INTRODUCTION

GAMEDAY ENTRANCE
The press area in the Bryant-Denny Stadium Press Box is located on the second level on the west side of the Stadium. The entrance to the press box is through the press elevator, located near gate 11. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is at ticket window 8 located at the northwest corner of the end zone complex adjacent to Gate 3 of Bryant-Denny Stadium.

RADIO/TELEVISION/COACHES
Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delayed telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and Alabama and visiting coaches booths. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

CREDENTIALS
Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets that are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

PHOTO DECK
This level, located in front of the main press box at Bryant-Denny Stadium, offers ample space for still photographers, network TV cameras and coaches film crews.

SIDELINES
Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

- Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.
- All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be in attendance in a working capacity with proper equipment.
- Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.
- No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for each team's broadcast originating networks.
- Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for grip operations.
- No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential for sideline access.
- Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
- Photographers should contact associate SID Roots Woodruff for further information at (205) 348-6084.
- Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located in the south end on the field level of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Contact Roots Woodruff to reserve space.
- Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by Event Management staff.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches quotes and game facts will be distributed via e-mail to members of the working media. There will be a limited number of printed notes packages available in the media relations work room in the hallway of the press box, but that number will not facilitate the number of media outlets covering the game. Alabama's gameday notes and a flip card are located at each seat throughout the press box.

Alabama's game notes, opponent notes and conference notes will be provided in a PDF via e-mail on Thursday evening. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

PARKING
Media parking is located in lots nearby Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

PRESS BOX CONNECTIVITY
Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium press box. In addition, a limited number of ethernet lines also are available.

PRO SCOUTS
Despite severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Doug Walker at dwalker@ia.ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS
Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by 12 p.m. (noon) Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Doug Walker or Roots Woodruff. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credential needs for personnel must be included in the online request.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION
Through the SEC Network, highlights of SEC events are free to embed in you website. Please visit SECNetwork.com for embeddable clips of event highlights. The usage of clips is unlimited. To do so: A. Locate the video you want on the SECNetwork.com website. B. Click the "Tool" icon below the video, then click "Share"; Make sure to wait until the ad ends. C. INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN
All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Director of Football Communications Josh Maxson at jmaxson@ia.ua.edu or (205) 348-3631. Coach Saban will meet with the media each Monday preceding a game at Noon (CT) in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:35 a.m. (CT). He also will meet with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Naylor Stone Media Room. In addition, Coach Saban is available by request between noon and 1 p.m. (CT) Tuesday through Thursday.

