MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

The St. John's Men's Basketball Media Guide was published by the St. John's Athletic Communications office with the intent to serve all media and followers of Red Storm basketball. It is dedicated in memory of Jim O'Connell for his valued contributions to the St. John's basketball program.

Additional copies may be purchased for $25. Mail orders should include $3 for postage and handling.

The guide was written and edited by Stephen Dombroski, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations, with design and layout by Maggie Pruitt. Editorial assistance provided by Dylan Smith, Kevin Wehner, Jim O'Connell and Paul Montella.

Photography by Vincent Dusovic, Maggie Pruitt, Errol Anderson, NBA Properties, NBAE, Getty Images and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The St. John's Athletic Communications staff extends its thanks to all BIG EAST and opponent sports information offices and all members of the past sports information staffs that have assisted in compiling information that is an integral part of this guide. Any corrections or additions to the media guide are welcome and should be directed, via email, to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the exclusive discretion of the St. John's University Athletic Communications Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering St. John's University, the current-game opponent or another BIG EAST Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

4. Officially recognized St. John's University daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

6. All digital-only media outlets will be evaluated based on: a) purpose (e.g. newsgathering), b) news process/operation and c) traffic.

OTHER GUIDELINES

Credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to anyone but working members of a media outlet.

St. John's University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

Web sites that sponsor message boards or chat rooms where visitors are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are limited for credentials and access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium, but may not be granted additional passes or access.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors no later than one day prior to an event via www.sportssystems.com/StJohns. Requests on official letterhead should be sent to the Athletic Communications Office, Room 157 Carnesecca Arena, St. John's University, 8000 Utopia Parkway, Queens, NY 11439. They also may be e-mailed to Stephen Dombroski at dombross@stjohns.edu

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN INFORMATION

Credentials and radio line access for Red Storm home men's basketball games at Madison Square Garden should be sent to the Madison Square Garden Public Relations Department. Contact Larry Torres of the MSG Public Relations Department by phone at 212-631-5178 or by email at Larry.Torres@msg.com

GAME DAY MEDIA PARKING

No parking passes will be issued, but media may use the Blue Parking Lot on game nights for Carnesecca Arena games. Reserved parking can be secured upon request through the Athletic Communications office as far in advance as possible. No parking passes will be issued at Madison Square Garden, where parking garages are located in close proximity to the arena. The media must pay to park in these garages.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games.

Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas. No flash units, strobes or tripods of any kind are permitted. Freelance photographers will be granted credentials upon availability of space and at the discretion of the Athletic Communications office.

MEDIA SEATING AND WORK ROOM

The media work room area is limited in numbers for working media. Requests must be made in advance with the St. John's University Athletic Communications office. Wireless internet, working facility electrical outlets and limited phones are available.

GAMEDAY/HOME INTERVIEW POLICIES:

- The St. John's locker room is closed to the media following the game. The team is allowed the customary 10-minute cooling-off period after each game. A postgame press conference with Head Coach Rick Pitino and Red Storm student-athletes will be held in-person and will be available virtually for all credentialed media. Players requested for interviews will be brought to the interview room or will be held in designated areas at Carnesecca Arena/Madison Square Garden.
- The St. John's Athletic Communications staff will assist credentialed media with postgame availability for the visiting coach and player(s). Student-athletes chosen for postgame interviews are at the discretion of the visiting Director of Athletic Communications.
- The St. John's Athletic Communications staff will secure coach and student-athletes for the interview room. Coach Pitino will enter with student-athletes, unless detained by radio/television interviews. Coach Pitino and Red Storm student-athletes will complete interview and be available for one-on-ones.
- St. John's press areas at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden will be run by the same rules and regulations. A time limit for coach/student-athlete interviews will be enforced, a 15-20 minute limit for coaches and a 10-15 minute limit for student-athletes.
- The only pregame interviews allowed on game days will be for St. John's radio, and local or national television productions. All requests for one-on-one interviews during game week will be facilitated by the Athletic Communications office. No game day interviews will be allowed unless specifically requested for televised games.
- Interviews will take place in designated areas of Carnesecca Arena or Madison Square Garden in addition to the interview room.

ROAD GAMES

- Coach Pitino/student-athletes will be available during the week of games for visiting print/radio by phone. No day-of-game interviews will be granted unless specific requests are approved for televised games.
- Conference calls can be arranged in specific instances, if requested at least one week prior to the game.
- Practices will be closed on the road unless otherwise specified by the St. John's Athletic Communications Office.
- Postgame and interview room policies will follow the guidelines and policies of the home sports information office.
- No interviews will be conducted at hotels on the road, unless previously approved for televised games.
- St. John's radio and television interviews with Coach Pitino and student-athletes will be granted first at all away games.

COVERING PRACTICE

St. John's basketball practices are closed to the public and the media. Should a practice be open, the Athletic Communications staff will notify reporters in advance.

RADIO POLICY

St. John's has Ethernet lines available to visiting radio stations at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden. Arrangements for Ethernet lines must be made through the Athletic Communications Office. All radio stations will be limited to three working credentials on press row.

MISSION

St. John's is a Catholic, Vincentian, Metropolitan, and Global university that embraces the Judeo-Christian ideals of respect for the rights and dignity of every person, as well as each individual's responsibility for the world in which we live. As a University, we commit ourselves to academic excellence and the pursuit of wisdom, which flows from free inquiry, religious values, and human experience.

PRESIDENT

Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P
18th President.

ENROLLMENT

Total enrollment in 2024 was 19,389 full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students. St. John's student body was comprised of 15,640 undergraduate and 3,749 graduate students from 45 states, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, and 122 countries. There were 650 non-resident (international) students representing 106 countries. Fifty percent of enrolled students were African American; Alaska Native; American Indian; Asian; Hispanic; Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander; or of two or more races.

During the 2023–24 academic year, 97 percent of undergraduate and graduate students received more than $542 million in financial aid, with more than $316 million coming directly from the University. St. John's offers more than 200 undergraduate and graduate majors, including 14 doctoral programs.

FACULTY

Ninety percent of full-time faculty members hold a doctorate or other terminal degree in their field. With our low 15:1 student-faculty ratio, St. John's offers personal attention to every student.

ALUMNI

The University has more than 200,000 living alumni.

ST. JOHN'S LOCATIONS

The University has a residential campus in Queens, NY, and an academic campus in Manhattan, NY. In addition, St. John's has three academic locations in Rome, Italy; Paris, France; and Limerick, Ireland.

Queens, NY

Our 102-acre Queens, NY, campus features modern residence halls with state-of-the-art amenities, study rooms, and recreational facilities. In addition, there are three-story, townhouse-style residences on campus, as well as modern, centrally located, apartment-style housing near campus for graduate, law, and upper-class students.

The 70,000-square-foot St. Vincent Health Sciences Center opened for classes in Fall 2024, and is home to students in the University's Nursing, Radiologic Sciences, and Physician Assistant programs. The new, energy-efficient building features active learning classrooms, laboratories, simulation facilities, office space, collaborative spaces, and outdoor terraces.

The 127,000-square-foot, five-story

High-tech classroom and laboratory buildings—as well as the library with more than one million volumes—are all designed to ensure student success. The Peter J. Tobin College of Business features the Lesley and William Collins Business Analytics Lab with an LED stock ticker measuring 76 feet and multiple Bloomberg Terminals. The Paul and Carol Evanson Career Services Center allow Tobin students to collaborate with their peers and interface with potential employers.

The Lesley H. and William L. Collins College of Professional Studies, located in St. Augustine Hall, includes five high-tech labs to prepare students for some of today's fastest-growing careers. The Homeland Security/Emergency Management Simulation Lab allows students to apply classroom theory to virtual, physics-based environments representing large-scale, natural, and manmade disasters. The Sanford Family Cyber Security Lab prepares students for intrusion detection, malware analysis, network forensic investigations, and other digital defense activities.

In the IDEA (Innovation and Design Enhancing the Arts) Lab, Communication Arts students produce new content and test ideas. The Farella Innovation Laboratory is a hands-on design and test space where students learn how to develop innovative ideas and products and how to transform them into final, "sellable" content/output. The Computer Science Lab is a space for faculty and student collaborations on research projects. The Joseph and Ellen Tufano Control Office is at the heart of the Collins College of Professional Studies labs—it functions as the command center for their operations.

Just outside of Marillac Hall, the Media Arts and Design Lab support programs in digital media, animation, art and design, advertising, and journalism, and the Technology Commons focuses on eSports, virtual reality technology, and 3D printing.

Manhattan, NY

The Maurice R. Greenberg School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science was founded in 1901 as the Insurance Society of New York and over the years evolved into The College of Insurance (TCI). In June 2001, TCI merged with St. John's University, becoming part of The Peter J. Tobin College of Business.

From its location at 101 Astor Place in Manhattan's East Village, St. John's awards undergraduate, M.B.A., and M.S. degrees in the insurance, risk management, and actuarial science disciplines. Through its Tobin Center for Executive Education, the University provides education, training, and consulting services to industry, governments, and regulators worldwide.

The Greenberg School is a global leader in risk and insurance education and training and draws candidates from many regions of the world. All degree programs offered by The Peter J. Tobin College of Business, and thus by GSRM, are fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Rome, Italy

St. John's residential location in Rome, Italy, is a modern facility situated in the historic Prati section of the Eternal City. The four-story, 75,000-square-foot structure includes classrooms, a student and faculty lounge, space for more than 200 resident students, a chapel, library, courtyard, Campus Ministry, and administrative offices.

Paris, France

St. John's academic location in Paris, France, sits within the mother house, or Maison-Mere, of the French Vincentian community. With 19,000 square feet of space, the historic six-story facility includes residences, classrooms, offices, and support services. Students enjoy convenient access to the wealth of academic, cultural, and artistic treasures available in the historic "City of Light."

Limerick, Ireland

At St. John's newest European location, students experience a rewarding immersion in the history and culture of Limerick, Ireland's fourth most populous city. The University partners with Mary Immaculate College to provide students with direct experience of a Catholic campus in Ireland.

COLLEGES AND MAJORS

Students at St. John's choose from more than 100 bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs—as well as courses of study leading to professional certificates—in six schools and colleges:

- St. John's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- The School of Education
- The Peter J. Tobin College of Business
- The Lesley H. and William L. Collins College of Professional Studies
- College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences
- St. John's School of Law

STUDENT RESOURCES

St. John's students have access to innovative digital resources. All first-year students have the opportunity to opt-in to the University's laptop program and connect to St. John's award-winning wireless network. Students are immersed in an expanding assortment of sophisticated specialized learning environments designed to enrich the academic experience and create professional atmospheres.

STUDENT OUTCOMES

In U.S. News & World Report's Best Colleges 2026 guidebook, St. John's is cited as a "Top Performer on Social Mobility," ranked no. 49 among national universities—and closer to home is exceeded by only one other Catholic institution in New York and two other Catholic institutions in the United States in this critical measure.

In addition, 90.9 percent of 2024 undergraduate graduates were either employed or pursuing a graduate degree six months after graduation.*

*The data here is representative of the three graduating classes, September 2023, January 2024, and May 2024, and pertains to the 73 percent of reachable undergraduates who responded to the survey and includes graduates who may have been employed before enrolling at St. John's.

GLOBAL STUDIES

Through the Discover the World: Europe program, students live and learn in three international cities for a single semester, and become immersed in the cultural, artistic, and economic life of each location. The University's extensive study abroad programs also allow students to experience sites throughout Europe, Asia, and Latin America.

ACADEMIC SERVICE-LEARNING

Course-related community service provides St. John's students with abundant opportunities to make a positive difference while gaining real-world experience. Through course work and reflection, students examine issues pertaining to social justice and responsibility. Areas include civic engagement, education/youth services, health care, and hunger and homelessness. Students also help those in need through the Midnight Run program, University Service Day, and a variety of service immersions.

REV. BRIAN J. SHANLEY, O.P.

President, St. John's University

Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P., is the 18th President of St. John's University.

A native of Warwick, RI, Fr. Shanley holds a doctorate in philosophy from the University of Toronto and completed a postdoctoral fellowship at the University of Notre Dame's Center for Philosophy of Religion. After completing undergraduate studies in history at Providence College in 1980, he earned a licentiate degree in philosophy from The Catholic University of America. He also holds a Master of Divinity and a licentiate degree in Sacred Theology from the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, DC.

Ordained a member of the Dominican Order of Preachers in 1987, Fr. Shanley taught philosophy at Providence College and was a visiting professor at Emory University's Candler School of Theology. He served as a philosophy professor at The Catholic University of America from 1994 to 2005.

Fr. Shanley was the 12th and longest-serving president in the history of Providence College. Elected in 2005, he served three consecutive five-year terms and concluded his service as President on June 30, 2020.

During Fr. Shanley's tenure at Providence College, he was widely credited with making substantial improvements to campus facilities and student services, hiring large numbers of new faculty, diversifying the student body, and strengthening the college's national profile in academics and athletics.

In November of 2020, the St. John's University Board of Trustees announced the unanimous election of Fr. Shanley as the University's 18th President and he began his tenure on February 1, 2021.

Fr. Shanley has served as Associate Editor and Editor of The Thomist and as a member of the editorial board for the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion. He has also served on the executive committee of the American Catholic Philosophical Association. Widely published in philosophy-focused academic journals, his research interests include Thomas Aquinas, philosophy of religion, metaphysics, medieval philosophy, and ethics.

He is the author of two books and edited another:

- Editor and author of the Introduction in One Hundred Years of Philosophy. Washington, D.C.: The Catholic University of America Press, 2001.
- The Thomist Tradition. Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion, Vol. 2. Dordrecht, Holland: Kluwer Academic Publishers, 2002.
- The Treatise on the Divine Nature:Summa Theologiae I 1–13. Translation and Commentary. Indianapolis, IN: Hackett Publishing Company, Inc., 2006.

An opera aficionado, Fr. Shanley is a self-described sports enthusiast who enjoys golf and incorporates assorted Chinese martial arts into his daily routine.

ED KULL

Vice President and Director of Athletics

A native New Yorker, St. John's alumnus and gifted administrator with a proven track record of success, Ed Kull was named the eighth Vice President and Director of Athletics in the history of St. John's University in September of 2024.

Kull's first year guiding the Red Storm was one of the most memorable in the University's proud athletic history. Kull's leadership helped lift the men's basketball program, as the Red Storm matched a school record with 31 victories and won both the BIG EAST Regular Season and BIG EAST Tournament titles. The Johnnies' outright regular season championship was the program's first since 1985 while the conference postseason crown was the first for the Red Storm since 2000.

Leaning on his extensive background in external relations, Kull helped maximize the Red Storm's success when it came to driving ticket sales and attendance. The Johnnies, who went 18-0 at home during 2024-25, sold out seven of their nine games at Carnesecca Arena. At "The World's Most Famous Arena," the Red Storm sold out (19,812) each of its final three regular season games and saw two more games break the 18,000-ticket mark. The Johnnies' average regular season attendance of 16,994 at Madison Square Garden was the program's highest in several decades. For good measure, all three sessions of the BIG EAST Tournament that featured St. John's also sold out "The Mecca."

In 2025-26, St. John's is scheduled to host 12 regular season games at Madison Square Garden, the highest such total for the program since 1951-52.

A prolific fundraiser, has accelerated the Red Storm's efforts on that front, overseeing a re-seat of season ticket holder locations at both Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden that has greatly increased philanthropic giving to the department. In addition, Kull has also made the most of traditional revenue generating opportunities, increasing sponsorship opportunities and leveraging the Red Storm's brand recognition in the world capital of arts, media and entertainment.

Following the settlement in House v. NCAA that paved the way for revenue sharing in college athletics, Kull immediately established the Red Storm Investment Legacy Fund, which allows supporters to directly contribute to the Johnnies' efforts on that front. Kull has also orchestrated St. John's post-House revenue sharing strategy, aiming to solidify the Red Storm's position at the forefront of this new era of college athletics.

This past summer, Kull spearheaded an agreement to outfit all 17 of the Red Storm's varsity teams in adidas footwear, uniforms, accessories and apparel.

Kull came home to Queens following a successful stint as the athletic director at Fordham. Appointed as the department's interim director in April of 2020 before taking over the full-time post in February of 2021, Kull took incredible steps to transform Fordham Athletics during his relatively brief tenure.

In the spring of 2021, Kull hired Kyle Neptune, then a Villanova assistant, to lead a men's basketball program that had gone 45-95 over the previous five seasons, including a 2-12 mark in 2020-21. In his lone year at the helm, Neptune led the Rams to a 16-16 record and an appearance in the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinals for the first time in 15 years. After Villanova hired Neptune to replace Hall of Famer Jay Wright that spring, Kull promoted Associate Head Coach Keith Urgo to lead the program following a national search. Kull's belief in Urgo paid immediate dividends, as the 2022-23 Rams went 25-8, including a 12-6 A-10 mark to tie for second in the final conference standings. The Rams advanced to the semifinals of the A-10 Tournament for just the second time in nearly 30 years of league membership before Kull inked Urgo to a long-term extension. The men's basketball team's 54 wins in Kull's three years as the permanent athletic director are the program's highest three-year win total since 1990-93 when Fordham was a member of the Patriot League.

In addition to the team's turnaround on the court, Kull was also instrumental in revamping the culture surrounding Fordham Basketball and Fordham Athletics in general. Prior to his departure, the Rams concluded their third straight fiscal year with a record fundraising total, including a $7.6 million figure in 2023-24 that was more than $2.5 million higher than the previous year's mark. Those aforementioned totals do not include a long-term pledge to Fordham Football from an anonymous donor totaling $10 million.

The most impactful product of Kull's fundraising efforts was the creation of the New Era Fund, which is dedicated to helping Fordham Men's and Women's Basketball remain competitive with the upper echelon of the Atlantic 10. The fund has allowed for much-needed facility renovations, improved travel accommodations and an array of additional enhancements in the day-to-day lives of the basketball programs.

Kull helped generate increased interest from students, alumni and supporters. The men's basketball team ended the 2022-23 season with six straight home sellouts before seeing crowds of 8,500 and 10,000 for the Atlantic 10 Tournament at Barclays Center.

In addition to the men's basketball team's turnaround, Fordham enjoyed success in numerous other sports during Kull's tenure. Under Kull, six Fordham squads won conference championships while the football team earned an at-large berth to the FCS Playoffs in 2022. Kull, was also a member of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Committee.

In addition to their success on the fields of competition, Fordham student-athletes also excelled in the classroom during Kull's tenure. On a four-year rolling average, Fordham student-athletes outperformed the general student population in terms of GPA, retention rate and graduation rate. The spring 2024 semester saw Fordham student-athletes compile their highest single-term GPA in 30 years.

In the summer of 2023, Kull inked a widely heralded apparel deal with Nike to outfit the Rams' 22 varsity sports.

Kull arrived in the Bronx as the Fordham's senior director of development in 2017. In this role, Kull oversaw two capital campaigns while dramatically increasing fundraising and alumni engagement.

Kull began his professional career at St. John's in 2003 as a graduate assistant in external relations. After rising to the position of Associate Athletic Director for External Relations, Kull left to oversee sports and entertainment marketing for the Glaceau and Coca-Cola companies. One of the first employees hired at Vitaminwater, he played a vital role in the company's meteoric rise.

In 2011, Kull returned to St. John's to serve as Chief of Staff to the President overseeing Athletics and Institutional Advancement before eventually rising to the role of acting Vice President for Athletics and Institutional Advancement. During this time, St. John's experienced stellar fundraising numbers and saw athletic revenues increase by 40 percent, as Kull helped negotiate a hydration agreement with BODYARMOR, a lucrative apparel deal with Under Armour, and a new venue contract with Madison Square Garden.

A 2005 MBA graduate from St. John's Tobin College of Business, Kull graduated with a BA from Stony Brook University in 2003. A member of the Stony Brook baseball team, Kull was the program's first-ever All-America East selection in 2003. Kull, a Molloy High School graduate who played for legendary head coach Jack Curran, is currently pursuing a doctorate in educational leadership at St. John's.

Kull and his wife, Sarah, live on Long Island and are the proud parents of two sons: Ben and Lukas.

JOHN DIFFLEY Ed.D.

Deputy Athletics Director/Chief Operating Officer

John Diffley, Ed.D. serves as the Deputy Athletics Director and Chief Operating Officer at St. John's University where he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Red Storm's 17 Division I athletic programs. In his role, Diffley oversees facility and operations, event management, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, sports performance, and he is an administrative liaison for head coaches and university leadership. Diffley is a member of the Executive Staff and provides administration and programming for key department functions.

Diffley's responsibilities include personnel management, capital projects, construction, strategic partnerships, planning, and fundraising. In addition, he is involved in maintaining and developing key partnerships, including the oversight of an exclusive all sports partnership with Nike, New York Presbyterian Hospital-Queens, Professional Physical Therapy and New York City Football Cub. Diffley played a key role in negotiating a 10-year extension with LEARFIELD.

Diffley is a chief strategist for new or planned athletic facility renovation and construction and serves as the chair of St. John's Athletics Facilities Master Planning committee. During his time in Queens, Diffley has been involved in significant facility upgrades including the multi-phase renovation to Carnesecca Arena, an expansion of the sports medicine treatment area, renovation of sports performance training center, creation of an indoor golf practice facility, installation of a state-of-the-art turf field and track at DaSilva Memorial Field, and resurfacing Jack Kaiser Stadium.

Diffley serves as the sport administrator for men's soccer, women's soccer and baseball.

Diffley has represented St. John's on numerous committees during his tenure in Queens. He is a member of the BIG EAST Presidents' Award Selection Committee, chaired the NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Committee for two years, Chair of the BIG EAST Men's Soccer Committee, NSCAA Board of Governance Task Force, St. John's University Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity Cohort, St. John's University Capital Planning Committee, St. John's Campus Climate Committee, Vice President's Round Table, St. John's University Facilities Planning Group, the Strategic Priorities Review Team. Diffley was the Tournament Director of the 2013 NCAA Women's Basketball Championships First & Second Rounds, the Assistant Tournament Manager of the 2014 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional at Madison Square Garden and the co-Tournament Manager for the 2017 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional at MSG. Diffley has been honored for his dedicated service with the Outstanding Achievement Award at St. John's University.

Prior to becoming an administrator, Diffley was head men's soccer coach at Dominican College for two years and was a key member of St. John's nationally-recognized men's soccer program as an assistant coach for four years. In that span, the Red Storm reached the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 for four-consecutive seasons, and won two BIG EAST titles.

Diffley earned a Doctor of Education in Instructional Leadership and a Master's of Business Administration at St. John's University. Prior to arriving in Queens, he spent three years working in the financial services sector for State Street Capital, a company that leads the industry in providing hedge fund infrastructure.

Diffley played professional soccer both in Europe and the United States and was the 27th player chosen in the inaugural Major League Soccer draft. Diffley also competed for the United States National Team, and was an alternate member of the 1988 United States Olympic Team. In college, Diffley led American University to the NCAA National Final, and the longest game in NCAA soccer history, an eight overtime loss to UCLA. For his on-field achievements, Diffley has been inducted into the Albertus Magnus Hall of Fame, American University Hall of Fame, and the Rockland County Sports Hall of Fame.

MICHAEL BARRY

Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Chief Financial Officer

Michael Barry joined the St. John's University Athletic Department in August 2006 and currently serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs.

As the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business Affairs, Barry oversees the overall management of the department's budget operations, encompassing financial reporting, long term and capital planning, forecasting, internal controls, business operations systems and contract administration. Barry is also responsible for overseeing the ticketing unit for the Athletic Department, as well as serving as sports administrator for several programs.

Barry came to St. John's from his alma mater, Iona College, where he spent six years in numerous roles, the last of which was Associate Athletic Director for Internal Affairs. In that role Barry managed the day-to-day internal operations for Gael Athletics, which included supervising varsity sports such as men's soccer, baseball and women's lacrosse. His responsibilities also included overseeing the department's Strength and Conditioning, Campus Recreation, Facilities, and Operations and Events units. He also contributed to the planning and construction of Iona's Hynes Athletic Center, oversaw the department's Human Resources efforts and assisted with development and marketing.

