Richmond SPIDERS (4-13, 2-3) vs VCU RAMS (11-7, 3-2)

SPIDERS STARTERS

- This will be the 43rd straight season the Spiders face cross-town rival VCU, making this Richmond's longest-running active series. It's more than twice as long as the Spiders next longest active series: 18 straight seasons with meetings against Dayton, George Washington and UMass.
- This will be the 80th meeting between the schools, making VCU one of nine opponents the Spiders have faced at least 80 times.
- Freshman Grant Golden scored 24 points in Saturday's win against George Washington, the fifth time he's scored at least 24 points this season. All other A-10 freshmen have combined for six games with at least 24 points. Across Division I, Golden is one of just seven freshmen to reach the 24-point mark at least five times this year.
- As a team, the Spiders totaled a season-best 44 points in the paint against GW, tied for their most in any game over the last two seasons (44 vs Davidson on February 21, 2017).
- Against GW, all five Richmond starters scored in double figures for a third time this season. 2017-18 is the first season since 1997-98 that the Spiders have had three games with all starters scoring 10 or more points.
- Richmond's scoring is evenly distributed, with five players averaging between 10 and 15 points per game. The Spiders are one of just eight schools with five players averaging more than 10 and fewer than 15 points per game this year.
- Jacob Gilyard is averaging 10.6 points, 3.6 assists, and 2.5 steals per game this season. The last freshman to average 10 points, 3.5 assists and 2.5 steals per game for a full season was Marcus Smart for Oklahoma State in 2012-13.
- Overall, 75 percent of Richmond's points have been scored by freshmen or sophomores. That's the 17th-highest rate of scoring from freshmen or sophomores of any team in DI.

SCOUTING REPORT

VCU enters Wednesday's game coming off a 106-79 loss to Dayton on Saturday, just four days after the Flyers beat Richmond 87-81.

The Rams are led by preseason first-team All-Atlantic 10 selection Justin Tillman. The senior averages a team-best 18.2 points and 9.6 rebounds per game and leads the conference with nine double-doubles this season. Fellow senior Jonathan Williams leads VCU and the A-10 with 6.1 assists per game.

The Rams, who finished second in the A-10 a year ago, were picked to finish fourth in the conference in the A-10's preseason poll.

PITTSBURGH - In a rivalry game that featured momentum shifts, lead changes, big shots and a dramatic final minute, the Richmond Spiders came up just short to VCU in overtime, 87-77.

The Spiders overcame an 11-point first half deficit to build a six-point lead in the second half. Freshman Nick Sherod hit a three-pointer to break a tie with less than a minute to play, but VCU's JeQuan Lewis hit a three on the other end and Richmond's potential game-winning shot in regulation fell out.

Richmond outscored VCU, 19-7, in points off turnovers and was also able to get out and run with a 15-11 in fast-break points. However, VCU used its size against a Spider lineup with just one player over 6-4 to outscore the Spiders in the paint and on second-chance points.

Freshman De'Monte Buckingham scored a career-high 26 points on 9-of-14 shooting with four threes. He also had three assists and a steal. Sherod finished with 15 points and six rebounds, many of them against the bigger VCU forwards.

Khwan Fore (13), ShawnDre' Jones (11) and T.J. Cline (10) all reached double figures as Fore tallied five assists and nine rebounds.

Although Richmond trailed by as many as 11 in the first half, a jumper from Cline, a forced turnover and a three Buckingham in the final 40 seconds of the first frame gave UR life and cut the halftime margin to 36-31.

Richmond opened the second half on a 7-2 run to tie the game on a Buckingham three-pointer and eventually grabbed a one-point lead on a floater from Jones. Free throws from Fore put Richmond up 57-51, but VCU responded with six straight points from Samir Doughty to tie the game.

The Rams went ahead 64-60 with 4:21 left, but consecutive transition layups from Sherod and Buckingham tied the game. Both teams traded points down the stretch and the Spiders had the ball with less than a minute and a tie game.

