News & Notes

- ▶ The Red Storm will kick off its final homestand of the year, welcoming Seton Hall to Madison Square Garden before closing out its regular season home slate with Xavier on Thursday at Carnesecca Arena. The Johnnies have won two straight tilts at home and are 14-3 in New York City this year, including a 10-1 mark at Carnesecca Arena.
- ▶ The Johnnies and the Pirates enter the weekend tied for third in the BIG EAST standings at 7-7, four games behind Villanova in second with four to play. Marquette sits atop the conference at 11-2 following back-to-back Villanova losses, including a defeat the hands of the Johnnies inside "The World's Most Famous Arena."
- ▶ The Red Storm will look to avenge an early season loss to the Pirates that came about in controversial fashion. Leading by one in the closing seconds of the contest, LJ Figueroa appeared to steal a Seton Hall inbound pass but the play was blown dead. What was deemed a "timing error" gave the Pirates another look at a game-winner, which Shavar Reynolds nailed at the buzzer. The loss was the first of the season for St. John's, who went 12-0 to start the campaign.
- ▶ 4-2 in its last six BIG EAST games with three Quad 1 wins in that span, St. John's saw both of its losses come at the hands of Providence. St. John's suffered its worst two offensive performances of the year against the Friars scoring 56 points on Feb. 9 before posting 59 on Wednesday night at Dunkin' Donuts Center.
- ▶ Checking in at no. 44 before its loss to Providence, the Red Storm now sits at no. 49 in the NET rankings as of Friday morning. The Johnnies now own six Quad One wins on the year, as Georgetown jumped 12 spots to no. 69 following its win over Villanova.

About the Series with Seton Hall

Record

St. John's leads 59-41, 34-31 in BIG EAST
(37-11 home, 12-26 away, 9-3 neutral)

Overview

St. John's and Seton Hall will meet for the 101st time in series history. The Pirates are St. John's fifth most frequently played opponent. The series began in 1909 and the programs have played every season since the 1963-64 campaign. Seton Hall has won six of the last seven meetings. The Red Storm's last win in the series was on Feb. 11, 2017 when Shamorie Ponds registered 17 points to help lift St. John's to a 78-70 victory at Madison Square Garden.

Coaches

Chris Mullin is in his fourth year as head coach at St. John's. He was named the 20th coach in program history on April 1, 2015. Mullin returned to his alma mater with nearly a decade of NBA front office experience in the Golden State Warriors and Sacramento Kings organizations. Mullin is one of only two current Division I coaches to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as a player.

Kevin Willard is in his ninth season at Seton Hall. He owns a 166-124 record with the Pirates and a 211-173 overall mark in 11 seasons as a head coach. Willard led Seton Hall to the 2016 BIG EAST Championship. He spent three seasons prior to Seton Hall leading Iona College.

Last Time Out

Providence 78, St. John's 59

February 20, 2019

Dunkin' Donuts Center - Providence, R.I.

St. John's struggled against Providence for the second time in as many weeks on Wednesday, falling to the Friars, 78-59, at Dunkin' Donuts Center.

St. John's failed to crack 60 points for just the second time this season; the other occasion came against Providence at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 9.

The Red Storm trailed by three with less than two minutes to go in the first half before Providence bridged the first and second half with a 17-5 run.

LJ Figueroa scored 16 points and recorded four steals for the third straight game. Justin Simon added 10 points while Marcellus Earlington chipped in a season-high 10 points in 11 minutes of action. Earlington also grabbed five boards and blocked a shot.

The Red Storm suffered a slow start to the evening, going without a bucket for the first 6:39 of game action. Providence scored on its first three possessions, but missed its next nine field goal chances and allowed the Johnnies to rattle off seven unanswered of their own.

Trailing by eight, 28-20, coming out of the half's final media timeout, St. John's scored five straight to pull within three on a Figueroa slam with just under two minutes to play in the period.

Providence outscored St. John's 6-1 down the stretch to take a 34-26 edge into the locker room.

The Friars scored the first five points of the second half to go up by double digits and never looked back.

