Richmond has played in every SoCon Tournament Championship game in league history.

Let's Go Streaking ...

Lanchbury has scored a point in 55-straight games, dating back to April 14, 2018 ... His 55-game point streak currently ranks fourth longest in the NCAA ... He has scored 254 points during his 54-game streak -- an average 4.7 points per game ... He has scored 139 goals and handed out 115 assists in this current run ... In fact, there have only been two games in his Spider career that he has not registered a point - April 7, 2018 vs. Bellarmine and March 24, 2018 vs. High Point in his freshman year.

Chasing 100 ...

Junior attack Dalton Young enters Saturday's game just two points shy of the 100-point mark in his career ... Young has scored 68 goals in his career while adding 30 assists, good for 98 points ... He would become the eighth player in program history to reach the 100-point mark and would accomplish the feat in 30 games if reached against VMI.

Lending a Helping Hand ...

The Spiders enter Saturday's game first in the Southern Conference and ranking second in the country in assists per game at 9.75 ... Richmond has dished out 117 assists on its 178 goals this season ... Spiders Knock Off No. 2 Virginia ...

Richmond posted arguably its top regular season victory in program history, knocking off No. 2 Virginia 17-13 at Robins Stadium ... The victory was the first-ever for the Spiders in the series against the Cavaliers, snapping a seven game skid against UVA ... The win was the highest ranked opponent Richmond has ever defeated at No. 2, surpassing the previous mark of No. 6 set in 2019 against Notre Dame ... Additionally, the win snapped the Cavaliers 73-game winning streak against in-state opponents as the Spiders became the first team in Virginia to defeat the Cavaliers since 1977.

Saunders Earns Midseason Honors ...

Senior defender Jake Saunders was named Honorable Mention Midseason All-America by Inside Lacrosse ... Saunders is one of five selected from the Southern Conference and one of two defenders chosen from the league ... He has started 10 games for the Spiders and helped the defense rank 14th in the country in scoring defense at 10.40 goals against per game ... Saunders leads the team with 16 caused turnovers, ranking 16th in the nation at 1.78 caused turnovers per game ... Additionally, he has grabbed 20 ground balls this year with a career-high five coming in the Spiders win over Towson earlier this year.

He is one of just two chosen from the Southern Conference.

Spiders Sweep SoCon Honors ...

Junior attack Dalton Young was named Southern Conference Offensive Player of the Week while freshman defender Griffin Kology was named SoCon Defensive Player of the Week April 4 after the Spiders victory over No. 2 Virginia ... Young earned his third SoCon Offensive Player of the Week of his career and the first one this season ... He led the Spiders' 17-goal effort against Virginia with a game-high seven points ... Young tied for the team lead with four goals while dishing out three assists ... His seven points are tied for a season-high while his four goals are second-most in a single game this year ... Young was also named to the USLA National Team of the Week on attack for his efforts against the Cavaliers.

Kology earned his first-ever SoCon Defensive Player of the Week honor of his career ... The true freshmen helped keep the Cavaliers' high-flying offense to only 13 points, three goals under their season average ... Kology marked up Connor Shellenberger, a Tewaaron favorite, throughout the game, holding him to only one goal and three assists ... He recorded a career-high six ground balls and forced one turnover.

Second 14-Goal Victory ...

The Spiders picked up their second-straight win and the second win of the year at home at Robins Stadium with a 17-3 victory over St. Bonaventure ... Their play helped the Spiders set a new single-game record with 60 shots Tuesday, surpassing the previous mark of 57 set last year against VMI ... Defensively, the Spiders picked up 40 ground balls, the 10th highest total in a single game in program history.

Crazy Towson Affair ...

The Spiders needed theatrics to pull out a win against Towson ... Richmond fell behind the Tigers 9-1 only 11:22 into the game but did not fold ... The Spiders rallied all the way back and won the game 16-15 in triple overtime at Towson ... The triple overtime victory marks just the second time in program history Richmond has played a three overtime game and the first since 2016 ... The Spiders are 2-0 all-time in such games, posting a 6-5 victory at Furman six years ago.

Sophomore midfielder Lance Madonna scored a career-high six goals in the victory while graduate midfielder Luke Frankeny added a season-best four goals ... Madonna's six goals are tied for second-most in a single game in program history and the first since teammate Dalton Young had six last season against High Point ... Prior to Saturday's game, he had scored only 12 career goals in his first 12 career games as a Spider.

