RICHMOND SPIDERS

vs VMI KEYDETS

• This will be coach Chris Mooney's 18th season at Richmond. That's the third-longest tenure at a single school by an A-10 coach, trailing only John Chaney (24 seasons at Temple) and Phil Martelli (24 seasons at St. Joseph's).

• Richmond was picked seventh in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, receiving 276 points from a panel of the conference's coaches and media members. 2022 is the fourth straight season the Spiders have placed in the top half of the A-10 Preseason Poll, tying UR's longest such streak (2013-16) since the conference eliminated divisions in 2005.

• Senior Tyler Burton is a Preseason First Team All-Atlantic 10 selection. This is the fifth straight season Richmond has had at least one player named Preseason First Team All-A-10. That's the second-longest active streak in the conference behind Davidson (8 straight seasons). Burton is the sixth different Spider to earn Preseason First Team All-Conference honors under Chris Mooney.

• This will be Richmond's 130th meeting vs VMI, with UR leading the all-time series 85-44. William & Mary (200 meetings) is the only opponent UR has faced more times in program history.

• Richmond has won 10 straight games vs opponents currently in the Southern Conference, a streak that began following a loss to VMI in 2008.

• Richmond is 14-3 in season openers under Chris Mooney, having won three straight. Entering the 110th season in school history, Richmond is 68-41 all-time in season openers.

• After accepting just seven incoming transfers during his first 17 years at Richmond, Chris Mooney brought in three transfers this offseason: center Neal Quinn (Lafayette), guard Jason Roche (Citadel), and forward Isaiah Bigelow (Wofford).

• Richmond is seeking to replace one of its most decorated classes ever. Grant Golden (2nd), Jacob Gilyard (5th), Nick Sherod (21st), and Nathan Cayo (25th) all rank among the 25 leading scorers in program history. UR returns 37 percent of its scoring from last year, down from 81 percent in 2021-22 and 89 percent in 2020-21.

• Richmond is coming off one of the great three-year stretches in program history. UR is 62-29 over the last three seasons, the second-most wins of any team to play in the A-10 over that span behind Dayton (67). The Spiders have won more than 60 percent of their games in three straight seasons for the first time since doing so in five straight seasons from 1988-92.

WITH A WIN ...

• UR would open 1-0 for a fourth straight season and improve to 15-3 in season openers under Chris Mooney.

• UR would win its 86th game vs VMI, its second most wins vs any opponent (William & Mary - 103).

• UR would win its eighth straight non-conference home game and improve to 17-1 in non-conference home games over the last four seasons, with the only loss coming vs Hofstra in 2020.

• UR would win its 11th straight game vs an opponent currently in the Southern Conference, a streak that began following a loss to VMI in 2008.

UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND, Va. - All preseason long, ShawnDre' Jones spoke about making his final season as a Spider one to remember.

On the opening night of his senior season, Jones put those words into action, pouring in a game-high 31 points to lead the University of Richmond men's basketball team to a thrilling 72-69 win over in-state foe VMI in front of a sold out Robins Center.

"I thought we've done a lot of different things well, but we have things to work if we want to accomplish the goals we've set forth for our team this year," Jones said.

Jones scored his 31 points on 9-of-13 shooting, including 4-of-5 from long range. He also added three steals and three assists in the victory. It marked just the second time that Jones has gone over 30 points in his career.

His classmate T.J. Cline added 15 points and five assists, while freshman Nick Sherod led all players with nine rebounds on the night. Cline has now reached double figures in 14 straight games dating back to last year.

"Credit for VMI for playing a really tough, well-executed game. They did an outstanding job of competing all night long," Head Coach Chris Mooney said. "I thought our defense was promising tonight. I thought we did a pretty good job as far as toughness, communication and awareness, but obviously it's an area we want to continue to improve upon as the season moves forward."

Jones got the scoring going early knocking down a three-pointer on the game's first possession. Both teams traded baskets before a steal by Marshall Wood led to a basket by Khwan Fore to ignite a 6-0 Spiders run to give Richmond a 14-8 cushion with 12 minutes to play in the first half.