Prior to his elevation to Associate Athletic Director, Barry served as Iona's Assistant Athletic Director for Operations, managing the Gaels' athletic facilities and coordinating competition and practice schedules for all home venues.

Barry was a member of the Cross Country/Track and Field program at Iona College where he received a bachelor's degree in 2000 and went on to earn an M.B.A. from Iona's Hagan School of Business in 2003.

Currently, Barry serves as a member of the BIG EAST Cross Country Indoor/ Outdoor Track & Field Committee. In addition, Barry is an active member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) and International Collegiate Licensing Association (ICLA).

STEPHEN DOMBROSKI

Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations

Stephen Dombroski was named Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Relations in July 2017 after previously serving as Associate Athletics Director for Communications at St. John's University since October 2014. Dombroski is a member of the athletic department's executive staff and in his role oversees the media relations and publicity for the department's 17 varsity athletic teams while serving as the primary contact for the men's basketball program. As Senior Associate Athletic Director, he is also responsible for managing the department's advertising, branding, creative services, marketing, multimedia and the St. John's University Television Network (SJU-TV).

Dombroski serves as a lead contact for external operations with Red Storm Athletic partners, such as FOX Sports, LEARFIELD, Madison Square Garden and adidas. He also represents St. John's on the BIG EAST Conference Marketing Council.

Dombroski joined the St. John's staff after serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Digital Media & Communications at Seton Hall University. In this role, Dombroski directed media relations for the Pirates' 14 athletic programs. His primary responsibilities included managing publicity for Seton Hall's men's basketball program, while also serving as a communications and marketing liaison for partnerships with FOX Sports and Under Armour.

Prior to Seton Hall, Dombroski spent five years heading the Manhattan College Athletic Communications Office. Promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Communications & Marketing at Manhattan in 2010, Dombroski oversaw the external relations operation for the Jaspers' 19 NCAA Division I athletic teams.

Dombroski held senior administrative responsibilities in Riverdale, including serving as the primary athletics constituent on the Presidential Committee for Manhattan's institutional branding campaign. In addition, he held a lead role in the management of a major facility enhancement to Draddy Gymnasium in 2011, which at the time was the largest improvement project since its construction in 1978. Dombroski also managed athletic marketing, sponsorships and directed all multimedia initiatives.

A native of Latham, N.Y., Dombroski came to Manhattan from Siena College, where he served as Assistant Sports Information Director. In this role, he aided in the public relations and marketing efforts for Siena's 18 NCAA Division I athletic programs. Dombroski helped supervise operations for home athletic events on campus and at the Times Union Center, a 13,000-seat off campus facility in downtown Albany that is the home court for Siena Basketball.

Dombroski, a 2004 graduate of Siena College, holds a bachelor's degree of science in marketing and management with a minor in psychology. He earned a master's degree in business administration from Wagner College in 2006. Dombroski was a four-year member of the Siena men's lacrosse team. In 2003, he attended the NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Conference on behalf of Siena and the NCAA, a prestigious honor awarded to select student-athletes across the country. Additionally, Dombroski was a member of the MAAC Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), while also serving on Siena's Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Dombroski is an active member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

KRISTIN QUINN

Senior Associate Athletic Director/ Senior Women's Administrator

Kristin Quinn was named Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Woman Administrator on Sept. 1, 2023.

Prior to her return to Queens, Quinn was hired as Associate Athletic Director for External Operations at Pace University in 2021, overseeing the day-to-day management of the athletic communications department, handling digital production of the Pace Sports Network operated under NE10 Now and sponsorship, marketing and branding efforts for the Setters. Her role also expanded into working with Pace University's Office of Development and Alumni Relations to coordinate fundraising efforts for each of the Setters' varsity teams and support groups while helping manage the Athletics Alumni Association Board.

Quinn ran operations for all Pace Athletics Alumni events, including the Setters Alumni and Friends Golf Challenge, the Golf Classic, the Hall of Fame Induction Awards and Dinner and sport specific recognition events.

No stranger to St. John's or the BIG EAST, Quinn served as the Assistant Commissioner for Olympic Sports and Marketing & Communications at the BIG EAST Conference for the better part of seven years before arriving at Pace.

Among many responsibilities in her role at the BIG EAST, Quinn assisted in the marketing and execution of various sport championships and conference events, including the annual BIG EAST men's basketball tournament and the 2017 NCAA East Regional at Madison Square Garden.

She also worked regularly with the BIG EAST on-campus marketing teams to coordinate conference-wide initiatives and digital and social media strategy. Most notably, Quinn led marketing and brand enhancement campaigns for men's soccer and worked with facility marketing teams to enhance championship exposure and fan engagement.

Quinn also worked on numerous outreach projects while at the BIG EAST, including the Global Sports Mentoring Program with the U.S. Department of State, the annual BIG EAST Basketball Roundtable, the BIG EAST Big Ten Women's Sports Symposium, BIG EAST Serves Day, the Student-Athlete Well-Being Summit and the BIG EAST Startup Challenge.

Prior to her run at the BIG EAST, Quinn held the Assistant Director of Athletic Communications position at St. John's. While with the Red Storm in her first go-around, she helped develop and execute branding and media relations platforms for nationally-competitive NCAA Division I women's basketball and women's soccer teams, while handling the external relations efforts for the women's basketball team's three-straight NCAA Tournaments (2011-13).

Additionally, Quinn has worked in the athletics departments of Fordham University, Mercy College and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. She also worked as the Assistant Director of Communications at Catholic Charities Brooklyn and Queens.

St. John's is also where Quinn earned her Master of Business Administration Degree in 2009. She is a 2005 graduate of the University of Maryland with a Bachelor's Degree in Communications with a minor in Secondary Education. Quinn was the co-captain of the Maryland Dance Team from 2003-05.

ERIC RIENECKER

Associate Athletics Director for Student Services

Eric Rienecker is in his 23rd season with the Red Storm, and his 15th as the Associate Athletics Director for Student Services. Rienecker is responsible for the overall coordination of St. John's Student Development for Athletes and serves as the primary academic advisor for men's basketball student-athletes.

Rienecker has been instrumental in the growth of the student development program at St. John's, seeing a staff of three advisors blossom into a unit of nine full-time administrators and six graduate assistants. Rienecker and his staff operate out of the Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, which features a 54-seat study center, private tutoring areas, a conference room and new office space, all housed in Carnesecca Arena.

With Rienecker's leadership, the Student Development for Athletes program has received national recognition as a best practice from three different organizations. In 2005, St. John's University was one of five institutions nationally to receive the National Basketball Association's Player Development Service Award. The award sponsored by the NBA recognized programs and individuals who provided innovative educational programming and support services with special focus on assisting men's basketball student-athletes. In 2008, the Student Development for Athletes program was recognized by the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) as an exemplary practice for its holistic approach to meeting the needs of the student-athlete population. NACADA showcased the Student Development for Athletes program in a Best Practice Monograph entitled Advising Student-Athletes: A collaborative Approach to Success, published in 2008. Then in 2012, the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) recognized the Student Development for Athletes Program by presenting Rienecker with the N4A Model Practice Award. The N4A Model Practice Award is given annually to the university or college that displays best practices in academic programming for student-athletes. Programs are judged upon innovativeness and use of creativity, recognition, effectiveness, measurability as well as applicability of the best practice. St. John's received commendation for its Faculty Engagement Program creating ways for faculty members to become more familiar with the student-athlete experience at the University.

Prior to St. John's, Rienecker served as Senior Athletic Academic Advisor at Rutgers University for seven years. During his stint at Rutgers, Rienecker was the primary advisor for football, field hockey, men's basketball, women's soccer, softball and women's lacrosse. As Senior Athletic Academic Advisor, he was also responsible for the development and supervision of the tutoring program, individual learning assistance program, study skills workshops and the supplemental instruction program for over 800 student-athletes.

Rienecker received his master's degree in athletic counseling from Springfield College, and is a 1995 graduate of the State University of New York at Plattsburgh, where he earned all-conference and all-New York regional honors as a member of the men's soccer team.

Rienecker currently resides in Bloomfield, N.J., with his wife Tara, who is the Assistant Director of Athletics - Student Development for Athletes and Senior Woman Administrator at Montclair State University. The couple has three children, Zachary, Brooke, and Avery.

JILL CHRISTENSEN

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Wellness

Jill Christensen was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Wellness in June 2023 after serving as the Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Medicine since November 2020. In her 30-plus years of service at St. John's, Christensen has overseen the medical care for all 17 varsity teams while prioritizing student-athlete well-being and promoting a healthy and supportive athletic department culture. Her responsibilities include the oversight of health and wellness programming, mental health support services and injury prevention and treatment programs for St. John's 300-plus student-athletes.

Christensen returned to St. John's for her second stint as a member of the athletic training staff prior to the 2013-14 academic year. In her previous role as senior associate athletic trainer, Christensen worked primarily with the Red Storm women's basketball program while managing the day-to-day sports medicine operations that supports over 300 student-athletes. Christensen was a part of numerous postseason berths with the women's basketball program, including the team's run to the 2016 BIG EAST Championship.

An alumna of the University of Iowa, Christensen was a member of the training staff that went with the Hawkeye football team to the Rose Bowl in 1986. She initially came to St. John's in 1989 as the senior associate athletic trainer, a role that oversees injury prevention, rehabilitation and management for Red Storm student-athletes. In addition training staff duties for the ensuing 21 years, Christensen served as the Director of Equipment Operations from 2005-10 where she managed the department-wide partnership with Nike and ran day-to-day support for all Red Storm sports teams.

Outside of St. John's, Christensen is an active member in the local community through her volunteer work with numerous charitable organizations. Notably, she has played a major role in her work with The League of Yes in Long Island, a branch of the Miracle League, which she helped found in 2010. Christensen holds a bachelor's of science in exercise science, sports medicine and athletic training from the University of Iowa, as well as a degree in massage therapy from New York College of Health Professions. She is a member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American Massage Therapy Association.

COACHING STAFF

RICK PITINO

HEAD COACH • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

One of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, two-time national champion Rick Pitino was named the 22nd head coach in the history of St. John's Men's Basketball program on March 20, 2023.

A 2013 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame with more than five decades of coaching experience, Pitino has established a stellar reputation for excellence on the court and a dedication to student-athlete academic success over his 37 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Pitino, who owns an 885-311 (.740) career head coaching record, has made 24 NCAA Tournament appearances with six different schools and advanced to the Final Four seven times, a total reached by only six coaches all-time. His 885 victories rank fifth all-time in Division I heading into 2025-26. His .740 winning percentage ranks fourth among active Division I head coaches with a minimum of 10 seasons.

Pitino became the first coach to take three different schools to the Final Four and is the only coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools (1996 Kentucky and 2013 Louisville). He is one of only four coaches to ever reach the Final Four in four separate decades. With a 55-22 record in the NCAA Tournament, Pitino holds the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.714) among all active coaches. Off the court, he has served as a charitable benefactor for a broad spectrum of worthy causes, often choosing to do so anonymously.

In just two seasons at St. John's, Pitino has taken a downtrodden program and returned it to its rightful status as a regional and national power. After reaching the 20-win plateau, advancing to the BIG EAST Tournament Semifinals and narrowly missing an NCAA Tournament berth with a roster that featured 12 newcomers in 2023-24, Pitino's squad took a monumental leap in 2024-25.

This past season, the Red Storm finished with an overall record of 31-5, matching a program wins record set by the 1984-85 and 1985-86 squads. After equaling a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins during the regular season, St. John's captured the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before running through the BIG EAST Tournament to claim its first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, taking down Omaha in the first round for the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2000. St. John's was ranked in each of the last nine Associated Press regular season polls, rising as high as no. 5 for the first time since the 1990-91.

For his efforts, Pitino captured his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year honor before being named the United States Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year (Henry Iba Award), Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Werner Ladder Naismith National Coach of the Year. Pitino also earned Coach of the Year honors from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, an award named in honor of his St. John's predecessor Lou Carnesecca. 2024-25 marked Pitino's ninth 30-win season as a college head coach and his 29th campaign with at least 20 victories.

Pitino's teams have won 15 tournament championships and he owns a collective 59-17 conference tournament record (.776). At Kentucky, his teams posted an incredible 17-1 Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament mark. His coaching resume also features three BIG EAST Tournament titles while at Louisville in 2009, 2012 and 2013. In addition, Pitino has mentored 32 players who were drafted or have played in the NBA. His 1996 NCAA Championship team at Kentucky featured seven future NBA performers.

Pitino joined the Red Storm after three seasons at Iona, where he led the Gaels to a 64-22 overall record with a 40-9 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). A two-time MAAC Coach of the Year, Pitino led the Gaels to a pair of MAAC regular season titles and two MAAC Tournament championships. Iona made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2021 and 2023 and earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 2022.

Before Iona, Pitino coached parts of two seasons for Panathinaikos in the EuroLeague, leading the team to the 2019 Greek Cup title in his first season.

From 2001-17, Pitino spent 16 seasons as head coach at Louisville and led the Cardinals to a 416-143 overall record. While at Louisville, he took the Cards to the NCAA Tournament 13 times. Under Pitino, Louisville advanced to seven Sweet 16s, six Elite Eights, three Final Fours and a National Championship. The Cardinals set a school record with 35 wins during their national championship campaign of 2012-13.

For three and a half years prior to Louisville, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. He also spent four years coaching the New York Knicks, beginning as an assistant coach under Hubie Brown from 1983-85 before returning to serve as head coach from 1987-89. During the 1988-89 season, the Knicks won 52 games and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs. Pitino is one four current Division I head coaches who has also been a head coach in the NBA alongside John Calipari, Fred Hoiberg and Reggie Theus.

From 1989-97, Pitino served as the head coach at Kentucky, guiding the Wildcats to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his final five years. The Wildcats posted a 219-50 overall record (.814) under Pitino, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997.

Pitino, 73, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76 before a brief six-game stint as head coach prior to season's end. He served two seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse from 1976-78, before earning his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. Pitino produced a 91-51 record in five years at BU, departing as the most successful coach in program history. In his final season, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years.

After his two years as an assistant with the New York Knicks, Pitino became the head coach at Providence College for two seasons from 1985-87, producing a 42-23 record with the Friars. He guided Providence to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986, followed by his first trip to the Final Four in 1987.

Pitino also has international coaching experience, leading the Puerto Rican National Team in three competitions during the summer of 2015.

Pitino is a 1974 graduate of the University of Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. A team captain his senior year, he ranked among UMass' top 10 for career assists for more than 40 years.

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City where he was a standout guard for St. Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island from 1966-70.

STEVE MASIELLO

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Steve Masiello was named associate head coach in April 2023, bringing more than two decades of Division I coaching experience to the St. John's men's basketball program.

In just two seasons with St. John's, Masiello has played a crucial role in returning the Red Storm to positions of prominence in the BIG EAST and on the national stage. The Johnnies have gone 51-18 with Masiello on staff, including a 31-5 campaign in 2024-25. In addition to posting the program's first 30-win season since 1986, the Red Storm matched a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins and claimed their first outright regular season title since 1985. The Johnnies then rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament, capturing their first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Round of 32 for the first time in a quarter century.

In addition to his longtime mentor Rick Pitino winning BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors, Masiello saw two other Johnnies claim major conference awards in 2025, as RJ Luis Jr. was named BIG EAST Player of the Year and Zuby Ejiofor took home Most Improved Player accolades. Luis, who recently signed a contract with the Boston Celtics, was a consensus Second Team All-American.

As a follow-up to the Red Storm's historic season, Masiello helped recruit the nation's top transfer class this past summer

Masiello spent 11 seasons as head coach at Manhattan College from 2011-22, leading the Jaspers to back-to-back Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) championships and two trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Before arriving in Queens, the White Plains, N.Y., native served on Pitino's staff at Iona University in 2022-23, as he helped lead the Gaels to the 2023 MAAC regular season and tournament championships and earn a no. 13 seed in the Big Dance.

A former assistant coach at Louisville, Masiello spent six seasons under Pitino, helping the Cardinals to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six-straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. The Cardinals advanced to the Elite Eight twice in 2008 and 2009. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 BIG EAST Championship team, which won 31 games including a program record 16 in league play and earned the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

As head coach at Manhattan, Masiello led the Jaspers to 162 wins, the third-most in program history. He set a school record with 11 MAAC Tournament victories and made three-straight trips to the conference's tournament final, winning it all in 2014 and 2015.

Masiello mentored 16 All-MAAC performers, seven MAAC Major Award winners, four MAAC All-Rookie Team selections, 17 MAAC All-Academic performers and seven 1,000-point scorers. He twice garnered Coach of the Year honors from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association (MBWA).

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in Division I, posting 21 victories in 2011-12, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. The following year, Masiello guided Manhattan to the MAAC championship game for the first time in nine seasons. In 2013-14, the Jaspers matched a program record with 25 wins and earned a No. 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Manhattan made its second-straight run to the MAAC title in 2014-15. During its back-to-back championship seasons, Masiello posted a 44-22 (.667) overall record, including a 28-12 (.700) league mark.

Before going to Louisville, Masiello had served as an assistant coach at Manhattan from 2001-2005. He helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years, earning a bid to the 2002 NIT before capturing a pair of MAAC Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2003 and 2004. Masiello helped guide Manhattan to one of the finest wins in program history when the Jaspers upset Florida in the First Round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament. Overall, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) record during his time as an assistant.

Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane from 2000-01.

A four-year member of the Kentucky men's basketball team, Masiello played under head coaches Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky made two trips to the Final Four in 1997 and 1998, advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year.

A local product, Masiello attended Archbishop Stepinac High School before completing his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program to a New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship.

Masiello is married to his wife, Andrea. He is the proud father of a daughter, Piper.

RICKY JOHNS

ASSISTANT COACH • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Ricky Johns was named an assistant coach at St. John's in April 2023, joining the Red Storm after six seasons on staff at Iona.

In just two seasons with the Red Storm, Johns has helped the Red Storm return to positions of prominence on both the BIG EAST and national stages. After going 20-13 in Johns' first year on staff and narrowly missing out on an NCAA Tournament bid, St. John's enjoyed its best season in four decades in 2024-25. The Johnnies turned in a final mark of 31-5, matching a program record for wins in a single season. The Red Storm went 18-2 in league play, matching the BIG EAST's single-season wins record and capturing the school's first outright regular season conference crown since 1985. The Johnnies then rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament, claiming their first postseason league title since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before advancing to the Second Round for the first time in 25 years.

For his efforts in 2024-25, Johns' mentor, Rick Pitino, earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors before claiming three separate national coach of the year honors. Two St. John's players took home major BIG EAST Awards, as RJ Luis Jr. was named BIG EAST Player of the Year and Zuby Ejiofor was recognized as the league's most improved player. Luis was a consensus Second Team All-American, the program's first since Malik Sealy in 1992.

During his tenure in New Rochelle, Johns spent five of his six seasons as an assistant coach and was part of four MAAC tournament championships (2018, 2019, 2021, 2023), three MAAC regular season titles (2018-19, 2021-22, 2022-23) and three 20+ win seasons. A 2007 graduate of the University of Utah, Johns joined the Gaels for the 2017-18 campaign as director of basketball operations before being promoted to assistant coach the following year.

In his six seasons with the Gaels, Johns was instrumental in the development of 11 Iona student-athletes that earned All-MAAC honors, including back-to-back Player of the Year award winners in Tyson Jolly (2022) and Walter Clayton Jr. (2023). He also helped mentor 2021 MAAC Rookie of the Year Nelly Junior Joseph and 2023 Defensive Player of the Year Berrick Jeanlouis.

Prior to his time with Iona, Johns spent two seasons as head coach of the Monroe College women's basketball program. He guided the Mustangs to a 31-27 record, earning a Region XV Championship in 2016 and a District III Championship in 2017. He also worked three seasons with Monroe's men's basketball program as an assistant coach from 2012-15, mentoring multiple All-Region and All-American players, including a pair of Region XV Player of the Year honorees who continued their careers at Division I institutions.

A New York City native, Johns has playing experience at every level of basketball: high school, college, and professional.

Johns was a standout guard at Wings Academy High School in the Bronx and led the team to a PSAL Class B title in 2002. He went on to letter at Monroe College from 2003-05 and became one of the most accomplished players in program history. Johns scored 1,202 points in two seasons with the Mustangs. He also earned back-to-back Region XV Player of the Year and NJCAA Second Team All-America honors after averaging 20 points per game in each of his two years at Monroe. Johns continued his collegiate career at Utah, where he was named the team's co-captain as a senior and averaged 7.5 points while shooting 40.3 percent from 3-point territory in 30 games.

Johns played professionally in Poland, Mexico, Venezuela, and Argentina. He was also a member of the Jamaican National team, where he helped them win gold medals in the Caribbean Basketball Championships in 2006 and 2009.

Johns has experience serving as head coach for the International Basketball Academy. He was also a skills development coach at a Utah Pro Performance in Salt Lake City and an assistant coach at Juan Diego High School in Draper, Utah. Johns has worked various camps at the University of Utah, HoopGroup and Five Star Basketball.

BOB WALSH

Bob Walsh, a respected coaching veteran with more than three decades of experience on the bench, joined the Red Storm in April 2023 as an assistant coach.

In just two short years, Walsh has helped the Red Storm rebound to heights the program had not reached in decades. After going 20-13 and narrowly missing out on an NCAA Tournament bid in Walsh's first year on staff, the Johnnies enjoyed their best season in 40 years in 2024-25. The Red Storm finished 31-5, matching a program record for victories in a single season and eclipsing the 30-win mark for just the third time in program history. The Johnnies went 18-2 in league play, matching the conference's single-season wins record and securing their first outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship since 1985. The Red Storm then rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, claiming their first conference postseason crown since 2000. St. John's earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Second Round for the first time in 25 years.

For his team's efforts, Rick Pitino was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year and won three separate national coach of the year awards. Walsh and the staff saw two Johnnies earn major awards from the league, as RJ Luis Jr. earned BIG EAST Player of the Year honors and Zuby Ejiofor was tabbed as the conference's most improved player. Luis, who recently signed a contract with the Boston Celtics, became the program's first consensus Second Team All-American since Malik Sealy in 1992.

Walsh came to Queens following one season at Iona, where he helped lead the Gaels to a 27-8 record, the MAAC Regular Season and Tournament Championships and a no. 13 seed in NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his second stint with the Gaels, Walsh served on Ed Cooley's staff at Providence from 2019-22 as Associate Director of Player Development, Scouting and Recruiting Coordination. It marked his second tenure with the Friars, having previously served as an assistant coach with the program from 1998-2005.

Walsh's wealth of coaching experience includes 13 years as an NCAA head coach. Prior to returning to Providence, Walsh was the head coach at the University of Maine from 2014-18 after spending nine seasons at Division III Rhode Island College from 2005-14. In his combined 13 seasons as head coach, Walsh boasted a 228-163 record (.583), including a 137-79 mark (.634) in conference play. He guided RIC to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including three Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight.

Walsh began his career as a graduate assistant at Iona in 1994. After three seasons in New Rochelle, he joined the staff at the University of San Diego as an assistant coach in 1997-98. Walsh returned to the East Coast to join former Iona head coach Tim Welsh at Providence in 1998. As an assistant with the Friars, he helped guide the program to the NCAA Tournament in 2001 and 2004 and mentored the program's all-time leading scorer, Ryan Gomes.

An innovator in leadership and development off the court, Walsh is the founder of the Dynamic Leadership Academy for young leaders and coaches. Walsh has also been the host of the Dynamic Leadership Podcast on AthleticDirectorU.com.

A 1994 graduate of Hamilton College, Walsh earned a degree in sociology, and he also holds a master's degree from Iona in mass communication and public relations.

TALIEK BROWN

An NCAA national champion with a decade of professional playing experience, Taliek Brown joined the Red Storm staff in April 2023 as an assistant coach.

