MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

The St. John's Men's Basketball Media Guide was published by the St. John's Athletic Communications office with the intent to serve all media and followers of Red Storm basketball. It is dedicated in memory of Jim O'Connell for his valued contributions to the St. John's basketball program.

Additional copies may be purchased for $25. Mail orders should include $3 for postage and handling.

The guide was written and edited by Stephen Dombroski, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations, with design and layout by Eddie Shabomardenly. Editorial assistance provided by Andrew O'Connell, Jared Anderson, Jim O'Connell and Paul Montella.

Photography by Vincent Dusovic, Errol Anderson, NBA Properties, NBAE, Getty Images and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The St. John's Athletic Communications staff extends its thanks to all BIG EAST and opponent sports information offices and all members of the past sports information staffs that have assisted in compiling information that is an integral part of this guide. Any corrections or additions to the media guide are welcome and should be directed, via email, to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the exclusive discretion of the St. John's University Athletic Communications Office. Due to COVID-19 protocols media space at Carnesecca Arena has been significantly reduced, however virtual credentials will be issued for media members to cover games remotely. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering St. John's University, the current-game opponent or another BIG EAST Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

4. Officially recognized St. John's University daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

6. All digital-only media outlets will be evaluated based on: a) purpose (e.g. newsgathering), b) news process/operation and c) traffic.

OTHER GUIDELINES

Credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to anyone but working members of a media outlet.

St. John's University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

Web sites that sponsor message boards or chat rooms where visitors are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are limited for credentials and access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium, but may not be granted additional passes or access.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors no later than one day prior to an event via www.sportssystems.com/StJohns. Requests on official letterhead should be sent to the Athletic Communications Office, Room 157 Carnesecca Arena, St. John's University, 8000 Utopia Parkway, Queens, NY 11439. They also may be faxed to 718-969-8468 or e-mailed to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN INFORMATION

Credentials for Red Storm home men's basketball games at Madison Square Garden should be sent to the Madison Square Garden Public Relations Department. Contact Larry Torres of the MSG Public Relations Department by phone at 212-631-5178 or fax at 212-465-6789.

GAME DAY MEDIA PARKING

No parking passes will be issued, but media may use the Blue Parking Lot on game nights for Carnesecca Arena games. Reserved parking can be secured upon request through the Athletic Com¬munications office as far in advance as possible. No parking passes will be issued at Madison Square Garden, where parking garages are located in close proximity to the arena. The media must pay to park in these garages.

MEDIA WORKING SPACE

Designated work areas will be assigned to media members on the concourse level of Carnesecca Arena. Media members are permitted to participate in the virtual postgame press conference from their designated work area. There will be no access to the media work room and a pregame meal will not be provided due to COVID-19 protocols.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must shoot solely from their assigned location on the concourse level of Carnesecca Arena for the entirety of the event. There will be no access to the court at any point on gamedays.

Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. No flash units, strobes or tripods of any kind are permitted. Freelance photographers will be granted credentials upon availability of space and at the discretion of the Athletic Communications office.

MEDIA SEATING AND WORK ROOM

Media seating will cater to working press on deadline. All other priority seating will be made at the discretion of the Athletic Communications office.

The media work room will be closed due to COVID-19 protocols. Credentialed media will be permitted to work at their assigned seating locations inside Carnesecca Arena beginning two hours prior to tip-off and two hours after the game has concluded. Wireless Internet, working facility electrical outlets and limited phones are available.

GAME DAY/HOME INTERVIEW POLICIES:

- The St. John's locker room is closed to the media following the game. The team is allowed the customary 10-minute cooling off period and time with the coaching staff to meet with the team after each game. A postgame press conference with Head Coach Mike Anderson and Red Storm student-athletes will be held virtually for all credentialed media. A direct link to the media availability session will be emailed prior to the start of the second half.
- The St. John's Athletic Communications staff will assist credentialed media with postgame virtual availability for the visiting coach and player(s). Student-athletes chosen for postgame interviews are at the discretion of the visiting Sports Information Director.
- The St. John's Athletics Communications staff will secure coach and student-athletes for the virtual interviews. Coach Anderson will participate with student-athletes, unless detained by radio/television interviews.
- St. John's press areas at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden will be run by the same rules and regulations. A time limit for coach/student-athlete interviews will be enforced, a 15-20 minute limit for coaches and a 10-15 minute limit for student-athletes.
- The only pregame interviews allowed on game days will be for St. John's radio, and local or national television productions. All requests for one-on-one interviews during game week will be facilitated by the Athletic Communications office. No game day interviews will be allowed unless specifically requested for televised games.

ROAD GAMES

- Coach Anderson/student-athletes will be available during the week of games for visiting print/radio by phone. No day-of-game interviews will be granted unless specific requests are approved for televised games.
- Conference calls can be arranged in specific instances, if requested at least one week prior to the game.
- Practices will be closed on the road unless otherwise specified by the St. John's Athletic Communications Office.
- Postgame and interview room policies will follow the guidelines and policies of the home sports information office.
- No interviews will be conducted at hotels on the road, unless previously approved for televised games.
- St. John's radio and television interviews with Coach Anderson and student-athletes will be granted first at all away games.

COVERING PRACTICE

St. John's basketball practices are closed to the public and the media. Should a practice be open, the Athletic Communications staff will notify reporters in advance.

RADIO POLICY

St. John's has Ethernet lines available to visiting radio stations at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden. Arrangements for Ethernet lines must be made through the Athletic Communications Office. All radio stations will be limited to three working credentials on press row.

St. John's is a Catholic, Vincentian, Metropolitan, and Global university that embraces the Judeo-Christian ideals of respect for the rights and dignity of every person, as well as each individual's responsibility for the world in which we live. As a University, we commit ourselves to academic excellence and the pursuit of wisdom, which flows from free inquiry, religious values, and human experience.

PRESIDENT

ENROLLMENT

Total enrollment in 2020 was 20,143 full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students. St John's student body was comprised of 15,693 undergraduate and 4,450 graduate students from 45 states, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, and 121 countries. There were 693 non-resident (international) students representing 91 countries. Forty-four percent of enrolled students were African-American, Hispanic, Asian, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, American Indian, Alaska Native, or of two or more races. During the 2019–20 academic year, 98 percent of undergraduate and graduate students received $417 million in financial aid with $303 million coming directly from the University. St. John's offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate programs, including 14 doctoral programs.

FACULTY

Ninety percent of full-time faculty members hold a doctorate or other terminal degree in their field. With our low 16:1 student-faculty ratio, St. John's offers personal attention to every student.

ST. JOHN'S LOCATIONS

The University has three residential campuses, in Queens and on Staten Island (NYC), as well as in Rome, Italy. The University also has a Manhattan (NYC) campus. In addition, St. John's has three academic locations: Hauppauge, NY; Paris, France; and Limerick, Ireland.

Queens, NY

Our wireless, 96.5-acre Queens, NY, campus features modern residence halls with state-of-the-art amenities such as cyber lounges, study rooms, and recreational facilities. In addition, there are three-story, townhouse-style residences on campus, as well as modern, centrally located, apartment-style housing near campus for graduate, law, and upper-class students. The 127,000-square-foot, five-story D'Angelo Center features banquet space, classrooms, club space, a food court, game rooms, lecture halls, a Starbucks café, and a first-floor lounge with a fireplace. High-tech classroom and laboratory buildings—as well as the 1.7-million volume library—are all designed to ensure student success. The Peter J. Tobin College of Business features the Lesley and William Collins Business Analytics Lab with an LED stock ticker measuring 76 feet and multiple Bloomberg Terminals. The Paul and Carol Evanson Career Services Center allows Tobin students to collaborate with their peers and interface with potential employers. The Lesley H. and William L. Collins College of Professional Studies (CCPS), located in St. Augustine Hall, includes five high-tech labs to prepare students for some of today's fastest-growing careers. The Homeland Security/Emergency Management Simulation Lab allows students to apply classroom theory to virtual, physics-based environments representing large-scale, natural, and manmade disasters. The Sanford Family Cyber Security Lab prepares students for intrusion detection, malware analysis, network forensic investigations, and other digital defense activities. In the IDEA (Innovation and Design Enhancing the Arts) Lab, Communication Arts students produce new content and test ideas. The Farella Innovation Laboratory is a hands-on design and test space where students learn how to develop new ideas and products and how to transform them into final, "sellable" content/output. The Computer Science Lab is a space for faculty and student collaborations on research projects. The Joseph and Ellen Tufano Control Office is at the heart of the CCPS labs—it functions as the command center for their operations.

Located in Sun Yat Sen Memorial Hall, the Inclusivity Resource Center is a space for authentic and informed student peer dialogue on topics of equity and inclusion. The Academic Center for Equity and Inclusion, located in St. Augustine Hall, serves as a central resource to support faculty as they continue to develop high-quality curricula that meet the needs of a diverse student population and promote inclusive excellence and equity in education. Just outside of Marillac Hall, the Media Arts and Design Lab supports programs in digital media, animation, art and design, advertising, and journalism, and the Technology Commons focuses on eSports, virtual reality technology, and 3D printing.

Staten Island, NY

Manhattan, NY

The University's campus in Manhattan is situated in the East Village, one of New York City's most vibrant centers of the arts, education, and technological innovation. The Maurice R. Greenberg School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science (GSRM)—part of The Peter J. Tobin College of Business—is located at the state-of-the-art campus. GSRM is a global leader in risk and insurance education and training.

Hauppauge, NY

The 11,000-square-foot Long Island Graduate Center is centrally located in Suffolk Country. With state-of-the-art classrooms, conference spaces, and other amenities, the site offers quality graduate programs for students enrolled in The School of Education. In addition, The Peter J. Tobin College of Business offers course work toward an M.B.A. and an M.S. in Accounting at the center.

Rome, Italy

St. John's residential campus in Rome, Italy, is a modern facility situated in the historic Prati section of the Eternal City. The four-story, 75,000-square-foot structure includes classrooms, a student and faculty lounge, space for more than 200 resident students, a chapel, library, courtyard, Campus Ministry, and administrative offices.

Paris, France

St. John's academic location in Paris, France, sits within the mother house, or Maison-Mere, of the French Vincentian community. With roughly 19,000 square feet of space, St. John's historic, six-story facility includes residences, classrooms, offices, and support services. Students enjoy convenient access to the wealth of academic, cultural, and artistic treasures available in the historic "City of Light."

Limerick, Ireland

At St. John's newest European location, students experience a rewarding immersion in the history and culture of Limerick, Ireland's fourth most populous city. The University partners with Mary Immaculate College to provide students with direct experience of a Catholic campus in Ireland.

COLLEGES AND MAJORS

Students at St. John's choose from more than 100 bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs—as well as courses of study leading to professional certificates—in six schools and colleges:

- St. John's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- The School of Education
- The Peter J. Tobin College of Business
- The Lesley H. and William L. Collins College of Professional Studies
- College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences
- St. John's School of Law

STUDENT RESOURCES

St. John's students have access to innovative digital resources. All first-year students have the opportunity to opt-in to the University's laptop program and connect to St. John's award-winning wireless network. Students are immersed in an expanding assortment of sophisticated specialized learning environments designed to enrich the academic experience and create professional atmospheres.

STUDENT OUTCOMES

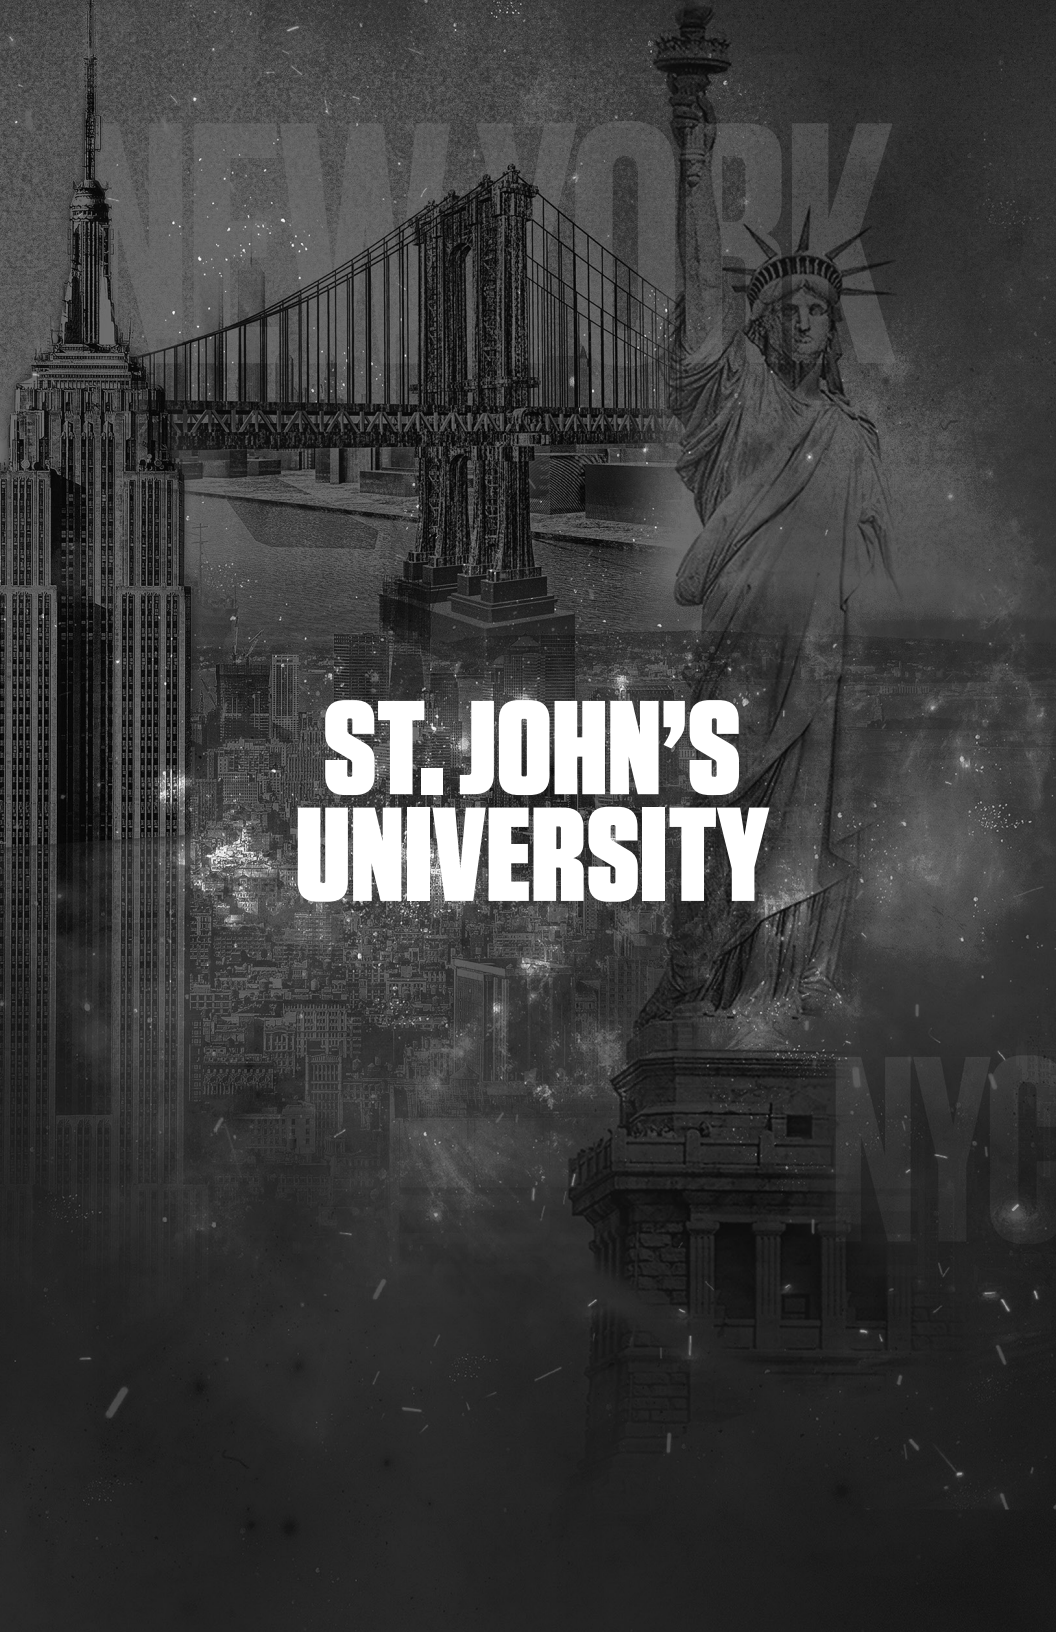
St. John's was number one among four-year Catholic colleges and universities on The Chronicle of Higher Education's recent ranking of student-mobility rates—a measure of how effectively institutions of higher education enroll students from low-income backgrounds and graduate them into well-paying jobs. St. John's was also ranked the number two private nonprofit university in the same report. In addition, 94.3 percent of 2019 undergraduate graduates were either employed or pursuing a graduate degree six months after graduation.

GLOBAL STUDIES

With a steady increase of St. John's undergraduates participating in at least one study abroad opportunity, the University has risen to 27th place nationwide among doctorate-granting American universities in the Institute of International Education's 2017 Open Doors® Report on International Educational Exchange. The report places St. John's in the top 10 percent in undergraduate study abroad participation in the country. Through the Discover the World: Europe program, students live and learn in three international cities for a single semester, and become immersed in the cultural, artistic, and economic life of each location. The University's extensive study abroad programs also allow students to experience sites throughout Europe, Asia, and Latin America.

ACADEMIC SERVICE-LEARNING

Course-related community service provides St. John's students with abundant opportunities to make a positive difference while gaining real-world experience. Through course work and reflection, students examine issues pertaining to social justice and responsibility. Areas include hunger and homelessness, health care, education/youth services, and civic engagement. Students also help those in need through the Midnight Run Program, University Service Day, and a variety of service plunges.



ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

CONRADO "BOBBY" GEMPESAW , Ph.D.

President, St. John's University

Conrado "Bobby" Gempesaw, Ph.D., is the 17th President of St. John's University, one of the nation's largest and most diverse Catholic universities with more than 21,500 students from 36 states and 119 countries. He is the first lay president in the 150-year history of the private, Catholic, and Vincentian university. St. John's University has three New York City campuses—in Queens, on Staten Island, and in Manhattan. The University also has a campus in Rome, Italy, and academic locations in Hauppauge, NY; Paris, France; and Limerick, Ireland.

Upon assuming his position as president in July 2014, he immediately instituted a comprehensive University-wide engagement process to solicit feedback and input on four specific strategic priorities identified in his investiture address:

- Ensure student success.
- Recruit, recognize, and retain the best faculty, staff, and administrators.
- Enhance the teaching and learning environment.
- Expand global and community partnerships.

The resultant Strategic Priorities Action Plan reflects the broad-based and inclusive process through which it was developed. The four strategic priorities reflect a commitment to shared ownership and shared responsibility to promote academic excellence and advance the Vincentian mission of St. John's University.

He is an accomplished scholar, teacher, and administrator, with more than three decades of academic and administrative experience and leadership in higher education. Prior to his appointment at St. John's University, he served as Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs at Miami University in Oxford, OH. Previously, he served as Dean of the University of Delaware's (UD) Lerner College of Business and Economics and Vice Provost for Academic and International Programs. He also served as Interim Dean of UD's College of Arts and Sciences and Chair of the Department of Food and Resource Economics. He joined UD as an assistant professor in 1985, was awarded tenure and promoted to associate professor in 1989, and was promoted to full professor in 1993.

His field of research and expertise is in higher education administration, financial simulation analysis, marketing, and international trade. He has published more than 100 journal articles and conference proceedings, and supervised 32 master's theses and dissertations. He earned his B.A. in Economics from Ateneo de Davao University in the Philippines, M.S. in Agricultural Economics from West Virginia University, and Ph.D. in Agricultural Economics from Penn State University. He was a recipient of the Outstanding Teaching Award from the University of Delaware's College of Agricultural Sciences and the Outstanding Alumni Award from Penn State University's College of Agricultural Sciences. He has been recognized with the 2017 Penn State Graduate School Alumni Society Lifetime Achievement Award and he was the speaker for the summer 2017 Penn State graduate commencement.

He is a member of the St. John's University Board of Trustees and Board of Governors and the BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors and served as the chair of the Steering Committee of the Lower Hudson Valley Catholic College and University Consortium. He is the BIG EAST Conference representative on the NCAA Division I Presidential Forum and is a member of the Presidential Steering Committee. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Mannington Mills, Inc.

He is married to Clavel Albay Gempesaw, who earned her M.A. and Ph.D. in Urban Affairs and Public Policy from the University of Delaware, and they are the proud parents of two sons: Daniel, who is married to Karen, and David, who is married to Nicole.

