basketball experts, Abdelmassih has also attracted numerous coveted prospects to St. John's including Mustapha Heron (Auburn), Eli Wright (Mississippi State), David Caraher (Houston Baptist), Mikey Dixon (Quinnipiac), Sedee Keita (South Carolina), Justin Simon (Arizona), Marvin Clark II (Michigan State), and Tariq Owens (Tennessee). Dixon, the 2017 MAAC Rookie of the Year, and Keita, a member of South Carolina's Final Four squad two seasons ago, will make their Red Storm debuts in 2018-19 after serving an academic year in residency.

In 2016, Abdelmassih helped the Red Storm land a consensus top-25 recruiting class, according to major national recruiting services, which featured highly-rated freshman Shamorie Ponds and one of the top junior college transfers in the country, Bashir Ahmed. Ponds, along with fellow first year Johnnie Marcus LoVett, was part of one of the top freshman scoring duos in the nation in 2016-17. For their efforts, both Ponds and LoVett were unanimously selected to the BIG EAST All-Freshman team.

In his first year at St. John's, Abdelmassih quickly assembled nearly an entire roster of talented newcomers, including BIG EAST All-Freshman Team honoree Kassoum Yakwe, to serve as the foundation for a program on the rise.

Abdelmassih returned to St. John's after five seasons with lowa State, where he spent his last four seasons as an assistant to head coach Fred Hoiberg and helped guide the Cyclones to four-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

MATT ABDELMASSIH

An assistant director of operations for lowa State in 2010-11, Abdelmassih was promoted to assistant coach in April of 2011. In his four seasons as an assistant coach, lowa State amassed a 99-40 (.712) record, won back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles (2014, 2015), made four-straight trips to the "Big Dance" (2012-15) and reached one NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 (2014).

Abdelmassih was instrumental in making lowa State one of the primary destinations for some of the top transfers in the country, including DeAndre Kane and Royce White.

Recruited by Abdelmassih, Kane helped lead a 2013-14 squad that advanced to just the fourth Sweet 16 in programhistory and finished with a 28-8 mark that included a school-record nine wins against ranked teams. Kane earned All-America, First Team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year accolades.

Another Abdelmassih recruit, White was the only Division I player to lead his team in scoring, rebounding, assists, blocks and steals in 2011-12. White earned All-America honors, was a unanimous First Team All-Big 12 choice and was the 16th overall selection in the 2012 NRA Draft

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Abdelmassih worked for the Minnesota Timberwolves. Abdelmassih joined the Timberwolves staff in 2008 as a basketball operations intern and worked directly with the coaching staff. Abdelmassih then moved to the front office in 2009-10 with a promotion to basketball operations assistant, a role in which he handled salary cap issues, draft preparation, scouting and free agent analysis.

Abdelmassih was a student manager for the St. John's men's basketball team from 2004-07. During his tenure with the Red Storm, Abdelmassih assisted the director of basketball operations with travel, video and camp responsibilities.

A 2007 graduate of St. John's, Abdelmassih earned a bachelor's degree in sport management.

ASSISTANT COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Greg St. Jean is in his fourth season as an assistant coach on the St. John's men's basketball staff in 2018-19. One of the top young basketball minds in the college game, St. Jean primarily manages scouting and game planning responsibilities, oversees the player development program, and directs the team's video operations and statistical analysis.

St. Jean's precociousness has not gone with notice, as he was recognized in May by the National Association of Basketball Coaches with a selection to the organization's 30-under-30 list, an accolade that highlights up-and-coming coaches in the game of college basketball.

Prior to his arrival in Queens, St. Jean spent the previous two years working for the Sacramento Kings, serving as the assistant player development coach during the 2014-2015 season. The youngest member of an NBA coaching staff at the time, St. Jean, 24, helped manage the on-court training of Kings players, which included working with two-time All-NBA Second Team selection and four-time NBA All-Star DeMarcus Cousins, by implementing video and skill development sessions. St. Jean also generated extensive personnel reports and statistical analysis that were instrumental in the scouting process.

A member of the 2014 Sacramento Kings Summer League coaching staff, St. Jean helped guide the team to a 6-1 record and a league championship. He was elevated to an analytics and player development position prior to the 2014-15 season and worked with Rudy Gay, a former All-BIG EAST First Team honoree and Second Team All-American, as well as current Denver Nuggets point guard and NBA All-Star Isaiah Thomas.

The San Francisco Bay Area native joined the Kings organization prior to the 2013-14 campaign as a member of the video operations department. St. Jean was responsible for film break down of the team's individual workouts, St. Jean spent two summers with the Brooklyn Nets where he assisted with the NBA Draft combine, free agent minicamp, summer league practices, and player development workouts. He was a member of the Nets coaching staff for the NBA Summer League in Orlando. In this role, he was responsible for managing in-game statistics, film preparation, scouting, and all on-court activities.

A three-year team captain at Wesleyan University, St. Jean ranked in the top-10 of NCAA Division III in free-throw shooting percentage (89.3) as a freshman. He helped lead the Cardinals to the program's single-season wins record in 2011-12 and was a member of Wesleyan's Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). His father, Garry St. Jean, coached 17 years in the NBA and was the Golden State Warriors general manager from 1998-2004.

2018-19 ST. JOHN'S BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

Chris Huey is in his third season as a member of the St. John's men's basketball staff. He was elevated to director of basketball operations in 2018-19 after previously serving two years as a graduate assistant for the program.

As the director of basketball operations, Huey provides the day-to-day administrative support for the program and assists in organizing on-campus recruiting activities. His responsibilities also include assisting with video operations and scouting reports, coordinating travel, managing gameday operations, maintaining the team's calendar, and serving as the program liaison for athletic administrative areas along with community service.

In his previous two seasons as a graduate assistant, Huey assisted with video operations, while providing support to the coaching staff in the preparation of statistical analysis and scouting reports.

Huey came to Queens after spending the 2015-16 season at Santa Clara working for head coach Kerry Keating. As the team's video coordinator, Huey managed the technical operations of capturing and coding practices and games, while also directing the implementation of video analysis into training and scouting activities. He also organized all video exchange and tracked statistical trends as advised by the coaching staff.

Prior to Santa Clara, Huey served as a men's basketball student manager and video intern at Kansas from 2012-15. The Kansas City native was part of three Big 12 regular-season championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances with the Jayhawks, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2013.

Luca Virgilio is in his fifth season working with the St. John's men's basketball program. Virgilio was named to the position of management analyst prior to the 2017-18 campaign after serving as assistant to the head coach in 2016-17 and previously as the program's graduate assistant.

As the team's management analyst, Virgilio is responsible for devising and delivering strategies to improve basketball operations by using advanced knowledge of research methods, information management, and quantitative methods to analyze all areas of the program. Virgilio assists the coaching staff by preparing analytical reports, delivering recommendations, and overseeing the implementation of these strategies for practice and training, style of play, scouting, scheduling and recruiting.

During his time as assistant to the head coach, Virgilio provided support for a variety of daily operations within the program. His responsibilities included, managing the team's schedule, organizing travel, and supervising student development activities. Virgilio also assisted with the coordination of on-campus recruiting activities, maintaining NCAA compliance-related records and other duties as assigned by the head coach. Moreover, Virgilio's knowledge of European basketball has helped elevate the program's presence at the international level.

As the program's graduate assistant, Virgilio fulfilled a number of functions related to day-to-day operations, maintained the team's calendar and held oversight responsibility of the team managers.

In his first season with the program, Virgilio was part of St. John's run to the 2015 NCAA Tournament. He aided both the assistant to the head coach and director of basketball operations with administrative responsibilities and team operations.

Virgilio graduated from St. John's in May 2016, earning a graduate master's degree in sport management with a concentration in international dimension of sport.

Hailing from Italy, Virgilio earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business administration at Universita degli Studi di Roma Tre in 2012 and a master's of science in Business Administration at Tor Vergata School of Economics in 2014.

Sears recently graduated from Wesleyan University in Connecticut, where he excelled on the hardwood for Head Coach Joe Reilly. During Sears' tenure with the Cardinals, Wesleyan won 78 games, good enough for the most successful four-year stretch in program history. Sears helped Wesleyan reach three NCAA Division III Tournaments during his time in Middletown, including a second round appearance in 2017-18 that capped a 22-7 season for the Cardinals. A senior captain during that successful 2017-18 campaign, Sears garnered New England Small School Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors after ranking 33rd nationally in blocked shots per game (1.93) and anchoring Wesleyan to Division III's second-best field goal percentage defense (37.2%).

A two-year member of Wesleyan's Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Sears graduated with a bachelor's degree in economics from the University in 2018. The Plainfield, N.J., native is currently pursuing a master's in sport management from St. John's.

RON LINFONTE ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR SPORTS MEDICINE - 38TH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

A constant fixture on the St. John's sidelines since the days of Mullin, Berry and Carnesecca, Ron Linfonte is in his 38th year as the Director of Sports Medicine for St. John's University. Widely recognized as one of the foremost men's basketball trainers in college athletics, he is one of only a handful of trainers nationally to have established such an extensive and successful tenure with any one program.

Linfonte has been a part of the legacy of St. John's basketball extending back to the 1981-82 season. His first men's basketball assignments were with teams coached by legendary mentor Lou Carnesecca, and included in his 21 postseason appearances with St. John's are a trip to the 1985 NCAA Final Four and a pair of NIT Championships. Linfonte was the head trainer for many of the most notable players in St. John's basketball history: David Russell, Chris Mullin, Walter Berry, Mark Jackson, Bill Wennington, Malík Sealy, Felipe Lopez, Lavor Postell and Ron Artest. During his tenure at St. John's, 22 players were drafted into the NBA and many more have gone on to long careers in first division basketball leagues overseas.

Linfonte is responsible for the medical care for all 17 varsity teams at St. John's, as well as directing the University's NCAA Drug and Education program for its athletes. For 17 years, he was also the athletic trainer for the nationally-ranked baseball team that captured numerous regular season and BIG EAST championships and made four NCAA Regional appearances.

Since 1986, Linfonte has been actively involved with the United States Olympic Committee, serving both as an athletic trainer and administrator. He was selected to the 1992 Barcelona Olympics, the 1991 World University Games in Sheffield, England, and several U.S. Olympic Festivals. In 1993, Linfonte served as a U.S.O.C. site coordinator for the Olympic Festival in San Antonio, Texas. He also covered the 1998 Goodwill Games as a medical staff evaluator at its New York City and Long Linfonte has worked extensively for USA Basketball since 1990, serving as athletic trainer for the 1990 and 1991 World and Pan Am basketball trials in Colorado Springs, Colo. He traveled with the 1993 U.S. Select Team during its tour of Europe, and was on the sidelines with the 1992 squad that scrimmaged against the famed U.S. "Dream Team."

Linfonte is presently the chairperson of the championship games committee to the BIG EAST Conference Sports Medicine Society. He has served on various NATA, BIG EAST Sports Medicine, College Athletic Trainers Society and New York State Licensure committees during his long career.

He and his wife Suzette, reside in Nesconset, N.Y., and have three children, Erin, Ronnie and Kyle. Erin is a St. John's graduate from the Class of 2009, while Kyle also graduated from the University, earning a bachelor's degree in 2013 and master's degree in 2016. Ronnie is a 2011 graduate of Seton Hall University, his father's alma mater.

DUVAL KIRKALDY STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH - FIRST SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Duval Kirkaldy joined the St. John's staff in the late summer of 2018 as a strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball.

Kirkaldy came to Queens following a stint at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., where he most recently served as the strength and conditioning coach for the Thundering Herd's men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball programs.

Prior to his arrival at Marshall, Kirkaldy spent four years at UCLA working as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Bruins' men's and women's basketball teams.

Kirkaldy also has extensive international experience, having worked with professional teams in China. In 2013, he was the with the men's and women's Liaoning National team during the 12th National Games of the People's Republic of China.

Kirkaldy interned at his alma mater, Florida Atlantic, from 2009-12.

