SCOUTING THE SIENA SAINTS

Siena is led by Javian McCollum at 16.0 points and 3.8 assists per game. McCollum left Friday's game vs. Saint Peter's after 14 minutes, reportedly due to back issues. Jackson Stormo has contributed 13.6 ppg. and 5.4 rebounds per game, while Andrew Platek also averages in double figures at 10.4 ppg. Michael Eley (8.6 ppg.), Jared Billups (7.8 ppg., 6.3 rpg.) and Jayce Johnson (7.8 ppg.) have also contributed solidly.

ALL-TIME SERIES VS. SIENA

Siena leads the all-time series with the Broncs, 37-19. The two teams split a home-and-home series last season, with the road team winning each game. The win was the Broncs' first in Albany over Siena since Dec. 7, 2012. Rider had lost the prior six meetings at MVP Arena, while the two teams didn't meet in Albany in 2017-18 and 2020-21.

SLUGGISH SECOND HALF

Playing without Preseason All-MAAC First Team selection Dwight Murray, Jr., due to injury, Rider shot 53.6 percent (15-28) in the first half vs. Quinnipiac to take a 36-31 into the locker room on Jan. 6. However, the Broncs cooled off in the second half (35.7 percent, 10-28) and were outscored, 41-27, in the period as Quinnipiac took the victory. Allen Powell scored a season-high 19 points and Mervin James scored 16 points in defeat.

MURRAY APPROACHING 1,000 POINTS AT RIDER

Dwight Murray, Jr. has scored 995 points in 68 games played at Rider. With another five points, he'd become Rider's 41st men's basketball player to score 1,000 points in the cranberry and gray. Including his two seasons at Incarnate Word, Murray has scored 1,492 career points in 128 games played.

TOUGH ONE BY TWO

Rider took a tough 61-59 road loss at Niagara on Jan. 2. The Broncs erased what was once an 11-point deficit in the first half to take a one-point lead in the second. Rider trailed by two in the closing seconds and had a look to either win or tie the game, while Dwight Murray, Jr.'s jumper wouldn't fall.

BENCH BIG VS. CANISIUS

With zero points from Dwight Murray, Jr. and Mervin James in the first half at Canisius on Dec. 31, you'd hardly expect that the Broncs would lead by five at the half. But Tariq Ingraham scored eight of his 12 points in the opening 20 minutes, while Nehemiah Benson added six points and five rebounds and Corey McKeithan had four points. All told, Rider's bench outscored that of Canisius, 22-4, in the first half and 26-10 for the game. Ingraham shot 5-for-5 from the field and buried two pivotal free throws with 13 seconds remaining.

IN THE FIGHT WITH THE DAWGS

Though Rider never led for the first time this season on Dec. 28 at Georgia, the Broncs hung with the Dawgs for 40 minutes. Georgia scored the game's first 10 points, but Rider cut the deficit to five late in the first half. After rebuilding its lead to 20 with under 14 minutes left, Rider furiously came back to pull to within two with just over a minute remaining. But the Bulldogs held on, extending their lead to the final six-point margin from the free-throw line. For the game, Rider took advantages of 41-35 on the glass, 44-22 in points in the paint and 19-8 in second-chance points.

2022-23 Rider Men's Basketball

RIQ UNLEASHED

Tariq Ingraham had his best game as a Bronc, going for 15 points and seven rebounds on Dec. 28 at Georgia. He made 5-of-7 attempts from the floor and all five of his free-throw attempts. Only his 19-point performance for Wake Forest against Delaware State in his true freshman year of 2020-21 stands as a greater offensive output for the Broncos' big man.

HEARTBREAK AT THE HANDS OF THE HENS

Rider led for 31:33 of game time to Delaware's 3:27 with a lead in the Broncos' 60-59 heartbreaking loss to the Blue Hens on Dec. 19. Jameer Nelson, Jr. fell to the ground with 9.7 seconds left, successfully selling a Mervin James offensive foul, before contributing the game-winning tip-in with 3.6 seconds remaining. Dwight Murray, Jr. led Rider with 21 points, while Allen Powell had 15.

BIG THREE SOAR OVER SKYHAWKS

Mervin James, Dwight Murray, Jr. and Ajiri Ogemuno-Johnson all had big games in the Broncos' 78-67 win at Stonehill on Dec. 7. James went for 23 points, 13 rebounds and five assists, compiling his first double-double as a Bronc. He had nine of them in two seasons at North Alabama. Murray added 20 points, including 4-of-7 shooting from long range. Finally, Ogemuno-Johnson scored 13 of his 19 points in the second half, while also adding nine rebounds.

