What's On Tap . . .

The Spiders close out the regular season Saturday afternoon when they travel to No. 14 High Point for a Southern Conference showdown ... Richmond, High Point and Air Force all enter the weekend tied atop the SoCon standings with 5-1 league records ... The winning of Saturday's game between the Spiders and Panthers will earn at least a share of the SoCon regular season title ... The winner will win the title outright if Air Force also drops its game against Bellarmine Saturday.

SoCon Tournament Seeds . . .

The 2019 Southern Conference Tournament will be held May 2 and 4 in High Point ... Four teams have already secured berths into the tournament in Richmond, High Point, Air Force and Jacksonville but no seeds have been determined ... The Spiders can finish anywhere from the No. 1-3 seeds in the tournament while High Point can be anywhere from No. 1-4 seeds depending on the games this weekend ... Other games impacting the seeding include Air Force hosting Bellarmine and Jacksonville at Mercer.

Richmond is the only team in the SoCon's men's lacrosse history that has qualified for the SoCon Tournament ever season since its inception in 2015 ... The Spiders are also seeking its fourth SoCon regular season title in the last five years, the most in the league's history.

Spiders Versus Ranked Opponents . . .

Saturday's game marks the fifth time this season that Richmond has faced a nationally ranked opponent as High Point enters the game No. 14 in the country ... Richmond is 1-3 against nationally ranked opponents this year, posting a victory over No. 6 Notre Dame while falling to No. 3 Maryland, No. 6 Duke and No. 7 Virginia ... The Spiders' challenging schedule is proven its worth as Richmond is ranked No. 26 in the latest NCAA RPI report.

Hatfield Named SoCon Player of the Week . . .

Senior attack Teddy Hatfield was named the Southern Conference Player of the Week last week ... Hatfield led the Spiders to their fifth SoCon win of the season as they secured a berth into the SoCon Tournament with a 15-9 victory over Mercer ... Hatfield score a game-high seven points in the victory, notching a team-high four goals and three assists... His performance raises his season total to a team-leading 59 points, including 31 goals and 28 assists ... It marked just the second time in his illustrious career that he has earned a SoCon Player of the Week accolade.

Jason Reynolds Picks Up National Honor . . .

Sophomore defender Jason Reynolds was named to the National Team of the Week by the United State Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association ... Reynolds was a force in the Spiders' win over Mercer, causing five turnovers and recording four ground balls ... His play helped the Spiders limit Mercer to only one goal in the first half, opening to an Tip Of The Hat To Teddy ...

Senior attack Teddy Hatfield enters Saturday's game as the all-time leader in Richmond lacrosse history in points, goals and assists while also holding the career marks for a player in the Southern Conference ... Hatfield enters the game with 213 career points, 76 more than the second-place point getter in program history (Mitch Goldberg, 137) ... He has scored 118 career goals and has posted 95 career assists, both program records ... In fact, he currently holds three of the top four single-season goal marks with 34 (2018), 33 (2017) and 31 (2019), while owning the top three single-season assists marks at 28 (2019), 26 (2017) and 25 (2018) ... He set the new single-season assist mark this year with his three helpers against Mercer.

Sophomore Sensation ...

Sophomore attack Ryan Lanchbury has been on an offensive tear this season ... Lanchbury set the Richmond single-season scoring mark earlier this year, registering six goals against Jacksonville ... He enters Saturday's game with 41 goals on the season, ranking first in the Southern Conference ... His 41 goals surpasses Teddy Hatfield's previous top mark of 34 goals and ranks eighth in the country ... Additionally, his six goals against Jacksonville is tied for a single-game program record with Hatfield ... He has scored three or more goals in 10 of 13 games this season and 14 of his last 18 games, dating back to last year.

All He Does Is Score Point ...

Senior attack Teddy Hatfield leads the team in scoring with 59 total points, ranking 13th in the nation ... Hatfield ranks 14th in the country with 4.54 points per game ... He is second on the team with 31 goals and leads the team with 28 assists ... His 28 assists ranks 15th in the country ... He has scored two or more points in all 13 games this season, including 27 points in SoCon play.

Series History ...

Saturday's game marks the ninth meeting all-time between Richmond and High Point ... The Spiders are 6-2 all-time against the Panthers, including 2-0 on the road in High Point ... Richmond has won the past four meetings between the teams, including a 15-12 victory at home last year ... In that game, Ryan Lee, Teddy Hatfield and Mitch Savoca each registered a hat trick for the Spiders while Connor Robinson led High Point while five goals and Asher Nolting had five points (2g, 3a) The Spiders last played in High Point during the 2017 season, posting a 12-4 victory.