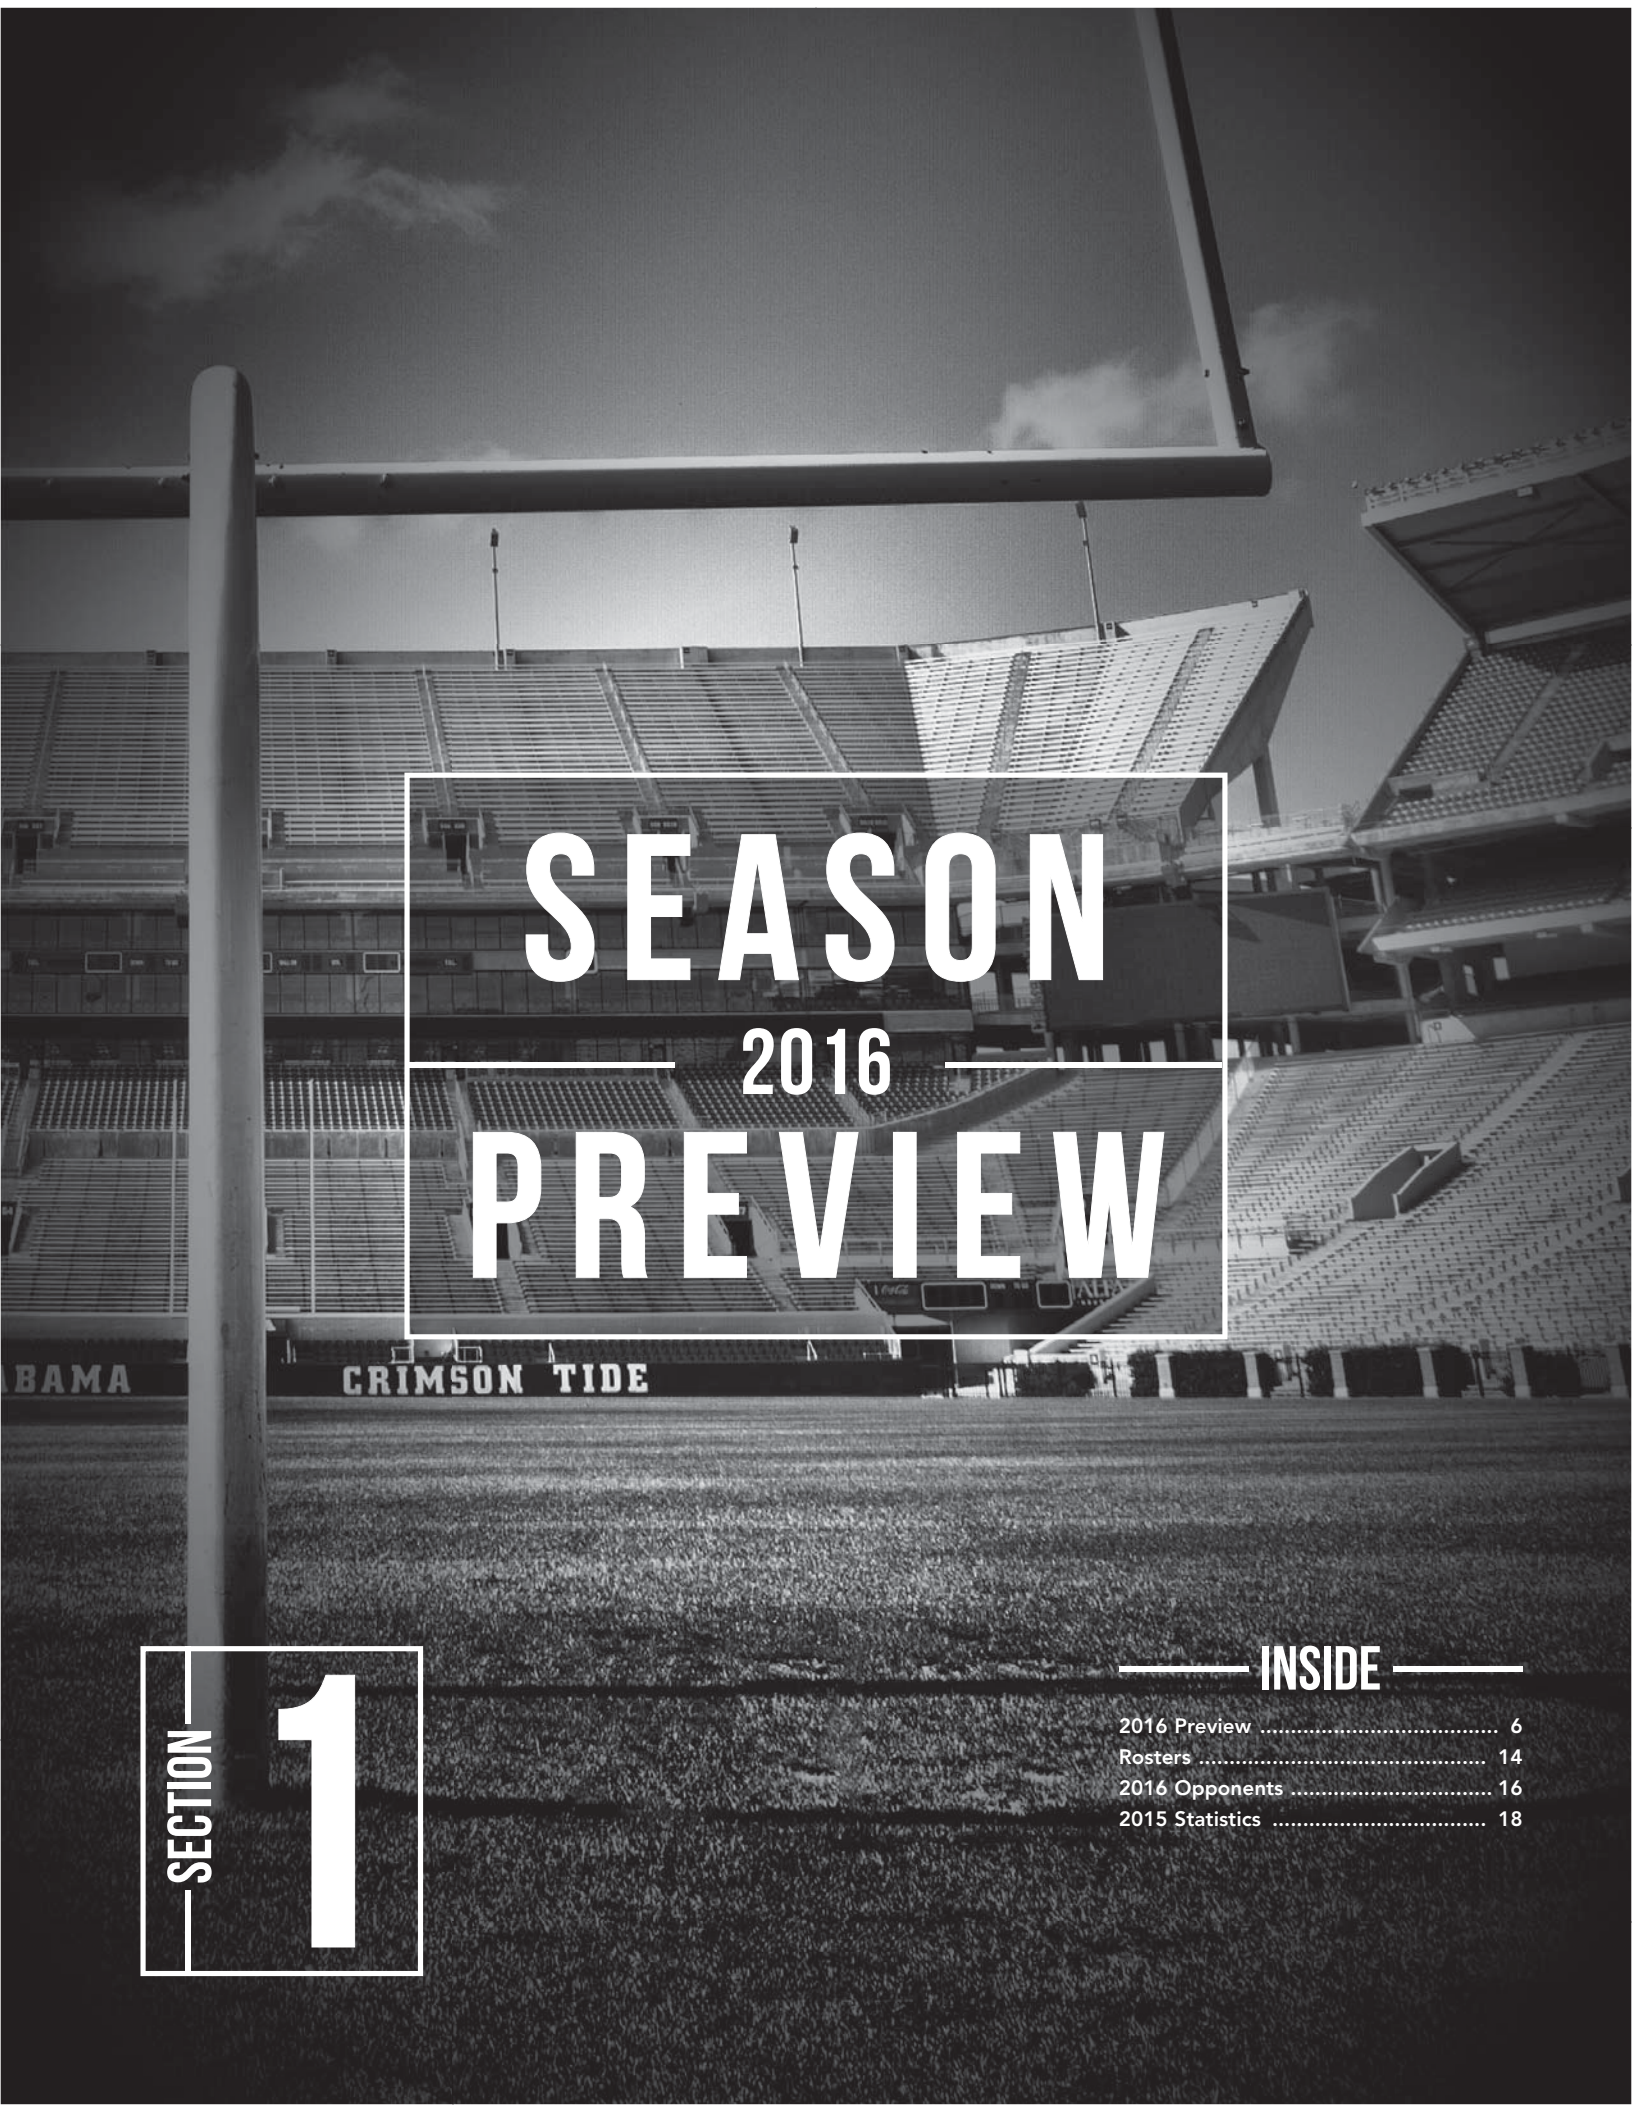

PLAYERS
All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Communications Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference, if their class schedule permits. Player interviews should be requested through Assistant Director of Communications Alex Thompson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are available prior to Tuesday's and following Wednesday's practices. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursday or Friday.

POSTGAME
The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game, in the Media Room located on the second floor of the North End Zone complex. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the Media Room following Coach Saban's postgame news conference. The opposing coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the South End Zone Media Room adjoining the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS
Alabama football practices are open to the media on Monday through Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a practice pass list for admission to practices.

ALABAMA SATELLITE FEED
Video highlights of Alabama football are available via satellite each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and FTP information.

ROLL TIDE ROLL

PREVIEWING THE 2016 ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The Alabama Crimson Tide returns 14 starters and 46 lettermen for the 2016 season – 23 lettermen and six starters are back on offense and 19 lettermen and five starters on defense, along with four specialists who lettered and all three starting specialists.

On offense, the Crimson Tide must replace Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry and his SEC-record 2,219 rushing yards, 28 rushing touchdowns on 395 rushing attempts from 2015 as well as All-American center and NFL first round draft pick Ryan Kelly and starting quarterback Jake Coker, who set a school record with 263 completions a season ago. The Tide returns two key starters on the offensive line in sophomore center Ross Pierschbacher and junior left tackle Cam Robinson. Alabama returns explosive threats at receiver with sophomore Calvin Ridley and juniors Robert Foster and ArDarius Stewart, as well as the dangerous O.J. Howard at tight end. A bevy of talented underclassmen will battle for open positions on the offensive line, while the running back position will undergo a makeover with a number of talented backs looking to replace the departed Henry, including sophomores Bo Scarbrough and Damien Harris. The battle for the quarterback position will feature four talented signal-callers auditioning for the starting nod.

