News & Notes

- » Winners of nine straight and 11 of their last 12, the Johnnies are riding the third-longest BIG EAST winning streak in program history. The 1984-85 team's 14-game run is the longest followed by last year's 10-game tear spanning January and early February.
- » The Red Storm is 11-1 to start BIG EAST action for the second straight season under Hall of Fame Coach Rick Pitino. It is tied for the second-best record through 12 conference games in program history behind only the aforementioned 14-0 start to the 1984-85 league season.
- » Friday's win over No. 3/3 UConn was the program's highest ranked win since taking down No. 3/3 Villanova on Feb. 3, 2021 in Queens and the Red Storm's highest ranked win at MSG since defeating No. 3/3 Duke on Jan. 30, 2011.
- » Following its win over UConn, St. John's jumped five spots to no. 17 in both the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA TODAY Coaches Polls.
- » A win on Monday night would give Rick Pitino his 904th career victory and sole possession of third place on the all-time wins list for Division I men's basketball. He is currently tied for third with Roy Williams (903) and trails only Jim Boeheim (1,116) and Mike Krzyzewski (1,202).
- » Monday will be the sixth meeting between the Pitinos as head coaches. Rick holds a 4-1 advantage in the series, which began in 2012 when Richard was the head coach at FIU. Richard's lone win against his father came in 2022-23 when New Mexico beat Iona in Albuquerque. Rick is 2-0 against Richard as the head coach at St. John's. Fathers are 20-3 all-time against their sons as head coaches at the Division I level.
- » The younger Pitino is also a former assistant of his father's, having spent three years on staff at Louisville (2007-09, 2011-12). The elder Pitino is 45-14 (.763) all-time against his former assistants.

About the Series with Xavier

Record

Xavier leads, 17-10 (6-8 H, 4-9 A, 0-0 N)

Overview

St. John's and Xavier will meet for the 28th time in a series that dates back to the season opener in 1981-82, the first game of Chris Mullin's collegiate career. 26 of the 27 meetings have come since Xavier joined the BIG EAST in 2013. The Musketeers dominated the first decade of the conference series, but St. Johns has won four of the last five and seven of the last 10 matchups between the two teams.

Coaches

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Rick Pitino is in his third season at St. John's. Pitino owns a 903-316 career record in 38 seasons as a Division I head coach. The winningest active coach in NCAA Division I has led his teams to 29 postseason appearances with 24 trips to the NCAA Tournament, including seven Final Four berths. He is the first coach to lead three different programs to the Final Four and the only coach to lead two different schools to a National Championship (Kentucky-1996, Louisville-2013). Richard Pitino is in his first season leading the Musketeers and his 14th season overall as a Division I head coach. He arrived in Cincinnati following four seasons at New Mexico, where he earned a pair of NCAA Tournament bids. He spent eight seasons at Minnesota, making the NCAA Tournament twice and winning the NIT in his debut campaign. Pitino, who got his start at FIU in 2012, is the owner of 259 career wins.

St. John's 81 - UConn 72

Feb. 6, 2026

Madison Square Garden - New York, N.Y.

The No. 22/22 St. John's men's basketball (18-5, 11-1 BIG EAST) team earned a marquee win on Friday, taking down No. 3/3 Connecticut (22-2, 12-1 BIG EAST) in front of a sold-out Madison Square Garden crowd. The victory marked the Red Storm's ninth straight and was the program's highest ranked win since Feb. 3, 2021, when it defeated No. 3/3 Villanova at Carnesecca Arena.

The heavyweight battle between the top two teams in the BIG EAST featured eight lead changes, six ties and was tied at the break. In the final minutes up by two, Dylan Darling flushed a crucial 3-pointer to give the Red Storm a five-point edge with 3:13 remaining, as the Johnnies snapped the Huskies' 18-game winning streak.

Friday's victory marked St. John's highest ranked win at Madison Square Garden since it took down No. 3/3 Duke on Jan. 30, 2011. It was also the third straight victory over the Huskies after sweeping the regular season series last year, which is the longest streak over UConn since the 1999-2000 season.

With the win, Head Coach Rick Pitino moved into a tie with Roy Williams for third all-time in career victories in NCAA Division I with no. 903.