DYNAMIC DJ

Dwight Murray, Jr. led the Broncos in scoring in eight of the first nine games this season, scoring at least 17 points in the first 10 games, before seeing his streak snapped at Georgia. Included was a career-high-matching 30 against Central Arkansas on Nov. 19.

MAAC OPENING WIN AT THE MOUNT

Rider outlasted Mount St. Mary's on the road, 68-65, in the Broncos' league opener on Dec. 3. Tied with less than a minute remaining, Ajiri Ogemuno-Johnson converted a conventional three-point play with 55 seconds remaining and the Broncos never trailed again. Dwight Murray, Jr. led all scorers with 19 points. The Broncos trailed by as many as eight points in the game and five points in the second half, but held the Mountaineers without a field goal for a stretch of 9:56 of game time in the latter stanza to spark the comeback.

RUN AND SHOOT

Rider used runs of 14-0, 10-2 and 7-0 in the first half, another 9-0 run in the second and shot a season-high 57.7 percent (30-52) for the game in an 88-62 win over Monmouth on Nov. 30. Mervin James and Dwight Murray, Jr. led the Broncos with 17 points apiece.

NO LUCK IN IRELAND

The Broncos lost a pair of MAAC/ASUN Dublin Classic Games, Nov. 18-19, in Ireland. Rider fell to Stetson and Central Arkansas. Dwight Murray, Jr., led the Broncos in both games, scoring 17 points against the Hatters and matching his career high with 30 points against the Bears.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS VS. TCNJ

Rider shot 50.7 percent (36-71) in defeating local foe The College of New Jersey on Nov. 12. Dwight Murray, Jr. led the way with 17 points on 6-of-7 shooting, while Allen Powell had 14 points and a career-high four steals. Tariq Ingraham scored in double-digits for the first time as a Bronc with 10 points off the bench.

JAMES FOR 1,000

Mervin James eclipsed the 1,000-point mark for his collegiate career with his first bucket on Nov. 12 vs. TCNJ. He came to Rider with 620 points in two seasons at North Alabama, before adding 366 points last season for the Broncs.

TALE OF TWO HALVES AT PROVIDENCE

Rider built a lead of as many as 15 in the Nov. 8 season opener at Providence and led by 10 at the half, on the strength of hot shooting and 10 first-half points from Dwight Murray, Jr. Providence kept it as close as it did, getting 22 trips to the free-throw line in the period to zero for Rider. For the game, it was a 43-10 discrepancy, more than putting the Broncs at a disadvantage in what would prove to be a one-point game. In the end, the Friars used 21-3 second-half run to produce an eight-point lead the Broncs whittled to one, but couldn't overcome.

BRONCS PICKED THIRD IN THE MAAC

With four of five starters and 74 percent of its scoring from a year ago returning and an influx of incoming talent, Rider was picked third in the MAAC by the league's coaches, just three points behind second-place Manhattan. A week after the poll was announced, Manhattan parted ways with Head Coach Steve Masiello and, as a result, also lost Preseason MAAC Player of the Year Jose Perez, among others. Iona is the preseason favorite in the league.

INFAMOUS TO UNANIMOUS

After being snubbed by the MAAC's coaches and being left off the 2021-22 All-MAAC Teams, Dwight Murray, Jr. was a unanimous 2022-23 Preseason All-MAAC First Team selection. The recognition comes after Murray showed his worth in the 2022 MAAC Championships, averaging 17.3 points, 6.0 assists and 4.7 rebounds per game in the MAAC Tournament, including 21 points, eight assists and the game-winning floater to knock off top-seeded Iona to earn MAAC All-Championship Team honors. For the season, he led the MAAC at 4.7 assists per game and 37.4 minutes per game, while also leading the team in scoring (13.1 ppg.- 11th-MAAC), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.9 - 2nd-MAAC) and free-throw percentage (.813 - 8th-MAAC).

JAMES, POWELL TAKE THIRD TEAM

Mervin James and Allen Powell were also named Preseason All-MAAC Third Team. James was often thrust into roles as a power forward or even center in his first year in Lawrenceville, evolved into his role throughout the season and was a force come MAAC Tournament time. He was fourth on the team and 20th in the MAAC at 11.1 points and 5.0 rebounds per game last year. Powell was third on the team and 14th in the MAAC at 12.1 points per game a year ago, shooting a team-high 36.0 percent (68-189) from long range, good for 12th in the league. He scored in double digits 21 times and scored 20 or more points three times.

