GENNY VOLPE

HEAD COACH
18th YEAR AT RICE

Entering the fall of 2021, her 18th season as head coach at Rice, Genny Volpe has established the Owl volleyball program as a power in the Southwest. Under Volpe's watch, the Owls have been to six NCAA championships (2004, 2008, 2009, 2018, 2019, spring 2021), the only six appearances in Rice's history.

The sixth head coach in Rice history, Volpe has the highest winning percentage (.637) in school history and has compiled a 329-187 record (most wins in school history).

In addition, Volpe serves as the Conference USA representative on the AVCA Division I Head Coaches Committee.

Volpe earned her first AVCA Southwest Coach of the Year honor in the spring of 2021 after helping lead the Owls to a 16-5 overall record, including a 12-0 mark in C-USA play. It marked the first time Rice went undefeated throughout a conference season as the Owls captured the West Division title.

The Owls closed the regular season by defeating the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in five sets in Austin, marking Rice's second win over the Longhorns in two seasons. The Owls earned their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, making it for the second straight year as an at-large. Rice finished the season ranked Top-25 in both the AVCA Poll and the national RPI.

Under Volpe's guidance the Owls had a magical 2019 campaign, recording the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory and the second-most wins (27) in school history. Rice finished the season ranked in the AVCA Top-25 (24th) for first time in program history and climbed as high as No. 17 during the season. The Owls also finished the season with a No. 19 rankings in the NCAA RPI, the highest finish in school history. The Owls had two players (Nicole Lennon and Anota Adekunle) earn AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors. Rice also had a school record-tying four players named to AVCA Southwest All-Region Team and three Owls named to C-USA All-Academic Team.

In addition, the Owls placed a league-high six players on C-USA All-Conference teams. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the team's victory over No. 3 Texas for the first time in program history. Along the way Rice set a school record with 20 sweeps. Volpe also surpassed 300 career wins during the season.

In 2018 Volpe led the Owls to a 24-7 record and a sweep of the Conference USA regular season and tournaments crowns. The Owls achieved their best C-USA record (12-2) and recorded the longest winning streak (15 straight) in program history. Rice twice appeared in the AVCA Coaches Poll and placed five players on the 2018 All-C-USA teams, including three first-team members and the C-USA Player of the Year in Nicole Lennon. The Owls ranked top 10 in the nation in kills per set (7th-14.64), digs per set (8th-18.16), and assists per set (8th-13.74).

Also the 2008 C-USA Coach of the Year, Volpe has coached teams that earned at-large berths to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 2008, and teams that won an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by winning the 2009 and 2018 C-USA Tournament Championships.

In 2017 the Owls reeled off 21 wins and a trip into the postseason for the National Invitational Championship. The Owls had five players earn all-conference honors, which included Nicole Lennon earning Co-C-USA Freshman of the Year accolades.

The Owls advanced all the way to the C-USA Championship match of the C-USA Tournament in 2016 following Volpe's sixth 20-win season.

In 2015, the Owls defeated two Top-25 programs in No. 23 Colorado and No. 22 WKU en route to a 21-10 record, which marked the fifth 20-win season under Volpe.

A standout setter at Texas A&M, Volpe has seen three of her setters at Rice lead the league in assists per set, and has had helped two of her players earn C-USA Setter of the Year honors, Meredith Schamun in 2009 and Megan Murphy in 2012.

In 2014, Volpe led the Owls to 23 wins, the fifth-most in school history. Rice advanced to the C-USA Championship game and along the way collected 16 shutouts while earning five C-USA All-Conference selections.

Rice went 19-12 in 2012, and were led by four All-C-USA selections, including Rice's first three-time All-American, Nancy Cole, and C-USA Setter of the Year, Megan Murphy. Rice posted a 12-4 Conference USA mark in 2012, including a 7-1 record at home.

The 2011 edition saw Rice with an 18-13 overall mark and a 13-7 second-place record in Conference USA. The Owls also produced AVCA All-America Honorable Mentions Cole and redshirt-sophomore Murphy. Cole was a first-team All-C-USA honoree, while Murphy was a second-team pick. Freshman Jillian Humphrey was selected to the All-C-USA Freshman squad.

During 2009, the Owls won their first-ever conference championship when they defeated Tulsa 3-2, to earn Conference USA's NCAA automatic bid. Rice also sported a final RPI ranking of 37, its highest ever, out of 330 institutions, to lead C-USA. In 2009, Rice produced the C-USA Setter of the Year in Meredith Schamun and the C-USA Libero of the Year in Tracey Lam. Those two along with Ashleigh McCord and Natalie Bogan were All-C-USA First Team selections as well as AVCA All-America Honorable Mentions.