Sherod's three exploded the Spider cheering section and Richmond led by three with 35 seconds left. However, Lewis answered with his own three and Jones' shot at the buzzer spilled out.

In the overtime period, VCU scored the first six points and Richmond was unable to get threes to fall to climb back as the Rams eventually won, 87-77.

Going Young

The Spiders are expected to start a redshirt junior (Fore), two sophomores (Buckingham and Sherod), a redshirt freshman (Golden), and a true freshman (Gilyard).

Richmond has just two players on its roster in their final year of eligibility (Kirby, Madrid-Andrews), second-fewest in the A-10 behind George Mason.

One of the reasons for the Spiders youth movement is the spring 2017 graduation of T.J. Cline and ShawnDre' Jones, the eighth and 10th leading scorers in program history, respectively. Richmond is the only team in Division I this season to lose two of the top 10 scorers in school history.

In the season opener against Delaware, with Solly Stansbury starting for the injured Khwan Fore, it was the first time the Spiders had no seniors in the starting lineup for their first game of the season since 1999, when three juniors and two sophomores started in a season-opening loss to Fordham.

The Spiders Offense

Coach Mooney's offensive system relies on all five players on the court constantly moving through a series of cuts, screens, hand-offs, etc. Richmond coaches embrace the concept of "position-less basketball," where each player could be asked to handle the ball, set screens, shoot three-pointers, and play in the post (potentially on the same possession). The offense, which features many similarities to the offenses run by the Golden State Warriors and Houston Rockets in the NBA, consistently produces a high-scoring attack defined by efficient shooting and standout passing. Last year, the Spiders were one of nation's top teams in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio.

The Spiders are also frequently one of the nation's top shooting teams. Richmond could become the first school to ever lead the conference in shooting percentage in three straight seasons in 2017-18.

De'Monte Buckingham

Buckingham is the Spiders most prominent returning player in 2017-18 following a freshman campaign last season that ended with A-10 Rookie of the Year honors.

Buckingham joined Kendall Anthony (2012) and Kevin Anderson (2008) as the only Spiders to be named the top first-year player in the A-10. Anthony (fourth) and Anderson (second) both rank in the top five on the Spiders all-time scoring list.

Prior to his sophomore season, Buckingham was selected to the Preseason All-Atlantic 10 Second Team. He is the only non-senior on either the first or second teams. The last Spider to earn first or second team all-conference honors as a sophomore was Kevin Anderson in 2009 (Second Team All-A-10).

Buckingham was the Spiders fourth-leading scorer a season ago (10.5 PPG) and finished second on the team in rebounds (5.6 RPG). He also ranked fourth in scoring and second in rebounding among all A-10 freshmen.

In addition to earning preseason accolades from the conference, Buckingham was one of 21 players selected to the Watch List for the Julius Erving Award, given annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame to the nation's top small forward.

- Snap a six-game losing streak against VCU, beating the Rams for the first time since 2/25/15
 - Win their first true road game of the year and snap a six-game road losing streak dating back to last season
 - Win consecutive games for the first time this year
 - Improve to 3-3 in their last six games following a 2-10 start

December 19 against Bucknell, Buckingham led or tied for the team lead in points (22), rebounds (eight), assists (five), blocks (two), and steals (two). He became just the third Spider to lead the team in each of those categories over the last 15 years.

Redshirt junior Khwan Fore missed the first three games of the season while recovering from a stress reaction in his left tibia (shin) suffered in October.

Fore is the Spiders leading returning scorer after averaging 11.2 points per game as a redshirt sophomore in 2016-17. An efficient scorer who likes to get to the basket, Fore ranked second on the team with a .507 field goal percentage last season, the second-best mark for any player in Division I standing 6'0" or shorter.

Fore rarely left the court last season, averaging 33.9 minutes per game and playing 1,187 minutes, fourth-most in the conference.

With a vertical leap approaching 45 inches, Fore is perhaps the best athlete on the team. His highlight-reel dunks have been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 and are a central theme of many local news highlights and team videos.