In two seasons at St. John's, Brown has been instrumental in turning around the trajectory of the Red Storm men's basketball program. Inheriting a team that had won 20 games just four times in the previous 20 seasons, Brown has helped St. John's go 51-18 over the past two seasons, highlighted by a 31-5 campaign in 2024-25. After matching a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins to claim the program's first outright regular season title since 1985, St. John's won three games in three nights at Madison Square Garden to capture its first BIG EAST Tournament crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Round of 32 for the first time in 25 years.

Brown's mentor, Rick Pitino, was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors before taking home national coach of the year accolades from the Associated Press and the United States Basketball Writers Association. He was also named the Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Two St. John's players earned major BIG EAST awards in 2024-25, as RJ Luis took home BIG EAST Player of the Year accolades while Zuby Ejiofor was recognized as the league's most improved player. Luis, who recently signed a contract with the Boston Celtics, became the program's first consensus Second Team All-American since Malik Sealy in 1992.

Before coming home to Queens, Brown helped Iona post a 27-8 overall record in 2022-23, including a 17-3 mark in MAAC play, and earn a bid to the 2023 NCAA Tournament. Before his one year as an assistant coach in New Rochelle, the Corona native spent three years as Director of Player Development at his alma mater, UConn.

Brown was the captain of UConn's 2004 NCAA National Championship team and remains the program's all-time assists leader. A four-year letterwinner under Hall of Famer Jim Calhoun, Brown owns both the Huskies' career and single-season assist records, dishing out 722 helpers during his tenure, 253 of which came during the run to the 2004 national championship. Brown led the BIG EAST and ranked 11th nationally that season with 6.5 assists per game. Brown is the only player in UConn men's basketball history to score at least 1,000 points (1,039) and dish out at least 700 assists (722).

During his time as Director of Player Development for the Huskies from 2019-2022, Brown mentored UConn's student-athletes, building strong personal relationships while initiating and participating in off-court activities that taught and developed life skills. He was also responsible for managing the program's graduate assistants.

Brown earned his degree from the University of Connecticut in political science in 2013 following a 10-year career playing in the CBA, USBL and multiple foreign professional leagues.

A McDonald's All-American out of St. John's Prep, Brown spent time as an assistant coach at LaGuardia Community College in Long Island City and as head coach at August Martin High School in Jamaica, Queens. He also oversaw the TeamFootprintz basketball training program.

GREG YOUNCOFSKI

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Greg Youncofski joined the St. John's men's basketball staff as the team's Director of Basketball Operations in June 2024. Youncofski joined Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame coach Rick Pitino's staff with over a decade of Division I experience that includes stops at Loyola Marymount, UCLA, Cincinnati and Kansas.

Youncofski arrived in Queens after spending the past four seasons as an assistant coach at Loyola Marymount under Head Coach Stan Johnson. During his tenure in Los Angeles, Youncofski helped lead the Lions to a pair of winning campaigns, including a 19-win season in 2022-23 that marked the third-most victories for the program in more than three decades. Youncofski also helped mentor 2022-23 All-WCC First Team selection and Lou Henson Award National Player of the Year finalist Cam Shelton, who averaged 21.2 points per game that season.

In 2022-23, Youncofski helped the Lions earn the highest ranked win, 68-67, in program history on Jan. 19, 2023, by defeating sixth-ranked Gonzaga in Spokane, Wash. The win ended the Bulldogs' 75-game home win streak, 93 straight triumphs over unranked teams and 25 consecutive victories against LMU. Nearly a month later, LMU took down 15th-ranked Saint Mary's, 78-74, in overtime to become the first Lions team in over a decade to knock off a pair of top-15 teams in the same season.

During his second season at Loyola Marymount, the Lions finished in the top three of the West Coast Conference (WCC) standings for the first time since 2005-06. It was also the first time Loyola Marymount posted a winning record in the WCC since 2011-12.

Youncofski joined UCLA as the men's basketball program's Director of Recruiting/Player Personnel in May of 2019 after having spent the previous six seasons on the coaching staff at the University of Cincinnati, working for head coach Mick Cronin. Youncofski's day-to-day responsibilities included managing recruiting databases and schedules, assisting with film breakdown, and serving as a liaison for the coaching staff between athletic administration and other department officials.

Youncofski helped UCLA's program record a strong mid-season turnaround in 2019-20. The Bruins went 19-12 and won 11 of their final 15 games. UCLA finished second in the Pac-12 standings with a 12-6 mark and secured the No. 2 seed in the Pac-12 Tournament. UCLA won each of its final three games against teams that were ranked in the weekly top-25 poll – against No. 20 Colorado, at No. 23 Arizona and at No. 18 Colorado. Cronin became the Bruins' first head coach to win Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors since 2006 (Ben Howland).

Through his six seasons at Cincinnati, the Bearcats registered a record of 161-47 (.774). Cincinnati advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of those six seasons, notching two AAC regular-season titles and a pair of AAC Tournament crowns.

Youncofski served as an assistant coach with Cincinnati in 2018-19. That season, the Bearcats compiled a 28-7 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Cincinnati finished second in the American Athletic Conference's regular-season standings (AAC) and won the AAC Tournament with a 69-57 win over Houston in the title game.

During his previous five seasons with Cincinnati, Youncofski assisted the coaching staff in a variety of areas. He served as the video, analytics and recruiting coordinator. He oversaw team video operations, analytics and advanced scouting of Cincinnati's upcoming opponents. In addition, he helped the coaches in their coordination of recruiting databases and schedules.

Youncofski earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Kansas in May 2013. He worked for three years as a student manager with the Kansas men's basketball program. As an undergraduate, Youncofski was a member of three straight Big 12 Championship teams under head coach Bill Self, including the 2012 squad that finished as the NCAA Tournament's runner-up.

Among his duties at Kansas, Youncofski supported the basketball program's Director of Operations, managed all team practices and games and assisted the coaching staff with scouting reports and basketball drills. He created video playbooks with the team's video coordinator and organized several Kansas basketball clinics.

Youncofski grew up in Middletown, N.J., and was a three-year varsity basketball letterwinner at Middletown High School North from 2007-09. He married his wife Kelsey in 2021 and the couple welcomed a son, Rowdy, in 2025.

MATT ABDELMASSIH

GENERAL MANAGER

A St. John's alumnus and former Red Storm assistant coach, Matt Abdelmassih currently serves as the general manager of the St. John's men's basketball program.

In this role, Abdelmassih plays a critical role in the management of the Red Storm's roster, assisting in identifying both high school and transfer talents to the Queens campus under the direction of Hall of Fame Head Coach Rick Pitino.

Long considered to be an aficionado of transfer recruiting, Abdelmassih helped target talent for a 2024-25 roster that turned in the most memorable season by a St. John's team in decades. After going 20-13 and narrowly missing the NCAA Tournament in year one under Pitino, the Red Storm enjoyed a massive leap forward and a return to national prominence. The 2024-25 Johnnies went 31-5, matching a program record for wins in a single season equaled only by the 1984-85 and 1985-86 teams. After winning a league-record 18 conference games and claiming the outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship for the first time in 40 years, the Red Storm rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament for the program's first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Johnnies received a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the first time in 25 years. St. John's climbed as high as no. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25, the program's highest ranking since the 1990-91 season.

As a follow up to that stellar 2024-25 campaign, Abdelmassih identified the targets for the top ranked transfer class in the nation according to both ESPN and 247Sports.

Before returning to St. John's, Abdelmassih worked as a talent manager at Octagon, a global agency specializing in sports, entertainment and culture.

From 2019-22, Abdelmassih served as an assistant coach at Nebraska under Fred Hoiberg. While in Lincoln, Abdelmassih assembled some of the best recruiting classes in Cornhusker history. His 2021 class, headlined by five-star prospect Bryce McGowens and top-100 recruit Wilhelm Breidenbach, ranked 13th nationally according to ESPN and 18th in the according to 247Sports. The class also featured Keisei Tominaga, a junior college sharpshooter who went on to score 1,000 points in three seasons at Nebraska and lead the Cornhuskers to the 2024 NCAA Tournament.

Abdelmassih spent four years on staff at his alma mater from 2015-19, helping the Red Storm reach the NCAA Tournament in his final season. Abdelmassih recruited five former top-100 recruits for that roster in addition to former junior college All-American LJ Figueroa. Anchoring the Red Storm that season was junior guard Shamorie Ponds, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST selection who currently ranks fifth on the program's all-time scoring list at 1,870 despite playing only three collegiate seasons. Only Malik Sealy and Chris Mullin scored more points than Shamorie Ponds at St. John's over a three-year stretch.

Before returning to St. John's to work on Mullin's inaugural staff, Abdelmassih spent five years working under Hoiberg at Iowa State, the last four of which were as an assistant coach. Abdelmassih helped the Cyclones to four consecutive NCAA Tournament berths over those final four seasons, including the 2014 Sweet 16 at Madison Square Garden and back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015. Iowa State won 99 games in Abdelmassih's four years as an assistant. While in Ames, Abdelmassih recruited two of the most prolific transfers in program history: All-Americans DeAndre Kane and Royce White.

Abdelmassih spent two seasons with the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2008-10, first as a basketball operations intern before being elevated to the role of basketball operations assistant.

A 2007 graduate of St. John's, Abdelmassih was a three-year student manager under Head Coach Norm Roberts.

BRANDON IRVING

VIDEO COORDINATOR • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Brandon Irving was named Video Coordinator of the St. John's men's basketball program in April 2023.

In just two short years, Irving has helped the Red Storm rebound to heights the program had not reached in decades. After going 20-13 and narrowly missing out on an NCAA Tournament bid in Irving's first year on staff, the Johnnies enjoyed their best season in 40 years in 2024-25. The Red Storm finished 31-5, matching a program record for victories in a single season and eclipsing the 30-win mark for just the third time in program history. The Johnnies went 18-2 in league play, matching the conference's single-season wins record and securing their first outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship since 1985. The Red Storm then rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, claiming their first conference postseason crown since 2000. St. John's earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Second Round for the first time in 25 years.

For his team's efforts, Rick Pitino was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year and won three separate national coach of the year awards. Irving and the staff saw two Johnnies earn major awards from the league, as RJ Luis Jr. earned BIG EAST Player of the Year honors and Zuby Ejiofor was tabbed as the conference's most improved player. Luis, who recently signed a contract with the Boston Celtics, became the program's first consensus Second Team All-American since Malik Sealy in 1992.

Irving was elevated to the role of video coordinator for his second season with Iona after previously serving as the program's graduate manager for the 2021-22 campaign. Irving contributed to Iona's success during his two years in New Rochelle, as the Gaels captured a pair of Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) regular season titles (2021-22, 2022-23) and the MAAC Tournament Championship in 2023.

Prior to Iona, Irving worked in the NBA G-League, assisting basketball operations for the Texas Legends under head coach Bob MacKinnon. Irving also spent time working with NBA veterans, Eric Snow and former St. John's standout Zendon Hamilton, and helped the franchise produce its winningest season in 2017-18.

During his time with the Texas Legends supporting basketball operations, Irving assisted in scouting, team practices, and individual player workouts for several prospects. Irving was promoted to the role of project manager for the 2018-19 season. That year, Irving oversaw the franchise's internship program while coordinating game-day operations and running Legends sports clinics & youth basketball camps. In 2019, the Legends were named the NBA Gatorade League's Franchise of the Year.

Following his tenure with the Legends, Irving returned to his alma mater, University of North Texas, as a graduate assistant for the men's basketball program, assuming similar roles in scouting, player workouts and overall logistics for the Mean Green. North Texas had two all-conference players and the program's first C-USA Player of the Year in 2020. That season, UNT won its first outright regular-season conference championship in 31 years and captured its first C-USA Tournament title while setting a then-program record with 14 league wins.

A native of Houston, Irving received his bachelor's and master's degrees in recreation, event & sport management from the University of North Texas in 2017 and 2021, respectively.

STEVEN BOATENG

GRADUATE ASSISTANT • SECOND SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Boateng joined the Red Storm staff as a graduate assistant in May 2024.

The Bronx, N.Y., native worked under Naismith Hall of Famer Rick Pitino for his final three undergraduate seasons, both at Iona (2021-23) and St. John's (2023-24). His responsibilities included providing film breakdowns for scouting reports and recruiting, assisting in team practices and supervising tasks for 20+ student managers.

In Boateng's first year as a graduate assistant, the Red Storm claimed the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before winning the BIG EAST Tournament and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000. The Johnnies' 31 victories matched a school record and the Red Storm climbed as high as no. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, the program's best ranking since the 1990-91 campaign.

Boateng has also spent the last four years as a workout assistant with Black Ops, an organization headed by NBA Skills Coach Chris Brickley. He has worked with current and former NBA players, such as Donovan Mitchell, Carmelo Anthony, Kevin Love, Paolo Banchero, Deandre Hunter and Cole Anthony.

The newest Johnnie has also worked in the AAU sphere as a coach and assistant skills trainer with Team We Got Next out of Westchester since 2019. His tenure with We Got Next featured several future pros, adjusting and developing their shot and playmaking abilities.

Just after graduating from St. John's with a bachelor's degree in communications in May 2024, Boateng worked directly with U18 Team USA basketball for 10 days in preparation for summer competitions.

AIDAN MANSFIELD

GRADUATE ASSISTANT • FIRST SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Following four years as a student manager, Aidan Mansfield officially joined the St. John's Men's Basketball coaching staff as a graduate assistant in the summer of 2025.

In this role, Mansfield will play a significant role in the team's video operations while assisting the director of operations with several organizational tasks, including the supervision of more than 20 student managers.

A Westchester native, Mansfield earned the title of head manager after just one season with the Red Storm, serving in the role from June of 2022 until his graduation. In that capacity, Mansfield hired and trained new managers while helping the program in countless ways. He assisted in individual player workouts and practice drills while also aiding in the team's film, travel and equipment operations.

In Mansfield's final year as a student manager, the Red Storm claimed the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before winning the BIG EAST Tournament and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000. The Johnnies' 31 victories matched a school record and the Red Storm climbed as high as no. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, the program's best ranking since the 1990-91 campaign.

In addition to his role with the Red Storm, Mansfield has also served as a counselor at the Jr. Knicks Camp in the summer of 2024.

Mansfield, a graduate of Scarsdale High School, earned his undergraduate degree in business management and is currently pursuing a master's degree in sport management.

MATTHEW IARIA

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Matthew Iaria is in his third year at St. John's in 2025-26 and his first working with the men's basketball team. In addition to his duties with Rick Pitino's Red Storm, Iaria also works with the St. John's men's golf program.

Iaria is a 2021 graduate of Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, N.Y., where he was a member of the men's soccer team and a two-time member of the Skyline Conference Academic Honor Roll selection.

Before coming on full-time at St. John's, Iaria completed his master's degree in athletic training at the University of Idaho. As a graduate student, Iaria completed clinical rotations at the University of North Carolina, Army West Point and St. John's.

Before assuming his duties with the men's basketball team, Iaria also worked with the Red Storm men's soccer, fencing and men's tennis programs.

JEFFREY EVEILLARD

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH • THIRD SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

Eveillard came to Queens from Saint Joseph's University following a two-year stint with the Hawks. During his tenure in Philadelphia, Eveillard was promoted to head strength & conditioning coach after serving as associate strength & conditioning coach where he worked with the women's basketball program and assisted with men's basketball team. As head strength & conditioning coach, the New York native utilized Sparta Sport Science (force plates), facilitated monthly sport science meetings and interpreted polar heart rate and catapult GPS data. In addition, Eveillard managed team nutrition, recovery strategies and developed comprehensive training plans for the men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer and women's lacrosse programs.

Prior to Saint Joseph's, Eveillard split time with a pair of New Jersey schools, as a member of the strength and condition programs at Nyack College and Rutgers. Serving as head strength and conditioning coach at Nyack, he helped design strength and conditioning programs for the athletic department's 11 Division II programs, oversee the weight room and collaborate with the athletic training staff to develop return to play protocols for injured athletes. Working with Rutgers Strength & Conditioning department as an intern, Eveillard assisted in team lifts and utilized Sparta Science. Eveillard also assisted in the development of football prospects training for the NFL Combine with Test Football Academy. Eveillard is also an entrepreneur, jumpstarting his own business, Quick Body Solutions, in 2016 to help provide nutritional counselling and workout programming for professional athletes and high-end clientele. Eveillard training philosophy is rooted in basketball specificity and he was mentored by two former NBA Strength & Conditioning Coaches.

The former Lock Haven University of Pennsylvania basketball letterwinner received his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with a concentration in management in 2006. Eveillard is currently working towards his master's in applied sport science analytics at Lasell University.

JOANNE ZISSEL

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT • 20TH SEASON AT ST. JOHN'S

JoAnne Zissel is in her seventh year working with the men's basketball program as an administrative assistant in 2025-26.

Zissel is no stranger to St. John's Athletics, having served in the same role in the Student Athlete Center for Excellence for 13 years before moving over to Taffner Field House.

Zissel lives in New Hyde Park with her husband, Anthony. The couple has two children, both of whom are St. John's graduates. Edward graduated in 2009 while Erica is a double alumna of the University, graduating with her bachelor's degree in 2012 before completing her master's degree in 2014. Erica is currently pursuing her doctorate of education in administration & supervision.

ST. JOHN'S	40	52	92

Sophomore guard Simeon Wilcher scored a career-high 17 points to help lead the St. John's men's basketball team to a 92-60 win over Fordham inside Carnesecca Arena in its season opener.

The Plainfield, N.J., product shot 7-for-9 from the floor with one 3-pointer and a pair of makes at the free-throw line. Wilcher also pulled down three rebounds and had two steals in 26 minutes of action.

Co-captain Kadary Richmond nearly notched a double-double with 16 points and nine boards, including four on the offensive glass. The Brooklyn native also dished out five assists while registering a steal and a block in his St. John's debut.

RJ Luis Jr. and Aaron Scott logged 12 points apiece, combining to shoot 9-of-15 from the floor. Scott also recorded five boards, two assists and a pair of steals in his first game with the Johnnies.

St. John's shot 54.5 percent (36-66 FG) from the floor as a team, including 62.5 percent (25-40 FG) from inside the arc. The Red Storm also racked up 40 points in the paint and 20 points off turnovers.

The victory marked St. John's 11th consecutive season opening win and its sixth straight in Queens dating back to the start of the 2023-24 campaign.

QUINNIPIAC	39	34	73
ST. JOHN'S	35	61	96

The St. John's men's basketball team surged in the second half, outscoring Quinnipiac by 27 over the final 20 minutes to cruise to a 96-73 win in front of a sellout crowd at Carnesecca Arena.

After trailing by four at halftime, the Johnnies went off for 61 points in the second half, shooting 52.6% (20-38) from the field during the latter stanza.

RJ Luis Jr. had a monster performance, exploding for 24 points and a then-career-high 13 rebounds. The double-double marked the third of the junior's career, as he totaled 16 points and nine boards during the second half alone.

Deivon Smith was the second Johnnie to finish with a double-double logging 13 points and 10 assists. The graduate student became the first Red Storm player since Justin Simon on Dec. 31, 2017 to finish with 10-plus points (13), 10-plus assists (10), five-plus rebounds (5) and three-plus steals (3) in a single-game.

Brady Dunlap was lights out from beyond-the-arc finishing with a career-high 20 points. The sophomore made 5-of-7 attempts from distance marking the first time a Red Storm underclassmen has had five or more triples since Julian Champagnie logged five on Feb. 20, 2021 against DePaul.

Simeon Wilcher was the fourth St. John's player to score double-digits, recording 14 points for his second-straight double-figure scoring outing to start the 2024-25 campaign.

The Johnnies recorded 10 blocks on Saturday led by Zuby Ejiofor, who matched a career-high with five swats.

	1	2	TOTAL
WAGNER	22	23	45
NO. 22/25 ST. JOHN'S	31	35	66

The No. 22/25 St. John's men's basketball team earned its third-straight victory with a 66-45 win over Wagner at Carnesecca Arena. The Red Storm outscored the Seahawks 27-8 over the final 11 minutes to secure its third win by 20+ points in as many games.

The victory also marked the program's first as a nationally ranked team since Dec. 28, 2014, when it took down Tulane, 82-57, as the no. 17 team in the country. St. John's also extended its winning streak against the Seahawks to 13.

RJ Luis Jr. led all scorers with 13 points and grabbed five boards in 18 minutes off the St. John's bench. Fellow wing Aaron Scott joined Luis in double figures with 11 points on 4-of-8 shooting from the floor.

Brady Dunlap scored nine points to help lift St. John's, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers. Red Storm guards Deivon Smith and Simeon Wilcher also chipped in nine points apiece. Smith, a 6-foot guard from Decatur, Ga., added a game-high eight rebounds to go with three assists and a pair of steals while Wilcher recorded four rebounds and two assists.

St. John's shot 50.0 percent (21-42 FG) from the floor in the victory. The Johnnies registered 20 points in transition against the Seahawks after entering the game ranked fourth in Division I in fastbreak points.

St. John's defense limited Wagner to just 45 points, as the Seahawks shot only 29.1 percent (16-55 FG) from the field and 20.8 percent (5-24 3FG) from distance.

GAME #4
NOV. 17, 2024 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

RV/RV NEW MEXICO	29	42	71
NO. 22/25 ST. JOHN'S	40	45	85

Junior wing RJ Luis Jr. registered 21 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high seven assists to propel the No. 22/25 St. John's men's basketball team to an 85-71 victory over RV/RV New Mexico in front of 12,310 fans at Madison Square Garden.

Luis grabbed eight of his 11 boards on the offensive glass and shot 50.0 percent (8-16 FG) from the field. The 6-foot-7 wing from Miami led five Red Storm starters in double figures in St. John's first game of the season at "The World's Most Famous Arena."

Red Storm guard Deivon Smith scored 12 of his 15 points in the opening half of play and finished with five rebounds and three assists. Backcourt mate Kadary Richmond produced 14 points on 7-of-14 shooting to go with eight boards, five assists and a game-high four steals.

The Johnnies' Aaron Scott also notched 14 points in the victory, going 5-for-10 from the floor with a pair of 3-pointers. The 6-foot-7 senior wing recorded six boards and three steals. Zuby Ejiofor rounded out those St. John's players with double figures finishing with a 13-point, 10-rebound double-double while adding three assists and two blocks.

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Rick Pitino improved to 3-1 all-time against his son, Lobos' Head Coach Richard Pitino. Richard Pitino, who recently led New Mexico to a victory over then-No. 22 UCLA in Las Vegas, won the last matchup with his father, defeating Iona, 82-74, on Dec. 18, 2022, in Albuquerque, N.M.

The Red Storm pulled down 49 rebounds in the winning effort, including 22 on the offensive glass. The 22 offensive rebounds were the most in a single game for St. John's since Feb. 22, 2009, when the team racked up 27 against Seton Hall. The Red Storm also recorded 25 second-chance points in the contest.

GAME #5
NOV. 21, 2024 – BAHA MAR

	1	2	OT1	OT2	TOTAL
NO. 22/20 ST. JOHN'S	44	33	9	12	98
NO. 13/14 BAYLOR	30	47	9	13	99

The No. 22/20 St. John's men's basketball team fell to No. 13/14 Baylor, 99-98, in a heartbreaking double-overtime affair at the Baha Mar Hoops Championship.

Coming out of a timeout with six seconds remaining, VJ Edgecombe buried a tough, contested 3-pointer to bring the Bears within 98-96. Then after a pair of misses at the free-throw line by St. John's with 4.1 seconds on the clock, Norchand Omier corralled a rebound and pushed the ball up court to Jeremy Roach for the game-winning three at the buzzer.

Omier finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds while Roach recorded 20 points to go with four assists.

St. John's junior forward Zuby Ejiofor led five Johnnies in double figures with a then-career-high 22 points on 8-of-10 shooting from the floor. The Garland, Texas, native also pulled down 10 rebounds and matched his personal best with five blocks in over 42 minutes of action.

