What's On Tap . . .

The Spiders conclude their three-game home stretch to open the season Tuesday afternoon with their first midweek game of the year, hosting Navy ... This marks the first time that the Spiders and Midshipmen have met in program history.

Lanchbury Named To Tewaaraton Watch List . . .

Richmond junior attack Ryan Lanchbury was named one of the 50 members of the prestigious Tewaaraton Award Watch List, which annually honors the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States ... Lanchbury becomes the fourth Spider in the seven-year history of the Richmond men's lacrosse program to be named to the watch list. He joins the likes of former Spiders Teddy Hatfield (2019), Benny Pugh (2017) and Mitch Goldberg (2016).

Lanchbury had a season for the record books in 2019, setting the Richmond single-season scoring record with 72 points and 52 goals. His 52 goals also set the SoCon single-season goal scoring record ... He finished seventh in the nation in goals and 20th in the country in points ... He earned First Team All-SoCon honors last season and was named Honorable Mention All-America for his record-setting season.

Lanchbury also set the single-season record with 140 shots and 87 shots on goal this year ... He scored three or more goals in 13 of 17 games last season, including five against then third-ranked Maryland ... He also scored multiple goals against No. 6 Notre Dame, No. 5 Duke and No. 11 High Point ... The lists include the top players across all three divisions of NCAA lacrosse and highlight the early contenders for the Tewaaraton Award ... 2020 marks the 20th anniversary of the Award ..., The selection committees are made up of premier collegiate coaches and are appointed annually by The Tewaaraton Foundation.

Spiders In The National Rankings . . .

The Richmond Spiders are nationally ranked for the second-straight week ... Richmond moved up to 17th place overall in the Maverik Inside Lacrosse poll and 18th in the USILA Coaches poll ... The Spiders debuted in both polls last week at No. 19 in both instance ... This marks the second-straight season that the Spiders have been nationally ranked ... Last season, Richmond made its first appearance in the rankings in week three after defeating No. 6 Notre Dame and finished the year ranked No. 18 in the country ... Richmond moved into the national rankings after the first week despite suffering a double overtime loss to No. 4 Maryland Saturday in the season opener ... The Spiders, who were receiving votes in the preseason polls, led the Terapins 12-7 in the third quarter but suffered the heartbreaking loss in just the fourth contest in program history to reach a second overtime and the first since 2016 (3OT vs. Furman) ... Richmond's schedule includes four teams in the current national rankings - No. 4 Maryland, No. 6 Notre Dame, No. 10 Duke and No. 16 Air Force while Navy is receiving votes.

Freshman On The Attack ...

Freshman attack Richie Connell has started the first two games of the season for the Spiders and has not looked like a rookie so far this season ... Connell has scored seven goals in his first two collegiate games, notching three or more goals in each contest ... He opened his career with three goals in the first half against No. 4 Maryland before following that up with four goals against Marist ... He ranks third in the nation among all freshmen in the early going, averaging 3.5 goals per game.

Back-To-Back Hat Tricks ...

Junior midfielder Mitch Savoca has opened the season with back-to-back hat tricks .. Savoca scored three goals against No. 4 Maryland and added three against Marist ... It marks the first time in his career he has scored three or more goals in consecutive games ... He entered 2020 with only six career hat tricks, recording three in each of his first two seasons.

Lanchbury Moves Up The Rankings ...

Junior attack Ryan Lanchbury has his sights set on the Spider scoring record books, despite only being two games into his junior season ... Lanchbury ranks fourth all-time in program history with 125 career points ... He is only six points out of third place (131 - J.P. Forrester) and 12 points out of second place (137 - Mitch Goldberg) ... Former Spider Teddy Hatfield holds the program record with 226 career points ... Lanchbury ranks fourth all-time in career goals with 83 and fourth in assists with 42 ... Hatfield holds the program record in each category with 123 goals and 103 assists ... Lanchbury is 13 goals behind Forrester for third place and 18 goals behind Goldberg for second place ... He is just four assists out of third place (Dan Ginestro) and five helpers out of second place (Jean Luc-Chetner).

Attacking The Ground Balls ...

