What's Ahead...

Richmond is looking to extend its win streak to eight games this season and improve the all-time series to 25-0 this Saturday. Currently, the Spiders lead the all-time series 24-0.

Previous Meeting Against La Salle...

Richmond defeated the Explorers 19-3 at Robins Stadium. The Spiders jumped to a 10-goal lead and prompted a running clock after just 12:08 of game time had passed.

Ten different Spiders contributed points, led by Alexis Morton with seven (5 goals, 2 assists), followed by Colleen Quinn with six (3 goals, 3 assists).

Megan Rice and Grace Muldoon recorded two goals and an assist each, and Keating Hopkins and Juliana Stanley each had two goals. Elizabeth Darcy, Charlotte Edwards and Caroline Chandler each had a goal, and Whitney Liebler added an assist.

In goal, Abby Francioli and Maggie Mullen split time in the cage. Francioli recorded five saves and Mullen recorded two. On the draw, Victoria Rankin led the team with five draw controls, and four Spiders each collected two ground balls.

Last Time Out...

The No. 23 Richmond defeated the University of South Florida 15-14 on Monday at Robins Stadium. The win marks Richmond's seventh straight victory.

With the win, the Spiders improve to 9-2 overall, while the Bulls fall to 7-3. Richmond now leads the all-time series 1-0.

Meghan Rode led the team with a career high of eight points on two goals and a personal-best six assists. Juliana Stanley also notched a career high with five goals. Alexis Morton tallied four assists, while Bridget Lonsinger and Rileigh Meyer each scored two goals. Charlotte Edwards, Emma Kroneberger, Stella Axe and Keating Hopkins each added one goal.

Lonsinger led the team with six draw controls and five ground balls.

Defensively, CC Jacobs led the team with two caused turnovers and one ground ball.

In goal, Abby Francioli earned the win and tallied 11 saves in 60 minutes of play.

About The 2026 Squad...

- Richmond was picked as the favorite in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll.
- Richmond graduated nine seniors last season and returns 24 players from last year's roster.
- Coach Harrington signed three transfers and eight freshmen.
- Key returners include No. 14 Juliana Stanley (attack), No. 16 Reagan Quinn (defense), No. 21 Charlotte Edwards (attack), No. 23 Alexis Morton (attack), No. 25 Bridget Lonsinger (attack), No. 33 Keating Hopkins (midfield), No. 36 Victoria Rankin (midfield) and No. 40 Abby Francioli (goalie).
- In Week 3, the Spiders were ranked No. 25 in the IWLCA poll. In Week 5, Richmond was ranked No. 25 in both the IWLCA and ILWomen polls. In Week 7, the Spiders returned to the ILWomen Media Poll at No. 25. Richmond is the only Atlantic 10 program ranked this season.

- As of March 24, 2026, the Spiders rank in the top 10 nationally in three categories: No. 6 in draw controls per game, No. 8 in assists per game and No. 8 in points per game. Richmond also ranks in the top 20 in six categories: No. 11 in scoring margin, No. 14 in scoring offense, No. 16 in draw controls per game, No. 17 in scoring defense and save percentage and No. 18 in shot percentage.
- As of March 24, 2026, three Spiders rank in the top 20 nationally: Alexis Morton (No. 7 in points per game, No. 19 in assists per game), Abby Francioli (No. 19 in goals-against average) and Meghan Rode (No. 15 in draw controls per game, No. 19 in assists per game).
- In Week 8, the Spiders are ranked No. 23 in the ILWomen Media Poll and are receiving votes in the IWLCA poll.

Preseason All-Atlantic 10...

Three Spiders were named to the preseason all-conference team: Alexis Morton at attack, Bridget Lonsinger at midfield and Reagan Quinn at defense.

Morton returns as Richmond's offensive playmaker, leading the Spiders in goals and assists. Last season, she totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. She also tallied 14 ground balls, caused eight turnovers and collected one draw control.

Lonsinger returns to the midfield unit after earning Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team honors last season. She totaled 21 points with 14 goals and seven assists, along with 29 draw controls, 23 ground balls and 10 caused turnovers.