MIKE CRAGG

Director of Athletics

With more than 30 years of intercollegiate athletics administration experience on his resume, Mike Cragg enters his third year as the Director of Athletics at St. John's University in 2020-21. Cragg is responsible for providing executive leadership, strategic direction and oversight for all of St. John's 17 varsity sports and its nearly 350 student-athletes. In addition, he is charged with managing the department's fiscal affairs, personnel, strategic planning, facilities, general operations and public relations.

A key part of the University's senior leadership, Cragg serves on the President's Advisory Council and is the direct liaison between the Athletic Department and the broader campus community.

Cragg is committed to inspiring excellence in every facet of the student-athlete experience and to fostering an environment that allows the Red Storm to be successful on all fronts. Since his arrival in Queens, Cragg has helped St. John's continue to rise among the nation's elite institutions for its combination of its academic prestige, athletic achievement and community service.

In Cragg's two years leading the Athletic Department, the Red Storm won four BIG EAST championships and had six teams participate in national postseason competition with the fencing program capturing its first NCAA individual title in women's saber in 2018-19. The 2019-20 academic year featured the women's volleyball team's unprecedented run to its first BIG EAST title in 12 years while the men's soccer program earned a national seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Round of 16.

St. John's student-athletes have also shined in the classroom under Cragg's leadership, as Red Storm programs have earned nine public recognition awards from the NCAA for finishing in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR). In addition, 141 perfect semesters with 4.0 grade point averages were logged by St. John's student athletes over the last two years.

During the 2019-20 academic year, Red Storm student-athletes earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.51, including a 3.72 cumulative GPA for the spring semester. In total, 90 percent of student-athletes achieved a mark of 3.0 or better while 59 percent earned above a 3.5 cumulative GPA. Additionally, a program record 230 student-athletes were named to the BIG EAST All-Academic Team while a conference-best six St. John's programs received BIG EAST Team Academic Excellence Awards for posting the highest cumulative grade point average in the league for their respective sports.

Cragg has represented St. John's on NCAA and BIG EAST committees during his tenure. Most recently, he was appointed to a two-year term through 2021-22 as a member of the NCAA Division I Competition Oversight Committee. Cragg also serves on the Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association Executive Committee as well as the BIG EAST COVID-19 Task Force.

Prior to starting at St. John's on September 27, 2018, Cragg spent 30-plus years at Duke University where he played a vital role in shaping the direction of Duke's nationally acclaimed men's basketball program. The senior administrator for the men's basketball team for two decades, Cragg most recently served as the Blue Devils Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer, overseeing facilities and planning for all 27 of Duke's athletic programs.

In addition to spearheading Duke's operations, a key component of Cragg's role also included fundraising, as he helped create the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund near the turn of the last century. Since its implementation, the fund has raised more than $115 million to help support the Blue Devils basketball program. He was also instrumental in developing the program's naming gift endowment program that has received over $25 million in donations.

In his role leading Duke's facilities operations, Cragg was responsible for overseeing more than $300 million of renovation and new construction on campus from the year 2000 until his arrival at St. John's. He was a member of the pivotal strategic planning team and then chaired a Master Facilities Plan, which serves as Duke's blueprint and mission for the athletics department. Most notably, Cragg proved vital in the building of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center and Pascal Fieldhouse, which have served the needs of the Blue Devil basketball and football programs, respectively.

Cragg played a critical part in reconstructing Wallace Wade Stadium, the home of Duke Football, into a modern facility with improved fan-engagement and a superior gameday experience overall. A new club tower was constructed in 2016 that features 24 suites and a 750-person outdoor seating club.

Outside of football and basketball, Cragg also helped envision new facilities that have furthered nearly all of the university's programs. The Bostock Group, Duke's $150 million facilities planning organization with a specific focus on football, also benefitted from Cragg's leadership and vision. Created with the intention of elevating Duke Football while positively impacting all 27 varsity programs, the comprehensive plan began with the 2013 construction of new practice facilities for soccer and lacrosse. Additionally, the group also helped bring to fruition Morris Williams Track & Field Stadium and Kennedy Tower, the press and hospitality tower for Koskinen Stadium, the home of Duke's soccer and lacrosse teams. Finally, the Scott Family Sports Performance Center, featuring a new Nike team store and a 13,000 square-foot Olympic Sports Strength and Conditioning Center, was constructed.

During his time in Durham, Cragg served as the day-to-day contact with Nike, Inc., as part of a comprehensive all-sport partnership. He also held numerous administrative responsibilities within the basketball program, including the coordination of the annual K Academy basketball fantasy camp, the Duke Venture Capital Co-Investment Fund, the Coach K / Fuqua Conference on Leadership and the establishment of the Fuqua / Coach K Center of Leadership & Ethics (COLE).

After arriving in Durham in 1987 as an assistant sports information director, Cragg spent 10 years as Duke's sports information director beginning in 1990, handling the department's day-to-day media relations. He also aided in running media operations at the NCAA Men's Final Four on five separate occasions between 1993 and 2000.

Cragg was promoted to associate athletics director in 2004 before being elevated once again in 2008 to the role of senior associate athletics director.

Cragg plays an active role in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), serving on numerous committees and programs run by the organization. He also received a certificate in advance sports administration from the Sports Management Institute (SMI).

A native of Yakima, Wash., Cragg graduated from The University of Washington in 1986 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Paige, have two children, Shelby and Michaela.

KATHY MEEHAN

Senior Deputy Athletics Director/Senior Women's Administrator

Kathy Meehan is in her 45th year of service at St. John's University, dating back to her days as a women's basketball student-athlete in the early 1970s. Meehan was named Senior Deputy Athletic Director in December 2018 after previously serving as Associate Vice President for Athletics since June 2001.

As Senior Deputy Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator (SWA), Meehan oversees internal relations, Title IX compliance, human resources, strategic planning and enforcement of the student-athlete code of conduct. She is also the sports administrator for the Red Storm women's basketball, men's tennis, women's tennis, softball and volleyball teams. Meehan was the driving force behind the development of the Community Service Program and the LifeSkills program (now Student Development) at the University for all student-athletes.

Meehan has represented St. John's on numerous NCAA and BIG EAST committees during her tenure. Most recently, Meehan was appointed to the Division I Women's Basketball Oversight Committee, which works to enhance the development and public perception of the sport and make recommendations related to regular-season and postseason women's basketball. In addition, she currently serves on the NCAA's Event Certification and Recruiting and Scouting Services Task Force. Meehan is also the former chair of the conference's Senior Woman Administrator Committee, a member of the BIG EAST Championships Committee and BIG EAST Women's Basketball Task Force. Meehan previously served on the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee (2010–15), the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee (2005-09) and the NCAA Division I Recruiting and Athletics Personnel Cabinet. She was also the University's representative for the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Association from 2001-05.

Meehan graduated from St. John's in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in education, and earned a master's degree in counselor education from St. John's in 1979. As an undergraduate, she was a member of the first women's basketball team at the University (1974-75) and won the first Outstanding Female Student-Athlete Award that same year.

Upon graduation, she was hired as an Assistant Athletic Director for Women's Athletics, Women's Intramural Director and assistant basketball coach. She held those positions until 1980, when she was named Women's Athletic Director. Meehan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1985 and was appointed Senior Associate Athletic Director in 1993. She has also undertaken several stints as the department's interim athletic director when the position was left vacant.

Meehan was inducted into the St. John's University Hall of Fame in 1991. Her dedication and desire, plus long-tenured years of service did not go unnoticed, and in 1995 Meehan received the prestigious Vincentian Mission Award, which is presented to an employee who embodies "the mission of the University through purposeful and sustained service to others," while "manifesting her social consciousness with the University, as well as to the community and beyond." In 2001, she was honored for her 25 years of service to St. John's when she received one of the highest honors the University gives to its employees - the Pietas Media for her life's work at the University. During the 2000-01 academic year, she was also honored with the "Women of Distinction" Award.

Meehan was the recipient of the Woodruff Award in April 2003, presented annually by Adelphi University for excellence in coaching, teaching and educating young adults, while stressing that the athletics experience enhances the educational experiences and quality of life. In addition, she was inducted into the Phi Eta Sigma Society as an Honorary Member. In 2005, in honor of women's history month, she was given the "Legacy Award" for her advocacy work with women's issues. Meehan also received the "Honored Educator" award from Kappa Eta Chapter of St. John's University in April 2014 for her service to education and youth. In addition, Meehan has been honored by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, as she was the recipient of the organization's Distinguished Service Award in April 2018.

A member of the inaugural class of the Vincentian Mission Certificate Program, Meehan completed the 18-month program that reflects dedication to the Vincentian Mission and commitment to education that exemplifies the values of St. Vincent de Paul and partnership of St. John's ongoing service to the poor. She is also a member of the St. John's Chapter of the Ladies of Charity. Then in September of 2011 she was selected to participate in the Vincentian Mission Institute (a two-year program) which is a collaboration between the three Vincentian universities in the United States designed to enhance mission-related leadership capacity so that senior leaders are better able to serve the distinctive Catholic, Vincentian mission of their respective institutions.

Meehan has previously served on the Board of Directors for Our Lady of Mercy Academy High School in Syosset, NY.

Meehan and her husband, Lou, live in Jackson Heights, N.Y., and have two sons, Brian and Timothy, and have six grandchildren.

JOHN DIFFLEY

Deputy Athletics Director/Chief Operating Officer

John Diffley serves as the Deputy Athletics Director and Chief Operating Officer at St. John's University where he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Red Storm's 17 Division I athletic programs. In his role, Diffley oversees facility and operations, event management, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, sports performance, and he is an administrative liaison for head coaches and university leadership. Diffley is a member of the executive staff and provides administration and programming for key department functions.

Diffley's responsibilities include personnel management, capital projects, construction, strategic partnerships, planning, and fundraising. In addition, he is involved in maintaining and developing key partnerships, including the oversight of an exclusive all sports partnership with Nike, New York Presbyterian Hospital-Queens, Professional Physical Therapy and New York City Football Cub. Diffley played a key role in negotiating a 10-year extension with IMG College.

Diffley is a chief strategist for new or planned athletic facility renovation and construction and serves as the chair of St. John's Athletics Facilities Master Planning committee. During his time in Queens, Diffley has been involved in significant facility upgrades including the multi-phase renovation to Carnesecca Arena, an expansion of the sports medicine treatment area, renovation of sports performance training center, creation of an indoor golf practice facility, installation of a state-of-the-art turf field and track at DaSilva Memorial Field, and resurfacing Jack Kaiser Stadium.

Diffley serves as the sport administrator for men's soccer, women's soccer and baseball.

Diffley has represented St. John's on numerous committees during his tenure in Queens. He is a member of the BIG EAST Presidents' Award Selection Committee, chaired the NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Committee for two years, Chair of the BIG EAST Men's Soccer Committee, NSCAA Board of Governance Task Force, St. John's University Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity Cohort, St. John's University Capital Planning Committee, St. John's Campus Climate Committee, Vice President's Round Table, St. John's University Facilities Planning Group, the Strategic Priorities Review Team. Diffley was the Tournament Director of the 2013 NCAA Women's Basketball Championships First & Second Rounds, the Assistant Tournament Manager of the 2014 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional at Madison Square Garden and the co-Tournament Manager for the 2017 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional at MSG. Diffley has been honored for his dedicated service with the Outstanding Achievement Award at St. John's University.

Prior to becoming an administrator, Diffley was head men's soccer coach at Dominican College for two years and was a key member of St. John's nationally-recognized men's soccer program as an assistant coach for four years. In that span, the Red Storm reached the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 for four-consecutive seasons, and won two BIG EAST titles.

Diffley earned his master's of business administration at St. John's University; he spent three years working in the financial services sector for State Street Capital, a company that leads the industry in providing hedge fund infrastructure.

Diffley played professional soccer both in Europe and the United States and was the 27th player chosen in the inaugural Major League Soccer draft. Diffley also competed for the United States National Team, and was an alternate member of the 1988 United States Olympic Team. In college, Diffley led American University to the NCAA National Final, and the longest game in NCAA soccer history, an eight overtime loss to UCLA. For his on-field achievements, Diffley has been inducted into the Albertus Magnus Hall of Fame, American University Hall of Fame, and the Rockland County Sports Hall of Fame.

MICHAEL BARRY

Senior Associate Athletics Director/Chief Financial Officer

Michael Barry joined the St. John's University Athletic Department in August 2006 and currently serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs.

As the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs, Barry oversees the overall management of the department's budget operations, encompassing financial reporting, long term and capital planning, forecasting, internal controls, business operations systems and contract administration. Barry is also responsible for overseeing the ticketing unit for the Athletic Department, as well as serving as sports administrator for the men's basketball and baseball programs.

Barry came to St. John's from his alma mater, Iona College, where he spent six years in numerous roles, the last of which was Associate Athletic Director for Internal Affairs. In that role Barry managed the day-to-day internal operations for Gael Athletics, which included supervising varsity sports such as men's soccer, baseball and women's lacrosse. His responsibilities also included overseeing the department's Strength and Conditioning, Campus Recreation, Facilities, and Operations and Events units. He also contributed to the planning and construction of Iona's Hynes Athletic Center, oversaw the department's Human Resources efforts and assisted with development and marketing.

Prior to his elevation to Associate Athletic Director, Barry served as Iona's Assistant Athletic Director for Operations, managing the Gaels' athletic facilities and coordinating competition and practice schedules for all home venues.

Barry was a member of the Cross Country/Track and Field program at Iona College where he received a bachelor's degree in 2000 and went on to earn an M.B.A. from Iona's Hagan School of Business in 2003.

Currently, Barry serves as a member of the BIG EAST Cross Country Indoor/Outdoor Track & Field Committee. In addition, Barry is an active member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) and International Collegiate Licensing Association (ICLA).

STEPHEN DOMBROSKI

Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations

Stephen Dombroski was named Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations in July 2017 after previously serving as Associate Athletics Director for Communications at St. John's University since October 2014. Dombroski is a member of the athletic department's executive staff and in his role oversees the media relations and publicity for the department's 17 varsity athletic teams while serving as the primary contact for the men's basketball program. As Senior Associate Athletic Director, he also provides oversight for advertising, branding, creative services, marketing, multimedia and the St. John's University Television Network (SJU-TV).

Dombroski serves as a lead contact for external operations with Red Storm Athletic partners, such as FOX Sports, Learfield IMG College, Madison Square Garden and Nike. He also represents St. John's on the BIG EAST Conference Marketing Council.

Dombroski joined the St. John's staff after serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Digital Media & Communications at Seton Hall University. In this role, Dombroski directed media relations for the Pirates' 14 athletic programs. His primary responsibilities included managing publicity for Seton Hall's men's basketball program, while also serving as a communications and marketing liaison for partnerships with FOX Sports and Under Armour.

Prior to Seton Hall, Dombroski spent five years heading the Manhattan College Athletic Communications Office. Promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Communications & Marketing at Manhattan in 2010, Dombroski oversaw the external relations operation for the Jaspers' 19 NCAA Division I athletic teams.

Dombroski held senior administrative responsibilities in Riverdale, including serving as the primary athletics constituent on the Presidential Committee for Manhattan's institutional branding campaign with SME consultants. In addition, he held a lead role in the management of a major facility enhancement to Draddy Gymnasium in 2011, the largest improvement project since its construction in 1978. Dombroski also managed athletic marketing, sponsorships and directed all multimedia initiatives.

A native of Latham, N.Y., Dombroski came to Manhattan from Siena College, where he served as Assistant Sports Information Director. In this role, he aided in the public relations and marketing efforts for Siena's 18 NCAA Division I athletic programs. Dombroski helped supervise operations for home athletic events on campus and at the Times Union Center, a 13,000-seat off campus facility in downtown Albany that is the home court for Siena basketball.

Dombroski, a 2004 graduate of Siena College, holds a bachelor's degree of science in marketing and management with a minor in psychology. He earned a master's degree in business administration from Wagner College in 2006. Dombroski was a four-year member of the Siena men's lacrosse team. In 2003, he attended the NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Conference on behalf of Siena and the NCAA, a prestigious honor awarded to select student-athletes across the country. Additionally, Dombroski was a member of the MAAC Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), while also serving on Siena's Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Dombroski is an active member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

ERIC RIENECKER

Associate Athletics Director for Student Services

Eric Rienecker is in his 18th season with the Red Storm, and his 12th as the Associate Athletics Director for Student Services. Rienecker is responsible for the overall coordination of St. John's Student Development for Athletes and serves as the primary academic advisor for men's basketball student-athletes.

Rienecker has been instrumental in the growth of the student development program at St. John's, seeing a staff of three advisors blossom into a unit of nine full-time administrators and six graduate assistants. Rienecker and his staff operate out of the Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, which features a 54-seat study center, private tutoring areas, a conference room and new office space, all housed in Carnesecca Arena.

With Rienecker's leadership, the Student Development for Athletes program has received national recognition as a best practice from three different organizations. First in 2005, St. John's University was one of five institutions nationally to receive the National Basketball Association's Player Development Service Award. The award sponsored by the NBA recognized programs and individuals who provided innovative educational programming and support services with special focus on assisting men's basketball student-athletes. In 2008, the Student Development for Athletes program was recognized by the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) as an exemplary practice for its holistic approach to meeting the needs of the student-athlete population. NACADA showcased the Student Development for Athletes program in a Best Practice Monograph entitled Advising Student-Athletes: A collaborative Approach to Success, published in 2008. Then in 2012, the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) recognized the Student Development for Athletes Program by presenting Rienecker with the N4A Model Practice Award. The N4A Model Practice Award is given annually to the university or college that displays best practices in academic programming for student-athletes. Programs are judged upon innovativeness and use of creativity, recognition, effectiveness, measurability as well as applicability of the best practice. St. John's received commendation for its Faculty Engagement Program creating ways for faculty members to become more familiar with the student-athlete experience at the University.

Prior to St. John's, Rienecker served as Senior Athletic Academic Advisor at Rutgers University for seven years. During his stint at Rutgers, Rienecker was the primary advisor for football, field hockey, men's basketball, women's soccer, softball and women's lacrosse. As Senior Athletic Academic Advisor, he was also responsible for the development and supervision of the tutoring program, individual learning assistance program, study skills workshops and the supplemental instruction program for over 800 student-athletes.

Rienecker received his master's degree in athletic counseling from Springfield College, and is a 1995 graduate of the State University of New York at Plattsburgh, where he earned all-conference and all-New York regional honors as a member of the men's soccer team.

Rienecker currently resides in Bloomfield, N.J., with his wife Tara, who is the Director of Student Development for Athletes at Montclair State University. The couple has three children, Zachary, Brooke, and Avery.

DOUG TRANI

Associate Athletics Director for Compliance

Doug Trani is in his 11th year as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance at St. John's University. In this capacity, he oversees all matters pertaining to compliance with National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) rules and regulations. Trani came to St. John's University from Columbia University, where he served in a similar capacity from August 2006 to July 2007. Among his responsibilities were coordination and implementation of all aspects of compliance systems, and the development and implementation of rules education for staff members and outside constituents regarding Ivy League and NCAA legislation.

Trani spent three years (2003-06) as the Assistant Director for Compliance and four years (2007-11) as the Associate Director for Compliance at St. John's University before his current role.

Trani completed his master's of science from St. John's University School of Education in December 2003, while serving as the graduate assistant for the compliance office.

As an undergraduate, Trani was a basketball student-athlete at New York University where he was a co-captain in 1999 and appeared in the Division III NCAA Tournament in 1996, 1997 and 1998.

MIKE ANDERSON

HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

One of the most successful coaches in Division I over the past two decades, Mike Anderson was named the 21st head coach in the history of the St. John's Men's Basketball program on April 19, 2019.

After serving as the head coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks for eight seasons, Anderson quickly established a rock-solid foundation for Red Storm Basketball during his first season in Queens. Not only did Anderson carry forward the storied college basketball program's winning tradition on the court, the Johnnies achieved unprecedented success in the classroom and were stewards in the community.

Anderson, who enters the 2020-21 season with a career record of 386-215 (.642), has never had a losing season while at the helm of a college basketball program. In his 18 years as a head coach, he has led his teams to 12 postseason appearances, including nine trips to the Big Dance. His squads have advanced on six of those occasions, including a pair of Sweet 16 berths and a run to the Elite Eight in 2009. Most notably, he is one of only four current Division I coaches with at least 15 years of experience who has never endured a sub .500 campaign. His impeccable company in that respect includes Mark Few, Tom Izzo and Sean Miller.

