The Latest

▶ Richmond returns home after a two-game road swing. The Spiders are 9-3 at home this season and have won three-straight in the Robins Center over Dayton, Saint Louis and Charlotte.

▶ The Spiders have lost by double figures seven times this season, but six of those double-digit setbacks were followed by a victory. The Spiders are coming off an 80-55 loss to No. 8 George Washington.

▶ The Spiders have lost two-straight games for the third-time this year, but all three two-game losing skids included a ranked opponent.

▶ The Spiders are third in the nation and lead the conference in scoring defense, holding teams to 55.2 points per game. The Spiders are 24th in the nation in field goal percentage defense, holding teams to 39.8 percent shooting. Richmond has only given up over 70 points once this season. The Spiders have only allowed over 60 points four times and have held nine teams to 50 points or less.

▶ Richmond has hit at least six 3-pointers in 11 of the last 13 games. The Spiders are not shy about shooting the 3-pointer, with 47.8 percent of their field goal attempts coming from behind the arc.

▶ When the Spiders score 58 points or more in a game they are a perfect 9-0. When the Spiders lead at the half they are 9-1 and they are 11-0 when leading with five minutes to play in the game.

▶ Senior Jermaine Bucknor has scored 20 or more points five times this season, including four of the last six games. He has reached double figures in seven-straight games and nine of the last 10. Richmond is 10-3 when he is the leading scorer and 9-1 when he makes at least three 3s.

▶ Senior Kevin Steenberge is tied for third on Richmond's all-time career list for blocks with Johnathan Collins (1999-03) at 133. He needs two blocks to tie Jeff Pehl (1979-83) for the second spot. Steenberge has 50 blocks this season, which is third in the conference.

The Teams

SCOUTING RICHMOND: The Spiders return home where they have a 9-3 record this season. The Spiders have lost two-straight games for the second time this season, but have yet to lose three-straight. The Spiders have dropped two-straight and three of the last four, still find themselves in the thick of the Atlantic 10 race.

SCOUTING XAVIER: The Musketeers have lost two-straight including an 89-85 loss to George Washington, the current No. 8 ranked team in the nation. Xavier has lost four of the last five games, including being swept by Saint Louis. The Musketeers are led by Brian Thornton, a four-time Atlantic 10 Player of the Week who is averaging 15.5 points per game. His 63.3 field goal percentage is first in the A-10 and sixth in the nation.

Series Record: 2-7

Record At UR: 0-4

Record At XU: 2-2

Series Notes: Richmond has never defeated Xavier outside the city of Cincinnati (0-5). The two teams met at least two times in each of the past four seasons, but are scheduled to play just once this year.

Notes

Lucky 7

► Due to injuries and attrition, Richmond is playing with just seven scholarship players in Chris Mooney's first season. And one of those seven scholarship players is junior Peter Thomas, who came to Richmond as a walk-on before earning a scholarship this season. The Spiders dress just 10 players after freshman guard Ryan Butler was shutdown for the remainder of the season due to injury and red-shirt freshman Jarhon Giddings was lost indefinitely due to a recurring injury. The Spiders are missing seven guards that could be in uniform right now. Richmond is playing an eight-man rotation which includes true-freshman walk-on Duncan McLean.

Not Your Average Defense

► Richmond's defense has held 14 opponents to at least 10 points less than their average vs. the rest of that team's opponents.

Block Party

► Richmond is averaging 4.7 blocks per game, which is fourth in the Atlantic 10. Senior Kevin Steenberge has 50 blocks on the season which is fifth on Richmond's all-time single-season list. Steenberge is tied for third with Johnathan Collins (1999-2003) on the school's all-time career list with 133 blocks. He needs two blocks to tie Jeff Pehl (1979-83) for the second spot. Steenberge has posted a career-high five blocks in three games this season, against Fordham, Saint Louis and Louisville. Against Louisville, four of those blocks came against star guard Taquan Dean, who said after the game "I've never had that many shots blocked before." Junior Gaston Moliva has 97 career blocks, which is fifth on the all-time career list behind Steenberge. Moliva blocked three shots against George Washington Sunday.

Notes

Back Door Basics

► Richmond first-year head coach Chris Mooney played for legendary coach Pete Carril at Princeton, where he is currently ranked 20th on the all-time scoring list. Mooney utilizes the basic fundamentals of the Princeton offense, but gives his players more freedom than the offense he played in college. His teams take care of the basketball, as Air Force finished second in the nation in fewest turnovers per game last year.

Blue Collar To Ivy

► While Chris Mooney is an Ivy Leaguer with his degree from Princeton, Mooney grew up in blue-collar Philadelphia, the son of a Greyhound Bus driver. His mother died of cancer when he was 13 and Mooney says he lost himself in basketball at that point, dreaming of becoming a player and a coach. Mooney's background shows in his coaching with his teams' grind-it-out, hard-working style of play.

Don't Call It A System

► Head coach Chris Mooney and his staff have been installing the Princeton offense, but don't refer to it as a system. The true disciples of the Princeton offense consider it more of a style of play than an offensive system. The Princeton style of play is currently being used by teams in the Big East (John Thompson, Jr. at Georgetown), Big 10 (Bill Carmody at Northwestern) and principles of it can be found in the ACC (North Carolina State) and with several NBA teams.

The Young And The Restless

► Richmond coach Chris Mooney got his first Division I head coaching job at the age of 32, which made him the fourth-youngest coach in the nation last year. He is the seventh-youngest coach in the nation this year, but is already in his second head coaching job at 33. Even with his youth, don't look for any grizzled veterans on Mooney's staff. Associate head coach Mike McKee is also 33, having spent four seasons with Mooney at Air Force. Thirty-two year-old assistant coach Kevin McGeehan, an assistant for Mooney at Landsdale Catholic when the two were just out of college, followed Mooney to Beaver College and rejoined him last year at Air Force. Assistant coach Carlin Hartman, who is in his first year with Mooney, is 33. Directors of basketball operations Jamal Brunt and Rob Jones are 25 and 27.

Age Ain't Nothing But A Number

► When Richmond athletic director Jim Miller hires coaches, he definitely doesn't let age dissuade him. Miller has hired the second youngest combination of basketball and football coaches in the nation behind only Western Kentucky. Mooney is 33, first-year women's basketball coach Michael Shafer is also 33 and football coach Dave Clawson is the eldest of the bunch at 38.