ERIC RIENECKER

DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES 16TH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Eric Rienecker is in his 16th season with the Red Storm, and his tenth as the Director of Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes. Rienecker is responsible for the overall coordination of St. John's Student Development for Athletes and serves as the primary academic advisor for men's basketball student-athletes.

Along with Associate Provost for Academic Support Services Dr. Nancy S. Kaplan, Rienecker has been instrumental in the growth of the student development program at St. John's, seeing a staff of three advisors blossom into a unit of nine full-time administrators and six graduate assistants. Rienecker and his staff operate out of the state-of-the-art Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, which features a 54-seat study center, private tutoring areas, a conference room and new office space, all housed in Carnesecca Arena.

With Rienecker's leadership, the Student Development for Athletes program has received national recognition as a best practice from three different organizations. First in 2005, St. John's University was one of five institutions nationally to receive the National Basketball Association's Player Development Service Award. The award sponsored by the NBA recognized programs and individuals who provided innovative educational programming and support services with special focus on assisting men's basketball student-athletes. In 2008, the Student Development for Athletes program was recognized by the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) as an exemplary practice for its holistic approach to meeting the needs of the student for Athletes program in a Best Practice Monograph entitled Advising Student-Athletes: A collaborative Approach to Success, published in 2008. Then in 2012, the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) recognized the Student Development for Athletes Program by presenting Rienecker with the N4A Model Practice Award. The N4A Model Practice Award is given annually to the university or college that displays best practices in academic programming for student-athletes. Programs are judged upon innovativeness and use of creativity, recognition, effectiveness, measurability as well as applicability of the best practice. St. John's received commendation for its Faculty Engagement Program creating ways for faculty members to become more familiar with the student-athlete experience at the University.

Prior to St. John's, Rienecker served as Senior Athletic Academic Advisor at Rutgers University for seven years. During his stint at Rutgers, Rienecker was the primary advisor for football, field hockey, men's basketball, women's soccer, softball and women's lacrosse. As Senior Athletic Academic Advisor, he was also responsible for the development and supervision of the tutoring program, individual learning assistance program, study skills workshops and the supplemental instruction program for over 800 student-athletes.

Rienecker received his master's degree in athletic counseling from Springfield College, and is a 1995 graduate of the State University of New York at Plattsburgh, where he earned all-conference and all-New York regional honors as a member of the men's soccer team.

Rienecker currently resides in Bloomfield, N.J., with his wife Tara, who is the Director of Student Development for Athletes at Montclair State University. The couple has three children, Zachary, Brooke, and Avery.

ANTHONY GAPUTO EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS MANAGER - FOURTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

St. John's alumnus Antony Caputo was promoted to Equipment Operations Manager in 2015, after spending the previous two years as the Equipment Operations Graduate Assistant. Caputo supervises the ordering, organization and distribution of team apparel for all 17 varsity sports at St. John's, and serves as a key athletics department liaison to Under Armour, Rawlings and Asics.

Caputo served in a variety of roles for St. John's Athletics as an undergraduate, including internships with the marketing and promotions team during the 2013-14 academic year followed by a stint with the events and programming department in 2015.

The West Babylon, N.Y., native previously served as a facilities operations intern with the Brooklyn Nets during the 2012-13 season. Caputo has volunteered with several professional organizations, including the NBA and NFL.

Caputo earned a bachelor's of science degree in sport management with a minor in business from $t. John's University in 2014. Caputo completed his master's degree in sport management at $t. John's in 2017.

GAME #1 Nov. 10. 2017 – Carnesecca Arena

	1	2	TOTAL
NEW ORLEANS	28	33	61
ST. JOHN'S	37	40	77

The St. John's men's basketball team kicked off the 2017-18 campaign in stellar fashion, as the Red Storm downed New Orleans, 77-61, in front of 4,921 fans at Carnesecca

Marcus LoVett led four Johnnies in double figures, tallying 23 points on 7-of-14 shooting, including a 5-for-10 showing from downtown. The redshirt sophomore also dished out three assists, surrendered no turnovers and tied a career high with four steals.

In 69 career games at Michigan State, Marvin Clark II reached the 15-point plateau twice. It took the redshirt junior just one game in red and white to match his career high, as the Kansas City, Mo., native tallied 15 points on 5-of-6 shooting, including a perfect 2-for-2 effort from beyond the arc. Eleven of Clark's 15 points came in the first half.

Shamorie Ponds filled up the stat sheet for the Johnnies in their season opener, registering 12 points, seven rebounds and six assists. Bashir Ahmed chipped in 10 points, while Justin Simon added nine points and four boards.

As a team, the Red Storm (1-0) turned 21 Privateer turnovers into 36 points and assisted on 17 of its 25 made field goals.

QUEENS, N.Y. - The St. John's men's basketball team used another balanced scoring attack to improve to 2-0 on the young season, as four players finished in double figures in an 80-55 win for the Red Storm over Central Connecticut at Carnesecca Arena.

Shamorie Ponds led all scorers and narrowly missed a double-double, tallying 21 points and nine rebounds for the Red Storm (2-0). The sophomore from Brooklyn also added four opints and three steals in 32 minutes of action.

Justin Simon registered his first career double-double in just his second game as a Johnnie, setting new career-highs with 12 points and 11 rebounds. The sophomore transfer from Arizona also recorded three steals and three assists.

Marcus LoVett netted all 15 of his points in the second half, shooting 6-of-7 from the floor in the latter stanza and carrying the Red Storm during a stretch when it appeared that the Blue Devils might work their way back into the contest.

Bashir Ahmed tallied 13 points on the game, while Bryan Trimble Jr. made all three of his tries from the floor in the first half, including a pair of triples, to finish with eight points. As a team, the Red Storm forced 21 turnovers for the second-straight game, turning those miscues into 31 points.

QUEENS, N.Y. - The St. John's men's basketball team secured its first 4-0 start of the Chris Mullin Era, using a dominant second-half effort to pull away from Molloy, 71-43, at Carnesecca Arena.

The Red Storm kicked off the season with four-straight wins for the first time since 2014-15, when St. John's rattled off an 11-1 start in non-conference play en route to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Justin Simon came close to a triple-double, tallying seven points, nine assists and 11 rebounds in 34 minutes of action. The redshirt sophomore guard also recorded two steals and blocked a shot.

Shamorie Ponds and Bashir Ahmed paced the Red Storm with 14 points apiece. Ponds also added six rebounds, while Ahmed chipped in five.

The third Johnnie to reach double figures, Marvin Clark II scored 10 points on 4-of-7 shooting.

Marcus LoVett tied a career-high with four steals in addition to netting eight points, while Amar Alibegovic made four of his six tries from the floor to finish with nine points. The senior forward also orabbed five boards.

ST. JOHN'S	37	45	82
OREGON STATE	40	37	77

ORLANDO, Fla. - Trailing by as many as 10 midway through the second half, the Johnnies rattled off a 17-2 run in the closing minutes of the game to topple Oregon State and remain undefeated on the young season.

Ponds led the way for the Red Storm, tallying a season-high 26 points, his fifth career game with 25 or more. The sophomore guard did most of his damage from the free throw line, going a perfect 15-of-15 from the charity stripe, including a 13-for-13 effort his second half. The Brooklyn native became just the 14th player in school history and the first since Marcus Hatten in 2002 to hit 15 or more free throws in a game. In addition, Ponds added six assists and two steals while surrendering no turnovers in 31 minutes.

Playing a key role in the Red Storm's second-half run, Marcus LoVett scored 13 of his 18 points in the latter stanza, making five of his eight tries from the floor. On the game, LoVett shot 7-of-14 from the field, grabbed five boards and swiped three steals.

Assoum Yakwe scored six of his eight points from the free throw line and his lone field goal could not have come at a better time. The 6-foot-7 junior threw down a thunderous put-back on the team's decisive run, giving the Red Storm its first lead of the second half at 69-67. Yakwe also played another integral part in the Johnnies' late-game push, anchoring a number of defensive efforts that resulted in story.

Marvin Clark II also reached double figures for the Johnnies, tallying 10 points, three rebounds and a pair of steals. Justin Simon turned in yet another complete effort, recording six points, six rebounds, three assists and a career-high six steals. Tariq Owens added six points, six rebounds and a pair of blocks.

As a team, the Johnnies registered 14 steals, their most since recording 16 against Minnesota on Nov. 26, 2014. In addition, the Red Storm surrendered a season-low six turnovers

ORLANDO, Fla. - Despite erasing a 16-point deficit midway through the game, the Red Storm proved unable to overcome a late Missouri surge, as the Tigers converted on 10 of 11 shots down the stretch to escape with a 90-82 victory in the semifinals of The Advocare Invitational.

Shamorie Ponds scored a career-high 31 points, making 13 of his 27 shots from the fillow. The sophomore from Brooklyn also tallied seven assists and five rebounds while surrendering inst one turnover on the contest.

Bashir Ähmed netted 15 of his 17 points in the latter stanza, going 4-for-8 from the field and a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe. Marcus LoVett also finished in double figures, netting 14 points.

Justin Simon filled up the stat sheet once again for the Johnnies, tallying nine points, nine rebounds and eight assists.

As team, Missouri made 14 of its 27 tries from three-point range, including a 9-for-14 effort in the second half.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Despite a less than stellar offensive performance, the St. John's men's basketball team battled and came away with a 46-43 victory over UCF in the third-place game of the Advocare Invitational , leaving the Sunshine State with a pair of wins.

place game of the Advocare Invitational , leaving the Sunshine State with a pair of wins. The Red Storm improved to 6-1 with the victory, while UCF, who was picked to finish third in the American Athletic Conference, fell to 4-2.

43 was the lowest point total allowed to a Division I opponent by St. John's since the Red Storm defeated St. Francis Brooklyn 59-42 on Dec. 5, 2006.

With 15 blocks, the Red Storm tied a single-game program record, a mark that had been reached just three times in St. John's history, the most recent of which occurred on Nov. 26, 2013, against Longwood. The Johnnies shattered the single-game Advocare Invitational record for blocks, which stood at 10. Tariq Owens led the way with five swats, while Justin Simon, who also scored eight points and grabbed eight rebounds, set a new career-high with four.

Marcus LoVett tallied a game-high 12 points to go along with two steals. Marvin Clark II was the only other Johnnie to finish in double figures, going 3-for-5 from three-point range and sinking a pair of free throws for 11 points. The Kansas City, Mo., native also grabbed a career-high seven rebounds.

Despite tallying just six points on the contest, Shamorie Ponds tied a career-high with 10 rebounds in addition to dishing out four assists and recording three steals.

The victory marked the first time St. John's had won scoring fewer than 50 points since a 48-44 victory over Niagara on Dec. 9, 2015.

SACRED HEART	34	21	55
ST. JOHN'S	36	54	90

QUEENS, N.Y. - Leading by just two at the half, the St. John's men's basketball team outscored Sacred Heart by 33 in the latter stanza to defeat the Pioneers, 90-55.

Shamorie Ponds eclipsed the 20-point plateau for the fifth time on the season and the third time in his last four games. The sophomore from Brooklyn tallied 22 points in addition to dishing out seven assists, grabbing four boards and recording four steals for $1. John's (7-1).

Tariq Owens registered his first double-double of the season, the third of his career, with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Most of his production came in the second half, as he tallied all 12 of his points and six of his 11 boards in the latter stanza. The BIG EAST's blocks leader also swatted four shorts on the afternoon.

Transfers Marvin Clark II and Justin Simon finished with 14 points apiece in the winning effort. Clark also tied a career-high with seven rebounds while Simon added six assists and three steals for the Johnnies Bashir Ahmed put forth his most efficient effort of the season, going 5-for-7 from the field and finishing with 13 points. The senior also made two of his four tries from beyond the arc.

The Red Storm had five players finish in double figures for the first time since Dec. 20, 2015, against NJIT.

ST. JOHN'S	32	36	68
GRAND CANYON	27	33	60

PHOENIX - Playing without the services of Marcus LoVett in a hostile environment, the St. John's men's basketball team held off a late push from Grand Canyon to improve to 8-1 with a 68-60 victory at Talking Stick Resort Arena.