In his first season at the helm of the St. John's Basketball program, Anderson guided a youthful squad featuring eight newcomers to 17 wins and had the Johnnies in position for a postseason berth. St. John's played some of its best basketball in March, winning three of its last four games and advancing in the BIG EAST Tournament before the season prematurely came to a halt due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Widely known for his up-tempo brand of basketball, Anderson's first team at St. John's was among the national leaders in 2019-20 for several statistical categories, including steals per game (2nd), turnover margin (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (23rd). Additionally, Anderson's first local recruit, Julian Champagnie, was one of several Johnnies to collect individual accolades this past season, as the Brooklyn native became the 21st player in program history to garner BIG EAST All-Freshman Team honors.

In the classroom, St. John's earned its first ever BIG EAST Team Academic Excellence Award, posting the highest cumulative grade point average among the conference's men's basketball squads. A program-record nine men's basketball players were also named to the 2019-20 BIG EAST All-Academic Team.

During his tenure at Arkansas, Anderson mentored 11 All-SEC selections, including 2015 Associated Press Second Team All-American Bobby Portis, the 22nd pick in the 2015 NBA Draft. In 2018-19, sophomore Daniel Gafford was a unanimous First Team All-SEC selection before being selected 38th by the Chicago Bulls in the NBA Draft.

Prior to his move to Fayetteville, Anderson spent five seasons as the head coach at Missouri, where he led the Tigers to a 111-57 (.661) overall record. Before his arrival, the Tigers had turned in consecutive sub .500 seasons. Over his final three campaigns in Columbia, Missouri went 77-29, highlighted by a run to the Elite Eight in 2009, a year in which the Tigers also posted 31 total wins and won the Big 12 Tournament. The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) presented Anderson with its National Coach of the Year Award for his efforts.

Anderson's first head coaching gig came at UAB, where he led the Blazers to 20-plus wins and a postseason berth in each of his four campaigns at the helm. Following an NIT Quarterfinal appearance in his first season, UAB made three-straight NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the 2004 Sweet 16 that featured wins over Washington and Kentucky, the year's number one overall seed.

Prior to taking over at UAB, Anderson spent 17 years at Arkansas as an assistant from 1985-2002, helping guide the Razorbacks to three Final Fours, including the 1995 national championship. A protégé of Nolan Richardson and his signature '40 Minutes of Hell' style, Anderson-led teams have topped the nation in steals four times and have ranked among the top 30 15 times in 18 seasons. His teams also led the country in assists once and have ranked among the top 30 on eight occasions. Seven times as a head coach, Anderson has seen his squads rank in the top 30 in scoring offense.

Anderson, 60, was recruited by Richardson to play at Tulsa following a stint at Jefferson Junior College. In his two years with the Golden Hurricane, Anderson averaged 12.0 points per game and helped lead Tulsa to an NIT title in 1981 before achieving an NCAA Tournament berth in 1982.

Upon his graduation from Tulsa in 1982, Anderson immediately became an assistant on Richardson's staff before departing with his mentor for Fayetteville in 1985.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Anderson and his wife Marcheita have three children: Darcheita, Michael Jr. and Yvonne. Michael Jr. played basketball for Anderson at Missouri while Yvonne played at Texas and currently plays professionally in Turkey. The couple also has six grandchildren.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

ABOUT ST. JOHN'S MEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD COACH MIKE ANDERSON

Lou Carnesecca, Former St. John's Men's Basketball Head Coach and 1992 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee:

"[Mike Anderson] comes here with a good book and there are some very fine chapters in it. The future looks bright."

Nolan Richardson, Former Arkansas Men's Basketball Head Coach and 2014 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee:

"Mike is a workaholic. If you look up the word workaholic, you'd see a picture of him. He is truly that. He has always demanded that hard work pays off. He is a workaholic on and off the court.

"In all of his seasons as head coach, he has never had a losing season and that pretty much tells you he's going to be in the hunt regardless of what type of talent he's got. He's going to be in the hunt and that tells you who he is.

"He's committed. That's one thing about him. He's the type of person you can trust at any stage of your life. He's a good human being. Loyalty is number one with Mike. Oh boy is he loyal and that's why I speak so highly of him. I've had some very good youngsters and kids that are still in coaching, but Mike was a little different and I'm so happy and proud of him that he is able to have gone this far and I see him going further."

Mike Krzyzewski, Duke Men's Basketball Head Coach, USA Basketball Senior National Team Head coach (2005-16) and 2001 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee:

"What a terrific hire for St. John's! Mike Anderson is a winner. Period. I have always been impressed with Mike, going back to his days as an assistant coach under the legendary Nolan Richardson at Arkansas. He has a championship level pedigree and is an accomplished coach at the highest levels of our sport. He is going to love working with Mike Cragg as together they'll build an elite culture and basketball program at St. John's."

Bobby Portis, 22nd Overall Pick in 2015 NBA Draft, Current Member of the New York Knicks, 2015 SEC Player of the Year and Second Team All-American at Arkansas:

"I believe St. John's has the perfect coach in Coach Anderson. The school and players will love him. He is a first-class guy that really dedicates himself to his craft. He will push his players to new limits that they have not gone before. I'm very excited for Coach Anderson as he begins his new path, and I'm also humbled to say that I am now a St. John's fan."

Dick Vitale, ESPN College Basketball Analyst and 2008 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee:

"Mike has a wealth of experience. People are going to love his style of play - high energy, fast paced - so excited for St. John's and NYC basketball."

Jimmy Dykes, University of Arkansas graduate and former Razorbacks Women's Basketball Coach, SEC Network analyst:

"I've known Mike for over 25 years. As a man, as a husband, as a dad and as a coach, he's outstanding in all of those areas. He will win and he will win by doing it the right way like he always has. He and his wife, Marcheita, will pour themselves into those players and the St. John's campus. They are difference-making people and St. John's has hired a tremendous leader for their tradition-rich men's basketball program."

Bill Raftery, FOX Sports and CBS College Basketball Analyst and former Seton Hall Head Men's Basketball Coach:

"He's taken a whole lot of the juice and hard work and toughness of Nolan [Richardson] and that style and modified it when necessary to the talent that he has. His teams have played with the same energy he's had throughout his coaching career and I've always been impressed with how he's been able to accomplish so much at Arkansas in one of the really tough, deep and talented leagues that we have in the country."

Joel Fisher, Executive Vice President, Madison Square Garden Marquee Events:

"The Madison Square Garden Company would like to welcome Mike Anderson as the 21st head coach of St. John's University. Madison Square Garden has hosted St. John's basketball for over 80 years and is excited for the Mike Anderson Era to begin."

In his second season as St. John's associate head coach, TJ Cleveland has been instrumental in setting the foundation for a basketball program on the rise by making an imprint on all areas, including recruiting, skill development and scouting. In 2019-20, he played a key role in guiding the Red Storm to a winning season with a young roster that featured eight newcomers. Cleveland has helped establish a high-energy brand of basketball at St. John's, which featured the Johnnies ranking among the national leaders in steals per game (2nd), turnover margin (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (23rd) during his first season.

Cleveland has been on staff with Mike Anderson for the entirety of the latter's head coaching career. Prior to his arrival in Queens, Cleveland helped guide Arkansas to the postseason five times in his final six seasons as an assistant coach with the Razorbacks, making three trips to the NCAA Tournament and a pair of NIT appearances. Arkansas posted a 169-102 overall record during his tenure in Fayetteville with four years of 22-wins or more, including 27 victories in 2014-15 to mark the program's highest single season win total in two decades.

Widely regarded as one of the top young coaches in the game, Cleveland has established a reputation as an avid and adept recruiter. In 2017 and 2018, Cleveland helped the Razorbacks land a pair of top 25 recruiting classes that featured seven of the top eight players in the state of Arkansas during that span. ESPN ranked Arkansas' 2018 class as the 25th best in the nation, as the Razorbacks pulled in a quartet of four-star and a pair of three-star recruits. In 2017, Arkansas' recruiting class checked in at no. 20 nationally according to ESPN with a pair of top 100 recruits highlighting the four-man class.

During his career, Cleveland has been invited to participate in Nike's Villa 7 Consortium five times and was one of only 30 assistant coaches in the nation selected for the College Coaching Consortium at the 2019 NABC Convention in Minneapolis.

A four-year letterwinner for the Razorbacks from 1998-2002, Cleveland began working on Anderson's staff immediately following his graduation with a degree in communications, signing on as the video coordinator at UAB for the 2002-03 season. After serving three years in that role, Cleveland rose to the position of assistant coach for the 2005-06 campaign, a season that saw the Blazers earn an NCAA Tournament bid and rank third nationally in steals per game.

Following their time at UAB, Anderson and Cleveland embarked together for Columbia, Missouri, where they spent five years resurrecting the Tigers' basketball program. Working primarily with the team's guards, Cleveland helped Missouri register three NCAA Tournament appearances in his half a decade with the program, including a run to the Elite Eight in 2009. That year, Missouri won 31 games and claimed the Big 12 Tournament title. Missouri was led by DeMarre Carroll, a first round selection in the 2009 NBA Draft and current member of the Houston Rockets, who Cleveland mentored during his time with the Tigers.

During Cleveland's tenure at Missouri, the Tigers ranked second in the NCAA in turnover margin for three straight seasons while leading the nation in steals during the 2009-2010 campaign. The previous year, the Tigers topped the nation in assists.

A teammate of Joe Johnson during his playing days at Arkansas, Cleveland has mentored nine future NBA players, including 2015 first round draft pick Bobby Portis during his most recent stint at Arkansas. In 2014-15, Cleveland helped guide Portis to SEC Player of the Year and Associated Press Second Team All-America honors.

With Cleveland on staff, Anderson-led teams have topped the nation in steals four times and have ranked among the top 30 15 times in 18 seasons. His teams also led the country in assists once and have ranked among the top 30 on eight occasions. Seven times as a head coach, Anderson has seen his squads rank in the top 30 in scoring offense.

As a player, Cleveland helped guide Arkansas to the 2000 SEC title, the lone conference championship in Razorbacks history. A two-year team captain, Cleveland made three NCAA Tournament appearances as a player in Fayetteville and currently ranks fifth on the program's all-time steals list.

VAN MACON

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

A Queens native with more than two decades of experience in the collegiate coaching ranks, Van Macon is in his second season on Mike Anderson's staff as an assistant coach.

A veteran coach with deep roots in New York City, Macon has been instrumental in keeping several local talents home in his short time at St. John's, including Brooklyn native Julian Champagnie, who was named to the 2020 BIG EAST All-Freshman Team. In addition to his prowess on the recruiting trail, Macon has played a key role in the program in scouting and skill development, primarily working with the Red Storm's post players.

Macon returned to Queens after three years on the staff of Travis Ford at Saint Louis. In 2018-19, Macon assumed the role of associate head coach and helped the Billikens capture the 2019 Atlantic 10 Tournament title and secure their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2014. Saint Louis registered 23 wins that season, the program's highest total since winning 27 games in 2013-2014.

Macon hit the ground running at Saint Louis in terms of recruiting. After joining the staff in April of 2016, Macon was integral in bringing a pair of four-star, ESPN Top 100 talents to campus from the class of 2017 in Jordan Goodwin and Hasahn French. He also helped land Michigan State recruit Javon Bess, who averaged 15.3 points and 6.8 rebounds per game for the Billikens in 2018-19. Macon also helped land a top 100 recruit for the class of 2018, securing a commitment from Carte'Are Gordon, a former member of USA Basketball's U17 National Team.

Prior to his arrival at Saint Louis, Macon spent six seasons on the staff at Rutgers under a pair of head coaches in Mike Rice and Eddie Jordan.

Before his stint in Piscataway, Macon enjoyed nine highly successful years at Hofstra under the direction of Head Coach Tom Pecora, who promoted Macon to the role of associate head coach for his final three seasons on staff. The Pride went to three NITs and a CBI while compiling a 155-126 mark in Macon's nine seasons. During Macon's final six years on staff in Hempstead, the Pride tallied four 20-win campaigns and won 121 games. In 2005-06, Hofstra tied a then-school wins record with 26, including a pair of victories over Final Four-bound George Mason. The Pride, who lost in the CAA Championship Game that year, went on to top Nebraska and Saint Joe's in the NIT before falling in the quarterfinals to Old Dominion.

At Hofstra, Macon helped recruit three New York guards that scored more than 2,000 points in their collegiate careers: Loren Stokes, Antoine Agudio and Charles Jenkins. Jenkins is one of only three individuals to ever win the Haggerty Award three times and went on to play in the NBA with the Golden State Warriors and the Philadelphia 76ers.

Before signing on at Hofstra, Macon also undertook stints as an assistant coach Adelphi, Marist, Lafeyette and Farmingdale State.

Macon graduated in 1994 from Southampton College, a former branch of Long Island University. A star on the hardwood at Southampton, Macon began his collegiate player career at Nassau Community College, where he graduated in second place on the school's all-time scoring list. He was inducted into Nassau's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Macon and his wife, Pam, have two sons, Eric and Mel.

STEVE DEMEO

Steve DeMeo is in his second season serving as assistant coach with the St. John's men's basketball program. DeMeo is involved in all aspects of the program, such as recruiting, player development and advance scouting.

Possessing three decades of experience across all levels of the college game, DeMeo previously served as the head coach of Northwest Florida State College, where he led the Raiders to a national title and was named the Spalding NJCAA National Coach of the Year in 2015. Under DeMeo's direction, Northwest Florida State turned in a six-year record of 170-27 (.863), earned an additional berth in the 2017 NJCAA Final Four and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2016, 2018 and 2019.

Under DeMeo's leadership, the Raiders captured the Panhandle Conference Championship five-straight years (2015-19) and earned four Florida College System Activities Association State Tournament Championships in 2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019.

A veteran coach with a track record of success, DeMeo also held lead roles at Division II Newberry College, as well as Monroe College and Bronx Community College. DeMeo has accumulated a 265-97 (.732) overall record as a head coach.

In his six seasons at Northwest Florida State, DeMeo collected FCSAA/NJCAA Region VIII Coach of the year honors four times (2015, 2016, 2018, 2019) and earned Panhandle Conference Coach of the Year recognition each of his last five seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019). DeMeo was also tabbed the top junior college coach in the country by Basketball Times in 2018 and received the Red Auerbach Coach of the Year award at the 2017 NCAA Division I Final Four.

Education: Buffalo (1987), B.S. in business administration

Widely known for his recruiting acumen, DeMeo guided Oregon-signee Chris Duarte to NJCAA Division I National Player of the Year honors in 2018-19 while 40 of DeMeo's former players have gone on to play in the Division I ranks. In addition, 42 of his 42 sophomores graduated at Northwest Florida State.

Prior to taking over at Northwest Florida State, DeMeo spent 17 years as an assistant at the Division I level, enjoying successful stints at Iona, Providence, UCF and Hofstra. His longest tenure came at Providence, where he served as an assistant from 1998-2004 before being elevated to the position of associate head coach from 2004-08. While at Providence, DeMeo played a critical role in recruiting Ryan Gomes, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST selection and consensus First Team All-American who went on to play the better part of a decade in the NBA. Gomes was selected 50th overall by the Boston Celtics in the 2005 NBA Draft after scoring 2,138 points in his four years with the Friars and was named to the NBA All-Rookie Second Team in 2006.

During his time at Providence, DeMeo was named one of the top-25 assistant coaches in Division I by Rivals.com and helped the Friars to five postseason appearances, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament. DeMeo led the Friars' recruiting efforts and was instrumental in landing future NBA Draft selections MarShon Brooks, the 25th overall pick in 2011, and second round draftees Herbert Hill and Marcus Douthit.

DeMeo followed Head Coach Tim Welsh to Providence from Iona, where the pair worked together from 1995-98. During those three years in New Rochelle, DeMeo helped lead the Gaels to a 70-22 record and three postseason appearances, including a berth in the 1998 NCAA Tournament after going 27-6. Iona qualified for the NIT in 1996 and 1997. In addition, the Gaels captured the MAAC regular season title every year and never had a season with fewer than 21 wins during DeMeo's tenure.

DeMeo's most recent coaching stop in the metropolitan area was at Hofstra, where he served as the Pride's associate head coach from 2010-13. In his first season at Hofstra, DeMeo helped lead the Pride to a 21-12 overall mark with a then-school record 14 Colonial Athletic Association victories and a CBI appearance. At Hofstra, DeMeo coached three-time Haggerty Award winner Charles Jenkins, who went on to play in the NBA for the Golden State Warriors and Philadelphia 76ers.

Prior to joining the Hofstra staff, DeMeo was the head coach at Newberry College for the 2009-10 campaign. Inheriting a roster that returned just 2.9 points per game, DeMeo successfully recruited 10 student-athletes for the 2009-10 season, including South Atlantic Conference All-Freshman Team unanimous selection Ryan Barnes.

DeMeo spent the 2008-09 campaign as an assistant coach at Central Florida. At UCF, he worked closely with 2009 Conference USA Player of the Year Jermaine Taylor, who finished his senior season ranked third in Division I averaging 26.2 points per game. DeMeo also mentored Conference USA All Freshman Team selection A.J. Rompza.

After beginning his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Queensborough Community College (1988-89) and LIU-Post (1989-90), DeMeo received his first head coaching opportunity at Bronx Community College from 1990-93. In his first season at the helm, the Broncos claimed the City University of New York Athletic Conference championship.

From 1993-95, DeMeo enjoyed unprecedented success at Monroe Junior College, where he produced a 53-8 record (.869) in his two seasons leading the Mustangs. DeMeo earned National Junior College Athletic Association Region XV Coach of the Year honors following each of his campaigns in the Bronx. In DeMeo's final season, Monroe finished the regular season as the top-ranked NJCAA team in the country.

A native of Bayside, DeMeo earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

PAUL PRESSEY

Longtime NBA player and assistant coach Paul Pressey is in his second season at St. John's serving as a special assistant to Head Coach Mike Anderson.

Pressey, a former teammate of Anderson's at Tulsa under legendary head coach Nolan Richardson, brings more than three decades of experience at the highest professional level with him to Queens. The 20th pick in the 1982 NBA Draft by the Bucks, Pressey played his first eight years with Milwaukee before undertaking a pair of seasons with the San Antonio Spurs and a brief stint with Golden State.

Widely regarded as one of pioneers of the "point-forward" position, the 6-foot-5 Pressey averaged 5.1 assists per game during his NBA career. He led the Bucks in that category for five consecutive seasons between 1984-89, including a career-best 7.8 assists per outing during the 1985-86 campaign. That season, Pressey ranked seventh in the league in assists with 623.

Pressey was also named to the NBA All-Defensive Team for three straight years between 1984-87, including a pair of first team selections in 1984-85 and 1985-86. In 1985-86, Pressey finished seventh in the NBA with 168 steals.

Pressey retired after the 1991-92 season only to be pulled into action during his first season as an assistant with Golden State when injuries wreaked havoc on the Warriors' lineup. Pressey played 18 games that season before being injured himself.

At Tulsa, Pressey earned Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press in 1982 after leading the Golden Hurricane to an NCAA Tournament appearance alongside Anderson. The pair also won an NIT title together at Tulsa in 1981.

Pressey spent two seasons on staff at Golden State before moving to San Antonio, where he served six years as an assistant with the Spurs. During his tenure in San Antonio, Pressey helped the organization win its first NBA title in 1999 after playing a key role in the development of 1997 top draft pick Tim Duncan.

After his time in San Antonio, Pressey undertook stints with the Orlando Magic (2000-04), Boston Celtics (2004-06), New Orleans Hornets (2007-10) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2010-2013). Most recently, Pressey served as an assistant with the Los Angeles Lakers from 2014-16.

Each of his last three assistant coaching placements came on the staffs of 2008 NBA Coach of the Year Byron Scott. In Orlando and Boston, Pressey worked under 2000 NBA Coach of the Year and 2008 NBA Champion Doc Rivers.

Pressey and his wife, Elizabeth, have four children. Both of the couple's sons, Phil and Matt, played for Anderson at Missouri. Phil was the no. 42 recruit in the high school class of 2010 according to ESPN and went on to finish as a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award. Phil played 148 games in the NBA between 2013-16, 125 of which came with the Boston Celtics. Pressey has two daughters, Ashley and Angie. Angie earned All-America honors in volleyball at UC Berkeley.

WILL BARTLETT

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

A member of Anderson's staffs at Arkansas and Missouri, Bartlett brings nearly a decade of high major Division I experience to his role as the Red Storm's director of player development.

In his role as the director of player development at St. John's, Bartlett acts as the chief of staff for the head coach and provides day-to-day administrative support within the men's basketball program. He serves as the program's liaison for athletic administrative areas as well as with community service. Bartlett will also oversee the academic progress of basketball student-athletes and coordinate off-the-court player responsibilities. In addition, Bartlett will be involved in team travel and video operations and analysis.

