What's Ahead...

The Spiders play their third road game this season and face Liberty. Richmond leads the all-time series 10-1.

Previous Meeting Against Liberty ...

Richmond fell to Liberty 14-13 at Robind Stadium last season. The Spiders, who trailed by as much as five on four separate occasions, made a late push. Richmond scored the final four goals of the game, including three woman-up tallies, to close the gap and pull within one. However, Liberty's defense held strong, and the Spiders ultimately fell by a single goal.

Richmond won the draw battle 20-11, but Liberty would cash in on 26 Richmond turnovers including six on failed clears as well as 14-of-19 shooting to earn the win.

Last Time Out ...

Richmond women's lacrosse team controlled the game for more than three quarters, but could not close it out, as No. 23 Duke rallied late for a 15-14 overtime victory Saturday.

The Spiders struck first and never trailed until the 8:42 mark of the fourth quarter, building multiple leads behind balanced scoring and strong presence at the draw circle. Richmond opened the scoring at 13:38 of the first quarter when Alexis Morton finished a feed from Bridget Lonsinger, part of a five-goal opening frame that gave the Spiders a 5-3 edge after one.

After Duke briefly tied the game twice early, Richmond responded each time. Juliana Stanley's goal at 11:19 put the Spiders back in front for good in the first half, and Stella Axe's tally midway through the quarter restored a one-goal cushion. Morton added her second goal in the final minute of the period to push the lead to 5-3.

Richmond extended its advantage in the second quarter, outscoring Duke 4-3 to take a 9-6 lead into halftime. Meghan Rode and Morton scored during a key 2-0 run that stretched the margin to four goals, the largest of the afternoon. The Spiders' defense also held Duke to just one even-strength goal in the quarter, but the Blue Devils capitalized on two woman-up opportunities and made it a 9-7 game heading into halftime.

Duke began to chip away in the third, but Richmond answered every push. After the Blue Devils closed within one at 8-7 and again at 9-8, the Spiders responded with goals from Emma Kroneberger and Rileigh Meyer to maintain control. Richmond led 11-9 heading into the fourth and had not trailed at any point.

The momentum shifted in the final period. Duke scored back-to-back goals in the opening minutes to tie the game at 11-11, but Keating Hopkins finished a Morton assist at 9:46 to give Richmond its final lead, 12-11. The Blue Devils answered quickly, tying the game at 9:12 before Duke's Eva Pronti scored at 8:42 and 6:47 to give the Blue Devils their largest lead of the game.

Trailing by two late, Richmond continued to fight. Morton scored with 1:57 remaining to cut the deficit to one, and after a defensive stand, the Spiders forced overtime when Lonsinger buried the equalizer with just six seconds left off a Rode assist.

In overtime, Duke controlled the opening draw and ended the game when it netted the game winner 4:13.

Morton led Richmond with four goals and two assists, and is now just two goals away from the 100 career goal milestone. Lonsinger added three goals and two assists, Stanley scored twice, and Rode contributed a goal and five draw controls.

About The 2026 Squad . . .

- Richmond is picked as the favorite in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll
- Richmond graduated nine seniors last season and return 24 Spiders from last year's roster
- Harrington signs three transfers and eight freshmen
- Richmond key returners: #14 Juliana Stanley (attack), #16 Reagan Quinn (defense), #21 Charlotte Edwards (attack), #23 Alexis Morton (attack), #25 Bridget Lonsinger (attack/midfield), #33 Keating Hopkins (midfield), #36 Victoria Rankin (midfield) and #40 Abby Francioli (goalie).
- In week three, the Spiders were ranked No. 25 in the IWLCA poll

Ranked! . . .

On Monday, Richmond checked in at No. 25 on the IWLCA poll.

This season, the Spiders have played three ranked opponents. To open the season, Richmond fell 10-9 to then-No. 23 Penn State before defeating No. 12 Virginia, 12-11.

After earning a 16-11 win over William & Mary last Wednesday and narrowly falling to No. 24 Duke, 15-14, at Robins Stadium, Richmond earned it's first national ranking of the season.

Preseason All-Atlantic 10...

Three Spiders were named to the preseason all-conference team: Alexis Morton at attack, Bridget Lonsinger at midfield and Reagan Quinn at defense.

Morton returns as Richmond's offensive playmaker, leading the Spiders in goals and assists. Last season, she totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. She also tallied 14 ground balls, caused eight turnovers and collected one draw control. She currently ranks No. 10 all-time in program history with 72 career assists.

Lonsinger returns to the midfield unit after earning A-10 All-Conference All-Rookie Team honors last season. She totaled 21 points with 14 goals and seven assists, 29 draw controls, 23 ground balls and caused 10 turnovers.

Quinn returns to Richmond's defensive unit as a lockdown defender. She appeared in 17 games and made five starts last season, consistently disrupting opposing offenses. Quinn totaled nine caused turnovers, four ground balls and one draw control, continuing to establish herself as a reliable defensive playmaker.