The defense returns at least one starter at each level, led by All-SEC defensive end Jonathan Allen, who recorded 12 sacks a season ago. The leading returning tackler, linebacker Reuben Foster and second team All-American Eddie Jackson at safety. Allen is joined up front by freshman All-American Da'Ron Payne and rotation regulars Dalvin Tomlinson and Da'Shawn Hand. Other key contributors at linebacker include Shaun Dion Hamilton, Ryan Anderson, Rashaan Evans and Tim Williams, who had 10.5 sacks last season. The secondary will have the most returning experience as starting corners Minkah Fitzpatrick and Marlon Humphrey return with Jackson.

The Crimson Tide returns all of its specialists in 2016 with junior punter JK Scott anchoring the unit as arguably one of the nation's best punters, with a career average of 45.9 yards per punt. Placekicker Adam Griffith returns for his senior season after a solid junior campaign. Senior Cole Mazza returns for his fourth year as the Tide's starting long snapper, giving Alabama a steady presence at a key special teams position. A number of talented return players will battle for the kick and punt return positions.

O.J. Howard returns as one of the most dynamic tight ends in the country. The senior led last season's team with a 15.8 yards per catch average with 38 catches for 602 yards.

OFFENSE

Alabama's offense will have a new look and feel in 2016 with the departure of five starters and 11 letterwinners, including Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry at running back, Rimington Trophy winner Ryan Kelly at center and quarterback Jake Coker. The Tide does return offensive threats O.J. Howard at tight end, and Calvin Ridley and ArDarius Stewart at wide receiver along with starting offensive linemen Ross Pierschbacher, Cam Robinson and Alphonse Taylor. The Alabama roster features a host of young running backs vying to replace Henry and Kenyan Drake as well as a multitude of quarterbacks looking to fill Coker's shoes.

Ridley, Stewart and Howard were Alabama's top three receivers in 2015 and give Alabama one of the nation's most potent receiver corps. Ridley led the squad with 1,045 yards and seven touchdowns on 89 receptions, all freshman records at the Capstone. Ridley's yardage total was third only to Amari Cooper and Julio Jones on the Tide season receiving yards list, while his 89 catches are the second-most in a season in school history. Stewart caught 63 passes for 700 yards and four touchdowns, while Howard finished with 602 yards and two touchdowns on 38 catches and capped the season with a record-setting night against Clemson in the national championship game. Howard's 208 yards against the Tigers were the most by an Alabama player in a postseason game and the most by any player in a national championship game. Depth is also a crucial aspect of the Tide's 2016 wide receiver corps with Robert Foster coming back from injury ready to re-emerge as a junior, and potential stars such as Cam Sims, Derek Kief, Raheem Falkins and Daylon Charlot dotting the Crimson Tide roster.

