 # Sunshine Slam (Daytona Beach, Fla.)

^ Orange Bowl Classic (Sunrise, Fla.)

* Richmond Area Honda Dealers Capital City Classic

RICHMOND SPIDERS (13-5, 5-0) vs GW REVOLUTIONARIES (14-4, 3-2)

• The Spiders have won eight straight games, their longest single-season win streak since winning nine in a row while capturing the A-10 Championship and advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2011. UR's eight straight wins are tied for the sixth-longest active streak in Division I.

• Richmond is 5-0 in A-10 play for the second time since joining the conference in 2011 (also started 5-0 in 2016-17). The last time UR opened conference play 6-0 or better was in 1988-89, when the Spiders went 13-1 in the CAA after winning their first eight conference games.

• The Spiders are 9-0 at home this season, matching the longest single-season home winning streak in program history (2009-10 and 1997-98). With a win Wednesday, UR will win 10 straight home games in a season for first time since the program's inception in 1913.

• Richmond and GW split a pair of games last season, with the Spiders winning 73-63 at the Robins Center on January 4 and falling 107-105 in double overtime on the road on February 8, a loss that snapped UR's six-game win streak in the series. The 105 points scored by UR in that game are the most in a loss in program history.

• Richmond has held each of its last eight opponents to no more than 70 points, its longest streak of games allowing 70 or fewer points since 2014-15 (nine straight). The Spiders are allowing 64.4 points this season, second best in the A-10 and 27th in Division I.

• Jordan King scored 13 of Richmond's final 16 points, including all seven in OT, in UR's 69-64 win at Davidson Saturday. King is averaging 18.3 points per game this season, second best in the A-10.

• Isaiah Bigelow finished with 10 points and a game-high 13 rebounds at Davidson. Bigelow, who recorded two double-doubles in his first 109 career games, now has four double-doubles in his last seven outings. He ranks third in the A-10 in defensive rebounding percentage (22.9), per KenPom.

• The Spiders will host Dayton Saturday at 6p on CBS Sports Network. Regardless of Wednesday's results, the winner of that game will be in first place in the Atlantic 10.

WITH A WIN ...

• UR would be 10-0 at home this season, the longest single-season home win streak in program history.

• UR would be 6-0 in the A-10 for the first time ever and 6-0 in conference play for the first time since 1988-89 (opened 8-0 in the CAA).

• UR would extend its win streak to nine games, its longest in a season since 2010-11.

• UR would win its sixth straight home game vs GW and improve to 7-1 in its last eight overall games vs GW.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The Richmond Spiders fell to George Washington in a double overtime slugfest Wednesday at the Smith Center, ultimately ending up on the wrong side of 107-105 final in a game where both teams seemed to be on the verge of securing a win on multiple occasions.

Richmond trailed by seven points in the first half, overcame a pair of seven-point deficits in the second half, and was down five in the first overtime period. The Spiders rallied to take a lead at halftime, rallied to take a five-point lead in the final minute of regulation, and rallied to have a chance to win in the first overtime before finally falling in double OT.

"There were so many positive things, starting with how hard we fought," said Spiders Head Coach Chris Mooney. "We came back in the first half. We came back in second half. There are a lot of positives to take from this. I'm really proud of our effort."

The Spiders were led by Matt Grace for a second straight game. After setting a career high with 21 points in Sunday's win vs Fordham, Grace set a new career high with 28 points Wednesday evening.

"Matt was just tremendous. I thought he played a great game on Sunday and he was even better today. Just an incredible game," said Mooney.

Grace's scoring effort wasn't enough to offset GW's starting backcourt, which combined for 68 points: 35 from Brendan Adams and 33 from James Bishop.

"We have a good defensive backcourt and they were just a little bit too much for us. They both had incredible games," said Mooney.

Richmond seemed to be on its way to a win in regulation after the Spiders used a 14-2 run to turn a seven-point deficit into a five-point lead with just over a minute remaining.

But a three-pointer from Edwards cut the lead to two with 42 seconds on the clock. 16 seconds later, a high-arcing three from Bishop cut GW's deficit to one, at 80-79. Following a pair of free throws from Andre Gustavson, Bishop scored at the rim and was fouled by Gustavson, converting the And-1 to tie the game at 82 with 17 seconds left. Tyler Burton's layup attempt bounced off the rim just before the buzzer, sending the game to overtime.