2019 RICHMOND MEN'S LACROSSE

Dan CHEMOTTI

HEAD COACH
Sixth Season
Duke, 2002

Dan Chemotti is in his sixth season as the men's lacrosse head coach at the University of Richmond. Chemotti is the program's first-ever head coach and has guided the Spiders to unprecedented success for such a young program.

Under his guidance, the Spiders have two NCAA Tournament appearances (2018, 2014) in just five years of existence, including their second appearance last season as winners of the Southern Conference Tournament title. Richmond has won three regular season league titles in its first five years and has been in the conference tournament championship game all five seasons.

Chemotti has led Richmond to a 51-31 (.622) record as head coach, including four-straight years off 11 or more wins. The Spiders have one 81.3 percent (26-6) conference games in program history and is an astounding 24-3 (88.9%) record in the fourth years in the SoCon.

Last season, the Spiders won the SoCon regular season championship with an 11-6 overall record and a 6-1 mark in league play. Richmond was a perfect 9-0 at home at Robins Stadium last season, including winning the 2018 SoCon Tournament championship. The Spiders won the tournament title in impressive fashion as Teddy Hatfield scored the game-winning, overtime goal to defeat Jacksonville and send Richmond to its second NCAA Tournament in program history.

The Spiders had their name called in the NCAA Selection Show and made it out of the play-in game for the first time in program history. Richmond went on the road and battled No. 2 Albany in the first round.

The Spiders had six members named to the All-Conference team last year. Joining the First Team, is senior LSM Austin Cates, redshirt-senior attacker Mitch Goldberg, junior attacker Teddy Hatfield and freshman defenseman Jason Reynolds. Freshman midfielder Mitch Savoca is lone Spider representative on the Second Team but in addition, joins fellow newcomer Ryan Lanchbury on the All-Freshman Team.

2017 was a historic season for the Spiders, posting a program record 12 victories and reaching as high as No. 11 in the national polls. For the second straight year, Richmond knocked off a national power, taking down defending national champion UNC, 6-5, in Chapel Hill. In addition, two Spiders earned First Team All-American honors for the first time when Brendan Hynes and Benny Pugh were recognized. Pugh and Hynes also became the first Spiders to ever be drafted into the professional ranks, both being drafted in the Major League Lacrosse draft.

The Spiders saw success again in 2016, their second season in the Southern Conference, posting an 11-5 overall record and a 6-1 mark in conference play. After jumping out to a 4-1 start, the Spiders logged the biggest win in program history, taking down No. 9 Duke on the road, 12-10. The win and another victory over Jacksonville would give the 6-1 Spiders the best start in program history, propelling the team to a No. 18 ranking, the highest in program history.

Shortly after, Mitch Goldberg was named to the prestigious Tewaaron Award Watch List. The team finished third nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 7.44 goals per game, and first in caused turnovers and clearing percentage for the second year in a row. Junior Brendan Hynes ranked second in the nation in caused turnovers, while junior Ryan Dennis ranked ninth nationally in the same category. Seven Spiders earned postseason honors, led by Hynes and senior Alex Hatem, who were named to the SoCon First Team

In 2015, the Spiders finished 6-0 in the new league and boasted the nation's second-most stingy defense. The Spiders allowed just 7.44 goals per game, within less than half a goal per game from the nation's leader. Richmond also lead the country in clearing percentage and finished fourth in the country in scoring margin, winning on average by more than four goals per game.

The Spiders boasted the league's Defensive Player of the Year in Brendan Hynes, while goalie Benny Pugh was second nationally in both save percentage (.590) and goal-against average (7.42) for the year. On the offensive side, the second-year program scored 20-or-more goals three times, finished 15th nationally in scoring offense (11.75) and 11th in assists per game (7.25). Richmond earned its first national ranking for the season, appearing at No. 20 in a national poll. UR was among teams receiving votes for the majority of, and in the final poll of the season. Richmond got above .500 after just two seasons, sitting at 17-16 overall in just two years as a varsity program.

Chemotti did what no other coach in the history of Division I lacrosse was able to accomplish; he took a first-year program to the NCAA Tournament in 2014. He followed that by taking the Spiders to an undefeated league season in the newly-formed Southern Conference in 2015.

After helping lead the Loyola University Maryland men's lacrosse team as offensive coordinator to the 2012 Division I National Championship in 2012, Chemotti was named head coach of the Richmond men's lacrosse team in October of 2012. He spent that school year recruiting and putting in place the tenets of the program which began play in the 2014 season, and it led to the young squad earning an Atlantic Sun Conference championship and berth into the newly-expanded NCAA Tournament.

The Spiders jumped into their inaugural season by hosting No. 7 Virginia on February 8, 2014. Over 4,000 fans packed into Robins Stadium to see the beginning of a magical season. The Spiders did not come away with a win that day, but battled the Cavaliers to a 13-12 loss, which set the tone for things to come.