VMI would not go away quietly, battling back to tie the game at 20-20 in the final minutes of the first half, but back-to-back buckets by Jones in the final two minutes of the half sent Richmond into the break with a 25-22 advantage.

The second half with Cline igniting an early Richmond run to give the Spiders a early six-point cushion before VMI clawed back to tie the game.

The second half alone featured 10 ties and 14 lead changes and neither team led by more than three for the final 10 minutes of the contest.

With under two minutes to play, the jammed packed Robins Center crowd proved crucial.

Richmond led by two entering the final 2:05, but every time the Spiders would score, VMI would answer. Both teams went 1-for-2 from the free throw line with under 40 seconds to play, setting up Richmond for the final possession.

Jones drew a foul, which led to a VMI technical, that allowed the senior to step to the line and knock down three free-throws that sealed the opening-night victory for the Spiders, 72-69.

THE BIG PICTURE

PRESEASON POSITION

The Spiders placed seventh in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, which was released at the conference's media day in Brooklyn, NY on October 13. It is the fourth straight season the Spiders have placed in the top half of the A-10 Preseason Poll, tying UR's longest such streak (2013-16) since the conference eliminated divisions in 2005.

THE CHAMPS ARE HERE

Richmond is defending its 2022 Atlantic 10 championship, the second A-10 title in program history and first since 2011. The Spiders defeated four teams in four days to win the title at Capital One Arena in Washington, DC last season. UR opened the tournament with a win vs 11-seed Rhode Island (64-59) before knocking off the tournament's top three seeds: 3 VCU (75-64) in the quarterfinals, 2 Dayton (68-64) in the semifinals, and 1 Davidson (64-62) in the championship game.

Graduate student Jacob Gilyard was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player after averaging 19.8 points, setting a tournament record with 16 steals, and playing all 160 minutes. Grad student Grant Golden (11.8 PPG, 4.8 RPG, 2.0 APG) was also named to the All-Tournament Team.

Matt Grace made the game-winning basket in both the semifinals and the finals. In the semis vs Dayton, Grace hit a three-pointer from the right wing to break a 59-59 tie with 1:40 to play, helping UR complete a 15-point comeback in the 2nd half. In the championship game vs Davidson, Grace's And-1 with 19 seconds to play turned a two-point Richmond deficit into a 1-point UR lead as the Spiders overcame a 6-point deficit in the final 90 seconds of regulation.

NCAA TOURNAMENT EXPERIENCE

Richmond was a 12 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament and drew 5 seed Iowa, the Big Ten champions, in the first round at KeyBank Arena in Buffalo, NY. The Spiders upset the Hawkeyes 67-63 behind a game-high 24 points from Jacob Gilyard and 18 points and 11 rebounds from Tyler Burton.

It was Richmond's ninth NCAA Tournament win when seeded 12th or higher, more than twice as many as any other school in the nation. UR also improved to a perfect 4-0 when facing 5 seeds in the NCAA Tournament.

It was Richmond's 24th win of the season, tied for the fourth-most in a season in program history. UR fell to 4 seed Providence in the second round.

MOONEY EXTENSION

The NCAA Tournament win vs Iowa was UR's 27th vs a power-conference opponent and 15th vs a top-25 team during Chris Mooney's tenure, giving Mooney half of the wins vs ranked opponents in school history (15 of 30).

Richmond announced a three-year contract extension with Mooney in June, keeping him under contract with the Spiders through the 2026-27 season.

At Richmond, Mooney owns program records for most total wins (312 entering 2022-23), most wins in a season (29 in 2010-11), most conference wins in a season (14 in 2019-20), highest NCAA Tournament seed (7th in 2010), higher NIT seed (1st overall in 2015), and highest A-10 Championship seed (2nd in 2010).