"At the end of regulation, they made really, really, really hard shots," said Mooney of Bishop and Edwards. "They're super talented guards. They made extremely hard shots. They were deep. They were contested. [It's a] credit obviously to them and their level of ability."

"We scored 82 in regulation. I think we've got to win a game like that," said Grace. "Our defense has to be good enough. When we score 82 points and we're playing that well offensively, we've got to win those games."

Richmond trailed by five with less than two minutes remaining in the first overtime when Burton hit a three-pointer to cut the score to 91-89. With just over a minute left, Isaiah Bigelow nailed a three from the right wing to tie the game at 92.

After a stop on the defensive end, the Spiders worked the ball down low to Neal Quinn, who spun to the basket and attempted a left-handed layup in traffic. The ball wouldn't go down, sending the game to a second overtime, Richmond's first double OT game since January 28, 2016 (also at GW).

A pair of three-pointers from Adams sandwiched around an old-fashioned three-point play from Bishop gave George Washington a 101-94 lead in the second overtime, and the Spiders couldn't get any closer than two points down the stretch.

The loss, Richmond's first in its last seven games vs GW, dropped the Spiders to 12-13 on the season and 5-7 in the Atlantic 10.

THE BIG PICTURE

FLIP THE SCRIPT
Half of the members of the 2023-24 Spiders are new to Richmond, a group that includes three transfers and five freshmen and ties the most newcomers (8) Chris Mooney has ever had in his 19 seasons with the Spiders.

UR added a pair of All-Conference performers from the transfer portal this offseason. Jordan King, who led East Tennessee State with 15.6 points per game in 2022-23, was a 2023 Third Team All-Southern Conference selection. DeLonnie Hunt, the 2021 NEC Rookie of the Year, led Wagner with 11.1 points per game last season and was a 2023 Third Team All-NEC honoree. Tyler Harris also transferred to UR after starting 77 games at Western Carolina over the last four seasons.

After accepting just seven incoming transfers during his first 17 years at Richmond, Chris Mooney has now brought in six transfers over the last two seasons.

Also new to Richmond are five true freshmen, including Trevor Smith, the reigning Class 5 Virginia State Player of the Year, and Collin Tanner, rated as the No. 2 recruit in North Carolina's Class of 2023 by some scouting services.

WHO'S BACK
Richmond returns eight players from last year's roster, UR's second-fewest returners ever during Chris Mooney's tenure (7 in 2006-07), and one starter, matching the fewest under Mooney (also 1 in 2011-12).

Last season, center Neal Quinn finished first on the team with 2.9 assists per game, second with 9.5 points per game, and third with 4.5 rebounds per game while shooting 54.2 percent from the field, ninth best in the A-10 among qualifiers.

Quinn, whose father was born in Ireland, spent part of his summer competing with the Irish National Team at the FIBA EuroBasket 2025 Pre-Qualifiers. Quinn averaged 8.0 points, 4.8 rebounds, and 3.8 assists per game as Ireland went 2-2.

RATE OF RETURN
Richmond's eight returning players accounted for 38 percent of UR's scoring and 36% of the team's total minutes played last year. Quinn ranked second on the team in scoring, while Isaiah Bigelow ranked fifth (7.9 PPG) and Jason Roche ranked sixth (6.3 PPG), giving UR three of their top six scorers back from last year.

STAFF STEPS UP
Chris Mooney was forced to step away from the team at the end of the 2022-23 season to undergo a heart procedure, which he did at UVA Medical Center on February 28. Mooney missed the final six games of the season and returned to the team fully in April.

During Mooney's absence, Peter Thomas served as Interim Head Coach. Thomas led the Spiders to a 15-point comeback win over preseason A-10 co-favorite Saint Louis in his first game in the interim role. In the opening round of the A-10 Championship, Thomas and the Spiders defeated UMass by 33 points, the second largest margin of victory in the history of the event. Thomas was promoted to Associate Head Coach in June 2023.

Thomas wasn't the only Spider staff member promoted this offseason. Mark McGonigal was elevated to Assistant Coach/Operations and Jack Fahed was promoted to Assistant Coach/Development to take advantage of new NCAA rules allowing for five assistants.

Darian Dollar, a 2020 USF graduate, joined the staff as Video Coordinator.

PRESEASON POSITION
The Spiders were picked 11th in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll, which was unveiled at A-10 Media Day at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, NY on October 17.