ELDER OGEMUNO

With 109 career games played entering the season, Ajiri Ogemuno-Johnson is poised to become Rider's all-time leader in games played, a distinction currently held by Mike Ringgold (133 games). Ogemuno-Johnson started all 31 games played in 2021-22, averaging 8.6 points and 7.0 rebounds (2nd-Team, 7th-MAAC). His 56.1 field-goal percentage led RU and was fourth in the MAAC. Ogemuno-Johnson elevated his game in the MAAC Tournament, scoring a season-high 15 points on 7-of-9 shooting and grabbing 12 rebounds in an Opening Round win over Manhattan (Mar. 8), before adding 12 points, 12 rebounds and two steals in the Broncs' upset of top-seeded Iona in the MAAC Quarterfinals.

PEBBLEBROOK PIPELINE

Rider Head Coach Kevin Baggett added Dwight Murray, Jr. as a transfer from Incarnate Word for the 2020-21 season and he immediately became an All-MAAC Second Team performer. A year later, Baggett added his Pebblebrook (GA) High School teammate, Mervin James, following two years and an All-ASUN selection while at North Alabama. James started 31 of 33 games played, averaging 11.1 points and 5.0 rebounds per game. For a third-straight year, Baggett has gone to the Pebblebrook well, adding freshman Kami Young, a 2,000-point scorer in high school with a reputation as a sharpshooter.

TRANSFER TALENT

The Broncs have added talent for this season, including four players through the transfer portal. Tariq Ingraham joined the Broncs for second semester last year after parts of three seasons at Wake Forest. He was a high school teammate of Ajiri Ogemuno-Johnson and is expected to be an inside-outside threat for the Broncs. A former All-CAA Third Team selection at Towson and a contributor at Rhode Island before an injury robbed him of the last season-plus, Allen Betrand started the Broncs' exhibition game against Cabrini and scored 13 points on 5-of-6 shooting. Adetokunbo Bakare also brings Division I experience, having played 2020-21 at NJIT before playing last season at Indian Hills C.C. Transferring up from Division II Lincoln, Zahrion Blue was his conference's Player of the Year after averaging 19.2 points and 7.5 rebounds per game last year. A Princeton, NJ, native, he's the most local recruit the Broncs have had in recent years.

JT BACK TO THE BRONCS

Rider legend Jason Thompson '08 begins a new chapter of his career as the Broncs' Special Assistant to the Head Coach this season. The 2008 NBA Lottery Pick announced the end of his 13-year pro-playing career, including the first eight in the NBA with the Sacramento Kings, Golden State Warriors and Toronto Raptors, this Fall. Thompson was an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-America, US Basketball Writers' Association District II Player of the Year, the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District 3 selection, MAAC Player of the Year, and the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year at Rider. He compiled 2,040 points (third-most ever at Rider) and a Rider-record 1,171 rebounds, including a Broncs single-season-best 412 in 2007-08. His 235 career blocks and 91 rejections in 2007-08 are also Rider records. He was a first-ballot Rider Athletics Hall of Fame inductee in 2016, and his No. 1 jersey hangs from the rafters of Alumni Gym as one of only two Rider men's basketball players of all-time to have their numbers retired (Darrick Suber, No. 4). Thompson went on to play 541 games for the Sacramento Kings in the NBA, the most ever for the franchise while based in Sacramento, compiling over 5,000 points and 3,750 rebounds in seven seasons, before splitting his eighth season in 2015-16 with the Golden State Warriors and Toronto Raptors.

EUROPEAN TOUR TIMES TWO

Rider embarked on a week-long tour of Belgium, The Netherlands and France in late August. Rider won all of its three exhibition games against top competition in Belgium, while also enjoying a top-notch cultural experience. The Broncs again headed across the pond for the MAAC/ASUN Dublin Challenge, Nov. 18-19, in Ireland. Rider fell in a pair of games to Stetson and Central Arkansas.