Sophomore guard Shamorie Ponds proved magnificent once again for the Red Storm, tallying 28 points on 10-67-21 shooting, including a 2-for-5 effort from three-point range. In addition to his scoring touch, Ponds also recorded six rebounds, five steals and four assists in a full 40 minutes of action.

Justin Simon turned in a career-best performance against preseason WAC favorite GCU (5-2), posting his third double-double of the campaign with 11 boards and a career-high 17 points. The redshirt sophomore guard from Temecula, Calif, made four of his seven attempts from the field and converted on all eight of his tries from the charity stripe.

Bashir Ahmed added seven points and matched a career-high with 10 boards, while Marvin Clark II finished in double figures for sixth time this season with 10 points.

Entering the game ranked seventh in the nation in turnovers forced per game (20.3), the Johnnies played a part in 21 GCU miscues, marking the team's seventh effort this season with at least 20 opposing turnovers. The Red Storm converted those extra possessions into 22 points.

GAME #10 Dec. 8, 2017 – Staples Center

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	34	36	70
16/17 ARIZONA STATE	46	36	82

LOS ANGELES - After trailing one of the nation's top offensive squads by as many as 18 in the first half, the St. John's men's basketball team narrowed the deficit to just one in the waning minutes of the contest, but could not close the gap. No. 16/17 Arizona State scored the game's final 11 points to come away than 82-70 victory and remain unbeaten at STAPLES Center in the Basketball Hall of fame Classic.

Shamorie Ponds led the way for the Red Storm (8-2) in the setback, scoring a teamhigh 19 points to go along with seven rebounds, seven assists and three steals.

For the third-straight game, St. John's was without the services of the team's secondleading scorer Marcus LoYett who was sidelined with an injury. In his absence, the Red Storm received outstanding efforts from each of their starters in the front court, as Marvin Clark II and Tario Owens provided an unquestioned spark for St. John's.

Clark scored 13 of his career-high 18 points in the first half, shooting 7-of-13 from the order narge on the game. The Kansas City, Mo., product also matched a career-best with seven rebounds for the third time in the last four games. Owens scored 13 of his career-high 17 points in the latter stanza, making eight of his 10 field goal tries, including his first collegiate three-pointer. The BIG EAST's leading shot blocker also registered three rejections and grabbed five boards.

Justin Simon recorded six points, five rebounds and five assists, while Bashir Ahmed added seven points and eight boards for the Red Storm.

One of the nation's top offenses entering the contest, the Sun Devils (8-0) were held below their season averages for points, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage. Arizona State ranked fourth, third, and 16th in the nation entering the game in each of those categories, respectively.

ST. JOHN'S	25	44	69

NEW YORK - Playing at "The World's Most Famous Arena" for the first time in 2017-18, the St. John's men's basketball team saw five players finish in double figures in a 69-59 victory over Iona, improving to 9-2 and remaining undefeated at home on the campaign.

Shamorie Ponds netted 14 of his game-high 16 points in the second half. The Brooklyn native went a perfect 8-of-8 from the free throw line on the game and recorded four steals.

Bashir Ahmed registered 12 points and a career-high 11 rebounds, notching his second career double-double.

Justin Simon filled the stat sheet with 15 points, seven rebounds, four steals and three assists, while Tariq Owens added 12 points and six rebounds. The BIG EAST's leading shot blocker, Owens tied a career-high with six rejections against the Gaels (5-5).

Marvin Clark II also netted 12 points to finish in double figures for the Red Storm, going 4-for-7 from the field and 4-of-5 from the line.

Missing all 12 of its tries from beyond the three-point arc, St. John's failed to convert on a triple for the first time since Nov. 15, 2013, in a 73-57 victory over Wagner.

GAME #12 Dec. 20, 2017 – Madison Square Garden

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	44	33	77
SAINT JOSEPH'S	41	32	73

UNCASVILLE, Conn. - Behind another key offensive performance from Shamorie Ponds and a near triple-double from Justin Simon, the $1. John's men's basketball team secured its 10th win of the season on at Mohegan Sun Arena, topping Saint Joseph's, 77-73, in the Basketball Hall of fame Holiday Showcase.

Ponds shot 9-of-15, including 7-of-8 from two-point range, en route to 28 points. In addition to reaching the 28-point mank for the third time on this season, Ponds also grabbed seven boards and dished out four assists. The Brooklyn native made eight of his 11 tries from the free throw line, including four in the game's final 23 seconds to keep the Hawks at bay.

Simon nearly made history, falling just one assist shy of the Red Storm's first tripledouble since Ron Artest accomplished the feat on Jan. 9, 1999, against Seton Hall. The Temecula, Calif., native tallied 11 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists, the last of which matched a career high.

Falling just one point shy of his season high, Bashir Ahmed netted 16 on 6-of-12 shooting and corralled five rebounds. The senior also tied a career high with three steals.

Saint Joe's entered the contest surrendering just 8.7 turnovers per game, the second best average in the nation. The Johnnies, who came to Connecticut ranked ninth in turnovers forced per game (19.4), squeezed a season-high 19 turnovers from the Hawks.

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	33	37	70
NO. 23/24 SETON HALL	43	32	75

NEWARK, N.J. - Despite playing without the services of its two leading scorers due to injuries, the St. John's men's basketball team battled No. 23/24 Seton Hall to the bitter end, falling to the Pirates, 75-70, at the Prudential Center.

Trailing Seton Hall (13-2, 2-0 BIG EAST) by as many as 15 in the second half, the Johnnies (10-4, 0-2 BIG EAST) narrowed their deficit to just one in the waning minutes of the contest, but proved unable to completely erase the disadvantage.

For the second time in the team's last three games, Justin Simon narrowly missed the program's first triple-double since Ron Artest in 1992. The sophomore from Temecula, Callf, tallied 15 points, a craer-chijn 10 assists and eight rebounds. Simon became the first St. John's player since Sir Dominic Pointer on Dec. 7, 2013, against Fordham to record double-didit assists in a game.

Tariq Owens set a pair of career-highs and notched his second double-double of the season with 19 points and 14 rebounds. The 6-foot-11 forward knocked down eight of his 12 tries from the floor, including two of his four chances from three-point range. One of the nation's top rim protectors, Owens also Italiled four blocks.

Marvin Clark II registered 18 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including a 4-of-7 effort from beyond the arc, while Bashir Ahmed chipped in 16 points and four boards.

OMAHA, Neb. - Playing inside one the nation's most hostile road environments, the St. John's men's basketball team saw Creighton use a late 18-2 run to overcome a double-digit deficit and remain undefeated at home on the season, 78-71.

Bashir Ahmed led five Johnnies in double figures with a season-high 21 points, just two off his career high. The senior from the Bronx made eight of his 14 tries from the field, including a 4-of-8 effort from three-point range, to go along with five rebounds and three steals for the Red Storm (10-5, 0-3 BIG EAST).

Justin Simon stuffed the stat sheet, tallying 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting. The Arizona transfer also registered a game-high six assists, five boards and three steals.

Making his return to the court after missing the Red Storm's last outing with an injury, Shamorie Ponds finished with 12 points, five assists and five steals.

Tariq Owens reached double figures for the second-straight game and the fourth time in his last six outings, recording 14 points, five rebounds and a pair of blocks. The fifth member of the Red Storm to finish in double figures. Mayrin Clark II added 10 points on 4-of-8 shooting, including a 2-for-4 effort from distance.

As a team, the Red Storm turned 17 Creighton (12-3, 2-1 BIG EAST) turnovers into 24 points while surrendering iust seven turnovers of its own.

GAME #18 Jan. 13. 2018 – Madison Souare Garden

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
VILLANOVA	34	44	78
ST. JOHN'S	27	44	71

NEW YORK - Taking on the nation's top team inside "The World's Most Famous Arena," the St. John's men's basketball team pulled within four in the game's final minute but could not close the gap, as No. 1/1 Villanova escaped the Garden with a 78-71 victory.

Shamorie Ponds turned in a stellar effort for the Johnnies (10-8, 0-6), tallying a then-career-high 37 points on 15-of-28 shooting to go along with seven rebounds. The sophomore's scoring effort marked the best by a St. John's player since March 6, 2003, when Marcus Hatten dropped 44 against Rutgers at The Garden.

Bashir Ahmed and Justin Simon each added seven points on the evening

Defensively, the Red Storm held the Wildcats (16-1, 4-1) well below their season scoring average of 88.9 points per game. The Johnnies also forced 17 turnovers out of a Villanova team that was averaging just 10.0 per outing coming into the contest.

After starting just 2-of-10 from beyond the three-point arc, Villanova went on to hit eight of its next 10 and 11 of its next 20 overall.

CINCINNATI - After sinking 13 of its first 14 field goal attempts to start the second half and opening up a late lead on one of the nation's top teams, the St. John's men's basketball squad endured a seven-minute scoring drought down the stretch, allowing No. 11/12 Xavier to come away with a 88-82 victory at Cintas Center.

Justin Simon turned in a magnificent effort to lead the Red Storm (10-9, 0-7), netting a career-high 28 points on 12-of-16 shooting, including a 2-for-2 effort from three-point range. The redshirt sophomore also corralled nine boards.

Shamorie Ponds added 18 points and four assists, while Marvin Clark II chipped in 15 points on 6-of-10 shooting, including a 3-for-6 showing from long range.

Tariq Owens stuffed the stat sheet with seven points, six rebounds and four blocks against the Musketeers.

The Johnnies took great care of the ball, tallying a season-high 21 assists to go along with a season-low five turnovers.

WASHINGTON - The St. John's men's basketball team dropped its first double overtime contest since 2014, falling to Georgetown, 93-89, at Capital One Arena.

Leading by five with 24 seconds remaining in the first overtime period, the Johnnies (10-10, 0-8) saw Georgetown erase the deficit with a 6-1 spurt before the Hoyas (13-6, 3-5) scored the first six points of the second extra stanza to pull away at home.

Shamorie Ponds tallied his second 30-point effort in the team's past three outings, scoring 33 points to go along with eight assists, six rebounds and three steals. The Brooklyn native made 12 of his 23 tries from the floor and three of his seven attempts from three-point range.

Before fouling out in the first overtime period, Tariq Owens netted 17 points on 8-of-14 shooting. The Odenton, Md., native also added three swats and seven rebounds. Marvin Clark II tallied 15 points and four rebounds, sinking three triples in the process.

Also finishing in double figures for the Johnnies was Bashir Ahmed, who chipped in 11 points and six boards.

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	15	30	45
BUTLER	37	33	70

INDIANAPOLIS - Playing its final unranked opponent before a three-game stretch featuring three top-10 opponents, the St. John's men's basketball team struggled offensively at Hinkle Fieldhouse, falling to Butler, 70-45.

Tariq Owens was a bright spot on an otherwise lackluster afternoon, tallying 13 points on 6-of-8 shooting and grabbing nine boards. The redshirt junior also blocked a nair of shorts.

Owens was the only member of the Red Storm to reach double figures, as Bashir Ahmed finished with nine points while Justin Simon added eight points, five rebounds and five assists.

The team's 45 points marked a season-low and the program's lowest output since a 66-40 loss at Notre Dame on March 5, 2013.

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
NO. 6/6 XAVIER	37	36	73
ST. JOHN'S	32	36	68

QUEENS, N.Y. - Playing its highest ranked opponent on campus in nearly four decades, the St. John's men's basketball team held a late lead against one of the nation's top teams before falling to No. 6/6 Xavier, 73-68, at Carnesecca Arena.

After tying the game at 67 on a Marvin Clark II 3-pointer with just over two minutes to go, the Red Storm saw Xavier score six of the game's final seven points down the stretch to close it out.

Shamorie Ponds joined an elite fraternity against the Musketeers (20-3, 8-2), becoming the 51st member of the 1,000-point club at 5t. John's with 31 points on 12-of-20 shooting to go along with five rebounds and five assists. The Brooklyn native became only the 10th player in program history to reach the milestone in just his second season with the Red Storm. In addition to his offensive efforts, Ponds also tied a career high with six steak.

