What's Ahead...

The Spiders host their first Atlantic 10 game against Rhode Island as part of their One Love dedication game Saturday. Rhode Island, only in its second season, lost to the Spiders last year and is looking for its first win over Richmond in program history. The Rams are led by Jenna Slowey, who also coached at Richmond. Anne Harrington and Slowey coached together for five seasons, winning A-10 championship titles in 2018 and 2019 and a shared regular-season title in 2021.

Both teams will dedicate Saturday's game to the One Love Foundation. One Love was founded to honor former UVA lacrosse player Yeardeley Love, who was tragically killed by her ex-boyfriend. One Love is a national nonprofit organization with the goal of ending relationship abuse. The foundation empowers young people with the tools and resources to recognize the signs of healthy and unhealthy relationships and brings life-saving prevention education to their communities.

Previous Meeting Against Rhode Island ...

In the first-ever meeting between Rhode Island and the University of Richmond, the women's lacrosse team defeated the Rams 13-8 Saturday afternoon. In the win, Caroline Murphy reached the career milestone of 100 draw controls, and Grace Muldoon recorded a season-high eight draw controls.

With the win, the Spiders improved to 7-5 overall and 5-1 in Atlantic 10 play. URI fell to 5-6 overall and 1-4 in conference play. The victory marked Richmond's fourth straight league win of the season.

Colleen Quinn led the Spiders with five points (four goals, one assist), and Muldoon recorded a hat trick. Juliana Stanley, Charlotte Edwards and Alexis Morton each scored two goals and added an assist.

Last Time Out ...

Richmond's women's lacrosse team opened Atlantic 10 play at VCU at Cary Street Field on Saturday afternoon. The Spiders earned a 15-6 win over the Rams.

Senior Alexis Morton tied the single-game program record with 11 points and eight assists. She paced the team with a career-high 11 points on three goals and eight assists. Meaghan Rode netted four goals and added an assist, and Bridget Lonsinger recorded a hat trick. Juliana Stanley tallied two goals, while Anya Wardle collected two assists. Charlotte Edwards, Stella Axe and Keating Hopkins each scored a goal, and Emma Kroneberger added an assist.

In the draw circle, Rode collected 11 draw controls. Richmond's draw unit went 20-3, with two of VCU's draw controls coming on violations.

On defense, Mia Valerio led the team with three caused turnovers, one ground ball and one draw control.

In goal, Abby Francioli tallied eight saves in 54:46 of play, collecting two ground balls and causing one turnover. Ally Gouveia played the final 5:14 in goal.

About The 2026 Squad...

- Richmond was picked as the favorite in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll
- Richmond graduated nine seniors last season and return 24 Spiders from last year's roster
- Harrington signs three transfers and eight freshmen
- Richmond key returners: #14 Juliana Stanley (attack), #16 Reagan Quinn (defense), #21 Charlotte Edwards (attack), #23 Alexis Morton (attack), #25 Bridget Lonsinger (attack), #33 Keating Hopkins (midfield), #36 Victoria Rankin (midfield) and #40 Abby Francioli (goalie).
- In week three, the Spiders were ranked No. 25 in the IWLCA and ILWomen polls. Richmond is the only A-10 institution that has been ranked this season
- The Spiders lead the A-10 in assists per game (9.50), points per game (23.17) and in woman-down goals per game (.67)

Preseason All-Atlantic 10...

Three Spiders were named to the preseason all-conference team: Alexis Morton at attack, Bridget Lonsinger at midfield and Reagan Quinn at defense.

Morton returns as Richmond's offensive playmaker, leading the Spiders in goals and assists. Last season, she totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. She also tallied 14 ground balls, caused eight turnovers and collected one draw control.

Lonsinger returns to the midfield unit after earning Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team honors last season. She totaled 21 points with 14 goals and seven assists, along with 29 draw controls, 23 ground balls and 10 caused turnovers.