St. John's senior forward Zuby Ejiofor was dominant on Friday night, leading all players in scoring, rebounding, assists and blocks. The senior finished with 21 points, 10 rebounds, matched a career-high seven assists, three blocks and two steals.

Five Things To Know

- Friday night's win over the third-ranked Huskies was the latest in a string of memorable outings for St. John's star Zuby Ejiolor at Madison Square Garden over the last two seasons. The 6-foot-9 forward, who earlier in the day had been named to the midseason watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, posted 21 points, 10 rebounds, seven assists, three blocks and a pair of steals in front of 19,812 spectators at The World's Most Famous Arena. He is the only player in the country this season to reach those numbers in a single game. Entering the week, Ejiolor leads the team in scoring (15.9), rebounding (7.6), assists (3.5) and blocks (2.0). He ranks top-10 in the BIG EAST in all four of the aforementioned statistical categories. The Garland, Texas, native is one of three players in NCAA Division I to rank top-10 of their respective leagues in points, rebounds, assists and blocks per game alongside Utah Valley's Jackson Holcombe and UT-Arlington's Raysean Seamster. Friday marked Ejiolor's fifth double-double of the season and his fourth game with at least 20 points and 10 rebounds. Ejiolor was named the NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week on Monday and earned a selection to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. It marked the seventh time in just 14 opportunities this season that Ejiolor was recognized by the BIG EAST (Player of the Week 2x, Honor Roll 5x). Ejiolor has sole possession of ninth place on the Red Storm's all-time blocks list (132) after passing George Johnson (130, 1974-78) on Friday night.
- The Red Storm's nine-game winning streak has featured a string of sensational second-half performances. In those nine games, the Johnnies have twice trailed at the half, been tied twice and led by a single point twice. In the second half of its last nine games, the Red Storm is outscoring the opposition by 10.3 points, compared to just 12.8 points for the full game. In seven of those nine games, St. John's has outscored the opposition by eight or more points in the final period. On Friday night, the Red Storm outscored the Huskies by nine in the latter stanza, shooting 60.1% from the floor. Twice during the winning streak, St. John's has erased second-half deficits of 15 or more points against Seton Hall (15) and Xavier (16). Zuby Ejiolor and Bryce Hopkins have been the Red Storm's top second-half performer on average over the last nine games, averaging 9.0 and 8.8 points, respectively, after the intermission. Against Xavier, Hopkins fueled the Red Storm's comeback by scoring 14 of his 18 points in the latter stanza.
- On the team's current nine-game winning streak, the Johnnies have been terrific at generating extra possessions through turnovers and offensive rebounds. Over the last nine games, St. John's is averaging 17.6 points off 13.7 turnovers compared to just 7.0 points off 8.4 turnovers for the opposition. The Johnnies are also averaging 12.6 offensive rebounds per contest and converting those extra opportunities into 14.9 points per game compared to just 7.2 second-chance points on 8.3 offensive rebounds for the opposition. As a result of these efforts, St. John's is averaging 8.8 more field goal attempts per game than its opponent since Jan. 6. On the season, St. John's leads the BIG EAST and ranks 18th nationally in offensive rebounds per game (13.7). The Johnnies rank second in the BIG EAST and 28th nationally in turnover margin (+3.5). On the team's current winning streak, the Johnnies own a turnover margin of +5.3.
- The Red Storm's nine-game winning streak has greatly bolstered the team's NCAA Tournament resume heading into the final month of the regular season. Of those nine recent wins, three have come in Quad 1 with a fourth, the road triumph at Creighton, losing that designation after the fact. The remaining six wins have all come in Quad 2, giving the Red Storm a 10-4 (.714) record this season in the first two quadrants. St. John's has enjoyed jumps in both predictive and resume-based metrics. As of Monday, St. John's sits 22nd in the NET, 16th in KenPom, 20th in T-Rank and 15th in BPI. The Red Storm ranks 22nd in strength of record, 23rd in Wins Above Bubble and 16th in KPI. The Johnnies' biggest boost has come in Wins Above Bubble, in which the Red Storm ranked 66th on the morning of Jan. 6.
- While they may not be leading the team in scoring, the Red Storm's homophonic pair of Dillon Mitchell and Dylan Darling have made key play after key play for the Johnnies over the last nine games. Mitchell, who re-entered the starting lineup on Jan. 6 after a 12-game absence, has been averaging 10.9 points and a team-high 8.7 rebounds while playing a team-high 32.1 minutes per game over the last nine contests. He has reached double figures five times in his last six games with three double-doubles over that stretch. On Friday, Mitchell's otherworldly tip-in with 1:39 to go put the Red Storm back ahead by six, 76-70, with the Huskies surging. Darling also answered the [church] bell late against UConn, scoring all nine of his points in the second half. Seven of those points came in the final 6:06, beginning with a jumper to put the Red Storm back ahead by four after UConn cut its deficit to a pair. With just over three minutes to go and the Huskies back within two, Darling drained a step-back 3-pointer to put the Red Storm back up five and send the Garden faithful into a frenzy.