The Spiders posted 40 ground balls as a team against No. 4 Maryland, the seventh-most in a single-game in program history ... Junior Brett Reid led with a career-high 10 ground balls ... The 10 ground balls by Reid is the third-most in a single game by a player in program history ... Sophomore Andrew Hamilton added nine ground balls while senior long stick midfielder Sean Menges added six ... Menges enters Tuesday's game with 99 career ground balls, ranking sixth all-time in program history ... He trails Austin Cates for fifth place as Cates accumulated 99 ground balls in his career.

Winning At The X ...

Sophomore Andrew Hamilton made his Spider debut against Maryland ... Hamilton won 17 of 30 face-offs against the Terrapins, winning at 56.6 percent ... He also added nine ground balls and scored his first goal as a Spider in the game ... His 17 face-off wins ranks sixth all-time in program history for a single game.

Savoca & Menges Earn SoCon Weekly Honors ...

Junior midfielder Mitch Savoca and senior long-stick midfielder Sean Menges were named Southern Conference Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week, respectively for their play against No. 4 Maryland ... The two awards gives the Spiders 29 SoCon weekly awards in program history, the most by any school in the conference since it began play in 2015.

Savoca earns his first-ever SoCon weekly award, picking up the Offensive Player of the Week nod ... He posted a hat trick against the Terrapins, including scoring the Spiders' first two goals of the season ... His first goal of the year came just 2:04 into the game, setting a new program-record for fastest goal to start a season ... His three goals marked the seventh hat trick of his career and the first since scoring four at High Point last year in the regular season.

2020 RICHMOND MEN'S LACROSSE

Menges picks up his second career SoCon Defensive Player of the Week honors for his play against the Terrapins ... He caused a career-high six turnovers Saturday while adding six ground balls ... His play helped the Spiders record 40 ground balls as a team, the seventh most in a single game in program history ... His six caused turnovers are the third most in a single game in program history and the most for him since causing five against nationally ranked Duke last season.

Preseason Favorites ...

The Spiders as two-time defending Southern Conference Tournament Champions, were picked as preseason favorites by the league head coaches in the preseason poll ... The Spiders picked up six of the eight first place votes to finish with 48 total votes, while High Point was second with 41 votes and Air Force was third with 36 ... Jacksonville was fourth with 33 votes, followed by Mercer (22), Furman (19), Bellarmine (15) and VMI (10).

Richmond finished the 2019 season ranked No. 18 in the country after posting a 10-7 overall record and a 5-2 mark in league play. ...The Spiders won the SoCon Tournament championship in impressive fashion, defeating second-seeded Air Force and nationally ranked High Point on the road to secure their third NCAA Tournament berth in the six-year history of the program ... Richmond is the only team in NCAA Division I that has advanced to its respective conference tournament championship game for six-straight years.

Preseason All-Conference Honors ...

Spiders had four players chosen to the 13-member preseason All-Southern Conference team ... Senior Sean Menges along with juniors Ryan Lanchbury, Mitch Savoca and Jason Reynolds earned the honors and the four selections were tied for the league lead with Jacksonville.

Menges was named First Team All-SoCon last year, his first postseason accolades of his career. The long-stick midfielder did a little bit of everything for the Spiders last year. The Richmond native led the team with 45 ground balls and has also caused a team-high 30 turnovers.

Menges recorded a career-high six grounds balls in the Spiders' NCAA Tournament contest at No. 3 Duke ... He earned SoCon All-Tournament accolades for his play in the Spiders' clinching game against High Point, grabbing five ground balls ... He caused a career-high five turnovers against No. 6 Duke (March 1) during the regular season ... He was named the SoCon Defensive Player of the Week after the Spiders' wins over UMBC and No. 6 Notre Dame.

Lanchbury earned First Team All-SoCon honors last season and was named Honorable Mention All-America for his record-setting season ... He had a season for the record books, setting the Richmond single-season scoring record with 72 points and 52 goals ... His 52 goals also set the SoCon single-season goal scoring record ... He finished seventh in the nation in goals and 20th in the country in points.