Head Coach Chris Mooney

Hometown: Philadelphia, Pa.
Birthdate: Aug. 7, 1972
Alma Mater: Princeton, 1994
Coaching Experience:
Head Coach, Landsdale Catholic HS
Head Coach, Beaver College
Assistant Coach, Air Force
Associate Head Coach, Air Force
Head Coach, Air Force
Head Coach, Richmond

Chris Mooney, former Air Force Academy coach and Princeton University's 20th all-time leading scorer, became the 13th head coach of Spider men's basketball on May 6, 2005. Mooney, 33, joined Richmond after working at the Air Force Academy the past five seasons. He is the seventh-youngest Division I men's basketball coach and the youngest in the Atlantic 10. The Philadelphia, Pa. native and Archbishop Ryan High School product became the Falcons' fifth head coach on April 22, 2004, four years after joining Joe Scott's staff as an assistant coach. The Falcons posted their second best all-time record (18-12) in Mooney's first year at the helm, while setting a program mark in three-pointers (266) and leading the nation for the third consecutive year in fewest points allowed per game (54.3). His 18 victories were the most by a first-year head at Air Force. Under Mooney's direction, Air Force ranked second in Division I for fewest turnovers per game (9.8) and third in turnover margin (+6.6). The Falcons, who received votes in the national polls last winter, were one of only two Mountain West Conference teams with five all-conference honorees. In his final season as Air Force's associate head coach, Mooney was instrumental in guiding the Falcons to their most successful season. The 2003-04 squad went 22-7, won the Mountain West Conference regular-season championship with a 12-2 mark, and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 1962.

What They're Saying About The Spiders

"Getting behind against Richmond was the worst possible scenario on a basketball court. You get behind on a team like them and it's an uphill battle all the way with the treadmill on level 10 in terms of the incline. It was very difficult to come back against them. We had a difficult time defending them...Forget about 24 hours, you need 24 days to prepare for them."

- Louisville Coach Rick Pitino

"That offense is a pain-in-the-neck to play against and it will only get better. I am happy we played them the second game of the year as opposed to the 22nd game of the year. I know they will be much, much better at it as the season goes."

- Virginia Coach Dave Leitao

Chris Mooney Radio Show

The Spider Sportsline with Richmond head coach Chris Mooney is held every Monday night from Buffalo Wild Wings, 7801 West Broad Street through March 13. The live call-in show is from 7-8 p.m. and will be available on the Spiders Sports Network (WRNL-AM 910 in Richmond) and on the internet at RichmondSpiders.com.

Notes

There's No Place Like Home

► Richmond plays 16 games at home this season, the second most in the 34 years of the Robins Center. The Spiders have already played 12 games at home and are 9-3 in the Robins Center. Richmond posted its 300th victory in the arena on Jan. 21 vs. Dayton. The Spiders played in just five arenas over their first 17 games, but are now closing the season with seven of their last 12 games on the road. The Spiders have won 60 of 86 (.698) games in the Robins Center over the past six seasons and are 302-145 (.676) all-time in the building. A win Saturday would give the Spiders their 15th season with 10 or more victories in the Robins Center.

Practice Coaches

► With Richmond short-handed it has forced members of the coaching staff into the role of scout team practice players. Assistant coaches Kevin McGeehan, a former player at Gettysburg, and Carlin Hartman, a former Tulane standout, sport Richmond practice jerseys and take part daily on the court. Associate head coach Mike McKee, a former point guard at Lehigh, also finds himself forced into the action.

Coach Can Dunk

► Richmond head coach Chris Mooney is 6-foot-7, but he is more than a decade removed from his playing career at Princeton. Before practice at George Washington's Smith Center on Saturday night, Mooney dunked with senior Kevin Steenberge watching. The rest of the team was at the other end of the court and didn't witness the jam, so after practice Mooney repeated his one-handed dunk with everyone watching.

Not Totally Getting The Point

► Contrary to popular belief, Richmond's offense is not about running the shot clock down before shooting the ball. The purpose is to get the best possible shot and to do that by countering everything the defense throws at you. The challenge is to get the players to make the right reads of the defense. At times this season the players have run the offense effectively, making reads on the way the defense is guarding them and not breaking out of the offense to do their own thing. But at times, as with learning any new style of play, they have struggled.

Any Given Sunday

► Richmond head coach Chris Mooney has compared the growing pains experienced by teams learning the Princeton offense to the maturation of a young NFL quarterback. The quarterback may struggle with parts of his game, while showing occasional signs of promise. Then "all of a sudden he goes out there one day and it clicks, not because of that last day he watched film and practiced, but because of the overall time." Mooney is honest that it could take some time before they get it.

Notes

Learning Curve

► Sophomore Oumar Sylla has never played point guard and at 6-7 he would be more suited to play small forward. After losing three guards from last year's team, first-year head coach Chris Mooney has made Sylla the chosen one to run the point. The Mali-native is learning the most challenging position in the offense and has become increasingly comfortable. He narrowly missed a double-double with nine points and a career-high 11 rebounds in the win over Duquesne on Jan. 11. Sylla is a native of West Africa where he played his first two years of basketball in sandals. He was spotted by a scout and made the move to New York to pursue a dream of getting an American education by way of playing basketball.

Reaching New Heights

► Even with injuries, Richmond still starts one of the most physically imposing lineups in school history. Oumar Sylla (6-7, 230) is at point guard; Peter Thomas (6-5, 210) is the shooting guard; Jermaine Bucknor (6-7, 218) is the small forward; Gaston Moliva (6-7, 230) is the power forward and Kevin Steenberge (6-11, 240) is the center. The Spiders still have 6-11, 240-pound center Drew Crank, and 6-6, 225-pound guard Monty Sanders coming in off the bench.

Double-Trouble And Triple Threat

► Senior Jermaine Bucknor is Richmond's leading scorer and second-leading rebounder. He notched a double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds in the season opener against Hampton and has hit a team-best 48 shots from behind the 3-point arc. He has hit at least three 3-pointers in 10 games and Richmond is 9-1 when he does so. Bucknor has scored in double figures in 16, including seven-straight and nine of the last 10. He has poured in over 20 points five times, including four of the last six games. Bucknor has made a career-high five 3-pointers three times this season, in wins over Dayton, Old Dominion and Charlotte. Bucknor scored a season-high 24 points, including three 3-pointers in the win over Saint Louis on Jan. 18.

The Son Of A Globetrotter

► Richmond sophomore Monty Sanders is the son of former Harlem Globetrotter legend Twiggy Sanders. But Twiggy stuck to the basics when teaching Monty the game of basketball, staying away from the tricks, except for some of the shoulder fakes and hook shots that can be useful in Division I basketball. Monty has shown a knack for scoring. He made two clutch baskets in the closing minutes of the win over Dayton that helped Richmond pull out the victory.

Notes

Proving The Pundits Wrong

► Richmond was picked to finish 11th out of 14 teams in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll, but that isn't bothering head coach Chris Mooney. Two years ago when Mooney and associate head coach Mike McKee were at Air Force, the Falcons were picked dead last in the Mountain West but went on to win the conference title.

Hopefully Just Taking A Year Off

► Richmond's streak of four-straight post-season appearances was snapped last season. The Spiders are going for their fifth post-season bid in the last six years.

Keeping Their Winning Ways

► Richmond is looking for its ninth consecutive season with a .500-or-higher conference winning percentage. The Spiders' last sub-.500 league mark came in 1996-97 when Richmond finished 7-9 in the CAA. The Spiders had posted a winning overall record for seven-straight years before finishing 14-15 last season.