Volpe also collected match victory number 100 with a 3-1 win at UAB on Sept. 28, 2009.

In 2008, Rice posted a 23-7 overall record, while winning a school-record 12 of 16 matches in C-USA play that placed them third in the standings, their highest finish to date. The Owls also cleaned up several C-USA awards. Tracey Lam was named as the league's Libero of the Year, while Karyn Morgan, Meredith Schamun, and Natalie Bogan were selected to the C-USA First Team. Lam and Jessica Holderness were named to the C-USA Second Team, while Ashleigh McCord made the C-USA All-Freshman Team.

In 2004, her first season at Rice, Volpe led the Owls to a 25-5 overall record and the team's first ever NCAA tournament appearance. Volpe's squad finished the season with marks in the top 30 nationally in assists per game, blocks per game, kills per game, and hitting percentage.

Prior to the 2004 season, only eight Owls had ever been named to the All-WAC team, but in 2004 six Owls received All-WAC honors. Volpe spent the three seasons prior to her arrival at Rice as an assistant coach at Texas A&M, where the Aggies tallied a 70-26 overall record and appeared in the NCAA tournament each season.

Prior to Volpe's three years in College Station she was at Southern Methodist University, where she served as the first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator when the volleyball program began in 1996.

This is actually Volpe's second coaching stint at Rice, as she spent the 1995 season as an assistant under Henry Chen.

Prior to her earlier days at Rice, Volpe served as student assistant coach under the Corbellis at A&M in 1994 as the Aggies made their second consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and advanced to the second round. An all-around talented athlete, Volpe was a four-year letterwinner as a setter and outside hitter at Texas A&M from 1990-93. She quickly developed into one of the best defensive players in the Southwest Conference and led the Aggies in digs for three consecutive seasons. A two-year team captain, Volpe capped her stellar A&M playing career by leading the Aggies to a 27-8 record and the second round of the NCAA tournament as a senior.

Volpe's name is still scattered throughout the A&M record books and she remains the Aggie all-time record

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Volpe will begin acting as a member of the AVCA Head Coaches Committee (HCC) in 2016 serving as the C-USA HCC representative. Volpe served as the Conference USA coaches chair for volleyball for two years (2005-06).

While competing in the 2002, USA volleyball national tournament, she was named to the all-tournament team after leading Texas Advantage to a third-place finish at the USA Volleyball Open Women's AA Gold Division national championship.

Volpe received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Texas A&M in 1995 and a master's degree in liberal arts from SMU in 1999.

Genny and her husband John Volpe have a son, John Joseph, and a daughter, Alice Marie.

COACHING STAFF

ZHENG XIANG

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
8th YEAR AT RICE

Zheng Xiang, who was promoted to Associate Head Coach on May 20, 2019, begins his eighth season (fall 2021) with the Rice volleyball program. During his tenure, the Owls have achieved a 152-57 record (.717 winning percentage), secured the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory, won a C-USA conference regular season and tournament championship (2018), and advanced to five C-USA title matches while winning 20 or more matches in six seasons.

In the spring of 2021 the Owls went 16-5 overall, including a 12-0 mark in C-USA play. It marked the first time Rice went undefeated throughout a conference season as the Owls captured the West Division title. The Owls closed the regular season by defeating the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in five sets in Austin, marking Rice's second win over the Longhorns in two seasons. The Owls earned their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, making it for the second straight year as an at-large.

The Owls had a magical 2019 campaign, recording the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory and the second-most wins (27) in school history. Rice finished the season ranked in the AVCA Top-25 (24th) for first time in program history and climbed as high as No. 17 during the season. The Owls also finished the season with a No. 19 rankings in the NCAA RPI, the highest finish in school history. The Owls had two players (Nicole Lennon and Anotá Adekunle) earn AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors.

In addition, the Owls placed a league-high six players on C-USA All-Conference teams. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the team's victory over No. 3 Texas for the first time in program history. Along the way Rice set a school record with 20 sweeps.

In 2018, Xiang helped guide the Owls to one of the best seasons in program history. The Owls posted their fifth straight season of 20 or more wins with a 24-7 record and a sweep of the Conference USA regular season and tournaments crowns. The Owls achieved their best C-USA record (12-2) and recorded the longest winning streak (15 straight) in program history. Rice twice appeared in the AVCA Coaches Poll and placed five players on the 2018 All-C-USA teams, including three first-team members and the C-USA Player of the Year in Nicole Lennon.

In 2017, the Owls advanced to the postseason (NIVC) for the first time since 2009.