The Queen at X . . .

Alexis Morton is the only current Spider in the record book. Morton is currently tied No. 7 all-time in career assists (79) and is tied at No. 3 with Sam Geiersbach at 37 assists in one season. Last season, Morton totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. In her last two seasons, Morton has tallied over 65 points.

First Year Spiders...

Harrington added eight players to the class of 2029. On the defensive side, Quinn Kennedy, Grace Hallahan and goalie Ally Gouveia join the backfield. Ella Grimes, Cece Lesperance and Riley Marks make up the midfield. On attack, Shelby Manlove and Grace Holmes are added to the unit.

Three first years were named USA Lacrosse All-Americans concluding the end of their high school careers: Grace Hallahan, Ella Grimes and Quinn Kennedy. Ally Gouveia and Shelby Manlove were also named USA Lacrosse All-Americans and all-academic honorees.

Hallahan was selected to play in the New Balance All-America Game, representing Team North in July 2025. The game represents the best-of-the-best high school lacrosse players all over the country who are selected by Inside Lacrosse. In August, Hallahan was named to the 2025 IL Women Power 100 Freshmen Rankings at No. 44.

Seeing Double...

Harrington added transfer twins, Rileigh and Quinn Meyer, for their graduate year. Quinn Meyer completed a playing career at Lehigh and will play defense. Sister Rileigh Meyer played for Georgetown and will run the midfield.

Another New Face...

Harrington added transfer Meghan Rode from Syracuse for this year's squad. Rode joins the Spiders as a junior attacker and will be a key presence in the draw circle. Last season at Syracuse, Rode finished with 75 draw controls.

The Rode to Draw Controls . . .

Transfer Meghan Rode has taken center stage for the Spiders as a threat in the draw circle. She opened the season against No. 23 Penn State with 10 draw controls, one shy of her single-game high. Against No. 12/15 Virginia, Rode collected seven draw controls.

Rode has 110 career draw controls. Against William & Mary, she collected a career-high 14 draw controls. If she records more than 17 in a game, she will break Richmond great Arden Tierney's single-game draw controls record set in 2023.

New Year, New Assistant Coach...

Harrington announced the addition of assistant coach Taylor Paige in July 2025. Prior to Richmond, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Paige has worked or played at six different schools in Virginia. Her knowledge as a goalkeeper coach helped players like Jocelyn Torres at Virginia Tech start every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. A graduate keeper, Lilly Kannapell, also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

During Paige's collegiate career, she was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington. In 2014, she recorded a 100% save percentage in a game during her first season as a starter, etching her name in the CAC record books.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons, Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

ANNE HARRINGTON

HEAD COACH - 5TH SEASON
WILLIAM & MARY, 2007

Anne Harrington was named head coach of Richmond women's lacrosse in May 2022 after six seasons on the Spiders' staff, including serving as interim head coach in 2022. During her time at Richmond, the Spiders have posted a 119-38 record, including a 58-12 mark in Atlantic 10 play, while winning four A-10 titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances (2018-19, 2023-24). She finished the 2024 season ranked No. 11 nationally among active Division I head coaches in winning percentage.

In 2025, Harrington led the Spiders to an 11-8 finish, highlighted by the program's first win over No. 19 Penn State. Richmond's previous win over a nationally ranked opponent came in March 2023, when the Spiders defeated Virginia, 16-15, in overtime. Harrington coached Atlantic 10 Midfielder of the Year Grace Muldoon, who earned first-team all-conference and all-tournament honors. Colleen Quinn and Caroline Murphy were also named to the A-10 first team, while Hannah Custer earned second-team honors. Bridget Lonsinger and Keating Hopkins were selected to the A-10 all-rookie team.

Harrington guided Richmond to consecutive NCAA Tournament berths in 2023 and 2024, earning the automatic bid both seasons by winning the Atlantic 10 championship. In 2024, the Spiders went 13-6, claimed their second straight A-10 title and advanced to face No. 8 Penn in the first round. Muldoon was also named the A-10 Most Outstanding Player and a USA Lacrosse All-American, while Charlotte Edwards, Quinn and Abby Francioli joined her on the all-tournament team.

In 2023, Harrington led Richmond to 17 wins, matching the program's single-season record, and guided the Spiders to their first NCAA Tournament victory with a win over Marquette. Richmond finished the regular season ranked No. 14 in the Inside Lacrosse/IWLCA poll and led the nation in draw controls per game while ranking among the top teams nationally in scoring offense and points per game. Standouts included Lindsey Frank, the A-10 Most Outstanding Player, and Arden Tierney, the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year.

Harrington was also part of Richmond's postseason success prior to becoming head coach, helping the Spiders win the 2018 and 2019 A-10 titles and return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007.