Quinn returns to Richmond's defensive unit as a lockdown defender. She appeared in 17 games and made five starts last season, consistently disrupting opposing offenses. Quinn totaled nine caused turnovers, four ground balls and one draw control, continuing to establish herself as a reliable defensive playmaker.

Player of the Week...

In week three, Morton was named A-10 Offensive Player of the Week after tallying nine goals and six assists across two games, collecting one ground ball. Morton recorded five goals and three assists in the Spiders' 16-11 victory at William & Mary before posting four goals and three assists in a narrow 15-14 overtime loss to No. 20/23 Duke.

In week five, Morton earned her second A-10 Offensive Player of the Week accolade after her historic performance in the 15-6 win over VCU.

The Queen of Points...

Alexis Morton is the only current Spider in the record book. Morton is currently No. 7 all-time in career assists with 88 and is tied for No. 3 in single-season assists with Sam Geiersbach (37). Last week against VCU, Morton tied the program's single-game record with 11 points and eight assists. She is only the fourth Spider in program history to reach 11 points in a game and just the second to record eight assists in a single game. The last Spider to reach 11 points was Kim Egizi against George Mason in 2018 and Rachel Ziemba against George Mason in 2021.

Last season, Morton totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. In each of the last two seasons, Morton has tallied more than 65 points.

She currently ranks No. 31 in Division I in points per game (3.25) with 191 career points and No. 18 in Division I in assists per game (1.54).

Between the Pipes...

Junior goalkeeper Abby Francioli is ranked No. 23 in Division I with 329 career saves. In the A-10, she is No. 6 in saves per game (7.17) and No. 7 in saves percentage (.453).

First Year Spiders...

Harrington added eight players to the class of 2029.

On the defensive side, Quinn Kennedy, Grace Hallahan and goalkeeper Ally Gouveia join the backfield. Ella Grimes, Cece Lesperance and Riley Marks make up the midfield. On attack,

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Name & Upcoming	Has	Needs
#13 Rode - 150 draw controls	131	19
#14 Stanley - 100 points	97	3
#23 Morton - 200 points	191	8
#23 Morton - 150 goals	103	47
#23 Morton - 100 assists	88	12
#36 Rankin - 100 draw controls	93	7
#40 Francioli - 350 saves	329	20

Shelby Manlove and Grace Holmes join the unit.

Three first-years were named USA Lacrosse All-Americans at the conclusion of their high school careers: Grace Hallahan, Ella Grimes and Quinn Kennedy. Ally Gouveia and Shelby Manlove were also named USA Lacrosse All-Americans and All-Academic honorees.

The Rookie Making an Impact...

Hallahan was selected to play in the New Balance All-America Game, representing Team North in July 2025. The game features the top high school lacrosse players in the country selected by Inside Lacrosse.

In August, Hallahan was named to the 2025 ILWomen Power 100 Freshmen Rankings at No. 44. This season, Hallahan has been a major contributor for the Spider defense. She has caused five turnovers and collected four ground balls and five draw controls. In the win against then-No. 12 Virginia, Hallahan guarded ACC Midfielder of the Year Kate Gallica and held her to just one assist.

Seeing Double...

Harrington added transfer twins, Rileigh and Quinn Meyer, for their graduate year. Quinn Meyer completed a playing career at Lehigh and will play defense. Sister Rileigh Meyer played for Georgetown and will run the midfield.

Another New Face...

Harrington added transfer Meghan Rode from Syracuse for this year's squad. Rode joins the Spiders as a junior attacker and will be a key presence in the draw circle. Last season at Syracuse, Rode finished with 75 draw controls.

The Rode to Draw Controls . . .

Transfer Meghan Rode has taken center stage for the Spiders as a threat in the draw circle. She opened the season against No. 23 Penn State with 10 draw controls, one shy of her single-game high. Against No. 12/15 Virginia, Rode collected seven draw controls.