Senior wing Aaron Scott also reached the 20-point threshold for the Johnnies, knocking down five of his six attempts from distance with a 3-for-4 effort from the line. Scott also grabbed six boards. Teammate RJ Luis Jr. finished with 16 points, six rebounds, four assists, two steals and a pair of blocks.

Kadary Richmond chipped in 14 points while adding seven assists, four boards and two steals in a team-high 45 minutes of work. Fellow Red Storm guard Deivon Smith rounded out those in double figures with a 10-point effort to go with six rebounds, five assists and two blocks.

The Johnnies went 54.8 percent (34-62 FG) from the floor while shooting 58.3 percent (14-24 3FG) from beyond the arc. The team's 14 triples were the most against a ranked opponent since knocking down 14 against No. 10 Creighton on March 1, 2020.

GAME #6
NOV. 22, 2024 – BAHA MAR

VIRGINIA	26	29	55
NO. 22/20 ST. JOHN'S	39	41	80

The No. 22/20 St. John's men's basketball team cruised past Virginia, 80-55, in its final game of the Baha Mar Hoops Championship.

The Red Storm became the first non-conference opponent to score 80 or more points on Virginia since Gonzaga downed the Cavaliers, 98-75, on Dec. 26, 2020.

Ten different Johnnies found their way in the scoring column, led by RJ Luis Jr., who finished with a game-high 18 points on 7-of-14 shooting from the floor. The 6-foot-7 junior wing also recorded a career-high four steals to go with three boards.

Deivon Smith nearly posted a triple-double, recording 10 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists. As a team, the Red Storm dished out 19 assists in total while committing just seven turnovers in the contest.

Kadary Richmond also joined Luis and Smith in double figures with 12 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the field. The Brooklyn native chipped in four assists and two boards in the win. Zuby Ejiofor produced nine boards, including seven on the offensive glass, to go with eight points, two blocks and a pair of steals against the Cavaliers.

The Red Storm knocked down more than 50 percent of its shots from the floor for the fourth consecutive game and the fifth time in six outings on the season. St. John's also sank 10 threes and recorded 40 of its 80 points inside the paint.

NOV. 24, 2024 – IMPERIAL ARENA

NO. 22/20 ST. JOHN'S	28	35	63
GEORGIA	32	34	66

Trailing by as many as nine in the second half, the No. 22/20 St. John's men's basketball team's comeback attempt fell just short, falling to Georgia, 66-63, inside Imperial Arena at Atlantis Resort.

Zuby Ejiofor recorded his second 20-point effort in The Bahamas, finishing with 22 points on 5-of-8 shooting from the floor and a personal-best 12-for-13 effort from the charity stripe. The Garland, Texas native became the first player to log 20-plus points and 12-plus free throws in a game since Shamorie Ponds produced 13 of his 37 points from the line against Georgia Tech on Dec. 7, 2018. Ejiofor also chipped in eight rebounds and a career-high three steals.

Aaron Scott finished with 14 points and five rebounds in 37 minutes of work. Fellow wing RJ Luis Jr. rounded out the Red Storm players in double figures with 13 points, four boards and three steals.

The Johnnies helped force 24 Georgia turnovers in the contest and outrebounded the Bulldogs on the offensive glass, 21-13. The Johnnies also scored 23 second-chance points.

GAME #8

GAME #9
DEC. 7, 2024 – CARNESECCA ARENA

KANSAS STATE	39	32	71
RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	35	53	88

A then-career-best performance of 28 points and 13 rebounds from junior big man Zuby Ejiofor propelled the RV/RV St. John's men's basketball team to an 88-71 win over Kansas State (6-3) in the team's first game since the passing Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer and legendary head coach Lou Carnesecca.

Ejiofor shot 11-for-17 from the field, hit a 3-pointer and drained all five free-throw attempts before a sold-out crowd at Carnesecca Arena. The junior forward pulled down nine of his 13 boards on the offensive glass and blocked two shots in 36 minutes of action. The double-double effort was Ejiofor's third of the season.

Kadary Richmond registered 13 points, six boards, four assists and matched a career-high with three blocks. RJ Luis Jr. and Simeon Wilcher rounded out the Red Storm players who scored in double figures, chipping in 11 points apiece.

St. John's dominated the glass, outrebounding Kansas State by 11 and pulling down 50-plus rebounds for the second-straight game. The Johnnies also handed out 17 assists and committed just eight turnovers against the Wildcats.

GAME #10
DEC. 11, 2024 – CARNESECCA ARENA

BRYANT	41	36	77
RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	45	54	99

Double-double efforts from Zuby Ejiofor and Aaron Scott lifted the RV/RV St. John's men's basketball team to a 99-77 victory over Bryant inside Carnesecca Arena.

Ejiofor recorded his fourth double-double of the season with a 22-point, 10-rebound performance. The Johnnies' big man shot 7-for-10 from the floor, sank eight free throws and blocked two shots.

Scott registered 17 points, shooting 6-for-8 inside the 3-point arc to go with 10 boards over 36 minutes. A 6-foot-7 senior from Spring, Texas, Scott was also one of five Red Storm players to finish with two steals in the contest.

As a team, St. John's shot 50.0 percent (39-78 FG) from the field and hit 59.6 percent of its field goal attempts from two-point territory. St. John's dominated the paint, scoring 54 points up close and recorded 26 points off second chance opportunities. The Red Storm's defense also helped cause 19 turnovers while scoring 17 points off the mishaps.

RJ Luis Jr. added 17 points, four rebounds, three assists and two steals for the Johnnies. Simeon Wilcher and Deivon Smith rounded out the Red Storm's five double-digit scorers with 14 points apiece. Smith shot 6-for-10 from the floor and hit two 3-pointers, to go with four rebounds, three assists and two steals in just 18 minutes off the bench.

The St. John's men's basketball team led wire-to-wire in its BIG EAST opener, rolling to an 89-61 victory over DePaul at Carnesecca Arena. Junior wing RJ Luis Jr. scored a game-high 19 points to help lift the Red Storm to its fourth-straight victory.

The Johnnies shot 55.2 (37-67 FG) from the field and recorded 80 of their 89 points inside the 3-point arc. Defensively, St. John's delivered one of its top performances of the season, holding the Blue Demons to just six 3-pointers after entering the game ranked second in the nation averaging 12.8 per contest. The Red Storm also recorded 14 steals and forced 20 turnovers.

St. John's starters Kadary Richmond (18 points), Simeon Wilcher (16 points) and Zuby Ejiofor (12 points) finished in double figures. Richmond matched Ejiofor with a game-high seven rebounds. Wilcher shot 7-for-9 from the field and buried two of the team's three 3-pointers.

Deivon Smith returned to the Johnnies' starting lineup and shined on both ends of the floor. The 6-foot senior guard stuffed the stat sheet with nine points, six rebounds, eight assists and five steals.

GAME #12
DEC 20, 2024 – AMICA MUTUAL PAVILION

RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	29	43	72
PROVIDENCE	42	28	70

The St. John's men's basketball team rallied all the way back from a 16-point deficit to earn its first win over Providence at Amica Mutual Pavilion in seven years. Junior forward Zuby Ejiofor sank a floater at the buzzer to send the Red Storm home with a 72-70 victory over the Friars.

With the score tied at 70 and the clock winding down, Red Storm guard Deivon Smith's pull-up jumper missed its mark with four seconds remaining. Ejiofor pulled down his sixth offensive rebound of the game and quickly heaved the ball to the rim for the game-winning bucket.

The victory marked St. John's first inside Amica Mutual Pavilion since a 91-86 win on Jan. 25, 2017. The Johnnies scored 43 points in the second half to mount their largest comeback since erasing an 18-point deficit to down Seton Hall, 81-71, on March 6, 2021.

Ejiofor led four Johnnies in double figures with a 19-point, 10-rebound performance, marking his fifth double-double of the season. Smith and RJ Luis Jr. chipped in 17 and 16 points apiece in the road win. Kadary Richmond rounded out the Red Storm players in double figures with 10 points, five boards and three steals.

DELAWARE	29	47	76
RV/NO. 24 ST. JOHN'S	48	49	97

Senior guard Deivon Smith led six Red Storm players in double figures with 20 points to help St. John's close out its non-conference schedule with a 97-76 victory over Delaware at Carnesecca Arena.

It marked the first time St. John's had six players score double figures since a 2024 BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinals victory over Seton Hall on March 14.

Smith registered his third double-double of the year with a season-high 20-point performance and a career-high 13 rebounds. The Decatur, Ga., native knocked down a team-leading four 3-pointers and dished out a game-high eight assists in 33 minutes of action.

St. John's juniors Zuby Ejiofor and RJ Luis Jr. each delivered 16-point efforts on Saturday as the duo combined to shoot 12-for-17 from the inside the arc. Ejiofor added seven boards, three assists and a pair of blocks to his stat line while Luis matched Smith with three steals.

Simeon Wilcher drained a pair of triples in a 12-point effort. Vince Iwuchukwu broke out for a season-high 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the floor. Kadary Richmond rounded out those in double figures with a 10-point showing for the Johnnies. Ruben Prey also made his first career start in the victory.

DEC. 31, 2024 – CHI HEALTH CENTER OMAHA

CREIGHTON	26	31	57

The St. John's men's basketball team orchestrated a late-game comeback but narrowly fell at Creighton, 57-56, on New Year's Eve in Omaha.

The Red Storm nearly mounted the comeback after ending the game on an 8-2 scoring run and holding the Bluejays without a field goal over the final 4:31, but missed the mark on a pair of chances for the game-winner on the final possession.

Zuby Ejiofor delivered another stellar performance, notching his ninth double-figure effort of the season with 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor. The Garland, Texas, native drilled a career-high two 3-pointers and added eight boards, including five on the offensive end.

Senior guard Deivon Smith was the second St. John's player to finish in double digits, adding 10 points and four steals, including a crucial lay-up with 0:36 to play to make it a one-point game. Kadary Richmond chipped in nine points, six rebounds and three steals.

The Johnnies forced 19 Creighton turnovers, matching the Bluejays' highest total since the 2022 NCAA Tournament. St. John's converted 16 points off the takeaways and registered 11 steals, marking the fifth-straight game with double-digit swipes.

Creighton was paced by Ryan Kalkbrenner, who tallied 16 points, nine boards and five blocks. The Bluejays' Steven Ashworth knocked down on four triples and tallied a game-high 18 points.

RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	25	45	70

A 20-point, 11-rebound double-double from RJ Luis Jr. propelled the RV/RV St. John's men's basketball team to a 70-62 victory over Butler in front of a sold-out crowd on "Lou Carnesecca Day" inside its on-campus home.

The junior out of Miami, Fla., registered his fourth double-double of the season. The 6-foot-7 wing also chipped in a game-high four steals.

Zuby Ejiofor chipped in all 14 of his points in the second half, going 4-for-6 from the floor and 6-for-8 from the charity stripe across the final 20 minutes of action. The Johnnies' big man also finished with eight boards and a steal in the winning effort.

Deivon Smith added a 13-point effort and finished with six boards, four assists and a pair of steals in nearly 30 minutes of work. Kadary Richmond rounded out those in double figures with 11 points, six assists, six rebounds and a trio of swipes.

The Johnnies knocked down just one 3-pointer in the winning effort. It marked the first time the Red Storm has hit exactly one triple in a regular season conference win since toppling No. 14 Cincinnati, 53-52, on Jan. 5, 2013.

The Red Storm forced 21 turnovers in the victory and registered 27 fastbreak points in transition.

GAME #16
JAN. 7, 2025 – CINTAS CENTER

RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	41	41	82
RV/NR XAVIER	37	35	72

Looking for a signature win inside one of the BIG EAST's toughest road environments, the St. John's men's basketball team never trailed in the final 39 minutes of an 82-72 win over Xavier at Cintas Center.

With the win, St. John's improved to 4-1 in BIG EAST play for the second straight season under Hall of Fame Head Coach Rick Pitino. Prior to Pitino's arrival in Queens, the Johnnies had not won four of their first five league games since 2000-01.

RJ Luis Jr. and Zuby Ejiofor recorded double-doubles to lead the way for St. John's.. Ejiofor paced the Johnnies with 18 points on 8-of-16 shooting and 12 boards, nine of which came on the offensive glass. Luis had 18 points and 10 rebounds.

The BIG EAST's top offensive rebounding team at 14.5 per game entering the contest, the Johnnies dominated the glass, turning 20 offensive boards into 22 second-chance points. On the game, St. John's outrebounded Xavier, 50-30.

Sophomore guard Simeon Wilcher scored 15 points on 7-of-15 shooting for his eighth double-figure outing of the season.

The last of St. John's five double-figure scorers, Aaron Scott and Kadary Richmond chipped in 12 points apiece in the victory. Scott pulled down eight rebounds while Richmond dished out a team-high six assists.

The nation's 12th best 3-point shooting team entering the game at 39.8 percent, Xavier went 4-of-18 (22.2%) from deep and made just two of its first 15 tries. The Musketeers did not fare better in the paint, where St. John's outscored them, 54-30.

As a team, the Red Storm committed just eight turnovers, registered eight steals and blocked eight shots.

VILLANOVA	31	37	68
RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	36	44	80

Fueled by an explosive 30-point performance from RJ Luis Jr., the RV/RV St. John's men's basketball team outlasted Villanova to move to 5-1 in BIG EAST play for the first time in 24 years.

The two sides went back and forth on Saturday night in front of a raucous Madison Square Garden crowd of 18,178, as the contest featured six ties and 18 lead changes. The Red Storm ended the game on a 14-3 run to pull away and earn a double-digit victory at "The World's Most Famous Arena."

Luis Jr. shined under the bright MSG lights, going off for a season-high 30 points, just one shy of his career-high. The Miami native went 16-for-20 (80%) from the free throw line, marking the most made free throws by a St. John's player since Marcus Hatten made a program-record 21 on Feb. 9, 2002, against UConn. The junior's 16 makes from the charity stripe tied for fourth-most in program history. The wing recorded his third straight double-double pulling down 10 rebounds and scored 23 of his 30 points in the second half. Luis Jr.'s 30-point game was the first by a Johnnie since Julian Champagnie had 31 against Butler on Feb. 18, 2022.

Zuby Ejiofor posted 11 points and nine rebounds in the winning effort. The big man shot 7-for-11 from the free-throw line. Deivon Smith tallied 12 first-half points and made three triples. Aaron Scott was the fourth St. John's player to finish in double-figures, logging 12 points in 39 minutes of action.

St. John's made 29 free throws, the program's most since it made the same number in a win over Wagner on Nov. 15, 2013. The Red Storm dominated the glass, outrebounding the Wildcats, 44-28.

JAN. 14, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

GEORGETOWN	37	21	58
RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	27	36	63

The St. John's men's basketball team orchestrated a furious comeback after trailing by as many as 14 in the second half to sink Georgetown, 63-58, at Madison Square Garden.

The Red Storm engineered a pivotal 19-2 run early in the latter stanza to down the Hoyas. The Johnnies moved to 6-1 in BIG EAST competition for the first time since the 1998-99 campaign and clinched their best record through 18 games since the 1985-86 squad led by Lou Carnesecca started with a 16-2 mark 39 years prior.

St. John's put on another display of second half dominance, outscoring the Hoyas by 15, 36-21, in the latter stanza. The Johnnies dominated the boards over the final 20 minutes, outrebounding the visitors, 28-18, in the second half.

RJ Luis Jr. scored a team-high 19 points to pace the Red Storm offensively. The junior tallied his 17th double-figure scoring effort in 18 appearances on the season.

Aaron Scott was in the groove from long-range, nailing four 3-pointers to finish with 14 points. The forward pulled down nine rebounds and shot 4-for-7 from deep.

Zuby Ejiofor nearly recorded a double-double, tallying 10 points and nine rebounds in Midtown Manhattan. Kadary Richmond was all over the court, logging 10 points, all in the second half. The graduate student notched eight assists and three steals in the winning effort.

The Red Storm defense held Georgetown to just 21 points on 32.1 percent (9-28) shooting in the latter half and forced 19 turnovers while tallying 10 steals.

GAME #19
JAN. 18, 2025 – PRUDENTIAL CENTER

RV/RV ST. JOHN'S	39	40	79
SETON HALL	16	35	51

The RV/RV St. John's men's basketball team routed Seton Hall in a wire-to-wire victory at the Prudential Center, 79-51.

St. John's locked down its local rival defensively, allowing Seton Hall to score just 16 points on 13.3 percent shooting (4-30) in the opening half, setting the tone for a convincing win in Newark.

The Red Storm's decisive win over Seton Hall marked its first inside the Prudential Center since Feb. 13, 2014, and the largest margin of victory in the series since Jan. 12, 1980, a 97-64 rout of the Pirates in Alumni Hall.

RJ Luis Jr. paced the Johnnies offensively, going off for 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting. The junior added eight boards and shot 4-of-5 from beyond-the-arc.

Zuby Ejiofor continued to be a force down low, finishing the contest with 15 points and nine boards, including 7-for-8 shooting from the charity stripe. Aaron Scott tallied his fourth-straight double-digit scoring effort, logging 10 points and eight boards.

Seton Hall transfer Kadary Richmond had an efficient night, totaling 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting (71.4%), six assists, five rebounds and two steals in his return to the Prudential Center.

Ruben Prey was staunch defensively, protecting the rim with a season-high five blocks. The Lisbon, Portugal native tallied the most swats by a St. John's freshman since Kassoum Yakwe on Feb. 3, 2016, against Xavier.

GAME #20
JAN. 22, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

	1	2	OT	TOTAL
XAVIER	40	25	6	71
NO. 21/20 ST. JOHN'S	30	35	14	79

The No. 20/21 St. John's men's basketball team orchestrated a valiant comeback to erase a 16-point deficit and took down Xavier, 79-71, in overtime at Madison Square Garden.

Trailing by as many as 16 with 17:02 remaining in the second half, the Red Storm registered a 29-10 run to claim its first lead, 63-60, since 8:54 of the first stanza. Kadary Richmond rallied in front of 14,545 fans and quickly responded to Xavier's five-point spurt by plowing through the defense for a finish at the rim to tie the game at 65 with 1:03 to go. Both teams exchanged shot clock violations before heading to overtime.

St. John's shined to open the extra period, scoring the first eight points. Richmond forced a turnover on the Musketeers' Zach Freemantle and sent Simeon Wilcher in transition. The sophomore guard found a streaking Zuby Ejiofor through the paint and the big man finished off the feed at the rim. After Richmond stutter-stepped and sank his jumper at the top of the key, Ejiofor sent the Garden faithful into a frenzy with an and-one, completing the three-point for a 73-65 lead with two minutes to play.

The Red Storm staved off its visitors down the stretch as the Musketeers slashed its deficit to as few as three. The Johnnies knocked down eight free throws in the extra stanza, proving to be the difference in the team's eight-point victory.

With the win, St. John's moved to 8-1 in conference play, matching its best start since the 1998-99 campaign.

Richmond paced four Johnnies in double figures with 19 points on 9-of-17 shooting, reaching 1,500 points in his collegiate career. He became the fourth active NCAA Division I player to register 1,500 career points and 600 career assists. The 6-foot-6 guard also chipped in seven rebounds, five assists and three steals in 44 minutes of action.

Ejiofor, Wilcher and RJ Luis Jr. all chipped in 16 points apiece in the win. Ejiofor and Luis held strong on the boards with eight and seven rebounds, respectively.

GAME #21
JAN. 28, 2025 – CAPITAL ONE ARENA

	1	2	TOTAL
NO. 15/14 ST. JOHN'S	47	19	66
GEORGETOWN	21	20	41

The No. 15/14 St. John's men's basketball team sprung out to a dominant start to blow past Georgetown, 66-41, reaching its best start in BIG EAST play in 40 years.

The Red Storm moved to 9-1 in conference competition for the first time since the 1984-85 campaign, when Lou Carnesecca led St. John's to a BIG EAST Regular Season title and the Final Four.

The Red Storm came out firing on all cylinders, jumping out to a 23-3 lead to open the game and never looked back in the rout of the Hoyas in Washington D.C. St. John's held Georgetown to just 41 points, the lowest scoring total by a Red Storm opponent since 2010, when it routed Drake, 82-39, on Nov. 26, 2010. The lockdown performance of Georgetown also marked the lowest ever scoring total by a conference opponent in St. John's BIG EAST history.

With the dominant win at Capital One Arena, the Johnnies finished the month of January undefeated at 7-0 for the first time since the 1984-85 campaign and just the seventh time since World War II. Head Coach Rick Pitino boasted an undefeated mark in the first month of the year for the fifth time in his decorated 37-year collegiate head coaching career. The Hall of Famer previously held an unscathed record in January at Kentucky (1995-96), Louisville (2002-03 and 2008-09) and Iona (2020-21).

The Red Storm's swarming defense recorded 12 steals and five blocks, cashing in on the offensive end with 21 points off 16 Georgetown turnovers. The Hoyas were held to 24.6 percent (14-57) shooting, marking the first time St. John's has held an opponent under 25 percent from the floor since it limited Fordham to 23.8 percent (18-80) on Dec. 7, 2013.

Kadary Richmond shined, tying for a game-high 13 points on 6-of-7 shooting from the floor. The graduate student chipped in six rebounds, three blocks and two steals.

Zuby Ejiofor delivered yet another solid performance, totaling 13 points on 5-of-6 shooting, 9 rebounds and a pair of steals. Aaron Scott also nearly finished with a double-double adding 10 points and nine boards.

GAME #22
FEB. 1, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

PROVIDENCE	21	45	66
NO. 15/14 ST. JOHN'S	25	43	68

In a rollercoaster afternoon that came down to the wire, Kadary Richmond nailed the game-winner with three seconds left on the clock to lift the No. 15/14 St. John's men's basketball team over Providence in a thriller at Madison Square Garden, 68-66.

After trailing by as many as 19 in the second half, Providence came all the way back to tie the game at 66 with 0:33 remaining. On the Red Storm's final possession, Richmond shook a defender and splashed the mid-range jumper with 3.0 seconds on the clock to lift the Johnnies to their eighth-straight win.

Kadary Richmond exploded for a season-high 24 points on 10-of-14 shooting (71.4%) from the floor, matching his highest point total since he set his career-best with 28 against Providence on Dec. 17, 2022. The graduate student was all over the floor nearly tallying a triple-double adding eight rebounds, a season-high eight assists along with three steals.

RJ Luis Jr. finished with 19 points and pulled down eight boards.

Zuby Ejiofor reached double-digits in scoring for the 14th consecutive game totaling 13 points. Deivon Smith returned to action after missing three of the previous four games due to injury, adding six assists and a game-high three steals.

GAME #23
FEB. 4, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

NO. 11/11 MARQUETTE	31	33	64
NO. 12/10 ST. JOHN'S	30	40	70

The No. 12/10 St. John's men's basketball team added a marquee win to its resume, topping No. 11/11 Marquette, 70-64, at Madison Square Garden.

In a tightly contested battle during which neither side led by more than eight points, the Red Storm willed its way down the stretch to a ninth straight victory and the program's highest ranked win at Madison Square Garden since it defeated then-No. 4/5 Duke on Feb. 3, 2018.

St. John's moved to 20-3 on the year, marking the quickest the Johnnies have reached the 20-win threshold since the 1985-86 season when they captured 20 wins by Jan. 29. The Red Storm also expanded its lead in the BIG EAST standings, improving to 11-1 in conference play, both marks that had been unseen since the 1984-85 season.

The Red Storm trio of RJ Luis Jr., Kadary Richmond and Zuby Ejiofor was dominant at "The World's Most Famous Arena," as all three players posted double-doubles. It marked a program first since Joel Soriano, David Jones and Dylan Addae-Wusu all had double-doubles in a double-overtime win over DePaul on Feb. 14, 2023.

Luis Jr. put up a monster stat line, posting 17 points, 11 rebounds, four steals and a career-high three blocks. The junior's double-double marked his seventh of the season.

Richmond recorded a game-high 18 points on 8-of-14 shooting, 11 boards and eight assists.