A former midfielder at William & Mary, Harrington began her coaching career in England before assistant coaching stops at Dickinson and Connecticut. She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from William & Mary in 2007 and a master's degree in education from Virginia in 2014.

In November 2025, Harrington and her husband welcomed their daughter, Sophia.

DANIELLE ETRASCO

ASSISTANT COACH - 2ND SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2013

Danielle Etrasco joined the Richmond women's lacrosse program in June 2024 as an assistant coach.

Etrasco enters her second season with the Spiders after helping Richmond finish 11-8 last season.

Prior to Richmond, she spent two years at Sacred Heart Academy as the head varsity lacrosse coach. Wrapping up a successful 2024 season with her team at Sacred Heart Academy in Hempstead, New York, the group earned the sportsmanship award and Etrasco was named coach of the year.

Prior to her two-year tenure at Sacred Heart Academy, Etrasco spent three seasons at Georgetown University as an assistant coach from 2016-19, where she helped lead the program to a Big East championship title in 2019, the first since 2010. The program went 33-

23 during her time in Washington, D.C. Through three seasons, she coached 16 All-Big East honorees, three IWLCA All-South Region players and one Big East Midfielder of the Year.

In 2019, Etrasco helped the Hoyas finish 12-9 as they advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014 after beating Penn 13-12 in double overtime.

Before joining Georgetown's staff, Etrasco spent two years at Army West Point as an assistant coach from 2014-16. She aided the program's transition to the varsity level in her second season as her first year with the team was the final year at the club level.

Etrasco spent the 2013-14 academic year at Virginia Tech, where she served as an assistant under head coach Megan Burkner. While in Blacksburg, Virginia, Etrasco worked primarily with the Hokies' attack, helping produce an All-ACC first-team player and improving the team's scoring output from 177 goals in 2013 to 192 goals in 2014.

In her role at Virginia Tech, Etrasco also served as the team's student-athlete academic liaison and was responsible for developing practice plans, breaking down video and coordinating travel.

Before her time at Virginia Tech, Etrasco had a standout playing career as an attacker at Boston University. Along with serving as team captain as a junior and senior, Etrasco led the Terriers in scoring during her sophomore, junior and senior campaigns, including team bests of 79 points, 59 goals and 20 assists as a senior.

Additionally, she was named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List in 2013 as one of the top college players in the nation.

A two-time IWLCA All-American, Etrasco earned IWLCA All-Northeast Region first-team and All-America East first-team honors in each of her final three seasons at Boston University.

In the summer of 2011, Etrasco was invited to join the United States National Team, eventually earning a spot on the 2013 World Cup squad. Etrasco won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2013 Federation of International Lacrosse World Cup in Oshawa, Ontario, totaling 17 goals and three assists in seven games during the tournament.

In 2017, she was selected as the 31st overall pick in the Women's Professional Lacrosse League draft, going to the Philadelphia Fire. She has also played in the United Women's Lacrosse League with the Boston Storm and Upstate Pride.

A native of Massapequa, New York, Etrasco also served in a coaching capacity with the Long Island Liberty Lacrosse program in Manhasset, New York, and at the Around the Crease lacrosse camp in Boston, Massachusetts.

Since the end of her playing career, she has begun her triathlon journey. In 2021, she competed in her first Ironman race and has continued competing since. Most recently, Etrasco competed at the Ironman 70.3 World Championships in Marbella, Spain, in November 2025.

Etrasco earned a Bachelor of Science in hospitality administration from Boston University in 2013. She also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Georgetown University.

2026 RICHMOND SPIDERS LACROSSE

TAYLOR PAIGE

ASSISTANT COACH - 1ST SEASON
MARY WASHINGTON, 2015

Taylor Paige enters her first season with Richmond, joining the staff in July 2025.

Prior to joining the Spiders, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Sophomore Jocelyn Torres started every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. Graduate keeper Lilly Kannapell also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

Paige joined Tech after most recently serving as a lacrosse operations assistant at the University of Virginia for two seasons. She was a key member of a staff that saw the Cavaliers make two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Prior to working at Virginia, she spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Shenandoah University. The Hornets increased their conference win percentage each season Paige was on staff. Before the 2020 season was suspended, Shenandoah started 7-0 in nonconference play, outscoring opponents 113-57 while allowing an average of 8.14 goals per game.

Before joining the Hornets, Paige served as an assistant coach with a focus on goalies at Bridgewater College. From 2017-18, the Eagles had 10 All-ODAC selections, including two goaltenders.

During Paige's collegiate career, she was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington. In 2014, she recorded a 100% save percentage in a game during her first season as a starter, etching her name in the CAC record books.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons, Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

In addition to coaching, Paige serves on the coaches board for the IWLCA.

Most recently, Paige became engaged last August to her fiancée, Julia, a NICU nurse at UVA Health.

Paige earned a Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Mary Washington in 2015. She also earned a master's degree in education and leadership from Shenandoah University.