Mooney is one of 11 coaches ever to win multiple A-10 championships, and his two A-10 titles are tied for the fifth-most of any coach in conference history. Mooney and Mark Schmidt (St. Bonaventure) are the only active A-10 coaches with multiple conference championships, and Richmond and Saint Louis are the only A-10 schools with multiple A-10 titles and three or more NCAA Tournament wins during Mooney's tenure at UR (since 2005-06).

2022-23 is Mooney's 18th season with Richmond. The only coaches in A-10 history with a longer tenure at a single school are John Chaney (24 seasons at Temple) and Phil Martelli (24 seasons at Saint Joseph's).

FUTURE PRO

Tyler Burton, Richmond's leading scorer and rebounder last season, announced he was withdrawing from the NBA Draft to return to Richmond for his senior season on June 1.

Burton, who originally declared for the draft on April 6, participated in the NBA G League Elite Camp and worked out for 10 NBA teams last spring.

Burton was a Second Team All-Atlantic 10 pick and a First Team NABC All-Conference selection last season as he led Richmond with 16.1 points and 7.7 rebounds per game.

TRANSFERS

After accepting just seven incoming transfers during his first 17 years at Richmond, Chris Mooney brought in three transfers this offseason to replenish the Richmond roster.

Neal Quinn signed with UR on April 14, choosing the Spiders over Pitt, Penn State, Virginia Tech, and Loyola Chicago. He was Second Team All-Patriot League at Lafayette last season, leading the Panthers in points (14.7 PPG), rebounds (7.4 RPG), assists (4.0 APG, second in Patriot League), and field goal pct (54.5, led Patriot League).

Isaiah Bigelow signed with the Spiders on April 15. The Wofford graduate averaged 8.3 points and 5.5 rebounds for the Terriers last season.

Jason Roche signed with the Spiders on April 26 after entertaining offers from Missouri, Pitt, Kansas State, and St. Bonaventure after entering the transfer portal. Roche was the Southern Conference Rookie of the Year at Citadel last season. He made 110 three-pointers (ninth in D-I, first among freshmen) and led the SoCon with 36.2 minutes per game.

Quinn and Bigelow have two years of eligibility remaining, while Roche has three.

NEW BENCH

Richmond's three assistant coaches are all in their first year in that role with the Spiders.

David Boyden is a Richmond native who brings nearly 20 years of college coaching experience to UR. He was an assistant at UNCG last season following five seasons as an assistant at Radford.

Will Gipe was promoted to assistant coach after spending six years on the Richmond staff, including the three as the Director of Program Development. Gipe, 28, was the A-10's second-youngest assistant coach at the time of his promotion.

THE BIG PICTURE

Peter Thomas returns to Richmond after originally serving as the team's Director of Basketball Operations from 2008 to 2013. Thomas, a Spiders captain as a senior in 2006-07, spent the previous nine seasons at Campbell, including the last five as associate head coach.

From last year's staff, Kevin Hovde is an assistant at Florida, Maurice Joseph is an assistant at Butler, and Rob Jones is associate head coach at Liberty.

VOICE OF THE SPIDERS

For the 40th straight season, Bob Black is handling play-by-play duties for Spider men's basketball broadcasts. Black also hosts an afternoon show on ESPN Richmond, the Spiders radio rights-holder.

For home games, Black is teamed with analyst Greg Beckwith, a member of the Richmond Athletics Hall of Fame who is second on UR's career assists and steals lists.

In addition to doing the ESPN Richmond radio broadcast for all Robins Center games on national TV, Black and Beckwith anchor the SpiderTV broadcast for all of Richmond's home games on regional TV. Those broadcasts are produced and directed by Richmond Athletics Video Specialist Blake Ellett.

WHO'S BACK, WHO'S NOT

With six players electing to use their additional year of COVID-19 eligibility to return to Richmond last season, the Spiders roster swelled to 20 players. With the eligibility of those six players expiring and two players leaving via transfer, UR's roster is at 16 players for 2022-23.