In October, Fore was listed as the A-10's 22nd-best player by A10Talk.com.

Nick Sherod

Sherod scored a career-high 22 points and matched a career high with nine rebounds in the Spiders win over Davidson on December 30. Sherod was perfect after halftime, hitting both of his two-point field goal attempts, both of his three-point field goal attempts, and all three of his foul shots.

In a tight game, the Spiders want the ball in Sherod's hands. Sherod turned the ball over just 16 times in 754 minutes on the court last season, the second lowest turnover rate of any player in the A-10 last season.

Sherod also made 22 of his 26 free-throw attempts last season, giving him the team's best free-throw percentage (.846).

Local Legends

Nick Sherod and De'Monte Buckingham are both Richmond natives who were making headlines across the region before they became Spiders. Sherod finished his high school career at St. Christopher's School - located about one mile east of the Robins Center - with 2,815 points, the highest recorded total in the history of Virginia high school athletics. Following his senior season in 2016, Sherod was named Metro Player of the Year by the Richmond Times-Dispatch, the same award won by Buckingham in 2015. All-Metro Player of the Year was just part of the accolades earned by Buckingham following his junior year at Henrico High School, located about 10 miles northeast of the Robins Center. Buckingham was also named 5A State Player of the Year after he led Henrico to its second state championship in three seasons.

ALONG CAME A SPIDER

Three years ago, Richmond made history as it became the first D-I college basketball program to bring a live spider onto the court before games. Nicknamed "Tarrant" after UR's Hall of Fame coach, the live tarantula has grown to almost five inches in full length. She's a Venezuelan blue tarantula with a diet of crickets and has a perch from the scorer's table during pregame and behind the home bench during play. A number of national media outlets covered her unveiling, while NCAA.com recently named her college basketball's scariest mascot in honor of Halloween.

The Robins Center has a pair of sections devoted to the Spiders two local stars.

Fans to the right of the basket in front of Richmond's bench are sitting in "Buckingham's Palace" - where everyone is given a complimentary headband to wear during the game.

Fans under the video board in the northeast corner of the building sit in an area reserved for the "Sherod Squad".

Jacob Gilyard

Gilyard averaged better than 33 points per game at Kansas City's Barstow School last season en route to being named Missouri's Class 3 Player of the Year and winning the DiRenna Award as the Kansas City area's top high school basketball player. Gilyard owns the school scoring record after recording 50 points in a game last December, a mark he matched later in the season.

January 9 against Dayton, Gilyard registered six steals and five assists while not committing a turnover. His six steals were tied for fifth-most in a game in Spiders history, and he became the second player to have six steals, five assists, and no turnovers against a DI opponent this season (Darius Thompson, WKU - 12/22/17 at Austin Peay).

Gilyard sent the Robins Center into a frenzy against JMU on December 10 when he raced upcourt and drained a 25-footer with 0.4 seconds remaining to break a 71-71 tie. On JMU's final possession, Gilyard intercepted the inbound pass to seal the Spiders second win of the season. He finished with 23 points, the first time a Spiders true freshman scored at least 23 points that early in a season since 1998, when Charles Stephens scored 23 against Radford on November 28.

In his Spiders debut on 11/10 against Delaware, Gilyard scored 17 points, 15 of them after halftime, and registered a team-high four assists.

Grant Golden

While no single player can replace 2017 A-10 Player of the Year T.J. Cline, the player whose role in the Spiders offense might be the most similar to Cline's this season is Golden.

Golden showed promise in limited minutes before his freshman season was cut short due to a heart condition that caused him to collapse during a game vs Texas Tech on December 17 last year. Golden had a procedure five days later to correct an accelerated heart rate and was subsequently granted a medical redshirt by the NCAA.

Golden has added at least 20 pounds to his 6'10" frame since his surgery.