Redshirt sophomore goalie Devin Craven was resilient in goal, bouncing back with a strong performance after allowing nine goals in the opening 15 minutes ... Lanchbury was also chosen as part of the USILA National Team of the Week as he scored four goals and added two assists for six points ... This marks the sixth weekly honor of Lanchbury's career, moving him into a tie for second all-time in league history with Asher Nolting (High Point) ... Former Spider Benny Pugh holds the league record with eight Player of the Week honors in his career.

Craven Honored ...

Redshirt sophomore goalie Devin Craven was named the Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the Spiders' season opener against No. 4 North Carolina ... Craven made his first career start and posted a career-best 16 saves against the Tar Heels ... His 16 saves are tied for sixth-most in a single season and the most by a Spider making their first career start in program history ... Prior to the season opener, Craven had played in four career games, making nine saves in just under 30 minutes of action.

Craven becomes the fourth Spider goalie to earn SoCon Player of the Week honors in program history ... He joins the likes of Benny Pugh (nine times), Blake Goodman (two times) and Jack Rusbult (two times).

Ninth Season
Duke, 2002

Dan Chemotti is in his ninth season as the men's lacrosse head coach at the University of Richmond in 2022. Chemotti is the program's first-ever head coach and has guided the Spiders to unprecedented success for such a young program.

The two-time Southern Conference Coach of the Year, Chemotti as guided the Spiders have three NCAA Tournament appearances (2019, 2018, 2014), in the first eight years of program existence, including back-to-back seasons as Southern conference Tournament champions (2019, 2018). Richmond has won four regular season league titles in its first eight years (no title awarded in 2020) and has been in the conference tournament championship game all six seasons (2020 season impacted by COVID-19). The Spiders are the only program in the country that has appeared in six-straight conference tournament games from 2014-2019.

Chemotti led Richmond to a share of the Southern Conference regular season title and the number one seed in the SoCon Tournament in 2021. The Spiders swept the postseason SoCon awards with Ryan Lanchbury (Offensive Player of the Year), Sean Menges (Defensive Player of the Year), Dalton Young (Freshman of the Year) and his own SoCon Coach of the Year award. The Spiders placed a SoCon record 11 players on the two All-Conference teams, including six named First Team All-Conference and five earning Second Team All-Conference accolades.

Chemotti has led Richmond to at 72-47 (.605) record as head coach, including five years off 10 or more wins. The Spiders have won 80.4 percent (37-9) of their conference games in program history and is an astounding 35-6 (85.4%) record in the seven years in the SoCon.

In the shortened 2020 season, the Spiders finished the year ranked No. 18 in the country with a 4-3 record. The Spiders' three losses all game to nationally ranked opponents in No. 4 Maryland, No. 6 Notre Dame and No. 13 Duke.

In 2019, the Spiders booked their third NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and second-straight by winning the SoCon Championship with a 15-7 victory over No. 11 High Point on the road. The Spiders dominated the Panthers in the championship game and goalkeeper Jack Rusbuldt was named the Most Outstanding Player after allowing 13 goals in the two SoCon games.

Richmond advanced to the NCAA Tournament with the automatic bid and played at No. 4 Duke in the first round. The Spiders gave the Blue Devils all it wanted, out-scoring Duke 4-0 in the fourth quarter before running out of time and falling by a 12-11 margin. Richmond finished the season ranked No. 18 in the country in the final polls.

Sophomores Ryan Lanchbury and Mitch Savoca earned All-America honors last season, becoming the third and fourth All-Americans in program history. Lanchbury set the Richmond single-season scoring record with 72 points and 52 goals. His 52 goals also set the SoCon single-season goal scoring record. He is currently sixth in the nation in goals and 14th in the country in points.

The Spiders placed five members on the First Team All-SoCon squad in 2019. Ryan Lanchbury, Teddy Hatfield, Mitch Savoca, Jason Reynolds and Sean Menges picked up the honors. The Spiders' five First Team All-SoCon selections ties the school record set in 2017, which is also the most in SoCon history, happening for the fourth time in the league's five-year history of men's lacrosse. Additionally, Richmond added to its SoCon-record of 21 First Team All-Conference selections in program history, nine more than the second place team in league history (Air Force, 12 selections).

