Adam Lechtenberg • Head Coach
Third Season

Adam Lechtenberg was named the 15th head coach in the history of the CCSU football program on January 10, 2023. He returned to New Britain where he spent two seasons (2010 and 2011) as the co-offensive coordinator, helping the Blue Devils to the 2010 NEC Championship.

Lechtenberg graduated from the University of Nebraska with a BS in Agribusiness in 2003. He earned a Masters' Degree from TCU in 2010.

He and his wife Kristy, a graduate of CCSU, have a daughter, Maddie.

At CCSU (2023-present)

- A 2024 Eddie Robinson Award Finalist after leading CCSU to the NEC Championship
- Earned first head coaching win, 44-0, September 2, 2023 versus AIC at home
- Picked up his first NEC win at Wagner, 17-3, on October 21, 2023

Before CCSU

University of Central Oklahoma (March 2022-January 2023)

- Co-Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach
- First winning season since 2018, with a first-year coaching staff

Virginia Tech (2017-2021)

- Coached running backs and served as offensive recruiting coordinator in 2020-21
- Recruited and coached Khalil Herbert, who averaged 7.7 yards per attempt in 2020 (a school-record) and was drafted in the 2021 NFL Draft
- Also recruited and coached Raheem Blackshear, who spent 2022 with the Carolina Panthers

University of Tennessee-Martin (January 2016-March 2017)

- Passing game coordinator and wide receiver's coach
- Finished second in the Ohio Valley Conference with a 6-2 record

University of Memphis (February 2012-January 2016)

- Director of player personnel and interim wide receiver's coach
- Served as interim WR coach in 2015, helping the Tigers to a 9-3 record and a Birmingham Bowl berth
- 2014 squad won the AAC Championship and the Miami Beach Bowl, finishing 10-3
- Helped produce NFL players Anthony Miller, Alan Cross, Mose Frazier and Tevin Jones

Central Connecticut State University (January 2010-January 2012)

- Co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach
- Helped CCSU to the 2010 NEC Championship with a 7-1 league record
- Offense ranked in the top-third of FCS in eight or more offensive categories in each season
- Led the NEC in nine offensive categories in 2010
- Served as recruiting coordinator, including signing all-time leading rusher Rob Hollomon

Texas Christian University (July 2007-January 2010)

- Offensive graduate assistant coach, working with quarterbacks and offensive line
- Appeared in three bowl games during that time, and won the 2008 Mount West Conference title

Truman State University (Spring 2007)

Wayne State College (2005-07)

- Wide receivers coach and video coordinator
