SPIDERS NOTES

GOTTA EARN IT

In his start against Cornell (March 15) Kyle Roche allowed his first walk of the season to the second batter of the game. Roche faced 106 batters over 25.2 innings of work before surrendering a base on balls. Since allowing a walk against High Point (March 22) he has not allowed another base on balls over his next two starts (12 innings). He leads the nation in strikeout to walk ratio (18.00) and in walks per nine innings (0.37) after tossing 48.2 innings over eight starts. Roche leads the Atlantic 10 in innings pitched, third with a 2.96 ERA and a 1.11 WHIP. He was named as the No. 133 in D1Baseball's Week 6 Player Rankings - Top 150 Starting Pitchers March 29.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

Esteban Rodriguez is tied for fifth in the league with 43 strikeouts over 38.0 innings. Cole Hentschel is third with four saves on the season. Connor Larson is the seventh toughest to strike out in the A-10, only striking out every 9.0 at bats. RJ Rickabaugh fifth in the league with ninth hit by pitch. Harrison Clifton leads the A-10 and is 15th in the nation with 17 appearances on the season. Dane Armson and Hentschel are tied for second with 15 appearances each.

SCOUTING THE KEYDETS

VMI has midweeks against A-10 foes UR and George Mason this week after going 1-2 on the weekend at Gardner Webb in league action. The Keydets love to steal bases with four players in double figures, Ty Swaim (20), Kazuya Jordan (19), Brett Cook (18) and Justin Starke (11), and lead the nation in total stolen bases (115) and stolen bases per game (3.29). VMI loves to play at Grey-Minor Stadium going 12-5 in Lexington while posting nearly the opposite on the road 4-12 and 1-1 at neutral site contests.

SCOUTING THE DUKES

The first scheduled meeting between the squads on March 6 was rained out and made the Spiders schedule to have 19-straight home games. JMU is coming off a series sweep of App State last weekend, outscoring the Mountaineers 32-19, improving to 14-3 at home this season and collecting the squad's third weekend sweep at home. Mike Mancini has snagged 13 bases in 15

Richmond picked up a 6-2 Sunday victory over Fordham to avoid an Atlantic 10 Conference series sweep in New York. After Fordham took the lead in the seventh, the Spider offense answered with two runs in the eighth and three more in the ninth. Cole Hentschel picked up his fourth save and second of the week in a two-inning outing and worked out of a bases loaded situation in the ninth with back-to-back strikeouts. The Rams kept the Spider offense from gaining any footing in the first two contests, collecting 5-2 game one victory and 12-2 game two victory.

SPIDERS OUTLAST THE LANCERS

UR starter Vincent Corso tallied three scoreless frames, collecting four strikeouts, while working around one hit and a walk. UR got on the board first in the top of the fourth, as Aidan O'Keefe scored on Jack Arcamone's triple. Longwood took a 3-1 lead in the bottom of the fourth. Aaron Whitley tallied his fifth home run of the season to lead off the fifth to make it 3-2. Ethan Sannes got the win after he tossed a clean fifth, working around an infield single, to quickly get the Spider offense back at the plate. After Connor Larson legged out a triple to start the fifth, Phil Bernstein collected his team-leading leading 25th hit and 26th RBI with a bases loaded infield hit to tie the game. Jake Topolski scored two runs with an infield single to give the Spiders a 5-3 lead. Topolski came up with the base loaded in the eighth and doubled down the left field line to score two more runs, putting the Spiders up 7-4. Cole Hentschel picked up his third save of the season after retiring the Lancers in order with two strikeouts.

SPIDERS TAKE SERIES OVER THE PATRIOTS

Richmond opened the 2024 Atlantic 10 Conference slate with a wild weekend series victory over George Mason. Friday, after hitting a solo home run in the eighth to tie the game, Jordan Jaffe drew a bases loaded walk to force in the game-winning run in the bottom of the ninth. The Spiders loaded the bases with back-to-back hit by pitches and a bunt single. A third hit by pitch scored the first run, the second came on a wild pitch before Jaffe's walk sealed the victory.

Saturday, down 16-2 heading into the bottom of the sixth, Richmond rattled off 15-unanswered runs to walk of the Patriots for a second time on a sacrifice fly. Aaron Whitley's second solo home run of the game kicked off the three runs scored in the sixth. Jaffe tallied a two-RBI double, followed by Phil Bernstein's RBI base hit, a sacrifice fly by Jack Arcamone and a base hit by Aidan O'Keefe in the seventh to cut into the Patriots lead, 16-10. In the ninth, UR tallied six runs on back-to-back bases loaded walks, a sacrifice fly, and back-to-back doubles before Nick Lorenzo, who tallied his first collegiate hit in the eighth, hit the sacrifice fly in the tenth to win the game.