Quinn returns to Richmond's defensive unit as a lockdown defender. She appeared in 17 games and made five starts last season, consistently disrupting opposing offenses. Quinn totaled nine caused turnovers, four ground balls and one draw control, continuing to establish herself as a reliable defensive playmaker.

Player of the Week...

In week 3, Morton was named A-10 Offensive Player of the Week after tallying nine goals and six assists across two games, collecting one ground ball. Morton recorded five goals and three assists in the Spiders' 16-11 victory at William & Mary before posting four goals and three assists in a narrow 15-14 overtime loss to No. 20/23 Duke.

In week 5, Morton earned her second A-10 Offensive Player of the Week accolade after her historic performance in the 15-6 win over VCU.

This week, Bridget Lonsinger was named Atlantic 10 Offensive Player of the week.

Lonsinger paced the Spiders offensively in a dominant 19-6 win over St. Bonaventure, on Saturday afternoon. Lonsinger led all players with a career-high seven points on four goals and three assists. Her four goals matched her career best, while her three assists marked a career-high as well.

The Queen of Points...

Alexis Morton is the only current Spider in the record book. Morton is currently tied No. 4 all-time in career assists with 99 and is tied for No. 3 in single-season assists with Sam Geiersbach (37). Against VCU, Morton tied the program's single-game record with 11 points and eight assists. She is only the fourth Spider in program history to reach 11 points in a game and just the second to record eight assists in a single game. The last Spider to reach 11 points was Kim Egizi against George Mason in 2018 and Rachel Ziembra against George Mason in 2021.

Last season, Morton totaled 76 points, second on the team, with 39 goals and 37 assists. In each of the last two seasons, Morton has tallied more than 65 points.

This season, as of Week 7 in NCAA Division I, Morton is ranked No. 7 in points per game and No. 19 in assists per game. In the A-10, Morton leads the league, averaging 5.36 points per game.

2026 RICHMOND SPIDERS LACROSSE

Between the Pipes...

Junior goalkeeper Abby Francioli was ranked No. 22 in Division I with 346 career saves in week 7. In the A-10, she is No. 5 in saves per game (6.91) and No. 3 in save percentage (.481).

First Year Spiders...

Harrington added eight players to the class of 2029.

On the defensive side, Quinn Kennedy, Grace Hallahan and goalkeeper Ally Gouveia join the backfield. Ella Grimes, Cece Lesperance and Riley Marks make up the midfield. On attack, Shelby Manlove and Grace Holmes join the unit.

Three first-years were named USA Lacrosse All-Americans at the conclusion of their high school careers: Grace Hallahan, Ella Grimes and Quinn Kennedy. Ally Gouveia and Shelby Manlove were also named USA Lacrosse All-Americans and All-Academic honorees.

The Rookie Making an Impact...

Hallahan was selected to play in the New Balance All-America Game, representing Team North in July 2025. The game features the top high school lacrosse players in the country selected by Inside Lacrosse.

In August, Hallahan was named to the 2025 ILWomen Power 100 Freshmen Rankings at No. 44. This season, Hallahan has been a major contributor to the Spider defense, causing five turnovers and collecting four ground balls and five draw controls. In the win against then-No. 12 Virginia, Hallahan guarded ACC Midfielder of the Year Kate Gallica and held her to just one assist.

Seeing Double...

Harrington added transfer twins, Rileigh and Quinn Meyer, for their graduate year. Quinn Meyer completed a playing career at Lehigh and will play defense. Her sister Rileigh Meyer played for Georgetown and will run the midfield.

Another New Face...

Harrington added transfer Meghan Rode from Syracuse for this year's squad. Rode joins the Spiders as a junior attacker and will be a key presence in the draw circle. Last season at Syracuse, Rode finished with 75 draw controls.

The Rode to Draw Controls . . .

Transfer Meghan Rode has taken center stage for the Spiders as a threat in the draw circle, currently with 172 career draw controls. Rode leads the A-10 in draw controls per game (8.82) and was ranked No. 37 in the NCAA in draw controls per game (4.51) in Week 7.

She opened the season against No. 23 Penn State with 10 draw controls. Against No. 12/15 Virginia, Rode collected seven draw controls.

Against George Mason, she collected a career-high 15 draw controls. If she records more than 17 in a game, she will break Richmond great Arden Tierney's single-game draw controls record set in 2023.