Peter Can

► Junior Peter Thomas came to Richmond as a walk-on, but has started every game this season and leads the team in minutes played, averaging 34.0 per game. He has scored in double figures in five games this season, including tying a career high of 13 points against La Salle on Jan. 7. Thomas just missed a double-double with 11 points and a career-high nine assists in the win over Longwood on Jan. 2. He is second on the team in assists with 56, averaging 2.7 per game.

Spiders In Top Tier Of A-10

This is Richmond's fifth season in the Atlantic 10 and the Spiders have shown they they are one of the league's premier teams. Among the 12 teams in the Atlantic 10 that have completed at least one season, Richmond has the third highest winning percentage in conference regular-season play at 59.7 percent (43-29). Temple is first at 75.3 percent (293-96) and Xavier is second at 70.2 percent (118-50).

2005-06 SEASON NOTES

- ▶ Will not play for the remainder of the season due to injury, which had sidelined him for all but two games this season.
- ▶ After missing six games due to a hamstring injury, returned to action against VCU on Dec. 10, grabbing five rebounds in nine minutes of action.
- ▶ Made his collegiate debut against Hampton on Nov. 18, grabbing a rebound and steal in five minutes of action.
- ▶ Son of former Spider star and assistant coach Jeff Butler (1975-77). He and his father are the second father/son tandem in Richmond basketball history. Pat DiServio (1981-83) and Tony DiServio (1945-47) are the others.
- ▶ Went to high school at Douglas Freeman, about three miles from the Richmond campus.
- ▶ Was Chris Mooney's first signee at Richmond.

Richmond 44, Hampton 40

Nov. 18, 2005 ▶ Richmond, Va.

Senior Jermaine Bucknor notched his third career double-double, scoring 14 points and grabbing 11 rebounds, as the Spiders won their season opener 44-40 over Hampton on Friday night in the Robins Center. The game marked the Richmond debut of head coach Chris Mooney, the 13th men's basketball coach in school history. Mooney, who comes to Richmond after leading Air Force to an 18-12 record last season, became the seventh Spider coach to win his first game at the helm. The new-look Spiders used the Princeton offense, which Mooney learned as a star player under Hall-of-Fame coach Pete Carril. While Mooney wasn't satisfied with his team's offensive showing, the Spiders did put together a seven-minute stretch in the second half when they went on a 16-3 run with Bucknor connecting on three shots from behind the arc and junior guard Peter Thomas executing a back-door reverse lay-up. Of course as the team adjusts to the new offense, and deals with an inexperienced backcourt, there will be struggles. Those struggles occurred Friday, including in the final seven minutes of the game, allowing Hampton to cut an 11-point deficit to one. Bucknor hit 3-of-5 of his three-point attempts and made 5-of-6 free throws to finish with a game-high 14 points in a career-high 39 minutes. He was a force on the defensive boards, pulling down 11 rebounds, and also had two steals. Thomas, a former walk-on who is now a scholarship starter, shouldered a lot of the ball-handling duties against the Hampton full-court pressure and finished with a career-high seven points to go with two assists and just one turnover in a career-high 36 minutes. Thomas made the defensive play of the game in the closing seconds, when he drew a charge on Hampton's Rashad West. Richmond seemed poised for a double-digit victory after going on a 16-3 run to take an 11-point lead with 6:53 remaining. But the Spiders lost their offensive flow and only scored four points the rest of the way as Hampton went on a 12-2 run to pull within one point with 1:19 left. Jarhon Giddings, who finished with nine points and seven rebounds in his Richmond debut, hit one of two free throws with 14.5 seconds left to put the Spiders up 42-40. Then Thomas came up with the huge charge on West and Bucknor sank two free throws to ice the win.

Virginia 59, Richmond 43

Nov. 22, 2005 ▶ Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team only trailed Virginia by one point at the half Tuesday night, but the Cavaliers were able to pull away for a 59-43 victory. Richmond trailed by as many as nine in the first half, but closed the gap to 26-25 after a 3-pointer by sophomore Monty Sanders and a lay-up at the halftime buzzer by red-shirt freshman Jarhon Giddings. The Spiders connected on 7-of-15 shots from behind the arc in the first half, while dishing out nine assists and committing just four turnovers. In the second half, the Spiders did not make a 3-pointer and hit just six field goals against Virginia's man-to-man defense. As they have done in each of their four halves this season, the Spiders struggled offensively in the opening minutes of the second session. Virginia went up by nine with 13:22 left and while the Spiders pulled within five at 36-31 on a lay-up by senior Kevin Steenberge with 10:32 to play, Virginia went on a 12-3 run to open up a 14-point lead with 5:46 remaining. Senior Jermaine Bucknor led the Spiders in scoring for the second-straight game with 15 points, his second time in as many games scoring in double figures. He hit three 3-pointers for the second-straight game. It was the 14th time in his career that he connected on at least three treys in a game and the 26th game he sank multiple 3-pointers. Steenberge and Giddings each scored eight points for Richmond. Virginia guard J.R. Reynolds paced the Cavaliers (2-0) with 23 points on 7-of-12 shooting. The Spiders did force the Cavaliers into 18 turnovers and held the opposition to under 60 points for the second game in a row.

Richmond 58, McNeese 50

Nov. 26, 2005 ▶ Richmond, Va.

Richmond overcame a slow start to lead by as many as 14 points in the second half of a 58-50 victory over McNeese State (2-1) on Saturday at the Robins Center. The Spiders (2-1) took a few minutes to get going, trailing 9-2 out of the gate, but Richmond responded with a 21-5 run way midway through the first half to take the lead for good. Richmond pushed that lead to double digits in the opening minutes of the second half and opened up a 14-point lead with 10:02 to play on a 3-pointer by junior Peter Thomas. Senior Jermaine Bucknor led the Spiders in scoring for the third-straight game and scored in double-figures for the sixth-straight outing with 17 points, despite facing a box-and-one defense in the second half. Thomas scored a career-high 13 points, all coming in the second half, hitting a career-high three 3-pointers on six attempts. He also had two assists and two steals. Sophomore 6-foot-11 center Drew Crank posted a career-high 10 points, connecting on both of his 3-point attempts. He is shooting 66-percent (2-for-3) from behind the arc this season. Sophomore Monty Sanders also posted a career high with nine points. Richmond sank nine 3-pointers with Thomas hitting a career-high three treys and centers Crank (2-for-2) and Kevin Steenberge each connecting on the first 3-pointers of their careers. The Spiders, who had just 10 points coming from the non-starters in the first two games combined, got 21 points off the bench on Saturday. The Spiders fell behind 9-2 in the game's first 3:23, but after the first media timeout, Bucknor drove baseline and dunked and Crank added his first career 3-pointer in just his second-career attempt from behind the arc. A jumper by Oumar Sylla and then a three-point play by Sanders gave the Spiders the lead for good at 12-10 with 13:09 to play in the first half. McNeese State did tie the game at the 11:59 mark, but Richmond went on an 11-2 run to take a 23-14 advantage. The Spiders opened the second half on an 8-2 run to take a 12-point-lead, thanks to a pair of treys from Thomas and a jumper by Crank. Thomas canned another 3-pointer to open up a 47-33 lead and the Spiders held off a late run by McNeese.