Bartlett signed on to join Anderson's staff at Arkansas in the summer of 2011 and played a key role in elevating the Razorbacks to national prominence over his eight seasons in Fayetteville. He was promoted to the role of Special Assistant to the Head Coach for his final season at Arkansas. Prior to that, he served as the program's coordinator of basketball operations from 2011-13 and the team's video coordinator from 2013-18.

During Bartlett's time at Arkansas, the Razorbacks made five postseason appearances, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament. Bartlett helped guide Arkansas to the postseason five times in the last six years and turn in four efforts of 20-plus wins. The Razorbacks' high-water mark with Bartlett on staff came when the 2014-15 team, led by eventual First Round NBA Draft Pick Bobby Portis, won 27 games and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Anderson has counted on Bartlett as a member of his staff since his first season at Missouri, where Bartlett was a four-year student manager before being retained as a graduate assistant. As a graduate assistant with the Tigers, Bartlett coordinated film exchange, organized the video editing process, assisted with scouting reports, oversaw the recruiting database and helped organize summer camps.

As the head student manager at Missouri, Bartlett helped coordinate visiting team practices, supervised summer camps, set up a training program for new managers and assisted with player workouts.

A native of Macomb, Ill., Bartlett and his wife Ashton, who were married in June 2016, welcomed their first child, Olivia, in November 2019.

CHRIS HUEY

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • FIFTH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Chris Huey is in his fifth season as a member of the St. John's men's basketball staff. He was elevated to director of basketball operations in 2018-19 after previously serving two years as a graduate assistant for the program.

As the director of basketball operations, Huey provides the day-to-day administrative support for the program and assists in organizing on-campus recruiting activities. His responsibilities also include assisting with scheduling, video operations and scouting reports, coordinating travel, managing gameday operations, maintaining the team's calendar, and serving as the program liaison for athletic administrative areas along with community service.

In his two seasons as a graduate assistant, Huey assisted with video operations, while providing support to the coaching staff in the preparation of statistical analysis and scouting reports.

Huey came to Queens after spending the 2015-16 season at Santa Clara working for head coach Kerry Keating. As the team's video coordinator, Huey managed the technical operations of capturing and coding practices and games, while also directing the implementation of video analysis into training and scouting activities. He also organized all video exchange and tracked statistical trends as advised by the coaching staff.

Prior to Santa Clara, Huey served as a men's basketball student manager and video intern at Kansas from 2012-15. The Kansas City native was part of three Big 12 regular-season championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances with the Jayhawks, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2013.

In his final year at Kansas, Huey practiced with the scout team and became the first manager in the Bill Self Era to suit up for a game. On Feb. 21, 2015 before a capacity crowd at Allen Fieldhouse, Huey played the final 35 seconds of an 81-72 victory over TCU.

A 2014 graduate of Kansas, Huey earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with a minor in business. Huey received a master's degree in sport management from St. John's in 2018.

Huey and his wife Allison (Griffin) met at the University of Kansas and were married on September 1, 2018.

RON BROWN

COORDINATOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Possessing more than three decades of experience at the highest levels of college basketball, Ron Brown is in his second season on Mike Anderson's staff at St. John's as the team's coordinator of basketball operations.

Brown, a Bronx native, served as the head coach of Florida A&M for three seasons from 1993-96. Upon stepping down from the head coaching role of the Rattlers, he served as an assistant athletic director in the department.

He returned to the bench after one year in his administrative role, serving as the associate head coach at Western Kentucky for the 1997-98 season. Following his brief stint in the Bluegrass State, he spent four seasons at LIU-Brooklyn, including a tenure as the team's interim head coach toward the end of the 2001-02 season.

Following his time with the Blackbirds, Brown spent eight years on the staff of Head Coach Tom Green at FDU, serving as the program's associate head coach. During his time in Teaneck, Brown's teams made two postseason appearances, advancing to one NCAA Tournament and one NIT.

Brown's last stint on a Division I staff before coming to Queens was at Binghamton, where he served as an assistant coach for two seasons ending in 2012.

Prior to his head coaching tenure at FAMU, Brown spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at West Virginia under the guidance of Gale Catlett. Brown's teams earned four NCAA Tournament bids and made three NIT appearances during that span.

Brown played his college basketball at John Jay, where he lettered four years and served as a team captain. He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from John Jay and pursued a master's degree in physical education at West Virginia.

THOMAS O'CONNELL

GRADUATE ASSISTANT • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

An instant fan favorite originally as a walk-on graduate student before earning a scholarship from Head Coach Mike Anderson in 2019-20, Thomas O'Connell returned to the Red Storm as a graduate assistant for the 2020-21 season.

During Anderson's first year at the helm of the Johnnies, O'Connell saw action in nine games as a reserve. With O'Connell providing veteran leadership, the Red Storm won three of its final four outings to finish 17-15 on the campaign.

Prior to arriving in Queens, O'Connell played four years of lacrosse at the University of Maryland, a highly successful career that was highlighted by a national championship in 2017. He appeared in all 35 of the Terps' games over his final two years and was named a team captain as a senior. A three-time Academic All-Big 10 selection, O'Connell also competed with the Puerto Rican National Team at the 2018 World Lacrosse Championships in Israel.

A local product from Mineola, N.Y., O'Connell was a star three-sport athlete at Chaminade High School, earning NSCHSAA all-league honors in both basketball and lacrosse. O'Connell was the 82nd ranked player in the high school class of 2015 according to Inside Lacrosse magazine.

O'Connell has deep St. John's roots in his family. Both of his parents, Tim and Tara, are double alumni of the University, holding both bachelors and masters degrees from St. John's. His mother, Tara, was a standout on the softball diamond, earning a pair of All-BIG EAST selections.

O'Connell's younger brother, Michael, is a freshman guard at Stanford. Like his brother, Michael was also an All-American lacrosse player in high school before ultimately choosing to pursue basketball.

JILL CHRISTENSEN, A.T.C.

ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR SPORTS MEDICINE • 28TH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Jill Christensen was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Medicine in November 2020. In her 28th year of service at St. John's, Christensen oversees the medical care for all 17 varsity teams while serving as the head athletic trainer for the men's basketball program.

Christensen returned to St. John's for her second stint as a member of the athletic training staff prior to the 2013-14 academic year. In her previous role as senior associate athletic trainer, Christensen worked primarily with the Red Storm women's basketball program while managing the day-to-day sports medicine operations that supports over 300 student-athletes. Christensen was a part of numerous postseason berths with the women's basketball program, including the team's run to the 2016 BIG EAST Championship.

An alumna of the University of Iowa, Christensen was a member of the training staff that went with the Hawkeye football team to the Rose Bowl in 1986. She initially came to St. John's in 1989 as the senior associate athletic trainer, a role that oversees injury prevention, rehabilitation and management for Red Storm student-athletes. In addition training staff duties for the ensuing 21 years, Christensen served as the Director of Equipment Operations from 2005-10 where she managed the department-wide partnership with Nike and ran day-to-day support for all Red Storm sports teams.

Outside of St. John's, Christensen is an active member in the local community through her volunteer work with numerous charitable organizations. Notably, she has played a major role in her work with The League of Yes in Long Island, a branch of the Miracle League, which she helped found in 2010.

Christensen holds a bachelor's of science in exercise science, sports medicine and athletic training from the University of Iowa, as well as a degree in massage therapy from New York College of Health Professions. She is a member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American Massage Therapy Association.

DUVAL KIRKALDY

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Duval Kirkaldy is in his third season at St. John's as the men's basketball program's strength and conditioning coach.

Kirkaldy came to Queens following a stint at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., where he served as the strength and conditioning coach for the Thundering Herd's men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball programs.

Prior to Marshall, Kirkaldy spent four years at UCLA working as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Bruins' men's and women's basketball teams.

Kirkaldy also has extensive international experience, having worked with professional teams in China. In 2013, he was the with the men's and women's Liaoning National team during the 12th National Games of the People's Republic of China.

Kirkaldy is not unfamiliar with St. John's, having interned at the university in 2010 with the men's and women's basketball programs.

Kirkaldy is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist from the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a Speed and Explosive Specialist Certification from National Association of Speed and Explosion. He is also a Licensed Massage Therapist since 2004. He earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science and health promotion from Florida Atlantic University and then earned his master's degree in rehabilitation science from California University of Pennsylvania.

JOANNE ZISSEL

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT • 15TH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

JoAnne Zissel is in her second year working with the men's basketball staff as an administrative assistant in 2020-21.

A newcomer to the men's basketball office, Zissel is no stranger to St. John's Athletics, having served in the same role in the Student Athlete Center for Excellence for 13 years before moving over to Taffner Field House.

Zissel lives in New Hyde Park with her husband, Anthony. The couple has two children, both of whom are St. John's graduates. Edward graduated in 2009 while Erica is a double alumna of the University, graduating with her bachelor's degree in 2012 before completing her master's degree in 2014. Erica is currently pursuing her doctorate of education in administration & supervision.

BROOKLYN, N.Y./THOMAS JEFFERSON/CLEVELAND STATE

Played in 29 games and made 15 starts during his first season with the Johnnies… sat out the first three games of the campaign before receiving an NCAA Legislative Relief Waiver… finished third on the team in scoring average with 11.9 points per game, good enough for 18th in the BIG EAST… team leader in assists with 3.4 per outing… finished ninth in the BIG EAST in assists per game and eighth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.8-to-1)… had one double-double… shot 76.9 percent from the free throw line, good enough for third on the team… led the Red Storm in both free throws made (103) and free throws attempted (134)… named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Jan. 13… scored in double figures 21 times, the second highest total on the team behind LJ Figueroa… made his St. John's debut with 13 points against Vermont (Nov. 16)… posted 14 points in each of his next two games against Columbia (Nov. 20) and Arizona State (Nov. 23)… went a perfect 7-for-7 from the line, including two game-clinching free throws, in the Red Storm's win over West Virginia (Dec. 7)… tallied 18 points and nine rebounds at Georgetown (Jan. 8) before going for 19 points and eight boards in the Red Storm's win over DePaul (Jan. 11) to earn a spot on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll… had 13 points and eight rebounds in the Johnnies' win at DePaul (Jan. 25)… posted a season-high 24 points against Villanova at MSG (Jan. 28)… scored 19 points and dished out a career-high 10 assists in the Johnnies' win over Creighton in Queens (March 1).

2018-19 (CLEVELAND STATE)

Sat out the season due to NCAA transfer regulations.

2017-18 (ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN)

Second Team All-NEC selection… made 30 appearances, 29 of which were starts… averaged a team-high 15.4 points per game… scored 20 points or more 11 times… also led the team in rebounding (5.7 rpg) and steals (1.8 spg) while finishing second on the squad in assists (2.3 apg)… one of just four players in the NEC to rank inside the top 10 in the league in both scoring and rebounding… anchored the Terriers to an eight-win improvement in NEC play, as the team finished its league slate with 10 conference wins after claiming just two such victories in 2016-17.

2016-2017 (ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN)

Led the Terriers in scoring at 13.1 points per game and posted 394 points overall, a program freshman record for the NEC era… made 112 free throws, also a St. Francis freshman record… led the team in rebounding (5.1 rpg) and steals (1.4 spg)… was named the NEC Freshman of the Week three times and scored 20-plus points on six occasions, becoming the first Terrier freshman to put up 20 or more points in a single game since 2009.

BEFORE COLLEGE

Starred at Brooklyn's Thomas Jefferson High School alongside Shamorie Ponds, as the childhood friends led the Orange Wave to its first PSAL title since 1954 and won the New York State Class AA Federation Title… was named the Co-MVP of the PSAL championship game at Madison Square Garden after scoring 23 points in a 29-point rout of New York City power Abraham Lincoln… earned a spot on the Federation All-Tournament Team after posting 21 points in the championship game against Aquinas Institute.

PERSONAL

Rasheem Lamont Dunn… born in Brooklyn… son of Bertha and Julian Geradeau… has three siblings: Jussiah, Jamir and Shakira.

JOSH ROBERTS

JUNIOR • FORWARD • 6-9 • 220

TROY, ALABAMA/MONTVERDE ACADEMY (FLA.)

2019-20

Played in 29 games and made 28 starts… averaged 5.0 points and 5.8 rebounds per game, the latter of which was good enough for second on the team and 12th in the conference… led the team and ranked fourth in the conference with 1.5 blocks per game… had eight games with three or more blocks… tallied four double-figure scoring efforts and three double-digit rebounding performances, but did not log any double-doubles… shot a team-best 53.7 percent from the floor… began the year with three straight seven-rebound efforts, including a 12-point, seven-rebound outing against New Hampshire (Nov. 12)… recorded back-to-back double-digit rebounding performances against Vermont (13- Nov. 16) and Columbia (11- Nov. 20)… scored a career-high 16 points on 8-of-12 shooting against UMass (Nov. 24)… narrowly missed a double-double with 12 points on 6-of-7 shooting and nine rebounds against Wagner (Nov. 30)… matched a career-high with 16 points and grabbed eight boards against Seton Hall at MSG (Jan. 18)… registered eight points and 10 rebounds at Villanova (Feb. 26).

2018-19

Played in 18 games and made one start as a freshman… averaged 1.2 points and 1.6 boards in 6.3 minutes of action per game… shot 44.0 percent from the field… had a breakout game against Providence at Madison Square Garden, grabbing five boards, four of which came on the offensive glass, in 14 minutes (Feb. 12)… scored a season-high eight points on a perfect 4-for-4 shooting effort against Xavier (Feb. 28)… made his lone start of the campaign and registered two blocks in 21 minutes at DePaul (March 3).

BEFORE COLLEGE

Came to St. John's from national powerhouse Montverde Academy, where he was a member of the prep national team under Head Coach Kevin Boyle … led the Eagles to a 32-0 record and a national title in 2017-18 … played for Southern Stampede on the Nike EYBL circuit … averaged 6.1 points, 6.6 boards and 1.8 blocks per game in the summer going into his final year of high school … also a football star at Charles Henderson High School in Troy, Ala., before heading to Montverde Academy … a consensus three-star recruit.

PERSONAL

Josh Roberts … born in Kingston, N.Y. … son of Arthur and Shelia Roberts … has three sisters: Kesha, Rasheena and Kayla.

MERCER	38	41	79
ST. JOHN'S	59	50	109

St. John's kicked off the Mike Anderson Era in style, recording the team's highest point total in more than 20 years with a 109-79 win over Mercer at Carnesecca Arena.

The last time St. John's scored more than 109 points prior to the 2019-20 season opener was a 115-70 win against Niagara on Jan. 4, 1999.

The Red Storm's 109 points were the highest total in a season opener in more than three decades, as the Johnnies last scored more to kick off a season in a 126-81 win over Southern on Nov. 28, 1986, behind a game-high 33 points from Willie Glass. The Red Storm's 109 points were also the highest ever recorded by a St. John's coach in his debut, eclipsing the previous mark of 105 set by Mike Jarvis in 1998.

The Red Storm's 59 first-half points were the most scored by the Johnnies in an opening stanza since posting 59 against Chaminade during the 2015 Maui Invitational.

NEW HAMPSHIRE	34	27	61
ST. JOHN'S	36	38	74

Led by 25 points from LJ Figueroa, St. John's used a late run to pull away from New Hampshire, 74-61, and remain unbeaten on the young season.

Figueroa also grabbed eight rebounds and swiped five steals in the win. The junior wing connected on five of his nine three-point attempts, marking his second straight outing with five made triples.

The Red Storm led by just three with six and a half minutes to go before blowing the game open with a 12-0 run. Julian Champagnie scored seven points on the tear, including a thunderous put-back dunk off a missed free throw and an old-fashioned three-point play. Figueroa added the other five points during the decisive spurt.

Champagnie scored 11 points on 5-of-7 shooting and pulled down nine rebounds. The Bishop Loughlin product also blocked a shot, marking his third outing in as many chances with at least one rejection.

VERMONT	26	44	70
ST. JOHN'S	31	37	68

St. John's erased a 10-point deficit to tie the game in the final minute of play, but Vermont's Anthony Lamb sank a game-winning jumper with two seconds to go as the Catamounts topped the Johnnies, 70-68, in Queens.

Trailing by nine with 3:19 to play in the second half, St. John's used a 13-4 run to tie the game at 68 on a Rasheem Dunn three with 19 seconds on the clock. Lamb, the reigning America East Player of Year and a Wooden Award Watch List selection, then nailed a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give Vermont the victory.

Vermont, the defending America East Champions who won 27 games the season prior, improved to 4-0 while the Johnnies fell to 3-1. Lamb finished with 23 points on 10-of-26 shooting and grabbed 13 boards for his third double-double in four tries.

COLUMBIA	27	36	63
ST. JOHN'S	49	33	82

St. John's used a balanced scoring effort and tenacious defense to drop Columbia, 82-63, at Carnesecca Arena.

Mustapha Heron led all St. John's scorers with 15 points on 5-for-10 shooting. The senior guard hit two of his three tries from downtown, improving his three-point field goal percentage to 65.0 percent on the year (13-of-20).

Playing just his second game as a member of the Red Storm, Rasheem Dunn posted all 14 of his points in the first half in addition to leading the team with three assists and three steals.

Freshman wing Julian Champagnie put forth another consistent performance for the Johnnies, finishing with a then-season-high 14 points to go along with seven rebounds and two steals in 21 minutes of action.

David Caraher and LJ Figueroa narrowly missed making it five in double figures for St. John's, finishing with nine points apiece.

ST. JOHN'S	37	41	78

A day after being undone by a strong second half from Arizona State, St. John's outscored UMass by 16 in the latter period to top the Minutemen, 78-63, and take home third place at the Air Force Reserve Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament.

Trailing at the half for the first time in 2019-20, St. John's limited UMass to just 21.2 percent shooting, including a 15.8 percent effort from three-point range, in the latter stanza.

Offensively, David Caraher made four of his five field goal attempts and scored 12 of his season-high 17 points in the second half. On the game, Caraher shot 6-of-8 from the field, including a 3-for-5 effort from three-point range. The redshirt sophomore did all of his damage in just 21 minutes of game action, 18 of which came after the intermission.

Kicking off a five-game homestand against Wagner at Carnesecca Arena, St. John's used a balanced scoring effort to cruise past the Seahawks, 86-63.

With the win, the Johnnies improved to 6-2 on the year, including a 5-1 mark in Queens.

Despite playing just 16 minutes due to foul trouble, Mustapha Heron scored a game-high 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting, including a 3-for-6 effort from three-point range. The senior guard also dished out three assists and blocked a shot in his limited time on the court.

SAINT PETER'S	23	46	69
ST. JOHN'S	37	42	79

Playing its final tune-up before a date with undefeated West Virginia at Madison Square Garden, St. John's withstood a late Saint Peter's run to down the Peacocks, 79-69, at Carnesecca Arena.

St. John's led by as many as 25 with eight minutes to play before a 19-2 Saint Peter's run cut the deficit to just six in the game's final minute.

LJ Figueroa led three St. John's players in double figures with 19 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including a 2-of-4 showing from three. The junior wing from Lawrence, Mass., made all five of his free throw attempts and also tallied six boards, three assists and three steals.

Mustapha Heron finished with 17 points while freshman Julian Champagnie registered his first career double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds. The Brooklyn native also dished out three assists and blocked a shot.

GAME #10
DEC. 7, 2019 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
WEST VIRGINIA	36	32	68
ST. JOHN'S	36	34	70

After watching West Virginia erase a nine-point deficit down the stretch, St. John's dug deep to outlast the previously unbeaten Mountaineers, 70-68.

With the score tied at 68, 40 seconds on the clock and the ball in the hands of West Virginia, the Johnnies forced a missed jumper from Taz Sherman on the baseline. Derek Culver came up with the offensive rebound for the Mountaineers and looked to have a clear path to the basket, but he was stripped by Rasheem Dunn.

Following a timeout, Dunn took possession of the ball with 16.5 seconds to go. After strategically running a few seconds off the clock, Dunn drove and drew a foul on Culver. The redshirt junior toed the line and confidently sank both of his free throws to put the Johnnies ahead, 70-68. Miles McBride then missed a potential game-tying shot at the buzzer, securing the Red Storm's first victory of the season at "The World's Most Famous Arena."

BROWN	24	47	71
ST. JOHN'S	41	41	82

Led by a pair of 20-point performances from LJ Figueroa and Mustapha Heron, St. John's withstood a late push from Brown to pull out an 82-71 victory at Carnesecca Arena.

Heron, who scored 13 of his 21 points in the second half, missed the final minutes the game after going down with a right ankle injury.

Figueroa netted a team-high 23 points on 7-of-16 shooting, including a 3-for-9 showing from three-point range. He also went a perfect 6-for-6 from the line.

As a team, St. John's set its second season-high in as many games for free-throw percentage, going 24-for-26 (92.3%) from the charity stripe.

