One of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, two-time national champion Rick Pitino was named the 22nd head coach in the history of St. John's Men's Basketball program on March 20, 2023.

A 2013 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame with more than five decades of coaching experience, Pitino has established a stellar reputation for excellence on the court and a dedication to student-athlete academic success over his 37 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Pitino, who owns an 885-311 (.740) career head coaching record, has made 24 NCAA Tournament appearances with six different schools and advanced to the Final Four seven times, a total reached by only six coaches all-time. His 885 victories rank fifth all-time in Division I heading into 2025-26. His .740 winning percentage ranks fourth among active Division I head coaches with a minimum of 10 seasons.

Pitino became the first coach to take three different schools to the Final Four and is the only coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools (1996 Kentucky and 2013 Louisville). He is one of only four coaches to ever reach the Final Four in four separate decades. With a 55-22 record in the NCAA Tournament, Pitino holds the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.714) among all active coaches. Off the court, he has served as a charitable benefactor for a broad spectrum of worthy causes, often choosing to do so anonymously.

In just two seasons at St. John's, Pitino has taken a downtrodden program and returned it to its rightful status as a regional and national power. After reaching the 20-win plateau, advancing to the BIG EAST Tournament Semifinals and narrowly missing an NCAA Tournament berth with a roster that featured 12 newcomers in 2023-24, Pitino's squad took a monumental leap in 2024-25.

This past season, the Red Storm finished with an overall record of 31-5, matching a program wins record set by the 1984-85 and 1985-86 squads. After equaling a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins during the regular season, St. John's captured the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before running through the BIG EAST Tournament to claim its first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, taking down Omaha in the first round for the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2000. St. John's was ranked in each of the last nine Associated Press regular season polls, rising as high as no. 5 for the first time since the 1990-91.

For his efforts, Pitino captured his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year honor before being named the United States Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year (Henry Iba Award), Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Werner Ladder Naismith National Coach of the Year. Pitino also earned Coach of the Year honors from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, an award named in honor of his St. John's predecessor Lou Carnesecca. 2024-25 marked Pitino's ninth 30-win season as a college head coach and his 29th campaign with at least 20 victories.

Pitino's teams have won 15 tournament championships and he owns a collective 59-17 conference tournament record (.776). At Kentucky, his teams posted an incredible 17-1 Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament mark. His coaching resume also features three BIG EAST Tournament titles while at Louisville in 2009, 2012 and 2013. In addition, Pitino has mentored 32 players who were drafted or have played in the NBA. His 1996 NCAA Championship team at Kentucky featured seven future NBA performers.

Pitino joined the Red Storm after three seasons at Iona, where he led the Gaels to a 64-22 overall record with a 40-9 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). A two-time MAAC Coach of the Year, Pitino led the Gaels to a pair of MAAC regular season titles and two MAAC Tournament championships. Iona made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2021 and 2023 and earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 2022.

Before Iona, Pitino coached parts of two seasons for Panathinaikos in the EuroLeague, leading the team to the 2019 Greek Cup title in his first season.

From 2001-17, Pitino spent 16 seasons as head coach at Louisville and led the Cardinals to a 416-143 overall record. While at Louisville, he took the Cards to the NCAA Tournament 13 times. Under Pitino, Louisville advanced to seven Sweet 16s, six Elite Eights, three Final Fours and a National Championship. The Cardinals set a school record with 35 wins during their national championship campaign of 2012-13.

For three and a half years prior to Louisville, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. He also spent four years coaching the New York Knicks, beginning as an assistant coach under Hubie Brown from 1983-85 before returning to serve as head coach from 1987-89. During the 1988-89 season, the Knicks won 52 games and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs. Pitino is one of four current Division I head coaches who has also been a head coach in the NBA alongside John Calipari, Fred Hoiberg and Reggie Theus.

From 1989-97, Pitino served as the head coach at Kentucky, guiding the Wildcats to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his final five years. The Wildcats posted a 219-50 overall record (.814) under Pitino, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997.