MOONEY IS MONEY
Chris Mooney owns Richmond records for most total wins (325 entering 2023-24), most wins in a season (29 in 2010-11), most conference wins in a season (14 in 2019-20), highest NCAA Tournament seed (7th in 2010), higher NIT seed (1st overall in 2015), and highest A-10 Championship seed (2nd in 2020).

Mooney is one of 11 coaches ever to win multiple A-10 championships, and his two A-10 titles are tied for the fifth-most of any coach in conference history. Richmond and Saint Louis are the only A-10 schools with multiple A-10 titles and three or more NCAA Tournament wins during Mooney's tenure at UR (since 2005-06).

2023-24 is Mooney's 19th season with Richmond. The only coaches in A-10 history with a longer tenure at a single school are John Chaney (24 seasons at Temple) and Phil Martelli (24 seasons at Saint Joseph's).

UR's win vs St. Bonaventure on Jan. 6 was the 334th of Mooney's tenure at Richmond, moving him past former West Virginia coach Gale Catlett into third place on the list of most total wins by an Atlantic 10 coach. 10 days later, he coached in his 600th game at Richmond, leading the Spiders to a 63-61 win at Duquesne.

Mooney enters the 2023-24 season tied for the ninth-longest tenured coach in Division I. The only coaches who have been at their current schools longer than Mooney are Tom Izzo (Michigan State), Greg Kampe (Oakland), James Jones (Yale), Mark Few (Gonzaga), Randy Bennett (St. Mary's), Leonard Hamilton (Florida State), Bill Self (Kansas), and Scott Drew (Baylor).

Mooney signed an extension with UR after leading the Spiders to the 2022 Atlantic 10 title and a win over Big Ten champion Iowa in the 2022 NCAA Tournament. He is under contract through 2026-27.

SHOOT YOUR SHOT
Under Mooney, Richmond strives to schedule as many power-conference opponents as possible during the non-conference season, a task that has become more difficult in recent years.

The Spiders entered 2023-24 as one of just two A-10 teams (along with Rhode Island) with three guaranteed games against power-conference opponents: November 15 at Boston College, November 20 vs Colorado, and December 9 vs Florida.

Mooney has led the Spiders to 27 wins vs power-conference opponents during his tenure at UR.

#PROSPIDERS
Four members of Richmond's 2022 Atlantic 10 championship team have gone on to play professionally, part of the 28 pro players the Spiders have produced during Chris Mooney's tenure.

2022 A-10 Championship MOP Jacob Gilyard is currently playing for the Memphis Grizzlies in the NBA. As a member of the Memphis Hustle last season, Gilyard led the NBA G League in assists. Gilyard is the fourth Spider to play in the NBA. His 466 career steals remain the most in NCAA Division I history.

Grant Golden, the second-leading scorer in Richmond history, is playing for Cremona in Italy's Serie A after averaging 17.3 points, 10.9 rebounds, and 5.2 assists per game for the Grand Rapids Gold in the NBA G League last season.

Nathan Cayo played for the Memphis Hustle in the NBA G League this season, and Matt Grace is playing professionally in Cyprus.

Cayo was teamed with former Spider teammate Blake Francis (Class of 2021) on the CEBL's Montreal Alliance this summer. Francis is now playing for Medipolis Science City Jena in Germany.

VOICE OF THE SPIDERS
For the 41st straight season, Bob Black is handling play-by-play duties for Spider Men's Basketball broadcasts. Black also hosts an afternoon show on ESPN Richmond, the Spiders radio rights-holder.

In 2023, Black received the Atlantic 10's Bob Vetrone Media Award, which recognizes those whose service, professionalism and commitment have made a lasting contribution to the A-10's student-athletes and institutions. Last April, he was also recognized by Richmond Athletics for his 40 years of service as the recipient of the Distinguished Faculty/Staff Award.

Black is teamed with analyst Greg Beckwith, a member of the Richmond Athletics Hall of Fame who is second on UR's career assists and steals lists. Black and Beckwith have been paired together on Spider broadcasts for 21 seasons.

In addition to doing the ESPN Richmond radio broadcast for all Robins Center games on national TV, Black and Beckwith anchor the SpiderTV broadcast for all of Richmond's home games on regional TV. Those broadcasts are produced and directed by Richmond Athletics Video Specialist Blake Ellett.

OFFENSIVE FLOW
Richmond runs a fast-paced offensive system that requires every player on the court to handle the ball, pass, and cut -- often on the same possession.