Alabama also returns three starters on the offensive line, led by two-year starter Cam Robinson at left tackle, along with 2015 starting guards Ross Pierschbacher and Alphonse Taylor. In 2014, Robinson became the first true freshman to start at left tackle for Alabama since 2006 and has not missed a start in his first two seasons at the Capstone. Pierschbacher moved to center in the spring from left guard, where he started all 15 games in 2015 on his way to Freshman All-America honors. Taylor started all 15 games at right guard in 2015 after seeing extensive action as a sophomore in 2014. A bevy of talented linemen are battling for a role on the Tide's offensive front in 2016, including Bradley Bozeman, Josh Casher, Lester Cotton, J.C. Hassenauer, Brandon Kennedy, Korren Kirven, Dallas Warmack, Jonah Williams and Matt Womack.

The Crimson Tide will turn to a host of young running backs to replace Henry and second-leading rusher Drake. Sophomores Damien Harris and Bo Scarbrough are the most experienced backs returning in 2016 after seeing reserve duty as true freshmen a season ago. Ronnie Clark and Derrick Gore add to the Crimson Tide's depth while true freshman B.J. Emmons looks to make an impact during his first year on campus.

The Tide's starting quarterback job is wide open with four players competing for the starting nod. Junior Cooper Bateman is the most experienced returnee after appearing in eight games with one start a year ago. Bateman completed 37 of 52 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown in 2015. Redshirt sophomore David Cornwell, redshirt freshman Blake Barnett and true freshman Jalen Hurts will also be batting for the nod at quarterback.

WR	Richard Mullaney	6-3	208	1L	Graduate transfer who caught 38 passes for 390 yards and five touchdowns in his only season in an Alabama uniform

Jonathan Allen returns to anchor one of the nation's top defenses. He finished the 2015 season as the team leader in sacks (12.0) and tackles for loss (14.5).

DEFENSE

The Alabama defense returns five starters from 2015, and that experience, combined with an impressive group of underclassmen, gives the Crimson Tide a chance to field another outstanding unit in 2016. The Tide has at least one starter returning at every level of the defense, including a trio in the secondary, linebacker Reuben Foster and defensive end Jonathan Allen. The Alabama defense must replace eight players who were signed to NFL contracts, led by second round draft picks linebacker Reggie Ragland, cornerback Cyrus Jones and defensive linemen A'Shawn Robinson and Jarran Reed.

The Tide secondary could be one of the bright spots in 2016 in both depth and talent. Leading the way is returning starting safety Eddie Jackson, a second team All-American in 2016, and starting cornerbacks Minkah Fitzpatrick and Marlon Humphrey. Jackson is the leading returning tackler in the secondary with 46 stops to go with six interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns. Fitzpatrick and Humprhey both recorded 45 tackles in 2016. Fitzpatrick also intercepted two passes and returned both for touchdowns to go along with 11 pass break ups. Humphrey picked off three passes and broke up eight. Joining that trio is the likes of cornerbacks Tony Brown, Anthony Averett and Kendall Sheffield along with safeties Ronnie Harrison, Hootie Jones and Deionte Thompson.

Foster leads a linebacker corps that returns rotation regulars Ryan Anderson, Shaun Dion Hamilton, Rashaan Evans and Tim Williams. Foster, an inside linebacker, was second on the team in tackles with 73 behind the departed Ragland. Foster also broke up seven passes and recorded 2.5 sacks and 6.5 tackles for loss in 2015. Hamilton joins Foster on the inside after starting five games for the Tide in 2015 and finished his sophomore season with 27 tackles. At outside linebacker, Anderson started 11 games a year ago and finished with 37 tackles, 11.5 for a loss of 50 yards, six sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and nine quarterback hurries. Williams had 19 tackles last year and 10.5 sacks to lead all Tide linebackers in that category. Evans, who can play inside or outside, also returns after spending spring practice at inside linebacker and accounting for 27 tackles and five sacks in his first two seasons with the Tide on the outside.

As the lone returning starter, Allen leads a defensive line group that includes freshman All-American Da'Ron Payne and rotation regulars Dalvin Tomlinson and Da'Shawn Hand, but still must replace the presence of Reed and Robinson. Payne played in all 15 games and worked into an expanded role as the season progressed, starting three games down the stretch. Tomlinson was the first defensive lineman off the bench in 2015 and will be working for an increased role this season after recording 60 tackles over his first three seasons with the Tide. Hand appeared in all 15 games last season, finishing with 16 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and three sacks in a reserve role.

JK Scott continued his consistent ways as the Tide punter last season, finishing with a 44.2 yards per punt average and a long of 59 yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Alabama will return much of its special teams unit in 2016, including Ray Guy Award candidate JK Scott at punter. Scott produced the best punting season in Alabama history as a freshman in 2014 and followed it up with a solid sophomore campaign. Senior Cole Mazza will reprise his role as the Tide's long snapper for the fourth straight year, while senior Adam Griffith returns for his third season as the Tide's starting place-kicker. The Crimson Tide must replace return specialists and NFL Draft picks Cyrus Jones and Kenyan Drake. Jones served as the primary punt returner for the Tide in 2015, averaging 12.6 yards per return on 42 attempts and returned four punts for touchdowns. Drake averaged 26.6 yards per kick return on 19 attempts with one touchdown.

Scott led the nation in punting as a freshman in 2014, averaging 48.0 yards per kick with a net of 44.7 yards per boot. He followed his rookie campaign with a sophomore season in which he averaged 44.2 yards per punt and forced 18 fair catches while pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line 25 times.

A second team All-SEC selection in 2015, Griffith ranked second on the team in scoring as a junior with 141 points, converting 23 field goals and all 62 PAT attempts, the second-highest single-season total in school history.