Rode has 131 career draw controls. Against William & Mary, she collected a career-high 14 draw controls. If she records more than 17 in a game, she will break Richmond great Arden Tierney's single-game draw controls record set in 2023.

Rode leads the A-10 in draw controls per game (9.33) and ranks No. 45 in the NCAA in draw controls per game (4.09).

New Year, New Assistant Coach...

Harrington announced the addition of assistant coach Taylor Paige in July 2025. Prior to Richmond, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Paige has worked or played at six different schools in Virginia. Her knowledge as a goalkeeper coach helped players like Jocelyn Torres at Virginia Tech start every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. A graduate keeper, Lilly Kannapell, also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

During Paige's collegiate career, she was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington. In 2014, she recorded a 100% save percentage in a game during her first season as a starter, etching her name in the CAC record books.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons,

2026 RICHMOND SPIDERS LACROSSE

Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

ANNE HARRINGTON

HEAD COACH - 5TH SEASON
WILLIAM & MARY, 2007

Anne Harrington was named head coach of Richmond women's lacrosse in May 2022 after six seasons on the Spiders' staff, including serving as interim head coach in 2022. During her time at Richmond, the Spiders have posted a 119-38 record, including a 58-12 mark in Atlantic 10 play, while winning four A-10 titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances (2018-19, 2023-24). She finished the 2024 season ranked No. 11 nationally among active Division I head coaches in winning percentage.

In 2025, Harrington led the Spiders to an 11-8 finish, highlighted by the program's first win over No. 19 Penn State. Richmond's previous win over a nationally ranked opponent came in March 2023, when the Spiders defeated Virginia, 16-15, in overtime. Harrington coached Atlantic 10 Midfielder of the Year Grace Muldoon, who earned first-team all-conference and all-tournament honors. Colleen Quinn and Caroline Murphy were also named to the A-10 first team, while Hannah Custer earned second-team honors. Bridget Lonsinger and Keating Hopkins were selected to the A-10 all-rookie team.

Harrington guided Richmond to consecutive NCAA Tournament berths in 2023 and 2024, earning the automatic bid both seasons by winning the Atlantic 10 championship. In 2024, the Spiders went 13-6, claimed their second straight A-10 title and advanced to face No. 8 Penn in the first round. Muldoon was also named the A-10 Most Outstanding Player and a USA Lacrosse All-American, while Charlotte Edwards, Quinn and Abby Francioli joined her on the all-tournament team.

In 2023, Harrington led Richmond to 17 wins, matching the program's single-season record, and guided the Spiders to their first NCAA Tournament victory with a win over Marquette. Richmond finished the regular season ranked No. 14 in the Inside Lacrosse/IWLCA poll and led the nation in draw controls per game while ranking among the top teams nationally in scoring offense and points per game. Standouts included Lindsey Frank, the A-10 Most Outstanding Player, and Arden Tierney, the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year.

Harrington was also part of Richmond's postseason success prior to becoming head coach, helping the Spiders win the 2018 and 2019 A-10 titles and return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007.

A former midfielder at William & Mary, Harrington began her coaching career in England before assistant coaching stops at Dickinson and Connecticut. She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from William & Mary in 2007 and a master's degree in education from Virginia in 2014.

In November 2025, Harrington and her husband welcomed their daughter, Sophia.

DANIELLE ETRASCO

ASSISTANT COACH - 2ND SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2013

Danielle Etrasco joined the Richmond women's lacrosse program in June 2024 as an assistant coach.

Etrasco enters her second season with the Spiders after helping Richmond finish 11-8 last season.

Prior to Richmond, she spent two years at Sacred Heart Academy as the head varsity lacrosse coach. Wrapping up a successful 2024 season with her team at Sacred Heart Academy in Hempstead, New York, the group earned the sportsmanship award and Etrasco was named coach of the year.