Scouting Xavier

- Since the Red Storm and the Musketeers last met on Jan. 24, Xavier has dropped two out of three. The Musketeers lost by 18 at Seton Hall before taking down DePaul by a pair and then losing at UConn by 32 in their last game on Feb. 3.
 - Graduate student Tre Carroll is the team's leading scorer this season, averaging 17.9 points per game on 50.6% shooting. Prior to posting nine points in the UConn game, the FAU transfer had scored 20 or more points in five straight, including 31 points against the Red Storm on Jan. 24 in Cincinnati.
 - Three other Musketeers average double figures: Roddie Anderson III (11.2), Jovan Milicevic (11.2) and Malik Messina-Moore (10.8). Filip Borovicinanin, who is averaging 9.8 points per game, is the team's leading rebounder (7.8) and distributor (4.4).
 - Xavier is one of the nation's leaders in assists, averaging 18.0 per game.
- The Musketeers are seeking their first victory over St. John's at Madison Square Garden since Feb. 17, 2020, when Xavier downed the Red Storm, 77-74

St. John's at a Glance

Pitino Picks Up Win No. 900

- Red Storm Head Coach Rick Pitino entered an exclusive coaching fraternity on Jan. 24, becoming just the fourth coach in history to record 900 Division I on-court victories.
- Pitino now owns 903 career on-court Division I victories, tied with Roy Williams for third on the all-time list. Pitino and Williams join Jim Boeheim (1,116) and Mike Krzyzewski as the only coaches to reach the 900-win mark at the Division I level.
- Pitino's 900th win came in dramatic fashion, as the Johnnies erased a 16-point second-half deficit to escape with an 88-83 victory in Cincinnati.
- Pitino's 900th came at the expense of his son, Richard, in his first year coaching at Xavier.

Pitino Joins Elite BIG EAST Company

- The Red Storm's win against Butler on January 28 marked the 150th BIG EAST Regular Season win of Rick Pitino's career.
- He became just the fifth coach in league history to win 150 regular season games, joining Jim Boeheim (366), Jim Calhoun (274), Jay Wright (244) and John Thompson Jr. (198).
- Those five coaches have combined to win nine national championships.

Picked to Repeat, Five Johnnies Earn Preseason All-BIG EAST

- For the first time in more than three decades, St. John's was picked to win the BIG EAST in a preseason poll of the league's coaches.
- St. John's garnered seven first place votes. Connecticut received the other four.
- It marked the first time St. John's has been the league's preseason favorite since 1991-92 following the Johnnies' run to the 1991 Elite Eight.
- Zuby Ejiofor was named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year after averaging 14.7 points and 8.1 rebounds per game a season ago. Ejiofor led the nation with 4.4 offensive boards per contest and ranked second in the BIG EAST in rebounding average behind Ryan Kalkbrenner. Ejiofor earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors and won the league's most improved player award.
- Ejiofor is the first Johnnie to be named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year since Shamorie Ponds in 2018-19. Before Ponds, Malik Sealy was the last Johnnie to earn the preseason recognition in 1991-92.
- In addition to Ejiofor's accolade, Bryce Hopkins earned a place on the Preseason All-BIG EAST First Team and Ian Jackson found a spot on the second team. Joson Sanon and Dillon Mitchell were named to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Third Team.
- This is believed to be the first time in league history that five players from the same program were named to Preseason All-BIG EAST Teams.