Richmond 60, Seton Hall 49

Dec. 1, 2005 ▶ Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team held Seton Hall to just one point over the first 10:55 of the second half and led by as many as 23 points in a 60-49 victory Thursday night in the Robins Center. The victory gave Richmond a 5-9 record all-time against Big East teams, including a 3-3 mark in the Robins Center. The Spiders have won both meetings with Seton Hall, having also defeated the Pirates 77-71 in the season opener last season. Seniors Jermaine Bucknor and Kevin Steenberge each scored 16 points as Richmond (3-1) shot a season-high 43-percent from the field. Bucknor hit a season-high four 3-pointers in seven attempts and now has hit at least three treys in five of his last six games. He has connected on multiple 3-pointers in seven of his last eight games. Steenberge, who led the Spiders in scoring last season (12.6 ppg), had struggled through the first three games this year but he looked more comfortable in the Princeton offense Thursday and connected on 7-of-11 shots from the field. He also grabbed eight rebounds and hit his second 3-pointer of his career. Richmond's defense started off the game strong, holding Seton Hall (3-2) to just two points over the first 6:11 of the game and four points in the opening 7:24. Seton Hall did take their only lead of the game (17-16) on Brian Laing's jumper with 6:57 remaining in the half, but the Pirates missed five of their next seven field goals and had three turnovers as Richmond took a 26-21 halftime lead. Then the Spiders really shut down Seton Hall to start the second half as Richmond outscored the Pirates 17-1 out of the locker room. Seton Hall managed just one free throw over the first 10:55 of the second half, before Donald Copeland (22 points) made a lay-up with 9:05 remaining in the game. That cut the lead to 43-24, but a 3-pointer and dunk by Steenberge gave Richmond its largest lead of the game at 23 points (48-25). The Spiders' lead stayed above 20 until a jumper by Copeland with 3:08 left in the game cut the gap to 54-36. With 1:32 remaining, Richmond still led by 18 and Seton Hall scored 13 points over the final 1:31 to make the final outcome look closer than it should have.

RICHMOND BASKETBALL

5 Arkansas St. 56, Richmond 36 Dec. 3, 2005 ▶ Louisville, Ky.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team was unable to capitalize on the momentum from their win over Seton Hall on Thursday night, falling to Arkansas State 56-37 in the Colonial Classic. The Spiders couldn't put together any type of run in a game played in front of an almost empty 18,000-seat Freedom Hall. Richmond was still able to hang in the game, but Arkansas State scored eight-unanswered points to end the contest. Richmond's defense, which had allowed just 49.5 points per game coming into the game, was not as effective against a very athletic Arkansas State squad. Arkansas State hit 4-of-5 shots from behind the 3-point arc and Brett Ballard finished the game with five 3-pointers. The Spiders still haven't allowed an opponent to score 60 points this season. Arkansas State entered the game averaging 75 points per game. The Spiders did not display the confidence they had showed in running the Princeton offense in its last two victories. Richmond committed a season-high 19 turnovers - after having just nine against Seton Hall on Thursday - and got to the foul line just twice. Richmond did not have any players reach double figures in scoring. Senior Kevin Steenberge led the Spiders with nine points, hitting 4-of-8 shots from the field, including a 3-pointer for the third-straight game. Steenberge has made 11-of-19 shots (.579) over the past two games. Fellow senior Jermaine Bucknor had eight points hitting two 3-pointers, the eighth time in the last nine games he has connected on multiple treys. The Spiders led 6-0 after 3-pointers b Jarhon Giddings and Steenberge. Arkansas State then went on a 14-2 run to take a 14-8 lead with 12:11 remaining in the first half and pushed their lead to double digits (28-18) with 2:22 to go in the half. Two lay-ups in the final 1:38 gave the Indians a 14-point (32-18) halftime lead. Arkansas State's lead stayed in double digits until a steal and fast-break dunk by Bucknor pulled Richmond to within nine (44-35) with 7:26 remaining in the game. The Indians answered right back with a lay-up to regain the double-digit advantage and while a lay-up by Gaston Moliva pulled the Spiders within 11 with 4:25 to play, Arkansas State scored eight-unanswered points to close the game.

6 Richmond 62, Prairie View 48 Dec. 4, 2005 ▶ Louisville, Ky.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team outscored Prairie View by 38 points over the last 30 minutes of Sunday's game in a 62-48 victory in the Colonial Classic at Louisville's Freedom Hall. Senior co-captains Kevin Steenberge and Jermaine Bucknor combined for 42 of the Spiders 62 points. Steenberge registered a season-high 22 points which is his second-highest point total in a Richmond uniform, while Bucknor notched a season-high 19 points. Richmond started off slow, trailing 20-6 midway through the first half, but the Spiders would outscore Prairie View 56-28 over the final 30:32 of the game. After trailing by 14, Richmond held the Panthers to just one field goal over a 10-minute span in the first half, similar to the 10 minutes the Spiders held Seton Hall to without a field goal on Thursday. The Spiders have not allowed an opponent to reach 60 points in six games this season, the longest stretch since doing so for seven games in 2001-02. In Richmond's four victories this season, the opposition has been held to 50 points or less. Richmond improved to 4-2 on the season, the best start since opening the season 7-1 in 2000-01. The Spiders thrived offensively after opening the game with just six points in the first nine-plus minutes Richmond scored a season-high 62 points, shot a season-high 46-percent from the field, only had 10 turnovers and dished out a season-high 16 assists. The Spiders, which had relied heavily on the 3-pointer this season, connected on a season-low four treys against Prairie View, while scoring a season-best 34 points in the paint. Steenberge led the Spiders in scoring for the third-straight game, making 6-of-9 shots from the field and 10-of-11 free throws. He has now made 17-of-28 shots (.607) from the field over the last three games. Steenberge also had five rebounds and swatted three shots for the second-straight game. Bucknor made a season-high eight field goals and hit two 3-pointers, his 10th time in the last 11 games that he connected on multiple treys. Bucknor had eight rebounds and hit his only free throw attempt and has made 22-of-24 (.917) from the foul line this season. Richmond, which has struggled out of the gate in each game this season, trailed 20-6 with 10:28 left in the first half when the Spiders went on a 16-2 surge that included 11 unanswered points.

7 #5 Louisville 53, Richmond 45
Dec. 5, 2005 ▶ Louisville, Ky.

