2011 USA Softball National Collegiate Player Of The Year Watch List:

• Seniors Alisa Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named to the Top 50 Watch List for the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year. This marks the second-consecutive year in which both Goler and Schlopy have been named to the Top 25 Watch List for the award. In 2009, Goler was a top-10 finalist for the honor, and in 2010, Schlopy was one of the award's top-25 finalists.

• The ASA will announce the 25 finalists on April 13. A player does not have to appear on this initial watch list to be considered as a top 25 finalist. However, once the top 25 finalists are named the winner of the award will come from that list.

ESPN Preseason All-America:

• Seniors Alisa Goler, Taylor Schlopy and Megan Wiggins were named to the ESPN Pre-season All-America teams. Goler and Schlopy were first team selections while Wiggins earned a spot on the second team.

The Bulldog softball team will play its eighth season in its multi-million dollar softball stadium in 2011. The facility holds close to 1,400 fans with additional standing room and features the best amenities possible. The Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host three NCAA Regionals and one NCAA Super Regional since its inception in 2004.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugout are connected via tunnel to locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it — an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, and the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built as well. The press box has suites for radio, television, and for both Georgia and the visiting team's athletic director. The stadium is finished with an awning covering the upper section. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

Jack Turner Stadium is a part of the Turner Family Sports Complex which is also home to the Georgia Bulldogs soccer team and the Turner Soccer Complex.