Lanchbury also set the single-season record with 140 shots and 87 shots on goal this year. He scored three or more goals in 13 of 17 games last season, including five against then third-ranked Maryland ... He also scored multiple goals against No. 6 Notre Dame, No. 5 Duke and No. 11 High Point ... He enters 2020 already fifth all-time in Richmond career scoring history after just two seasons with 115 points and is fourth all-time with 80 career goals.

Savoca also earned First Team All-SoCon honors last year and was named Honorable Mention All-America. ... Savoca also was named to the SoCon All-Tournament team in 2019. He finished third on the team in scoring with 31 points from the midfield ... He scored 24 goals on the year, while adding seven assists in 17 games ... He scored multiple goals six times on the year, including four goals against Bellarmine and No. 11 High Point.

Savoca scored seven goals in the final four games of the season, including two in the NCAA Tournament against No. 5 Duke ... He enters 2020 ranking eighth in program history with 50 goals, having scored 26 as a freshman and 24 as a sophomore.

Reynolds rounds out the preseason

All-SoCon selections after earning both First Team All-SoCon and SoCon All-Tournament accolades last year ... The two-time All-Conference recipient, started all 14 games on defense for the Spiders, anchoring the back end and finishing second on the lead with 44 ground balls.

Reynolds recorded nine games with two or more ground balls and posted a season-high five against Bucknell (Feb. 16) and Furman (March 16) ... He is second on the team with 22 caused turnovers, including a career-high five against Mercer (April 20).

HEAD COACH
Seventh Season
Duke, 2002

Dan Chemotti is in his seventh season as the men's lacrosse head coach at the University of Richmond. Chemotti is the program's first-ever head coach and has guided the Spiders to unprecedented success for such a young program.

Under his guidance, the Spiders have three NCAA Tournament appearances (2019, 2018, 2014), in the first six years of program existence, including back-to-back seasons as Southern conference Tournament champions. Richmond has won three regular season league titles in its first six years and has been in the conference tournament championship game all six seasons. The Spiders are the only program in the country that has appeared in six-straight conference tournament games from 2014-2019

Chemotti has led Richmond to a 61-38 (.623) record as head coach, including five-straight years off 10 or more wins. The Spiders have one 79.4 percent (31-8) conference games in program history and is an astounding 29-5 (85.3%) record in the five years in the SoCon.

Last season, the Spiders booked their third NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and second-straight by winning the SoCon Championship with a 15-7 victory over No. 11 High Point on the road. The Spiders dominated the Panthers in the championship game and goalkeeper Jack Rusbuldt was named the Most Outstanding Player after allowing 13 goals in the two SoCon games.

Richmond advanced to the NCAA Tournament with the automatic bid and played at No. 4 Duke in the first round. The Spiders gave the Blue Devils all it wanted, out-scoring Duke 4-0 in the fourth quarter before running out of time and falling by a 12-11 margin. Richmond finished the season ranked No. 18 in the country in the final polls.

Sophomores Ryan Lanchbury and Mitch Savoca earned All-America honors last season, becoming the third and fourth All-Americans in program history. Lanchbury set the Richmond single-season scoring record with 72 points and 52 goals. His 52 goals also set the SoCon single-season goal scoring record. He is currently sixth in the nation in goals and 14th in the country in points.

The Spiders placed five members on the First Team All-SoCon squad in 2019. Ryan Lanchbury, Teddy Hatfield, Mitch Savoca, Jason Reynolds and Sean Menges picked up the honors. The Spiders' five First Team All-SoCon selections ties the school record set in 2017, which is also the most in SoCon history, happening for the fourth time in the league's five-year history of men's lacrosse. Additionally, Richmond added to its SoCon-record of 21 First Team All-Conference selections in program history, nine more than the second place team in league history (Air Force, 12 selections).

In 2018, the Spiders won the SoCon regular season championship with an 11-6 overall record and a 6-1 mark in league play. Richmond was a perfect 9-0 at home at Robins Stadium last season, including winning the 2018 SoCon Tournament championship. The Spiders won the tournament title in impressive fashion as Teddy Hatfield scored the game-winning, overtime goal to defeat Jacksonville and send Richmond to its second NCAA Tournament in program history.