ALBANY (NY)	22	35	57
ST. JOHN'S	35	50	85

St. John's secured its sixth straight win and its 10th overall of the season, wrapping a five-game homestand with an 85-57 victory over the University at Albany.

Playing without the services of Mustapha Heron, the Red Storm had four players finish in double figures while eight different Johnnies recorded at least six points.

Marcellus Earlington led the way for St. John's with 16 points on 8-of-10 shooting and fell just one rebound shy of his first career double-double with nine boards, six of which came on the offensive glass. Additionally, the sophomore from Stony Point, N.Y., blocked two shots.

Julian Champagnie also had an efficient night from the floor, tallying 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting to go along with six rebounds. The freshman from Brooklyn scored 12 of his 14 points in the opening seven minutes of the contest.

GAME #13
DEC. 21, 2019 – CHASE CENTER

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ARIZONA	26	41	67

After watching its 15-point lead evaporate and falling behind for the first time with just over a minute to play, St. John's dug deep and came up with a winning effort against No. 16/17 Arizona to pick up its first ranked victory of the season, 70-67, in the Basketball Hall of Fame Al Attles Classic at Chase Center.

Arizona took its only lead of the game with just 1:23 to play, as Max Hazzard drained the team's third 3-pointer of the night to put the Wildcats ahead, 67-66. With the Red Storm on a field goal drought of more than five minutes, Nick Rutherford drove and laid it in to quickly put the Johnnies back on top with just over a minute to go. The Red Storm then forced two misses from star freshman Nico Mannion before Greg Williams Jr. grabbed what would be the game-sealing rebound.

The Red Storm ended non-conference play with a record of 11-2, defeating an Arizona team that had only lost to squads currently ranked inside the top 10 nationally in Gonzaga and Baylor. Mike Anderson's 11 wins in non-conference play are a program record for a first-year head coach since the Johnnies joined the BIG EAST in 1979. Mike Jarvis won nine in 1998-99 while Steve Lavin won eight in 2010-11; both of those campaigns ended with an NCAA Tournament berth.

GAME #14
DEC. 31, 2019 – CARNESECCA ARENA

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
BUTLER	37	23	60
ST. JOHN'S	16	42	58

Trailing No. 11/10 Butler by as many as 23 in the second half, St. John's put forth a tenacious comeback effort to reclaim the lead in the closing minutes. The Bulldogs, however, held the Johnnies scoreless over the final 3:08 and scored the game's last seven points to escape Carnesecca Arena with a 60-58 victory.

St. John's outscored the Bulldogs, 39-11, during that crucial stretch before Butler closed the game on a 7-0 run.

Graduate student Nick Rutherford keyed the Red Storm's comeback effort, finishing with 15 points, five assists and a career-high six steals. All but two of his points and one of his steals came in the second stanza.

Three other Johnnies finished in double figures, as Rasheem Dunn scored 12 points, Greg Williams Jr. tied a then-career-high with 11 and Marcellus Earlington chipped in 10.

GAME #15
JAN. 5, 2020 – CINTAS CENTER

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	32	35	67
XAVIER	34	41	75

Playing its first true road game of the season, St. John's struggled offensively in a 75-67 loss to Xavier.

St. John's converted on just 24 of its 68 field goal attempts (34.8%), including a season-worst 1-for-16 showing from three-point range. The Red Storm also toiled at the charity stripe, going 18-of-29 (62.1%).

The Johnnies exhibited their characteristic defensive pressure against the Musketeers, forcing Xavier into 19 turnovers, 12 of which were the result of steals. The Red Storm, who entered the game ranked fourth nationally in steals per game, recorded 20 of its 67 points off Xavier turnovers.

The Red Storm surrendered just seven turnovers of their own, marking the team's third straight effort of eight or fewer.

LJ Figueroa scored a team-high 17 points while Marcellus Earlington, who reached double figures for the third straight game, added 12 points on 6-of-11 shooting to go along with a team-high six rebounds.

GAME #16
JAN. 8, 2020 – CAPITAL ONE ARENA

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	26	40	66
GEORGETOWN	53	34	87

A 27-point halftime deficit proved too much to overcome for St. John's, as a strong second-half came up short, 87-66, against Georgetown at Capital One Arena.

St. John's, which had committed no more than eight turnovers in any of its previous three games, tallied 10 first-half turnovers, as Georgetown took a 53-26 lead into the locker room. The Johnnies shot just 25.8 percent from the floor, including a 2-for-14 showing from three-point range, in the opening half.

LJ Figueroa recorded his fourth outing of 20 or more points on the season, finishing with 23 points and five rebounds.

Rasheem Dunn netted a then-season-high 18 points in addition to logging nine boards, four assists and four steals. With his 11th point of the night, Dunn, who played two seasons at St. Francis Brooklyn before arriving at St. John's, reached the 1,000-point mark for his collegiate career.

Marcellus Earlington chipped in eight points and six rebounds for the Johnnies.

GAME #17
JAN. 11, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
DEPAUL	34	33	67
ST. JOHN'S	39	35	74

St. John's won its second game of the season at Madison Square Garden, picking up BIG EAST win number one of the Mike Anderson Era with a 74-67 victory over DePaul.

The Red Storm rebounded from some recent offensive struggles to shoot 40.3 percent from the floor. St. John's valued the ball against the Blue Demons, surrendering just eight turnovers and assisting on 23 of their 25 made field goals.

"I'm really happy for our guys," said Anderson after the win. "I thought they've been fighting, fighting, fighting. It's good to see them finally get over the hump."

Rasheem Dunn set a then-season-high point total for the second straight outing, leading the way with 19 points on 7-of-13 shooting. The redshirt junior guard from Brooklyn, who made his first start as a Johnnie, also finished with eight boards and five assists.

JAN. 15, 2020 – DUNKIN' DONUTS CENTER

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	26	32	58
PROVIDENCE	31	32	63

St. John's whittled its deficit down to two on a pair of occasions in the final two minutes, but the Johnnies were unable to close the gap, falling to Providence, 63-58, at the Dunkin' Donuts Center.

LJ Figueroa scored a team-high 12 points and narrowly missed a double-double with nine boards, five steals and two blocks. The junior wing made just two of his 13 attempts from three-point range. As a team, the Red Storm went 6-of-24 from beyond the arc.

Figueroa led four Johnnies in double figures on the evening. Rasheem Dunn tallied 11 points and six boards while Greg Williams Jr. and Marcellus Earlington chipped in 10 apiece. Williams Jr. shot 4-of-7 from the floor while Earlington went 5-for-8.

SETON HALL	30	52	82
ST. JOHN'S	43	36	79

Leading the no. 18 team in the nation by 13 points after 20 minutes of action, St. John's was unable to hold off Seton Hall in the second half, falling to the Pirates, 82-79.

Despite the loss, St. John's had its best offensive showing of conference play to that point, scoring 79 points and shooting 44 percent from the floor. Seton Hall enjoyed a distinct advantage from the charity stripe; however, making 22 of their 27 free throw attempts, including nine of their last 10 down the stretch. St. John's, on the other hand, went just 9-of-15 from line on the afternoon.

Myles Powell scored 23 of his game-high 29 points in the second half, going 9-for-11 from the floor in the latter stanza. The senior guard scored his 2,000th career point early in the second half and hit five of the Pirates' final six field goals.

Mustapha Heron scored 18 points to lead St. John's, going 6-of-13 from the floor and 2-of-4 from beyond the arc.

GAME #22
JAN. 28, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
VILLANOVA	39	40	79
ST. JOHN'S	26	33	59

Taking on the nation's eighth ranked team, St. John's proved unable to withstand the Wildcats' offensive onslaught as the defending BIG EAST champs prevailed, 79-59.

Rasheem Dunn was a bright spot for the Red Storm, posting a season-high 24 points on 10-of-16 shooting. The Thomas Jefferson High School product finished just one point shy of his career high set in December of 2017 while playing for St. Francis Brooklyn. Dunn also led the squad with five boards and four assists.

LJ Figueroa was the only other Johnnie to finish in double figures, scoring 12 points to go along with five rebounds.

The Wildcats shot 47.5 percent from the floor and connected on 12 3-pointers. Villanova also committed just 13 turnovers and won the rebounding battle, 40-31.

GAME #23
FEB. 2, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
GEORGETOWN	29	44	73
ST. JOHN'S	38	34	72

Georgetown led just once in the second half, but it was on the only possession that mattered, as an Omer Yurtseven layup with 10 seconds remaining sealed a 73-72 win for the Hoyas at Madison Square Garden.

The 73-72 advantage was the first for Georgetown since leading 20-19 with nine minutes to play in the first half. The Red Storm, which led by as many as 17 early in the second half, committed a turnover on the game's final possession.

After surrendering no turnovers in the opening 20 minutes of action, the Red Storm coughed up 12 possessions in the latter half. The Hoyas subsequently converted those 12 second-period miscues into 12 points.

The Hoyas shot 57.1 percent from the floor in the second half after the Johnnies limited Georgetown to just 28.6 percent shooting in the opening period.

FEB. 8, 2020 – CHI HEALTH CENTER OMAHA

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	37	45	82
CREIGHTON	47	47	94

St. John's recorded its highest scoring total of BIG EAST play to date, but it was no match for the offensive onslaught of Creighton, as the No. 21/22 Bluejays pulled away for a 94-82 victory.

The Red Storm pulled within two points on a pair of occasions near the midway mark of the second half before the Bluejays outscored the Johnnies down the stretch, 32-22. On the game, Creighton shot 60.3 percent (35-of-58) from the floor, including a 13-for-28 effort from three-point range.

Marcellus Earlington registered the best offensive outing of his St. John's tenure, scoring a career-high 25 points on 10-of-17 shooting, including a 3-for-4 showing from beyond the arc. The sophomore from Stony Point, N.Y., also pulled down a career-best 10 boards for his first collegiate double-double. Coming into the contest, Earlington had made just three triples all season long.

Two other Johnnies reached double figures in the scoring column, as LJ Figueroa and Mustapha Heron finished with 12 points apiece. The pair combined to go 5-of-9 from three-point range.

FEB. 12, 2020 – CARNESECCA ARENA

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
PROVIDENCE	25	44	69
ST. JOHN'S	33	47	80

St. John's matched a season-high for turnovers forced and shoot 42.9 percent from three-point range in an 80-69 victory over Providence.

After forcing a season-low eight turnovers against Creighton in its previous outing, the Red Storm returned to its roots, guiding the Friars into 24 miscues. The Johnnies, whose opponent registered 24 turnovers for the fourth time on the season, converted those extra possessions into 22 points. The Red Storm, who recorded just one steal against Creighton, came away with 12 against the Friars.

LJ Figueroa led a balance scoring effort for the Johnnies, tallying 19 points thanks in part to a 4-of-9 showing from beyond the arc. He recorded four of the team's 12 thefts.

GAME #26
FEB. 17, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
XAVIER	39	38	77
ST. JOHN'S	37	37	74

Leading by five with less than two minutes to go, St. John's saw Xavier score the game's final eight points, as the Musketeers escaped with a 77-74 victory.

Four Johnnies finished in double figures, led by Rasheem Dunn and Marcellus Earlington with 17 points apiece. Dunn scored 12 of those points after the break, while Earlington tallied all but two of his points in the final 20 minutes. Earlington also added a team-high eight boards and two steals.

Nick Rutherford stuffed the stat sheet, scoring 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting with seven assists, five rebounds and three steals. The graduate student recorded 14 of his 16 points before the intermission. Julian Champagnie scored all 11 of his points in the opening stanza.

The Johnnies dominated the possession game, forcing 22 turnovers while committing just four of their own. The Red Storm recorded 15 of those 22 turnovers via the steal, just one off their season-high in that category. The Johnnies' four turnovers marked a season-low.

FEB. 23, 2020 – PRUDENTIAL CENTER

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	22	43	65
SETON HALL	36	45	81

St. John's suffered an 81-65 defeat at the hands of No. 16/14 Seton Hall in Newark.

LJ Figueroa led the way for St. John's with 19 points on 6-of-17 shooting, including a 4-for-9 effort from three-point range. The junior wing also went 3-for-3 from the charity stripe and collected four rebounds.

Julian Champagnie recorded a double-double for the third time on the season and the second time in his last five games, finishing with 14 points and a then-career-high 11 rebounds. Champagnie scored in double figures for the fourth time in his last five outings, a stretch that saw the freshman average 12.0 points and 8.0 rebounds.

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	34	26	60
VILLANOVA	36	35	71

Trailing by two with eight minutes to play, St. John's could not keep pace with No. 12/12 Villanova down the stretch, as the Wildcats won their fifth straight decision, 71-60, at Finneran Pavilion.

Saddiq Bey scored 23 points to lead Villanova while freshman Justin Moore added 21.

Four Johnnies finished in double figures for St. John's. Rasheem Dunn and Marcellus Earlington scored 12 apiece while Julian Champagnie and Greg Williams Jr. added 10 each.

Dunn tallied a game-high five assists while Champagnie led the team with six boards, three steals and a pair of blocks.

St. John's committed a season-low four turnovers for the second time in the team's last three games.

GAME #29
MARCH 1, 2020 – CARNESECCA ARENA

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
CREIGHTON	37	34	71
ST. JOHN'S	44	47	91

In his two seasons at St. John's, Greg Williams Jr. had never scored more than 11 points in a single game heading into the Red Storm's March 1 contest against Creighton. The sophomore guard forever etched his name in St. John's lore that day, connecting on seven 3-pointers and leading the Red Storm to a 91-71 win over No. 10/11 Bluejays.

The win marked the first for the Johnnies against a top-10 opponent on campus since Feb. 28, 1987, when the Redmen knocked off No. 9 Pitt at Alumni Hall. The 20-point margin of victory tied for the third widest in program history against a top 10 opponent and was the largest for St. John's against a top-10 foe since Malik Sealy tallied a 25-point, 18-rebound double-double in a 90-57 rout of No. 6 Connecticut at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 1, 1992.

As a team, the Red Storm connected on 14 of its 22 tries (63.6%) from beyond the arc, setting season-highs for both made triples and three-point percentage. St. John's, which entered the game ranked 307th nationally in three-point percentage, had not made more than 46.7 percent of its long-range tries in any one game on the season.

MARCH 4, 2020 – HINKLE FIELDHOUSE

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	32	23	55
BUTLER	31	46	77

Leading by one at the half, St. John's struggled to keep pace in the latter stanza, falling to Butler, 77-55, in Indianapolis.

After shooting 41.9 percent from the floor and 57.1 percent from three in the first half, the Red Storm sank just 31.0 percent of its total shots and 22.2 percent of its 3-point tries in the final 20 minutes. Butler, on the other hand, converted on 56.7 percent of its field goal tries after the intermission, including six triples.

Julian Champagnie was a bright spot for the Johnnies, as the freshman scored a season-high 23 points on 9-of-14 shooting. The Brooklyn native registered his then-highest scoring total as a member of the Red Storm by halftime, netting 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting in the opening 20 minutes. The Bishop Loughlin product drained all four of his three-point attempts in the first half.

Greg Williams Jr. finished in double figures for the third consecutive outing, tallying 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting and grabbing five rebounds.

GAME #31
MARCH 7, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
MARQUETTE	28	58	86
ST. JOHN'S	47	41	88

After watching his team's 21-point lead dwindle down to two in the final minute, Julian Champagnie came up with some late-game heroics for the Red Storm, sealing an 88-86 win over Marquette to close out the regular season.

The freshman from Brooklyn scored the team's final field goal of the afternoon, laying in an offensive rebound to put the Johnnies up seven, 87-80, with 1:17 to go. Trailing by two following a few clutch shots form Sacar Anim, Marquette regained possession down by two with 11 seconds to play. All-American Markus Howard brought the ball into the front court with a clear lane to the basket and a shot send the game into overtime. Champagnie slid into the paint and stripped the reigning BIG EAST Player of the Year, giving St. John's the ball back with less than three seconds to go and all but assuring the Red Storm a victory.

Champagnie registered his fourth double-double of the campaign, posting 21 points and a season-high 12 boards. The freshman, who scored 23 in his previous outing at Butler, also tallied two blocks and a pair of steals. He shot 7-for-16 from the floor, including a 2-for-5 effort from deep.

Greg Williams Jr., who also made a key defensive effort in the final seconds of the contest, finished in double figures for the fourth straight game, netting 17 points to go along with four steals and three assists. Williams came up with a steal as time expired following two missed St. John's free throws to eliminate a last-second chance for Marquette.

MARCH 11, 2020 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1ST	2ND	TOTAL
ST. JOHN'S	33	42	75
GEORGETOWN	42	20	62

The shots weren't falling, the Hoyas couldn't seem to miss and the Johnnies trailed by as many as 15 in the second half. All signs pointed towards a first round BIG EAST Tournament exit for St. John's.

Somebody forgot to tell Marcellus Earlington.

The sophomore forward scored 10 consecutive points on a 23-0 St. John's run to end the game, as the Johnnies erased a 10-point deficit in the final 6:30 to defeat Georgetown, 75-62, in front of a raucous Madison Square Garden crowd.

Earlington registered the second double-double of his St. John's career, finishing the contest with 19 points and 10 rebounds. He scored 17 of his 19 points after halftime, going 6-of-9 from the floor and a perfect 3-for-3 from three in the latter stanza.

The Red Storm's 15-point comeback marked the largest for St. John's in the 41-year history of the BIG EAST Tournament. The Johnnies sank six of their final eight field goal attempts during the game-ending run.

HISTORY & HONORS

1952 NCAA FINALISTS

Accused by basketball fans and writers alike as undeserving of their surprise NCAA bid after a hasty and unexpected ousting from the NIT by La Salle, St. John's set out for Raleigh, N.C., determined to at least justify its presence in the Eastern Regionals. The justification would have to come at the expense of the host team, NC State, which had won 29 successive tournament games at home.

The Redmen, as they were known, needed to beat Coach Everett Case's team in order get a chance to avenge an 81-40 loss to Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats, who defeated them earlier in the year. Rupp's squad routed Penn State in its NCAA opening round game, 82-54. After falling behind early, St. John's, led by Dick Duckett's outside shooting, surged back to take a 28-25 halftime lead. In the third period St. John's wrapped things up, outscoring NC State 19-8. In the end it was St. John's 60, NC State 49 with four St. John's players hitting double figures. Bob Zawoluk was the high scorer for St. John's with 12 points, followed by Duckett and Jack McMahon, who each had 11 apiece. Jim Davis added 10, flicking in five set shots.

In the second round the speculation was that it would take a miracle for the Redmen to upend the Wildcats. Frank McGuire's boys took the court hoping to keep it respectable. For a change, St. John's came out relaxed from the start. In their first meeting against the Rupp men down in Lexington, St. John's shot just 16.7 percent going 10-for-60; in Raleigh, SJU shot 24-for-53 (45.2 percent). St. John's took the early lead and never looked back. Zawoluk and McMahon were sensational in their scoring efforts. Zawoluk set a new NCAA scoring record with 32 points in the game. Ronnie MacGilvray won over the crowd with his rebounding and stifling defensive play.

The spark generated by the unbelievable Kentucky triumph carried over to the next game. St. John's had a heart-stopping 61-59 win over favored Illinois in Seattle, Wash. The following night in the championship game, Kansas' Clyde Lovellette personally brought the high-flying Redmen back to earth. The massive center broke the NCAA record for points set days before by Zawoluk with a 33-point performance. The Jayhawks went on to defeat St. John's, 80-63, in the NCAA championship game to capture the crown.

1985 NCAA SEMIFINALISTS

On their way to the second Final Four appearance in school history, the Redmen began the journey slowly in Salt Lake City, easing past Southern University, 83-59, before escaping Arkansas, 68-65. Against Southern, St. John's had three players who scored 20 or more points, led by Walter Berry's 24 with 13 rebounds. Bill Wennington contributed 23 while Chris Mullin added 21 in the game. Mullin keyed the Redmen to the victory over Arkansas with 26. Joe Kleine had 23 for the Razorbacks.