GILYARD, GOLDEN GO OUT ON TOP

Among the eight players not returning from the 2021-22 team are four of the top 25 scorers in program history: Nathan Cayo (1,385 points), Nick Sherod (1,415 points), Jacob Gilyard (2,039 points), and Grant Golden (2,236 points).

Gilyard and Golden combined for eight A-10 All-Conference selections during their Richmond careers and are both among the school's all-time leaders in games played, points, and assists.

All-Time Richmond Ranks

| | Jacob Gilyard | Grant Golden |
|-------------|---------------|--------------|
| Games | 3rd | 1st |
| Points | 5th | 2nd |
| Assists | 1st | 4th |
| Field Goals | 6th | 2nd |

Golden also ranks third on Richmond's career rebounding list and is eighth in blocks.

Gilyard holds the NCAA D-I record for career steals (466), the A-10 record for career assists (782), and UR record for career three-pointers (332). Over the previous five seasons, Gilyard played 5,747 minutes for Richmond, over 500 more minutes than any other player in D-I over that span.

Following last season, Gilyard was given the Men's Basketball Senior CLASS Award, given to one senior or graduate student in recognition of his achievements in competition, character, the classroom, and one's community.

OFFENSIVE FLOW

Richmond runs a fast-paced offensive system that requires every player on the court to handle the ball, pass, and cut -- often on the same possession.

The Richmond offense embodies the concept of "position-less basketball." While shorter players will begin most possessions further away from the basket and taller players will begin most possessions on the wing or in the paint, they will rarely end up anywhere near where they started. Possessions are a frenzy of back-door cuts, entry passes to the high and low post, screens both on the ball and off the ball that, ideally, lead to an open high-percentage shot at the rim or from three-point range.

The Spiders excel at taking care of the ball, and have ranked in the top 25 in the nation in fewest turnovers per game in each of the previous four seasons (including ninth in 2021-22). Richmond has also ranked in the top 25 in D-I in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of the previous four seasons (including 16th in 2021-22), and in seven of the last eight seasons.

Richmond D-I Ranks

| | TO PG | Assist-TO Ratio |
|---------|-------|-----------------|
| 2021-22 | 9th | 16th |
| 2020-21 | 11th | 23rd |
| 2019-20 | 21st | 9th |
| 2018-19 | 11th | 7th |

MAN-TO-MAN 'D'

Richmond has played almost exclusively man-to-man defense in each of the previous three seasons after mostly relying on a match-up zone scheme for many years. Playing man-to-man, Richmond has ranked among D-I's top 100 defenses via KenPom's defensive efficiency metric in each of the previous three seasons (including 94th in 2021-22) after finishing outside the top 200 in 2017-18 (234th) and 2018-19 (287th).

ATTENDANCE OVERLOAD

Richmond men's basketball's average attendance during the 2021-22 season ranked 78th across Division I, marking the first time the Spiders have finished in the top 80 in the nation since 1992-93. An average crowd of 6,072 attended Richmond's 15 home games last season.

Richmond has ranked in the top 100 in the nation in attendance in each of the previous 10 seasons (not including 2020-21), but 2021-22 is UR's best ranking since 1992-93, when the Spiders finished 69th in D-I with an average crowd of 7,214 in coach Dick Tarrant's final season.

Only two Atlantic 10 schools, Dayton and VCU, played in front of larger crowds than the Spiders in 2021-22. It's the first time Richmond has finished in the top three in the conference in attendance since 2017-18.

With a total enrollment of 4,002 last year, Richmond was the smallest school in the nation to average at least 6,000 fans in 2021-22, the 50th season of basketball at UR's Robins Center.

NEW THREADS

The Spiders have new red alternate uniforms this season as the University of Richmond enters the second year of a five-year deal with adidas to become the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand for the University of Richmond. The agreement runs through June 2026.

WHERE THE SPIDERS DWELL

ROBINS CENTER

Built in 1972 through the generosity of the E. Claiborne Robins family, the Robins Center is in its 51st season as one of the premier small-school college basketball arenas in the nation.