Despite losing the first five games of the season, the Spiders kept things positive, and finally broke through for a win against Vermont in Durham, North Carolina on March 8. That was the start of a run of four wins in eight games, including a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference games that propelled the young squad into the four-team Atlantic Sun Championship Tournament.

The Spiders beat both the top seed and host Mercer and second-seeded High Point, avenging two regular-season losses and stringing together back-to-back wins for the first time in team history, and the one time that it mattered, as they earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA. That feat drew a trip to Colorado Springs and a road game at Air Force in the NCAA Tournament.

During his five seasons with the Greyhounds, Chemotti was a part of four NCAA Tournament berths and at least a share of three ECAC conference titles at Loyola. Chemotti also saw 30 players earn all-conference honors and 12 be named All-Americans during his time there.

Chemotti's powerful offense helped lead the Greyhounds to an 18-1 mark and their first-ever national championship in 2012. The Loyola offense ranked eighth in goals per game (12.05), ninth in EMO at .444% and fifth in turnovers per game at 12.84. A versatile and diverse offense, the Greyhounds saw eight players rack up 10 or more goals, three tally more than 20 and three reach the 50-goal barrier in 2012.

The offense of which Chemotti was the architect afforded Loyola players the ability to shoot quickly, whether in transition or settled offense, and garner a high volume of shots. Despite the high number of shots, Loyola's shot percentage did not drop. In fact, the Greyhounds' shot percentage rose from .249 in 2011 to .299 during the team's 18-1 run to the NCAA Championship.

Two members of Chemotti's offense, Sawyer and midfielder Davis Butts, earned All-ECAC First Team honors in 2012, and Lusby was named to the Second Team. Sawyer was a USILA Second Team All-American, and Lusby and Butts earned All-America Honorable Mention.

In 2010, a pair of Loyola attackers, Collin Finnerty and Cooper MacDonnell, were named to the All-ECAC First Team, and MacDonnell picked up ECAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was named All-America Honorable Mention. In addition to those honors, Finnerty, MacDonnell and Matt Langan split ECAC Offensive Player of the Week honors five times, and freshman attacker Patrick Fanshaw earned ECAC Rookie of the Week laurels once.

During the 2009 season, Chemotti's attack produced three players with 30 or more total points - Shane Koppens (41), Cooper MacDonnell (38) and Collin Finnerty (37) - a mark not accomplished by a Loyola trio since 2003.

The Greyhounds led the ECAC in goals per game (10.43), a category they finished 17th in all of NCAA Division I during 2009. Koppens led the conference in points per game (3.42) and finished his Loyola career 12th in the nation in the category.

In 2008, the Greyhounds captured the ECAC title behind an explosive offense that ranked second in goals per game and points per game (13.43), and first in shooting percentage, in the league.

Under Chemotti's direction in 2008, Koppens was named ECAC Offensive Player of the Year after finishing as the league's top scorer. In Chemotti's three years calling the offense, nine offensive players have been awarded with post season All-ECAC honors (four first-team and five second-team). In 2007 the Loyola offense ranked 17th nationally in team offense and finished the season with a .640 assist percentage.

A 2002 graduate of Duke University, Chemotti led the Blue Devils to back-to-back ACC Championships during his junior and senior seasons. During his career in Durham, N.C., the Blue Devils reached the NCAA Tournament all four years, advancing to the NCAA Quarterfinals three times. He was selected a team captain his senior year, and was awarded the school's Roy Skinner Award for Dedication and Sacrifice.

Following graduation, Chemotti worked as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 2002-2004, working primarily with the offense and the face-off men. In 2004, the Big Green's offense ranked third nationally in assist percentage and 15th nationally in team offense, and in 2003, Dartmouth's face-off percentage was good enough to finish ninth in the country. Chemotti then worked as an assistant at St. John's for two seasons, 2004-2006, before moving to Loyola for the 2006-2007 academic year.

In addition to coaching, Chemotti played lacrosse professionally as a midfielder for the New Jersey Pride and Washington Bayhawks of Major League Lacrosse. He was a member of the Pride from 2003-2008 and the Bayhawks in 2009. Serving as a two-way midfielder for the Pride and Bayhawks, Chemotti has amassed 54 points and 143 ground balls in 69 career games. Chemotti also played one season (2003) in the National Lacrosse League (NLL) for the New Jersey Storm.

Chemotti, a native of Syracuse, N.Y., played high school lacrosse for West Genesee in Syracuse, where he was named an All-American and the Central New York Player of the Year in his senior campaign. He led the Wildcats to a Class A New York State Championship his senior season and to a runner-up finish his junior season.