Mazza has started all 41 games he has appeared in during his first three years at the Capstone. He brings a perfect string of 418 snaps into the 2016 season (161 punts, 185 extra points and 72 field goals) and will be a dependable presence on the Tide special teams unit.

Alabama will have several new faces returning kicks in 2016 after the departure of Jones and Drake. Sophomore Damien Harris returns after averaging 19.3 yards on nine kickoff returns. The Tide boasts a bevy of talented skill players, all of whom will have the opportunity to step up and take on a more expanded role on the return teams.

OUTLOOK: Passed on early entry into the NFL Draft and returns for his senior season as one of the nation's best defensive players and most feared pass rushers ... top candidate for the Lombardi and Ted Hendricks Award … has 85 career tackles with 29 tackles for loss and 18 sacks ... first team All-SEC as a junior who should contend for All-America honors.

JUNIOR (2015): One of the most productive defenders and best pass rushers along the Tide's vaunted defensive front ... named to the All-SEC First Team defense by the conference coaches and the Associated Press ... ranked 17th nationally and second in the SEC in sacks with .80 per game (12.0 sacks) ... recorded 36 tackles on the season with a team-leading 14.5 tackles for loss (-92 yards) ... added four pass breakups and six quarterback hurries ... all 12 of his sacks came against Power 5 competition with 11 coming against ranked teams ... named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week following the Mississippi State game ... named one of the Alabama coaching staff's defensive players of the week for his efforts against Wisconsin in the season opener, at Texas A&M, at Mississippi State, at Auburn and against Michigan State. Wisconsin: Was a force on the defensive line, finishing the season opener with three total tackles, including a career-high two sacks for -15 yards, and one pass breakup ... helped limit the Badger offense to just 268 yards of total offense and 17 points. Middle Tennessee: Made his first start of the season at defensive end and finished with two tackles and a quarterback hurry as the Tide allowed 275 yards of total offense. Ole Miss: Was a disruptive force along the defensive front in his second start of the season ... recorded a sack for a loss of eight yards while also breaking up a pass at the line ... helped limit the Rebels to just 92 yards rushing. ULM: Broke up one pass against the Warhawks ... day was shortened by a shoulder injury before halftime. Georgia: A presence on the defensive front, had two total tackles and one pass breakup ... helped limit the Bulldogs to 299 yards on offense, nearly 200 yards below their season average. Arkansas: Notched another pass breakup to go with his one tackle against the Razorbacks ... was key in limiting the Razorback rushing attack to just 44 yards, 160 yards below their season average entering the night. Texas A&M: Recorded a monster day in College Station, finishing with five tackles, including a team-leading four for a loss (-17 yards) ... also notched a team-high two sacks (-14 yards) while forcing one fumble ... his pressure on the quarterback helped force four Aggie interceptions, including three that went for scores. Tennessee: Notched two tackles, including a key sack (-9 yards) on the Volunteers' final drive that helped seal the victory for Alabama ... his sack put the Vols in a second-and-long situation deep in their own territory, leading to a timeout. LSU: Spent the night in the Tiger backfield, notching half a tackle for a loss (-1 yard) and two quarterback hurries ... helped limit Leonard Fournette - the nation's leading rusher - to only 31 yards on 19 carries after he entered the game averaging 200-plus yards rushing per game. Mississippi State: Recorded a career performance with three sacks and seven total tackles while forcing a fumble and notching a quarterback hurry ... named the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week for his efforts ... first Alabama player with three sacks in a game since Courtney Upshaw against Auburn in 2010. Charleston Southern: Started and made one solo tackle … starters played less than a half in the Crimson Tide's 56-6 win … helped limit the Buccaneers to just 134 total yards of offense. Auburn: Made five tackles with two solo stops in a 29-13 win at Auburn … helped limit the Tigers to just 91 rushing yards and 260 total yards … his efforts earned him Defensive Player of the Week honors by the Tide coaches. Florida: Helped limit the Gators to just 15 yards rushing and 165 total yards … registered his 10th sack of the season (-10 yards) and made three tackles – two solo – along with a quarterback hurry. Michigan State: Recorded two of the Crimson Tide's four sacks for a loss of -15 yards ... helped force the Spartan quarterback into two interceptions and a 19-for-32 day with his pressure in the backfield ... played a major part in limiting MSU to 239 yards of total offense, 158 yards below their season average. Clemson: Earned the start against the Tigers but did not record any stats.

SOPHOMORE (2014): Established himself as a playmaker at defensive end and one of the Crimson Tide's top pass rushers ... first team All-SEC by the Associated Press ... second on the team with 11.5 tackles for loss (-44 yards) and had 5.5 sacks (-30 yards) ... finished with 33 total tackles including 16 solo stops and seven quarterback hurries ... blocked the decisive extra point at Arkansas ... played in all 14 games and made 12 starts ... earned Defensive Player of the Week honors from the Alabama coaching staff against West Virginia, FAU and Tennessee ... also earned Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his blocked PAT at Arkansas. West Virginia: Registered five tackles with two tackles for loss (-12 yards) and one sack (-11 yards) ... helped limit the Mountaineers to 28 rushing yards on 24 carries ... earned Defensive Player of the Week honors from the coaches. FAU: Recorded a tackle for a loss of three yards as the Crimson Tide limited the Owls to 145 total yards, including 57 rushing ... added an assisted tackle in just over one half of play ... earned Defensive Player of the Week honors. Southern Miss: Made at least one tackle for loss for the third straight game and picked up two quarterback hurries ... added one solo and one assisted tackle as the Tide limited the Eagles to 56 yards rushing and a lowly 263 total yards. Florida: Registered one assisted tackle as the Tide held the Gators to only 200 total yards. Ole Miss: Recorded five tackles with two solo stops ... had 1.5 tackles for loss (-3 yards) and a quarterback hurry. Arkansas: Blocked the deciding extra point to give the Tide a 14-13 win in Fayetteville ... added a quarterback hurry. Texas A&M: Recorded three half sacks for a loss of four yards ... batted down passes as UA limited the SEC's top-ranked offense to just 172 yards. Tennessee: Earned Defensive Player of the Week honors versus the Vols with three tackles and half of a tackle for loss. LSU: Sacked LSU quarterback Anthony Jennings on the first drive of the game ... finished with two tackles as the Tide limited LSU to 76 total yards passing. Mississippi State: Recorded three assisted tackles in a 25-20 win over the No. 1 team in the nation. Western Carolina: Had a game-high two quarterback hurries with two tackles ...helped limit the Catamounts to minus-eight yards rushing. Auburn: Dropped Tigers' quarterback Nick Marshall for a sack and finished with three solo tackles. Missouri: Helped hold the Tigers to just 41 rushing yards and had one quarterback hurry. Ohio State: Both tackles in the Sugar Bowl came behind the line of scrimmage for a loss of nine yards ... had one sack for a loss of four yards.