The Richmond offense embodies the concept of "position-less basketball." While shorter players will begin most possessions further away from the basket and taller players will begin most possessions on the wing or in the paint, they will rarely end up anywhere near where they started. Possessions are a frenzy of back-door cuts, entry passes to the high and low post, screens both on the ball and off the ball that, ideally, lead to an open high-percentage shot at the rim or from three-point range.

The Spiders often excel at finding teammates and taking care of the ball, but after ranking in the top 25 in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio in four straight seasons, UR slipped to 167th in 2022-23.

In terms of offensive efficiency, Richmond ranked in the top 100 in the nation in six of eight seasons from 2014-15 to 2021-22. Last season, the Spiders produced 103.5 points per 100 offensive possession (via KenPom), ranking 202nd in Division I, their lowest in any season since Chris Mooney's second season with the program in 2006-07.

MAN-TO-MAN 'D'
Richmond has played almost exclusively man-to-man defense in each of the previous four seasons after mostly relying on a match-up zone scheme for many years. Playing man-to-man, Richmond has ranked among D-I's top 120 defenses via KenPom's defensive efficiency metric in four straight seasons (including 117th in 2022-23) after finishing outside the top 200 in 2017-18 (234th) and 2018-19 (287th). Assistant Coach David Boyden oversees much of UR's defensive gameplan and strategy.

ATTENDANCE OVERLOAD
Richmond averaged 6,285 fans at its home games in 2022-23, nearly double the school's enrollment of undergraduate enrollment of 3,164. For the second straight season, Richmond was the smallest school in Division I to average at least 6,000 fans, narrowly edging out Siena (undergrad enrollment of 3,498).

The Spiders played before five capacity crowds of 7,201 in 2022-23, the program's most sellouts in a season since 2017-18.

UR has ranked among the top 80 D-I teams in average attendance in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1991-93.

FAMILY BUSINESS
Several Spiders have family members who participated in college athletics.

• Trevor Smith's father Tim is the all-time leading scorer at East Tennessee State University, totaling 2,300 points for the Buccaneers during his career. He was named the 2006 Atlantic Sun Player of the Year in ETSU's first season in the conference after earning First Team All-Southern Conference honors in 2004 and 2005.

• Ryan Soulis' dad Vasilis played professionally for eight seasons, seven in Greek Basket League and one in EuroLeague with Olympiacos in 2000-01.

• Mikkel Tyne's older brother Malik played linebacker at Towson and with the Edmonton Elks in the CFL.

• Jason Roche's cousin Christine Cleary played basketball at Wisconsin, while another cousin Joe Cleary ran track for the Badgers.

• Quentin Southall is the son of Cornelius Southall, who played defensive back for Notre Dame and led the Irish to a national championship in 1988.

• Neal Quinn's dad William played college golf at St. John's University, and Liam Weaver's father Tim ran track at Tulsa.

SIGNING CLASS
Richmond added a pair of athletic forwards on signing day in November. Bryson McGlothin, a 6'7" forward from Plano, Tex., is the No. 25 player in the Texas' Class of 2024, according to 247 Sports composite rankings. Jaylen Robinson, a 6'6" forward from Jacksonville, Fla., is the 20th-ranked player in Florida's Class of 2024, according to FloridaHoops.com.

WHERE THE SPIDERS DWELL

ROBINS CENTER

Built in 1972 through the generosity of the E. Claiborne Robins family, the Robins Center is in its 52nd season as one of the premier small-school college basketball arenas in the nation.

In its 51st season in 2022-23, an average crowd of 6,285 attended Richmond's home games, nearly double the school's enrollment of undergraduate enrollment of 3,164. For the second straight season, Richmond was the smallest school in Division I to average at least 6,000 fans, narrowly edging out Siena (undergrad enrollment of 3,498).

The Spiders played before five capacity crowds of 7,201 in 2022-23, the program's most sellouts in a season since 2017-18.

The facility is much more than a basketball arena, however. The Robins Center has been home to addresses by world leaders, University commencements, WTA Tour events, track competitions, water polo matches, concerts, a 1992 Presidential Debate, and more.

Renovations to the lower level of the building in 2018 resulted in the creation of the Blandford-Everett Student-Athlete Performance Center, which provides Richmond's student-athletes with the latest strength and conditioning equipment, access to a nutrition fueling center, and a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility.