Clark finished one off his then-career high, netting 19 points thanks in large part to a 4-of-9 showing from beyond the arc.

Bashir Ahmed tallied his second double-double of the season and the third of his career, scoring 12 points and grabbing 10 boards.

The last time the Johnnies (10-13, 0-11) played an opponent on campus ranked inside the top six of the Associated Press Poll came on Feb. 16, 1980, when No. 2 Syracuse topped No. 7 St. John's, 72-71, inside Alumni Hall.

NO. 4/5 DUKE	39	38	77
ST. JOHN'S	32	49	81

NEW YORK - Led by a performance from Shamorie Ponds that will go down as one of the best in the long and storied history of St. John's Basketball, the Red Storm topped the No. 4/5 Blue Devils, 81-77, at Madison Square Garden.

The Brooklyn native tallied 33 points, his second-straight 30-point effort and his fifth overall of the season, to lead the Johnnies to their first win over a top-five opponent since 2011. Ponds also tallied seven rebounds, four steals, and three assists on the afternoon. In a second half that saw the Red Storm erase a seven-point halftime deficit and climb ahead by as many as 11, Ponds recorded 24 points, five rebounds and a pair of assists in the starze.

As a team, the Johnnies shot 46.2 percent from the floor and 47.1 percent from beyond the arc.

Bashir Ahmed scored 13 of his 19 points in the second half, making four of his six attempts from the floor in the latter stanza, including a 2-for-3 showing from three-point range. The senior from the Bronx also sank all three of his free throws attempts in the final 20 minutes.

Tariq Owens poured in 17 points on 7-of-13 shooting. The redshirt junior made three free throws in the final 32 seconds, including the tally that pushed it to a two-possession game with just three ticks left on the clock.

The Red Storm's win marked the best for the program in terms of national rankings since Feb. 19, 2011, when the Johnnies knocked off No. 4/4 Pittsburgh at Madison Square Garden. That season, the Johnnies also beat No. 3/3 Duke at "The World's Most Famous Arena."

PHILADELPHIA - For the first time in 33 years, the St. John's men's basketball team took down the nation's top-ranked team. Behind 26 points from Shamorie Ponds, the Red Storm held off Villanova at The Wells Fargo Center, topping the No. 1/1 Wildcats, 79-75.

Storm held off Villanova at The Wells Fargo Center, topping the No. 1/1 Wildcats, 79-75.

The win marked the first over a No. 1 team for St. John's since Jan. 26, 1985, when Chris Mullin scored 20 points to lead the Johnnies past Georgetown, 66-65, in Landover, Md.

After knocking off then-No. 4/5 Duke four days prior at Madison Square Garden, the Red Storm (12-13, 1-11) defeated top five teams in back-to-back games for the first time in program history.

In addition to his 26 points, Ponds added five rebounds, five assists and a pair of steals. The sophomore also converted on eight of his nine chances from the charity stripe. It with Signar 1911ad his civit double of the cosons coring 16 pairts and Justin Simon tallied his sixth double-double of the season, scoring 16 points and grabbing 10 boards. The Temecula, Calif., native also dished out seven assists and recorded a pair of steals.

Marvin Clark II added an efficient 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting, including a 2-for-4 effort from three-point range. With the Red Storm's lead down to one and less than 90 seconds to go, Clark converted on a crucial and-one to push the Johnnies' advantage back to four.

QUEENS, N.Y. - After seeing the sophomore average 30 points in three-straight games against top-six teams, one could only wonder what Shamorie Ponds would do for an encore in front of a sold-out crowd at Carnesecca Arena. The sweet-shooting lefty from Brooklyn answered by scoring more than any other player in the 57-year history of the building, netting 44 points and leading the Johnnies past Marquette, 86-78.

Ponds' 44 points broke the single game record for Carnesecca Arena/Alumni Hall previously held by Malik Sealy, who tallied 43 against Central Connecticut State on Nov. 24, 1990. His total also field for the fourth-highest in a single game in program history and the most by a St. John's player since Marcus Hatten netted as many against Rutgers on March 6, 2003. Only two players in the 110-year history of St. John's Basketball have scored more points in a single game than Ponds: Harry Boykoff (45 and 54) and Bob Zawaluk (65).

Ponds shot 16-of-23 from the floor on the afternoon and 4-of-7 from three-point range. In the second half, Ponds made nine of his 12 tries from the floor and scored 27 points.

As a team, St. John's shot a season-high 60.0 percent (30-of-50) from the field, including a 16-of-21 showing in the second half (76.2%).

CHICAGO - Looking to keep its magical February run alive on Wednesday night in The Windy City, the St. John's men's basketball team used standout performances from Shamorie Ponds and Marvin Clark II to push past DePaul, 77-76, and come away with its fourth victory in as many tries.

Ponds led all scores with 26 points, shooting 10-of-18 from the floor and dishing our career-best 10 assists for his first double-double of the season. The sophomore from Brooklyn keyed the game's decisive run with less than two minutes to go, recording six points and an assist on a 10-2 tear for the Johnnies. Ponds also registered five rebounds and a pair of steas in 40 minutes of action, his fifth-straight game playing all 40 minutes.

Clark scored 19 of his career-high 24 points in the latter stanza, sinking six of his eight tries from the field, including four of his five attempts from three-point range in the final 20 minutes. Coming into the night, Clark's 19 second-half points would have been just one off his career-high for an entire game. The Kansas City native also added five boards and a pair of steals.

MILWAUKEE - Following a week-long layoff, the Red Storm's four-game winning streak came to an end, as the St. John's men's basketball team fell to Marquette, 85-73, at the BMO Harris Bradley Center.

Shamorie Ponds and Bryan Trimble Jr. led the way for St. John's with 19 points apiece. Trimble's 19 points shattered his previous career high of nine, as the freshman made seven of his nine shot attempts from the floor, including five of his seven tries from beyond the arc.

beyond the arc.

Ponds failed to crack the 26-point plateau for the first time since Jan. 27. The sophomore shot 4-of-7 from three-point range, grabbed seven rebounds, dished out six assists, and registered three steals.

Justin Simon recorded 14 points on 5-of-8 shooting in addition to posting six assists and five rebounds.

Marvin Clark II also finished in double figures for the Johnnies with 12.

Marquette found it hard to miss, making 51 percent of its tries from the field (31-of-61), including a 13-of-24 showing from beyond the arc (54.2%). The Golden Eagles also assisted on 2.2 of their 31 made field goals

NEW YORK - After trading blows with Seton Hall for the first 40 minutes, the St. John's men's basketball team came up short in overtime, falling to the Pirates, 81-74, before a crowd of 18,840 at Madison Square Garden. Shamorie Ponds scored 19 of his game-high 25 points in the second half to go with six assists in the Johnnies' first home loss of February.

Marvin Clark II recorded his first double-double with 19 points and a career-high 10 rebonds, while Bashir Ahmed was the third Red Storm player to record double-figures with 12 points to go along with six rebounds. Justin Simon added eight points, five assists and four rebounds in the Red Storm's regular-season finale at The Garden.

Pirate seniors Khadeen Carrington and Angel Delgado combined for 10 of the team's 11 points in overtime to lift Seton Hall to its third-straight win. Carrington paced The Hall with 22 points, six of which came in the final 62 seconds of the contest. Delgado recorded his 20th double-double of the season, finishing with 14 points and 13 rebounds.

In a back-and-forth affair, neither team managed to open a lead larger than six before the closing seconds in the 99th all-time meeting between the programs.

BUTLER	25	33	6	4	68
ST. JOHN'S	28	30	6	11	75

QUEENS, N.Y. - Playing at Carnesecca Arena for the final time in the 2017-18 regular season, the St. John's men's basketball team provided the sellout crowd with a game for the ages, outlasting Butler in double overtime, 75-68.

Trailing by five with just 12 seconds to play in regulation, the Johnnies miraculously scored five-straight in that impossibly short span to force overtime. Still tied after 45 minutes, the Red Storm outscored the Bulldogs 11-4 in the second extra period, closing the game on a 9-0 run and picking up the team's first overtime win since March 8, 2014.

Justin Simon scored nine of his 24 points in the overtime periods to help lead the Johns to their second-straight victory at Carnesecca Arena. The Temecula, Calif., native long grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds for his eighth double-double of the season. In a full 50 minutes of action, Simon also registered game highs with five assists and four steak. Simon became the first St. John's player to log 50 or more minutes in a single game since Malik Boothe played 51 in a triple overtime victory over DePaul on March 5, 2010.

Bashir Ahmed and Marvin Clark II also eclipsed the 20-point plateau, marking the first me since the Red Storm's last overtime win against Marquette in 2014 that three St. John's players recorded 20 or more points in the same game. Ahmed scored 22 points on 7-of-14 shooting, including a 3-for-6 effort from beyond the arc. The Bronx native also nailed all five of his free-throw attempts in his last regular season game in Queens and grabbed six boards in 48 minutes of action.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. - Trailing by as many as 13 near the midway mark of the second half, the St. John's men's basketball shaved Providence's advantage down to a single possession in the closing minutes, but could not close the gap as the Friars escaped with a 61-57 victory.

The Red Storm (15-16, 4-14) had just six scholarship players available for its regular season finale, as BIG EAST leading scorer Shamorie Ponds missed his second-straight game with injury and junior forward Kassoum Yakwe sat out due to illness.

game with injury and junior forward Kassoum Yakwe sat out due to liness.

St. John's limited the Friars (19-12, 10-8) to just one field goal in the final 11 minutes of the game. Of the Red Storm's 14 BIG EAST losses, 10 were by seven points or less.

Marvin Clark II led the way with a game-high 14 points, marking his fifth-straight contest in double figures. The Kansas City native sank three of his seven tries from deep and also grabbed six rebounds.

Justin Simon scored 11 of his 13 points in the second half to help fuel the Red Strain's run. The redshirt sophomore from Temecula, Calif, also stuffed the stat sheet with nine assists six rehounds and four steals.

ST. JOHN'S	42	46	88
GEORGETOWN	48	29	77

NEW YORK — In March of 2017 at Madison Square Garden, the St. John's men's basketball team kept the Red Storm faithful on the edge of their seast until the final seconds, outlasting longtime rival Georgetown by one. In 2018, St. John's fans breathed a little easier at the end of their team's win over the Hoyas to open BIG EAST Tournament play, using a dominant second-half effort to down. Georgetown, 88-77.

The Red Storm shot 53.4 percent from the floor on the game, outscoring the Hoyas by a 46-29 margin in the final 20 minutes to overcome a six-point halftime deficit. After Georgetown converted at a 51.6 percent clip from the field in the opening 20 minutes, the Johnnies held the Hoyas to just an 8-of-31 (25.8%) effort in the latter stanza.

On the game, St. John's made 31 of its 58 field goal attempts. The Johnnies were escalally efficient from the free throw line, converting on 21 of 26 chances, including a 7-for-7 first half effort.

Shamorie Ponds scored 26 points on 9-of-14 shooting and made eight of his nine tries from the free throw line. Bumping his season-long point total to 632, Ponds passed his head coach, Chris Mullin, for the program's sophomore scoring record. Mullin scored 629 for the Johnnies as a second-year player in 1982-82 while leading St. John's to a RIG FAST Championship.

Backcourt mate Justin Simon turned in yet another terrific all-around performance for St. John's, finishing with 16 points, 10 rebounds, six assists and four steals. The redshirt sophomore posted his team-leading ninth double-double in just 29 minutes of action after getting in early foul trouble.

HSTORY & HONORS

1952 NCAA FINALISTS

Accused by basketball fans and writers alike as undeserving of their surprise NCAA bid after a hasty and unexpected ousting from the NIT by La Salle, St. John's set out for Raleigh. N.C., determined to at least justify its presence in the Eastern Regionals. The justification would have to come at the expense of the host team, NC State, which had won 29 successive tournament games at home.