POWELL PRODUCES LATE

Allen Powell stepped up in the last 16 games of 2021-22, averaging 15.3 points. Included in the stretch was conversions on 21-straight attempts from the free-throw line. He turned up his aggressiveness, getting to the free-throw line 57 times in the last 16 games, compared to the 22 free-throw attempts he had through the first 17 games of the year. After averaging 7.7 points on 28.7 percent shooting from the floor (29-101) and 26.4 percent (14-53) from long range through 11 games, Powell averaged 14.2 points on 39.8 percent (104-261) from the floor and 39.7 percent (54-136) from long range in the last 22. The tale of two seasons mirrors Powell's performance in 2020-21, when he started the season 9-of-30 (30.0 percent) from deep through 12 games, before turning it on with 51.9 percent (28-54) shooting in the season's final 11 games to lead the MAAC at 44.0 percent (35-84) on the year.

14-1 RUN (BABY RUN)

The Broncs used a 14-1 second-half run to turn a 41-36 deficit into a lead it wouldn't relinquish Feb. 11 at Saint Peter's newly-renovated and renamed Run Baby Run Arena. Defense was the catalyst in the run, which extended to a 22-6 spurt, covering 12:32 of game time in which Rider did not allow a Saint Peter's field goal and only six free throws made. Only a lay-up with nine seconds left and the game well in hand prevented the Broncs from holding Saint Peter's without a conversion in the final 12:42. During the Peacocks' dry spell, Rider forced 13-straight missed field-goal attempts and five turnovers. Saint Peter's, of course, would go on to make college basketball history as the first No. 15 seed in tournament annals to reach the Elite Eight.

MURRAY MOVES PAST 1,000

Dwight Murray, Jr. eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau for his collegiate career on Dec. 3, 2021, at Iona. He accomplished the feat in 94 games, spanning two seasons at Incarnate Word and 34 games over two years at Rider. He averaged 8.1 points per game over 61 games in 2018-19 and 2019-20 for the Cardinals, before almost doubling that production at 15.3 ppg. over the next 33 games at Rider.

11TH SEASON

SAINT JOSEPH'S '89

2015, 2018 MAAC Coach of the Year
2013, 2018 Ben Jobe Award Finalist
2018 Hugh Durham Award Finalist
2013 Joe B. Hall Award Finalist

Two-time MAAC Coach of the Year Kevin Baggett returns for his 11th season as the Rider University head basketball coach in 2022-23. The 2022-23 season is the 17th for Baggett as a member of the Rider staff, serving two as an assistant coach and four as an associate head coach. In the last 16 years, Rider has compiled 272 wins, the third-most in the MAAC behind only Iona (295) and Siena (273). Baggett has coached on the Division I level for 26 years and has been on the Rider staff since the 2006-07 season.

'Baggs' is a two-time MAAC Coach of the Year (2015 and 2018) and has been a finalist for three different National Coach of the Year Awards - the Ben Jobe Award, the Joe B. Hall Award and the Hugh Durham Award.

As Head Coach at Rider, Baggett has led his players to 22 All-MAAC honors and two MAAC Sixth Player of the Year awards. The total increases to 32 including six seasons as an assistant coach, with mentorship of 2008 NBA Lottery Pick Jason Thompson, the 2008 MAAC Player of the Year and two-time MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, to his credit. In addition, he's coached six MAAC All-Rookie Team honorees.

In his first season at Rider, Baggett took a team with just two returning starters and six total letterwinners that was picked to finish seventh in the 10-team Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in 2013 and finished in second place. With an emphasis on defense, Baggett's Broncs led the MAAC in three-point field goal percentage defense in 2012-13 and was second in overall field goal percentage defense, third in blocks and fourth in points allowed.

He guided the 2012-13 Broncs to a 19-win season, the most by a Rider rookie head coach since Bob Greenwood led Rider to a 20-win season in 1962-63. The only other Rider basketball coach to compile 19 wins in his rookie campaign was the legendary Clair Bee. Included in the 19 wins was Rider's first-ever Division I national postseason tournament victory, a road win at Hartford in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). The last time Rider had won a game in a national postseason tournament came in 1957, when the Roughriders won a pair of games in the NCAA College Division Championships (now NCAA Division II).

In 2013-14, Coach Baggett took a young team and produced two All-MAAC performers along with a MAAC All-Rookie team selection. His 2013-14 squad was ranked eighth in the nation in three-point field goal percentage and was 51st in Division I in three-point field goals made.