On November 13 against Jacksonville State, Golden set or tied career highs in points (13), rebounds (six), assists (four), and blocks (two) and became just the third Spider to lead the team in each of those categories in a game over the last 15 years and the first since T.J. Cline. (De'Monte Buckingham accomplished the same feat against Bucknell on December 19.)

In his next game, Golden exploded for 26 points - doubling his previous career high - in a win against UAB. Against the Blazers, Golden became the first player in the nation to register at least 26 points, seven rebounds and two assists in a game this season.

Two games later against Louisiana in the third-place game at the Cayman Islands Classic, Golden was nearly as productive, finishing with 24 points and seven rebounds and locking up a spot on the all-tournament team.

Golden registered his first career double-double in the following game, finishing with 24 points and 10 rebounds, the first Spiders freshman to reach those figures in a game since Charles Stephens in 1998-99.

For his efforts against the Hoyas and in the Cayman Islands, Golden was named Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week on November 27.

The following month, Golden recorded back-to-back double-doubles against Boston College and Davidson, becoming the first Spiders freshman with consecutive double-doubles since Charles Stephens in 1998-99.

Solly Stansbury

Stansbury is expected to play a major role for the Spiders after sitting out last season due to NCAA requirements. Stansbury moved with his family to Europe following high school where he played three seasons with the Paris Levallois Under-21 team, averaging 8.3 points and 4.2 rebounds per game in 2015-16.

Stansbury moved from the starting lineup to the bench once Khwan Fore returned from his preseason shin injury. On December 6 at Old Dominion, Stansbury scored a career-high 12 points off the bench.

Stansbury's 12 points were tied with Grant Golden for the most on the team. It was the first time in Stansbury's career that he's led the team in scoring.

Julius Johnson

Johnson's experience will be a valuable asset to a young Spiders team this season. He's appeared in 78 career games, second most among active Spiders behind Khwan Fore. One of the team's top threats from three-point range, Johnson led the Spiders with 12 points on four three-point field goals January 3 at Fordham. It was the first time in his career he's led the team in scoring. It was the first time in his career he's led the team in scoring. He repeated the feat two games later, coming off the bench to score a team and career-high 17 points, including five three-pointers.

Johnson played a key part in the Spiders win over JMU on December 10, coming off the bench to finish with 11 points, five rebounds, and three steals, the first time a Spider had reached those marks off the bench since 2011 (Francis-Cedric Martel).

Newcomers

Eight of the 17 players on the Spiders roster are new to the program this season.

In addition to Gilyard, Nathan Cayo, a 6-foot-7 guard from Montreal, is also expected to be a part of the regular rotation. Overshadowed by a pair of more-prominent recruits on his AAU team, Cayo is a high leaper who can play above the rim who has seen his role increase as he continues to get more comfortable in the Spiders system.

Also in the rotation will be forward Jordan Madrid-Andrews, a graduate transfer who last played at Chicago State during the 2015-16 season. On July 30, 2016, Madrid-Andrews was a passenger in a serious car accident outside Denver in which his car flipped several times, leaving Madrid-Andrews with a broken jaw, ankle, and sternum. Unable to return in time for the basketball season, Madrid-Andrews petitioned the NCAA and was granted a sixth-year-waiver that will allow him to use his final year of eligibility this season. He graduated from Chicago State with a degree in marketing and is pursuing a graduate degree in Human Resources Management at Richmond.

Family Business

Several Spiders have family members who participated in college athletics.

Most notably, Solly Stansbury's father Terence won the A-10 Player of the Year Award following his senior season at Temple in 1984. The elder Stansbury was the 15th overall pick in that year's draft and played three seasons in the NBA before beginning a successful pro career overseas. Stansbury is remembered for star turns in the NBA's Slam Dunk Contest from 1985-87. He successfully performed the 360-degree Statue of Liberty dunk each year, a feat commemorated by his twitter handle: @360StatueofLibe.

Sophomore Nick Sherod is the son of E.J. Sherod who played basketball at ODU. Nick's grandfather, Edmund, was a Hall-of-Famer at VCU before playing for the New York Knicks.