The arena underwent a $17 million renovation in 2013 that revamped the lighting system and installed four 33' x 15' video boards in the corner sections. The renovation also reduced the arena's capacity from more than 9,000 to its current 7,201.

QUEALLY ATHLETICS CENTER

The Queally Athletics Center is the everyday home of Spiders basketball.

Opened in October 2020 following 18 months of construction, the $15 million practice facility's centerpiece is Breed Family Practice Court. The gym includes a replica of the Robins Center court plus two additional half-courts and two more retractable baskets on the sidelines of the main court, for a total of six in the facility. Steps from the court is a 20-seat theater that allows for instant review of practice film and diagramming of offensive and defensive schemes.

The Boggs Strength and Conditioning Room, used exclusively by the men's and women's basketball teams, abuts the court's endline and is separated only by a pair of see-through retractable overhead doors. A six-table Sports Medicine suite, a hydrotherapy room with two pools, and the Bugg Fueling Station all border the strength and conditioning area and form the Ball Family Training Center.

Locker rooms and lounges for the men's and women's teams are also located on the ground floor, while the second floor includes Spider Hall, the main entrance to the Queally Athletics Center. The space, which serves to engage fans and alumni in celebration of the proud tradition of Richmond Athletics, features a giant video board as well as entrances to Millhiser Gymnasium and the University's new Student Well-Being Center, which are both adjacent to the QAC.

Head coach Chris Mooney believes that the facility has a tremendous impact on his team. "The Queally Athletics Center has transformed our entire basketball program. Our student-athletes utilize the amenities of the physical structure each and everyday as prospective Spiders see the facility and anticipate their future at Richmond," said Mooney.

The facility is named for 1986 alumni Paul and Anne-Marie Queally, longtime supporters of the University of Richmond who contributed a $7.5 million lead gift to launch the fundraising efforts for the center.

MILLHISER GYMNASIUM (MILL-high-zer)

Now in its second century, one of the most historic and celebrated buildings on the University of Richmond campus has been completely renovated and now houses the Millhiser Student-Athlete Development Center and offices for both the men's basketball and women's basketball staffs.

The newest version of Millhiser Gymnasium opened in fall 2020 after being refurbished as part of the University's construction of the Queally Athletics Center and the Student Well-Being Center. A mezzanine level was installed to provide office suites for Richmond's basketball programs while the first floor, which still includes the historic gymnasium court surface, is the site of the Student-Athlete Development Center. The Center includes study and meeting spaces for Richmond's student-athletes as well as offices for Richmond Athletics' Academic Services and Leadership Development departments.

Millhiser's entry hall includes a restored classroom that overlooks the Queally Athletic Center's practice court and a recruiting room with end-zone views of Robins Stadium.

As part of Richmond's commitment to a sensitive restoration of the facility, many of Millhiser's iconic arched windows, which had been bricked in for decades, were re-opened.

Millhiser Gymnasium opened in 1921 and was Richmond's home court between 1922 and 1946.

SPIDER BITES

With eight newcomers, tied for the most in Chris Mooney's 19 seasons at Richmond, getting to really know the 2023-24 Spiders is a tall task. Here's some help.

Their basketball skills are at a Division I level, but what other athletic talents do this year's Spiders possess? Four Spiders said their best sport other than basketball is golf, led by low single-digit handicapper Mike Walz. The same number said football, including Isaiah Bigelow, who played in high school. Baseball was just behind, with Collin Tanner and Jordan King saying the national pastime is their best sport outside of basketball. Aidan Noyes, an accomplished shortstop at Cincinnati's Archbishop Moeller High, whose baseball team produced Hall-of-Famers Ken Griffey Jr. and Barry Larkin, theoretically included baseball when he said his best sport outside of basketball was "everything." Ryan Soulis might have trouble finding a match on campus, as he's the only Spider to answer tennis. Soulis' love of tennis led to the name of the family's pet bunny, Roger – as in Federer.
Outside of Soulis, it's dogs or cats for every other Spiders pet-owner. Jack Graham, Jason Roche, and Mike Walz all have cats at home, while eight Spiders have dogs. Notably, Aidan Noyes' dog is named Votto after Reds first baseman Joey Votto. Isaiah Bigelow's dog, an Australian cattle dog officially named Jazzy Blue Healer but also known as Jazz, lives with him in Richmond and can often be found hanging out in the team's locker room.