NICK

10TH YEAR • HEAD COACH • KENT STATE, 1973

A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS RETURNED THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA TO THE TOP OF THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL LANDSCAPE WITH HIS COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM. AFTER THE VICTORY OVER CLEMSON IN THE 2016 COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME, SABAN JOINED PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT AS THE ONLY TWO COACHES TO WIN FIVE NATIONAL TITLES IN THE MODERN ERA.

In his 10th season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted four national championships over the last seven years. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

ALABAMA

Saban's 2015 team secured the Crimson Tide's fourth national championship in the last seven years. They became the first team to win back-to-back Southeastern Conference Championships in 17 years (Tennessee, 1997-98) and were the only program to earn an invitation to each of the first two College Football Playoffs. Saban led his team to victories in the final 12 games of the season, including wins at No. 8 Georgia, at No. 9 Texas A&M, vs. No. 4 LSU, at No. 17 Mississippi State, against No. 18 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl and over No. 1 Clemson in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. The senior class won a school-record 50 games (50-6) over their four years with three SEC Championships and two national titles.

The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry, who also captured the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Doak Walker Award. Ryan Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Linebacker Reggie Ragland was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, while A'Shawn Robinson was a finalist for Outland Trophy. The offensive line was also awarded the Joe Moore Award, which goes to the nation's toughest line. All four of the Tide's finalists garnered first team All-America honors, while Eddie Jackson was a second-team selection.

Henry set school records for rushing yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), rushing attempts (395) and all-purpose yardage (2,310). A trademark of Saban-coached teams, the Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 1 in the country in rushing defense, No. 3 in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense while averaging 199.9 rushing yards and 227.1 passing yards per game on offense. Special teams were also impressive in 2015 with Cyrus Jones setting the SEC record with four punt returns for touchdowns and place-kicker Adam Griffith connecting on 23 of his final 28 field goals. Saban's on-side kick call in the national championship game proved key, propelling the Crimson Tide to the program's 16th national title. In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding, as UA had a nation-leading 29 graduates on the roster for the bowl game including three players with their master's degree in hand.

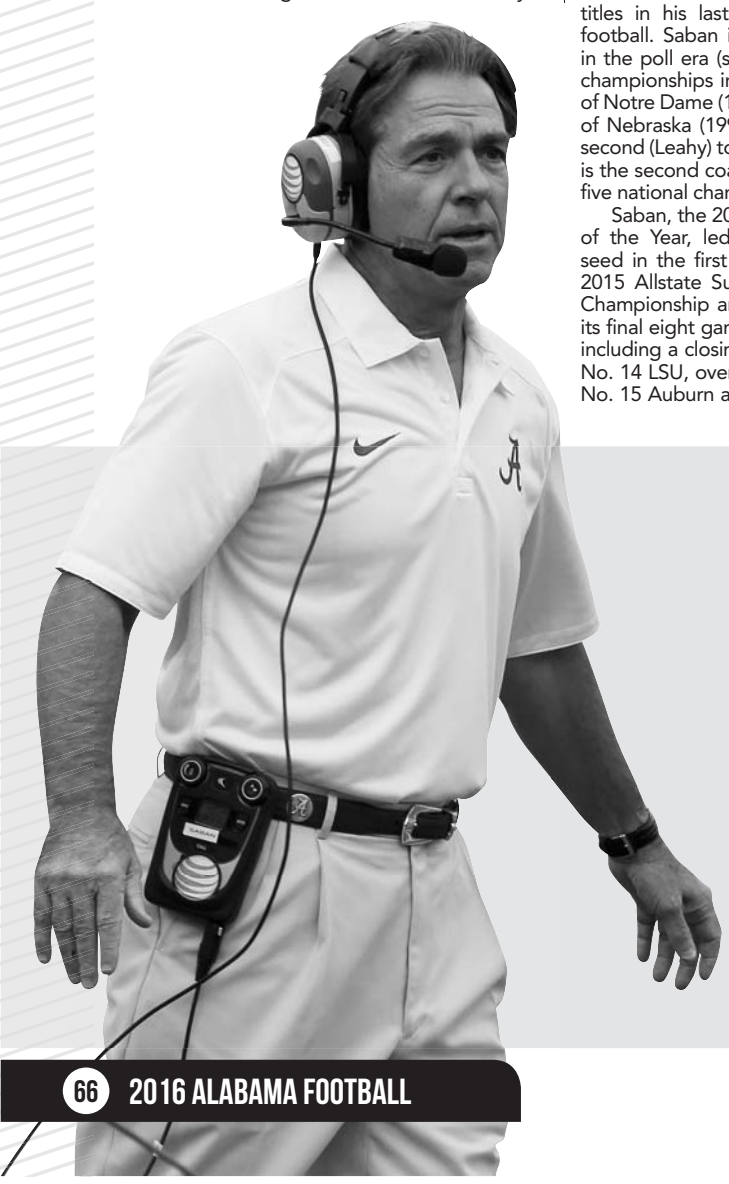

Saban has compiled a 191-60-1 (.760) record as a college head coach and has gone 98-12 (.891) in the past eight seasons in Tuscaloosa, which includes a 56-8 (.875) mark in regular season conference play. In 2015, the Tide reached the 10-win milestone for the eighth consecutive season and won 11 or more games for the fifth straight year, which extended the conference record. With wins in the CFP National Championship Game and the SEC Championship Game last season, Saban is now 11-1 all time in conference or national championship games. When Alabama moved to the top spot in the AP poll at the end of the season, it marked the eighth straight year with at least one week at No. 1, which broke the all-time record established by Miami (1986-92). Alabama extended its streak of consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 to 130 weeks, the longest in school history.