New Year, New Assistant Coach...

Harrington announced the addition of assistant coach Taylor Paige in July 2025. Prior to Richmond, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Paige has worked or played at six different schools in Virginia. Her knowledge as a goalkeeper coach helped players like Jocelyn Torres at Virginia Tech start every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. A graduate keeper, Lilly Kannapell, also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

During Paige's collegiate career, she was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington. In 2014, she recorded a 100% save percentage in a game during her first season as a starter, etching her name in the CAC record books.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons, Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

ANNE HARRINGTON

HEAD COACH - 5TH SEASON
WILLIAM & MARY, 2007

Anne Harrington was named head coach of Richmond women's lacrosse in May 2022 after six seasons on the Spiders' staff, including serving as interim head coach in 2022. During her time at Richmond, the Spiders have posted a 119-38 record, including a 58-12 mark in Atlantic 10 play, while winning four A-10 titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances (2018-19, 2023-24). She finished the 2024 season ranked No. 11 nationally among active Division I head coaches in winning percentage.

In 2025, Harrington led the Spiders to an 11-8 finish, highlighted by the program's first win over No. 19 Penn State. Richmond's previous win over a nationally ranked opponent came in March 2023, when the Spiders defeated Virginia, 16-15, in overtime. Harrington coached Atlantic 10 Midfielder of the Year Grace Muldoon, who earned first-team all-conference and all-tournament honors. Colleen Quinn and Caroline Murphy were also named to the A-10 first team, while Hannah Custer earned second-team honors. Bridget Lonsinger and Keating Hopkins were selected to the A-10 all-rookie team.

Harrington guided Richmond to consecutive NCAA Tournament berths in 2023 and 2024, earning the automatic bid both seasons by winning the Atlantic 10 championship. In 2024, the Spiders went 13-6, claimed their second straight A-10 title and advanced to face No. 8 Penn in the first round. Muldoon was also named the A-10 Most Outstanding Player and a USA Lacrosse All-American, while Charlotte Edwards, Quinn and Abby Francioli joined her on the all-tournament team.

In 2023, Harrington led Richmond to 17 wins, matching the program's single-season record, and guided the Spiders to their first NCAA Tournament victory with a win over Marquette. Richmond finished the regular season ranked No. 14 in the Inside Lacrosse/IWLCA poll and led the nation in draw controls per game while ranking among the top teams nationally in scoring offense and points per game. Standouts included Lindsey Frank, the A-10 Most Outstanding Player, and Arden Tierney, the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year.

Harrington was also part of Richmond's postseason success prior to becoming head coach, helping the Spiders win the 2018 and 2019 A-10 titles and return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007.

A former midfielder at William & Mary, Harrington began her coaching career in England before assistant coaching stops at Dickinson and Connecticut. She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from William & Mary in 2007 and a master's degree in education from Virginia in 2014.

In November 2025, Harrington and her husband welcomed their daughter, Sophia.

DANIELLE ETRASCO

ASSISTANT COACH - 2ND SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2013

Danielle Etrasco joined the Richmond women's lacrosse program in June 2024 as an assistant coach.

Etrasco enters her second season with the Spiders after helping Richmond finish 11-8 last season.

Prior to Richmond, she spent two years at Sacred Heart Academy as the head varsity lacrosse coach. Wrapping up a successful 2024 season with her team at Sacred Heart Academy in Hempstead, New York, the group earned the sportsmanship award and Etrasco was named coach of the year.

Prior to her two-year tenure at Sacred Heart Academy, Etrasco spent three seasons at Georgetown University as an assistant coach from 2016-19, where she helped lead the program to a Big East championship title in 2019, the first since 2010. The program went 33-

23 during her time in Washington, D.C. Through three seasons, she coached 16 All-Big East honorees, three IWLCA All-South Region players and one Big East Midfielder of the Year.

In 2019, Etrasco helped the Hoyas finish 12-9 as they advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014 after beating Penn 13-12 in double overtime.

Before joining Georgetown's staff, Etrasco spent two years at Army West Point as an assistant coach from 2014-16. She aided the program's transition to the varsity level in her second season as her first year with the team was the final year at the club level.

