Head Coach Matt Bragga

A 19-year veteran of the head coaching ranks, Matt Bragga was named the 21st head coach in Rice baseball history on June 15, 2018. Bragga has spent the last 15 years as the Head Coach at Tennessee Tech, building that program into one of the best in the Ohio Valley Conference. The four-time OVC Coach of the Year led the Golden Eagles to three NCAA Tournament appearances, winning six OVC championships in the past 10 years while winning 40 or more games in four of the past six seasons. In 2018 he helped Tennessee Tech to its best season in school history, amassing a school and OVC-record 53 wins, the most in the country, while leading the team to the league's regular season title and its first-ever trip to the NCAA Super Regionals. The Jefferson, Ohio, native who played collegiately at Kentucky before a pro playing career, owns a Division I coaching record of 453-402-2. Bragga is aided by assistant coaches Cory Barton (Memphis, 2007, first year), Paul Janish (Rice, 2004; second year), and Connor Teykl (Rice, 2017; first year).

Two Owls Coaching On The Corners

There are two former Rice Owls on Matt Bragga's 2019 coaching staff. Former major leaguer and 2003 Rice National Champion Paul Janish is in his second year with the program. Janish (Wiess College) played professionally for 13 years with nine seasons in the major leagues, most recently in 2017 with the Baltimore Orioles. Rice graduate Connor Teykl (Baker College 2017) is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. As a four-year letterman from 2013 to 2016, Teykl helped lead the Rice baseball program to three Conference USA regular season championships and two league tournament titles. On game days Janish coaches at third base and Teykl coaches at first.

Probable Pitcher

Coach Bragga will announce this week's starting pitchers at a later time.

20th Year At Reckling Park

Other schools have tried to follow Rice baseball's lead, building bigger and more expensive stadiums, but Reckling Park remains among the best venues in college baseball. The 2019 season is now the Owls' 20th at the stadium. Rice has won an eye-opening 76 percent of its more than 630 games at Reckling Park since opening for the 2000 season.

Last Time Out: Red-Hot Oklahoma Sooners Defeat Rice Sunday

Oklahoma scored four late runs to pull away for a 6-0 win over the Rice baseball team Sunday afternoon at Reckling Park. The Sooners opened the game with a pair of runs on two hits in the first inning and it remained just a narrow 2-0 margin all the way until the eighth. Rice starter Jackson Parthasarathy battled back for five scoreless frames after the first inning. He fanned a career high nine. Oklahoma starter Levi Prater made the 2-0 margin stand up by scattering three hits and a walk while striking out nine in 8.0 innings. The Sooners pushed across three runs in the eighth and another in the ninth for a 6-0 final... "We got a little sloppy late again today, just like yesterday," said Rice head coach Matt Bragga. "I'm proud of our guys because they are definitely fighting and working to continue to improve. From the beginning of the season, I've seen improvements from how we played our first eight or nine games compared to how we've played these last eight or so. That's something you always want to see as a coach. It feels like we've had a lot more games than practice time and practice is where you get better, and get better quicker. I was proud of Jackson today. He did a great job against a very good team. He had a rough first inning but fought through that and settled in very well. That's what I am talking about, the guys are continuing to fight when faced with adversity. Jackson was a great example of that today." Rice is now 7-10 overall. Oklahoma moved to 13-3 on the season.

Listen To What The Man Said

When coach Bragga addressed the media after Sunday's game against Oklahoma he stated "I've seen improvements from how we played our first eight or nine games compared to how we've played these last eight or so." At the time he did not have the benefit of any data in front of him, but the following breakdowns are offered as the hard proof that the head coach's observations and instincts are correct:

	Record	B.Avg.	ERA	FLD%
First 8 games	2-6	.238	5.38	.927
Last 8 games	4-4	.270	3.73	.958

Matt Bragga Show To Debut On March 18 (Monday)

The Matt Bragga Show, the live weekly Rice baseball show featuring the Owls' new head coach, is scheduled to make its debut on March 18 at Christian's Tailgate Bar & Grill (located close to campus at 5114 Kirby). The show is available around the world on RiceOwls.com. Coach Bragga reviews games from the previous weekend and previews upcoming series. In addition to discussions on college baseball's national rankings and chase for the C-USA championship, each week's show will include current members of the team, former Owl players and special guests. Fans can catch the show on their phone by downloading the "Tune In" app. The show is a unique opportunity for baseball fans to get direct insight from the Owls' head coach.

Here's Who's Hot

Junior rightfielder Bradley Gneiting enters the week on a 7-for-14 pace (.500) over the last three games. He collected his ninth multi-hit game against Oklahoma on Sunday... Junior third baseman Braden Comeaux has also hit safely in the last three games where he is 4-for-12 (.333) with two walks, a RBI and a run scored.

Comeaux Named Bragan Slugger Award Watch List

Braden Comeaux been named to the initial watch list for the 2019 Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Award. From its headquarters in the DFW Metroplex, the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation has combined a passion for baseball and providing youngsters with the incentive and opportunity to pursue a college education for more than 25 years. One position player from a Division I baseball school in the five-state region of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico will be presented with the Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Award. Since its inception in 2017 the award is based on performance at the plate, academics and personal integrity. The winner of the award will be announced in May and honored at a gala in the fall. This year Comeaux is hitting .338 with five doubles, 16 runs scored and three stolen bases in 17 games. As one of just four Owls to start all 59 of Rice's games last spring, Comeaux finished third on the team, and tied for ninth in Conference USA overall, with 76 hits. He shared the team lead and tied for eighth in the conference, in at bats (238) and ranked eleventh in C-USA in total plate appearances (278). The Lake Charles, La., native hit safely in a team-best 16-consecutive games during one stretch and he collected two or more hits in a game 22 times.

Take A Closer Look

Rice had 31 losses in 2018, but a closer look is in order. The final margin in 15 of the team's losses was two runs or less. The Owls were playing close games in a tough schedule while a number of the team's star players (including Addison Moss, Dominic DiCaprio and Ricardo Salinas) were all sidelined at various points during the season. Just how tough was the 2018 schedule? Rice's final Strength of Schedule rating last season was No. 30 in the nation, and there were no other C-USA schools in the Top 70 of last season's final S.O.S. ranking. A year ago the young Owls' squad played 27 games against 12 different teams that either made it to the NCAA Tournament or who were nationally ranked at the time Rice played them.

Rookie Ball!

There are some Rice newcomers to keep an eye on in 2019. Junior second baseman Cade Edwards was enrolled at Rice last spring but was not on the roster until the fall semester. Edwards played the 2017 season at Chandler-Gilbert Community College in Arizona, where he batted .324 with 47 hits in 42 games to help lead the Coyotes to their first region playoff appearance in five years. The Houston native played Division I baseball at Tulane in 2016... Sophomore transfer Drake Greenwood played his freshman year in the SEC at Missouri. The right-handed pitcher from Houston was a prep star at The Kinkaid School... Keep an eye on some local true freshmen including Brandon Deskins (LHP, Friendswood H.S.), Benjamin Content (RHP, Concordia Lutheran H.S.), Dalton Wood (RHP, Second Baptist H.S.) and Antonio Cruz (OF, Episcopal H.S.).

Rice Since 1999

Using the 1999 season as the starting point (the year the NCAA expanded the postseason tournament field to 64 teams with the current Super Regional format), Rice baseball has maintained one of the nation's top win percentages over the last 20 years. Here's a closer look at the country's winningest programs from 1999-2018 (note: this listing will not be updated to include games played in 2019):