In its 50th season in 2021-2022, an average crowd of 6,072 attended Richmond's home games, which ranked 78th across Division I and marked the first time the Spiders have finished in the top 80 in average attendance in the nation since 1992-93. That year, an average crowd of 7,214 attended UR home games during legendary coach Dick Tarrant's final season.

Only two Atlantic 10 schools, Dayton and VCU, played in front of larger crowds than the Spiders in 2021-22. With a total enrollment of 4,002, Richmond was the smallest school in the nation to average at least 6,000 fans in 2021-22, the 50th season of basketball at UR's Robins Center.

The facility is much more than a basketball arena, however. The Robins Center has been home to addresses by world leaders, University commencements, WTA Tour events, track competitions, water polo matches, concerts, a 1992 Presidential Debate, and more.

Renovations to the lower level of the building in 2018 resulted in the creation of the Blandford-Everett Student-Athlete Performance Center, which provides Richmond's student-athletes with the latest strength and conditioning equipment, access to a nutrition fueling center, and a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility.

The arena underwent a $17 million renovation in 2013 that revamped the lighting system and installed four 33' x 15' video boards in the corner sections. The renovation also reduced the arena's capacity from more than 9,000 to its current 7,201.

QUEALLY ATHLETICS CENTER

The Queally Athletics Center is the everyday home of Spiders basketball.

Opened in October 2020 following 18 months of construction, the $15 million practice facility's centerpiece is the Breed Family Practice Court. The gym includes a replica of the Robins Center court plus two additional half-courts and two more retractable baskets on the sidelines of the main court, for a total of six in the facility. Steps from the court is a 20-seat theater that allows for instant review of practice film and diagramming of offensive and defensive schemes.

The Boggs Strength and Conditioning Room, used exclusively by the men's and women's basketball teams, abuts the court's endline and is separated only by a pair of see-through retractable overhead doors. A six-table Sports Medicine suite, a hydrotherapy room with two pools, and the Bugg Fueling Station all border the strength and conditioning area and form the Ball Family Training Center.

Locker rooms and lounges for the men's and women's teams are also located on the ground floor, while the second floor includes Spider Hall, the main entrance to the Queally Athletics Center. The space, which serves to engage fans and alumni in celebration of the proud tradition of Richmond Athletics, features a giant video board as well as entrances to Millhiser Gymnasium and the University's new Student Well-Being Center, which are both adjacent to the QAC.

Head coach Chris Mooney believes that the facility will have a tremendous impact on his team. "The Queally Athletic Center will transform our entire basketball program. Our student-athletes will utilize the amenities of the physical structure each and everyday as prospective Spiders see the facility and anticipate their future at Richmond," said Mooney.

The facility is named for 1986 alumni Paul and Anne-Marie Queally, longtime supporters of the University of Richmond who contributed a $7.5 million lead gift to launch the fundraising efforts for the new center.

MILLHISER GYMNASIUM (MILL-high-zer)

As it enters its second century, one of the most historic and celebrated buildings on the University of Richmond campus has been completely renovated and now houses the Millhiser Student-Athlete Development Center and offices for both the men's basketball and women's basketball staffs.

The newest version of Millhiser Gymnasium opened in fall 2020 after being refurbished as part of the University's construction of the Queally Athletics Center and the Student Well-Being Center. A mezzanine level was installed to provide office suites for Richmond's basketball programs while the first floor, which still includes the historic gymnasium court surface, is the site of the Student-Athlete Development Center. The Center includes study and meeting spaces for Richmond's student-athletes as well as offices for Richmond Athletics' Academic Services and Leadership Development departments.

Millhiser's entry hall includes a restored classroom that overlooks the Queally Athletic Center's practice court and a recruiting room with end-zone views of Robins Stadium.

As part of Richmond's commitment to a sensitive restoration of the facility, many of Millhiser's iconic arched windows, which had been bricked in for decades, were re-opened.