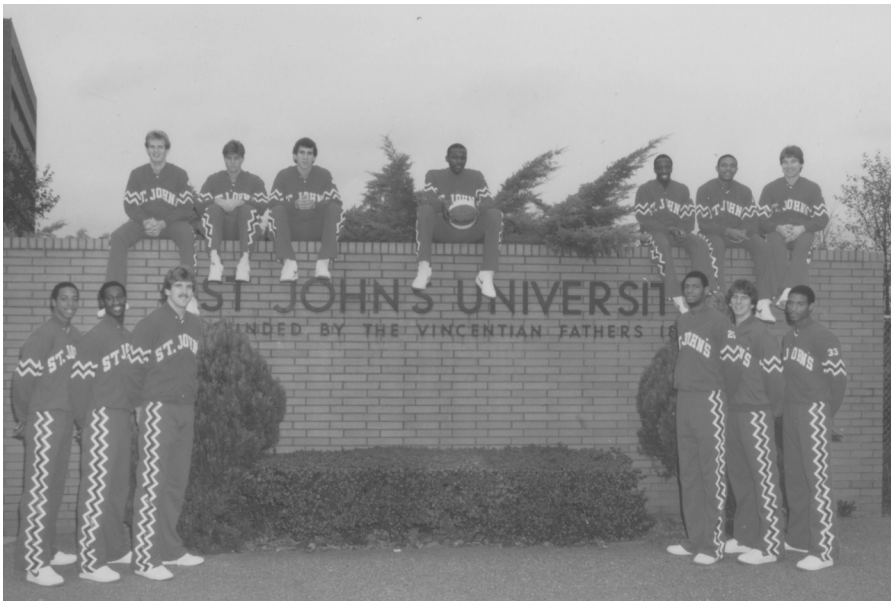
The wins earned St. John's the right to advance to the West Regional in Denver, Colo., and a meeting with Kentucky. Mullin netted 30 and Willie Glass contributed down the stretch to lift the Redmen to an 86-70 win. That game marked the final contest for Kentucky Coach Joe B. Hall.

The Elite Eight matchup between Lou Carnesecca's St. John's squad and Jim Valvano's NC State team was a back-and-forth affair that earned the tongue-in-cheek moniker "Spaghetti Western" from the sportswriters. Mullin scored 15 of his 25 in the second half, finding an answer for every Wolfpack run. NC State hung close until the Redmen managed a 10-point lead with 1:22 to play, and shortly after Carnesecca allowed it to sink in – St. John's was headed to the 1985 Final Four.

"With five seconds left in the game, I looked up at the clock and kept thinking, 'We're going… we're going.' I am very much elated to think I'm finally going after 1,000 games," said Carnesecca at a postgame press conference. "When I'm going to my grave, this I'll remember."

Patrick Ewing and Georgetown stood between St. John's and the title game, which the Redmen had not reached since 1952. The rivalry was intense, as St. John's had defeated the Hoyas earlier that season in Landover, Md., to take the No. 1 national ranking. Georgetown won the next two meetings, once at Madison Square Garden that snapped the Redmen's 14-game conference win streak, and once in the BIG EAST Tournament title game.

The Hoyas would prevail, 77-59, ending the storybook season for St. John's but giving Redmen fans a campaign to remember always.



1943 NIT CHAMPIONS

On the way to its first NIT title, St. John's just got by its opening round matchup against Rice Institute of Houston, Texas. St. John's next edged Rice in the closing seconds, 51-49. Hy Gotkin's one-hander at the buzzer proved to be the game-winner. The team then faced local rival Fordham in the semifinals. St. John's defeated the Rams 69-43 and were led by Harry Boykoff's 22 points. St. John's defeated the University of Toledo, 48-27, to capture its first National Invitation Tournament. Harry Boykoff was named Most Valuable Player of the Tournament, scoring 56 points in the three games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick led the squad to a 21-3 record.
- Captain Andrew "Fuzzy" Levane was awarded the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Trophy, being selected the MVP of the Metropolitan area.
- Levane was awarded the C.Y.O. Trophy, donated by the Brooklyn Chapter of the C.Y.O.
- St. John's received bids to both the NCAA and the NIT.
- Harry Boykoff, St. John's 6-9 center, was awarded the most valuable player award of the sixth annual NIT. This marked the second time that a St. John's player received such a distinction. Bill Lloyd of the 1938-39 team received it previously.
- Boykoff was picked on several All-America teams. He received a gold basketball, emblematic of his selection on the All-America basketball team appearing in The Sporting News.
- Levane was also selected on one All-America team.
- St. John's defeat of Fordham settled the dispute as to who was the 1942-43 metropolitan champion.
- Three players were named to the All-Metropolitan team: Boykoff, Larry Baxter and Levane.

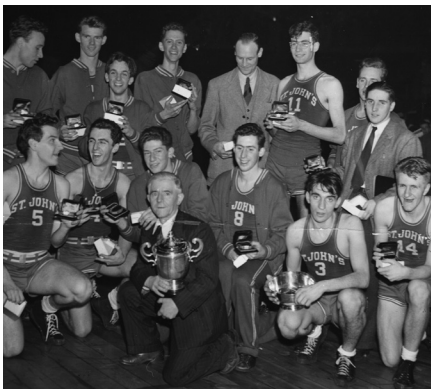
- Dick McGuire was awarded the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Trophy, being selected as the most valuable basketball player in the Metropolitan college ranks.
- St. John's accepted a bid to the NIT and it won the seventh-ever NIT title by defeating DePaul in the finals. This marked the second consecutive NIT championship for St. John's.
- Bill Kotsores was named the Most Valuable Player of the NIT. This marked the third time in seven years that a St. John's player received such a distinction.
- Captain Hy Gotkin was awarded the MVP and the Most Outstanding Player Award of the Year by the St. John's Athletic Association. Gotkin became the second recipient of the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty gold medal.
- McGuire and Gotkin were placed on the All-Metropolitan team by the Basketball Writers Association.
- Five of St. John's players were picked by the basketball writers to play on the Brooklyn All-Star team vs. the New York All-Star team, in a game which sponsored the Sale of War Bonds for the Fourth War Loan Drive. Brooklyn won the game, 47-43.



1959 NIT CHAMPIONS

St. John's defeated Villanova in the first round by a score of 75-67. St. John's was led by Alan Seiden with 25 points and Lou Roethel added 21. Tony Jackson exploded for 27 points against third-seeded St. Bonaventure in the quarterfinals, leading the team to an 82-74 victory. Roethel scored 22 and Jackson added 20 in a 76-55 win over the Providence Friars in the semifinals. St. John's took its third NIT title by defeating top-seeded Bradley 76-71 in double overtime. Seiden scored 22 and Jackson had 21 points and 27 rebounds in the game. Jackson, who was named MVP of the tournament, totaled 81 points for the four games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick led his team to a 20-6 record.
- St. John's captured its first ECAC Holiday Festival title with a 90-79 victory over St. Joseph's in the final. Tony Jackson was named Most Valuable Player.
- Alan Seiden surpassed 1,000 points for his career against Temple on Jan. 3, 1959.
- St. John's captured its third NIT title with a 76-71 double overtime win against Bradley. Tony Jackson became the fourth St. John's player to be named MVP of the NIT.
- Tony Jackson set a school record with 27 rebounds in one game.
- St. John's finished ranked 17th in the nation by UPI.

REDMEN NIT CHAMPS, 55-51

St. John's had to play both seeded teams en route to the school's fourth NIT title. In the first round, the team faced Boston College, defeating BC handily by a score of 114-92. Ken McIntyre scored 42 in the game. In the quarterfinals, St. John's played second-seeded New Mexico. McIntyre again led the team to a 61-54 victory scoring 20 points in the game. St. John's took on Army in the semifinals, and won by seven points, 67-60. In the final the team took on top-seeded Villanova, and St. John's shocked the Wildcats, 55-51. The McIntyre brothers (Ken and Rob) and Lloyd "Sonny" Dove accounted for 48 of the team's 55 points. Ken McIntyre was named MVP of the tournament. He totaled 101 points in the four games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick ended his career with a 55-51 win over Villanova in the Championship game of the NIT. This marked the fourth time that Lapchick led St. John's to the NIT Championship.
- Lapchick's 1964-65 squad ended the season with a 21-8 record. In his 20 years as head coach of St. John's, Lapchick had a career record of 334-130.
- St. John's shocked Michigan, the No. 1 team in the nation according to both the UPI and AP polls. St. John's beat the Wolverines 75-74 in the final of the ECAC Holiday Festival to capture the school's second ECAC title.
- Ken McIntyre surpassed the 1,000 career point mark on Feb. 23, 1965 against UMass.

1989 NIT CHAMPIONS

St. John's opened the 1989 NIT with a pair of home games, defeating Ole Miss, 70-67, behind 25 points from Jayson Williams before coming back from a halftime deficit to topple Oklahoma State in the second round, 76-64. Williams once again led all scorers, this time finishing with 27 points. The Johnnies hit the road for the third round, traveling to Columbus for a showdown with Ohio State in a rematch of that season's Holiday Festival Final, a contest that the Buckeyes had won. After trailing by as many as 17 points, St. John's rallied to send the game into overtime. Playing without the services of Williams, who had fouled out late in regulation, the Redmen prevailed in the extra period to earn a return trip home to Madison Square Garden. St. John's cruised by UAB in the semifinals, 76-65, behind 17 points apiece from Williams and freshman Malik Sealy. That win over the Blazers set up a championship tilt between St. John's and Saint Louis, two historic programs with no shortage of NIT success. Williams played the hero for St. John's once again, tallying 28 points and 18 rebounds in a 73-65 victory to give the program's its fifth NIT title all-time. To no one's surprise, Williams was named the Tournament MVP.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- For the 19th time in the Lou Carnesecca's Era, St. John's finished the season with 20 or more wins.
- St. John's won a record-fifth NIT title with a 73-65 victory over St. Louis.
- Jayson Williams became the sixth St. John's player to be named MVP of the NIT.
- St. John's won the 14th Annual Joe Lapchick Memorial Tournament with wins over LIU, and BYU in the final. Matt Brust was named MVP of the Tournament.

2003 NIT CHAMPIONS

It's amazing what one free throw can do.

The St. John's men's basketball team entered its March 2 game with perennial national power Duke with a 12-12 record. Things weren't looking bright for the Red Storm, who had lofty expectations after qualifying for the program's 27th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001-02.

But on that day, with a sold out Madison Square Garden crowd and a CBS national television audience watching, St. John's pulled off the upset, topping the Blue Devils, 72-71. Senior guard Marcus Hatten sealed the win with a free throw with no time left.

And that free throw carried the Red Storm to one of the most exciting stretches of basketball in the 97-year history of the program, as St. John's won nine of its last 10 games, capping the season off with a 70-67 win over Georgetown in the NIT Championship game.

The Red Storm finished the season 21-13 overall, and made what would be a difficult finish an exciting ride.

After a brilliant 5-0 start to the season, the Red Storm struggled at the start of the New Year, and entered the final weeks of the season with a 12-12 overall record, and a 5-9 mark in the BIG EAST Conference.

Four-straight losses in February left the team scrambling. The Red Storm used the motivation from the Duke win to win their final two regular season games – at Miami and at home against Rutgers – before upsetting Notre Dame in the first round of the BIG EAST Tournament.

A loss to Boston College in the quarterfinals was diminished by a bid to the NIT, where the team reeled off three-straight wins behind a raucous student cheering section at Alumni Hall – topping Boston University, Virginia and UAB – and advancing to Madison Square Garden for the NIT Final Four.

Hatten scored 24 points and Ingram added 16 as St. John's topped Bobby Knight and Texas Tech in the semifinals, advancing to face league rival Georgetown in the finals. In that game, Hatten had 22 points, Ingram added 19 and junior college transfer Grady Reynolds – a major player down the stretch – scored 13 points and grabbed a career high 14 rebounds as St. John's won its sixth NIT Championship in program history.

 — St. John's 2003 NIT Championship was vacated by the NCAA in 2006.

1983 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

The 1982-83 season was for St. John's basketball an achievement of superlative accomplishments. Led by head coach Lou Carnesecca, the Redmen marched to a record-breaking season, including the first-ever BIG EAST Tournament Championship for St. John's.

St. John's played 33 games, the most in school history at that time, won more games than any team prior (28), and entered the postseason for a record 38th time. After tying for first during the regular season in the BIG EAST, the team won three straight games in the league's championship tournament to take home the crown.

The team beat defending NCAA champion North Carolina to open the season, then won 13-straight games, giving them a school-record 14 consecutive season-opening victories. Along the way, they won the ECAC Holiday Festival Tournament for the sixth time, and the third time in four years.

Carnesecca was named Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the New York Basketball Writers' Association and several other organizations. Chris Mullin was the unanimous selection for BIG EAST Player of the Year, and the New York Writers' Haggerty Award. In addition, he became the third player to score more than 1,000 points in two seasons, connecting on nearly 60 percent of his shots from the field.

David Russell's rugged inside play gave the St. John's offense a double haymaker and this combination was brought to explosive power by the cool play of swingman Billy Goodwin which matched the fiery competitiveness of Kevin Williams. Floor play was orchestrated by Bobby Kelly and the backbone was supplied by the center couple of Jeff Allen and Bill Wennington, with Ron Stewart and Trevor Jackson in the wings.

In the BIG EAST Tournament, St. John's beat Pittsburgh in the first round, and then topped Villanova in the semifinals. The championship game saw Mullin score 24 points in an 85-77 win over Boston College.

A year after a trip to the program's second-ever Final Four, if anyone was searching for "The Truth," they found it.

In just his second season at St. John's, Walter "The Truth" Berry earned national player of the year honors – the second straight year a St. John's player had done so, as Chris Mullin took the award during the 1984-85 campaign – and led the team to a 31-5 record and the 1986 BIG EAST Tournament Championship.

Berry had, perhaps, the best single season ever in St. John's history in 1985-86, averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds, while earning award upon award. He was selected as the recipient of the John Wooden Award as the nation's top college player, the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, the Associated Press' honor, and was the Kodak Player of the Year from the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He scored a still-intact St. John's record 828 points that season and grabbed 399 rebounds, which ranks as the fifth-best single season mark.

The starting five that season – Berry, Ron Rowan, Willie Glass, Mark Jackson and Shelton Jones – ranks among the best in school history. They started every game and accounted for 86 percent of the minutes played, but had outstanding play from reserves like Marco Baldi, Terry Bross, Steve Shurina and John Hempel. Rowan finished the season second on the team in scoring, averaging 14.2 points and 4.4 assists; Glass averaged 13.3 points and 5.6 rebounds; Jackson added 11.3 points and a school record 9.1 assists; and Jones averaged 8.5 points and 5.7 rebounds.

The Redmen had rolled through the regular season with only four blemishes on their record: a loss to Duke in the Big Apple NIT semifinals, a non-conference defeat to DePaul and a pair of BIG EAST falters by a combined total of six points at Boston College and Syracuse.

And while Berry was the leader of the team, it was Rowan who came through in the Redmen's biggest moment, sinking a 14-foot baseline jumper with eight seconds left and giving St. John's its first lead of the game at 70-69, in a win over Syracuse in the BIG EAST Championship. Berry blocked Dwayne "Pearl" Washington's shot at the buzzer as St. John's won the second of its three BIG EAST Tournament titles.

The nets were cut, and the celebration began. Players and coaches hugged family members, staff and each other. The trophy was carried around the floor and adored by one and all.

The night of March 11, 2000 was not just any night for the St. John's men's basketball team. The Red Storm's 80-70 win over Connecticut at Madison Square Garden gave the team its first BIG EAST Tournament Championship since 1986, but it was also the fitting end to a hectic, and at times, challenging season.

It was fitting because this St. John's team had overcome obstacles time and time again throughout the season. And just when people were counting the Red Storm out, they came back – each time.

The team was tough and resilient. While small in numbers – there were only eight scholarship players and head coach Mike Jarvis used a seven-man rotation for the most part – the team jelled and played without fear.

That never-quit mentality was never more evident than during a stretch in late February when the Red Storm toppled Syracuse, Connecticut and Duke in consecutive games. The wins over the Huskies and Blue Devils marked the first time in recorded history that the national champion (UConn) and national runner-up (Duke) had lost to the same team back-to-back.

The BIG EAST Tournament was equally exciting. St. John's used a late run to beat Villanova in the opener and then came a heated rivalry with Miami. In a tight game, sophomore forward Anthony Glover – who had missed his previous five attempts – hit two free throws with 2.2 seconds left to give St. John's a 58-57 win over the Hurricanes and a spot in the championship game.

In a rematch of the previous year's championship game, Bootsy Thornton – who earned tournament MVP honors – scored 22 points to lead four players in double figures in an 80-70 win over Connecticut.

Thirty years after leading St. John's to the Final Four, Chris Mullin was introduced as the 20th head coach in program history with a press conference in Carnesecca Arena.

NOV. 13, 2015
Chris Mullin collected his first career win in his debut as St. John's head coach with a 66-57 victory over Wagner College in front of 4,677 fans at Carnesecca Arena. Federico Mussini scored a game-high 18 points to help guide the Red Storm to victory under the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer.

DEC. 21, 2016
The Red Strom handed archrival Syracuse its largest-ever margin of defeat inside the famed Carrier Dome, downing the Orange by a score of 93-60. The third-straight win overall for the Johnnies against Syracuse and the program's second-straight victory inside the Carrier Dome was led by the efforts of Shamorie Ponds, who tallied 21 points, seven assists and six rebounds.

MARCH 4, 2017
Shamorie Ponds netted a season-high 29 points against the Providence Friars in the Red Storm's regular season finale at Madison Square Garden, breaking the program's scoring record for a freshman in the process. The Brooklyn native went on to finish his rookie campaign with 573 points, 29 more than D'Angelo Harrison registered in 2011-12.

FEB. 3, 2018
After losing 11-straight games to kick off conference play, the Red Storm faced a tall task when it welcomed No. 4/5 Duke to "The World's Most Famous Arena." The Johnnies responded in kind, shocking the college basketball world with an 81-77 upset of the highly touted Blue Devils. Shamorie Ponds scored 33 points, 24 of which came in the second half and sealed the game with a dagger three-point shot.

FEB. 7, 2018
Riding high from its win over Duke just a few days prior, the Johnnies traveled to The City of Brotherly Love for a showdown with No. 1/1 Villanova. Paced by another brilliant performance by Shamorie Ponds (26 points, five rebounds, five assists), the Red Storm knocked off a top-ranked team for the first time since 1985, downing the Wildcats, 79-75.

FEB. 17, 2019
Playing in front of a sold-out crowd of 19,812, the Red Storm erased a 19-point first-half deficit to down defending national champion Villanova at Madison Square Garden. LJ Figueroa led the way with 22 points and 12 rebounds, scoring 16 in a second half that saw the Johnnies outscore the 13th ranked Wildcats, 45-28. Mustapha Heron scored 14 of his 19 points after the intermission.

MARCH 17, 2019
The Red Storm heard its named called on Selection Sunday for the 29th time in program history. St. John's, which had not made the NCAA Tournament since 2015, drew Arizona State in a First Four matchup at UD Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The Sun Devils won that game, but the Red Storm finished the season with 21 wins.

APRIL 19, 2019
After Chris Mullin stepped down as the head coach of his alma mater 10 days prior, St. John's welcomed Mike Anderson as the 21st head coach in program history during a press conference at Madison Square Garden. Anderson spent 17 years as the head coach at UAB , Missouri and Arkansas before taking over in Queens, making 12 postseason appearances and never posting a losing record during that stretch.

NOV. 6, 2020
Playing its first game under the direction of Head Coach Mike Anderson, the Red Storm exploded for a 109 points in a 30-point drubbing of Mercer. The Johnnies' 109 points were the most ever scored in a head coach's debut and the highest total in a season opener since 1986.

MARCH 11, 2020
After trailing by as many as 15 in the second half, the Red Storm ended the game on a 23-0 run, topping Georgetown, 75-62, in the opening round of the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden. The comeback was the largest for St. John's in the four-decade history of the BIG EAST Tournament. The following day, the Johnnies' quarterfinal matchup against Creighton was called at halftime due to the COVID-19 pandemic with St. John's leading by three at the intermission.

In January of 2006, St. John's University celebrated the outstanding contributions of 10 individuals by conferring 'Basketball Legacy Honors' upon them.

The criteria decided upon for Basketball Legacy Honors extends far beyond wins and losses, or points and rebounds. The selection committee took several additional aspects into account, including athletic achievement, citizenship, character, team success and national awards to go along with individual statistics.

While the initial list of 10 was recognized, St. John's plans to continue the Basketball Legacy Honors program in the future.

COACH JOE LAPCHICK

Joe Lapchick was the first talented big man to play in the collegiate ranks. He was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1966 as an original member of the Celtics travel team from the era of the "Roaring 20's." The "Big Indian," as he was called, had a career in basketball that virtually spanned the game from its true beginning to its full growth.

He coached at St. John's from 1936-1947, left to roam the sidelines for the New York Knicks from 1947-1956, where upon he returned to lead the Redmen until his retirement in 1965. He won 334 games during his tenure, among those were four National Invitation Tournament titles (1943, 1944, 1959 and 1965).

University officials recognized Lapchick for his many accomplishments by naming a regular season tournament (The Joe Lapchick Memorial) in his honor. In 1985 he was unanimously chosen as part of the first induction class to enter the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame. Lapchick died on August 10, 1970.