Ejiofor matched his personal best with 13 rebounds and added 13 points for his 15th consecutive double-digit scoring performance.

NO. 12/10 ST. JOHN'S	37	31	68
NO. 19/18 UCONN	35	27	62

The No. 12/10 St. John's men's basketball team earned a pivotal road win at No. 19/18 UConn, 68-62, in Storrs, Conn.

The Johnnies came all the way back from a 14-point deficit before a hostile sold-out crowd of 12,299 at Gampel Pavilion to earn their 10th straight BIG EAST victory. St. John's won for the 16th time in its last 17 games and earned back-to-back top-20 victories in the same week for the first time since 2018.

The Red Storm unleashed a stout defensive effort midway through the second half, forcing eight turnovers in just over five minutes that fueled a decisive 12-0 run to reclaim the lead for good. In the final moments of the game, RJ Luis Jr. delivered the dagger with a baseline jumper off an out of bounds play with 11 seconds on the clock to put St. John's up four.

Luis finished with 21 points to pace the Johnnies and scored eight points in the final 2:16. The 20-point effort marked the junior's seventh of the season. Luis also grabbed seven rebounds and shot 10-for-15 inside the 3-point arc.

Kadary Richmond added 12 points, all in the second half, and played an integral role with timely buckets down the stretch. The graduate student from Brooklyn finished with six rebounds and five assists.

Simeon Wilcher tallied his 10th double-figure scoring effort of the year, ending the night with 11 points. Zuby Ejiofor was the fourth St. John's player to finish in double-digits, tallying 11 points while shooting 5-of-6 from the charity stripe.

The Red Storm dominated in turnover margin (+15) committing only seven, while forcing UConn into 22 turnovers. The Johnnies outscored the Huskies 18-2 in points off turnovers.

NO. 9/8 ST. JOHN'S	32	39	71
VILLANOVA	34	39	73

The No. 9/8 St. John's men's basketball team had its 10-game BIG EAST win streak snapped, as the Johnnies suffered a 73-71 setback at Villanova.

The Red Storm rallied all the way back from an 11-point deficit in the second half and took a 71-70 lead on Simeon Wilcher's third 3-pointer of the game with 27.3 seconds to go. On the ensuing Wildcats' possession, Tyler Perkins answered with his fourth triple of the contest to put Villanova back on top. Wilcher's game-winning 3-point attempt at the buzzer was just off the mark as the Wildcats escaped with the victory.

Wilcher finished with 12 points and a pair of steals. Aaron Scott led the Johnnies with a season-high 22 points and tied a career mark with five 3-pointers. Kadary Richmond contributed 17 points, 10 assists, five rebounds, two steals and one block in 39 minutes of action for the Red Storm.

Villanova was led by Wooga Poplar who also recorded 22 points on 9-for-14 shooting. Perkins had 12 points and shot 4-for-5 from distance while Eric Dixon scored 12 of his 17 points in the second half, including clutch 3-pointers down the stretch.

NO. 9/8 ST. JOHN'S	40	39	79

The No. 9/8 St. John's men's basketball team captured its third win over a top-25 opponent in the last 12 days, taking down No. 24/21 Creighton in front of a sold-out crowd at Madison Square Garden, 79-73.

In the battle for the top spot in the BIG EAST standings, the Johnnies rallied to their 18th straight regular season home victory.

St. John's erased a 10-point first half deficit and used a 10-0 run in just under six minutes of game action in the latter stanza to regain a lead it would not relinquish. Kadary Richmond bookended the decisive run with a pair of buckets while Zuby Ejiofor helped power the spurt with six points of his own.

RJ Luis Jr. led the Johnnies with 23 points, scoring 10 points at the free-throw line, grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds and dished out five assists. Richmond finished with 19 points, 10 rebounds, four steals and three assists. Ejiofor notched 18 points, nine rebounds, five assists and two steals. The St. John's trio combined for 60 of the team's 79 points.

As a team, the Red Storm recorded assists on 21 of its 28 field goals. St. John's also forced 15 turnovers and registered 20 points off the Bluejays' mishaps.

Deivon Smith led four St. John's players in double figures with a game-high 18 points to help the No. 10/9 Red Storm men's basketball team roll to an 82-58 victory at DePaul.

Kadary Richmond and Zuby Ejiofor both finished one rebound shy of recording double-doubles for the Johnnies. Richmond registered 17 points on 8-for-14 shooting to go with nine rebounds and five assists without a turnover. Ejiofor posted 13 points, nine boards, three assists and a pair of blocks.

In just his fifth collegiate start and first at St. John's, Sadiku Ibine Ayo went for a career night in the Windy City. The junior captain finished with 15 points, including 13 in the first half shooting 3-for-5 from beyond the arc.

As a team, St. John's shot 46.4 percent (32-69 FG) from the floor, including a 9-for-21 (42.9 pct) effort from 3-point range. Smith matched Ibine Ayo with three 3-pointers while Simeon Wilcher shot 2-for-3 from distance and finished with eight points.

Aaron Scott reached the 1,000-career point mark early in the first half with a 3-pointer from the corner. Freshman forward Ruben Prey recorded with four points and a season-high eight rebounds in 21 minutes off the St. John's bench.

The No. 10/9 St. John's men's basketball team matched a then-program record with its 15th BIG EAST victory on Sunday, earning an 89-75 triumph over Connecticut before a sold-out crowd at Madison Square Garden.

The Johnnies buried all eight of their 3-pointers in the opening half to help take an 18-point advantage into halftime. St. John's led by as many as 22 points in the second half and did not let its lead dip below nine en route to the Red Storm's 19th consecutive regular-season home victory dating back to 2023-24.

St. John's matched the 1984-85 team with a then-program record 15 BIG EAST wins in a single season. Additionally, the Johnnies completed a sweep of the Huskies for the first time since the 1999-2000 campaign.

All five St. John's starters finished in double-figures, tallied a block and came up with a steal during the win. The Red Storm forced 18 turnovers with 11 steals and matched a season-high 11 blocks. The Johnnies also shot over 40 percent (8-19 3FG) from 3-point land for the second straight game and made 21 of 27 attempts (77.8 pct) from the charity stripe.

Zuby Ejiofor dominated inside tallying 18 points, including an 8-of-9 shooting effort from the free throw line, to go with nine rebounds, a career-high six assists and three blocks. Kadary Richmond also totaled 18 points and finished with 17 or more points for the fourth straight game.

St. John's senior guard Deivon Smith stuffed the stat sheet with 12 points, a game-high eight assists and seven boards. Aaron Scott tallied 13 points on three made 3-pointers and eight rebounds. RJ Luis Jr. was the fifth and final Johnnie in double-figures, tacking on 14 points at The World's Most Famous Arena.

FEB. 26, 2025 – HINKLE FIELDHOUSE

NO. 7/7 ST. JOHN'S	38	38	76
BUTLER	32	38	70

For the first time in 33 years, the No. 7/7 St. John men's basketball team captured at least a share of the BIG EAST Regular Season Championship, as the Red Storm outlasted Butler, 76-70, at Hinkle Fieldhouse. RJ Luis Jr. led the Johnnies with 24 points on 9-for-16 shooting including three 3-pointers en route to the team's fourth-straight victory.

With a share of the conference crown, the Red Storm earned its sixth BIG EAST Regular Season title and the program's first since the 1991-92 season.

The Johnnies previously won all five of its BIG EAST Regular Season titles under Hall of Fame Coach Lou Carnesecca in 1980, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1992. Fellow Hall of Famer Rick Pitino joins Carnesecca in the St. John's record books and earned his 13th conference title in 37 seasons as a Division I head coach. Pitino has now guided four different schools to a regular season championship.

The Butler victory also marked St. John's 16th BIG EAST win, surpassing the 1984-85 team that previously held the program record with 15 victories before advancing to the Final Four. St. John's reached 25 regular season victories for the first time since the 1985-86 season.

Luis was joined by fellow starters Kadary Richmond (13 points), Zuby Ejiofor (12 points) and Deivon Smith (10 points) who also recorded double figures. St. John's outshot the Bulldogs, 49.2 percent (29-59 FG) to 39.3 percent (24-61 FG), and finished with an eight-point advantage in the paint.

MARCH 1, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

SETON HALL	30	31	61
NO. 7/7 ST. JOHN'S	34	37	71

The No. 7/7 St. John's men's basketball team captured the outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship after outlasting Seton Hall, 71-61, at Madison Square Garden.

The Red Storm earned its first outright conference crown since the 1984-85 season and just the second outright title in program history. Confetti rained down onto the court in Midtown Manhattan, as the 2024-25 St. John's men's basketball team was presented with the BIG EAST Regular Season Championship Trophy after the game.

The Johnnies finished with a perfect 18-0 regular season home record for the first since it went 16-0 nearly a century ago during the 1931-32 season under Head Coach James "Buck" Freeman.

The Red Storm battled the Pirates, with neither side leading by more than eight points until the final 90 seconds. The Johnnies utilized a crucial 17-8 scoring run to separate themselves and held the Pirates to only five made field goals over the final 10 minutes.

Head Coach Rick Pitino, the only coach to ever win a regular season title at five different schools, surpassed Dean Smith on Saturday for seventh on the all-time wins list with his 880th career victory.

RJ Luis Jr. delivered his second-straight 20-point performance, his 10th of the season. The junior standout finished with a game-high 21 points on 7-of-13 shooting and pulled down six rebounds.

Zuby Ejiofor was dominant down low posting his eighth double-double of the season, recording 17 points and 10 rebounds in the winning effort. The forward from Garland, Texas, went 7-for-8 from the free throw line and scored in double-digits for the 21st time in his last 22 appearances.

Zuby Ejiofor sent the St. John's men's basketball team home from Milwaukee with its program record tying 27th regular season victory, as the junior forward buried a bucket at the buzzer to upend Marquette, 86-84, in overtime.

The Johnnies quieted a sold-out crowd of 17,983 fans at Fiserv Forum on the final day of the regular season behind clutch performances from RJ Luis Jr. and Kadary Richmond. Luis led St. John's with 28 points, shooting 10-for-19 from floor with a trio of 3-pointers to go along with 11 rebounds, marking his ninth double-double of the season.

Richmond recorded the first triple-double in program history since Metta Sandiford-Artest, formerly Ron Artest, reached the milestone on Jan. 9, 1999. Richmond's masterful performance included 10 points, 12 rebounds, 11 assists and four steals.

Ejiofor, who also sank a game winner at the buzzer in the team's first BIG EAST road game at Providence on Dec. 20, finished with a double-double of 17 points and 12 boards. Simeon Wilcher delivered the dish to Ejiofor after Richmond came up with the steal with seconds ticking away. The sophomore guard scored 13 points of his own and posted three assists over 41 minutes of action.

The Red Storm became just the second team in BIG EAST history to win 18 conference games, matching the 2023-24 National Champion Connecticut Huskies.

The top-seeded St. John's men's basketball team dominated Butler in the BIG EAST Tournament Quarterfinal, 78-57, to advance to the semifinals for the second straight year.

The Red Storm took a commanding 18-3 lead out of the gate, including a decisive 15-0 run, and never looked back in the wire-to-wire quarterfinal win. It marked the largest margin of victory for the Johnnies in a BIG EAST Tournament game in 15 years since St. John's downed Connecticut by 22, 73-51, in the opening round of the 2010 tournament.

BIG EAST Player of the Year RJ Luis Jr. lived up to the billing in his first contest since winning the award, finishing with a game-high 20 points on 8-of-18 shooting.

One game after recording the first triple-double by a St. John's player in the 21st century, Kadary Richmond nearly tallied his second in a row recording 15 points, a game-high nine assists and eight rebounds.

Aaron Scott turned in a 15-point outing that included three made triples and shot 60.0 percent (6-10 FG) from the floor. The senior wing also recorded five steals at The World's Most Famous Arena, which were the most by a St. John's player in a BIG EAST Tournament game since Marcus Hatten registered five steals on March 6, 2002, in a 64-58 win over Seton Hall.

GAME #33
MARCH 14, 2025 – MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

(5)MARQUETTE	37	26	63
(1) ST. JOHN'S	35	44	79

Zuby Ejiofor etched his name in the St. John's record book by scoring a BIG EAST Tournament program record 33 points to help lead the Johnnies to a 79-63 victory over Marquette in the semifinals at Madison Square Garden. The Red Storm rallied back from a 15-point first half deficit to secure a spot in the BIG EAST Championship game for the first time since 2000.

After the Golden Eagles jumped out to a 24-9 advantage at the 12:42 mark of the first half, St. John's outscored Marquette, 70-39, over the final 32-plus minutes to earn its seventh-straight victory.

Ejiofor's record-breaking 33-point explosion marked a career-high and the highest in a BIG EAST Tournament semifinal since Connecticut's Kemba Walker went for 33 on March 11, 2011. The junior shot 11-for-15 (73.3 pct) from the floor and 11-for-12 (91.7 pct) from free throw line. The big man added nine boards and became the first Red Storm player to log 30 or more points and nine or more rebounds since Walter Berry went for 31 points and 11 boards in the 1986 NCAA Tournament Round of 64.

Kadary Richmond finished with his fifth double-double of the season, adding 12 points and game-highs of 10 rebounds and six assists.

RJ Luis Jr. tallied 13 points and seven rebounds while Aaron Scott added 11 points, hitting three timely triples at The World's Most Famous Arena.

The Johnnies have only trailed by double-digits in eight games this season and they won seven of those contests. The comeback from 15 points down marked St. John's fourth of the season by that margin or more, all against BIG EAST opponents.

(1) ST. JOHN'S	25	57	82

For the first time in 25 years, the St. John's men's basketball team captured the BIG EAST Tournament Championship after downing second-seeded Creighton, 82-66, at Madison Square Garden.

The Johnnies nailed 14 consecutive field goals during a 32-14 second half run to bring their fourth BIG EAST Tournament title back to Queens (1983, 1986, 2000, 2025). The Red Storm reached the 30-win mark for just the third time in program history.

St. John's Head Coach Rick Pitino became the first coach in BIG EAST history to earn the conference tournament crown at two different schools after winning three titles at Louisville (2009, 2012, 2013). The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer is just the fourth coach in league history to win three titles over a four-year span coaching in the league, joining Jay Wright, Jim Calhoun and John Thompson Jr.

RJ Luis Jr. led all scorers with 29 points, marking the highest scoring total by a Red Storm player in a BIG EAST Tournament title game, surpassing Chris Mullin's record of 25. Luis exploded for 27 points in the second half. The junior wing was presented the David Gavitt Trophy, which is given to the BIG EAST Tournament's Most Outstanding Player. The Miami native's 29 points were the highest scoring mark in a championship game since Villanova's Jalen Brunson went for 31 in the 2018 title contest.

Zuby Ejiofor finished with 20 points in the championship bout and averaged 26.5 points over the final two games of the tournament. The junior forward set a program record with 33 points in the Johnnies' 79-63 victory over Marquette in the semifinal, which was the highest scoring total for a Red Storm player in a BIG EAST Tournament game.

Kadary Richmond added 12 points and 12 rebounds, logging a double-double for the second time in as many games. The graduate student from Brooklyn set a St. John's record for most rebounds in a BIG EAST Tournament Championship Game.

Both Richmond and Ejiofor were named to the BIG EAST's All-Tournament Team.

GAME #35
MARCH 20, 2025 – AMICA MUTUAL PAVILION

	1	2	TOTAL
(15) OMAHA	28	25	53
(2) ST. JOHN'S	33	50	83

The second-seeded St. John's men's basketball team matched a program record by earning its 31st victory of the season after downing 15th-seeded Omaha, 83-53, in a NCAA Tournament First Round matchup at Amica Mutual Pavilion in Providence, R.I.

After a slow start, the Red Storm rolled in the second half, outscoring the Mavericks 50-25 over the final 20 minutes to earn its largest ever margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament game. The victory marked St. John's first in the Big Dance since defeating Northern Arizona, 61-56, on March 16, 2000.

The Johnnies won their 10th straight and 20th in their last 21 games since the year turned to 2025. St. John's previously tallied 31 wins twice in a single season in 1984-85 and 1985-86.

The Johnnies set the program's new NCAA Tournament single-game record and tied a season-high for made 3-pointers, sinking 14 from beyond-the-arc. The Red Storm surpassed the previous record set on March 13, 1999, when it hit 10 triples against Indiana.

RJ Luis Jr. caught fire at Amica Mutual Pavilion, nailing a career-high five 3-pointers while finishing with a game-high 22 points on 8-of-14 shooting. The junior wing logged his sixth 20-point game over his last seven appearances and added eight boards in the Ocean State.

Simeon Wilcher chipped in 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting from the floor and matched a personal best with three made triples on 50 percent shooting from long-range.

Kadary Richmond finished with 10 points, eight rebounds and six assists on. Zuby Ejiofor was the fourth and final St. John's player to reach double-figures, adding 10 points, seven boards and three blocks. Ruben Prey matched a season-best with six points, tying his total from the season opener against Fordham on Nov. 4.

The second-seeded St. John's men's basketball team mounted a second half comeback but ultimately fell short against 10th-seeded Arkansas (22-13), 75-66, in the NCAA Tournament Second Round at Amica Mutual Pavilion in Providence, R.I.

After trailing by as many as 13 with 11:32 left in the second half, the Red Storm made a late charge to cut the deficit to two on three separate occasions. However, in the final minutes, the Razorbacks outlasted the Johnnies to advance to the Sweet 16.

Zuby Ejiofor was dominant for the Red Storm, leading all scorers with 23 points, including 16 in the opening half. The junior pulled down 12 rebounds for his 10th double-double of the season. Ejiofor shot 7-for-12 from the floor and sank 9-of-11 attempts at the charity stripe.

St. John's guard Deivon Smith added 13 points and went 5-of-7 from the charity stripe while RJ Luis Jr. chipped in nine points and Aaron Scott registered seven points and 10 boards.

The Johnnies outrebounded Arkansas, 51-45, and grabbed 28 offensive rebounds on Saturday in the Ocean State.

HISTORY & HONORS

1952 NCAA FINALISTS

Accused by basketball fans and writers alike as undeserving of their surprise NCAA bid after a hasty and unexpected ousting from the NIT by La Salle, St. John's set out for Raleigh, N.C., determined to at least justify its presence in the Eastern Regionals. The justification would have to come at the expense of the host team, NC State, which had won 29 successive tournament games at home.

The Redmen, as they were known, needed to beat Coach Everett Case's team in order get a chance to avenge an 81-40 loss to Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats, who defeated them earlier in the year. Rupp's squad routed Penn State in its NCAA opening round game, 82-54. After falling behind early, St. John's, led by Dick Duckett's outside shooting, surged back to take a 28-25 halftime lead. In the third period St. John's wrapped things up, outscoring NC State 19-8. In the end it was St. John's 60, NC State 49 with four St. John's players hitting double figures. Bob Zawoluk was the high scorer for St. John's with 12 points, followed by Duckett and Jack McMahon, who each had 11 apiece. Jim Davis added 10, flicking in five set shots.

In the second round the speculation was that it would take a miracle for the Redmen to upend the Wildcats. Frank McGuire's boys took the court hoping to keep it respectable. For a change, St. John's came out relaxed from the start. In their first meeting against the Rupp men down in Lexington, St. John's shot just 16.7 percent going 10-for-60; in Raleigh, SJU shot 24-for-53 (45.2 percent). St. John's took the early lead and never looked back. Zawoluk and McMahon were sensational in their scoring efforts. Zawoluk set a new NCAA scoring record with 32 points in the game. Ronnie MacGilvray won over the crowd with his rebounding and stifling defensive play.

The spark generated by the unbelievable Kentucky triumph carried over to the next game. St. John's had a heart-stopping 61-59 win over favored Illinois in Seattle, Wash. The following night in the championship game, Kansas' Clyde Lovellette personally brought the high-flying Redmen back to earth. The massive center broke the NCAA record for points set days before by Zawoluk with a 33-point performance. The Jayhawks went on to defeat St. John's, 80-63, in the NCAA championship game to capture the crown.

1985 NCAA SEMIFINALISTS

On their way to the second Final Four appearance in school history, the Redmen began the journey slowly in Salt Lake City, easing past Southern University, 83-59, before escaping Arkansas, 68-65. Against Southern, St. John's had three players who scored 20 or more points, led by Walter Berry's 24 with 13 rebounds. Bill Wennington contributed 23 while Chris Mullin added 21 in the game. Mullin keyed the Redmen to the victory over Arkansas with 26. Joe Kleine had 23 for the Razorbacks.

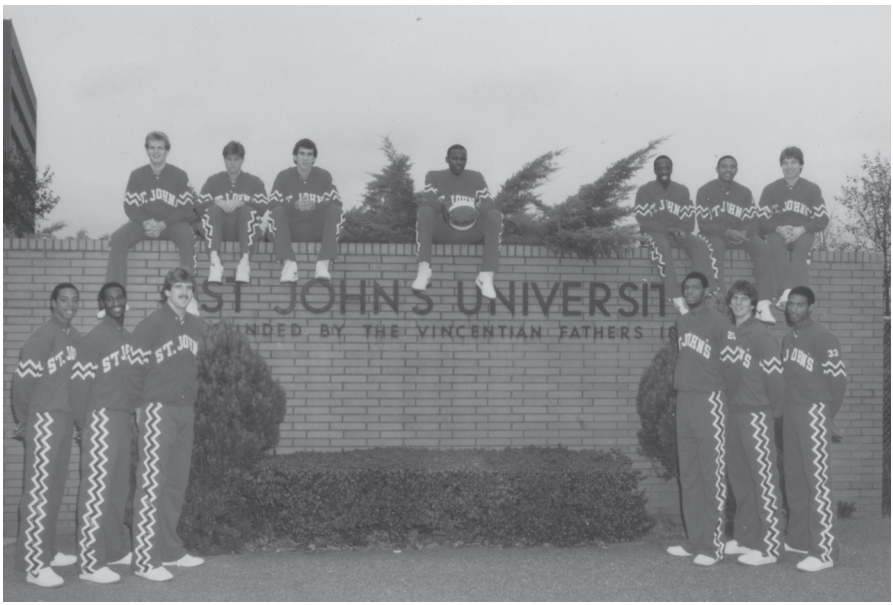
The wins earned St. John's the right to advance to the West Regional in Denver, Colo., and a meeting with Kentucky. Mullin netted 30 and Willie Glass contributed down the stretch to lift the Redmen to an 86-70 win. That game marked the final contest for Kentucky Coach Joe B. Hall.

The Elite Eight matchup between Lou Carnesecca's St. John's squad and Jim Valvano's NC State team was a back-and-forth affair that earned the tongue-in-cheek moniker "Spaghetti Western" from the sportswriters. Mullin scored 15 of his 25 in the second half, finding an answer for every Wolfpack run. NC State hung close until the Redmen managed a 10-point lead with 1:22 to play, and shortly after Carnesecca allowed it to sink in – St. John's was headed to the 1985 Final Four.

"With five seconds left in the game, I looked up at the clock and kept thinking, 'We're going… we're going.' I am very much elated to think I'm finally going after 1,000 games," said Carnesecca at a postgame press conference. "When I'm going to my grave, this I'll remember."

Patrick Ewing and Georgetown stood between St. John's and the title game, which the Redmen had not reached since 1952. The rivalry was intense, as St. John's had defeated the Hoyas earlier that season in Landover, Md., to take the No. 1 national ranking. Georgetown won the next two meetings, once at Madison Square Garden that snapped the Redmen's 14-game conference win streak, and once in the BIG EAST Tournament title game.

The Hoyas would prevail, 77-59, ending the storybook season for St. John's but giving Redmen fans a campaign to remember always.