Richmond led No. 5 ranked Louisville for the first 32 minutes Monday night - holding double-digit leads in both halves - but Taquan Dean came to the rescue as the Cardinals overtook the Spiders 53-45 before 18,491 fans at Freedom Hall. Even after Louisville (4-0) erased a 10-point second-half deficit and had the crowd in a frenzy, the Spiders didn't give in. Richmond trailed by just four points with 22 seconds left, but couldn't get any closer. Richmond held its opponent to under 60 points for the seventh-straight game to start the season, the longest such stretch since the John Beilein coached Spiders' held the opposition to under 60 points for seven games in 2001-02. Louisville's 53 points were the least the Cardinals have scored in a game in Freedom Hall in the five seasons Pitino has been their coach. Richmond senior Kevin Steenberge led the Spiders in scoring for the fourth-straight game with 15 points, including a career-high three 3-pointers. He also tied a career high with five blocks, including four coming on Dean. Senior Jermaine Bucknor scored 10 points to reach double figures in scoring for the ninth time in his last 10 games dating back to last season. He hit two 3-pointers, giving him multiple treys in 10 of his last 11 games. Richmond, which is very inexperienced in the backcourt, was expected to have trouble against Pitino's pressure, but the Spiders handled Louisville's press extremely well. The Spiders did finish with 18 turnovers, but several were unforced and most of the others came while running the half-court offense. The Spiders had their offense working right from the start as they jumped out to a 9-2 lead on a 3-pointer by Jarhon Giddings and then back-to-back 3s from Steenberge. Bucknor made two free throws and then junior Gaston Moliva drove the lane and slammed a thunderous dunk to open up a 13-4 advantage. After Louisville closed to 13-8, Bucknor sank a 3-pointer for a 16-8 advantage and after the Cardinals' Brian Johnson hit 1-of-2 free throws, Steenberge hit his career-high third 3-pointer to open up a 19-9 advantage with 9:48 left in the half. Steenberge scored inside to beat the shot clock buzzer to give Richmond a 21-12 lead with 8:03 remaining in the half and the Spiders led 26-21 at the half. Richmond's offense worked to perfection starting the second half as junior Peter Thomas converted two back-door lay-ups and beat the Cardinals a third time - in the first four minutes of the half - only to get fouled and make both free throws.

Dec. 10, 2005 ▶ Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team made Virginia Commonwealth its eighth-straight opponent that hasn't scored 60 points - the longest stretch since 1946-47 - but the Spiders couldn't muster enough offense to capitalize in a 49-37 loss Saturday night in the Siegel Center. Coming off a near-upset of No. 5 ranked Louisville on Monday night, the Spiders had more trouble with VCU's defensive pressure as they committed a season-high 27 turnovers. Richmond (4-4) trailed from the start, but pulled within one point (34-33) midway through the second half. VCU answered with a 13-0 run to take a 47-33 lead with 6:27 left and that would be good enough to pull out the win in the inaugural Farm Bureau Insurance Black & Blue Classic. During the Rams 13-0 spurt, Mooney was issued a technical foul. For the second time this season, Richmond did not have a player in double figures. Senior Kevin Steenberge led the Spiders with eight points and, while junior Gaston Moliva had six point and six rebounds. Junior Peter Thomas also had six points for Richmond. Senior Jermaine Bucknor was held to a season-low five points, just the second times in eight games he did not reach double figures. Nick George led VCU (4-2) with 13 points and Alexander Harper added 12. Richmond did hold the Rams to 36-percent shooting and out-rebounded VCU by a 34-23 margin. This was the first time this season that the Spiders held an opponent to under 50 points and did not come away with the victory. The eight-game stretch of holding the opposition under 60 points is the longest such streak for Richmond since the 1946-47 season. The Spiders go into exam break leading the nation in scoring defense, holding opponents to just 50.5 points per game.

RICHMOND BASKETBALL

9 Richmond 61, Old Dominion 58 Dec. 20, 2005 ► Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball raced out to leads of 17-0 and 21-2, weathered a second-half drought and then erupted for 15 points in overtime to take a 61-58 victory over Old Dominion on Tuesday night in the Robins Center. The Spiders (5-4), who lead the nation in scoring defense, held an Old Dominion (7-3) team coming off scoring 87 points against DePaul to just two points over the first 11 minutes of the game. Richmond led 30-17 at the half, but struggled to score in the second half with just 16 points in the second session. Then in overtime Richmond fell behind by four points early, but outscored Old Dominion 15-8 the rest of the way. Senior Kevin Steenberge scored eight of his 14 points in the final 1:23 of overtime, with two old-fashioned three-point plays and a dunk to lead the Spiders to victory. Richmond trailed 54-53 with under two minutes to play, but Steenberge took a pass from junior Gaston Moliva, scored on a lay-up and was fouled, making the free throw to give the Spiders a two-point lead. Old Dominion star Alex Loughton, who scored a game-high 22 points, tied the game with a lay-up with 1:02 left, but Richmond's offense got senior Jermaine Bucknor the ball at the top of the key and what happened next couldn't have been drawn up any better. Bucknor, who had hit five 3-pointers on the night, couldn't get a shot off, but he found sophomore Oumar Sylla just below the foul line. Sylla had cut there and was wide open, so he drew a defender from the baseline, leaving Steenberge wide open for a monster dunk and a 58-56 lead with 33 seconds left. After Old Dominion's Isaiah Hunter missed a jumper to tie, Richmond junior Gaston Moliva came up with the rebound and called timeout before going out-of-bounds. On the ensuing in-bound play with six seconds left, junior Peter Thomas hit Steenberge going deep for a fast-break lay-up and the foul, icing the game. Senior Jermaine Bucknor tied a season-high with 19 points, including a clutch 3-pointer with 3:06 remaining that gave Richmond its first lead of overtime. Bucknor tied a career-high with five 3-point field goals. Sophomore Drew Crank chipped in with eight points, making 3-of-7 field goals, all with under three seconds on the shot clock. Richmond's defense held Old Dominion to 16 field goals and 29.6-percent shooting from field.

10 #22 Wake Forest 47, Richmond 40 Dec. 22, 2005 ► Richmond, Va.

No. 22 Wake Forest held off a second-half rally by Richmond for a 47-40 victory Thursday night. The Demon Deacons (9-2) struggled against the stingiest defense in Division I, shooting just 30 percent against the Spiders' matchup zone. Richmond has held all 10 of its opponents under 60 points and entered the game giving up just 51.3 per game. Richmond came back from a 17-point first-half deficit to tie the game late in the second half and only trailed by three (43-40) in the final minute before Wake's Justin Gray connected on 4-of-4 free throws down the stretch. Gray scored 21 points and Eric Williams added 13 to lead Wake Forest. Richmond sophomore Oumar Sylla had nine points, including three 3-pointers for the Spiders. Richmond was 2-of-17 from the field over the first 16:29 as Wake Forest built a 21-4 lead with the help of a four-point play by Gray and a three-point play by Michael Drum. But Richmond closed the half with a 10-0 run, to make it 21-14 at the break. Richmond tied the game at 34 on a 3-pointer by Sylla with just over six minutes left, but two free throws put Wake ahead to stay. Williams hit both ends of a 1-and-1 before Sylla hit another 3 to cut the lead to 38-37. Richmond's Jermaine Bucknor, who was only 1-of-13 from the field, missed a 3-pointer that would have put the Spiders ahead. Gray then hit a 3 to make it 41-37. Trent Strickland hit two free throws for Wake, but a 3-pointer by Drew Crank of Richmond made it 43-40.