The Redmen, as they were known, needed to beat Coach Everett Case's team in order get a chance to avenge an 81-40 loss to Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats, who defeated them earlier in the year. Rupp's squad routed Penn State in its NCAA opening round game, 82-54. After falling behind early, St. John's, led by Dick Duckett's outside shooting, surged back to take a 28-25 halftime lead. In the third period St. John's wrapped things up, outscoring NC State 19-8. In the end it was St. John's 60, NC State 49 with four St. John's players hitting double figures. Bob Zawoluk was the high scorer for St. John's with 12 points, followed by Duckett and Jack McMahon, who each had 11 apiece. Jim Davis added 10, flicking in five set shots

In the second round the speculation was that it would take a miracle for the Redmen to upend the Wildcats, Frank McGuire's boys took the court hoping to keep it respectable. For a change, St. John's came out relaxed from the start. In their first meeting against the Rupp men down in Lexington, St. John's shot just 16.7 percent going 10-for-60; in Raleigh, SJU shot 24-for-53 (45.2 percent). St. John's took the early lead and never looked back. Zawoluk and McMahon were sensational in their scoring efforts. Zawoluk set a new NCAA scoring record with 32 points in the game. Ronnie MacGilvray won over the crowd with his rebounding and stifling defensive play.

The spark generated by the unbelievable Kentucky triumph carried over to the next game. St. John's had a heart-stopping 61-59 win over favored Illinois in Seattle, Wash, The following night in the championship game, Kansas' Clyde Lovellette personally brought the high-flying Redmen back to earth. The massive center broke the NCAA record for points set days before by Zawoluk with a 33-point performance. The Jayhawks went on to defeat St. John's, 80-63, in the NCAA championship game to capture the crown.

1985 NCAA SEMIFINALISTS

On their way to the second Final Four appearance in school history, the Redmen began the journey slowly in Salt Lake City, easing past Southern University, 83-59, before escaping Arkansas, 68-65. Against Southern, St. John's had three players who scored 20 or more points, led by Walter Berry's 24 with 13 rebounds. Bill Wennington contributed 23 while Chris Mullin added 21 in the game. Mullin keyed the Redmen to the victory over Arkansas with 26. Joe Kleine had 23 for the Razorbacks.

The wins earned St. John's the right to advance to the West Regional in Denver, Colo., and a meeting with Kentucky. Mullin netted 30 and Willie Glass contributed down the stretch to lift the Redmen to an 86-70 win. That game marked the final contest for Kentucky Coach Joe B. Hall.

The Elite Eight matchup between Lou Carnesecca's St. John's squad and Jim Valvano's NC State team was a back-and-forth affair that earned the tongue-in-cheek moniker "Spaghetti Western" from the sportswriters. Mullin scored 15 of his 25 in the second half, finding an answer for every Wolfpack run. NC State hung close until the Redmen managed a 10-point lead with 1:22 to play, and shortly after Carnesecca allowed it to sink in - St. John's was headed to the 1985 Final Four.

"With five seconds left in the game, I looked up at the clock and kept thinking, 'We're going... we're going.' I am very much elated to think I'm finally going after 1,000 games," said Carnesecca at a postgame press conference. "When I'm going to my grave, this I'll remember."

Patrick Ewing and Georgetown stood between St. John's and the title game, which the Redmen had not reached since 1952. The rivalry was intense, as St. John's had defeated the Hoyas earlier that season in Landover, Md., to take the No. 1 national ranking. Georgetown won the next two meetings, once at Madison Square Garden that snapped the Redmen's 14-game conference win streak, and once in the BIG EAST Tournament title game.

The Hoyas would prevail, 77-59, ending the storybook season for St. John's but giving Redmen fans a campaign to remember always.

On the way to its first NIT title, St. John's just got by its opening round matchup against Rice Institute of Houston, Texas. St. John's next edged Rice in the closing seconds, 51-49. Hy Gotkin's one-hander at the buzzer proved to be the game-winner. The team then faced local rival Fordham in the semifinals. St. John's defeated the Rams 69-43 and were led by Harry Boykoff's 22 points. St. John's defeated the University of Toledo, 48-27, to capture its first National Invitation Tournament. Harry Boykoff was named Most Valuable Player of the Tournament, scoring 56 points in the three games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick led the squad to a 21-3 record.
- Captain Andrew "Fuzzy" Levane was awarded the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Trophy, being selected the MVP of the Metropolitan area.
- Levane was awarded the C.Y.O. Trophy, donated by the Brooklyn Chapter of the C.Y.O.
- . St. John's received bids to both the NCAA and the NIT.
- Harry Boykoff, St. John's 6-9 center, was awarded the most valuable player award of the sixth annual NIT. This marked the second time that a St. John's player received such a distinction. Bill Lloyd of the 1938-39 team received it previously.
- Boykoff was picked on several All-America teams. He received a gold basketball, emblematic of his selection on the All-America basketball team appearing in The Sporting News.
- Levane was also selected on one All-America team.
- St. John's defeat of Fordham settled the dispute as to who was the 1942-43 metropolitan champion.
- Three players were named to the All-Metropolitan team: Boykoff, Larry Baxter and Levane.

St. John's had to play both seeded teams en route to the school's fourth NIT title. In the first round, the team faced Boston College, defeating BC handily by a score of 114-92. Ken McIntyre scored 42 in the game. In the quarterfinals, St. John's played second-seeded New Mexico. McIntyre again led the team to a 61-54 victory scoring 20 points in the game. St. John's took on Army in the semifinals, and won by seven points, 67-60. In the final the team took on top-seeded Villanova, and St. John's shocked the Wildcats, 55-51. The McIntyre brothers (Ken and Rob) and Lloyd "Sonny". Dove accounted for 48 of the team's 55 points. Ken McIntyre was named MVP of the tournament. He totaled 101 points in the four games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick ended his career with a 55-51 win over Villanova in the Championship game of the NIT. This marked the fourth time that Lapchick led St. John's to the NIT Championship.
- Lapchick's 1964-65 squad ended the season with a 21-8 record. In his 20 years as head coach of St. John's, Lapchick had a career record of 334-130.
- St. John's shocked Michigan, the No. 1 team in the nation according to both the UPI and AP polls. St. John's beat the Wolverines 75-74 in the final of the ECAC Holiday Festival to capture the school's second ECAC title.
- Ken McIntyre surpassed the 1,000 career point mark on Feb. 23, 1965 against UMass.

St. John's received a home game in the first round against Mississippi. The team defeated Mississippi 70-67 with Jayson Williams leading the way with 25 points. St. John's once again received a home bid in the second round against Oklahoma State. The team came back from a 32-30 halftime deficit to win 76-64. Williams led all scorers with 27. The squad was then sent to Ohio State for a third round meeting. That marked the second meeting between the two teams that season. The first meeting was in the final of the ECAC Holiday Festival, when the Buckeyes beat St. John's 77-72. Once again, St. John's came from behind, erasing a 17-point deficit to send the game into overtime. St. John's won the game in overtime without its star Williams (who fouled out late in regulation) by a score of 83-80. In the semifinals, St. John's took on the University of Alabama-Birmingham. St. John's won the game 76-65, as freshman Malik Sealy and Williams each scored 17 in the game. St. John's would then have to face St. Louis University, the last obstacle in its comeback season. St. John's defeated St. Louis 73-65 to capture the school's fifth NIT title and the first for head coach Lou Carnesecca. Jayson Williams was named MVP of the Tournament

2003 NIT CHAMPIONS

It's amazing what one free throw can do.

The St. John's men's basketball team entered its March 2 game with perennial national power Duke with a 12-12 record. Things weren't looking bright for the Red Storm, who had lofty expectations after qualifying for the program's 27th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001-02.

But on that day, with a sold out Madison Square Garden crowd and a CBS national television audience watching, St. John's pulled off the upset, topping the Blue Devils, 72-71. Senior guard Marcus Hatten sealed the win with a free throw with no time left.

And that free throw carried the Red Storm to one of the most exciting stretches of basketball in the 97-year history of the program, as St. John's won nine of its last 10 games, capping the season off with a 70-67 win over Georgetown in the NIT Championship game.

The Red Storm finished the season 21-13 overall, and made what would be a difficult finish an exciting ride.

After a brilliant 5-0 start to the season, the Red Storm struggled at the start of the New Year, and entered the final weeks of the season with a 12-12 overall record, and a 5-9 mark in the BIG EAST Conference.

Four-straight losses in February left the team scrambling. The Red Storm used the motivation from the Duke win to win their final two regular season games — at Miami and at home against Rutgers — before upsetting Notre Dame in the first round of the BIG EAST Tournament.

A loss to Boston College in the quarterfinals was diminished by a bid to the NIT, where the team reeled off three-straight wins behind a raucous student cheering section at Alumni Hall — topping Boston University, Virginia and UAB — and advancing to Madison Square Garden for the NIT Final Four Hatten scored 24 points and Ingram added 16 as St. John's topped Bobby Knight and Texas Tech in the semifinals, advancing to face league rival Georgetown in the finals. In that game, Hatten had 22 points, Ingram added 19 and junior college transfer Grady Reynolds — a major player down the stretch — scored 13 points and grabbed a career high 14 rebounds as St. John's won its sixth NIT Championship in program history.

 — St. John's 2003 NIT Championship was vacated by the NCAA in 2006.

1983 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

The 1982-83 season was for St. John's basketball an achievement of superlative accomplishments. Led by head coach Lou Carnesecca, the Redmen marched to a record-breaking season, including the first-ever BIG EAST Tournament Championship for St. John's.

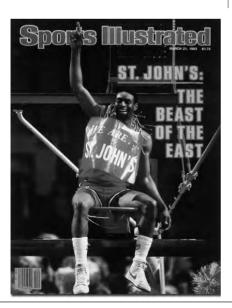

St. John's played 33 games, the most in school history at that time, won more games than any team prior (28), and entered the postseason for a record 38th time. After tying for first during the regular season in the BIG EAST, the team won three straight games in the league's championship tournament to take home the crown.

The team beat defending NCAA champion North Carolina to open the season, then won 13-straight games, giving them a school-record 14 consecutive season-opening victories. Along the way, they won the ECAC Holiday Festival Tournament for the sixth time, and the third time in four years.

Carnesecca was named Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the New York Basketball Writers' Association and several other organizations. Chris Mullin was the unanimous selection for BIG EAST Player of the Year, and the New York Writers' Haggerty Award. In addition, he became the third player to score more than 1,000 points in two seasons, connecting on nearly 60 percent of his shots from the field.

David Russell's rugged inside play gave the St. John's offense a double haymaker and this combination was brought to explosive power by the cool play of swingman Billy Goodwin which matched the fiery competitiveness of Kevin Williams. Floor play was orchestrated by Bobby Kelly and the backbone was supplied by the center couple of Jeff Allen and Bill Wennington, with Ron Stewart and Trevor Jackson in the wings.

In the BIG EAST Tournament, St. John's beat Pittsburgh in the first round, and then topped Villanova in the semifinals. The championship game saw Mullin score 24 points in an 85-77 win over Boston College.

1986 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

A year after a trip to the program's second-ever Final Four, if anyone was searching for "The Truth," they found it.

In just his second season at St. John's, Walter "The Truth" Berry earned national player of the year honors — the second straight year a St. John's player had done so, as Chris Mullin took the award during the 1984-85 campaign — and led the team to a 31-5 record and the 1986 BIG EAST Tournament Championship.

Berry had, perhaps, the best single season ever in St. John's history in 1985-86, averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds, while earning award upon award. He was selected as the recipient of the John Wooden Award as the nation's top college player, the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, the Associated Press' honor, and was the Kodak Player of the Year from the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He scored a still-intact St. John's record 828 points that season and grabbed 399 rebounds, which ranks as the fifth-best single season mark.