BOLD denotes 2018-19 St. John's opponent

Five Things To Know

- ① With the Red Storm faithful anxious for revenge following a close loss to their longtime rival back in December, a raucous and overwhelmingly Red crowd is expected once again at Madison Square Garden. St. John's sold out its last Garden contest against then-No. 13 Villanova on Sunday, as 19,812 fans packed the seats of "The World's Most Famous Arena." It marked the first BIG EAST regular season sellout for St. John's since Feb. 4, 2012, against No. 2 Syracuse. St. John's has now won each of its last two games in front of a capacity crowd at "The Mecca," having defeated No. 4 Duke last season behind 33 points from Shamorie Ponds.
- ② The Red Storm will look to reach the 20-win plateau for the first time during Chris Mullin's tenure as head coach. Since inheriting a roster in his first year that returned just four percent of its scoring from the 2015 NCAA Tournament team, Mullin has increased his win total from the previous season in each of his ensuing three opportunities. St. John's has secured 20 wins three times in the last 10 years, winning 20 times during the NIT season of 2013-14 and emerging victorious 21 times in the NCAA Tournament campaigns of 2010-11 and 2014-15. In 24 seasons as the head coach at St. John's, Lou Carnesecca recorded 20 wins 18 times.
- ③ One of the nation's most prolific offensive talents, Shamorie Ponds has been slumping a bit as of late for the Red Storm. Over his last three games, Ponds is averaging 9.7 points per outing on 22.9 percent shooting (8-of-35) with a 2-for-11 showing from beyond the arc. He's also seen a dip in assists (3.7 apg) and steals (1.7 spg). On the season, Ponds has still put forth All-American worthy averages, ranking third in the BIG EAST at 19.5 points per game while checking at second in assists per game at 5.2. He also leads the league in steals (2.6) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.4-to-1). The Brooklyn native sits just one point away (1,726) from matching Glen Williams (1973-77) for ninth on the program's all-time scoring list. He is also tied for fourth with Marcus Hatten for fourth on the Red Storm's career steals list (205) and ranks sixth on the career assists chart (378). Chris Mullin is the only other player in St. John's history to rank inside the top 10 in points, assists and steals.
- ④ After going 4-for-20 from deep in a five-game stretch beginning with the Red Storm's win over Creighton, LJ Figueroa has once again found his stroke from distance over the team's last two outings. On Sunday against Villanova, the sophomore sank three of his four chances from beyond the arc in the second half, sparking a comeback that saw the Red Storm erase a 14-point deficit with just 12 minutes to play. On Wednesday in his native New England, Figueroa drained two of his four attempts from downtown. Not coincidentally, Figueroa has been the Johnnies' leading scorer in each of the last two games, pouring in 22 against the defending national champions before posting 16 at Providence. On the season, Figueroa ranks third on the team and 13th in the league with 14.4 points per game and is one of five Johnnies averaging double figures.
- ⑤ Despite suffering its second defeat in the span of 11 days at the hands of Providence, St. John's still managed to win the turnover battle of Wednesday night, coughing up 12 possessions while forcing Providence into 15 miscues. Averaging more than 17 points per game off turnovers this season, the Red Storm was only able to convert those 15 extra possessions into six points at Dunkin' Donuts Center. Through games played on Thursday, St. John's ranks fifth nationally with an average margin of +4.8 and 15th in Division I with 8.7 steals per contest. On the year, the Johnnies are outscoring their opponents by an average margin of 17.0 to 10.1 points off turnovers per game.

Scouting Seton Hall

• Seton Hall has won three of its last four contests with the Pirates most recent win coming at Creighton on Feb. 17. Myles Cale led four Seton Hall players in double-figures with 20 points on 8-of-13 shooting to lift the Pirates to an 81-75 victory in Omaha.

• The Pirates are coming off a one-point loss against Xavier on Wednesday at the Prudential Center. Naji Marshall scored a game-high 28 points for the Musketeers while Seton Hall shot just 23.1 percent (6-26 3FG) from distance in the setback.

• Seton Hall owns a 3-6 record in road games this season, which includes a 2-5 mark in BIG EAST road contests. Prior to their victory at Creighton, the Pirates lost five-straight conference road games after defeating Xavier, 80-70, on Jan. 2. In the five BIG EAST road losses, Seton Hall averaged 64.6 points per game and broke the 70-point mark just once.

• Junior Myles Powell ranks second in the BIG EAST and 24th in Division I averaging 21.7 points per game. The 6-foot-2 guard from Trenton, N.J., has hit 42 percent of the team's 3-pointers this season and ranks third in the league averaging 2.9 triples per contest.

• After ranking among the nation's best with just 10.8 turnovers per contest in non-conference play, Seton Hall has averaged 13.9 turnovers per game in BIG EAST action, which is the highest average in the conference. However, the Pirates have had their opponents cough up 13.5 turnovers per game in BIG EAST play, which is the third-best average in the conference.

1,000-Point Scorers

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Chris Mullin enters his fourth season as the head men's basketball coach at his alma mater in 2018-19.

Thirty years after leading St. John's to the highest point in program history with an appearance in the 1985 Final Four, the longtime NBA star and front office executive was named the 20th head coach in the University's storied men's basketball history on April 1, 2015.

Since inheriting a team in his first year that had lost 96 percent of its scoring from the season prior to his arrival, Mullin has orchestrated one of the nation's most impressive turnarounds in his brief time at the helm of his alma mater. The Johnnies boasted a six-win improvement in 2016-17, including seven BIG EAST victories in a league that sent seven squads to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, Mullin's second-year squad advanced in the BIG EAST Tournament for the first time since the 2010-11 with an opening round victory over Georgetown.