Prior to her two-year tenure at Sacred Heart Academy, Etrasco spent three seasons at Georgetown University as an assistant coach from 2016-19, where she helped lead the program to a Big East championship title in 2019, the first since 2010. The program went 33-

23 during her time in Washington, D.C. Through three seasons, she coached 16 All-Big East honorees, three IWLCA All-South Region players and one Big East Midfielder of the Year.

In 2019, Etrasco helped the Hoyas finish 12-9 as they advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014 after beating Penn 13-12 in double overtime.

Before joining Georgetown's staff, Etrasco spent two years at Army West Point as an assistant coach from 2014-16. She aided the program's transition to the varsity level in her second season as her first year with the team was the final year at the club level.

Etrasco spent the 2013-14 academic year at Virginia Tech, where she served as an assistant under head coach Megan Burkner. While in Blacksburg, Virginia, Etrasco worked primarily with the Hokies' attack, helping produce an All-ACC first-team player and improving the team's scoring output from 177 goals in 2013 to 192 goals in 2014.

In her role at Virginia Tech, Etrasco also served as the team's student-athlete academic liaison and was responsible for developing practice plans, breaking down video and coordinating travel.

Before her time at Virginia Tech, Etrasco had a standout playing career as an attacker at Boston University. Along with serving as team captain as a junior and senior, Etrasco led the Terriers in scoring during her sophomore, junior and senior campaigns, including team bests of 79 points, 59 goals and 20 assists as a senior.

Additionally, she was named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List in 2013 as one of the top college players in the nation.

A two-time IWLCA All-American, Etrasco earned IWLCA All-Northeast Region first-team and All-America East first-team honors in each of her final three seasons at Boston University.

In the summer of 2011, Etrasco was invited to join the United States National Team, eventually earning a spot on the 2013 World Cup squad. Etrasco won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2013 Federation of International Lacrosse World Cup in Oshawa, Ontario, totaling 17 goals and three assists in seven games during the tournament.

In 2017, she was selected as the 31st overall pick in the Women's Professional Lacrosse League draft, going to the Philadelphia Fire. She has also played in the United Women's Lacrosse League with the Boston Storm and Upstate Pride.

A native of Massapequa, New York, Etrasco also served in a coaching capacity with the Long Island Liberty Lacrosse program in Manhasset, New York, and at the Around the Crease lacrosse camp in Boston, Massachusetts.

Since the end of her playing career, she has begun her triathlon journey. In 2021, she competed in her first Ironman race and has continued competing since. Most recently, Etrasco competed at the Ironman 70.3 World Championships in Marbella, Spain, in November 2025.

Etrasco earned a Bachelor of Science in hospitality administration from Boston University in 2013. She also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Georgetown University.

TAYLOR PAIGE

ASSISTANT COACH - 1ST SEASON
MARY WASHINGTON, 2015

Taylor Paige enters her first season with Richmond, joining the staff in July 2025.

Prior to joining the Spiders, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Sophomore Jocelyn Torres started every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. Graduate keeper Lilly Kannapell also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

Paige joined Tech after most recently serving as a lacrosse operations assistant at the University of Virginia for two seasons. She was a key member of a staff that saw the Cavaliers make two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Prior to working at Virginia, she spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Shenandoah University. The Hornets increased their conference win percentage each season Paige was on staff. Before the 2020 season was suspended, Shenandoah started 7-0 in nonconference play, outscoring opponents 113-57 while allowing an average of 8.14 goals per game.

Before joining the Hornets, Paige served as an assistant coach with a focus on goalies at Bridgewater College. From 2017-18, the Eagles had 10 All-ODAC selections, including two goaltenders.

During Paige's collegiate career, she was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington. In 2014, she recorded a 100% save percentage in a game during her first season as a starter, etching her name in the CAC record books.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons, Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

In addition to coaching, Paige serves on the coaches board for the IWLCA.

Most recently, Paige became engaged last August to her fiancée, Julia, a NICU nurse at UVA Health.

Paige earned a Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Mary Washington in 2015. She also earned a master's degree in education and leadership from Shenandoah University.