Pitino, 73, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76 before a brief six-game stint as head coach prior to season's end. He served two seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse from 1976-78, before earning his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. Pitino produced a 91-51 record in five years at BU, departing as the most successful coach in program history. In his final season, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years.

After his two years as an assistant with the New York Knicks, Pitino became the head coach at Providence College for two seasons from 1985-87, producing a 42-23 record with the Friars. He guided Providence to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986, followed by his first trip to the Final Four in 1987.

Pitino also has international coaching experience, leading the Puerto Rican National Team in three competitions during the summer of 2015.

Pitino is a 1974 graduate of the University of Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. A team captain his senior year, he ranked among UMass' top 10 for career assists for more than 40 years.

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City where he was a standout guard for St. Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island from 1966-70.

Pitino and his wife Joanne have five children, Michael, Christopher, Richard, Ryan and Jacqueline, and 15 grandchildren.

St. John's at a Glance

Top Five Johnnies

- St. John's checked in at no. 5 in the preseason release of the Associated Press Top 25 Poll on Monday, Oct. 13.
- It marks the highest preseason ranking in program history since the AP started conducting a preseason poll prior to the 1961-62 season.
- Before Monday, St. John's had never been ranked higher than seventh in the preseason poll. Prognosticators picked the Johnnies seventh in the 1984-85 preseason AP Top 25 prior to a season that saw five weeks at no. 1 and an appearance in the Final Four for the Redmen.
- This marks the 14th time that St. John's has been ranked in the preseason and the first since 1999-2000. It is the fourth time that St. John's has been ranked inside the top 10 before an official game was played.
- Last season, St. John's climbed as high as no. 5 in the AP Top 25 and was ranked for a total of 12 weeks, including each of the final 10. The Red Storm spent six weeks inside the top 10.
- Three of the Red Storm's non-conference opponents are ranked in the preseason top 25: No. 9 Kentucky, No. 15 Alabama and No. 16 Iowa State. The Johnnies will also play an exhibition game against No. 7 Michigan.

Pitino In Familiar Territory

- When the AP Top 25 came out on Monday, Rick Pitino found himself ranked inside the top five of the preseason poll for the 10th time in his career.
- Each of those nine previous Pitino teams received a bid to the NCAA Tournament with all but one advancing to at least the second weekend. Seven of those teams made it to at least the Elite Eight, four punched a ticket to the Final Four and two (2013 Louisville and 1996 Kentucky) won the national title.

Return of the Kings

- The Red Storm readies for the season on the heels of a memorable 2024-25 campaign.
- In its second year under Hall of Fame Head Coach Rick Pitino, the Red Storm matched a school record with 31 wins, a mark equaled by only the 1984-85 and 1985-86 teams.
- The Red Storm claimed the BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time since 1992 and won it outright for the first time since 1985. The Johnnies matched a league record by tallying 18 wins in conference play.
- The Johnnies rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, winning all three of their games by 16 or more points on their way to the program's fourth postseason conference crown and first since 2000.
- St. John's earned the no. 2 seed in the West Region and defeated Omaha, 83-53, for the program's first NCAA Tournament win in 25 years. That result marked the largest margin of victory for the Red Storm in its NCAA Tournament history.

Bringing Home the Hardware

- The St. John's men's basketball brought home a haul of highly regarded awards in 2024-25.
- The program's first consensus Second Team All-American since Malik Sealy in 1992, RJ Luis Jr. was named BIG EAST Player of the Year, becoming the first St. John's player to win the award since Walter Berry in 1986.

- Zuby Ejiofor joined Luis on the All-BIG EAST First Team and won the conference's Most Improved Player Award. Also a standout in the classroom, Ejiofor garnered Second Team Academic All-American honors from College Sports Communicators.
- Following a strong finish to the season, Kadary Richmond earned Second Team All-BIG EAST accolades.
- Rick Pitino won BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors for the first time in his career, becoming just the second active head coach alongside Oregon's Dana Altman to win conference coach of the year honors at four separate institutions.
- Pitino also won three separate national coach of the year accolades, taking home Naismith National Coach of the Year, USBWA Coach of the Year and AP Co-Coach of the Year (shared with Bruce Pearl) honors.