In his first year with the Owls, Xiang helped oversee a Rice squad that advanced to the C-USA Championship game and won 23 games, the fifth-most in school history.

He was previously a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M (2013) after spending five years (2008-12) on the UTSA Roadrunners staff as an assistant coach.

While at Texas A&M the Aggies went 19-12 in 2013 and 10-8 in the SEC, before falling to No. 1 seed Texas in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Xiang coached three Aggies to SEC honors.

Xiang was hired by UTSA in August 2008 as an interim assistant coach before being promoted to a full-time assistant four months later.

Xiang helped guide the Roadrunners to a 21-9 record in his final season at UTSA, the team's first season in the WAC.

Through Xiang's first four years at UTSA he oversaw 17 players earn All-Southland Conference accolades, including 11 first-teamers and two-time Libero of the Year Kelsey Jewasko (2008 & '10), 2011 Newcomer of the Year McKenzie Adams, 2011 Setter of the Year Kelsey Schwirtlich and 2010 Tournament Most Valuable Player Kendra Rowland.

In 2011 the Roadrunners won 22 matches for a second-straight season and advanced to the Southland Tournament Championship Match for the second consecutive season.

In 2010, UTSA posted 22 victories, won the Southland Tournament Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The Chicago native came to UTSA from St. Edward's University in Austin, where he spent the previous two seasons as an assistant.

Xiang earned his bachelor's degree in business from Indiana in 2000 and a MBA in marketing from Texas' McCombs School of Business in 2006.

He has six years of playing experience at the outside hitter and libero positions. Xiang was a member of Indiana's club team from 1997-2000 and was the squad's captain his final season. He also played for two years at Texas, where he earned first-team All-Southern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association honors in 2006.

The Owls earned their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, making it for the second straight year as an at-large.

The Owls had a magical 2019 campaign, recording the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory and the second-most wins (27) in school history. Rice finished the season ranked in the AVCA Top-25 (24th) for first time in program history and climbed as high as No. 17 during the season. The Owls also finished the season with a No. 19 rankings in the NCAA RPI, the highest finish in school history. The Owls had two players (Nicole Lennon and Anota Adekunle) earn AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors. Rice also had a school record-tying four players named to AVCA Southwest All-Region Team and three Owls named to C-USA All-Academic Team.

In addition, the Owls placed a league-high six players on C-USA All-Conference teams. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the team's victory over No. 3 Texas for the first time in program history. Along the way Rice set a school record with 20 sweeps.

In 2018 the Owls turned in one of the best seasons in program history. The Owls posted their fifth straight season of 20 or more wins with a 24-7 record and a sweep of the Conference USA regular season and tournaments crowns.

The Owls achieved their best C-USA record (12-

2) and recorded the longest winning streak (15 straight) in program history. Rice twice appeared in the AVCA Coaches Poll and placed five players on the 2018 All-C-USA teams, including three first-team members and the C-USA Player of the Year in Nicole Lennon. The Owls ranked top 10 in the nation in kills per set (7th-14.64), digs per set (8th-18.16), and assists per set (8th-13.74).

Prior to Rice, Klanac served as the volleyball director of operations at the University of Houston charge of charting offensive attacks. He also assisted the full-time staff with practice scheduling and day-to-day operations.

He has also served as a camp coach for Ohio State and USA Volleyball.

Klanac played collegiately at Ohio State from 2008-11, where he was a member of the 2011 National Championship team his senior season and earned All-American honors. He helped lead the Buckeyes to four Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association titles and four berths in the NCAA postseason, with one semifinal appearance and three championship game appearances.

He was a three-time MIVA All-Conference honoree, garnering Second Team honors in 2009 and First Team laurels in 2010 and 2011. For his play during the Buckeyes' 2011 National Championship run, Klanac was named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team.

At the end of his Buckeye career, he ranked in the top 12 kills (1,048), service aces (70) and points (1,217.5). Klanac graduated from Ohio State in 2011 with a degree in history.

Following Ohio State, Klanac played professionally overseas for five years. He played for Patriots de Lares (Lares, Puerto Rico; 2014-15), Stiina Explorari Baia Mare (Baia Mare, Romania; 2014-15), Al Nasser Sports Club (Juffair, Bahrain; 2014), Waremme VBC (Waremme, Belgium; 2013-14), Kokkolan Tiikerit (Kokkola, Finland; 2012-13) and RWE Bottrop (Bottrop, Germany; 2011-12). With Kokkolan Tiikerit, he helped the team win the Mestaruusliiga (Finnish Championship).

Klanac served as a volunteer assistant coach at Buffalo (2015-16). With the Bulls, Klanac worked primarily with the outside hitters and was in