1943 NIT CHAMPIONS

On the way to its first NIT title, St. John's just got by its opening round matchup against Rice Institute of Houston, Texas. St. John's next edged Rice in the closing seconds, 51-49. Hy Gotkin's one-hander at the buzzer proved to be the game-winner. The team then faced local rival Fordham in the semifinals. St. John's defeated the Rams 69-43 and were led by Harry Boykoff's 22 points. St. John's defeated the University of Toledo, 48-27, to capture its first National Invitation Tournament. Harry Boykoff was named Most Valuable Player of the Tournament, scoring 56 points in the three games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick led the squad to a 21-3 record.
- Captain Andrew "Fuzzy" Levane was awarded the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Trophy, being selected the MVP of the Metropolitan area.
- Levane was awarded the C.Y.O. Trophy, donated by the Brooklyn Chapter of the C.Y.O.
- St. John's received bids to both the NCAA and the NIT.
- Harry Boykoff, St. John's 6-9 center, was awarded the most valuable player award of the sixth annual NIT. This marked the second time that a St. John's player received such a distinction. Bill Lloyd of the 1938-39 team received it previously.
- Boykoff was picked on several All-America teams. He received a gold basketball, emblematic of his selection on the All-America basketball team appearing in The Sporting News.
- Levane was also selected on one All-America team.
- St. John's defeat of Fordham settled the dispute as to who was the 1942-43 metropolitan champion.
- Three players were named to the All-Metropolitan team: Boykoff, Larry Baxter and Levane.

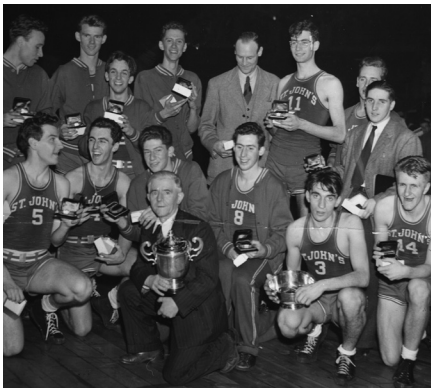
SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- During head coach Joe Lapchick's eighth year at St. John's, the varsity played 23 games and won 18.
- Dick McGuire was awarded the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Trophy, being selected as the most valuable basketball player in the Metropolitan college ranks.
- St. John's accepted a bid to the NIT and it won the seventh-ever NIT title by defeating DePaul in the finals. This marked the second consecutive NIT championship for St. John's.
- Bill Kotsores was named the Most Valuable Player of the NIT. This marked the third time in seven years that a St. John's player received such a distinction.
- Captain Hy Gotkin was awarded the MVP and the Most Outstanding Player Award of the Year by the St. John's Athletic Association. Gotkin became the second recipient of the Lt. Frank C. Haggerty gold medal.
- McGuire and Gotkin were placed on the All-Metropolitan team by the Basketball Writers Association.
- Five of St. John's players were picked by the basketball writers to play on the Brooklyn All-Star team vs. the New York All-Star team, in a game which sponsored the Sale of War Bonds for the Fourth War Loan Drive. Brooklyn won the game, 47-43.



1959 NIT CHAMPIONS

St. John's defeated Villanova in the first round by a score of 75-67. St. John's was led by Alan Seiden with 25 points and Lou Roethel added 21. Tony Jackson exploded for 27 points against third-seeded St. Bonaventure in the quarterfinals, leading the team to an 82-74 victory. Roethel scored 22 and Jackson added 20 in a 76-55 win over the Providence Friars in the semifinals. St. John's took its third NIT title by defeating top-seeded Bradley 76-71 in double overtime. Seiden scored 22 and Jackson had 21 points and 27 rebounds in the game. Jackson, who was named MVP of the tournament, totaled 81 points for the four games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick led his team to a 20-6 record.
- St. John's captured its first ECAC Holiday Festival title with a 90-79 victory over St. Joseph's in the final. Tony Jackson was named Most Valuable Player.
- Alan Seiden surpassed 1,000 points for his career against Temple on Jan. 3, 1959.
- St. John's captured its third NIT title with a 76-71 double overtime win against Bradley. Tony Jackson became the fourth St. John's player to be named MVP of the NIT.
- Tony Jackson set a school record with 27 rebounds in one game.
- St. John's finished ranked 17th in the nation by UPI.

REDMEN NIT CHAMPS, 55-51

St. John's had to play both seeded teams en route to the school's fourth NIT title. In the first round, the team faced Boston College, defeating BC handily by a score of 114-92. Ken McIntyre scored 42 in the game. In the quarterfinals, St. John's played second-seeded New Mexico. McIntyre again led the team to a 61-54 victory scoring 20 points in the game. St. John's took on Army in the semifinals, and won by seven points, 67-60. In the final the team took on top-seeded Villanova, and St. John's shocked the Wildcats, 55-51. The McIntyre brothers (Ken and Rob) and Lloyd "Sonny" Dove accounted for 48 of the team's 55 points. Ken McIntyre was named MVP of the tournament. He totaled 101 points in the four games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Joe Lapchick ended his career with a 55-51 win over Villanova in the Championship game of the NIT. This marked the fourth time that Lapchick led St. John's to the NIT Championship.
- Lapchick's 1964-65 squad ended the season with a 21-8 record. In his 20 years as head coach of St. John's, Lapchick had a career record of 334-130.
- St. John's shocked Michigan, the No. 1 team in the nation according to both the UPI and AP polls. St. John's beat the Wolverines 75-74 in the final of the ECAC Holiday Festival to capture the school's second ECAC title.
- Ken McIntyre surpassed the 1,000 career point mark on Feb. 23, 1965 against UMass.

1989 NIT CHAMPIONS

St. John's opened the 1989 NIT with a pair of home games, defeating Ole Miss, 70-67, behind 25 points from Jayson Williams before coming back from a halftime deficit to topple Oklahoma State in the second round, 76-64. Williams once again led all scorers, this time finishing with 27 points. The Johnnies hit the road for the third round, traveling to Columbus for a showdown with Ohio State in a rematch of that season's Holiday Festival Final, a contest that the Buckeyes had won. After trailing by as many as 17 points, St. John's rallied to send the game into overtime. Playing without the services of Williams, who had fouled out late in regulation, the Redmen prevailed in the extra period to earn a return trip home to Madison Square Garden. St. John's cruised by UAB in the semifinals, 76-65, behind 17 points apiece from Williams and freshman Malik Sealy. That win over the Blazers set up a championship tilt between St. John's and Saint Louis, two historic programs with no shortage of NIT success. Williams played the hero for St. John's once again, tallying 28 points and 18 rebounds in a 73-65 victory to give the program's its fifth NIT title all-time. To no one's surprise, Williams was named the Tournament MVP.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- For the 19th time in the Lou Carnesecca's Era, St. John's finished the season with 20 or more wins.
- St. John's won a record-fifth NIT title with a 73-65 victory over St. Louis.
- Jayson Williams became the sixth St. John's player to be named MVP of the NIT.
- St. John's won the 14th Annual Joe Lapchick Memorial Tournament with wins over LIU, and BYU in the final. Matt Brust was named MVP of the Tournament.

2003 NIT CHAMPIONS

It's amazing what one free throw can do.

The St. John's men's basketball team entered its March 2 game with perennial national power Duke with a 12-12 record. Things weren't looking bright for the Red Storm, who had lofty expectations after qualifying for the program's 27th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001-02.

But on that day, with a sold out Madison Square Garden crowd and a CBS national television audience watching, St. John's pulled off the upset, topping the Blue Devils, 72-71. Senior guard Marcus Hatten sealed the win with a free throw with no time left.

And that free throw carried the Red Storm to one of the most exciting stretches of basketball in the 97-year history of the program, as St. John's won nine of its last 10 games, capping the season off with a 70-67 win over Georgetown in the NIT Championship game.

The Red Storm finished the season 21-13 overall, and made what would be a difficult finish an exciting ride.

After a brilliant 5-0 start to the season, the Red Storm struggled at the start of the New Year, and entered the final weeks of the season with a 12-12 overall record, and a 5-9 mark in the BIG EAST Conference.

Four-straight losses in February left the team scrambling. The Red Storm used the motivation from the Duke win to win their final two regular season games – at Miami and at home against Rutgers – before upsetting Notre Dame in the first round of the BIG EAST Tournament.

A loss to Boston College in the quarterfinals was diminished by a bid to the NIT, where the team reeled off three-straight wins behind a raucous student cheering section at Alumni Hall – topping Boston University, Virginia and UAB – and advancing to Madison Square Garden for the NIT Final Four.

Hatten scored 24 points and Ingram added 16 as St. John's topped Bobby Knight and Texas Tech in the semifinals, advancing to face league rival Georgetown in the finals. In that game, Hatten had 22 points, Ingram added 19 and junior college transfer Grady Reynolds – a major player down the stretch – scored 13 points and grabbed a career high 14 rebounds as St. John's won its sixth NIT Championship in program history.

 — St. John's 2003 NIT Championship was vacated by the NCAA in 2006.

1983 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

The 1982-83 season was for St. John's basketball an achievement of superlative accomplishments. Led by head coach Lou Carnesecca, the Redmen marched to a record-breaking season, including the first-ever BIG EAST Tournament Championship for St. John's.

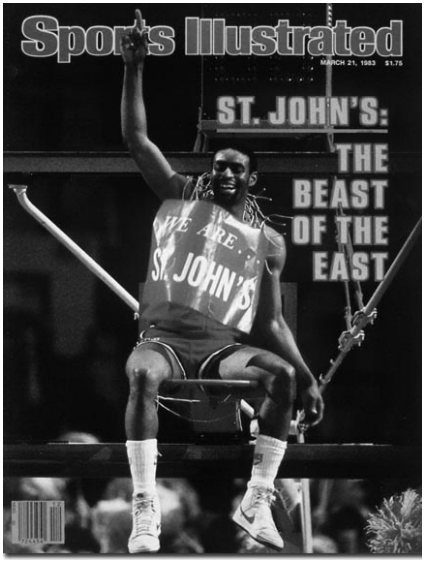
St. John's played 33 games, the most in school history at that time, won more games than any team prior (28), and entered the postseason for a record 38th time. After tying for first during the regular season in the BIG EAST, the team won three straight games in the league's championship tournament to take home the crown.

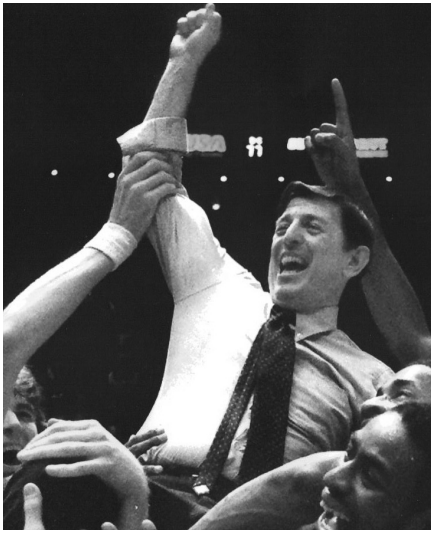
The team beat defending NCAA champion North Carolina to open the season, then won 13-straight games, giving them a school-record 14 consecutive season-opening victories. Along the way, they won the ECAC Holiday Festival Tournament for the sixth time, and the third time in four years.

Carnesecca was named Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the New York Basketball Writers' Association and several other organizations. Chris Mullin was the unanimous selection for BIG EAST Player of the Year, and the New York Writers' Haggerty Award. In addition, he became the third player to score more than 1,000 points in two seasons, connecting on nearly 60 percent of his shots from the field.

David Russell's rugged inside play gave the St. John's offense a double haymaker and this combination was brought to explosive power by the cool play of swingman Billy Goodwin which matched the fiery competitiveness of Kevin Williams. Floor play was orchestrated by Bobby Kelly and the backbone was supplied by the center couple of Jeff Allen and Bill Wennington, with Ron Stewart and Trevor Jackson in the wings.

In the BIG EAST Tournament, St. John's beat Pittsburgh in the first round, and then topped Villanova in the semifinals. The championship game saw Mullin score 24 points in an 85-77 win over Boston College.





1986 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

A year after a trip to the program's second-ever Final Four, if anyone was searching for "The Truth," they found it.

In just his second season at St. John's, Walter "The Truth" Berry earned national player of the year honors – the second straight year a St. John's player had done so, as Chris Mullin took the award during the 1984-85 campaign – and led the team to a 31-5 record and the 1986 BIG EAST Tournament Championship.

Berry had, perhaps, the best single season ever in St. John's history in 1985-86, averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds, while earning award upon award. He was selected as the recipient of the John Wooden Award as the nation's top college player, the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, the Associated Press' honor, and was the Kodak Player of the Year from the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He scored a still-intact St. John's record 828 points that season and grabbed 399 rebounds, which ranks as the fifth-best single season mark.

The starting five that season – Berry, Ron Rowan, Willie Glass, Mark Jackson and Shelton Jones – ranks among the best in school history. They started every game and accounted for 86 percent of the minutes played, but had outstanding play from reserves like Marco Baldi, Terry Bross, Steve Shurina and John Hempel. Rowan finished the season second on the team in scoring, averaging 14.2 points and 4.4 assists; Glass averaged 13.3 points and 5.6 rebounds; Jackson added 11.3 points and a school record 9.1 assists; and Jones averaged 8.5 points and 5.7 rebounds.

The Redmen had rolled through the regular season with only four blemishes on their record: a loss to Duke in the Big Apple NIT semifinals, a non-conference defeat to DePaul and a pair of BIG EAST falters by a combined total of six points at Boston College and Syracuse.

And while Berry was the leader of the team, it was Rowan who came through in the Redmen's biggest moment, sinking a 14-foot baseline jumper with eight seconds left and giving St. John's its first lead of the game at 70-69, in a win over Syracuse in the BIG EAST Championship. Berry blocked Dwayne "Pearl" Washington's shot at the buzzer as St. John's won the second of its three BIG EAST Tournament titles.

2000 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

The nets were cut, and the celebration began. Players and coaches hugged family members, staff and each other. The trophy was carried around the floor and adored by one and all.

The night of March 11, 2000 was not just any night for the St. John's men's basketball team. The Red Storm's 80-70 win over Connecticut at Madison Square Garden gave the team its first BIG EAST Tournament Championship since 1986, but it was also the fitting end to a hectic, and at times, challenging season.

It was fitting because this St. John's team had overcome obstacles time and time again throughout the season. And just when people were counting the Red Storm out, they came back – each time.

The team was tough and resilient. While small in numbers – there were only eight scholarship players and head coach Mike Jarvis used a seven-man rotation for the most part – the team jelled and played without fear.

That never-quit mentality was never more evident than during a stretch in late February when the Red Storm toppled Syracuse, Connecticut and Duke in consecutive games. The wins over the Huskies and Blue Devils marked the first time in recorded history that the national champion (UConn) and national runner-up (Duke) had lost to the same team back-to-back.

The BIG EAST Tournament was equally exciting. St. John's used a late run to beat Villanova in the opener and then came a heated rivalry with Miami. In a tight game, sophomore forward Anthony Glover – who had missed his previous five attempts – hit two free throws with 2.2 seconds left to give St. John's a 58-57 win over the Hurricanes and a spot in the championship game.

In a rematch of the previous year's championship game, Bootsy Thornton – who earned tournament MVP honors – scored 22 points to lead four players in double figures in an 80-70 win over Connecticut.

2025 BIG EAST CHAMPIONS

In each of Rick Pitino's five collegiate coaching stops before taking over at St. John's, a promising trend had emerged: year two was special. At Boston University, year two featured 21 wins and an appearance in the second round of the NIT. At Providence, the Friars made the Final Four in Pitino's second year. At Kentucky, the Wildcats won the SEC. At both Louisville and Iona, year two under Pitino featured 25 wins.

With expectations set high in year two at St. John's, Pitino and the Red Storm delivered, winning both the BIG EAST Regular Season and BIG EAST Tournament titles. The Johnnies finished with a mark of 31-5, matching the program's single-season wins record and eclipsing the 30-win plateau for just the third time in program history. The Red Storm matched a BIG EAST record with 18 conference wins, taking home the league's outright regular season title for the first time since 1985.

Over three magical days in March at Madison Square Garden, the Red Storm rolled to the BIG EAST Tournament title for the first time in a quarter century. After dispatching of Butler, 78-57, in the quarterfinals, St. John's erased an early deficit to take down Marquette, 79-63, on Friday night and clinch a spot in the championship game. Zuby Ejiofor scored a St. John's BIG EAST Tournament record 33 points in that semifinal victory. The following night at "The World's Most Famous Arena," the Johnnies put together a nearly flawless second half, at one point sinking 14 straight goal attempts and scoring 57 points in the period on their way to the program's first BIG EAST Tournament crown since 2000. RJ Luis scored 27 of his 29 points in that second half to win the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the tournament's most outstanding player. Ejiofor and Kadary Richmond earned spots on the all-tournament team, as Pitino won the BIG EAST Tournament for the fourth time in his coaching career.

Before the start of the conference tournament, Luis became the first St. John's student-athlete since Walter Berry in 1986 to be named the BIG EAST Player of the Year. Pitino took home BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors for the first time. Luis would go on to earn consensus Second Team All-America accolades while Pitino claimed a trio of national coaching honors (Associated Press Coach of the Year, USBWA Coach of the Year and the Naismith Coach of the Year Award).

Additionally, Zuby Ejiofor was named the BIG EAST's Most Improved Player and earned a spot on the All-BIG EAST First Team alongside Luis. Richmond found a place on the All-BIG EAST Second Team.

The Red Storm earned the no. 2 seed in the West Region and defeated 15th-seeded Omaha, 83-53, in the opening round. It was the Red Storm's first NCAA Tournament win since 2000 and marked the largest NCAA Tournament margin of victory in St. John's history. An off shooting night downed the Red Storm in the second round against Arkansas, but the memories of a magical campaign could not be soured.

Banners were raised to commemorate the outstanding contributions of Walter Berry, Lou Carnesecca, Sonny Dove, Mark Jackson, Tony Jackson, Joe Lapchick, Dick McGuire, Chris Mullin, Malik Sealy and Alan Seiden.

JAN. 21, 2006
With scores of St. John's legends in attendance, the Red Storm shocks the college basketball world with a 55-50 victory over the ninth-ranked and then-undefeated Pittsburgh Panthers. Junior forward Lamont Hamilton scores 24 points, including four in the final :31.8 of the contest, to seal the win.

MARCH 31, 2010
St. John's introduces Steve Lavin as its 19th head men's basketball coach at a news conference in Taffner Field House.

JAN. 30, 2011
St. John's defeats No. 3 Duke, 93-78, before a sellout crowd of 19,353 at Madison Square Garden. Dwight Hardy led the Red Storm with 26 points (9-13 FG).

MARCH 18, 2011
St. John's made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002 and the 27th in school history. The sixth-seeded Red Storm fell to No. 11 Gonzaga, 86-71, in the opening game of the Southeast Region in Denver.

DEC. 8, 2012
Chris Obekpa etched his name in the St. John's record book with a single game record 11 blocks in a 58-47 win over Fordham at Madison Square Garden in the Holiday Festival. Obekpa finished the season with a school record 133 blocks.

MARCH 8, 2013
Commissioner Michael Aresco announced a split of the BIG EAST Conference effective July 1, 2013. St. John's and the league's six other Catholic schools would take the BIG EAST name and stage its postseason tournament at Madison Square Garden.

MARCH 20, 2013
Presidents of the new BIG EAST Conference's seven member schools announced an unprecedented partnership with FOX Sports. FOX Sports, and its new national cable network, FOX Sports 1, acquired exclusive media rights to the conference as part of a 12-year contract that was detailed during a press conference in the midtown Manhattan studios of FOX News.

JULY 1, 2013
A founding member of the BIG EAST Conference in 1979, St. John's ushered in a new era for the league along with DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, Seton Hall and Villanova. Butler, Creighton and Xavier officially joined the reborn 10-member conference that was returning to its basketball centered roots.

DEC. 6, 2014
St. John's earned a 69-57 victory over Syracuse before 24,884 fans at the Carrier Dome. Phil Greene IV scored 11 straight points in the last four minutes to help snap the Orange's 55-game non-conference home win streak, which was the second-longest active streak in the nation. D'Angelo Harrison recorded a game-high 24 points to lead St. John's to its first win over Syracuse at the Carrier Dome since the 1998-99 season.

FEB. 3, 2015
D'Angelo Harrison became only the third player in St. John's history to reach the 2,000-point plateau. Harrison reached the career milestone with a free-throw at 3:51 in the first half against Butler at historic Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

MARCH 20, 2015
St. John's made its 28th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The ninth-seeded Red Storm fell to eighth-seeded San Diego State, 76-64, at Time Warner Cable Arena in Charlotte, N.C.

APRIL 1, 2015
Thirty years after leading St. John's to the Final Four, Chris Mullin was introduced as the 20th head coach in program history with a press conference in Carnesecca Arena.

NOV. 13, 2015
Chris Mullin collected his first career win in his debut as St. John's head coach with a 66-57 victory over Wagner College in front of 4,677 fans at Carnesecca Arena. Federico Mussini scored a game-high 18 points to help guide the Red Storm to victory under the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer.

DEC. 21, 2016
The Red Strom handed archrival Syracuse its largest-ever margin of defeat inside the famed Carrier Dome, downing the Orange by a score of 93-60. The third-straight win overall for the Johnnies against Syracuse and the program's second-straight victory inside the Carrier Dome was led by the efforts of Shamorie Ponds, who tallied 21 points, seven assists and six rebounds.

MARCH 4, 2017
Shamorie Ponds netted a season-high 29 points against the Providence Friars in the Red Storm's regular season finale at Madison Square Garden, breaking the program's scoring record for a freshman in the process. The Brooklyn native went on to finish his rookie campaign with 573 points, 29 more than D'Angelo Harrison registered in 2011-12.

FEB. 3, 2018
After losing 11-straight games to kick off conference play, the Red Storm shocked the college basketball world with an 81-77 upset of No. 4/5 Duke at MSG. Shamorie Ponds scored 33 points, 24 of which came in the second half and sealed the game with a dagger three-point shot.

FEB. 7, 2018
Riding high from its win over Duke just a few days prior, the Johnnies traveled to The City of Brotherly Love for a showdown with No. 1/1 Villanova. Paced by another brilliant performance by Shamorie Ponds (26 points, five rebounds, five assists), the Red Storm knocked off a top-ranked team for the first time since 1985, downing the Wildcats, 79-75.

FEB. 17, 2019
Playing in front of a sold-out crowd of 19,812, the Red Storm erased a 19-point first-half deficit to down defending national champion Villanova at Madison Square Garden. LJ Figueroa led the way with 22 points and 12 rebounds, scoring 16 in a second half that saw the Johnnies outscore the 13th ranked Wildcats, 45-28. Mustapha Heron scored 14 of his 19 points after the intermission.

MARCH 17, 2019
The Red Storm heard its named called on Selection Sunday for the 29th time in program history. St. John's, which had not made the NCAA Tournament since 2015, drew Arizona State in a First Four matchup at UD Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The Sun Devils won that game, but the Red Storm finished the season with 21 wins.

APRIL 19, 2019

NOV. 6, 2020
Playing its first game under the direction of Head Coach Mike Anderson, the Red Storm exploded for a 109 points in a 30-point drubbing of Mercer. The Johnnies' 109 points were the most ever scored in a head coach's debut and the highest total in a season opener since 1986.

MARCH 11, 2020
After trailing by as many as 15 in the second half, the Red Storm ended the game on a 23-0 run, topping Georgetown, 75-62, in the opening round of the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden. The comeback was the largest for St. John's in the four-decade history of the BIG EAST Tournament. The following day, the Johnnies' quarterfinal matchup against Creighton was called at halftime due to the COVID-19 pandemic with St. John's leading by three at the intermission.

FEB. 3, 2021
Hosting Villanova at Carnesecca Arena for the first time in nearly three decades, St. Johns stifled the No. 3 Wildcats throughout a 70-59 victory. The win marked the first over a top-three opponent on the Queens campus since Jan. 1966, when Sonny Dove tallied 28 points and 24 rebounds in an 82-72 win over No. 3 Saint Joseph's during Lou Carnesecca's first year as head coach at his alma mater.