Bryce Schneider's brother David was a two-time All-CAA selection at William & Mary who finished his career as sixth-leading scorer in school history. His father Jeff averaged 14.3 points per game as a senior at Virginia Tech in 1981-82 and was drafted by the Houston Rockets.

De'Monte Buckingham's brother Dazmond Starke played hoops at Idaho and Kentucky Wesleyan, earning All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honors at Wesleyan in 2013.

Phoenix Ford's brother Quincy was a second-team All-CAA selection at Northeastern in 2016 and spent time with both Utah Jazz and New Orleans Pelicans during the 2016-17 NBA season.

Jacob Gilyard's father Rodney is a member of Ottawa University's Athletics Hall of Fame and graduated as the school's all-time leader in assists and steals in 1992.

Grant Golden's father played at Fairfield University and he had two grandfathers that played collegiate football.

Freshman Jordan Gaitley is the son of Stephanie Gaitley, currently the head coach of the women's basketball team at Fordham University and the head coach of Richmond's women's team from 1985-91, when she amassed a 116-63 record over six seasons at the Robins Center. Gaitley also has two older brothers who played collegiately. His oldest brother Dutch is currently the Video Coordinator for the San Antonio Spurs.

Khwan Fore's mother ran track at Emporia State and Paul Friendshuh's mother played volleyball at UW-Eau Claire.

SPIDERS IN THE PROS

A pair of seniors from the 2016-17 team, T.J. Cline and ShawnDre' Jones, signed professional contracts after graduation.

Cline signed a contract with Galatasaray of the Turkan Premier League and then moved to Israel's Hapoel Halon. Jones signed with Trikala of the first tier of the Greek Basketball League.

They are the 17th and 18th Spiders to play professional basketball during the Chris Mooney era. At least one member of 11 of the last 12 graduating classes has gone on to play professionally.

While at least 10 former Spiders are currently playing professionally in international leagues, many UR athletes have found positions in the NBA.

2011 graduate Justin Harper, the 32nd overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft, appeared in three games for the Philadelphia 76ers during the 2016-17 season. Harper has also played for the Pistons and Magic during his NBA career.

Fellow 2011 graduate Dan Geriot current serves as Video Coordinator for the Cleveland Cavaliers, a position he held when the team won the franchise's only NBA championship in 2016.

Curtis Blair, who graduated from Richmond in 1992 and remains ninth on the Spiders all-time scoring list, is a referee in the NBA.

1990 graduate Kenny Atkinson enters his second season as the head coach of the Brooklyn Nets in 2017-18. Chris Fleming, a member of UR's class of 1993, is an assistant coach on Atkinson's staff.

Tony Dobbins, a Spiders captain in 2004, recently accepted a position as Assistant Video Coordinator for the Boston Celtics following a long playing career overseas.

CHRIS MOONEY

HEAD COACH
13th SEASON
PRINCETON, 1994

In 2017-18, head coach Chris Mooney is in his 13th season at the helm of the Richmond Spiders men's basketball program.

With a 225-175 record in his first 12 years at Richmond, Mooney is the second-winningest coach in school history and entered the season just 14 wins behind Dick Tarrant on the career list. He is the fourth longest-tenured coach in the Atlantic 10, trailing only Bob McKillop (Davidson), Phil Martelli (Saint Joseph's), and John Giannini (La Salle). Mooney ranks fifth all-time in conference history in both A-10 wins by a head coach (109) and overall wins by an A-10 head coach (225).

Mooney has led the Spiders to seven postseason appearances - all in the last 10 seasons. Under Mooney, the Spiders made trips to the NCAA tournament in 2010 and 2011, and trips to the NIT Quarterfinals in 2015 and 2017. In the spring of 2011, Mooney's Spiders made national headlines en route to the NCAA Sweet 16, knocking off five-seed Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the process. Richmond finished both the 2010 and 2011 seasons ranked in the top 25.