In 2017-18, Mullin led the team to an 11-2 record during the non-conference portion of its schedule, the best such mark of his tenure. The Red Storm capped off that stellar non-conference record with one of the most impressive wins in the recent history of the program, knocking off No. 4 Duke in front of a sold-out crowd of nearly 20,000 at Madison Square Garden. Just a few days later, Mullin guided the Red Storm to an accomplishment that had not been achieved since his senior year, as the Johnnies took down the nation's top ranked team with a Feb. 7 victory over Villanova in Philadelphia. For the second-consecutive season, Mullin led St. John's to a victory in the BIG EAST Tournament, knocking off rival Georgetown for the second time in as many postseasons.

With nearly a decade of NBA front office experience, Mullin spent two seasons working for the Sacramento Kings organization as a senior advisor from 2013-15, providing guidance to the owner and general manager regarding player transactions and supervising the organization's college and overseas scouting program. Mullin previously served five years as the Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Golden State Warriors.

One of the great collegiate and NBA players of all time, Mullin was inducted into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011. A two-time gold medalist who ranks seventh all-time on the USA Basketball Olympic scoring list, Mullin was first enshrined in Springfield in 2010 as a member of the 1992 United States Olympic team, also known as the original "Dream Team." He was the ninth individual affiliated with St. John's basketball program to be inducted into the national hall.

The most-decorated player in program history, Mullin is St. John's all-time scoring leader with 2,440 career points, starring at the University from 1981-85 under Hall of Fame Head Coach Lou Carnesecca. Mullin gave New York a four-year period to rival any other, leading St. John's to four-straight NCAA Tournaments. He was a two-time All American who also garnered consensus First Team All-America honors as a senior.

Mullin is the only player in conference history to be named BIG EAST Player of the Year three times (1983-85). He is also just one of three players to thrice win the Haggerty Award, an honor bestowed upon the best collegiate player in New York City. A member of the 1984 United States Olympic team, Mullin took home his first gold at the 1984 Games in Los Angeles.

In his final season at St. John's, Mullin averaged 19.8 points to lead the program to its second Final Four and its first No. 1 ranking since 1951. Mullin received the John R. Wooden Award at the conclusion of the 1984-85 campaign as the nation's top player. He was also named the Player of the Year by both United Press International and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

CHRIS MULLIN YEAR-BY-YEAR ST. JOHN'S RECORD AS A PLAYER

Totals	98-30	45-18

Mullin not only was the first St. John's player to reach 2,000 points, but he set career records for steals, field goals, and was top five in assists. He still holds St. John's career free-throw percentage and free-throws made records (84.7 pct, 682-of-805), and ranks in the top 10 in program history for 17 different statistical categories.

St. John's conferred Legacy Honors upon Mullin in 2005, permanently enshrining his No. 20 above Carnesecca Arena and at Madison Square Garden during St. John's home games. Mullin was also inducted into the St. John's Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2015.

Selected by the Golden State Warriors with the seventh-overall pick in the 1985 NBA Draft, Mullin spent 13 years of his 16-season NBA career with the organization. He became the sixth player in franchise history to have his jersey number retired when his No. 17 was hoisted to the rafters of Golden State's Oracle Arena on March 19, 2012.

Mullin scored 17,911 points over his career playing for the Golden State Warriors (1985-97, 2000-01) and Indiana Pacers (1997-2000). Mullin guided Golden State to five playoff appearances, and is joined by fellow Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain as the only two Warriors to average 25.0 points per game in five-straight seasons (1988-93).

Mullin was a five-time NBA All-Star for the Warriors (1989-93) and garnered All-NBA honors four times, including a selection to the All-NBA First Team in 1992. He averaged 18.2 points per game throughout his career while shooting 50.9 percent from the field and 86.5 percent from the free-throw line. Mullin still holds several Warriors franchise records including games played (807) and steals (1,360), and is fourth on the team's career scoring list.

Following his NBA playing career, Mullin worked in the Warriors' front office from 2002-09 and was named Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations on April 22, 2004. In this role, Mullin oversaw day-to-day operations, including college and international scouting, salary cap management and preparations for the NBA Draft. Mullin served as an NBA analyst for ESPN and ESPN radio for three years before joining the Sacramento Kings' front office on September 5, 2013 as Advisor to the Chairman.

One of New York City's greatest players, Mullin is among the most recognizable figures in the history of Big Apple basketball. The lefty from Brooklyn began his high school career at Power Memorial before starring at Xavierian for his final two years. Mullin led Xavierian on a run to a New York State Championship in 1981 and was named New York State's "Mr. Basketball" and a McDonald's All American that same year.

Born and raised in the Flatlands section of Brooklyn, Mullin and his wife, Liz, who is an alumna of St. John's, have four children, Sean, Christopher, Liam and Kiera.