He is the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won five titles in his last 11 years of coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He is also just the second (Leahy) to win four titles in seven years. He is the second coach in the poll era to win at least five national championships (Paul "Bear" Bryant).

Saban, the 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, led the Crimson Tide to the top seed in the first College Football Playoff at the 2015 Allstate Sugar Bowl, Alabama's 24th SEC Championship and a 12-2 record. Alabama won its final eight games to earn a spot in the playoff, including a closing gauntlet that included wins at No. 14 LSU, over No. 1 Mississippi State, against No. 15 Auburn and versus No. 14 Missouri in the SEC Championship. The 2014 senior class finished with a 48-6 record over four years and went to four straight New Year's Six Bowls, including national championships in 2011 and 2012. The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy finalist and UA's first-ever Biletnikoff Award winner Amari Cooper and Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award finalist Landon Collins. Along with Cooper and Collins, Ray Guy Award finalist punter JK Scott, linebacker Trey DePriest and offensive guard Arie Kouandjio garnered first team All-America honors. SEC Championship Game MVP Blake Sims set school records for total offense (3,837 yards) and passing yards (3,487), while Cooper established UA marks in every receiving category. The Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 6 in the country in scoring defense and 15th overall in scoring offense. In the classroom, Alabama had 22 graduates on the roster for the bowl game (tied for the most in the nation) and seven players with their master's degree in hand (first in the nation).

Saban led the 2013 Alabama team to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, making a sixth straight New Year's bowl appearance and the third straight in a BCS bowl. That senior class posted a remarkable record of 60-7 over their last five years with four bowl wins and three national titles. Their record in the classroom was just as impressive as 28 Crimson Tide graduates took the field for the bowl matchup with Oklahoma. Senior quarterback AJ McCarron was named a first team All-American, won the Maxwell and Unitas Awards, and finished as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting while directing one of the most productive offenses in school history. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker C.J. Mosley took home Alabama's third Butkus Trophy and earned All-America honors for the second straight year as he led a defense that entered the bowl game ranked second nationally in fewest points allowed. Safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and offensive tackle Cyrus Kouandjio joined McCarron and Mosley as first team All-Americans.