Millhiser Gymnasium opened in 1921 and was Richmond's home court between 1922 and 1946.

Connor Crabtree has had three members of his immediate family play college basketball. His dad Keith and his mom Carol played basketball at Longwood University. His older brother Keegan played at D-II Lees-McCrae College.

Andre Gustavson's younger brother Nikolas plays basketball at North Alabama in the Atlantic Sun conference. His mother Natali played for the Azerbaijan national women's basketball team.

Matt Grace's father Kelly played at Brock University in Canada, where he scored more than 1,500 points and collected more than 1,000 rebounds. Grace's younger brother Mike plays lacrosse at the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Jason Roche's cousin Christine Cleary played basketball at Wisconsin, while another cousin Joe Cleary ran track for the Badgers.

Quentin Southall is the son of Cornelius Southall, who played defensive back for Notre Dame and led the Irish to a national championship in 1988.

Neal Quinn's dad William played college golf at St. John's University, and Liam Weaver's father Tim ran track at Tulsa.

SPIDER BITES

BASKETBALL (AND OTHER THINGS)

Who is the greatest basketball player of all time? More than half (9 of 16, or 56 percent) chose LeBron James. Michael Jordan, with four votes, was the only other player picked more than once. When it comes to athletic skills off the court, five Spiders (Dji Bailey, Isaiah Bigelow, Malcolm Dread, Jason Nelson, Marcus Randolph) named football as their best sport outside of basketball, edging out golf and baseball (three votes each) as the most popular answer. The choice was easy for Liam Weaver, a three-time All-State soccer selection in high school, and Canadian Matt Grace, who went with a national obsession in ice hockey. Tyler Burton chose tennis, while Neal Quinn said he excels at a different racket sport: badminton. When it comes to playing basketball for Richmond, half of the Spiders said they prefer to wear UR's home whites uniform, twice as many as both road blues and alternate reds (both 25 percent).

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The Spiders recognize the need to load up on food that will give them the fuel needed to make it through the day. Broccoli is the favorite vegetable of a team-high five Spiders (31 percent), while pineapples, strawberries, and watermelons split the favorite fruit title, with three votes each. When that extra kick needs to come from more artificial sources, the Spiders are divided on a preferred caffeine source, with five players each choosing coffee, tea, and energy drinks. Of course, even the most healthy-minded college students can lose their way at times. When that happens, the Spiders prefer Chick-fil-A as their fast food restaurant of choice (7 of 16 votes, four more than any other restaurant) and will choose pepperoni on their pizza (the favorite topping for eight Spiders, five more than runner-up bacon). When the Spiders are forced to cook for themselves, their best bet seems to be pasta. Six of the 16 Spiders said the best dish they can cook involves some type of noodle, including everything from chicken alfredo (Isaiah Bigelow & Michael Walz) to the somewhat less-refined ramen noodles (Marcus Randolph).

STAGE FRIGHT

Overall, the Spiders are a brave bunch. 75 percent of them have no problems riding roller coasters (although Dji Bailey, Connor Crabtree, Malcolm Dread, and Aidan Noyes will pass). And six of them (38 percent) have braved the tattoo needle, with Mo Dread sporting a team-high eight tattoos. When forced to confess one thing they are afraid of, a team-high four players chose heights (Jason Nelson, Aidan Noyes, Jason Roche, Michael Walz). Other answers included clowns (Dji Bailey), cockroaches (Andre Gustavson), dolls (Quentin Southall), snakes (Neal Quinn), and -- incredibly -- Spiders, with Tyler Burton, Connor Crabtree, and Liam Weaver saying they are afraid of the UR mascot. Spider-Man is the favorite superhero of three Spiders (Isaiah Bigelow, Andre Gustavson, Quentin Southall), the second-most popular choice among the team but far behind Batman, the favorite superhero of 11 Spiders (69 percent).