Richmond has averaged 20.9 wins over the previous nine seasons, with five 20-win campaigns. Playing an always-tough schedule in and out of conference, the Spiders have finished in the top 100 of the RPI in six of the last eight years. UR has also tallied 13 wins over ranked opponents since 2008, second most among A-10 programs, and is 13-14 vs top-25 teams during that span, the best winning percentage against ranked teams of any team in the A-10.

Since the 2007-2008 season, the Spiders have gone 99-67 against A-10 opponents, tallying the second-most conference wins of any A-10 team over that stretch. UR is also one of just four A-10 teams to avoid an overall losing season in the last ten years.

Mooney's teams have always excelled on their home court, with a 101-31 (.765) record over the last nine seasons at the Robins Center. The Spiders average attendance of 6,317 in 2016-17 ranked third among A-10 schools and third among all schools nationally with a total enrollment under 5,000 students, trailing only Providence and Butler.

Mooney was tabbed the Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 2010, while also being selected as a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award that year. He has been featured in many national publications, including the New York Times, USA Today and Sports Illustrated, and appeared in segments on ESPN.

In 2010, he won the Voice of the University Award, given to a faculty or staff member for being a voice that represents the University of Richmond in a positive manner to the wider community. That same year, Richmond Style Weekly tabbed him for the 40 Under 40 list, spotlighting UR's community involvement with the homeless, Special Olympics, Arthritis Foundation, Friends of Jaclyn Foundation and the ASK Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research. For the last four years, Mooney has headlined the Coaches' Cookoff which raises money for Max's Positive Vibe Cafe, a non-profit dedicated to training and employing people with learning disabilities.

18 former players have gone on to play professionally overseas, including at least one from 11 of the last 12 graduating classes.

The 2016-17 season was marked by a unique blend of senior leadership and freshman promise. Senior T.J. Cline won A-10 Player of the Year and freshman De'Monte Buckingham won A-10 Freshman of the Year, marking just the third time one school swept the awards in A-10 history. Cline recorded the first triple-doubles in school history en route to a season that saw him rank top 10 in points, rebounds, and assists in the single-season record book. UR rebounded from a 6-6 start to finish third in A-10 play and earn an NIT bid where the Spiders won games at Alabama and home vs Oakland.

In 2015-16, T.J. Cline and Terry Allen were both tabbed All-Atlantic 10 Third Team as Cline ranked in the top 10 in the league in points, field goal percentage and assists. Allen was top 10 in rebounds and steals, and was also an NABC All-District Second Teamer.

In 2014-15, Richmond finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak, and was one of the "Last Four Out" of the NCAA Tournament at-large field, thereby securing the No. 1 seed and home-court advantage in the NIT, where they would reach the tournament's quarterfinals. Senior Kendall Anthony wrapped up a career that saw him break the school's all-time three-pointers record and earn All-Atlantic 10 First Team, NABC All-District First Team and VaSID All-State First Team in 2015.

2009-10 and 2010-11 are remembered as two of the top seasons in Mooney's coaching career and in Spider basketball history. In the spring of 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before falling in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. The Spiders finished the season ranked no. 24 in the final top-25 rankings.

In 2010-11, Richmond defeated Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the first and only league title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001.

Richmond advanced to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. The Spiders run came to an end at the hands of Kansas in San Antonio. Richmond finished 29-8, set a school record for wins, and finished no. 21 in the coaches poll.

During those years, the Spiders were led by Kevin Anderson, a 2010 Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention and 2010 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year. Anderson (2007-11) finished his career ranked second all-time at UR with 2,165 points (15.58/game).

Anderson had plenty of help to lead Richmond to national prominence. Justin Harper (2007-11) was a Lute Olson All-American and NABC First Team All-District selection in 2011, while also earning All-Atlantic 10 first team honors. He was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the second round of the 2011 NBA Draft, and saw action for the Orlando Magic, Detroit Pistons, and Philadelphia 76ers.

Mooney was hired at the University of Richmond at the end of the 2005 season. He had previously coached at Air Force for five seasons, three as an assistant, one as an associate