JAN. 5, 2022
24 days removed from his last appearance due to a bout with COVID, Julian Champagnie exploded for career-highs of 34 points and 16 rebounds in a win over DePaul at Carnesecca Arena.

JAN. 15, 2023
Joel Soriano scored 13 of his 19 points in the second half to help St. John's take down No. 6/7 UConn, 85-74 on the road at XL Center in Hartford. The road victory was also the program's first over a team ranked No. 6 or better in the AP Poll since downing No. 1 Villanova on Feb. 7, 2018 at Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia. The win also marked the Johnnies' first inside XL Center/Hartford Civic Center since 1988.

MARCH 21, 2023
St. John's formally introduced the 22nd head coach in its men's basketball program's long and storied history, welcoming Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Rick Pitino during a press conference at Madison Square Garden. The 35-year veteran was the first head coach in Division I history to lead two different programs to an NCAA Championship, winning with Kentucky in 1996 and Louisville in 2013.

MARCH 5, 2024
The St. John's men's basketball team tied a program record for most points in a BIG EAST game with a 104-77 victory over DePaul inside Wintrust Arena. The Johnnies scored 54 points in the first half, marking the most in a half this season. St. John's shot 66.7 percent (22-33 FG) in the opening frame to take a 26-point lead into the break, which was the team's largest halftime advantage in a league matchup since Jan. 3, 2000, when the Red Storm led Pitt by 31. St. John's 104 points matched the program's previous scoring high in BIG EAST play dating back to a 34-point victory against Providence on Feb. 15, 1999.

MARCH 14, 2024
For the first time since 2000, the fifth-seeded St. John's men's basketball team advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament semifinals after taking down fourth-seeded Seton Hall, 91-72, at Madison Square Garden. RJ Luis Jr. scored a team-high 18 points to help lead the Johnnies to their largest margin of victory in a BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinal since March 12, 1993, when St. John's downed Boston College, 76-56. The Red Storm's offense reached the 90-point mark in a tournament game for just the sixth time in program history.

DEC. 7, 2024
One week after the passing of Lou Carnesecca, St. John's hosted Kansas State in the program's first game since the legendary head coach's death. To the delight of the St. John's faithful, Rick Pitino came out of the Carnesecca Arena locker room to reveal a custom-made replica of "the sweater," the iconic item of clothing worn by Looie during the 1984-85 season. Following a pregame remembrance, Zuby Ejiofor posted 28 points and 13 rebounds to lead the Red Storm past the Wildcats in the BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle.

FEB. 7, 2025
With the Red Storm leading by two and just 11 seconds remaining on the clock, RJ Luis Jr. perfectly executed an out-of-bounds play on the baseline before draining a midrange jumper, sealing a 68-62 road victory for the Red Storm over two-time reigning national champion and 19th ranked UConn at Gampel Pavilion. The win was St. John's 10th straight to start 2025, a stretch that saw the Red Storm climb to no. 9 in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll, the program's first top-10-ranking since 2000.

MARCH 8, 2025
After clinching the outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship at Madison Square Garden for the first time in 40 years a week earlier, the sixth-ranked Red Storm traveled to Milwaukee for its regular season finale against No. 20 Marquette. After an RJ Luis Jr. layup on the Red Storm's final possession forced overtime, Zuby Ejiofor delivered the clutch shot in the extra period. After a Kadary Richmond steal to regain possession in the closing seconds, the junior big man corralled a pass from Simeon Wilcher before beating the buzzer and giving St. John's an 86-84 victory. Richmond finished the game with 10 points, 12 rebounds and 11 assists, becoming the first St. John's player to record a triple-double since Ron Artest on Jan. 9, 1999, against Seton Hall.

MARCH 15, 2025
For the first time in 25 years, the St. John's men's basketball team lifted the trophy as BIG EAST Tournament Champions on the floor of "The World's Most Famous Arena." After scoring just two points in the opening stanza, BIG EAST Player of the Year RJ Luis Jr. scored 27 points in the second half to lead St. John's to its third win in as many days, 82-66, over Creighton in front of 19,812 jubilant souls at Madison Square Garden. Down three, 28-25, at the break, St. John's dominated the second half, at one point making 14 consecutive field goal tries and scoring 57 points in the period. Luis Jr. took home the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the tournament's most outstanding player after averaging 20.7 points and 8.0 rebounds for the championship. Both Zuby Ejiofor, who had scored a career-high and St. John's BIG EAST Tournament record 33 points against Marquette the night prior, and Kadary Richmond, who posted a pair of double-doubles, earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

MARCH 20, 2025
The no. 2 seed in the West Region, St. John's defeated Omaha in its NCAA Tournament opener, 83-53, to record the program's first NCAA Tournament win since 2000. RJ Luis Jr. led the way with 22 points and eight rebounds for the Red Storm in Providence.

APRIL 4, 2025
After leading St. John's to its most successful season in 40 years, Rick Pitino was named the Associated Press Coach of the Year in a ceremony at the Final Four in San Antonio, sharing the honor with Auburn's Bruce Pearl. Pitino was also named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year, the USBWA Coach of the Year and the Naismith National Coach of the Year. Locally, he captured MBWA All-Met Coach of the Year honors.

In January of 2006, St. John's University celebrated the outstanding contributions of 10 individuals by conferring 'Basketball Legacy Honors' upon them.

The criteria decided upon for Basketball Legacy Honors extends far beyond wins and losses, or points and rebounds. The selection committee took several additional aspects into account, including athletic achievement, citizenship, character, team success and national awards to go along with individual statistics.

While the initial list of 10 was recognized, St. John's plans to continue the Basketball Legacy Honors program in the future.

COACH JOE LAPCHICK

Joe Lapchick was the first talented big man to play in the collegiate ranks. He was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1966 as an original member of the Celtics travel team from the era of the "Roaring 20's." The "Big Indian," as he was called, had a career in basketball that virtually spanned the game from its true beginning to its full growth.

He coached at St. John's from 1936-1947, left to roam the sidelines for the New York Knicks from 1947-1956, where upon he returned to lead the Redmen until his retirement in 1965. He won 334 games during his tenure, among those were four National Invitation Tournament titles (1943, 1944, 1959 and 1965).

University officials recognized Lapchick for his many accomplishments by naming a regular season tournament (The Joe Lapchick Memorial) in his honor. In 1985 he was unanimously chosen as part of the first induction class to enter the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame. Lapchick died on August 10, 1970.

COACH LOU CARNESECCA

What can you say about this Hall of Famer that hasn't already been said? Lou Carnesecca is a legend in New York and college basketball circles worldwide. He is synonymous with St. John's Basketball, having coached at the University for 24 seasons.

During those 24 seasons he never failed to qualify for a postseason tournament (18 NCAAs and six NITs). "Looie," as he is affectionately called, compiled a record of 526 wins and 200 losses and directed the team to 20 or more victories in a season on 18 separate occasions.

Carnesecca was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1992. In 1991, he became only the 30th NCAA Division I coach to reach the 500 career victory mark. In 1988-89, he directed his team to a record fifth NIT title.

His NCAA teams were successful advancing to the Final Four in 1985, to the Eastern Regional Final in 1979 and to the regional semifinals in 1967, 1969, 1983 and 1991.

Carnesecca's record in regular season tournaments is also impressive. He won 17 Lapchick Tournaments and eight ECAC Holiday Festival crowns. In 13 tough years of BIG EAST Conference competition, Carnesecca's teams had a regular season record of 112-65 and were 13-11 in the tournament. He also tied for the regular season title three times and won it outright once.

Carnesecca was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year three times and chosen Metropolitan Area Coach of the Year six times by the New York Basketball Writers Association. In addition, he has two BIG EAST titles to his credit, winning in the 1983 and 1986 seasons.

CHRIS MULLIN

At 6-6 from Brooklyn, N.Y., Chris Mullin is the most honored player in St. John's history. The consensus All-American's sharp outside shooting from the floor, his dead-eye accuracy from the free-throw line, his keen basketball sense, his leadership both on and off the court and his total devotion to the game of basketball led him to become, arguably, the greatest player in St. John's history.

In his rookie season, he was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival. He was second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Rookie. Named the Metropolitan Sports Writers Rookie of the Year, Mullin averaged 16.6 points per game and became the school's top freshman scorer with 498 points.

There was no sophomore jinx for Mullin his second year. He led the team with a 19.1 scoring average and became only the fourth St. John's player to score 1,000 points in his first two seasons. He swept all of the major BIG EAST awards that year as he was named Player of the Year, MVP of the Tournament and first team all-conference. He was also named a third team All-American by UPI. He won the Haggerty Award that season, which is symbolic of being collegiate basketball's MVP for the metropolitan area.

In his junior year, he earned a place on just about every All-America team, averaging a team-high 22.9 points per game. He led the BIG EAST in scoring with a 24.9 mark and was named Co-Conference Player of the Year. He became the conference's all-time leading scorer and was named first team all-conference. That summer he was a key member of the gold medal winning Olympic team.

Besides leading St. John's to the Final Four his senior year and a No. 1 ranking by both the UPI and AP polls for several weeks, Mullin was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, which is given to the nation's top collegiate basketball player. Mullin was a consensus first team All-American, was named UPI's Player of the Year and District II Player of the Year.

He surpassed Bob Zawoluk as the school's all-time leading scorer and became the first St. John's player to total 2,000 points in a career. Mullin was not just a scoring machine; in his four years at St. John's he also broke then-records for steals, field goals made, free throws and free throw percentage. He also ranks among the top five in assists.

WALTER BERRY

Walter Berry played just two seasons with St. John's but his impact was tremendous. The "Truth," as he was known, transferred to St. John's from San Jacinto Junior College where he was named the National Junior College Player of the Year, averaging 28.9 points and 14 rebounds.

He emerged as one of the top newcomers in the nation in his first season at St. John's, helping lead the team to the Final Four. He earned second team All-BIG EAST honors and first team All-Metropolitan honors that season. He averaged 17.0 points per game which was second on the team behind Chris Mullin. He shattered the school single-season scoring record as a senior, scoring 828 points.

As a senior, he was the recipient of the John R. Wooden Award, given by the Los Angeles Athletic Club to the nation's top collegiate player. He was also awarded the Adolph R. Rupp Trophy, given to the player of the year in college basketball by the Associated Press. Berry's biggest honor was being selected the Kodak Player of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He was the UPI Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, Basketball Weekly Player of the Year, CBS/Chevrolet Player of the Year and the BIG EAST Player of the Year. He earned these honors by averaging 23.0 points and 11.1 rebounds per game.

Berry was named to the AP and UPI first-team All-America squads. He became only the fifth player in St. John's history to reach the 1,000-point mark in two seasons.

MARK JACKSON

The greatest assist man in St. John's history, Mark "Action" Jackson totaled a school record 738 assists. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team after dishing out 108 assists as a freshman.

He was the "sixth man" on St. John's Final Four team, ranking third on the team in assists with 109 and second in field goal percentage with .564. He emerged as one of the premier point guards in the nation during his junior season, dealing a then-NCAA record 328 assists, which still ranks as the fifth-best collegiate single-season effort of all time. His 150 assists in BIG EAST games was also a league record. Jackson proved to be a capable scorer as he averaged 11.3 points per game. He was named first team All-BIG EAST and All-Met and was an AP honorable mention All-American.

In his senior season, Jackson was named the BIG EAST Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He was a second team All-America selection by AP, UPI and Basketball Weekly. He was the co-recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of the metropolitan area, and was a first team All-BIG EAST selection. Jackson averaged 18.9 points per game his senior season and finished his career with 1,328 points.

MALIK SEALY

Malik Sealy is one of only three players in St. John's history to score more than 2,000 points for his career. His 2,401 career points places him second, only behind Chris Mullin, on the school's all-time scoring chart.

In his freshman season, he finished second on the team with a 12.9 points per game average and 197 rebounds, and also totaled 36 steals, 21 blocks and 67 assists, helping the team to a record fifth NIT title. He was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman team and was voted Rookie of the Year in the New York Area by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association. In his sophomore season, Sealy became only the sixth player in St. John's history to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons. He averaged 18.1 points a game, scoring 616 for the year, the 11th-highest total in school history. He was named second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Met that season.

As a junior, Sealy emerged as one of the top players in the nation. He averaged 22.1 points per game, which helped lead his team to an Elite Eight finish in the NCAA Tournament. Along with being named first team All-BIG EAST, Sealy was honored with the Haggerty Award, which is given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the metropolitan area. His 707 points that season is the third-highest ever in St. John's history. He was named MVP of the Lapchick Tournament that year after a 43-point performance against Central Connecticut State in the championship game. That marked the highest point total by a player in Alumni Hall history, a record that still stands today.

In his final season, Sealy was a consensus second team All-American, averaging 22.6 points per game. He was named the MVP of both the Lapchick Tournament and ECAC Holiday Festival, as well as being named first team All-BIG EAST.

Sealy scored in double figures in 102 consecutive games, breaking Chris Mullin's record of 100 straight games. Sealy holds many records for St. John's, including most career field goals (900) and most career steals (238).

DICK MCGUIRE

To those St. John's alumni and fans of the 1940s and 1950s, there will always be one player – Dick McGuire. The numbers, of course, do not tell the story as the stats of today were not a part of McGuire's game. His playmaking ability, his superb court sense and his ball handling under fire are more representative of his career, and it was those qualities which brought him to the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

McGuire was a soft-spoken man who bore the nickname "Mumbles" for his quick and jumbled ways of conversation, and "Tricky Dicky" for his moves through the defense.

McGuire came to St. John's in 1943-44, a year St. John's won its second consecutive NIT title. He was given the first of two Haggerty Awards as New York City's outstanding collegiate player. Returning to St. John's after the war, he won a second Haggerty in 1949 while playing alongside his brother, Al. He joined the New York Knicks for the 1949-50 season and his long career in the NBA included service with the Detroit Pistons as a player-coach and with the Knicks as a bench coach. You really can't explain Dick McGuire's brilliance if you did not see him play, for seeing him under game pressure was the only evidence to make you believe.

LLOYD "SONNY" DOVE

Lloyd "Sonny" Dove ranks 12th on the St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,576 career points and is second only to George Johnson as St. John's all-time leading rebounder with 1,036 career boards. Dove and Johnson are the only two St. John's players ever to score more than 1,000 career points and grab more than 1,000 career rebounds.

Dove played from 1964-67. In his first season, he averaged 13.8 points per game and led the team with an 11.7 rebounds per game average for Coach Joe Lapchick. He was named to the Holiday Festival All-Star team and to the NIT All-Tournament team that year. In his second season with the team and first with new head coach Lou Carnesecca, Dove was named to several All-America teams including, first team All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, and a third team All-America by AP and UPI. Dove averaged 21.2 points per game and 14.2 rebounds per game that season, which also earned him first team All-Metropolitan honors.

In his final season at St. John's, Dove was once again named to several All-America teams including first team All-America by the Helms Athletic Foundation and The Sporting News, second-team All-Americaa by UPI and third-team All-America by AP. The New York writers named him the winner of the Haggerty Trophy, the metropolitan area's college basketball MVP. He averaged 22.4 points per game and 11.8 boards. Dove set the then-St. John's record in 1967 with 242 field goals in a season (which currently ranks eighth-best) and became the first St. John's player to ever grab 1,000 rebounds for a career.

TONY JACKSON

Tony Jackson, a native of Brooklyn, starred for St. John's on the hardwood under Joe Lapchick, lettering three times from 1958-59 to 1960-61. A two-time consensus All-American, Jackson is currently listed 11th among all-time St. John's scoring leaders with 1,603 points. He is also third on the all-time rebounding list with 991 career boards. In his first season in 1958-59, Jackson helped the team to the Postseason NIT title, scoring 20.0 points per game. That year he was named Most Valuable Player of both the NIT and the ECAC Holiday Festival. He set a then-school record that season with 27 rebounds in one game (which currently ranks second best).

In his second season in 1959-60, Jackson earned consensus All-America honors and led St. John's with a 21.2 ppg scoring average, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau, while averaging 12.9 rebounds per game as well.

In his senior year, Jackson was the recipient of All-America accolades and won the Haggerty Award, given to the best collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. Jackson averaged 22.0 ppg that year.

Jackson was drafted with the first pick in the third round of the 1961 NBA Draft by the New York Knickerbockers. In 1968, he joined the ABA's New Jersey Americans, where he scored 19.4 ppg. In 1969, Jackson played for three ABA teams: the Houston Mavericks, the Minnesota Pipers and the New York Nets. He finished his ABA career with a 15.9 ppg scoring average.

ALAN SEIDEN

One of the great guards in St. John's history, Alan Seiden is tied for 21st on St. John's all-time career scoring chart and is listed among program leaders in six free throw categories. He averaged double-figures every season of his career, including as a sophomore in 1957, when the sophomore was the team's second leading scorer with 273 points and a 11.9 points per game average.

As a junior in 1958, Seiden was named a Helms Foundation second team All-American. St. John's earned an appearance in the Postseason NIT and finished fourth, where Seiden performed exceptionally, averaging 21.0 points per game in the tournament. During the season, Seiden was the leading scorer for St. John's with 531 points (20.4 points per game) and 95 rebounds.

In 1959, Seiden repeated as team captain and had one of the greatest individual seasons in school history. Named a Helms and NEA first team All-American, and a Converse and Sporting News second team All-American, Seiden led the team in scoring for the second consecutive season with 570 points. He added 102 rebounds as well, and scored a career-high 38 points in a mid-season game against Loyola (Illinois). That year, Seiden led St. John's to a 17-7 record and a No. 17 (UPI) ranking. In the NIT, the unseeded Redmen defeated Villanova, St. Bonaventure and Providence to reach the tournament final. In the championship game, Seiden scored a game-high 22 points and St. John's downed Bradley, 76-71, in overtime.

FRANK ALAGIA

The best of the little men ever to play at St. John's, Frank Alagia played from 1972-76, and was Frank Mulzoff and Lou Carnesecca's floor leader. He finished his illustrious St. John's career with 478 assists, which was the most in school history until Mark Jackson (738), Jason Buchanan (665) and Eugene Lawrence (520) surpassed that mark. In addition, Alagia was one of only two players to win the Francis Pomeroy Naismith Award as the National Player of the Year for players 6-0 and under. Alagia led four St. John's teams to a combined 83-30 record and successful postseason accomplishments. In 1974-75, the team lost the consolation game of the NIT Final Four to Oregon in overtime, 80-76. In 1975-76, the team made it to the ECAC Championship before losing a thriller to Rutgers, 70-67, and was then ousted by Indiana in the NCAA Tournament.

GUS ALFIERI

Some things you have to take in pairs, and along with backcourt mate Alan Seiden, Gus Alfieri made up one of the finest tandems in school history. Alfieri and Seiden piled up victories in the late 1950s and starred in the 1959 NIT final with an overtime victory over Bradley. The duo were adept at reading each other's games, and also in seeing inside their opponents' to set up scoring plays that boggled the mind. Alfieri recorded a pair of double-figure scoring seasons, but statistics only tell part of his story. Alfieri and Seiden played as if joined at the hip, and they played basketball with a boundless joy.

RON ARTEST

Ron Artest was a first team All-BIG EAST selection as a sophomore after being named to the All-Rookie team following his freshman season. He declared for the NBA Draft following the 1998 NCAA Tournament, leaving St. John's 93 points shy of becoming a 1,000-point scorer. A solid all-around player, he averaged 13.1 points, 6.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.9 steals per game. He connected on 44.5 percent of his field goals (335-of-753) and 35.5 percent of his 3-pointers (92-of-259).

Artest was a unanimous selection to the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team after finishing third on the team in scoring (11.6 ppg) and third in rebounding (6.3 rpg) in 1998. He also earned conference rookie of the week honors four times during the season, and was named to the BIG EAST Conference All-Tournament team after averaging 28 points and 14 rebounds in the Red Storm's two games.

HARRY BOYKOFF

Harry Boykoff played his first season in 1942-43 and led St. John's to its first NIT title with a team-leading 16.6 scoring average. The 6-9 center earned the MVP award of the sixth annual NIT after scoring 56 points in the three games. He was named to several All-America teams that year, including a selection on the All-America basketball team that appeared in The Sporting News, then the national sports newspaper. Boykoff also broke the Madison Square Garden record with a 45-point scoring spree against St. Joseph's.

Boykoff reappeared in 1945-46 after serving in the U.S. military during World War II. He led the team that year with a 16.5 scoring average and again the following year with a 16.7 mark. In that final season, Boykoff became the first St. John's player ever to score 1,000 career points.

GERRY BUSH

Gerry Bush starred for St. John's just as Madison Square Garden was coming into its own on the New York collegiate scene. The game of basketball was more precise then, with more detail than the speed of today, just a few years after the center jump following each basket had been eliminated. There was also no NBA then, so Bush, along with St. John's classmates like Bill Lloyd, joined the AAU Midwestern teams after his collegiate career. Bush played for the Akron Goodyear team for many years before entering the coaching ranks, where his teams won many games for the University of Nebraska. His team once notched a victory over Kansas when Wilt Chamberlain played for the Jayhawks.

GERRY CALABRESE

Gerry Calabrese came of age as a senior after playing part-time minutes his first two seasons. He averaged 10.1 points per game in the 1948-49 season. His head coach, Frank McGuire, labeled him the team's leader that season and teamed with leading scorer Dick McGuire to guide the Redmen to a 15-9 record. He played on two other winning teams (16-7 in 1946-47, 12-11 in 1947-48) and compiled a 43-27 record while wearing the Red and White for St. John's.

A standout for head coach Lou Carnesecca in the late 1970s, Reggie Carter played for three seasons at St. John's. He began his career playing half the season (14 games, 12.6 points per contest) as a key reserve in 1977-78 after beginning his career at the University of Hawaii. Carter two standout seasons were in 1978-79 and 1979-80, and for his career he averaged 15.0 points per game and amassed 1,061 points in a St. John's uniform. Carter will forever be remembered for leading St. John's to the NCAA Final Eight (defeating Temple, Duke and Rutgers) before losing to Pennsylvania 64-62 in the NCAA East Regional Final in Greensboro, N.C. He had a career high 39 points against Brigham Young on Dec. 16, 1978, in a 90-83 win at Alumni Hall.

MEL DAVIS

Mel Davis played two seasons with St. John's before pursuing a professional basketball career, but it took only those two years for Davis to emerge as one of the great names in program history.

A 6-7 scoring and rebounding machine, Davis led the team in both those categories in his first season as a sophomore. That year, Davis grabbed 436 rebounds, fifth-highest nationally, and still the most ever garnered by a St. John's player in a single season. Davis averaged 16.1 rebounds per game, leading the team in 23 of 27 games. He also led the team in scoring with 561 points, the second-most points scored by a sophomore at St. John's up to that point. His high rebounding total and 20.8 points per game average earned him many honors. He was a five-time ECAC Star of the Week, he was named to the All-Metropolitan Team by the New York Basketball Writers and he was the recipient of the Frank J. Haggerty Memorial award as St. John's most outstanding athlete. He was also named to a host of All-America teams that year.

In his junior season, Davis was elected to several All-America teams, all-star teams and all-tournament teams as he followed up his great sophomore year with an equally impressive junior campaign. He averaged 21.1 points per game and grabbed 409 boards. Davis now ranks 39th on St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,130 career points and is ranked seventh on the all-time rebounding list with 845 career boards.

ALFRED "DUSTY" DESTEFANO

The former head coach of the Redmen, Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano finished his career 49-38 for a winning percentage of .563. DeStefano also played and tutored under Joe Lapchick from 1938-40. He was a part-time player who was more known for his defense and agility than his scoring prowess.

LeROY ELLIS

LeRoy Ellis ranks 27th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,289 career points and fifth on the school's all-time rebounding list with 927 boards. Ellis still holds the school record for highest rebounding average in a season (16.5) and most rebounds in one game with 30 against NYU in 1961.