LEISURE WEAR

The life of a Division I student-athlete doesn't allow for a great deal of leisure time, but when they do get some time for recreation and vacation, 11 of the 16 Spiders are more likely to head to the ocean rather than a lake (four) or river (one - Jason Nelson, a native of Richmond, Va. AKA River City). Opinions are more divided when it comes to the ideal climate, season, or place to travel. By a nine to seven margin, the Spiders say they would rather be cold than hot. But spring is the season of choice for a team-high seven Spiders, with summer, fall, and winter each receiving three votes. When it comes to international travel, Ireland would be the preferred destination for a team-high three Spiders (Malcolm Dread, Neal Quinn, Jason Roche). The other countries to receive multiple votes were Japan (Dji Bailey, Liam Weaver), Greece (Tyler Burton, Michael Walz), Italy (Connor Crabtree, Quentin Southall), and Burkina Faso (Gabe Arizin, Matt Grace). When vacation turns to stycation, the Spiders have opinions about how to fill their free time. A team-high five players say The Lion King is their favorite Disney movie, narrowly edging out Ratatouille (three votes). For a second-screen experience while watching Simba, the Spiders choose Instagram as their favorite social media app, with IG outpacing twitter nine votes to five. Two Spiders, Connor Crabtree and Malcolm Dread, opt for Tik Tok instead.

TURN ME UP

When it comes time to get ready for a game, a team-high five Spiders said Drake is the artist most likely to be on their headphones. Lil Baby (four), J-Cole (two), and Rod Wave (two) also received multiple votes. While all 16 Spiders chose rap as their preferred pregame music, their responses when they were asked about the first concert they ever attended were more varied. Gabe Arizin's first concert was a show by the Black-Eyed Peas, while Jason Roche's was country singer Luke Bryan. Liam Weaver (Train) and Matt Grace (Weezer) saw alternative rock acts at their first concerts, while Tyler Burton opted for something a little harder, attending a Marilyn Manson and Rob Zombie show. The least surprising answer came from Marcus Randolph, who said his first concert was a show by Robert Randolph and the Family Band. His father, Marcus Randolph Sr., is the drummer of the four-time Grammy-nominated blues/funk/gospel group.

CHRIS MOONEY

HEAD COACH

18th SEASON

PRINCETON, 1994

In his first 17 seasons at Richmond, Chris Mooney led the Spiders to their only two Atlantic 10 championships, three NCAA Tournaments, seven 20-win seasons, and nine postseason appearances while amassing more wins than any other coach in program history (312 entering the 2022-23 season).

Mooney ranks among the longest-tenured and most successful coaches in Atlantic 10 history. The 2022-23 season is Mooney's 18th with the Spiders, giving him the third-longest tenure by a coach at a single school in conference history (John Chaney - 24 seasons at Temple; Phil Martelli - 24 seasons at Saint Joseph's). In his first 17 seasons, Mooney amassed 154 conference wins, the fourth most by a coach in A-10 history, and 312 total wins, the fifth most by a coach in A-10 history. Mooney is one of 11 coaches to ever win multiple A-10 titles, and only four coaches have won more A-10 championships than Mooney's two: John Chaney (6), John Calipari (5), Phil Martelli (3), and Fran Dunphy (3).