Top Five Johnnies

- St. John's checked in at no. 5 in the preseason release of the Associated Press Top 25 Poll on Oct. 13.
- It marked the highest preseason ranking in program history since the AP started conducting a preseason poll prior to the 1961-62 season.
- Before this season, St. John's had never been ranked higher than seventh in the preseason poll. Prognosticators picked the Johnnies seventh in the 1984-85 preseason AP Top 25. That campaign saw the Redmen spend five weeks at no. 1 and reach the Final Four.
- This season marked the 14th time that St. John's has been ranked in the preseason and the first since 1999-2000. It is the fourth time that St. John's has been ranked inside the top 10 before an official game was played.
- Last season, St. John's climbed as high as no. 5 in the AP Top 25 and was ranked for a total of 12 weeks, including each of the final 10. The Red Storm spent six weeks inside the top 10.
- Four of the Red Storm's non-conference opponents were ranked in the preseason top 25: No. 9 Kentucky, No. 15 Alabama, No. 16 Iowa State and No. 20 Auburn. The Johnnies also played an exhibition game against No. 7 Michigan.

Pitino In Familiar Territory

- When the AP Top 25 came out on Oct. 13, Rick Pitino found himself ranked inside the top five of the preseason poll for the 10th time in his career.
- Each of those nine previous Pitino teams received a bid to the NCAA Tournament with all but one advancing to at least the second weekend. Seven of those teams made it to at least the Elite Eight, four punched a ticket to the Final Four and two (2013 Louisville and 1996 Kentucky) won the national title.

- On Nov. 18, that trio of Ejiofor, Hopkins and Jackson was also named to the Top 50 watch list for the Wooden Award.
- Ejiofor was named to the watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award recognizing the nation's top center. Bryce Hopkins was tabbed to the Karl Malone Award watch list honoring the nation's best power forward. Ian Jackson found a spot on the Jerry West Award watch list. All three of those positional awards are presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
- Ejiofor was also named to the preseason watch list for NABC Player of the Year Award and was tabbed as a Preseason Third Team All-American by the Sporting News.
- On Feb. 6, Ejiofor was named the midseason watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, one of 10 big men nationally to make the list.

Get Old, Stay Old

- The Red Storm boasts one of the most experienced rosters in the country.
- According to KenPom, the Johnnies rank third in the BIG EAST and 38th nationally in D1 experience.

Transfer at Jamaica

- After posting the program's best record in four decades, Pitino and his staff went out and secured the nation's top transfer class.
- Five of the Red Storm's seven transfers sat inside the top 100 of ESPN's transfer rankings: Ian Jackson (10), Bryce Hopkins (12), Joson Sanon (33), Dillon Mitchell (68) and Oziyah Sellers (81).
- The Johnnies also added the reigning Big Sky Player of the Year, Dylan Darling, who averaged 19.8 points and 5.7 assists for the Bengals in 2024-25. He was one of only three players to rank inside the top 30 nationally in both points and assists.

- The Red Storm's BIG EAST Tournament run in 2025 capped off an unblemished season at home, as the Johnnies went 21-0 at Carnesecca Arena and Madison Square Garden.
- It marked the first time since 1931-32 under the direction of James "Buck" Freeman that St. John's went undefeated at home over the course of an entire season.
- Before falling to Alabama on Nov. 8, the Red Storm had won 12 straight games at The Garden, the second longest streak in program history. The program's longest winning streak at "The Mecca" is 14 games (Dec. 1, 1985-Feb. 16, 1987).
- The Red Storm has yet to lose a game at Carnesecca Arena under Rick Pitino, going 19-0 in Queens over the past three seasons. The winning streak is the fifth longest in the 64-year history of the building and the longest since the Johnnies rattled off 27 straight in Queens between Feb. 22, 1997, and Jan. 3, 2001.

Home at MSG

- This season, the Red Storm ranks fourth in the BIG EAST and inside the top 100 nationally at 35.2%.
- In BIG EAST play, the Red Storm is converting at a 36.7% clip from 3-point range, good enough for second in the conference.

- Cook was a McDonald's All-American in 2000 alongside current St. John's assistant coach Taliek Brown.

One of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, two-time national champion Rick Pitino was named the 22nd head coach in the history of St. John's Men's Basketball program on March 20, 2023.

A 2013 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame with more than five decades of coaching experience, Pitino has established a stellar reputation for excellence on the court and a dedication to student-athlete academic success over his 38 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Pitino, who owns an 903-316 (.741) career head coaching record, has made 24 NCAA Tournament appearances with six different schools and advanced to the Final Four seven times, a total reached by only six coaches all-time. His 903 victories rank fourth all-time in Division I.