His great collegiate career spanned from the 1959-60 season through 1961-62. In his first season, Ellis averaged 10.6 points per game and was second on the team with 253 rebounds. In his second season, Ellis averaged 16.5 points a game, which was second best on the team behind Tony Jackson. In 1962, Ellis was named the recipient of the Haggerty Award, given to the most valuable collegiate basketball player in the metropolitan area. He earned that honor by leading the team with a 23.5 scoring average and 430 rebounds. Ellis was named to several All-America, all-star and all-tournament teams during his illustrious career at St. John's.

JAMES A. "BUCK" FREEMAN

Buck Freeman graduated from St. John's in 1927 and immediately became the head basketball coach at his alma mater. Prior to his coaching days, Freeman wore a St. John's uniform for Coach John Crenny. In his first season in 1923-24, he averaged 8.2 points per game, which tied for the team high. In his second season, he was third on the team in scoring with a 7.9 average. He averaged 6.5 points a game and helped lead his team to an 18-7 mark in his junior year. That year, Freeman had a team-high 31 points versus N.Y. State Agriculture. In his final season, he led the team with 6.8 points per game.

Freeman's years as head coach took St. John's to national prominence. In 208 games as head coach, Freeman's squad posted a 177-31 record for a winning percentage of .851, the highest in NCAA history. He assembled a club properly known as the "Wonder Five." In the four years these five – Matty Begovich, Mac Kinsbrunner, Max Posnack, Rip Gerson and Al Schuckman – played together, they compiled a record of 88 wins and eight losses, with four of the losses coming in their first season. Freeman's coaching theories changed the face of the game of basketball.

John "Taps" Gallagher earned a tremendous reputation as a coach at Niagara University where he was the entire athletic department for close to 40 years. He first was given his nickname in the 1920s, just before the "Wonder Five" days, when getting the center tap after each basket was vital. Gallagher coached high school basketball in New York before going to Niagara, where he had a superb career and delighted in knocking off his alma mater from time to time.

JACK "DUTCH" GARFINKEL

In the early days of St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame, many names were tossed around in deserved consideration for election. Walter McLaughlin, the beloved "Mr. Mac" of St. John's athletic annals, commented, "Don't forget Dutch Garfinkel."

Asked for more detail, McLaughlin simply replied that Garfinkel might well have been the best in St. John's basketball history. While that can be debated, there would be many who would agree. Garfinkel played on both ends of the court at the same time with constant drive and with creativity. For many years he was a basketball official in the New York area, adding to his reputation in the game.

HY GOTKIN

The little man of St. John's "Mutt and Jeff" combination with Harry Boykoff, Hy Gotkin was often scurrying down the court looking for methods to crush the opposition. That was mostly setting up plays, notably to Boykoff, the first tall tower in New York basketball. The "Mutt and Jeff" nickname stemmed from the comic strip featuring the big guy and a little guy. Gotkin led the 1943 and 1944 Redmen teams to the NIT title and was always available to help his alma mater in any way possible. He went on to serve as an administrator in the Brooklyn school system for many years.

Zendon Hamilton was part of head coach Brian Mahoney's highly touted recruiting class in 1994 that brought Felipe Lopez and guard Tarik Turner to St. John's. Hamilton would go on to impress and finish his St. John's career in the top five in several statistical categories. He is currently listed as the seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,810 points. He is fourth all-time in rebounding with 946 boards behind greats George Johnson, Lloyd "Sonny" Dove and Tony Jackson. Hamilton also holds an individual career record for free throw attempts during his four years (1994-98) at St. John's with 912.

D'ANGELO HARRISON

D'Angelo Harrison, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST honoree, finished his career at St. John's third on the program's scoring list with 2,178 points and ninth in BIG EAST history with 1,178 points in conference games. The fiery competitor from Missouri City, Texas, started 120-of-125 appearances with the Red Storm and capped off a decorated career by guiding St. John's to its 28th NCAA Tournament appearance. Harrison averaged 17.4 points and led the team in scoring all four years in Queens. He registered double-figures in 107-of-125 contests and reached the 20-point plateau 53 times. The 6-foot-4 sharpshooter set a school-record with 264 career 3-point field goals and holds the single-season mark hitting 76 in 2011-12.

As a senior in 2014-15, Harrison finished second in the BIG EAST with 17.5 points per game, scoring in double-figures 30-of-33 contests, including 14 20-point performances and three 30-point efforts. Harrison was named to the 2015 All-BIG EAST First Team, NABC District 5 First Team and garnered Senior CLASS Award Second Team All-American honors. He was also named to the Portsmouth Invitational All-Tournament Team and participated in the NABC Division I College All-Star Game.

Harrison became the 21st player in program history to take home the Haggerty Award in 2013-14, which is presented to the top collegiate player in the metropolitan area. He was a four-time All-Metropolitan selection, earning First Team honors three times.

As a sophomore in 2012-13, Harrison registered the highest scoring average of his career at 17.8 points per game. Harrison burst onto the scene as a freshman collecting BIG EAST All-Rookie honors in 2011-12 after setting what was then the St. John's freshman scoring record with 544 points, eclipsing Erick Barkley (500, 1998-99). His 17.0 points per game were second-best all-time for a St. John's freshman (Felipe Lopez, 17.8 ppg 1994-95).

Harrison collected BIG EAST Weekly Honors 20 times during his career, which includes four BIG EAST Player of the Week awards. He graduated top-10 in program history for career steals (156) and field goals made (660).

GREG "BOO" HARVEY

The master of the last second shot, Harvey won three games during the 1989-90 season on St. John's final possession. His buzzer-beaters – beating DePaul, 55-54 on Nov. 22, 1989 at MSG, upending Georgetown 63-62 on Feb. 21, 1990 in Washington, D.C., and at Pittsburgh, 76-75 on Feb. 26, 1990 – are forever etched in St. John's lore. Harvey averaged 16.5 points per game that season and with teammate Malik Sealy led St. John's to an impressive 24-10 record. That team advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament where they were beaten by Duke at the Omni in Atlanta, Ga. Harvey's 1987-88 season saw him average 11.9 points, leading the team to a 17-12 record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He played two seasons at St. John's, both under Hall of Fame Head Coach Lou Carnesecca.

GEORGE JOHNSON

Johnson ranks eighth on St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,763 career points. Johnson's claim to fame, however, is as the greatest rebounder in school history with 1,240 career boards. Johnson played from 1974 through 1978, and along with Lloyd "Sonny" Dove, is one of two players in St. John's history to score more than 1,000 career points and pull down more than 1,000 rebounds.

In his freshman season, the 6-7 star averaged 10.1 points a game and led the team with 285 boards. As a sophomore, he was an honorable mention All-American, averaging 13.8 points and 10.6 rebounds. As a junior, Johnson exceeded the 1,000-point mark for his career. He averaged 17.4 points and led the team with 335 rebounds. He led the team that year with 19.4 points and 324 rebounds. Johnson was the 1978 recipient of the Haggerty Award given to the Metropolitan MVP.

D.J. KENNEDY

One of just three St. John's players all-time to total at least 1,500 points, 750 rebounds and 150 steals, D.J. Kennedy finished a standout career as a four-year starter with 1,504 points (14th all-time), 781 rebounds (11th) and 183 steals (8th).

In 129 games played, tied for fifth-most all-time, the three-time MBWA All-Metropolitan selection registered 80 double-figure games and averaged 11.7 points to go with 6.1 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.4 steals. Kennedy made 122 3-pointers in his career, seventh all-time, reached the 20-point mark on 13 occasions and also totaled 14 double-doubles.

As a senior in 2010-11, Kennedy played a key role for a Red Storm team that defeated six Top-25 opponents, peaked at No. 15 in the national rankings and capped a 21-12 campaign with a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Kennedy averaged 10.4 points and 5.6 rebounds that season, posting 18 double-figure games and four double-doubles en route to earning second team MBWA All-Metropolitan honors.

A first team MBWA All-Met selection as a junior in 2009-10, Kennedy averaged a career-best 15.1 points and helped St. John's advance to the NIT. Kennedy also earned first team MBWA All-Met honors as a sophomore in 2008-09 after averaging 13.0 points and a career-high 6.6 rebounds.

ANDREW "FUZZY" LEVANE

A member of the 1942-43 NIT champions, Andrew "Fuzzy" Levane was a main cog in one of St. John's most successful seasons. He was named the Haggerty Award winner by the New York writers and left a colorful record on the history of both New York City and St. John's basketball. He played in the old National League professionally and then in the Basketball Association of America and the NBA. He later became a coach and a scout for the New York Knicks.

FELIPE LOPEZ

Felipe Lopez finished his St. John's career as the third all-time leading scorer, behind fellow NBA stars Chris Mullin and Malik Sealy, with 1,927 points. He recorded a final average of 16.9 points per game while playing in 114 games in his four year St. John's career.

Lopez's statistics are among the top 10 in nearly every offensive category. He is tied for fourth in career 3-point field goals made with 148, fifth in total field goals with 670, third in field goal attempts with 1,615, eighth in free throws made (439), sixth in free throw attempts (667), and third in three-point field goal attempts with 500. A former McDonald's All-American, Lopez was the number one rated player in the country in 1994 out of Rice High School in the Bronx. He will forever be remembered as one of the classiest players, on-and-off the court, to ever wear the St. John's uniform.

KEVIN LOUGHERY

Most of his fame would come later as a successful NBA coach and network broadcaster, but Kevin Loughery starred for Joe Lapchick at St. John's from 1960-62. Loughery's teams posted a combined 41-10 record and boasted a pair of 20-win seasons during his tenure in Queens. He averaged 10.6 points in 25 games in 1960-61 (his first season) and 23.5 points per game in his final year, teaming with LeRoy Ellis to lead St. John's to the semifinals of the NIT Tournament in 1962.

BRIAN MAHONEY

The BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 1993, Brian Mahoney served as an assistant coach under Lou Carnesecca for 18 seasons before being named St. John's head coach in 1992. In his first season at the helm, the Redmen won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains on Mahoney's first team included Lamont Middleton and David Cain. Mahoney served as head coach at St. John's from 1992-1996.

BOB MCINTYRE

Bob McIntyre stands tied for 23rd among St. John's all-time scorers with 1,349 points and is 25th among the all-time rebound leaders with 665. For his career, he played in 78 games and averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game. In his three years, St. John's compiled a 53-27 record and participated in the NIT all three seasons.

McIntyre's presence on this team in 1964-65 will always be remembered because it was the final year Joe Lapchick served on the St. John's bench. McIntyre played a key role in the team's NIT championship that sent Coach Lapchick off in grand style. In four NIT contests, he averaged 15.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. He scored 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds against Villanova in the NIT title game.

As a senior, he was one of the top players for rookie coach Lou Carnesecca in 1965-66. He scored the winning basket on Dec. 4, 1965 in a 64-62 overtime win at Georgetown to help land Carnesecca the first of his 526 career wins.

AL MCGUIRE

Al McGuire played from 1948-51. In his first season with the team he finished third in scoring with an 8.1 average. With brother, Dick, who captained the 1948-49 squad, St. John's finished the season with a 15-9 record. The following season the Redmen finished with a 24-5 record as McGuire averaged 7.7 points a game. McGuire ended his collegiate career in 1951, averaging 8.5 points per game and helping lead his team to third-place finishes in both the NIT and NCAA. The team concluded the season with a 26-5 record.

In 1992, McGuire was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., for his celebrated coaching accomplishments at Marquette University, where he won the 1977 National Championship.

FRANK MCGUIRE

Frank McGuire was inducted to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1976. A man who typified New York City and the city game of basketball, he began his college coaching career at St. John's, his alma mater, in 1947. His teams at St. John's, North Carolina and South Carolina won 550 games. He won the NCAA title with the Tar Heels in 1957. At St. John's, his basketball team went to the championship game in 1952 and his Redmen baseball team went to the College World Series in 1949, marking the only instance of a coach going to the title tournament in two sports.

Frank McGuire spent five seasons as the head coach of the St. John's basketball team from 1947-52 and he compiled a record of 102-36. He also wore the St. John's uniform on the hardwood for three seasons from 1933-36 and averaged 5.4 points per game.

BILL MCKEEVER

Bill McKeever was a great passer and defender for St. John's from 1937-40. McKeever would be best characterized as a complete player, filling in admirably on offense, where his best season (1937-38) saw him hit for 51 field goals, score 128 points and notch a 7.1 points per game scoring average. McKeever's teams, under coach Joe Lapchick, finished 48-13 and lost no more than five games in his three seasons of collegiate competition. The squad qualified for the National Invitation Tournament on two occasions. Lapchick's squads during McKeever's tenure posted records of 15-4 (1937-38), 18-4 (1938-39) and 15-5 (1939-40).

JACK MCMAHON

Brooklyn-born, Jack McMahon was the ultimate role player for St. John's under head coach Frank McGuire from 1949-52. He was known for his great defense, adept floor leadership and an accurate two-handed set shot, which was his trademark. Inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame on September 21, 2000, McMahon led the Redmen to the 1952 NCAA finals in his senior season. He was named a NCAA All-American that year and was a first round pick of the Rochester Royals of the NBA. He was the first St. John's guard to score more than 1,000 points, finishing his career scoring 1,176 points in a St. John's uniform. He went on to a glorious professional career with the Royals and St. Louis Hawks, where his team beat the Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Bill Russell-led Boston Celtics in the 1957 NBA Championship.

CHARLES MINLEND

Charles Minlend played for St. John's from 1992-93 to 1995-96. His best season with the Red Storm came during the 1993-94 campaign, where he averaged 13.6 points and hauled in 224 rebounds for an average of 7.7 boards per game. Minlend was a warrior, and his many accomplishments on the court were magnified by his studies off the court, where he graduated with honors through the rigors of the University's five-year pharmacy program. He is also among the University's career leaders with 1,349 points (T-23rd) and 10th all-time in rebounding (784).

BILLY PAULTZ

Billy Paultz made a tremendous impact in his two seasons with St. John's. The 6-10 center from River Edge, N.J., had a career double-double average of 12.0 points per game and 10.1 rebounds. In his first season at St. John's after transferring from Cameron College, Paultz scored 225 points, grabbed 185 rebounds and helped St. John's to a 23-6 record and a NCAA East Regional appearance. That year St. John's beat second-ranked Davidson on a last second shot by Paultz in overtime. At the time Paultz was quoted as saying, "I had to make it or Coach [Lou Carnesecca] would have killed me."

The following year he had an even greater impact as he led St. John's to a second-place finish in the NIT. Paultz finished with a 15.8 scoring average and a 13.4 rebounds per game average. His 389 rebounds that year still ranks on the school's top 10 list and his 574 career rebounds places him 37th all-time. "The Whopper," as he was known because of his size and ample appetite, could have also referred to the size of his professional career, which spanned an incredible 15 seasons in both the ABA and NBA.

Paultz was drafted in 1970 by San Diego. In his prime with the ABA's New York Nets (under Carnesecca) and NBA's San Antonio Spurs, he was a consistent double-figure scorer and proficient rebounder. Paultz was inducted into the St. John's Hall of Fame in 1997.

DAVID RUSSELL

David Russell ranks ninth on the St. John's all-time scoring list with 1,753 points for his career and is eighth on the all-time rebounding list with 832 boards. Russell began his illustrious career in the 1979-80 season, when he was named the BIG EAST Conference's first Rookie of the Year. He averaged 10.8 points per game and 5.5 rebounds in his first year, which earned him the Metropolitan Sports Writer Rookie of the Year and the Widmer Eastern Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the Eastern Basketball Magazine's All-Freshman Squad.

Russell led the team in scoring his sophomore season with an average of 14.8 ppg. He was an honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press that season along with being selected first team All-Met. He was named first team All-BIG EAST and All-Met his junior season and he again led the team in scoring with a 17.4 average. He was an AP honorable mention All-American as well as a member of the USBWA All-District II Team. He concluded his collegiate career in 1982-83, finishing second on the team in scoring with 15.4 ppg and leading the team in rebounding with a 7.4 average. He was also named second team All-BIG EAST and first team All-Met.

RON RUTLEDGE

Ron Rutledge owned a stellar playing career before becoming a long-time assistant under head coach Lou Carnesecca, in addition to Brian Mahoney and Fran Fraschilla. His tenure lasted 20 seasons on the Red Storm bench before retiring to pursue a career in administration at St. John's, working in the Alumni Relations Office. Rutledge was inducted into the St. John's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

MARTY SATALINO

A St. John's two-star athlete who was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991, Satalino was enshrined for both basketball and baseball. He played from 1952-55 and was a key contributor for head coach Alfred "Dusty" DeStefano's squads. Satalino's best season was the 1953-54 campaign, when he averaged 13.2 points in 20 games for the Redmen.

BILL SCHAEFFER

Bill Schaeffer scored 1,484 career points, a total that still ranks 15th on the St. John's all-time scoring list. He also added 622 career boards, placing him 29th on the all-time rebounding list, and hit at .560 percent from the floor for his career, good enough for fourth all-time.

Schaeffer began his career in 1970, when he averaged 14.4 points a game. In his junior season, Schaeffer averaged 17.1 points per game and posted a field goal percentage of .581, a St. John's record at the time. Schaeffer's excellence on the court as a senior earned him several All-America accolades, the most notable being a third team All-America selection by the Associated Press and United Press International. He also was the MVP of the 1972 ECAC Holiday Festival.

As a senior in 1972-73, Schaeffer scored 643 points in 26 games for a 24.7 per game average, a school record that still stands today. His field goal accuracy of .594 that season broke his own record of .581. This mark currently stands sixth on the all-time list, ranking him among the NCAA statistical leaders that season and earning him the Haggerty Award, given to the MVP of collegiate basketball in the Metropolitan area. Schaeffer's contributions to the 19-7 season were also felt in some team records set by St. John's, among them the highest team scoring average of 86.2 and the highest field goal average of 35.8 per game.

SOLLY WALKER

The first African-American player to wear a St. John's uniform, Solly Walker came to St. John's from Boys High School in Brooklyn and played in 78 games, scoring 573 points (6.8 average) and grabbing 496 rebounds (6.8 average). He led the freshman team in 1950-51 to a 17-2 record by averaging 15.1 points per game.

squad was exciting, as the team advanced to the NCAA final, falling to Kansas. Walker played in 30 games and averaged 4.4 points and 3.8 rebounds. In 1952-53, he helped St. John's advance to the NIT final by averaging 7.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per contest. In 1953-54, Walker enjoyed his finest season. He led the team in both scoring (14.0 ppg.) and rebounding (12.2).

JOHN WARREN

John Warren's play in the late 1960s coined the term "swingman," as he played both inside and outside for head coach Lou Carnesecca. In addition, he always drew the toughest defensive assignment. Warren was perhaps St. John's most complete player, scoring 1,306 points in a career that spanned 84 games with 65 St. John's victories for a .774 percentage. At Georgetown one night, he was fouled as the buzzer sounded and calmly dropped home two free throws to send the game into overtime where he put a lid on the opposition's star and St. John's shut them out in overtime. Drafted by the Knicks, he played on the fabled 1969-70 team of Bill Bradley and Willis Reed, and spent seven years with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

BILL WENNINGTON

The story of Bill Wennington is one of great patience, hard work and burning desire to succeed. He has reached the pinnacle of athletic competition by winning three NBA championship rings as a member of the Chicago Bulls and a trip to the NCAA Men's Final Four as a member of the 31-4 St. John's Redmen in 1985. The Montreal, Quebec, native, came to St. John's from Lutheran High School in Long Island. A McDonald's All-American, Wennington averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds a game and led Lutheran to two New York State championship titles. An impressive 124 games later in a St. John's uniform, Wennington ranks among the school bests in many categories. He is second all-time with a career .579 shooting percentage. His 1,021 career points rank him 50th on the St. John's all-time scoring chart and his 644 career rebounds is listed at 28th.

He is among just 32 St. John's players to have scored 1,000 points and grab 500 rebounds. A prolific shot blocker, Wennington had 152 career swats which is sixth-best in school history and makes him one of nine players all-time with more than 1,000 career points, 500 career rebounds and 100 career blocks. As a senior, he was named a second team All-BIG EAST selection. That year he was also selected as a member of the U.S. Basketball Writers All-District II team, a Sporting News honorable mention All-American, a Basketball Weekly All-East selection and a first team All-Metro selection. Wennington was also a member of the Canadian National Team, and was chosen 16th overall in the first round of the NBA draft by the Dallas Mavericks in 1985.

JAMES WHITE

James White was a quiet contributor on the floor and outstanding athlete in the 1940s. Playing in the early years for Joe Lapchick, White set the standard as a "go-to-guy" when scoring was at a premium. He averaged 9.4 points per game in his three varsity seasons. In 1939-40, White averaged 8.7 points to lead the team to a 15-5 mark. The following campaign he improved to 10.2 points, and in 1941-42 poured in 200 points for a 9.5 average. After basketball, White became a successful businessman, serving as Vice President for NBC Television for several years.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Glen Williams ranks tenth on all-time scoring list with 1,727 career points, starring for St. John's from 1974-77. As a freshman he stepped into a starting role for coach Lou Carnesecca and finished with an impressive 10.3 ppg scoring average. As a sophomore, the 6-5 guard averaged 11.8 ppg and 5.9 rpg. In his junior year, Williams entered the ranks of St. John's finest, reaching the 1000-point plateau. That year the Redmen reached a national ranking of No. 18, with Williams leading the team in scoring at 14.8 points per game. He was also second on the team in assists with 79.

Williams' greatest year was undoubtedly the 1976-77 season when, as captain of the Redmen, he scored 665 points, surpassing Bob Zawoluk's 26-year-old record for points in a season. The Virgin Islands native had a 21.5 ppg average and also handed out more than 100 assists for the year. His magical MVP performance at the Joe Lapchick Tournament saw him score 37 points against Fairfield in the championship game, just one point shy of a then-Alumni Hall record. Throughout his four years, Williams maintained a sharpshooter's touch, never shooting less than .500 from the field. Carnesecca often referred to him as "the complete player," handing him the toughest defensive assignments to add to his huge offensive role.

Williams is currently fourth all-time in career field goals made with 712, and fifth in single-season field goals made with 256 in 1976-77. Following graduation, Williams was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks with the 27th overall pick, and then played professionally in the Eastern League and the Western Association.

JAYSON WILLIAMS

One of the premier forwards in the NBA for 10 seasons, Jayson Williams retired in 2000 after a bout with nagging injuries. He was a NBA All-Star and one of the league's top rebounders during his tenure with the New Jersey Nets.

Williams was a standout performer at St. John's, playing three seasons under Hall of Fame Coach Lou Carnesecca from 1987-90. During that time his teams boasted a winning record of 61-35, made two trips to the NCAA Tournament and won the 1989 NIT Championship, where he was selected Most Valuable Player.

His best year was the 1988-89 campaign, when he averaged 19.5 points and 7.9 rebounds in 31 games. Williams was amazing from the floor that season, hitting on 236-of-412 shots for a .573 field goal percentage and knocked down 70.2 percent of his free throws (134-of-191) that same season.

The 1989 season also saw Williams named to the all-tournament teams for the Lapchick and ECAC Holiday Festival Tournaments. At the end of the season he received All-BIG EAST second team honors.

His senior year was cut short by injury but not before Williams ended his St. John's career by posting 1,072 points, 490 rebounds and a .550 shooting percentage that still ranks among the top 10 in St. John's history.

BOB ZAWOLUK

Bob Zawoluk was the first St. John's player to average 20 or more points in a season. He currently ranks sixth on the all-time scoring list with 1,826 career points. He still holds St. John's records for most free throws made in a season (208), most points in a game (65) and most field goals in a game (25).

Zawoluk played from 1949-52, leading St. John's to a 75-15 record. He keyed the team in his first season with a 20.3 scoring average and he was named a Helms Athletic Foundation third team All-American. He led the team again the following year with a 21.1 points per game average and took his team to a third place NIT finish and third place regional finish in the NCAA Tournament. He was named a first team All-American by the Helms Foundation that year. In his senior year, Zawoluk led the team to its first ever NCAA championship game, averaging 18.9 points per game. He was a second team consensus All-American.