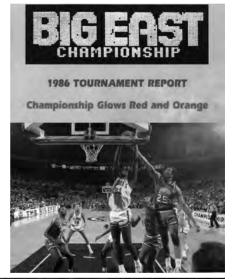

The starting five that season – Berry, Ron Rowan, Willie Glass, Mark Jackson and Shelton Jones – ranks among the best in school history. They started every game and accounted for 86 percent of the minutes played, but had outstanding play from reserves like Marco Baldi, Terry Bross, Steve Shurina and John Hempel. Rowan finished the season second on the team in scoring, averaging 14.2 points and 4.4 assists; Glass averaged 13.3 points and 5.6 rebounds; Jackson added 11.3 points and a school record 9.1 assists; and Jones averaged 8.5 points and 5.7 rebounds.

The Redmen had rolled through the regular season with only four blemishes on their record: a loss to Duke in the Big Apple NIT semifinals, a non-conference defeat to DePaul and a pair of BIG EAST falters by a combined total of six points at Boston College and Syracuse.

And while Berry was the leader of the team, it was Rowan who came through in the Redmen's biggest moment, sinking a 14-foot baseline jumper with eight seconds left and giving St. John's its first lead of the game at 70-69, in a win over Syracuse in the BIG EAST Championship. Berry blocked Dwayne "Pearl" Washington's shot at the buzzer as St. John's won the second of its three BIG EAST Tournament titles.

2000 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

For St. John's, Red Storm fans and the "city that never sleeps," the 2000 BIG EAST title was almost as good as winning the national championship.

The nets were cut, and the celebration began. Players and coaches hugged family members, staff and each other. The trophy was carried around the floor and adored by one and all.

The night of March 11, 2000 was not just any night for the St. John's men's basketball team. The Red Storm's 80-70 win over Connecticut at Madison Square Garden gave the team its first BIG EAST Tournament Championship since 1986, but it was also the fitting end to a hectic, and at times. challenging season.

It was fitting because this St. John's team had overcome obstacles time and time again throughout the season. And just when people were counting the Red Storm out, they came back — each time.

The team was tough and resilient. While small in numbers — there were only eight scholarship players and head coach Mike Jarvis used a sevenman rotation for the most part — the team ielled and played without fear.

That never-quit mentality was never more evident than during a stretch in late February when the Red Storm toppled Syracuse, Connecticut and Duke in consecutive games. The wins over the Huskies and Blue Devils marked the first time in recorded history that the national champion (UConn) and national runner-up (Duke) had lost to the same team back-to-back.

The BIG EAST Tournament was equally exciting. St. John's used a late run to beat Villanova in the opener and then came a heated rivalry with Miami. In a tight game, sophomore forward Anthony Glover — who had missed his previous five attempts — hit two free throws with 2.2 seconds left to give St. John's a 58-57 win over the Hurricanes and a spot in the championship game.

In a rematch of the previous year's championship game, Bootsy Thornton – who earned tournament MVP honors – scored 22 points to lead four players in double figures in an 80-70 win over Connecticut.

The criteria decided upon for Basketball Legacy Honors extends far beyond wins and losses, or points and rebounds. The selection committee took several additional aspects into account, including athletic achievement, citizenship, character, team success and national awards to go along with individual statistics.

While the initial list of 10 was recognized, St. John's plans to continue the Basketball Legacy Honors program in the future.

COACH JOE LAPCHICK

Joe Lapchick was the first talented big man to play in the collegiate ranks. He was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1966 as an original member of the Celtics travel team from the era of the "Roaring 20's." The "Big Indian," as he was called, had a career in basketball that virtually spanned the game from its true beginning to its full growth.

He coached at St. John's from 1936-1947, left to roam the sidelines for the New York Knicks from 1947-1956, where upon he returned to lead the Redmen until his retirement in 1965. He won 334 games during his tenure, among those were four National Invitation Tournament titles (1943, 1944, 1959 and 1965).

University officials recognized Lapchick for his many accomplishments by naming a regular season tournament (The Joe Lapchick Memorial) in his honor. In 1985 he was unanimously chosen as part of the first induction class to enter the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame. Lapchick died on August 10, 1970.

COACH LOU CARNESECCA

What can you say about this Hall of Famer that hasn't already been said? Lou Carnesecca is a legend in New York and college basketball circles worldwide. He is synonymous with St. John's Basketball, having coached at the University for 24 seasons.

During those 24 seasons he never failed to qualify for a postseason tournament (18 NCAAs and six NITs). "Looie," as he is affectionately called, compiled a record of 526 wins and 200 losses and directed the team to 20 or more victories in a season on 18 separate occasions.

Carnesecca was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1992. In 1991, he became only the 30th NCAA Division I coach to reach the 500 career victory mark. In 1988-89, he directed his team to a record fifth NIT title.

His NCAA teams were successful advancing to the Final Four in 1985, to the Eastern Regional Final in 1979 and to the regional semifinals in 1967, 1969, 1983 and 1991.

Carnesecca's record in regular season tournaments is also impressive. He won 17 Lapchick Tournaments and eight ECAC Holiday Festival crowns. In 13 tough years of BIG EAST Conference competition, Carnesecca's teams had a regular season record of 112-65 and were 13-11 in the tournament. He also tied for the regular season title three times and won it outright once.

Carnesecca was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year three times and chosen Metropolitan Area Coach of the Year six times by the New York Basketball Writers Association. In addition, he has two BIG EAST titles to his credit, winning in the 1983 and 1986 seasons.

NO. 20 Chris Mullin

At 6-6 from Brooklyn, N.Y., Chris Mullin is the most honored player in St. John's history. The consensus All-American's sharp outside shooting from the floor, his dead-eye accuracy from the free-throw line, his keen basketball sense, his leadership both on and off the court and his total devotion to the game of basketball led him to become, arguably, the greatest player in St. John's history.

In his rookie season, he was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival. He was second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Rookie. Named the Metropolitan Sports Writers Rookie of the Year, Mullin averaged 16.6 points per game and became the school's top freshman scorer with 498 points.

There was no sophomore jinx for Mullin his second year. He led the team with a 19.1 scoring average and became only the fourth St. John's player to score 1,000 points in his first two seasons. He swept all of the major BIG EAST awards that year as he was named Player of the Year, MVP of the Tournament and first team all-conference. He was also named a third team All-American by UPI. He won the Haggerty Award that season, which is symbolic of being collegiate basketball's MVP for the metropolitan area.

In his junior year, he earned a place on just about every All-America team, averaging a team-high 22.9 points per game. He led the BIG EAST in scoring with a 24.9 mark and was named Co-Conference Player of the Year. He became the conference's all-time leading scorer and was named first team all-conference. That summer he was a key member of the gold medal winning Olympic team.

Besides leading St. John's to the Final Four his senior year and a No. 1 ranking by both the UPI and AP polls for several weeks, Mullin was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, which is given to the nation's top collegiate basketball player. Mullin was a consensus first team All-American, was named UPI's Player of the Year and District II Player of the Year.

He surpassed Bob Zawoluk as the school's all-time leading scorer and became the first St. John's player to total 2,000 points in a career. Mullin was not just a scoring machine; in his four years at St. John's he also broke then-records for steals, field goals made, free throws and free throw percentage. He also ranks among the top five in assists.

NO. 21 Walter Berry

Walter Berry played just two seasons with St. John's but his impact was tremendous. The 'Truth,' as he was known, transferred to St. John's from San Jacinto Junior College where he was named the National Junior College Player of the Year, averaging 28.9 points and 14 rebounds.

He emerged as one of the top newcomers in the nation in his first season at $1. John's, helping lead the team to the Final Four. He earned second team All-BIG EAST honors and first team All-Metropolitan honors that season. He averaged 17.0 points per game which was second on the team behind Chris Mullin. He shattered the school single-season scoring record as a senior, scoring 828 points.

As a senior, he was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, given by the Los Angeles Athletic Club to the nation's top collegiate player. He was also awarded the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, given to the player of the year in college basketball by the Associated Press. Berry's biggest honor was being selected the Kodak Player of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He was the UPI Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, Basketball Weekly Player of the Year, CBS/Chevrolet Player of the Year and the BIG EAST Player of the Year. He earned these honors by averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds per game.

Berry was named to the AP and UPI first-team All-America squads. He became only the fifth player in St. John's history to reach the 1.000-point mark in two seasons.

NO. 13 Mark Jackson

The greatest assist man in St. John's history, Mark "Action" Jackson totaled a school record 738 assists. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team after dishing out 108 assists as a freshman.

He was the "sixth man" on St. John's Final Four team, ranking third on the team in assists with 109 and second in field goal percentage with .564. He emerged as one of the premier point guards in the nation during his junior season, dealing a then-NCAA record 328 assists, which still ranks as the fifth-best collegiate single-season effort of all time. His 150 assists in BIG EAST games was also a league record. Jackson proved to be a capable scorer as he averaged 11.3 points per game. He was named first team All-BIG EAST and All-Met and was an AP honorable mention All-American.

In his senior season, Jackson was named the BIG EAST Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He was a second team All-America selection by AP, UPI and Basketball Weekly. He was the co-recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of the metropolitan area, and was a first team All-BIG EAST selection. Jackson averaged 18.9 points per game his senior season and finished his career with 1.328 points.

NO. 21 Malik Sealy

Malik Sealy is one of only three players in St. John's history to score more than 2,000 points for his career. His 2,402 career points places him second, only behind Chris Mullin, on the school's all-time scoring chart.

In his freshman season, he finished second on the team with a 12.9 points per game average and 197 rebounds, and also totaled 36 steals, 21 blocks and 67 assists, helping the team to a record fifth NIT title. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman team and was voted Rookie of the Year in the New York Area by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association. In his sophomore season, Sealy became only the sixth player in 5t. John's history to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons. He averaged 18.1 points a game, scoring 616 for the year, the 11th-highest total in school history. He was named second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Met that season.

As a junior, Sealy emerged as one of the top players in the nation. He averaged 22.1 points per game, which helped lead his team to an Elite Eight finish in the NCAA Tournament. Along with being named first team All-BlG EAST, Sealy was honored with the Haggerty Award, which is given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the metropolitan area. His 707 points that season is the third-highest ever in St. John's history. He was named MVP of the Lapchick Tournament that year after a 43-point performance against Central Connecticut State in the championship game. That marked the highest point total by a player in Alumni Hall history, a record that still stands today.

In his final season, Sealy was a consensus second team All-American, averaging 22.6 points per game. He was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival, as well as being named first team All-BIG EAST.

Sealy scored in double figures in 102 consecutive games, breaking Chris Mullin's record of 100 straight games. Sealy holds many records for St. John's, including most career field goals (900) and most career steals (238).

NO. 21 DICK MCGUIRE

To those St. John's alumni and fans of the 1345 and 1950s, there will always be one player — Dick McGuire. The numbers, of course, do not tell the story as the stats of today were not a part of McGuire's game. His playmaking ability, his superb court sense and his ball handling under fire are more representative of his career, and it was those qualities which brought him to the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

McGuire was a soft-spoken man who bore the nickname "Mumbles" for his quick and jumbled ways of conversation, and "Tricky Dicky" for his moves through the defense.

McGuire came to St. John's in 1943-44, a year St. John's won its second consecutive NIT title. He was given the first of two Haggerty Awards as New York City's outstanding collegiate player. Returning to St. John's after the war, he won a second Haggerty in 1949 while playing alongside his brother, Al. He joined the New York Knicks for the 1949-50 season and his long career in the NBA included service with the Detroit Pistons as a player-coach and with the Knicks as a bench coach. You really can't explain Dick McGuire's brilliance if you did not see him play, for seeing him under game pressure was the only evidence to make you believe.

NO.55 Wayd'sonny'dove

Lloyd "Sonny" Dove ranks 11th on the St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,576 career points and is second only to George Johnson as STJ's all-time leading rebounder with 1,036 career boards. Dove and Johnson are the only two St. John's players ever to score more than 1,000 career points and grab more than 1,000 career rebounds.

Dove played from 1964-67. In his first season, he averaged 13.8 points per game and led the team with an 11.7 rebounds per game average for Coach Joe Lapchick. He was named to the Holiday Festival All-Star team and to the NIT All-Tournament team that year. In his second season with the team and first with new head coach Lou Carnesecca, Dove was named to several All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, and a third team All-America by AP and UPI. Dove averaged 21.2 points per game and 14.2 rebounds per game that season, which also earned him first team All-Metropolitan honors.