11 Tulane 64, Richmond 41 Dec. 27, 2005 ► New Orleans, La.

Quincy Davis scored 20 points to lead Tulane to a 64-41 victory over Richmond in the Green Wave's first game back in its home city on Tuesday night. The game drew an energetic crowd of 1,682 to cozy, on-campus Fogelman Arena and the cheers even drowned out the referees' whistles at one point. Matt Wheaton added a career-high 13 points for Tulane (3-6), which was displaced to the campus of Texas A&M for early-season practices and games because of damage done to New Orleans by Hurricane Katrina. "This is just what we needed. We needed to be home in the friendly confines of our arena, in our city and at our school," said first-year Tulane coach Dave Dickerson. "This is only one game, but its a special game for our school and our players." Tulane became the first team this season to score 60 points against defensive-minded Richmond (5-6), which came into the game allowing 50.9 points per game. Jarhon Giddings led Richmond with 13 points. Tulane used a 13-0 run to close out the first half with a 34-16 lead. The Green Wave then held Richmond to just five points in the first 11:41 of the second half. Davis scored eight points during that same span as Tulane built a lead as large as 48-21. "We need him to play well. Our players look for him," Dickerson said. "For him to have 20 points and shoot 8-of-13 is a good start." The Spiders hit four three-pointers in the final eight minutes, but could not get closer than 20 as Richmond finished the game shooting only 29 percent from the field. Tulane hit 47 percent of its shots and outscored Richmond 19-4 from the free throw line.

12 Richmond 52, William & Mary 50 Dec. 31, 2005 ► Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team led by as many as nine in the first half, but then had to come-from-behind to take a 52-50 win over William & Mary on Saturday in the Robins Center. Richmond regained the lead on a baby hook in the lane by junior Monty Sanders with 3:46 remaining and then clung to a one-point, 49-48 edge with under a minute to play. Junior Gaston Moliva took the ball to the basket, missed a contested shot inside, but got his own rebound and put it back to give Richmond a 51-48 lead. William & Mary's Corey Cofield got a quick lay-up at the other end to pull the Tribe within one again with 15 seconds left, but senior Jermaine Bucknor made 1-of-2 free throws and Brian Hutt missed a jumper to tie the game at the buzzer. Red-shirt Freshman Jarhon Giddings and Bucknor each hit three first-half 3-pointers as Richmond led 30-25 at the break. Giddings scored all of his team-high 11 points in the first half and Bucknor also finished with 11 points. Sanders scored eight points and Moliva finished with seven. Richmond shot 50-percent from the field in the first half and 50-percent from 3-point land (7-of-14). Richmond led by as many as nine on two occasions, including at 30-21 with 1:48 to play in the half, but William & Mary scored two baskets before the break and then opened the second half with six straight points. That 10-0 run gave William & Mary a 31-30 lead and the Tribe would take a 38-34 advantage with 12:49 remaining on two free throws by Adam Payton. Sophomore Oumar Sylla broke a long field-goal drought for the Spiders with a steal and a fast-break lay-up to put Richmond up 39-38 with 10:10 to play. William & Mary answered with a jumper by Calvin Baker and an old-fashioned three-point play by Cofield to lead 43-39 with 8:59 left. That's when the Richmond defense stepped up and held the Tribe to just one field goal and a foul shot for the next eight minutes.

13 Richmond 74, Longwood 60 Jan. 2, 2006 ► Richmond, Va.

Seniors Jermaine Bucknor and Kevin Steenberger scored 17 points apiece and Richmond scored a season-high for points in a 74-60 victory over Longwood on Monday in the Robins Center. Richmond scored a season-high 42 points in the paint and hit seven 3-pointers to lead by as many as 17 points on the way to its seventh victory of the season. And Bucknor hit three of his five attempts from behind the arc, the second-straight game that he has hit three treys. Giddings made 2-of-3 shots from behind the 3-point arc, both coming in the opening minutes of the second half. The Spiders, who are 7-6, have the most victories entering conference play since joining the Atlantic 10 for the 2001-02 season. Junior Peter Thomas just missed a double-double with 11 points and a career-high nine assists, against just one turnover. The Spiders dished out a season best 21 assists. Giddings, sophomore Monty Sanders and freshman Duncan McLean each handed out two assists. Richmond opened up a 28-14 lead in the first half, but Longwood closed the gap to 35-29 by the break. The Spiders then opened the second half on a 14-6 run and didn't allow the lead to go below double-digits the rest of the way. Bucknor and Giddings each hit two 3-pointers in the first 3:17 of the second half and junior Peter Thomas added a lay-up to give Richmond a 49-35 lead with 15:57 to play. The Spiders made a season-high 30 field goals and shot a season-best 57.7 percent from the field and season-best 53.8 percent from 3. Richmond's defense gave up 60 points for just the second time this season, but have still held 12 of 13 opponents to 60 points or less. No team has scored 65 points against the Spiders, who lead the nation in fewest points allowed per game (52.5 ppg).

14 La Salle 67, Richmond 56 Jan. 7, 2006 ► Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond couldn't overcome a 10-point first-half deficit in a 67-56 loss to La Salle on Saturday night in the Spiders 2006 Atlantic 10 opener. The Spiders were going for their 300th win in the Robins Center, but fell behind 35-25 at the half and trailed by 13 early in the second half. The Spiders then pulled to within one point with 11 minutes to play, but La Salle would pull away in the closing minutes to improve to 10-2 and 2-0 in conference play. Richmond's defense, which led the nation up until one week ago and hadn't given up 60 points through its first 10 games, has now allowed 60 points or more in three of the last four games. Richmond junior Gaston Moliva scored a season-high 14 points, one short of his career high, by making a perfect 5-of-5 shots from the field. He also grabbed eight rebounds, had two assists and two blocks. Junior Peter Thomas tied a career-high with 13 points, making 5-of-7 shots, including 2-of-3 from behind the arc. Richmond dropped to 7-7 overall and 0-1 in the conference as the Spiders lost their Atlantic 10 opener for the second-straight year. Richmond had won its first three league openers. La Salle star Steven Smith was held to 14 points, seven points below his average, but the Explorers had three other players reach double figures. Darnell Harris led La Salle with 15 points, making 4-of-7 treys. Marshall Taylor and Mike St. John each had 11 points. The two teams shot similar from the field with La Salle making 22-of-51 (.431) and Richmond shooting 21-of-50 (.420). La Salle made eight 3-pointers compared to six for Richmond and the Explorers were 15-of-22 on free throws, while Richmond made just 8-of-17. Richmond led 7-4 four minutes into the game, but La Salle went on a 15-3 run to take a 19-10 lead and then extended that to a 21-6 run over seven minutes to take a 25-13 advantage. The Spiders fought back to pull within six at 26-20 with 5:24 left on a 3-pointer by Thomas, but La Salle would take a 35-25 lead into the locker room.