The Spiders had their name called in the NCAA Selection Show and made it out of the play-in game for the first time in program history. Richmond went on the road and battled No. 2 Albany in the first round.

The Spiders had six members named to the All-Conference team last year. Joining the First Team, is senior LSM Austin Cates, redshirt-senior attacker Mitch Goldberg, junior attacker Teddy Hatfield and freshman defenseman Jason Reynolds. Freshman midfielder Mitch Savoca is lone Spider representative on the Second Team but in addition, joins fellow newcomer Ryan Lanchbury on the All-Freshman Team.

2017 was a historic season for the Spiders, posting a program record 12 victories and reaching as high as No. 11 in the national polls. For the second straight year, Richmond knocked off a national power, taking down defending national champion UNC, 6-5, in Chapel Hill. In addition, two Spiders earned First Team All-American honors for the first time when Brendan Hynes and Benny Pugh were recognized. Pugh and Hynes also became the first Spiders to ever be drafted into the professional ranks, both being drafted in the Major League Lacrosse draft.

The Spiders saw success again in 2016, their second season in the Southern Conference, posting an 11-5 overall record and a 6-1 mark in conference play. After jumping out to a 4-1 start, the Spiders logged the biggest win in program history, taking down No. 9 Duke on the road, 12-10. The win and another victory over Jacksonville would give the 6-1 Spiders the best start in program history, propelling the team to a No. 18 ranking, the highest in program history.

Shortly after, Mitch Goldberg was named to the prestigious Tewaaron Award Watch List. The team finished third nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 7.44 goals per game, and first in caused turnovers and clearing percentage for the second year in a row. Junior Brendan Hynes ranked second in the nation in caused turnovers, while junior Ryan Dennis ranked ninth nationally in the same category. Seven Spiders earned postseason honors, led by Hynes and senior Alex Hatem, who were named to the SoCon First Team.

In 2015, the Spiders finished 6-0 in the new league and boasted the nation's second-most stingy defense. The Spiders allowed just 7.44 goals per game, within less than half a goal per game from the nation's leader. Richmond also lead the country in clearing percentage and finished fourth in the country in scoring margin, winning on average by more than four goals per game.

The Spiders boasted the league's Defensive Player of the Year in Brendan Hynes, while goalie Benny Pugh was second nationally in both save percentage (.590) and goal-against average (7.42) for the year. On the offensive side, the second-year program scored 20-or-more goals three times, finished 15th nationally in scoring offense (11.75) and 11th in assists per game (7.25). Richmond earned its first national ranking for the season, appearing at No. 20 in a national poll. UR was among teams receiving votes for the majority of, and in the final poll of, the season. Richmond got above .500 after just two seasons, sitting at 17-16 overall in just two years as a varsity program.

Chemotti did what no other coach in the history of Division I lacrosse was able to accomplish; he took a first-year program to the NCAA Tournament in 2014. He followed that by taking the Spiders to an undefeated league season in the newly-formed Southern Conference in 2015.

After helping lead the Loyola University Maryland men's lacrosse team as offensive coordinator to the 2012 Division I National Championship in 2012, Chemotti was named head coach of the Richmond men's lacrosse team in October of 2012. He spent that school year recruiting and putting in place the tenets of the program which began play in the 2014 season, and it led to the young squad earning an Atlantic Sun Conference championship and berth into the newly-expanded NCAA Tournament.

The Spiders jumped into their inaugural season by hosting No. 7 Virginia on February 8, 2014. Over 4,000 fans packed into Robins Stadium to see the beginning of a magical season. The Spiders did not come away with a win that day, but battled the Cavaliers to a 13-12 loss, which set the tone for things to come.

Despite losing the first five games of the season, the Spiders kept things positive, and finally broke through for a win against Vermont in Durham, North Carolina on March 8. That was the start of a run of four wins in eight games, including a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference games that propelled the young squad into the four-team Atlantic Sun Championship Tournament.

The Spiders beat both the top seed and host Mercer and second-seeded High Point, avenging two regular-season losses and stringing together back-to-back wins for the first time in team history, and the one time that it mattered, as they earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA. That feat drew a trip to Colorado Springs and a road game at Air Force in the NCAA Tournament.