In 2018, the Spiders won the SoCon regular season championship with an 11-6 overall record and a 6-1 mark in league play. Richmond was a perfect 9-0 at home at Robins Stadium last season, including winning the 2018 SoCon Tournament championship. The Spiders won the tournament title in impressive fashion as Teddy Hatfield scored the game-winning, overtime goal to defeat Jacksonville and send Richmond to its second NCAA Tournament in program history.

The Spiders had their name called in the NCAA Selection Show and made it out of the play-in game for the first time in program history. Richmond went on the road and battled No. 2 Albany in the first round.

The Spiders had six members named to the All-Conference team last year. Joining the First Team, is senior LSM Austin Cates, redshirt-senior attacker Mitch Goldberg, junior attacker Teddy Hatfield and freshman defenseman Jason Reynolds. Freshman midfielder Mitch Savoca is lone Spider representative on the Second Team but in addition, joins fellow newcomer Ryan Lanchbury on the All-Freshman Team.

2017 was a historic season for the Spiders, posting a program record 12 victories and reaching as high as No. 11 in the national polls. For the second straight year, Richmond knocked off a national power, taking down defending national champion UNC, 6-5, in Chapel Hill. In addition, two Spiders earned First Team All-American honors for the first time when Brendan Hynes and Benny Pugh were recognized. Pugh and Hynes also became the first Spiders to ever be drafted into the professional ranks, both being drafted in the Major League Lacrosse draft.

2022 RICHMOND MEN'S LACROSSE

The Spiders saw success again in 2016, their second season in the Southern Conference, posting an 11-5 overall record and a 6-1 mark in conference play. After jumping out to a 4-1 start, the Spiders logged the biggest win in program history, taking down No. 9 Duke on the road, 12-10. The win and another victory over Jacksonville would give the 6-1 Spiders the best start in program history, propelling the team to a No. 18 ranking, the highest in program history.

Shortly after, Mitch Goldberg was named to the prestigious Tewaaraton Award Watch List. The team finished third nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 7.44 goals per game, and first in caused turnovers and clearing percentage for the second year in a row. Junior Brendan Hynes ranked second in the nation in scoring turnovers, while junior Ryan Dennis ranked ninth nationally in the same category. Seven Spiders earned postseason honors, led by Hynes and senior Alex Hatem, who were named to the SoCon First Team.

In 2015, the Spiders finished 6-0 in the new league and boasted the nation's second-most stingy defense. The Spiders allowed just 7.44 goals per game, within less than half a goal per game from the nation's leader. Richmond also led the country in clearing percentage and finished fourth in the country in scoring margin, winning on average by more than four goals per game.

The Spiders boasted the league's Defensive Player of the Year in Brendan Hynes, while goalie Benny Pugh was second nationally in both save percentage (.590) and goal-against average (7.42) for the year. On the offensive side, the second-year program scored 20-or-more goals three times, finished 15th nationally in scoring offense (11.75) and 11th in assists per game (7.25). Richmond earned its first national ranking for the season, appearing at No. 20 in a national poll. UR was among teams receiving votes for the majority of, and in the final poll of, the season. Richmond got above .500 after just two seasons, sitting at 17-16 overall in just two years as a varsity program.

Chemotti did what no other coach in the history of Division I lacrosse was able to accomplish; he took a first-year program to the NCAA Tournament in 2014. He followed that by taking the Spiders to an undefeated league season in the newly-formed Southern Conference in 2015.

After helping lead the Loyola University Maryland men's lacrosse team as offensive coordinator to the 2012 Division I National Championship in 2012, Chemotti was named head coach of the Richmond men's lacrosse team in October of 2012. He spent that school year recruiting and putting in place the tenets of the program which began play in the 2014 season, and it led to the young squad earning an Atlantic Sun Conference championship and berth into the newly-expanded NCAA Tournament.

The Spiders jumped into their inaugural season by hosting No. 7 Virginia on February 8, 2014. Over 4,000 fans packed into Robins Stadium to see the beginning of a magical season. The Spiders did not come away with a win that day, but battled the Cavaliers to a 13-12 loss, which set the tone for things to come.

Despite losing the first five games of the season, the Spiders kept things positive, and finally broke through for a win against Vermont in Durham, North Carolina on March 8. That was the start of a run of four wins in eight games, including a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference games that propelled the young squad into the four-team Atlantic Sun Championship Tournament.

