SCOTT PERA

HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON
PENN STATE, 1989

Scott Pera enters his fourth season as the Rice men's basketball coach.

In three years, Pera has increased Rice's win total all every year. In 2019-20, the Owls defeated perennial Ivy League contender Penn and Conference USA regular season champion North Texas. The team led the league in three-pointers with 317, the second-most in school history, and three-pointers per game. Josh Parrish set the school single-season record for field goal percentage and Ako Adams became the school career record holder in three-pointers and free throw percentage.

Prior to becoming its head coach, Pera served three years as the Owls Associate Head Coach where he had a large role in recruiting and game preparation. He helped the Owls to victories over New Mexico, UAB, Middle Tennessee, Old Dominion and Louisiana Tech.

In 2016-17, he helped Rice to a 23-12 record, the second-most wins in school history and just the eighth 20-win season while advancing to the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational. He helped oversee a squad that set school records for points, field goals, three-point field goals, free throws and rebounds.

Prior to joining the Owls, Pera spent two seasons at Penn, where he saw the squad lead the Ivy League in assists in 2013-14 after ranking second in the league in assists and tops in field goal percentage defense the season before. He was named the top assistant in the Ivy League and No. 19 nationally among low-to-mid-major programs by Basketball Times in 2013 and '14.

For the Quakers, Pera also played an extensive role in recruiting, player development and game preparations. Penn notched wins against league front-runners Harvard and Princeton during his tenure under head coach Jerome Allen.

Pera previously spent six years on staff at Arizona State under head coach Herb Sendek. He began as Director of Operations in the 2006-07 campaign but was quickly promoted to a full-time assistant coaching position in 2007 and added the title of recruiting coordinator just one year later in 2008.

The Sun Devils averaged 18.0 wins per season with Pera on staff as an assistant coach, including three 20-win campaigns and an at-large bid to the 2009 NCAA Tournament and two NIT appearances (2008 and '10).

While at Arizona State, Pera recruited many successful players to Tempe, including NBA All-Star and Olympic gold medalist James Harden, who Pera had previously coached at Artesia High School. He also recruited ASU career games played, assists and free throw percentage record holder Derek Glasser from Artesia.

Pera served as the head coach at Artesia from 2000-06, including the 2006 state title with a 33-1 record. He was named the Los Angeles Times and Long Beach Press Telegram Southern California Coach of the Year in 2003 and '06, and the CIF Division III AA and SCIBCA Division III AA Coach of the Year the same seasons. VINCE ALEXANDER

ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND SEASON

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST, 1989

Vince Alexander enters his second season as assistant coach on the Rice men's basketball staff.

In his first season last year, the Owls defeated perennial Ivy League contender Penn and Conference USA regular season champion North Texas. The team led the league in three-pointers with 317, the second-most in school history, and three-pointers per game. Josh Parrish set the school single-season record for field goal percentage and Ako Adams became the school career record holder in three-pointers and free throw percentage.

A 20-year head coaching veteran, Alexander owns a 341-250 record. The Houston native spent the last four years at Saint Leo, where he accumulated a 56-63 record. In his time at Saint Leo, he coached six All-Sunshine State Conference members and defeated three top ten teams. In his first season at the helm, Alexander guided the Lions to a 19-12 record, the most wins by a head coach in their first season at Saint Leo. The Lions also finished fourth in the Sunshine State Conference with a 10-6 record.

Alexander's fast style of play saw the Saint Leo offense go from 64.2 points per game in the season prior to 83.4 points and an improved field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage. The Lions also increased their rebounds and assists per game.

Prior to Saint Leo, Alexander served as the head coach at South Carolina-Aiken for 10 seasons. During that span, Alexander guided USC-Aiken to four Peach Belt Conference regular season championships in 2008, 2012, 2013, and 2014, and three of the last six PBC tournament titles.

His most recent PBC tournament championships in 2013 and 2014 led the Pacers to deep runs through the NCAA tournament.

Led by PBC Player of the Year Re'mon Nelson, Alexander's 2012-13 squad went 25-8 and reached the NCAA Elite Eight. The Pacers followed up in 2013-14 with a second straight trip to the Elite Eight, advancing to the Final Four and finishing with a 33-4 mark behind performances by PBC Defensive Player of the Year Alvin Brown and Tournament MVP DeVontae Wright.

In 10 seasons at USC-Aiken, Alexander posted a 196-113 (.634) record with six 20-win seasons. A four-time PBC Coach of the Year, he earned NABC Regional Coach of the Year honors in 2008, 2013, and 2014.

Fourteen Pacers coached by Alexander earned All-PBC honors, with a pair of PBC Players of the Year in Chris Commons (2008 & 2009) and Nelson (2013). Four of Alexander's players earned post-season All-America honors and four were named PBC All-Academic selections.

Prior to his successful stint at USC-Aiken, Alexander spent six seasons at Mansfield University in Mansfield, Pa, from 1999-2005, charting an 89-74 record.

With Alexander at the helm, Mansfield won the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) East Division championship in 2005 with an 18-11 record, 10-2 in PSAC East play. Alexander's 2003-04 squad at Mansfield recorded a 21-7 mark, the first of his seven 20-win campaigns over his 16 seasons as a head coach.

Alexander previously served as head boys basketball coach at William Penn High School in York, Pa., as well as Dean of Students for the York City School District from 1995 to 1997, winning a pair of YAIAA championships and the 1997 York County title. He began his coaching career in Oklahoma, earning his first head coaching position at U.S. Grant High School in Oklahoma City, Okla., and advancing to the Oklahoma Regional Finals in 1995.

Alexander earned his Associate of Arts degree in physical education from Blinn College (Texas) in 1987 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education and recreation from Oklahoma Baptist University in 1989. He earned All-Conference and All-Region honors at Blinn and served as the team captain for two seasons at Oklahoma Baptist.

Team Awards

Billy Wohn Award

The Billy Wohn Award is presented annually to the Rice player who best exemplifies the qualities of the honor's namesake in basketball ability, scholarship and leadership. Wohn was a guard on the 1952-53 basketball team who died in a plane accident in August, 1953, while on active duty in the Naval ROTC. The recipient is determined by a vote of current players.

During the 1955-56 school year, the award was donated by nine former Rice students who were close friends of Wohn — Ben Brewer, J. Fred Duckett, Garland Fielder, Harvey Gilliam, Steve Muller, Kenneth Paul, Jay Wedler, James Whitson and George Wilson, Jr. Below are the yearly recipients of the Billy Wohn Award.

Bob Quin Award

One of Rice's highest honors, the Bob Quin Award, is given annually to Rice University's most outstanding all-around senior male athlete. It is given in memory of Bob Quin, a well respected Rice student-athlete who passed away during a trip across the Atlantic Ocean in 1930. A group of Quin's friends felt that there would be no more suitable memorial to him than to establish an award at Rice to be given each year to the male senior student-athlete who most exemplifies distinction in athletics, academics and leadership.

Since the Bob Quin Award was first presented, 12 Rice basketball student-athletes have been bestowed with the award. Below is a list of basketball players to be honored.