In 2021-22, Mooney and the Spiders captured the second A-10 title in program history and upset Big Ten champion Iowa in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. Richmond won four games in four days to win the Atlantic 10, opening with a win against 11-seed Rhode Island and then defeating 3-seed VCU, 2-seed Dayton, and 1-seed Davidson. The Spiders overcame 15-point deficits against URI and Dayton, two of UR's six comeback wins of 14 or more points during the season, and defeated Davidson 64-62 in the A-10 final after trailing by six points with 90 seconds remaining. Richmond earned a 12 seed in the Midwest Region of the NCAA Tournament and a match up with Big Ten champion Iowa, a 5 seed, in the First Round. Days after being named Most Outstanding Player of the A-10 Tournament, Jacob Gilyard led all players with 24 points and six assists and Nathan Cayo recorded a pair of 'And-1's' in the final 90 seconds to lead UR to a 67-63 win and secure the sixth trip to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament in program history. The win was Richmond's ninth NCAA Tournament win when seeded 12th or lower, more than twice as many as any other school in Tournament history. Richmond finished 24-13, the fourth-most wins ever by a Spiders team, and Mooney was named UR's Coach of the Year by the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). After setting the NCAA Division I career steals record in December, Gilyard was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year, a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American, and the Virginia State Defensive Player of the Year. In April, he won the Senior CLASS Award as the top senior or graduate student-athlete in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball. Gilyard also earned A-10 All-Conference honors for a fourth straight season. Tyler Burton led Richmond in scoring and rebounding and was named Second Team All-Atlantic 10 by the conference and First Team All-Atlantic 10 by the NABC. Burton totaled the 14th-most points, 594, and the seventh-most rebounds, 285, in a season in program history. Grant Golden was named to the A-10 All-Tournament Team and finished his Spiders career with the second-most points (2,246), third-most rebounds (1,015), and fourth-most assists (476) in Spiders history.

Mooney and the Spiders posted a 14-9 record in the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT. Richmond opened the season by winning the Bluegrass Showcase in Lexington, Ky. The Spiders beat 10th-ranked Kentucky in the final game for the program's first road win ever vs a team in the top 10 of the Associated Press Poll. UR rose as high as 19th in the AP Top 25 during its 4-0 start, the best ranking for the Spiders since December 1957. Richmond earned a 2-seed in the NIT and defeated MAC regular-season champion Toledo in the First Round despite playing without its two leading scorers, Blake Francis and Grant Golden, who were sidelined with injuries. Jacob Gilyard broke Richmond's career assists record while leading the nation in steals for a second straight season and being named a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American. Tyler Burton earned the A-10's Chris Daniels Award, given to the conference's most improved player. He was one of four Spiders to earn A-10 honors, as Francis, Gilyard, and Golden landed on the league's All-Conference teams for a second straight season.

In 2019-20, Mooney led Richmond to one of the best regular seasons in program history and was on the verge of taking the Spiders to the NCAA Tournament when the postseason was canceled due to COVID-19. The Spiders went 24-7, tying the school record for regular-season wins, and posted three wins over power-conference opponents, including a victory over eventual Big Ten champion Wisconsin in the Legends Classic. Richmond went 14-4 in conference play, a program record for conference wins in a season, and finished second in the Atlantic 10, the highest regular-season finish for UR since joining the conference in 2001. Mooney's Spiders relied on a starting lineup comprised entirely of juniors, three of whom -- Jacob Gilyard, Blake Francis, and Grant Golden -- earned All-Atlantic 10 honors following the season. Gilyard was also named A-10 Defensive Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year Award after leading D-I with 99 steals, a single-season school record. The Spiders received votes in the AP Top 25 six times, including a season-high six in the final poll of the season.

2009-10 and 2010-11 are remembered as two of the top seasons in Mooney's coaching career and in Spider basketball history. In 2011, Richmond defeated Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the Spiders first title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001. The Spiders would go on to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. Richmond finished 29-8, set a school record for wins, and finished 21st in the coaches poll.

In 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before falling in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. The Spiders finished the season ranked 24th in the final AP Top 25.

Mooney previously coached at Air Force for five seasons: three as an assistant, one as an associate head coach and his final season as head coach. In 2004-05, Mooney led the Falcons to an 18-12 record and votes in the national polls. His 18 victories were the most by a first-year head coach at Air Force.

Mooney began coaching at the high school level, taking a job at Lansdale Catholic High School in Lansdale, Pa., in 1994. His first college coaching experience came at Division III Beaver College, now known as Arcadia University. He spent two seasons there from 1998-2000. While at Beaver College, Mooney only coached part-time, spending much of his time as an event coordinator. He helped plan weddings and events while also serving as the team manager. Mooney is married to the former Lia Chomat, a Princeton graduate who also has a doctorate in psychology from Penn. The couple has two sons, Danny and Ryan.