The Spiders beat both the top seed and host Mercer and second-seeded High Point, avenging two regular-season losses and stringing together back-to-back wins for the first time in team history, and the one time that it mattered, as they earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA. That feat drew a trip to Colorado Springs and a road game at Air Force in the NCAA Tournament.

During his five seasons with the Greyhounds, Chemotti was a part of four NCAA Tournament berths and at least a share of three ECAC conference titles at Loyola. Chemotti also saw 30 players earn all-conference honors and 12 be named All-Americans during his time there.

Chemotti's powerful offense helped lead the Greyhounds to an 18-1 mark and their first-ever national championship in 2012. The Loyola offense ranked eighth in goals per game (12.05), ninth in EMO at .444% and fifth in turnovers per game at 12.84. A versatile and diverse offense, the Greyhounds saw eight players rack up 10 or more goals, three tally more than 20 and three reach the 50-goal barrier in 2012.

The offense of which Chemotti was the architect afforded Loyola players the ability to shoot quickly, whether in transition or settled offense, and garner a high volume of shots. Despite the high number of shots, Loyola's shot percentage did not drop. In fact, the Greyhounds' shot percentage rose from .249 in 2011 to .299 during the team's 18-1 run to the NCAA Championship.

Two members of Chemotti's offense, Sawyer and midfielder Davis Butts, earned All-ECAC First Team honors in 2012, and Lusby was named to the Second Team. Sawyer was a USILA Second Team All-American, and Lusby and Butts earned All-America Honorable Mention.

In 2010, a pair of Loyola attackers, Collin Finnerty and Cooper MacDonnell, were named to the All-ECAC First Team, and MacDonnell picked up ECAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was named All-America Honorable Mention. In addition to those honors, Finnerty, MacDonnell and Matt Langan split ECAC Offensive Player of the Week honors five times, and freshman attacker Patrick Fanshaw earned ECAC Rookie of the Week laurels once.

During the 2009 season, Chemotti's attack produced three players with 30 or more total points - Shane Koppens (41), Cooper MacDonnell (38) and Collin Finnerty (37) - a mark not accomplished by a Loyola trio since 2003.

The Greyhounds led the ECAC in goals per game (10.43), a category they finished 17th in all of NCAA Division I during 2009. Koppens led the conference in points per game (3.42) and finished his Loyola career 12th in the nation in the category.

In 2008, the Greyhounds captured the ECAC title behind an explosive offense that ranked second in goals per game and points per game (13.43), and first in shooting percentage, in the league.

Under Chemotti's direction in 2008, Koppens was named ECAC Offensive Player of the Year after finishing as the league's top scorer. In Chemotti's three years calling the offense, nine offensive players have been awarded with post season All-ECAC honors (four first-team and five second-team).

In 2007 the Loyola offense ranked 17th nationally in team offense and finished the season with a .640 assist percentage.

A 2002 graduate of Duke University, Chemotti led the Blue Devils to back-to-back ACC Championships during his junior and senior seasons. During his career in Durham, N.C., the Blue Devils reached the NCAA Tournament all four years, advancing to the NCAA Quarterfinals three times. He was selected a team captain his senior year, and was awarded the school's Roy Skinner Award for Dedication and Sacrifice.

Following graduation, Chemotti worked as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 2002-2004, working primarily with the offense and the face-off men. In 2004, the Big Green's offense ranked third nationally in assist percentage and 15th nationally in team offense, and in 2003, Dartmouth's face-off percentage was good enough to finish ninth in the country. Chemotti then worked as an assistant at St. John's for two seasons, 2004-2006, before moving to Loyola for the 2006-2007 academic year.

In addition to coaching, Chemotti played lacrosse professionally as a midfielder for the New Jersey Pride and Washington Bayhawks of Major League Lacrosse. He was a member of the Pride from 2003-2008 and the Bayhawks in 2009. Serving as a two-way midfielder for the Pride and Bayhawks, Chemotti has amassed 54 points and 143 ground balls in 69 career games. Chemotti also played one season (2003) in the National Lacrosse League (NLL) for the New Jersey Storm.

Chemotti, a native of Syracuse, N.Y., played high school lacrosse for West Genesee in Syracuse, where he was named an All-American and the Central New York Player of the Year in his senior campaign. He led the Wildcats to a Class A New York State Championship his senior season and to a runner-up finish his junior season.