15 Richmond 62, Duquesne 48 Jan. 11, 2006 ► Richmond, Va.

Richmond used a 14-2 run to open the second half and led by as many as 17 points on the way to a 62-48 victory over Duquesne on Wednesday night in the Palumbo Center. Seniors Jermaine Bucknor and Kevin Steenberge each scored 12 points, while juniors Gaston Moliva and Peter Thomas scored 11 apiece. It was the first time this season that Richmond (8-7, 1-1 Atlantic 10) had four players reach double figures. Sophomore Oumar Sylla just missed a double-double with nine points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The Spiders couldn't shake the Dukes in a battle of undermanned teams. Duquesne (2-12, 0-3 Atlantic 10) dressed just eight players due to injuries and academic issues. Richmond is down to just 10 players in uniform, including seven scholarship players, due to injuries. Sophomore Jarhon Giddings, who had started every game before tonight, could be out for the rest of the season. Moliva stepped in for Giddings and played a career-high 35 minutes in his first start of the season and the 11th of his career. Moliva reached double-figures for the second-straight game and made his first-career 3-pointer. Bucknor made three 3-pointers on his way to 12 points. He also grabbed five rebounds and tied a career-high with five assists. Bryant McAllister led Duquesne with 19 points, but he was the only Duke to reach double figures. Richmond held Duquesne to just 26.7 percent shooting in the second half. Richmond led 30-28 at halftime but opened the second half with a quick 14-2 run over just 4:02 to open up a 44-30 lead. Moliva scored inside off a nice feed from Steenberge and then Moliva muscled his way inside on Richmond's next possession, his lay-up bounced out, but Steenberge was there for the tip-in. Bucknor found Steenberge on the baseline for a thunderous two-hand dunk and the foul. Steenberge made the free throw for a 37-28 lead and then Thomas would go on a 7-0 run of his own. Thomas converted an old-fashioned 3-point play on a fast-break lay-up, coming off a nifty no-look pass from Bucknor. Two consecutive back-door lay-ups, including an alley-oop from Bucknor made it 44-30. Duquesne was able to get the gap down to nine points three times, the last of which came at 49-40 with 9:59 to play. That's when Richmond's defense really stepped up, holding the Dukes to four points in eight minutes, including a five-minute scoring drought as the lead grew to 17 points with 2:16 to play.

16 Richmond 58, Dayton 50 Jan. 14, 2006 ► Richmond, Va.

Senior Jermaine Bucknor tied a career-high with five 3-pointers, including a clutch trey with 52 seconds left that gave the University of Richmond men's basketball team the lead for good in the Spiders' 300th victory in the Robins Center, a 58-50 win over Dayton on Saturday afternoon. The Spiders improved to 9-7 overall and 2-1 in the Atlantic 10, their best three-game conference start since opening 2-1 in 2002-03. Bucknor scored a season-high 21 points, just one short of his career high and hit five 3-pointers in a game for the second time this season and the third time in his career. It was Bucknor's eighth game this year with at least three 3-pointers. Richmond is 7-1 in those games. Bucknor's 3-pointer in the final minute got the lead back for the Spiders, but his fourth trey of the afternoon was also clutch. The senior hit a fade-away 3-pointer off the dribble to beat the shot clock buzzer and put Richmond up 41-37 with 7:05 to play. Richmond scored 42 points in the second half, the most the Spiders have scored in a half this season, including 13 in the final minute. Richmond took a 38-37 lead on two free throws by Bucknor with 7:58 and held the lead until Dayton's Brian Roberts completed a three-point play to put the Flyers up 46-45 with 1:07 remaining. That's when Bucknor buried his fifth 3-pointer of the game to put Richmond up 48-46. The Spiders then made 10-straight free throws to ice the win. The Spiders, who lead the nation in scoring defense (53.0 ppg), held Dayton (8-9, 0-3) to 35.8 percent shooting. Richmond did give up 20 offensive rebounds, but even after giving the Flyers a second chance, the Spiders defense kept coming up with stops. Dayton's Roberts led all scorers with 28 points, making 10-of-22 shots from the field, including four 3-pointers. Richmond led by five after a bucket by sophomore Monty Sanders with 5:17 to play, but Dayton tied the game at 43-43 with 3:47 to play. Sanders, who made all three of his field goal attempts, scored again inside to give the Spiders a 45-43 lead with 3:28 to play, but Roberts' three-point play put Dayton up 46-45 with 1:07 remaining. That's when Richmond got the ball to Bucknor on the right wing and the senior put the Spiders up for good.

17 Richmond 65, Saint Louis 54 Jan. 18, 2006 ▶ Richmond, Va.

Senior Jermaine Bucknor scored a career-high 24 points, while fellow senior Kevin Steenberge made a career-high four 3-pointers on his way to 18 points in the University of Richmond's 65-54 victory over Saint Louis on Wednesday night in the Robins Center. The win was Richmond's third-straight and fifth victory in the last six games as the Spiders improved to 10-7 overall and 3-1 in the Atlantic 10 Conference. Richmond led by as many as 15 points in the first half, Saint Louis (8-8, 2-2 Atlantic 10) came back to take a three-point lead midway through the second half, but the Spiders regained control and led by as many as 12 in the final minutes. Bucknor made three 3-pointers and Steenberge made 4-of-6 from behind the arc - all from the top of the key - as the seniors accounted for seven of Richmond's season-high 10 3-pointers. Steenberge also tied a career-high with four assists and five blocks. Richmond led 30-15 with four minutes to play in the first half, looking like they were ready to cruise to their third-straight victory, but Saint Louis closed the first half with an 8-2 run to trail 32-23 at the break. The Billikens then opened the second half on a 10-2 spurt to give them a combined 18-4 run over 11 minutes and pull within one point at 34-33 with 12:51 to play. Bucknor came up with a steal and a fast-break dunk to give Richmond a 37-33 lead, but Saint Louis center Ian Vouyoukas scored to cut the gap to one point again and then Danny Brown buried a 3-pointer to give the Billikens their first lead of the game at 38-36 with 10:08 left. Bucknor made two free throws, but Brown sank another 3-pointer top open up a 41-38 advantage with 9:10 to play. Bucknor made 1-of-2 free throws to make it a two-point game with eight minutes left, but the Billikens looked like they had taken the momentum away from the Spiders. Enter Steenberge, who had already sank two 3-pointers in the first half. The 6-foot-11 center found himself open twice in the span of three possessions at the top of the key and both times he found nothing but the bottom of the net as the Spiders quickly regained the lead at 45-43. Junior Peter Thomas made it three out of four trips with a trey when he sank a 3-pointer from a few feet beyond the arc as Richmond opened up a 48-43 advantage.