Etrasco spent the 2013-14 academic year at Virginia Tech, where she served as an assistant under head coach Megan Burkner. While in Blacksburg, Virginia, Etrasco worked primarily with the Hokies' attack, helping produce an All-ACC first-team player and improving the team's scoring output from 177 goals in 2013 to 192 goals in 2014.

In her role at Virginia Tech, Etrasco also served as the team's student-athlete academic liaison and was responsible for developing practice plans, breaking down video and coordinating travel.

Before her time at Virginia Tech, Etrasco had a standout playing career as an attacker at Boston University. Along with serving as team captain as a junior and senior, Etrasco led the Terriers in scoring during her sophomore, junior and senior campaigns, including team bests of 79 points, 59 goals and 20 assists as a senior.

Additionally, she was named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List in 2013 as one of the top college players in the nation.

A two-time IWLCA All-American, Etrasco earned IWLCA All-Northeast Region first-team and All-America East first-team honors in each of her final three seasons at Boston University.

In the summer of 2011, Etrasco was invited to join the United States National Team, eventually earning a spot on the 2013 World Cup squad. Etrasco won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2013 Federation of International Lacrosse World Cup in Oshawa, Ontario, totaling 17 goals and three assists in seven games during the tournament.

In 2017, she was selected as the 31st overall pick in the Women's Professional Lacrosse League draft, going to the Philadelphia Fire. She has also played in the United Women's Lacrosse League with the Boston Storm and Upstate Pride.

A native of Massapequa, New York, Etrasco also served in a coaching capacity with the Long Island Liberty Lacrosse program in Manhasset, New York, and at the Around the Crease lacrosse camp in Boston, Massachusetts.

Since the end of her playing career, she has begun her triathlon journey. In 2021, she competed in her first Ironman race and has continued competing since. Most recently, Etrasco competed at the Ironman 70.3 World Championships in Marbella, Spain, in November 2025.

Etrasco earned a Bachelor of Science in hospitality administration from Boston University in 2013. She also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Georgetown University.

ASSISTANT COACH - 1ST SEASON
MARY WASHINGTON, 2015

Taylor Paige enters her first season with Richmond, joining the staff in July 2025.

Prior to joining the Spiders, Paige spent three years on the staff at Virginia Tech, beginning in August 2023. With Paige's guidance in 2024, Hokie goalies tallied 158 saves and allowed one fewer goal per game than their opponents. Tech's shot-stoppers also saw an increase in save percentage compared to the 2023 season.

Sophomore Jocelyn Torres started every game in net for the Hokies during the 2024 campaign, finishing with a 9-9 record while recording a .427 save percentage on 427 shots faced and tallying 131 saves. Graduate keeper Lilly Kannapell also appeared in eight matches between the pipes, saving 27 shots with a final save percentage of .540. Torres and Kannapell helped Tech outscore its opponents from the commonwealth, 62-45.

Paige joined Tech after most recently serving as a lacrosse operations assistant at the University of Virginia for two seasons. She was a key member of a staff that saw the Cavaliers make two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Prior to working at Virginia, she spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Shenandoah University. The Hornets increased their conference win percentage each season Paige was on staff. Before the 2020 season was suspended, Shenandoah started 7-0 in nonconference play, outscoring opponents 113-57 while allowing an average of 8.14 goals per game.

Before joining the Hornets, Paige served as an assistant coach with a focus on goalies at Bridgewater College. From 2017-18, the Eagles had 10 All-ODAC selections, including two goaltenders.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Paige was mentored by Julie Myers, a longtime coach at Virginia. Myers spent 28 seasons at Virginia, leading her team to the postseason every year except 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Paige was also mentored by Colleen Shearer, who coached at Virginia for 19 seasons, Bridgewater from 2016-17, James Madison from 2022-24 and Richmond from 2018-19. Paige and Shearer coached together at Bridgewater and overlapped at Virginia in 2021.

Combined, Shearer and Myers have won three national championships. Most recently, Shearer won a national championship with James Madison in 2018.

In addition to coaching, Paige serves on the coaches board for the IWLCA.

Most recently, Paige became engaged last August to her fiancée, Julia, a NICU nurse at UVA Health.

Paige earned a Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Mary Washington in 2015. She also earned a master's degree in education and leadership from Shenandoah University.