Transfer at Jamaica

- After posting the program's best record in four decades, Pitino and his staff went out and secured the nation's top transfer class.
- Five of the Red Storm's seven transfers sat inside the top 100 of ESPN's transfer rankings: Ian Jackson (10), Bryce Hopkins (12), Joson Sanon (33), Dillon Mitchell (68) and Oziyah Sellers (81).
- Jackson, a Bronx native and former McDonald's All-American, returns to New York from North Carolina, where he earned selection to the ACC All-Rookie Team after finishing second on the Tar Heels with 11.9 points per game.
- Hopkins is no stranger to the BIG EAST, having spent the last three seasons at Providence. He has been limited by injury to just 17 games over the past two campaigns, but has been prolific in limited action (15.8 ppg, 8.5 rpg). In 2022-23, he garnered First Team All-BIG EAST honors after leading the Friars to an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament.
- Sanon, a former top-25 high school recruit, comes to Queens after spending his freshman season at Arizona State. He averaged 11.9 points in 28.2 minutes per game with the Sun Devils.
- Mitchell joins the Red Storm with more than 100 collegiate games under his belt at Texas (2022-24) and Cincinnati (2024-25). A former McDonald's All-American, Mitchell is known as one of the nation's tenacious defenders and an elite finisher around the rim. He shot 61.4% from the field and tallied 66 dunks last season at Cincinnati.
- Sellers joins the Johnnies from Stanford, where he shot 40.1% from deep and averaged 13.7 points per game a season ago.
- The Johnnies also added the reigning Big Sky Player of the Year, Dylan Darling, who averaged 19.8 points and 5.7 assists a season ago for the Bengals. He was one of only three players to rank inside the top 30 nationally in both points and assists.
- The Red Storm also welcomes Handje Tamba, who has made stops at Tennessee, Weber State and NAIA Milligan. Last season at Milligan, the 6-foot-11 Tamba was named the Appalachian Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

Zuby Does It All

- The Red Storm returns one of its most important pieces from last year's BIG EAST title run in senior forward Zuby Ejiofor.
- After averaging just 4.3 points and 3.1 rebounds as a sophomore in 2023-24, Ejiofor exploded for 14.7 points and 8.1 boards per game last season, earning BIG EAST Most Improved Player honors and garnering a spot on the All-BIG EAST First Team.
- The Garland, Texas, native led the nation in offensive rebounding with 4.4 per contest.
- A Second Team Academic All-American, Ejiofor broke the program's single-game BIG EAST Tournament scoring record in the Red Storm's semifinal win over Marquette, posting 33 points on 11-of-15 shooting and grabbing nine rebounds. It marked the highest point total by any player in a BIG EAST semifinal since UConn's Kemba Walker scored 33 in an overtime win against Syracuse in 2011. Ejiofor became the first St. John's player to record 30 or more points and corral nine or more rebounds since Walter Berry in the opening round of the 1986 NCAA Tournament.

No Place Like Home

- The Red Storm's BIG EAST Tournament run capped off an unblemished season at home, as the Johnnies went 21-0 at Carnesecce Arena and Madison Square Garden.
- It marked the first time since 1931-32 under the direction of James "Buck" Freeman that St. John's went undefeated at home over the course of an entire season.
- St. John's enters 2025-26 riding a 12-winning streak at The Garden, the second longest in program history. The program's longest winning streak at "The Mecca" is 14 games (Dec. 1, 1985-Feb. 16, 1987).
- The Red Storm has yet to lose a game at Carnesecce Arena under Rick Pitino, going 14-0 in Queens over the past two seasons. The winning streak is tied for the ninth longest in the 64-year history of the building and the longest since the Johnnies rattled off 27 straight in Queens between Feb. 22, 1997, and Jan. 3, 2001.

Home at MSG

- St. John's will host 12 regular season games at Madison Square Garden this season, the program's highest regular season total at "The World's Most Famous Arena" since 1951-52.
- The Johnnies will play nine BIG EAST games in Midtown, as well as non-conference tilts against Alabama (Nov. 8), Ole Miss (Dec. 6) and Iona (Dec. 13).
- In addition, the Red Storm will also take on Michigan in an exhibition game at "The Mecca" on Oct. 25 as part of the Bad Boy Mowers Series-New York.