Pitino became the first coach to take three different schools to the Final Four and is the only coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools (1996 Kentucky and 2013 Louisville). He is one of only four coaches to ever reach the Final Four in four separate decades. With a 55-22 record in the NCAA Tournament, Pitino holds the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.714) among all active coaches. Off the court, he has served as a charitable benefactor for a broad spectrum of worthy causes, often choosing to do so anonymously.

In just over two seasons at St. John's, Pitino has taken a downtrodden program and returned it to its rightful status as a regional and national power. After reaching the 20-win plateau, advancing to the BIG EAST Tournament Semifinals and narrowly missing an NCAA Tournament berth with a roster that featured 12 newcomers in 2023-24, Pitino's squad took a monumental leap in 2024-25.

This past season, the Red Storm finished with an overall record of 31-5, matching a program record set by the 1984-85 and 1985-86 squads. After equaling a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins during the regular season, St. John's captured the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before running through the BIG EAST Tournament to claim its first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, taking down Omaha in the first round for the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2000. St. John's was ranked in each of the last nine Associated Press regular season polls, rising as high as no. 5 for the first time since the 1990-91.

For his efforts, Pitino captured his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year honor before being named the United States Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year (Henry Iba Award), Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Werner Ladder Naismith National Coach of the Year. Pitino also earned Coach of the Year honors from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, an award named in honor of his St. John's predecessor Lou Carnesecca.

2024-25 marked Pitino's ninth 30-win season as a college head coach and his 29th campaign with at least 20 victories.

Pitino's teams have won 15 tournament championships and he owns a collective 59-17 conference tournament record (.776). At Kentucky, his teams posted an incredible 17-1 Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament mark. His coaching resume also features three BIG EAST Tournament titles while at Louisville in 2009, 2012 and 2013. In addition, Pitino has mentored 32 players who were drafted or have played in the NBA. His 1996 NCAA Championship team at Kentucky featured seven future NBA performers.

Pitino joined the Red Storm after three seasons at Iona, where he led the Gaels to a 64-22 overall record with a 40-9 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). A two-time MAAC Coach of the Year, Pitino led the Gaels to a pair of MAAC regular season titles and two MAAC Tournament championships. Iona made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2021 and 2023 and earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 2022.

Before Iona, Pitino coached parts of two seasons for Panathinaikos in the EuroLeague, leading the team to the 2019 Greek Cup title in his first season.

From 2001-17, Pitino spent 16 seasons as head coach at Louisville and led the Cardinals to a 416-143 overall record. While at Louisville, he took the Cards to the NCAA Tournament 13 times. Under Pitino, Louisville advanced to seven Sweet 16s, six Elite Eights, three Final Fours and a National Championship. The Cardinals set a school record with 35 wins during its national championship campaign of 2012-13.

For three and a half years prior to Louisville, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. He also spent four years coaching the New York Knicks, beginning as an assistant coach under Hubie Brown from 1983-85 before returning to serve as head coach from 1987-89. During the 1988-89 season, the Knicks won 52 games and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs. Pitino is one of four current Division I head coaches who has also been a head coach in the NBA alongside John Calipari, Fred Hoiberg and Reggie Theus.

From 1989-97, Pitino served as the head coach at Kentucky, guiding the Wildcats to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his final five years. The Wildcats posted a 219-50 overall record (.814) under Pitino, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997.

Pitino, 73, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76 before a brief six-game stint as head coach prior to season's end. He served two seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse from 1976-78, before earning his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. Pitino produced a 91-51 record in five years at BU, departing as the most successful coach in program history. In his final season, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years.

After his two years as an assistant with the New York Knicks, Pitino became the head coach at Providence College for two seasons from 1985-87, producing a 42-23 record with the Friars. He guided Providence to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986, followed by his first trip to the Final Four in 1987.

Pitino also has international coaching experience, leading the Puerto Rico national team in three competitions during the summer of 2015.

Pitino is a 1974 graduate of Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. A team captain his senior year, he ranked among UMass' top 10 for career assists for more than 40 years.

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City. He was a standout guard for St. Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island, from 1966-70.

Pitino and his wife Joanne have five children, Michael, Christopher, Richard, Ryan and Jacqueline, and 16 grandchildren.