COACH LOU CARNESECCA

What can you say about this Hall of Famer that hasn't already been said? Lou Carnesecca is a legend in New York and college basketball circles worldwide. He is synonymous with St. John's Basketball, having coached at the University for 24 seasons.

During those 24 seasons he never failed to qualify for a postseason tournament (18 NCAAs and six NITs). "Looie," as he is affectionately called, compiled a record of 526 wins and 200 losses and directed the team to 20 or more victories in a season on 18 separate occasions.

Carnesecca was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1992. In 1991, he became only the 30th NCAA Division I coach to reach the 500 career victory mark. In 1988-89, he directed his team to a record fifth NIT title.

His NCAA teams were successful advancing to the Final Four in 1985, to the Eastern Regional Final in 1979 and to the regional semifinals in 1967, 1969, 1983 and 1991.

Carnesecca's record in regular season tournaments is also impressive. He won 17 Lapchick Tournaments and eight ECAC Holiday Festival crowns. In 13 tough years of BIG EAST Conference competition, Carnesecca's teams had a regular season record of 112-65 and were 13-11 in the tournament. He also tied for the regular season title three times and won it outright once.

Carnesecca was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year three times and chosen Metropolitan Area Coach of the Year six times by the New York Basketball Writers Association. In addition, he has two BIG EAST titles to his credit, winning in the 1983 and 1986 seasons.

NO. 20
CHRIS MULLIN

At 6-6 from Brooklyn, N.Y., Chris Mullin is the most honored player in St. John's history. The consensus All-American's sharp outside shooting from the floor, his dead-eye accuracy from the free-throw line, his keen basketball sense, his leadership both on and off the court and his total devotion to the game of basketball led him to become, arguably, the greatest player in St. John's history.

In his rookie season, he was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival. He was second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Rookie. Named the Metropolitan Sports Writers Rookie of the Year, Mullin averaged 16.6 points per game and became the school's top freshman scorer with 498 points.

There was no sophomore jinx for Mullin his second year. He led the team with a 19.1 scoring average and became only the fourth St. John's player to score 1,000 points in his first two seasons. He swept all of the major BIG EAST awards that year as he was named Player of the Year, MVP of the Tournament and first team all-conference. He was also named a third team All-American by UPI. He won the Haggerty Award that season, which is symbolic of being collegiate basketball's MVP for the metropolitan area.

In his junior year, he earned a place on just about every All-America team, averaging a team-high 22.9 points per game. He led the BIG EAST in scoring with a 24.9 mark and was named Co-Conference Player of the Year. He became the conference's all-time leading scorer and was named first team all-conference. That summer he was a key member of the gold medal winning Olympic team.

Besides leading St. John's to the Final Four his senior year and a No. 1 ranking by both the UPI and AP polls for several weeks, Mullin was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, which is given to the nation's top collegiate basketball player. Mullin was a consensus first team All-American, was named UPI's Player of the Year and District II Player of the Year.

He surpassed Bob Zawoluk as the school's all-time leading scorer and became the first St. John's player to total 2,000 points in a career. Mullin was not just a scoring machine; in his four years at St. John's he also broke then-records for steals, field goals made, free throws and free throw percentage. He also ranks among the top five in assists.

WALTER BERRY

Walter Berry played just two seasons with St. John's but his impact was tremendous. The "Truth," as he was known, transferred to St. John's from San Jacinto Junior College where he was named the National Junior College Player of the Year, averaging 28.9 points and 14 rebounds.

He emerged as one of the top newcomers in the nation in his first season at St. John's, helping lead the team to the Final Four. He earned second team All-BIG EAST honors and first team All-Metropolitan honors that season. He averaged 17.0 points per game which was second on the team behind Chris Mullin. He shattered the school single-season scoring record as a senior, scoring 828 points.

As a senior, he was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, given by the Los Angeles Athletic Club to the nation's top collegiate player. He was also awarded the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, given to the player of the year in college basketball by the Associated Press. Berry's biggest honor was being selected the Kodak Player of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He was the UPI Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, Basketball Weekly Player of the Year, CBS/Chevrolet Player of the Year and the BIG EAST Player of the Year. He earned these honors by averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds per game.

Berry was named to the AP and UPI first-team All-America squads. He became only the fifth player in St. John's history to reach the 1,000-point mark in two seasons.

NO. 13
MARK JACKSON

The greatest assist man in St. John's history, Mark "Action" Jackson totaled a school record 738 assists. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team after dishing out 108 assists as a freshman.

He was the "sixth man" on St. John's Final Four team, ranking third on the team in assists with 109 and second in field goal percentage with .564. He emerged as one of the premier point guards in the nation during his junior season, dealing a then-NCAA record 328 assists, which still ranks as the fifth-best collegiate single-season effort of all time. His 150 assists in BIG EAST games was also a league record. Jackson proved to be a capable scorer as he averaged 11.3 points per game. He was named first team All-BIG EAST and All-Met and was an AP honorable mention All-American.

In his senior season, Jackson was named the BIG EAST Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He was a second team All-America selection by AP, UPI and Basketball Weekly. He was the co-recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of the metropolitan area, and was a first team All-BIG EAST selection. Jackson averaged 18.9 points per game his senior season and finished his career with 1,328 points.

NO. 21
MALIK SEALY

Malik Sealy is one of only three players in St. John's history to score more than 2,000 points for his career. His 2,401 career points places him second, only behind Chris Mullin, on the school's all-time scoring chart.

In his freshman season, he finished second on the team with a 12.9 points per game average and 197 rebounds, and also totaled 36 steals, 21 blocks and 67 assists, helping the team to a record fifth NIT title. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman team and was voted Rookie of the Year in the New York Area by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association. In his sophomore season, Sealy became only the sixth player in St. John's history to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons. He averaged 18.1 points a game, scoring 616 for the year, the 11th-highest total in school history. He was named second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Met that season.

As a junior, Sealy emerged as one of the top players in the nation. He averaged 22.1 points per game, which helped lead his team to an Elite Eight finish in the NCAA Tournament. Along with being named first team All-BIG EAST, Sealy was honored with the Haggerty Award, which is given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the metropolitan area. His 707 points that season is the third-highest ever in St. John's history. He was named MVP of the Lapchick Tournament that year after a 43-point performance against Central Connecticut State in the championship game. That marked the highest point total by a player in Alumni Hall history, a record that still stands today.

In his final season, Sealy was a consensus second team All-American, averaging 22.6 points per game. He was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival, as well as being named first team All-BIG EAST.

Sealy scored in double figures in 102 consecutive games, breaking Chris Mullin's record of 100 straight games. Sealy holds many records for St. John's, including most career field goals (900) and most career steals (238).

NO. 21
DICK MCGUIRE

To those St. John's alumni and fans of the 1940s and 1950s, there will always be one player – Dick McGuire. The numbers, of course, do not tell the story as the stats of today were not a part of McGuire's game. His playmaking ability, his superb court sense and his ball handling under fire are more representative of his career, and it was those qualities which brought him to the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

McGuire was a soft-spoken man who bore the nickname "Mumbles" for his quick and jumbled ways of conversation, and "Tricky Dicky" for his moves through the defense.

McGuire came to St. John's in 1943-44, a year St. John's won its second consecutive NIT title. He was given the first of two Haggerty Awards as New York City's outstanding collegiate player. Returning to St. John's after the war, he won a second Haggerty in 1949 while playing alongside his brother, Al. He joined the New York Knicks for the 1949-50 season and his long career in the NBA included service with the Detroit Pistons as a player-coach and with the Knicks as a bench coach. You really can't explain Dick McGuire's brilliance if you did not see him play, for seeing him under game pressure was the only evidence to make you believe.

NO. 55
LLOYD "SONNY" DOVE

Lloyd "Sonny" Dove ranks 12th on the St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,576 career points and is second only to George Johnson as St. John's all-time leading rebounder with 1,036 career boards. Dove and Johnson are the only two St. John's players ever to score more than 1,000 career points and grab more than 1,000 career rebounds.

Dove played from 1964-67. In his first season, he averaged 13.8 points per game and led the team with an 11.7 rebounds per game average for Coach Joe Lapchick. He was named to the Holiday Festival All-Star team and to the NIT All-Tournament team that year. In his second season with the team and first with new head coach Lou Carnesecca, Dove was named to several All-America teams including, first team All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, and a third team All-America by AP and UPI. Dove averaged 21.2 points per game and 14.2 rebounds per game that season, which also earned him first team All-Metropolitan honors.

In his final season at St. John's, Dove was once again named to several All-America teams including first team All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, second-team All-Americaa by UPI and third-team All-America by AP. The New York writers named him the winner of the Haggerty Trophy, the metropolitan area's college basketball MVP. He averaged 22.4 points per game and 11.8 boards. Dove set the then-St. John's record in 1967 with 242 field goals in a season (which currently ranks eighth-best) and became the first St. John's player to ever grab 1,000 rebounds for a career.

TONY JACKSON

Tony Jackson, a native of Brooklyn, starred for St. John's on the hardwood under Joe Lapchick, lettering three times from 1958-59 to 1960-61. A two-time consensus All-American, Jackson is currently listed 11th among all-time St. John's scoring leaders with 1,603 points. He is also third on the all-time rebounding list with 991 career boards. In his first season in 1958-59, Jackson helped the team to the Postseason NIT title, scoring 20.0 points per game. That year he was named Most Valuable Player of both the NIT and the ECAC Holiday Festival. He set a then-school record that season with 27 rebounds in one game (which currently ranks second best).

In his second season in 1959-60, Jackson earned consensus All-America honors and led St. John's with a 21.2 ppg scoring average, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau, while averaging 12.9 rebounds per game as well.

In his senior year, Jackson was the recipient of All-America accolades and won the Haggerty Award, given to the best collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. Jackson averaged 22.0 ppg that year.

Jackson was drafted with the first pick in the third round of the 1961 NBA Draft by the New York Knickerbockers. In 1968, he joined the ABA's New Jersey Americans, where he scored 19.4 ppg. In 1969, Jackson played for three ABA teams: the Houston Mavericks, the Minnesota Pipers and the New York Nets. He finished his ABA career with a 15.9 ppg scoring average.

ALAN SEIDEN

One of the great guards in St. John's history, Alan Seiden is tied for 21st on St. John's all-time career scoring chart and is listed among program leaders in six free throw categories. He averaged double-figures every season of his career, including as a sophomore in 1957, when the sophomore was the team's second leading scorer with 273 points and a 11.9 points per game average.

As a junior in 1958, Seiden was named a Helms Foundation second team All-American. St. John's earned an appearance in the Post-season NIT and finished fourth, where Seiden performed exceptionally, averaging 21.0 points per game in the tournament. During the season, Seiden was the leading scorer for St. John's with 531 points (20.4 points per game) and 95 rebounds.

In 1959, Seiden repeated as team captain and had one of the greatest individual seasons in school history. Named a Helms and NEA first team All-American, and a Converse and Sporting News second team All-American, Seiden led the team in scoring for the second consecutive season with 570 points. He added 102 rebounds as well, and scored a career-high 38 points in a mid-season game against Loyola (Illinois). That year, Seiden led St. John's to a 17-7 record and a No. 17 (UPI) ranking. In the NIT, the unseeded Redmen defeated Villanova, St. Bonaventure and Providence to reach the tournament final. In the championship game, Seiden scored a game-high 22 points and St. John's downed Bradley, 76-71, in overtime.

FRANK ALAGIA

The best of the little men ever to play at St. John's, Frank Alagia played from 1972-76, and was Frank Mulzoff and Lou Carnesecca's floor leader. He finished his illustrious St. John's career with 478 assists, which was the most in school history until Mark Jackson (738), Jason Buchanan (665) and Eugene Lawrence (520) surpassed that mark. In addition, Alagia was one of only two players to win the Francis Pomeroy Naismith Award as the National Player of the Year for players 6-0 and under. Alagia led four St. John's teams to a combined 83-30 record and successful postseason accomplishments. In 1974-75, the team lost the consolation game of the NIT Final Four to Oregon in overtime, 80-76. In 1975-76, the team made it to the ECAC Championship before losing a thriller to Rutgers, 70-67, and was then ousted by Indiana in the NCAA Tournament.

GUS ALFIERI

Some things you have to take in pairs, and along with backcourt mate Alan Seiden, Gus Alfieri made up one of the finest tandems in school history. Alfieri and Seiden piled up victories in the late 1950s and starred in the 1959 NIT final with an overtime victory over Bradley. The duo were adept at reading each other's games, and also in seeing inside their opponents' to set up scoring plays that boggled the mind. Alfieri recorded a pair of double-figure scoring seasons, but statistics only tell part of his story. Alfieri and Seiden played as if joined at the hip, and they played basketball with a boundless joy.

RON ARTEST

Ron Artest was a first team All-BIG EAST selection as a sophomore after being named to the All-Rookie team following his freshman season. He declared for the NBA Draft following the 1998 NCAA Tournament, leaving St. John's 93 points shy of becoming a 1,000-point scorer. A solid all-around player, he averaged 13.1 points, 6.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.9 steals per game. He connected on 44.5 percent of his field goals (335-of-753) and 35.5 percent of his 3-pointers (92-of-259).

Artest was a unanimous selection to the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after finishing third on the team in scoring (11.6 ppg) and third in rebounding (6.3 rpg) in 1998. He also earned conference rookie of the week honors four times during the season, and was named to the BIG EAST Conference All-Tournament team after averaging 28 points and 14 rebounds in the Red Storm's two games.

HARRY BOYKOFF

Harry Boykoff played his first season in 1942-43 and led St. John's to its first NIT title with a team-leading 16.6 scoring average. The 6-9 center earned the MVP award of the sixth annual NIT after scoring 56 points in the three games. He was named to several All-America teams that year, including a selection on the All-America basketball team that appeared in The Sporting News, then the national sports newspaper. Boykoff also broke the Madison Square Garden record with a 45-point scoring spree against St. Joseph's.

Boykoff reappeared in 1945-46 after serving in the U.S. military during World War II. He led the team that year with a 16.5 scoring average and again the following year with a 16.7 mark. In that final season, Boykoff became the first St. John's player ever to score 1,000 career points.

GERRY BUSH

Gerry Bush starred for St. John's just as Madison Square Garden was coming into its own on the New York collegiate scene. The game of basketball was more precise then, with more detail than the speed of today, just a few years after the center jump following each basket had been eliminated. There was also no NBA then, so Bush, along with St. John's classmates like Bill Lloyd, joined the AAU Midwestern teams after his collegiate career. Bush played for the Akron Goodyear team for many years before entering the coaching ranks, where his teams won many games for the University of Nebraska. His team once notched a victory over Kansas when Wilt Chamberlain played for the Jayhawks.

GERRY CALABRESE

Gerry Calabrese came of age as a senior after playing part-time minutes his first two seasons. He averaged 10.1 points per game in the 1948-49 season. His head coach, Frank McGuire, labeled him the team's leader that season and teamed with leading scorer Dick McGuire to guide the Redmen to a 15-9 record. He played on two other winning teams (16-7 in 1946-47, 12-11 in 1947-48) and compiled a 43-27 record while wearing the Red and White for St. John's.

A standout for head coach Lou Carnesecca in the late 1970s, Reggie Carter played for three seasons at St. John's. He began his career playing half the season (14 games, 12.6 points per contest) as a key reserve in 1977-78 after beginning his career at the University of Hawaii. Carter two standout seasons were in 1978-79 and 1979-80, and for his career he averaged 15.0 points per game and amassed 1,061 points in a St. John's uniform. Carter will forever be remembered for leading St. John's to the NCAA Final Eight (defeating Temple, Duke and Rutgers) before losing to Pennsylvania 64-62 in the NCAA East Regional Final in Greensboro, N.C. He had a career high 39 points against Brigham Young on Dec. 16, 1978, in a 90-83 win at Alumni Hall.

MEL DAVIS

Mel Davis played two seasons with St. John's before pursuing a professional basketball career, but it took only those two years for Davis to emerge as one of the great names in program history.

A 6-7 scoring and rebounding machine, Davis led the team in both those categories in his first season as a sophomore. That year, Davis grabbed 436 rebounds, fifth-highest nationally, and still the most ever garnered by a St. John's player in a single season. Davis averaged 16.1 rebounds per game, leading the team in 23 of 27 games. He also led the team in scoring with 561 points, the second-most points scored by a sophomore at St. John's up to that point. His high rebounding total and 20.8 points per game average earned him many honors. He was a five-time ECAC Star of the Week, he was named to the All-Metropolitan Team by the New York Basketball Writers and he was the recipient of the Frank J. Haggerty Memorial award as St. John's most outstanding athlete. He was also named to a host of All-America teams that year.

In his junior season, Davis was elected to several All-America teams, all-star teams and all-tournament teams as he followed up his great sophomore year with an equally impressive junior campaign. He averaged 21.1 points per game and grabbed 409 boards. Davis now ranks 39th on St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,130 career points and is ranked seventh on the all-time rebounding list with 845 career boards.

ALFRED "DUSTY" DESTEFANO

The former head coach of the Redmen, Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano finished his career 49-38 for a winning percentage of .563. DeStefano also played and tutored under Joe Lapchick from 1938-40. He was a part-time player who was more known for his defense and agility than his scoring prowess.

LeROY ELLIS

LeRoy Ellis ranks 27th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,289 career points and fifth on the school's all-time rebounding list with 927 boards. Ellis still holds the school record for highest rebounding average in a season (16.5) and most rebounds in one game with 30 against NYU in 1961.

His great collegiate career spanned from the 1959-60 season through 1961-62. In his first season, Ellis averaged 10.6 points per game and was second on the team with 253 rebounds. In his second season, Ellis averaged 16.5 points a game, which was second best on the team behind Tony Jackson. In 1962, Ellis was named the recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the most valuable collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. He earned that honor by leading the team with a 23.5 scoring average and 430 rebounds. Ellis was named to several All-America, all-star and all-tournament teams during his illustrious career at St. John's.

JAMES A. "BUCK" FREEMAN

Buck Freeman graduated from St. John's in 1927 and immediately became the head basketball coach at his alma mater. Prior to his coaching days, Freeman wore a St. John's uniform for Coach John Crenny. In his first season in 1923-24, he averaged 8.2 points per game, which tied for the team high. In his second season, he was third on the team in scoring with a 7.9 average. He averaged 6.5 points a game and helped lead his team to an 18-7 mark in his junior year. That year, Freeman had a team-high 31 points versus N.Y. State Agriculture. In his final season, he led the team with 6.8 points per game.

Freeman's years as head coach took St. John's to national prominence. In 208 games as head coach, Freeman's squad posted a 177-31 record for a winning percentage of .851, the highest in NCAA history. He assembled a club properly known as the "Wonder Five." In the four years these five – Matty Begovich, Mac Kinsbrunner, Max Posnack, Rip Gerson and Al Schuckman – played together, they compiled a record of 88 wins and eight losses, with four of the losses coming in their first season. Freeman's coaching theories changed the face of the game of basketball.

JOHN "TAPS" GALLAGHER

John "Taps" Gallagher earned a tremendous reputation as a coach at Niagara University where he was the entire athletic department for close to 40 years. He first was given his nickname in the 1920s, just before the "Wonder Five" days, when getting the center tap after each basket was vital. Gallagher coached high school basketball in New York before going to Niagara, where he had a superb career and delighted in knocking off his alma mater from time to time.

JACK "DUTCH" GARFINKEL

In the early days of St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame, many names were tossed around in deserved consideration for election. Walter McLaughlin, the beloved "Mr. Mac" of St. John's athletic annals, commented, "Don't forget Dutch Garfinkel."

Asked for more detail, McLaughlin simply replied that Garfinkel might well have been the best in St. John's basketball history. While that can be debated, there would be many who would agree. Garfinkel played on both ends of the court at the same time with constant drive and with creativity. For many years he was a basketball official in the New York area, adding to his reputation in the game.

HY GOTKIN

The little man of St. John's "Mutt and Jeff" combination with Harry Boykoff, Hy Gotkin was often scurrying down the court looking for methods to crush the opposition. That was mostly setting up plays, notably to Boykoff, the first tall tower in New York basketball. The "Mutt and Jeff" nickname stemmed from the comic strip featuring the big guy and a little guy. Gotkin led the 1943 and 1944 Redmen teams to the NIT title and was always available to help his alma mater in any way possible. He went on to serve as an administrator in the Brooklyn school system for many years.

ZENDON HAMILTON

Zendon Hamilton was part of head coach Brian Mahoney's highly touted recruiting class in 1994 that brought Felipe Lopez and guard Tarik Turner to St. John's. Hamilton would go on to impress and finish his St. John's career in the top five in several statistical categories. He is currently listed as the seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,810 points. He is fourth all-time in rebounding with 946 boards behind greats George Johnson, Lloyd "Sonny" Dove and Tony Jackson. Hamilton also holds an individual career record for free throw attempts during his four years (1994-98) at St. John's with 912.