In what time is left outside of school and basketball, the Spiders screen time is most likely to come via YouTube, the preferred streaming service of 10 of this year's 16 Spiders. (Netflix was picked by three players, the only other streaming service to receive multiple votes.) For podcasts, there's more of a variety of opinion among the team. Five Spiders picked The Joe Rogan Experience as their favorite podcast, while three went with Paul George's Podcast P. No other podcast received multiple votes. As kids, the Spiders were most likely to tune into SpongeBob SquarePants, the favorite children's TV show of a team-high four players. Phineas & Ferb (two), Drake & Josh (two), and Stranger Things (two) were also mentioned. Six players ID'd the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series as their favorite children's book. Percy Jackson The Lightning Thief, in which the main character learns he is the son of Poseidon, the Greek god of the ocean, was the choice of both Neal Quinn and Jason Roche.

Not surprisingly, Quinn was one of a team-high nine players to choose the ocean as his preferred body of water. Roche and five others would rather visit a lake. DeLonnie Hunt wants nothing to do with the wild water. Given the option of visiting an ocean, a lake, or a river, Hunt instead chose a pool. When it comes to holiday visits to home, 11 of the 16 Spiders said that Christmas was their favorite holiday, while four picked Thanksgiving. There's no such thing as a Halloween Break, which is undoubtedly a major disappointment to Jack Graham, the only Spider to choose October 31 as his favorite holiday.

As for the business of college basketball, a strong majority of the Spiders (13 of 16) prefer plane road trips to bus road trips, while Dji Bailey, Tyler Harris, and Jack Graham opt for four wheels instead of two wings. The group was far more divided on its favorite Spider uniform to play in. Three players (Aidan Noyes, Neal Quinn, and Ryan Soulis) chose Richmond's road blues, six picked UR's home whites, and a team-high seven players chose the alternate red jerseys, which the Spiders wore just twice last season. Pro basketball is also a contentious issue. Steph Curry was picked as the best current NBA player by a team-high four Spiders, while Nikola Jokic picked up three votes and Giannis Antetokounmpo and LeBron James each received two, the only other players to be picked more than once.

At chow time, the Spiders prefer chicken (11 votes) to beef (5 votes), and will pass on the pork (0 votes). If that chicken is in wing form, 11 Spiders would opt for a side of ranch instead of blue cheese (two votes). Three Spiders – Ryan Soulis, Mike Walz, and Liam Weaver – will skip the dressing altogether. More than half the team chose Chipotle (seven votes) or Chick-fil-A (four votes) as their favorite chain restaurant, but when it's time for the Spiders to do the cooking, it's most likely pasta on the menu. Eight players said the best thing they know how to cook is a type of pasta dish, ranging from the unrefined (Dji Bailey, Jason Roche, and Liam Weaver opted for a simple spaghetti) to the elevated (Quentin Southall claims he makes a mean shrimp scampi, and Mike Walz has mastered fettuccine alfredo with chicken). Ideally, Aidan Noyes and Neal Quinn are making the most their campus dining plans. The best thing they say they can prepare is peanut butter and jelly (Noyes) and popcorn (Quinn).

CHRIS MOONEY
HEAD COACH
19th SEASON
PRINCETON, 1994

In his first 18 seasons at Richmond, Chris Mooney has led the Spiders to their only two Atlantic 10 championships, three NCAA Tournaments, seven 20-win seasons, and nine postseason appearances while amassing 325 wins, more than any other coach in program history.

Mooney ranks among the longest-tenured and most successful coaches in Atlantic 10 history. This is Mooney's 19th season with the Spiders, giving him the third-longest tenure by a coach at a single school in conference history (John Chaney - 24 seasons at Temple; Phil Martelli - 24 seasons at Saint Joseph's). Mooney is one of 11 coaches to ever win multiple A-10 titles, and only four coaches have won more A-10 championships than Mooney's two: John Chaney (6), John Calipari (5), Phil Martelli (3), and Fran Dunphy (3).

Mooney's season ended prematurely in 2022-23, when on February 17 he announced that he was stepping away from the program to have heart surgery. At the time of his announcement, the Spiders were 13-14 overall, with wins over NCAA Tournament teams Drake and FDU, and 6-8 in the Atlantic 10. Mooney underwent a successful procedure to remove an aortic aneurysm at the University of Virginia Medical Center on February 28 and was back in the office in April.

