

General Fan Conduct Policy

The University of Richmond promotes good sportsmanship by student-athletes, coaches and spectators. We request the cooperation of all patrons in supporting all participants in a positive manner and in creating an environment where all can enjoy the competition.

Visiting student-athletes, coaches, support personnel, fans, and game officials are guests of the University of Richmond. Game Operations Staff will proactively intervene and reserve the right to remove individuals from the competition site for exhibiting unruly or harassing behaviors. These behaviors include, but are not inclusive of:

- Profanity
- Intimidating actions
- Obscene or indecent clothing
- Obscene gestures
- Abusive language
- Throwing of objects

Derogatory comments directed towards officials, student-athletes, coaches, team representatives, university employees and fans regarding race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression and national or ethnic origin will not be tolerated and will be grounds for removal from the site of competition.

Intoxicated patrons, or patrons showing signs of impairment related to alcohol or other proscribed substances will be removed from the venue.

Our Game Operations Staff reserves the right to determine what is unruly or unacceptable behavior; therefore, warranting removal from the venue.

Patrons in violation of these policies are subject to removal from the event, arrest and prosecution under the applicable laws and statutes, and could forfeit the right to ticket privileges. Students who violate are subject to university disciplinary procedures and/or loss of ticket privileges for future athletic events.

Please seek assistance from a member of the Game Operations Staff, if patrons are violating our policies or interfere with your ability to enjoy our facility.