In his final season at St. John's, Dove was once again named to several All-America teams including first team All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, second-team All-America by UPI and third-team All-America by AP. The New York writers named him the winner of the Haggerty Trophy, the metropolitan area's college basketball MVP. He averaged 22.4 points per game and 11.8 boards. Dove set the then-St. John's record in 1967 with 242 field goals in a season (which currently ranks eighth-best) and became the first St. John's player to ever grab 1.000 rebounds for a career.

NO. 24 Tony Jackson

Tony Jackson, a native of Brooklyn, starred for St. John's on the hardwood under Joe Lapchick, lettering three times from 1958-59 to 1960-61. A two-time consensus All-American, Jackson is currently listed 10th among all-time St. John's scoring leaders with 1,603 points. He is also third on the all-time rebounding list with 991 career boards. In his first season in 1958-59, Jackson helped the team to the Postseason NIT title, scoring 20.0 points per game. That year he was named Most Valuable Player of both the NIT and the ECAC Holiday Festival. He set a then-school record that season with 27 rebounds in one game (which currently ranks second best).

In his second season in 1959-60, Jackson earned consensus All-America honors and led St. John's with a 21.2 ppg scoring average, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau, while averaging 12.9 rebounds per game as well.

In his senior year, Jackson was the recipient of All-America accolades and won the Haggerty Award, given to the best collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. Jackson averaged 22.0 ppg that year.

Jackson was drafted with the first pick in the third round of the 1961 NBA Draft by the New York Knickerbockers. In 1968, he joined the ABA's New Jersey Americans, where he scored 19.4 ppg. In 1969, Jackson played for three ABA teams: the Houston Mavericks, the Minnesota Pipers and the New York Nets. He finished his ABA career with a 15.9 ppg scoring average.

NO. 33 Alan Seiden

One of the great guards in St. John's history, Alan Seiden is tied for 20th on St. John's all-time career scoring chart and is listed among program leaders in six free throw categories. He averaged double-figures every season of his career, including as a sophomore in 1957, when the sophomore was the team's second leading scorer with 273 points and a 11.9 points per game average.

As a junior in 1958, Seiden was named a Helms Foundation second team All-American. St. John's earned an appearance in the Postseason NIT and finished fourth, where Seiden performed exceptionally, averaging 21.0 points per game in the tournament. During the season, Seiden was the leading scorer for St. John's with 531 points (20.4 points per game) and 95 rebounds.

In 1959, Seiden repeated as team captain and had one of the greatest individual seasons in school history. Named a Helms and NEA first team All-American, and a Converse and Sporting News second team All-American, Seiden led the team in scoring for the second consecutive season with 570 points. He added 102 rebounds as well, and scored a career-high 38 points in a mid-season game against Loyola (Illinois). That year, Seiden led St. John's to a 17-7 record and a No. 17 (UPI) ranking. In the NIT the unseeded Redmen defeated Villanova St. Bonaventure and Providence to reach the tournament final. In the championship game, Seiden scored a game-high 22 points and St. John's downed Bradley, 76-71, in overtime.

FRANK ALAGIA

The best of the little men ever to play at St. John's, Frank Alagia played from 1972-76, and was Frank Mulzoff and Lou Carnesecca's floor leader. He finished his illustrious St. John's career with 478 assists, which was the most in school history until Mark Jackson (738). Jason Buchanan (665) and Eugene Lawrence (520) surpassed that mark. In addition, Alagia was one of only two players to win the Francis Pomeroy Naismith Award as the National Player of the Year for players 6-0 and under. Alagia led four St. John's teams to a combined 83-30 record and successful postseason accomplishments. In 1974-75, the team lost the consolation game of the NIT Final Four to Oregon in overtime, 80-76. In 1975-76, the team made it to the ECAC Championship before losing a thriller to Rutgers. 70-67, and was then ousted by Indiana in the NCAA Tournament.

GUS ALFIERI

Some things you have to take in pairs, and along with backcourt mate Alan Seiden, Gus Alfieri made up one of the finest tandems in school history. Alfieri and Seiden piled up victories in the late 1950s and starred in the 1959 NIT final with an overtime victory over Bradley. The duo were adept at reading each other's games, and also in seeing inside their opponents' to set up scoring plays that boggled the mind. Alfieri recorded a pair of double-figure scoring seasons, but statistics only tell part of his story. Alfieri and Seiden played as if joined at the hip, and they played basketball with a boundless joy.

RON ARTEST

Ron Artest was a first team All-BIG EAST selection as a sophomore after being named to the All-Rookie team following his freshman season. He declared for the NBA Draft following the 1998 NCAA Tournament, leaving St. John's 93 points shy of becoming a 1,000-point scorer. A solid all-around player, he averaged 13.1 points, 6.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.9 steals per game. He connected on 44.5 percent of his field goals (335-of-753) and 35.5 percent of his 3-pointers (92-of-259).

Artest was a unanimous selection to the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after finishing third on the team in scoring (11.6 ppg) and third in rebounding (6.3 rpg) in 1998. He also earned conference rookie of the week honors four times during the season, and was named to the BIG EAST Conference All-Tournament team after averaging 28 points and 14 rebounds in the Red Storm's two games.

HARRY BOYKOFF

Harry Boykoff played his first season in 1942-43 and led St. John's to its first NIT title with a team-leading 16.6 scoring average. The 6-9 center earned the MVP award of the sixth annual NIT after scoring 56 points in the three games. He was named to several All-America teams that year, including a selection on the All-America basketball team that appeared in The Sporting News, then the national sports newspaper. Boykoff also broke the Madison Square Garden record with a 45-point scoring spree against 5t. Joseph's.

Boykoff reappeared in 1945-46 after serving in the U.S. military during World War II. He led the team that year with a 16.5 scoring average and again the following year with a 16.7 mark. In that final season, Boykoff became the first St. John's player ever to score 1,000 career points.

GERRY RUSH

Gerry Bush starred for St. John's just as Madison Square Garden was coming into its own on the New York collegiate scene. The game of basketball was more precise then, with more detail than the speed of today, just a few years after the center jump following each basket had been eliminated. There was also no NBA then, so Bush, along with St. John's classmates like Bill Lloyd, joined the AAU Midwestern teams after his collegiate career. Bush played for the Akron Goodyear team for many years before entering the coaching ranks, where his teams won many games for the University of Nebraska, His team once notched a victory over Kansas when Wilt Chamberlain played for the Jayhawks.

GERRY CALABRESE

Gerry Calabrese came of age as a senior after playing part-time minutes his first two seasons. He averaged 10.1 points per game in the 1948-49 season. His head coach, Frank McGuire, labeled him the team's leader that season and teamed with leading scorer Dick McGuire to guide the Redmen to a 15-9 record. He played on two other winning teams (16-7 in 1946-47, 12-11 in 1947-48) and compiled a 43-27 record while wearing the Red and White for St. John's.

REGGIE CARTER

A standout for head coach Lou Carnesecca in the late 1970s, Reggie Carter played for three seasons at St. John's. He began his career playing half the season (14 games, 12.6 points per contest) as a key reserve in 1977-78 after beginning his career at the University of Hawaii. Carter two standout seasons were in 1978-79 and 1979-80, and for his career he averaged 15.0 points per game and amassed 1,061 points in a St. John's uniform. Carter will forever be remembered for leading St. John's to the NCAA Final Eight (defeating Temple, Duke and Rutgers) before losing to Pennsylvania 64-62 in the NCAA East Regional Final in Greensboro, N.C. He had a career high 39 points against Brigham Young on Dec. 16, 1978, in a 90-83 win at Alumni Hall

MEL DAVIS

Mel Davis played two seasons with St. John's before pursuing a professional basketball career, but it took only those two years for Davis to emerge as one of the great names in program history.

A 6-7 scoring and rebounding machine. Davis led the team in both those categories in his first season as a sophomore. That year, Davis grabbed 436 rebounds, fifth-highest nationally, and still the most ever garnered by a St. John's player in a single season. Davis averaged 16.1 rebounds per game, leading the team in 23 of 27 games. He also led the team in scoring with 561 points, the second-most points scored by a sophomore at St. John's up to that point. His high rebounding total and 20.8 points per game average earned him many honors. He was a five-time ECAC Star of the Week, he was named to the All-Metropolitan Team by the New York Basketball Writers and he was the recipient of the Frank J. Haggerty Memorial award as St. John's most outstanding athlete. He was also named to a host of All-America teams that year.

In his junior season, Davis was elected to several All-America teams, all-star teams and all-tournament teams as he followed up his great sophomore year with an equally impressive junior campaign. He averaged 21.1 points per game and grabbed 409 boards. Davis now ranks 38th on St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,130 career points and is ranked seventh on the all-time rebounding list with 845 career boards.

ALFRED "DUSTY" DESTEFANO

The former head coach of the Redmen, Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano finished his career 49-38 for a winning percentage of .563. DeStefano also played and tutored under Joe Lapchick from 1938-40. He was a part-time player who was more known for his defense and agility than his scoring prowess.

Leroy Fllis

LeRoy Ellis ranks 26th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,289 career points and fifth on the school's all-time rebounding list with 927 boards. Ellis still holds the school record for highest rebounding average in a season (16.5) and most rebounds in one game with 30 against NYU in 1961.

His great collegiate career spanned from the 1959-60 season through 1961-62. In his first season, Ellis averaged 10.6 points per game and was second on the team with 253 rebounds. In his second season, Ellis averaged 16.5 points a game, which was second best on the team behind Tony Jackson. In 1962. Ellis was named the recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the most valuable collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. He earned that honor by leading the team with a 23.5 scoring average and 430 rebounds. Ellis was named to several All-America, all-star and all-tournament teams during his illustrious career at

JAMESA. "BUCK" FREEWAN

Buck Freeman graduated from St. John's in 1927 and immediately became the head basketball coach at his alma mater. Prior to his coaching days. Freeman wore a St. John's uniform for Coach John Crenny. In his first season in 1923-24, he averaged 8.2 points per game, which tied for the team high. In his second season, he was third on the team in scoring with a 7.9 average. He averaged 6.5 points a game and helped lead his team to an 18-7 mark in his junior year. That year, Freeman had a team-high 31 points versus N.Y. State Agriculture. In his final season, he led the team with 6.8 points per game.

Freeman's years as head coach took St. John's to national prominence. In 208 games as head coach, Freeman's squad posted a 177-31 record for a winning percentage of .851, the highest in NCAA history. He assembled a club properly known as the "Wonder Five." In the four years these five — Matty Begovich, Mac Kinsbrunner, Max Posnack, Rip Gerson and Al Schuckman — played together, they compiled a record of 88 wins and eight losses, with four of the losses coming in their first season. Freeman's coaching theories changed the face of the game of basketball.

JOHN "TAPS" GALLAGHER

John "Taps" Gallagher earned a tremendous reputation as a coach at Niagara University where he was the entire athletic department for close to 40 years. He first was given his nickname in the 1920s, just before the "Wonder Five" days, when getting the center tap after each basket was vital. Gallagher coached high school basketball in New York before going to Niagara, where he had a superb career and delighted in knocking off his alma mater from time to time.

JACK"DUTCH"GARFINKEL

In the early days of St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame, many names were tossed around in deserved consideration for election. Walter McLaughlin, the beloved "Mr. Mac" of St. John's athletic annals, commented, "Don't forget Dutch Garfinkel."

Asked for more detail, McLaughlin simply replied that Garfinkel might well have been the best in St. John's baskethall history. While that can be debated, there would be many who would agree. Garfinkel played on both ends of the court at the same time with constant drive and with creativity. For many years he was a basketball official in the New York area, adding to his reputation in the game.