In 2021-22, Mooney and the Spiders captured the second A-10 title in program history and upset Big Ten champion Iowa in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. Richmond won four games in four days to win the Atlantic 10, opening with a win against 11-seed Rhode Island and then defeating 3-seed VCU, 2-seed Dayton, and 1-seed Davidson. The Spiders overcame 15-point deficits against URI and Dayton, two of UR's six comeback wins of 14 or more points during the season, and defeated Davidson 64-62 in the A-10 final after trailing by six points with 90 seconds remaining. Richmond earned a 12 seed in the Midwest Region of the NCAA Tournament and a match up with Big Ten champion Iowa, a 5 seed, in the First Round. Days after being named Most Outstanding Player of the A-10 Tournament, Jacob Gilyard led all players with 24 points and six assists and Nathan Cayo recorded a pair of 'And-1's' in the final 90 seconds to lead UR to a 67-63 win and secure the sixth trip to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament in program history. Richmond finished 24-13, the fourth-most wins ever by a Spiders team, and Mooney was named UR's Coach of the Year by the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). After setting the NCAA Division I career steals record in December, Gilyard was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year, a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American, and the Virginia State Defensive Player of the Year. In April, he won the Senior CLASS Award as the top senior or graduate student-athlete in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball. Gilyard also earned A-10 All-Conference honors for a fourth straight season. Tyler Burton led Richmond in scoring and rebounding and was named Second Team All-Atlantic 10 by the conference and First Team All-Atlantic 10 by the NABC. Grant Golden was named to the A-10 All-Tournament Team and finished his Spiders career with the second-most points (2,246), third-most rebounds (1,015), and fourth-most assists (476) in Spiders history.

Mooney and the Spiders posted a 14-9 record in the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT. In November, the Spiders beat 10th-ranked Kentucky for the program's first road win ever vs a team in the top 10 of the Associated Press Poll. UR rose as high as 19th in the AP Top 25 during its 4-0 start, the best ranking for the Spiders since December 1957. Richmond earned a 2-seed in the NIT and defeated MAC regular-season champion Toledo in the First Round despite playing without its two leading scorers, Blake Francis and Grant Golden, who were sidelined with injuries. Jacob Gilyard broke Richmond's career assists record while leading the nation in steals for a second straight season and being named a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American. Tyler Burton earned the A-10's Chris Daniels Award, given to the conference's most improved player. He was one of four Spiders to earn A-10 honors, as Francis, Gilyard, and Golden landed on the league's All-Conference teams for a second straight season.

In 2019-20, Mooney led Richmond to one of the best regular seasons in program history and was on the verge of taking the Spiders to the NCAA Tournament when the postseason was canceled due to COVID-19. The Spiders went 24-7, tying the school record for regular-season wins, and posted three wins over power-conference opponents, including a victory over eventual Big Ten champion Wisconsin in the Legends Classic. Richmond went 14-4 in conference play, a program record for conference wins in a season, and finished second in the Atlantic 10, the highest regular-season finish for UR since joining the conference in 2001. Mooney's Spiders relied on a starting lineup comprised entirely of juniors, three of whom -- Jacob Gilyard, Blake Francis, and Grant Golden -- earned All-Atlantic 10 honors following the season. Gilyard was also named A-10 Defensive Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year Award after leading D-I with 99 steals. The Spiders received votes in the AP Top 25 six times, including a season-high six in the final poll of the season.

2009-10 and 2010-11 are remembered as two of the top seasons in Mooney's coaching career and in Spider Basketball history. In 2011, Richmond defeated Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the Spiders first title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001. The Spiders would go on to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. Richmond finished 29-8, set a school record for wins, and finished 21st in the coaches poll.

In 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before falling in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. The Spiders finished the season ranked 24th in the final AP Top 25.

Mooney previously coached at Air Force for five seasons: three as an assistant, one as an associate head coach and his final season as head coach. In 2004-05, Mooney led the Falcons to an 18-12 record and votes in the national polls. His 18 victories were the most by a first-year head coach at Air Force.

Mooney began coaching at the high school level, taking a job at Lansdale Catholic High School in Lansdale, Pa., in 1994. His first college coaching experience came at Division III Beaver College, now known as Arcadia University. He spent two seasons there from 1998-2000. While at Beaver College, Mooney only coached part-time, spending much of his time as an event coordinator. He helped plan weddings and events while also serving as the team manager. Mooney is married to the former Lia Chomat, a Princeton graduate who also has a doctorate in psychology from Penn. The couple has two sons, Danny and Ryan.