18 URI 58, Richmond 46 Jan. 21, 2006 ▶ Kingston, R.I.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team lost to Rhode Island 58-46 on Saturday night in the Ryan Center. The loss snapped a three-game winning streak for the Spiders. Richmond, which had made at least six 3-pointers in its last nine games, connected on just four 3-pointers in the game. The Spiders were tied with the Rams 36-36 midway through the second half, but a 16-3 run by Rhode Island proved too much to overcome for Richmond. The Spiders dropped to 10-8 overall and 3-2 in the Atlantic 10, while Rhode Island won its fourth-straight to improve to 10-6, 4-1 in the Atlantic 10. Senior Jermaine Bucknor was Richmond's high-scorer with 13 points, while Kevin Steenberge added 11 for the Spiders. Rhode Island's Dawan Robinson scored 26 points as the Rams won their fourth consecutive game. Robinson scored eight points during a 12-1 run late in the game that turned a 40-38 lead into a 52-39 lead. He scored six straight at one point and his basket with 3:02 left gave the Rams (10-6, 4-1 Atlantic 10) a 50-39 lead. Richmond (10-8, 3-2) was cold from the floor in the second half, making just six of 29 shots and going longer than seven minutes without a field goal at one point. Rhode Island outscored Richmond 21-12 from the foul line. The Rams scored 14 of their 28 first-half points on offensive rebounds. Robinson hit a long 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer to give Rhode Island a 28-25 lead at the break. There were three ties and four lead changes in the first half. The Spiders opened up a four-point lead with 16:28 left on a three-point play by Gaston Moliva, but could not pull away. The Spiders' last season was 36-35 after a free throw by Drew Crank with 11:46 to play. Richmond has a week off before hosting Charlotte on Saturday night at 7 p.m. in the Robins Center.

19 Richmond 63, Charlotte 56 Jan. 28, 2006 ▶ Richmond, Va.

The University of Richmond men's basketball team never trailed and led by as many as 10 points in a 63-56 win over Charlotte on Saturday night before 5,729 fans in the Robins Center. Richmond won for the fourth time in the last five games and the sixth time in eight contests to improve to 11-8 overall and 4-2 in the Atlantic 10, good for third place in the conference. Charlotte (11-8, 4-3 Atlantic 10), which has made the NCAA Tournament seven of the last nine years, was picked to finish second in the conference's preseason poll and had won six-straight road games. Senior Jermaine Bucknor tied a career high with five 3-pointers - for the third time this season - and scored 23 points to lead three Spiders in double figures. Senior Kevin Steenberge scored 12 points, grabbed six rebounds, had a career-high five assists and three steals, and blocked three shots. Sophomore Oumar Sylla scored a career-high 10 points and dished out four assists. The Spiders used a 14-6 run midway through the first half to take a 26-18 lead and enjoyed a 32-26 advantage at the half. The game remained close for most of the second half, but the Spiders opened up a 49-40 lead after two free throws by Steenberge with 6:11 to play. Charlotte cut the gap to five (51-46) with 4:42 to play, but two free throws by Bucknor and two from Oumar Sylla pushed the lead back to nine at 55-46 with 4:40 left. After the 49ers cut the gap to six, Steenberge hit a three pointer for the third-straight game. Charlotte missed a 3-pointer, Steenberge was fouled and he made 1-of-2 free throws to give Richmond its largest lead of the game at 59-49 with 1:11 remaining.

20 Fordham 63, Richmond 45 Feb. 5, 2006 ▶ Bronx, N.Y.

University of Richmond senior Jermaine Bucknor scored 20 points, but the Spiders suffered a 63-45 loss to Fordham on Wednesday night in the Bronx. The Spiders had trouble with Fordham's pressure defense in scoring just 45 points, Richmond's lowest point-total since a Dec. 22 loss to Tulane. "They were very aggressive, they pressured us throughout the game, they really bothered us," Richmond head coach Chris Mooney said. "They had a great game plan and they played very well. They got us out of what we were trying to do and kept us from getting any kind of rhythm going." Richmond junior Peter Thomas added 10 points for the Spiders, who dropped to 11-9 overall and 4-3 in the Atlantic 10. Thomas hit a 3-pointer to pull Richmond within four at 19-15, but Fordham (9-11, 4-3) used an 11-2 run to take control. Jermaine Anderson scored 15 points and became the 30th Fordham player to reach 1,000 for his career. Marcus Stout led the Rams (9-11, 4-3 Atlantic 10) with 17 points and Kevin Anderson added 10. Nick Vita's layup closed the Fordham surge and Stout scored seven during the run. A layup by Thomas cut Fordham's lead to 35-28 at 15:38 of the second half, but Jermaine Anderson tallied six points in a 9-2 run that boosted the Rams' advantage to 44-33. Anderson had a pair of free throws to finish off the spurt. "Fordham, tonight, was the most impressive team we've played in the Atlantic 10 so far," Mooney said. "They have three losses, so it's obviously a balanced league."

21 #10 GW 80, Richmond 55
Feb. 5, 2006 ▶ Washington, D.C.

George Washington played the way it wanted to and patient Richmond couldn't keep up. The 10th-ranked Colonials, who average over 80 points per game, got the tempo going their way early and beat Richmond 80-55 on Sunday. The Spiders entered the game second in the nation in scoring defense at 54.0 points per game but George Washington used its defense to set the tone. Pops Mensah-Bonsu and Danilo Pinnock each scored 16 points and Mike Hall added 15 for George Washington (18-1, 8-0 Atlantic 10), which won its 10th straight and moved within one win of matching the best start in the program's history. Kevin Steenberge lead the Spiders (11-10, 4-4) with 15 points and 10 rebounds for his third-career double-double. Senior Jermaine Bucknor scored 12 points, all coming in the second half. Junior Gaston Moliva also reached double-figures with 10 points and grabbed seven rebounds. The Colonials took control with a 19-4 first-half run and they dictated the pace to the Spiders by pressuring them at both ends of the court. The Colonials forced 14 first-half turnovers that lead to 12 points, most of them in transition. The Spiders finished with 22 turnovers and shot 37 percent from the field while the Colonials' balanced attack shot 52 percent led by Mensah-Bonsu's 7-of-8. Mensah-Bonsu and Hall keyed the 19-4 run midway through the first half that put the Colonials comfortably ahead and they lead 33-18 at halftime. Jermaine Bucknor, the Spiders' leading scorer, picked up two fouls in the opening minute and didn't score in the first half. Spurred on by a sellout crowd of 5,000, the Colonials continued to apply pressure to the Spiders in the opening moments of the second half.