HY GOTKIN

The little man of St. John's "Mutt and Jeff" combination with Harry Boykoff, Hy Gotkin was often scurying down the court looking for methods to crush the opposition. That was mostly setting up plays, notably to Boykoff, the first tall tower in New York basketball. The "Mutt and Jeff" nickname stemmed from the comic strip featuring the big guy and a little guy. Gotkin led the 1943 and 1944 Redmen teams to the NIT title and was always available to help his alma mater in any way possible. He went on to serve as an administrator in the Brooklyn school system for many years.

ZENDON HAMILTON

Zendon Hamilton was part of head coach Brian Mahoney's highly touted recruiting class in 1994 that brought Felipe Lopez and guard Tarik Turner to St. John's. Hamilton would go on to impress and finish his St. John's career in the top five in several statistical categories. He is currently listed as the sixth all-time leading scorer with 1.810 points behind Chris Mullin, Malik Sealy, D'Angelo Harrison, Lopez and Bob Zawoluk. He is fourth all-time in rebounding with 946 boards behind greats George Johnson, Lloyd "Sonny" Dove and Tony Jackson. Hamilton also holds an individual career record for free throw attempts during his four years (1994-98) at St. John's with 912.

D'ANGELO HARRISON

D'Angelo Harrison, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST honoree, finished his career at St. John's third on the program's scoring list with 2.178 points and ninth in BIG EAST history with 1,178 points in conference games. The fiery competitor from Missouri City. Texas, started 120-of-125 appearances with the Red Storm and capped off a decorated career by guiding St. John's to its 28th NCAA Tournament appearance. Harrison averaged 17.4 points and led the team in scoring all four years in Queens. He registered double-figures in 107-of-125 contests and reached the 20-point plateau 53 times. The 6-foot-4 sharpshooter set a school-record with 264 career 3-point field goals and holds the single-season mark hitting 76 in 2011-12.

As a senior in 2014-15, Harrison finished second in the BIG EAST with 17.5 points per game, scoring in double-figures 30-of-33 contests, including 14 20-point performances and three 30-point efforts. Harrison was named to the 2015 All-BIG EAST First Team, NABC District 5 First Team and garnered Senior CLASS Award Second Team All-American honors. He was also named to the Portsmouth Invitational All-Tournament Team and participated in the NABC Division I College All-Star Game.

Harrison became the 21st player in program history to take home the Haggerty Award in 2013-14, which is presented to the top collegiate player in the metropolitan area. He was a four-time All-Metropolitan selection, earning First Team honors three times.

As a sophomore in 2012-13, Harrison registered the highest scoring average of his career at 17.8 points per game. Harrison burst onto the scene as a freshman collecting BIG EAST All-Rookie honors in 2011-12 after setting the St. John's freshman scoring record with 544 points, eclipsing Erick Barkley (500, 1998-99). His 17.0 points per game were second-best all-time for a 5t. John's freshman (Felipe Lopez, 17.8 ppg 1994-95).

Harrison collected BIG EAST Weekly Honors 20 times during his career, which includes four BIG EAST Player of the Week awards. He graduated top-10 in program history for career steals (156) and field goals made (660).

BRIAN MAHONEY

The BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 1993, Brian Mahoney served as an assistant coach under Lou Carnesecca for 18 seasons before being named St. John's head coach in 1992. In his first season at the helm, the Redmen won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains on Mahoney's first team included Lamont Middleton and David Cain. Mahoney served as head coach at St. John's from 1992-1996.

BOB MCINTYRE

Bob McIntyre stands tied for 22nd among St. John's all-time scorers with 1,349 points and is 25th among the all-time rebound leaders with 665. For his career, he played in 78 games and averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game. In his three years, St. John's compiled a 53-27 record and participated in the NIT all three seasons.

McIntyre's presence on this team in 1964-65 will always be remembered because it was the final year Joe Lapchick served on the St. John's bench. McIntyre played a key role in the team's NIT championship that sent Coach Lapchick off in grand style. In four NIT contests, he averaged 15.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. He scored 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds against Villanova in the NIT title game.

As a senior, he was one of the top players for rookie coach Lou Carnesecca in 1965-66. He scored the winning basket on Dec. 4, 1965 in a 64-62 overtime win at Georgetown to help land Carnesecca the first of his 526 car

CHARLES MINLEND

BILL PAULTZ

JACK MCMAHON

Brooklyn-born Tack McMahon was the ultimate role player for St. John's under head coach Frank McGuire from 1949-52. He was known for his great defense, adept floor leadership and an accurate two-handed set shot, which was his trademark. Inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame on September 21, 2000, McMahon led the Redmen to the 1952 NCAA finals in his senior season. He was named a NCAA All-American that year and was a first round pick of the Rochester Royals of the NBA. He was the first St. John's guard to score more than 1,000 points. finishing his career scoring 1.176 points in a St. John's uniform. He went on to a glorious professional career with the Royals and St. Louis Hawks, where his team beat the Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Bill Russell-led Boston Celtics in the 1957 NBA Championship.

CHARLES MINLEND

Charles Minlend played for St. John's from 1992-93 to 1995-96. His best season with the Red Storm came during the 1993-94 campaign, where he averaged 13.6 points and hauled in 224 rebounds for an average of 7.7 boards per game. Minlend was a warrior, and his many accomplishments on the court were magnified by his studies off the court, where he graduated with honors through the rigors of the University's five-year pharmacy program. He is also among the University's career leaders with 1,349 points (T-22nd) and 10th all-time in rebounding (784).

BILLY PAULTZ

Billy Paultz made a tremendous impact in his two seasons with St. John's. The 6-10 center from River Edge, N.J., had a career double-double average of 12.0 points per game and 10.1 rebounds. In his first season at St. John's after transferring from Cameron College, Paultz scored 225 points, grabbed 185 rebounds and helped St. John's to a 23-6 record and a NCAA East Regional appearance. That year St. John's beat second-ranked Davidson on a last second shot by Paultz in overtime. At the time Paultz was quoted as saying, "I had to make it or Coach [Lou Carnesecca] would have killed me."

The following year he had an even greater impact as he led St. John's to a second-place finish in the NIT. Paultz finished with a 15.8 scoring average and a 13.4 rebounds per game average. His 389 rebounds that year still ranks on the school's top 10 list and his 574 career rebounds places him 37th all-time. "The Whopper," as he was known because of his size and ample appetite, could have also referred to the size of his professional career, which spanned an incredible 15 seasons in both the ABA and NBA

Paultz was drafted in 1970 by San Diego. In his prime with the ABA's New York Nets (under Carnesecca) and NBA's San Antonio Spurs, he was a consistent double-figure scorer and proficient rebounder. Paultz was inducted into the St. John's Hall of Fame in 1997.

RON RUTLEDGE

Ron Rutledge owned a stellar playing career before becoming a long-time assistant under head coach Lou Carnesecca, in addition to Brian Mahoney and Fran Fraschilla. His tenure lasted 20 seasons on the Red Storm bench before retiring to pursue a career in administration at St. John's, working in the Alumni Relations Office. Rutledge was inducted into the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

MARTY SATALINO

A St. John's two-star athlete who was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991, Satalino was enshrined for both basketball and baseball. He played from 1952-55 and was a key contributor for head coach Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano's squads. Satalino's best season was the 1953-54 campaign, when he averaged 13.2 points in 20 games for the Redmen.

BILL SCHAEFFER

Bill Schaeffer scored 1,484 career points, a total that still ranks 14th on the St. John's all-time scoring list. He also added 622 career boards, placing him 29th on the all-time rebounding list, and hit at .560 percent from the floor for his career, good enough for fourth all-time.

Schaeffer began his career in 1970, when he averaged 14.4 points a game. In his junior season, Schaeffer averaged 17.1 points per game and posted a field goal percentage of .581, a St. John's record at the time. Schaeffer's excellence on the court as a senior earned him several All-America accolades, the most notable being a third team All-America selection by the Associated Press and United Press International. He also was the MVP of the 1972 ECAC Holiday Festival

As a senior in 1972-73. Schaeffer scored 643 points in 26 games for a 24.7 per game average, a school record that still stands today. His field goal accuracy of .594 that season broke his own record of .581. This mark currently stands sixth on the all-time list ranking him among the NCAA statistical leaders that season and earning him the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the Metropolitan area. Schaeffer's contributions to the 19-7 season were also felt in some team records set by St. John's, among them the highest team scoring average of 86.2 and the highest field goal average of 35.8 per game.

JOHN WARREN

John Warren's play in the late 1960s coined the term "swingman." as he played both inside and outside for head coach Lou Carnesecca. In addition, he always drew the toughest defensive assignment, Warren was perhaps St. John's most complete player, scoring 1.306 points in a career that spanned 84 games with 65 St. John's victories for a .774 percentage. At Georgetown one night, he was fouled as the buzzer sounded and calmly dropped home two free throws to send the game into overtime where he put a lid on the opposition's star and St. John's shut them out in overtime. Drafted by the Knicks, he played on the fabled 1969-70 team of Bill Bradley and Willis Reed, and spent seven years with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

As a freshman he stepped into a starting role for coach Lou Carnesecca and finished with an impressive 10.3 ppg scoring average. As a sophomore, the 6-5 guard averaged 11.8 ppg and 5.9 rpg. In his junior year, Williams entered the ranks of St. John's finest, reaching the 1000-point plateau. That year the Redmen reached a national ranking of No. 18, with Williams leading the team in scoring at 14.8 points per game. He was also second on the team in assists with 79.

Williams' greatest year was undoubtedly the 1976-77 season when, as captain of the Redmen, he scored 665 points, surpassing Bob Zawoluk's 26-year-old record for points in a season. The Virgin Islands native had a 21.5 ppg average and also handed out more than 100 assists for the year. His magical MVP performance at the Joe Lapchick Tournament saw him score 37 points against Fairfield in the championship game, just one point shy of a then-Alumni Hall record. Throughout his four years, Williams maintained a sharpshooters touch, never shooting less than .500 from the field. Carnesecca often referred to him as "the complete player," handing him the toughest defensive assignments to add to his huge offensive role.

Williams is currently fourth all-time in career field goals made with 712, and fifth in single-season field goals made with 256 in 1976-77. Following graduation, Williams was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks with the 27th overall pick, and then played professionally in the Eastern League and the Western Association

JAYSON WILLIAMS

One of the premier forwards in the NBA for 10 seasons, Jayson Williams retired in 2000 after a bout with nagging injuries. He was a NBA All-Star and one of the league's top rebounders during his tenure with the New Jersey Nets.

Williams was a standout performer at St. John's, playing three seasons under Hall of Fame Coach Lou Carnesecca from 1987-90. During that time his teams boasted a winning record of 61-35, made two trips to the NCAA Tournament and won the 1989 NIT Championship, where he was selected Most Valuable Player.

His best year was the 1988-89 campaign, when he averaged 19.5 points and 7.9 rebounds in 31 games. Williams was amazing from the floor that season, hitting on 236-of-412 shots for a .573 field goal percentage and knocked down 70.2 percent of his free throws (134-of-191) that same season.

The 1989 season also saw Williams named to the all-tournament teams for the Lapchick and ECAC Holiday Festival Tournaments. At the end of the season he received All-BIG EAST second team

His senior year was cut short by injury but not before Williams ended his St. John's career by posting 1,072 points, 490 rebounds and a .550 shooting percentage that still ranks among the top 10 in St. John's history.

BOB ZAWOLUK

Bob Zawoluk was the first St. John's player to average 20 or more points in a season. He currently ranks fifth on the all-time scoring list with 1,826 career points. He still holds St. John's records for most free throws made in a season (208), most points in a game (65) and most field qoals in a game (25).

Zawoluk played from 1949-52, leading St. John's to a 75-15 record. He keved the team in his first season with a 20.3 scoring average and he was named a Helms Athletic Foundation third team All-American. He led the team again the following year with a 21.1 points per game average and took his team to a third place NIT finish and third place regional finish in the NCAA Tournament. He was named a first team All-American by the Helms Foundation that year. In his senior year, Zawoluk led the team to its first ever NCAA championship game, averaging 18.9 points per game. He was a second team consensus All-American.