In 2014-15, Baggett took a squad that was picked seventh in the MAAC and guided the team to a 21-win season and a second place finish in the conference, earning MAAC Coach of the Year honors as Rider was selected to play in the College Basketball Invitational tournament. Baggett was a finalist for the Ben Jobe National Coaching Award for the second time in three years and he was named the UPS All-District 1 Coach of the Year.

The Broncs had another very successful campaign in 2016-17, winning 18 games and advancing to the MAAC Championship Quarterfinals. Rider was offered the chance to play in multiple national postseason tournaments, but declined. Seniors Jimmie Taylor and Kahlil Thomas were each named to the All-MAAC Third Team. Rider finished first in the league in rebounds per game (40.3), with three Broncs - Thomas, Norville Carey and Taylor - finishing in the top 20 individually.

2017-18 was a banner year for Baggett and the Broncs. Picked to finish seventh in the MAAC after losing four starters to graduation, the Broncs won 22 games, a share of the MAAC Regular Season Championship and advanced to the NIT for the second time in program history. Baggett was named MAAC Coach of the Year for the second time in six years, took NABC All-District 1 Coach and was also a finalist for the Hugh Durham and Ben Jobe Awards. Baggett guided four players to All-MAAC honors, including First Teamer Dimencio Vaughn, Second Teamer Stevie Jordan and Third Team honorees Jordan Allen and Frederick Scott. Scott was named MAAC 6th Player of the Year, while Allen earned All-Rookie Team honors. Vaughn was also selected to the NABC All-District Second Team and earned Second Team All-Met. As a team, Rider led the MAAC in field-goal percentage (.465), offensive rebounds per game (13.2), rebound margin (+2.6), steals per game (7.5), rebounds per game (39.2), turnover margin (+2.2) and turnovers forced per game (15.4). Jordan led the league in assists (5.9) for the second-straight year and was 26th in the nation. Allen's 2.88 three-point field goals made per game ranked 50th in the country, while Vaughn's 1.83 steals per game were 55th. Baggett earned his 100th career win on Jan. 26, 2018, against Saint Peter's.

Stevie Jordan and Frederick Scott repeated as All-MAAC Second and Third Team selections, respectively, in 2018-19, as the Broncs finished tied for second in the MAAC Regular Season Standings. Jordan recorded his 1,000th career point, becoming the 37th player in Rider history to reach the plateau.

In 2019-20, Tyere Marshall joined the ranks of All-MAAC selections, earning Third Team recognition. Dimencio Vaughn returned to All-MAAC First Team form, while Scott earned his third-straight Third Team honor. Vaughn, Scott and Marshall became the 38th, 39th, and 40th Broncs to score their 1,000th points in the cranberry and white. The Broncs compiled an 18-12 overall record and a 12-8 mark in league play. Baggett's Broncs earned the No. 3 seed in the MAAC Championships and were riding a three-game winning streak when the tournament was halted due to COVID-19.

Rider once again won a MAAC Tournament game in 2020-21 under Baggett, taking an opening-round contest against sixth-seeded Canisius. Dwight Murray, Jr. earned All-MAAC Second Team and NABC All-District 1 Second Team honors.

While 2021-22 had its up's and down's, the year ended on a high note, as Baggett led the Broncs to a pair of MAAC Tournament wins, including an upset of top-seeded Iona in the quarterfinals. Dimencio Vaughn earned All-MAAC Second Team honors and Dwight Murray, Jr. was named to the MAAC All-Championship Team after hitting the game-winning shot against Iona with six seconds remaining in regulation.

Baggett was named the Rider men's basketball head coach at a standing room only press conference on May 24, 2012.

"This was a popular decision," Rider Director of Athletics Don Harnum said at that time. "It was also a convenient decision, but let me make it very clear, this was not a hire of convenience. This was a hire because I firmly believe and am very confident that Kevin is the right person to lead this program in the future."

Baggett hails from Burlington, NJ and was a 2006 inductee into the South Jersey Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Saint Joseph's 1985-86 basketball team that compiled a 26-6 record and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He received his bachelor's degree in marketing from Saint Joseph's in June, 1989.

Baggett came to Rider from the University of Maryland Baltimore County, where he served as assistant coach from 2004-06. At UMBC Baggett recruited an America East All-Rookie Team member who went on to earn First Team All-Conference honors three times, as well as a pair of transfers from the Colonial Athletic Association who went on to earn All-America East honors.

Baggett has also served as an assistant coach at James Madison, Howard, Western Kentucky and Coastal Carolina.