Sunday, down 3-0 going into the bottom of the fifth, Joey Wilga hit a solo blast to get the offense going. Bernstein tallied a sacrifice fly and Jake Topolski picked up two RBI to give UR a 4-3 lead. Mason built up their lead to 9-4 going into the bottom of the eighth. Larson doubled in two runs to make it 9-6 but Mason's closer retired the Spiders in order in the ninth.

MIDWEEK AT No. 9 VIRGINIA

Jake Topolski put the Spiders up quickly, launching his fifth home run and his second grand slam of the season to leftfield in the top of the first. Logan Ymker got the start, keeping UVA off the board in the first, but was hit with a come backer in the second, cutting his outing short. UVA tied the game in the third at 4-all before DJ Pacheco doubled in Connor Larson to take a 5-4 lead in the fourth. UVA answered with three in the bottom of the fourth and took control of the game.

SPIDERS TAKE SERIES AGAINST BIG RED

Richmond picked up two 8-4 victories over Cornell to wrap up a five game Spring Break week and 19-game home stand. DJ Pacheco had two home runs in each of the first two games against the Big Red, with grand slam in the second inning of the first game. He launched the first pitch he saw in the bottom of the first in the second game. Jason Shockley hit a three-run blast in the final game of the series to break a 2-2 tie in the fifth for his third home run of the season.

LATE RALLY FALLS SHORT AGAINST LEOPARDS

Lafayette collected their second win of the season 7-6 as Richmond's rallies in the eighth and ninth fell short. The Spiders put up a 5-0 lead in the first, including a solo home run for DJ Pacheco, who finished the day a double shy of the cycle. The Leopards clawed their way back to take the lead with a three-run sixth. Brian Reinke was named Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Week (March 5) for the first weekly honor of his career and the team this season after he posted a career-high 10 strikeouts over a career-high six innings of work against Sacred Heart. Reinke didn't get the decision but kept the Spiders in the game to get the win after Aaron Whitley broke scoreless draw in the seventh with a solo home run. In three starts over 15 innings of work, Reinke holds a 4.20 ERA, with 19 total strikeouts which is the fifth-best total in the league. MIK AOKI

Head Coach

First Season: 13-18

22nd Season Overall: 554-599-2

reer wins to the Spiders.

He came to UR from Morehead State, where in 2023 he guided the Eagles to a 36-20 record and the outright Ohio Valley Conference regular season title, the first for the program since 1979. Morehead State's 36 wins were tied for fourth-most in school history and marked the third straight year the Eagles increased their win total from the previous season.

Aoki served as the head coach at Notre Dame for nine seasons from 2010-19, when he oversaw the program's transition from the Big East to the Atlantic Coast Conference. In their final Big East season in 2013, Aoki guided Notre Dame to a 34-24 record and a runner-up finish in the Big East Tournament. In the program's second ACC season in 2015, the Irish finished 37-23 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006.

Aoki spent seven seasons at Boston College as both an assistant and head coach, leading BC to some of the most successful seasons in program history. In 2009 — the third of Aoki's four seasons as head coach — the Eagles won 34 games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1967. From 2004 to 2006, Aoki served as BC's pitching coach. He helped BC to a program-record 37 wins in 2005 and had six Eagles pitchers drafted by MLB clubs.

Aoki's first collegiate head coaching position was at Columbia from 1999 to 2003. Aoki led the Lions to 20 wins in 2001, their first 20-win season since 1987. The Lions reached 20 wins again in 2002 and 2003, compiling the second-longest string of 20-win seasons in school history at the time.

Everywhere he's coached, Aoki has demonstrated an ability to develop future professional players. More than 55 of his players have been selected in the MLB Draft, and 15 have gone on to reach the major leagues.

Aoki's teams have also performed in the classroom, posting a program GPA of 3.0 or better every year from 2012 to 2021. In 2018 and 2019, his Notre Dame teams received "The Trophy," an award given to the Irish team most committed to community service.

Aoki earned a Bachelor's degree from Davidson College in 1990 and a Master's degree from Ohio University in 1994. He and his wife Sue have three children, son Kai, and daughters, Bryn and Reese.