D'ANGELO HARRISON

D'Angelo Harrison, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST honoree, finished his career at St. John's third on the program's scoring list with 2,178 points and ninth in BIG EAST history with 1,178 points in conference games. The fiery competitor from Missouri City, Texas, started 120-of-125 appearances with the Red Storm and capped off a decorated career by guiding St. John's to its 28th NCAA Tournament appearance. Harrison averaged 17.4 points and led the team in scoring all four years in Queens. He registered double-figures in 107-of-125 contests and reached the 20-point plateau 53 times. The 6-foot-4 sharpshooter set a school-record with 264 career 3-point field goals and holds the single-season mark hitting 76 in 2011-12.

As a senior in 2014-15, Harrison finished second in the BIG EAST with 17.5 points per game, scoring in double-figures 30-of-33 contests, including 14 20-point performances and three 30-point efforts. Harrison was named to the 2015 All-BIG EAST First Team, NABC District 5 First Team and garnered Senior CLASS Award Second Team All-American honors. He was also named to the Portsmouth Invitational All-Tournament Team and participated in the NABC Division I College All-Star Game.

Harrison became the 21st player in program history to take home the Haggerty Award in 2013-14, which is presented to the top collegiate player in the metropolitan area. He was a four-time All-Metropolitan selection, earning First Team honors three times.

As a sophomore in 2012-13, Harrison registered the highest scoring average of his career at 17.8 points per game. Harrison burst onto the scene as a freshman collecting BIG EAST All-Rookie honors in 2011-12 after setting what was then the St. John's freshman scoring record with 544 points, eclipsing Erick Barkley (500, 1998-99). His 17.0 points per game were second-best all-time for a St. John's freshman (Felipe Lopez, 17.8 ppg 1994-95).

Harrison collected BIG EAST Weekly Honors 20 times during his career, which includes four BIG EAST Player of the Week awards. He graduated top-10 in program history for career steals (156) and field goals made (660).

GREG "BOO" HARVEY

The master of the last second shot, Harvey won three games during the 1989-90 season on St. John's final possession. His buzzer-beaters – beating DePaul, 55-54 on Nov. 22, 1989 at MSG, upending Georgetown 63-62 on Feb. 21, 1990 in Washington, D.C., and at Pittsburgh, 76-75 on Feb. 26, 1990 – are forever etched in St. John's lore. Harvey averaged 16.5 points per game that season and with teammate Malik Sealy led St. John's to an impressive 24-10 record. That team advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament where they were beaten by Duke at the Omni in Atlanta, Ga. Harvey's 1987-88 season saw him average 11.9 points, leading the team to a 17-12 record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He played two seasons at St. John's, both under Hall of Fame Head Coach Lou Carnesecca.

GEORGE JOHNSON

Johnson ranks eighth on St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,763 career points. Johnson's claim to fame, however, is as the greatest rebounder in school history with 1,240 career boards. Johnson played from 1974 through 1978, and along with Lloyd "Sonny" Dove, is one of two players in St. John's history to score more than 1,000 career points and pull down more than 1,000 rebounds.

In his freshman season, the 6-7 star averaged 10.1 points a game and led the team with 285 boards. As a sophomore, he was an honorable mention All-American, averaging 13.8 points and 10.6 rebounds. As a junior, Johnson exceeded the 1,000-point mark for his career. He averaged 17.4 points and led the team with 335 rebounds. He led the team that year with 19.4 points and 324 rebounds. Johnson was the 1978 recipient of the Haggerty Award given to the Metropolitan MVP.

D.J. KENNEDY

One of just three St. John's players all-time to total at least 1,500 points, 750 rebounds and 150 steals, D.J. Kennedy finished a standout career as a four-year starter with 1,504 points (14th all-time), 781 rebounds (11th) and 183 steals (8th).

In 129 games played, tied for fifth-most all-time, the three-time MBWA All-Metropolitan selection registered 80 double-figure games and averaged 11.7 points to go with 6.1 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.4 steals. Kennedy made 122 3-pointers in his career, seventh all-time, reached the 20-point mark on 13 occasions and also totaled 14 double-doubles.

As a senior in 2010-11, Kennedy played a key role for a Red Storm team that defeated six Top-25 opponents, peaked at No. 15 in the national rankings and capped a 21-12 campaign with a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Kennedy averaged 10.4 points and 5.6 rebounds that season, posting 18 double-figure games and four double-doubles en route to earning second team MBWA All-Metropolitan honors.

A first team MBWA All-Met selection as a junior in 2009-10, Kennedy averaged a career-best 15.1 points and helped St. John's advance to the NIT. Kennedy also earned first team MBWA All-Met honors as a sophomore in 2008-09 after averaging 13.0 points and a career-high 6.6 rebounds.

ANDREW "FUZZY" LEVANE

A member of the 1942-43 NIT champions, Andrew "Fuzzy" Levane was a main cog in one of St. John's most successful seasons. He was named the Haggerty Award winner by the New York writers and left a colorful record on the history of both New York City and St. John's basketball. He played in the old National League professionally and then in the Basketball Association of America and the NBA. He later became a coach and a scout for the New York Knicks.

FELIPE LOPEZ

Felipe Lopez finished his St. John's career as the third all-time leading scorer, behind fellow NBA stars Chris Mullin and Malik Sealy, with 1,927 points. He recorded a final average of 16.9 points per game while playing in 114 games in his four year St. John's career.

Lopez's statistics are among the top 10 in nearly every offensive category. He is tied for fourth in career 3-point field goals made with 148, fifth in total field goals with 670, third in field goal attempts with 1,615, eighth in free throws made (439), sixth in free throw attempts (667), and third in three-point field goal attempts with 500. A former McDonald's All-American, Lopez was the number one rated player in the country in 1994 out of Rice High School in the Bronx. He will forever be remembered as one of the classiest players, on-and-off the court, to ever wear the St. John's uniform.

KEVIN LOUGHERY

Most of his fame would come later as a successful NBA coach and network broadcaster, but Kevin Loughery starred for Joe Lapchick at St. John's from 1960-62. Loughery's teams posted a combined 41-10 record and boasted a pair of 20-win seasons during his tenure in Queens. He averaged 10.6 points in 25 games in 1960-61 (his first season) and 23.5 points per game in his final year, teaming with LeRoy Ellis to lead St. John's to the semifinals of the NIT Tournament in 1962.

BRIAN MAHONEY

The BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 1993, Brian Mahoney served as an assistant coach under Lou Carnesecca for 18 seasons before being named St. John's head coach in 1992. In his first season at the helm, the Redmen won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains on Mahoney's first team included Lamont Middleton and David Cain. Mahoney served as head coach at St. John's from 1992-1996.

BOB MCINTYRE

Bob McIntyre stands tied for 23rd among St. John's all-time scorers with 1,349 points and is 25th among the all-time rebound leaders with 665. For his career, he played in 78 games and averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game. In his three years, St. John's compiled a 53-27 record and participated in the NIT all three seasons.

McIntyre's presence on this team in 1964-65 will always be remembered because it was the final year Joe Lapchick served on the St. John's bench. McIntyre played a key role in the team's NIT championship that sent Coach Lapchick off in grand style. In four NIT contests, he averaged 15.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. He scored 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds against Villanova in the NIT title game.

As a senior, he was one of the top players for rookie coach Lou Carnesecca in 1965-66. He scored the winning basket on Dec. 4, 1965 in a 64-62 overtime win at Georgetown to help land Carnesecca the first of his 526 career wins.

Al McGuire played from 1948-51. In his first season with the team he finished third in scoring with an 8.1 average. With brother, Dick, who captained the 1948-49 squad, St. John's finished the season with a 15-9 record. The following season the Redmen finished with a 24-5 record as McGuire averaged 7.7 points a game. McGuire ended his collegiate career in 1951, averaging 8.5 points per game and helping lead his team to third-place finishes in both the NIT and NCAA. The team concluded the season with a 26-5 record.

In 1992, McGuire was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., for his celebrated coaching accomplishments at Marquette University, where he won the 1977 National Championship.

FRANK MCGUIRE

Frank McGuire was inducted to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1976. A man who typified New York City and the city game of basketball, he began his college coaching career at St. John's, his alma mater, in 1947. His teams at St. John's, North Carolina and South Carolina won 550 games. He won the NCAA title with the Tar Heels in 1957. At St. John's, his basketball team went to the championship game in 1952 and his Redmen baseball team went to the College World Series in 1949, marking the only instance of a coach going to the title tournament in two sports.

Frank McGuire spent five seasons as the head coach of the St. John's basketball team from 1947-52 and he compiled a record of 102-36. He also wore the St. John's uniform on the hardwood for three seasons from 1933-36 and averaged 5.4 points per game.

BILL MCKEEVER

Bill McKeever was a great passer and defender for St. John's from 1937-40. McKeever would be best characterized as a complete player, filling in admirably on offense, where his best season (1937-38) saw him hit for 51 field goals, score 128 points and notch a 7.1 points per game scoring average. McKeever's teams, under coach Joe Lapchick, finished 48-13 and lost no more than five games in his three seasons of collegiate competition. The squad qualified for the National Invitation Tournament on two occasions. Lapchick's squads during McKeever's tenure posted records of 15-4 (1937-38), 18-4 (1938-39) and 15-5 (1939-40).

JACK MCMAHON

Brooklyn-born, Jack McMahon was the ultimate role player for St. John's under head coach Frank McGuire from 1949-52. He was known for his great defense, adept floor leadership and an accurate two-handed set shot, which was his trademark. Inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame on September 21, 2000, McMahon led the Redmen to the 1952 NCAA finals in his senior season. He was named a NCAA All-American that year and was a first round pick of the Rochester Royals of the NBA. He was the first St. John's guard to score more than 1,000 points, finishing his career scoring 1,176 points in a St. John's uniform. He went on to a glorious professional career with the Royals and St. Louis Hawks, where his team beat the Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Bill Russell-led Boston Celtics in the 1957 NBA Championship.

CHARLES MINLEND

Charles Minlend played for St. John's from 1992-93 to 1995-96. His best season with the Red Storm came during the 1993-94 campaign, where he averaged 13.6 points and hauled in 224 rebounds for an average of 7.7 boards per game. Minlend was a warrior, and his many accomplishments on the court were magnified by his studies off the court, where he graduated with honors through the rigors of the University's five-year pharmacy program. He is also among the University's career leaders with 1,349 points (T-23rd) and 10th all-time in rebounding (784).

BILLY PAULTZ

Billy Paultz made a tremendous impact in his two seasons with St. John's. The 6-10 center from River Edge, N.J., had a career double-double average of 12.0 points per game and 10.1 rebounds. In his first season at St. John's after transferring from Cameron College, Paultz scored 225 points, grabbed 185 rebounds and helped St. John's to a 23-6 record and a NCAA East Regional appearance. That year St. John's beat second-ranked Davidson on a last second shot by Paultz in overtime. At the time Paultz was quoted as saying, "I had to make it or Coach [Lou Carnesecca] would have killed me."

The following year he had an even greater impact as he led St. John's to a second-place finish in the NIT. Paultz finished with a 15.8 scoring average and a 13.4 rebounds per game average. His 389 rebounds that year still ranks on the school's top 10 list and his 574 career rebounds places him 37th all-time. "The Whopper," as he was known because of his size and ample appetite, could have also referred to the size of his professional career, which spanned an incredible 15 seasons in both the ABA and NBA.

Paultz was drafted in 1970 by San Diego. In his prime with the ABA's New York Nets (under Carnesecca) and NBA's San Antonio Spurs, he was a consistent double-figure scorer and proficient rebounder. Paultz was inducted into the St. John's Hall of Fame in 1997.

DAVID RUSSELL

David Russell ranks ninth on the St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,753 points for his career and is eighth on the all-time rebounding list with 832 boards. Russell began his illustrious career in the 1979-80 season, when he was named the BIG EAST Conference's first Rookie of the Year. He averaged 10.8 points per game and 5.5 rebounds in his first year, which earned him the Metropolitan Sports Writer Rookie of the Year and the Widmer Eastern Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the Eastern Basketball Magazine's All-Freshman Squad.

Russell led the team in scoring his sophomore season with an average of 14.8 ppg. He was an honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press that season along with being selected first team All-Met. He was named first team All-BIG EAST and All-Met his junior season and he again led the team in scoring with a 17.4 average. He was an AP honorable mention All-American as well as a member of the USBWA All-District II Team. He concluded his collegiate career in 1982-83, finishing second on the team in scoring with 15.4 ppg and leading the team in rebounding with a 7.4 average. He was also named second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Met.

RON RUTLEDGE

Ron Rutledge owned a stellar playing career before becoming a long-time assistant under head coach Lou Carnesecca, in addition to Brian Mahoney and Fran Fraschilla. His tenure lasted 20 seasons on the Red Storm bench before retiring to pursue a career in administration at St. John's, working in the Alumni Relations Office. Rutledge was inducted into the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

MARTY SATALINO

A St. John's two-star athlete who was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991, Satalino was enshrined for both basketball and baseball. He played from 1952-55 and was a key contributor for head coach Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano's squads. Satalino's best season was the 1953-54 campaign, when he averaged 13.2 points in 20 games for the Redmen.

BILL SCHAEFFER

Bill Schaeffer scored 1,484 career points, a total that still ranks 15th on the St. John's all-time scoring list. He also added 622 career boards, placing him 29th on the all-time rebounding list, and hit at .560 percent from the floor for his career, good enough for fourth all-time.

Schaeffer began his career in 1970, when he averaged 14.4 points a game. In his junior season, Schaeffer averaged 17.1 points per game and posted a field goal percentage of .581, a St. John's record at the time. Schaeffer's excellence on the court as a senior earned him several All-America accolades, the most notable being a third team All-America selection by the Associated Press and United Press International. He also was the MVP of the 1972 ECAC Holiday Festival.

As a senior in 1972-73, Schaeffer scored 643 points in 26 games for a 24.7 per game average, a school record that still stands today. His field goal accuracy of .594 that season broke his own record of .581. This mark currently stands sixth on the all-time list, ranking him among the NCAA statistical leaders that season and earning him the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the Metropolitan area. Schaeffer's contributions to the 19-7 season were also felt in some team records set by St. John's, among them the highest team scoring average of 86.2 and the highest field goal average of 35.8 per game.

SOLLY WALKER

The first African-American player to wear a St. John's uniform, Solly Walker came to St. John's from Boys High School in Brooklyn and played in 78 games, scoring 573 points (6.8 average) and grabbing 496 rebounds (6.8 average). He led the freshman team in 1950-51 to a 17-2 record by averaging 15.1 points per game.

Walker's first year on the varsity squad was exciting, as the team advanced to the NCAA final, falling to Kansas. Walker played in 30 games and averaged 4.4 points and 3.8 rebounds. In 1952-53, he helped St. John's advance to the NIT final by averaging 7.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per contest. In 1953-54, Walker enjoyed his finest season. He led the team in both scoring (14.0 ppg.) and rebounding (12.2).

JOHN WARREN

John Warren's play in the late 1960s coined the term "swingman," as he played both inside and outside for head coach Lou Carnesecca. In addition, he always drew the toughest defensive assignment. Warren was perhaps St. John's most complete player, scoring 1,306 points in a career that spanned 84 games with 65 St. John's victories for a .774 percentage. At Georgetown one night, he was fouled as the buzzer sounded and calmly dropped home two free throws to send the game into overtime where he put a lid on the opposition's star and St. John's shut them out in overtime. Drafted by the Knicks, he played on the fabled 1969-70 team of Bill Bradley and Willis Reed, and spent seven years with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

BILL WENNINGTON

The story of Bill Wennington is one of great patience, hard work and burning desire to succeed. He has reached the pinnacle of athletic competition by winning three NBA championship rings as a member of the Chicago Bulls and a trip to the NCAA Men's Final Four as a member of the 31-4 St. John's Redmen in 1985. The Montreal, Quebec, native, came to St. John's from Lutheran High School in Long Island. A McDonald's All-American, Wennington averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds a game and led Lutheran to two New York State championship titles. An impressive 124 games later in a St. John's uniform, Wennington ranks among the school bests in many categories. He is second all-time with a career .579 shooting percentage. His 1,021 career points rank him 50th on the St. John's all-time scoring chart and his 644 career rebounds is listed at 28th.

He is among just 32 St. John's players to have scored 1,000 points and grab 500 rebounds. A prolific shot blocker, Wennington had 152 career swats which is sixth-best in school history and makes him one of nine players all-time with more than 1,000 career points, 500 career rebounds and 100 career blocks. As a senior, he was named a second team All-BIG EAST selection. That year he was also selected as a member of the U.S. Basketball Writers All-District II team, a Sporting News honorable mention All-American, a Basketball Weekly All-East selection and a first team All-Metro selection. Wennington was also a member of the Canadian National Team, and was chosen 16th overall in the first round of the NBA draft by the Dallas Mavericks in 1985.

JAMES WHITE

James White was a quiet contributor on the floor and outstanding athlete in the 1940s. Playing in the early years for Joe Lapchick, White set the standard as a "go-to-guy" when scoring was at a premium. He averaged 9.4 points per game in his three varsity seasons. In 1939-40, White averaged 8.7 points to lead the team to a 15-5 mark. The following campaign he improved to 10.2 points, and in 1941-42 poured in 200 points for a 9.5 average. After basketball, White became a successful businessman, serving as Vice President for NBC Television for several years.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Glen Williams ranks tenth on all-time scoring list with 1,727 career points, starring for St. John's from 1974-77. As a freshman he stepped into a starting role for coach Lou Carnesecca and finished with an impressive 10.3 ppg scoring average. As a sophomore, the 6-5 guard averaged 11.8 ppg and 5.9 rpg. In his junior year, Williams entered the ranks of St. John's finest, reaching the 1000-point plateau. That year the Redmen reached a national ranking of No. 18, with Williams leading the team in scoring at 14.8 points per game. He was also second on the team in assists with 79.

Williams' greatest year was undoubtedly the 1976-77 season when, as captain of the Redmen, he scored 665 points, surpassing Bob Zawoluk's 26-year-old record for points in a season. The Virgin Islands native had a 21.5 ppg average and also handed out more than 100 assists for the year. His magical MVP performance at the Joe Lapchick Tournament saw him score 37 points against Fairfield in the championship game, just one point shy of a then-Alumni Hall record. Throughout his four years, Williams maintained a sharpshooter's touch, never shooting less than .500 from the field. Carnesecca often referred to him as "the complete player," handing him the toughest defensive assignments to add to his huge offensive role.

Williams is currently fourth all-time in career field goals made with 712, and fifth in single-season field goals made with 256 in 1976-77. Following graduation, Williams was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks with the 27th overall pick, and then played professionally in the Eastern League and the Western Association.

JAYSON WILLIAMS

One of the premier forwards in the NBA for 10 seasons, Jayson Williams retired in 2000 after a bout with nagging injuries. He was a NBA All-Star and one of the league's top rebounders during his tenure with the New Jersey Nets.

Williams was a standout performer at St. John's, playing three seasons under Hall of Fame Coach Lou Carnesecca from 1987-90. During that time his teams boasted a winning record of 61-35, made two trips to the NCAA Tournament and won the 1989 NIT Championship, where he was selected Most Valuable Player.

His best year was the 1988-89 campaign, when he averaged 19.5 points and 7.9 rebounds in 31 games. Williams was amazing from the floor that season, hitting on 236-of-412 shots for a .573 field goal percentage and knocked down 70.2 percent of his free throws (134-of-191) that same season.

The 1989 season also saw Williams named to the all-tournament teams for the Lapchick and ECAC Holiday Festival Tournaments. At the end of the season he received All-BIG EAST second team honors.

His senior year was cut short by injury but not before Williams ended his St. John's career by posting 1,072 points, 490 rebounds and a .550 shooting percentage that still ranks among the top 10 in St. John's history.

BOB ZAWOLUK

Bob Zawoluk was the first St. John's player to average 20 or more points in a season. He currently ranks sixth on the all-time scoring list with 1,826 career points. He still holds St. John's records for most free throws made in a season (208), most points in a game (65) and most field goals in a game (25).

Zawoluk played from 1949-52, leading St. John's to a 75-15 record. He keyed the team in his first season with a 20.3 scoring average and he was named a Helms Athletic Foundation third team All-American. He led the team again the following year with a 21.1 points per game average and took his team to a third place NIT finish and third place regional finish in the NCAA Tournament. He was named a first team All-American by the Helms Foundation that year. In his senior year, Zawoluk led the team to its first ever NCAA championship game, averaging 18.9 points per game. He was a second team consensus All-American.