During his five seasons with the Greyhounds, Chemotti was a part of four NCAA Tournament berths and at least a share of three ECAC conference titles at Loyola. Chemotti also saw 30 players earn all-conference honors and 12 be named All-Americans during his time there.

Chemotti's powerful offense helped lead the Greyhounds to an 18-1 mark and their first-ever national championship in 2012. The Loyola offense ranked eighth in goals per game (12.05), ninth in EMO at .444% and fifth in turnovers per game at 12.84. A versatile and diverse offense, the Greyhounds saw eight players rack up 10 or more goals, three tally more than 20 and three reach the 50-goal barrier in 2012.

The offense of which Chemotti was the architect afforded Loyola players the ability to shoot quickly, whether in transition or settled offense, and garner a high volume of shots. Despite the high number of shots, Loyola's shot percentage did not drop. In fact, the Greyhounds' shot percentage rose from .249 in 2011 to .299 during the team's 18-1 run to the NCAA Championship.

Two members of Chemotti's offense, Sawyer and midfielder Davis Butts, earned All-ECAC First Team honors in 2012, and Lusby was named to the Second Team. Sawyer was a USILA Second Team All-American, and Lusby and Butts earned All-America Honorable Mention.

In 2010, a pair of Loyola attackers, Collin Finnerty and Cooper MacDonnell, were named to the All-ECAC First Team, and MacDonnell picked up ECAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was named All-America Honorable Mention. In addition to those honors, Finnerty, MacDonnell and Matt Langan split ECAC Offensive Player of the Week honors five times, and freshman attacker Patrick Fanshaw earned ECAC Rookie of the Week laurels once.

During the 2009 season, Chemotti's attack produced three players with 30 or more total points - Shane Koppens (41), Cooper MacDonnell (38) and Collin Finnerty (37) - a mark not accomplished by a Loyola trio since 2003.

The Greyhounds led the ECAC in goals per game (10.43), a category they finished 17th in all of NCAA Division I during 2009. Koppens led the conference in points per game (3.42) and finished his Loyola career 12th in the nation in the category.

In 2008, the Greyhounds captured the ECAC title behind an explosive offense that ranked second in goals per game and points per game (13.43), and first in shooting percentage, in the league.

Under Chemotti's direction in 2008, Koppens was named ECAC Offensive Player of the Year after finishing as the league's top scorer. In Chemotti's three years calling the offense, nine offensive players have been awarded with post season All-ECAC honors (four first-team and five second-team).

In 2007 the Loyola offense ranked 17th nationally in team offense and finished the season with a .640 assist percentage.

A 2002 graduate of Duke University, Chemotti led the Blue Devils to back-to-back ACC Championships during his junior and senior seasons. During his career in Durham, N.C., the Blue Devils reached the NCAA Tournament all four years, advancing to the NCAA Quarterfinals three times. He was selected a team captain his senior year, and was awarded the school's Roy Skinner Award for Dedication and Sacrifice.

Following graduation, Chemotti worked as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 2002-2004, working primarily with the offense and the face-off men. In 2004, the Big Green's offense ranked third nationally in assist percentage and 15th nationally in team offense, and in 2003, Dartmouth's face-off percentage was good enough to finish ninth in the country. Chemotti then worked as an assistant at St. John's for two seasons, 2004-2006, before moving to Loyola for the 2006-2007 academic year.

In addition to coaching, Chemotti played lacrosse professionally as a midfielder for the New Jersey Pride and Washington Bayhawks of Major League Lacrosse. He was a member of the Pride from 2003-2008 and the Bayhawks in 2009. Serving as a two-way midfielder for the Pride and Bayhawks, Chemotti has amassed 54 points and 143 ground balls in 69 career games. Chemotti also played one season (2003) in the National Lacrosse League (NLL) for the New Jersey Storm.

Chemotti, a native of Syracuse, N.Y., played high school lacrosse for West Genesee in Syracuse, where he was named an All-American and the Central New York Player of the Year in his senior campaign. He led the Wildcats to a Class A New York State Championship his senior season and to a runner-up finish his junior season.