Not a Cupcake in Sight for St. John's

- The Red Storm will play one of the nation's toughest schedules this season.
- The Johnnies will open against preseason MAAC favorite Quinnipiac on Nov. 3 before taking on No. 15 Alabama at MSG.
- A few weeks later, St. John's will head to the Players Era Festival in Las Vegas, where the Johnnies will meet No. 16 Iowa State and Baylor with one additional game against a to-be-determined high-major opponent.
- In December, St. John's will host Ole Miss at MSG two weeks before heading to Atlanta to meet No. 9 Kentucky in the CBS Sports Classic. That game against the Wildcats will feature Pitino taking on his former captain, Mark Pope, a 1996 national champion at Kentucky.

Defensive Stalwarts

- Last year's Johnnies were suffocating on defense, ranking second nationally in defensive efficiency according to KenPom and leading the BIG EAST in scoring defense (65.8 ppg).
- The Johnnies held opponents to just 39.7% shooting, good enough for 14th in the nation.
- From beyond the arc, opposing teams converted on just 30.6% of their attempts, the nation's 27th worst output.
- St. John's opponents averaged 15.2 turnovers in 2024-25, the nation's 12th highest total.

Shooting Shore Up

- The BIG EAST champs, however, were hardly prolific from beyond the arc; the Johnnies ranked 339th in the nation shooting just 30.1% from 3-point range.
- The coaching staff addressed that weakness in the transfer portal, as three of the Red Storm's additions hit at a high clip from beyond the arc last season: Sellers (40.1%), Jackson (39.5%) and Sanon (36.9%).

Red Storm Welcomes Pair of McDonald's All-Americans

- For the first time since 1998-99, St. John's boasts a pair of former McDonald's All-Americans on its roster in Dillon Mitchell and Ian Jackson.

- That 1998-99 team featured sophomore Metta World Peace (formerly Ron Artest) and freshman Erick Barkley as part of a rotation that won 28 games and advanced to the Elite Eight.
- Prior to Jackson and Mitchell, the last McDonald's All-American to suit up for St. John's was Omar Cook, who played for the Red Storm in 2000-01 before being selected in the second round of the 2001 NBA Draft.
- Cook was a McDonald's All-American in 2000 alongside current St. John's assistant coach Taliek Brown.

Fresh Faces in Queens

- St. John's will feature four freshmen on its roster this season, three of whom are international.
- The lone American rookie is Kelvin Odih, a four-star prospect and the 66th ranked recruit in the nation according to 247Sports. The explosive Odih was originally committed to West Virginia before reopening his recruitment following the Mountaineers' coaching change. The Providence, R.I., native played his final year of high school basketball at Southern California Academy, the alma mater of St. John's teammate Oziyah Sellers.
- Imran Suljanovic joins the Red Storm from Austria, where he boasts extensive experience in the country's national team system. At the 2024 FIBA U18 EuroBasket Tournament, Suljanovic finished second in the "B" division averaging 22.4 points while leading Austria to a silver medal. The 6-foot-8 sharpshooter made his debut with the senior national team this past February, scoring a team-high 11 points against Albania in the European pre-qualifiers for the 2027 FIBA World Cup.
- Sweden's Casper Pohto played two years of high school basketball in the United States, spending his junior season at St. Benedict's Prep in New Jersey before going to Sunrise Christian Academy in Kansas for his senior campaign. At Sunrise, he led the Buffaloes to a 17-7 record and an appearance in the EYBL Scholastic Tournament Semifinals. Like Suljanovic, Pohto excelled at the 2024 FIBA U18 EuroBasket Tournament, averaging 13.6 points, 6.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game for Sweden.
- Fotis Konstantinidis becomes the second player from Greece on the Red Storm. Most recently, Konstantinidis played for Proteas Voulas, a club located in Athens. He led the U18 team in scoring, assists per game, 3-pointers made and 3-point percent (39.0%)