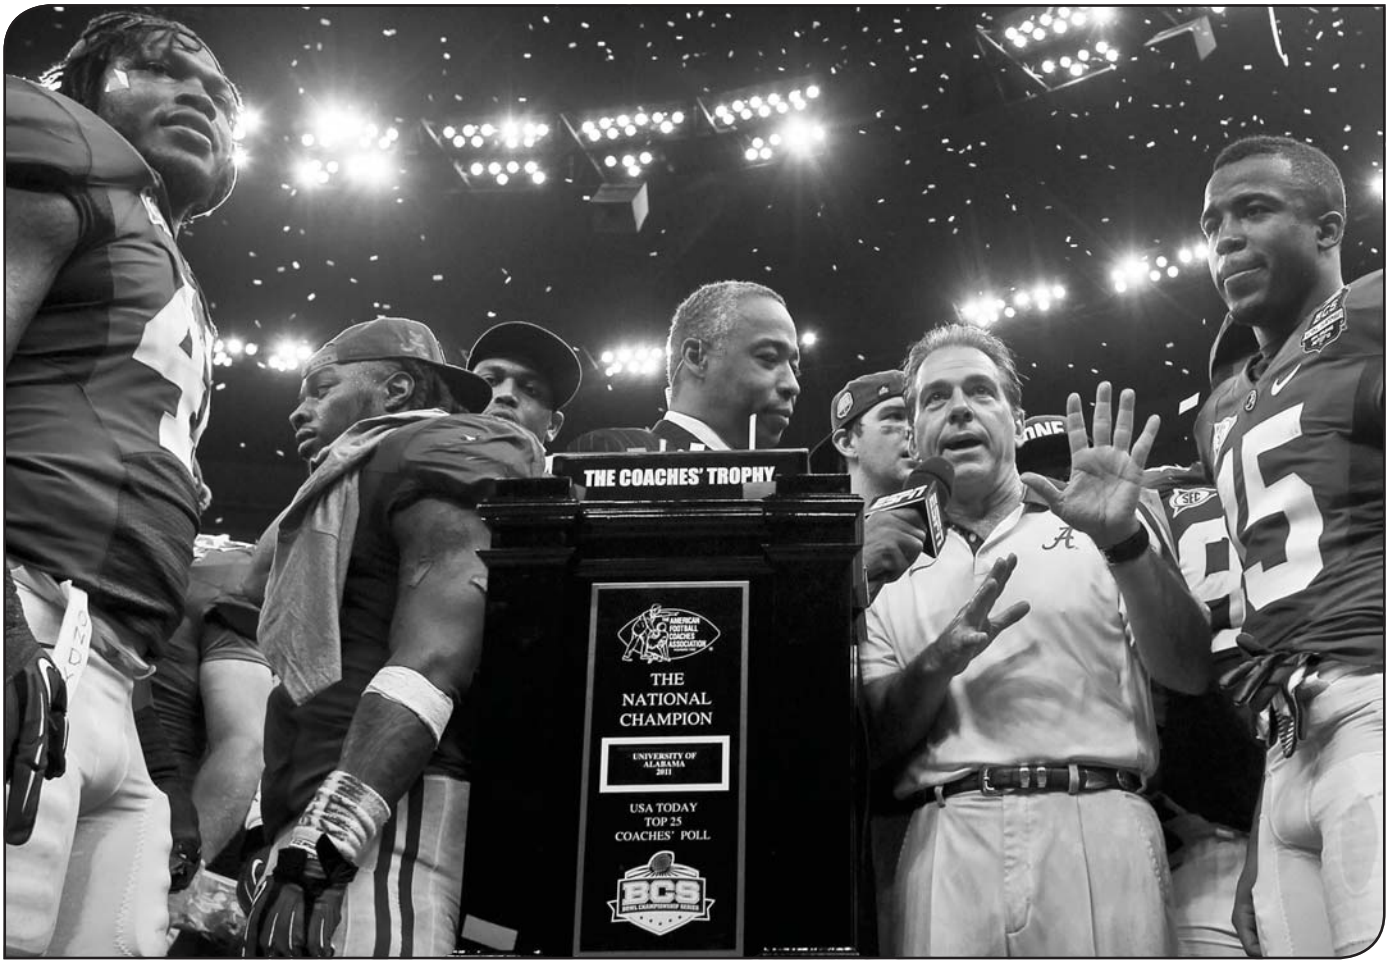

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship (the most in league history) with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor in his previous four years. Under Saban's guidance, Alabama boasted a 978 APR score that ranked 11th nationally in 2012 and second in the SEC. The Crimson Tide also had a 75 percent graduation rate, which was among the best in the nation.

The Alabama defense led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg), and scoring defense (10.9 ppg) in 2012. The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game, 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game and set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012.

The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including two along the offensive line in center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's best center, and the prestigious Campbell Award, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set school and SEC records for wins, while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's NCAA record 49 wins from 1994-97. It also broke the Cornhuskers' record (60 wins from 1993-97) for the most major college football victories in a five-year period with 61 (2008-12).

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and an 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Saban's 2011 senior class won 48 games over the span of four seasons (2008-11). Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response in the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced one Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Five players were named first team All-SEC by either the AP or the league coaches, while six more earned second team All-SEC honors. Most impressively, two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National-Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas, 37-21, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On Dec. 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad also was prominent when it came to other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and six players earned first-team AP All-America status — a college football record.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN Awards Show and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Off the field, the focus on academics by Saban and his staff made an immediate impact, as the 2007 team put together one of the finest academic fall semesters in school history. The freshman class set a solid foundation for their future at Alabama as they led the way with an impressive combined grade-point average of 3.10 in the fall.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003) while at LSU.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Prior to his stint at Miami, Saban's impact on the LSU program transcended the success on the field. His commitment to building the total program, placing education first and instilling discipline with responsibility on and off the field transformed the Tigers into a force on the national stage. LSU produced 84 Academic All-SEC honorees in Saban's five seasons, including 25 members of the 2003 national championship squad. LSU's graduation rate for football players improved dramatically under his watch and two players – offensive tackle Rodney Reed (2002 and 2003) and offensive lineman Rudy Niswanger (2004) – earned first team Academic All-America honors. Linebacker Bradie James earned a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation (2003).

Saban also spearheaded a $15 million fundraising effort to construct a new academic center for student-athletes at LSU, and he and his players were active in community involvement in the Baton Rouge area, taking part in community service projects, visiting schools to mentor children, and taking time to visit local hospitals on a regular basis. More than 50 of Saban's LSU players earned their college degrees, in addition to 28 who were selected in the NFL draft (seven in both 2004 and 2006).

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and current LSU head coach Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC titles.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Victories over Tennessee and Mississippi State highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as the Tigers outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. LSU won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting the Sooners to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Over its final six games, the 2004 LSU defense allowed only 12 points in the second half on the way to a berth in the Capital One Bowl against Iowa – LSU's fourth consecutive January bowl berth (a first for the Tiger program).

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking, finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. Michigan State led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 ypg) and total defense (299.0 ypg) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The MSU offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 ypg) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 ppg) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983-87. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans make three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, (61.2 ypg) and ranked second in scoring defense (12.4 ppg).

A native of Fairmont, W. Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have been married for 44 years and are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Amélie, a daughter-in-law Kelsé and son-in-law Adam Setas.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, documenting his first two years at LSU. He then co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be?" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

In addition to their work as fundraisers for LSU's Student-Athlete Academic Center, the Sabans supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick Saban raised more than $100,000 per year.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, nearly $6 million has been distributed to students, teachers and children's causes at over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Foundation. The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm on April 27, 2011, Nick and Terry visited shelters where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans joined with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity in helping to rebuild 15 homes lost in the tornado. After the Crimson Tide's 16th national championship in 2015, the Sabans began work on the 16th Habitat for Humanity home. With support and donations from the Sabans, St. Francis Catholic Church broke ground on the Saban Catholic Student Center. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for The University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans, as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

DERRICK ANSLEY

Secondary | First Year

TROY, 2005

Derrick Ansley rejoined Nick Saban's Crimson Tide coaching staff as the defensive backs coach on Feb. 10, 2016. He spent the past four seasons as a secondary coach at Tennessee (2012) and Kentucky (2013-15) after a two-year stint as a graduate assistant for Alabama during the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

Ansley inherits a talented group in the Alabama secondary for 2016. Safeties Eddie Jackson and Ronnie Harrison return along with cornerbacks Marlon Humphrey and Minkah Fitzpatrick to anchor the defensive backs. The unit returns 56 starts from a group that led the SEC and ranked 10th nationally in interceptions with 19 while ranking eighth in pass efficiency defense. Alabama returns 68 percent of its interceptions from last season (13 of 19) and 77 percent of its pass breakups from the secondary.

Ansley spent the past three seasons at the University of Kentucky as the cornerbacks coach (2013-14), secondary coach (2015) and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator for the 2016 season before accepting the position with the Crimson Tide.

Ansley, who served as a defensive graduate assistant at Alabama during the 2010 and 2011 seasons, helped the UK defense record a school-record six defensive touchdowns while creating 23 turnovers that ranked second in the SEC in 2015.

He joined the Wildcats' staff after spending the 2012 season as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee where he helped the Volunteers improve their national ranking in interceptions by 30 places. He went to UT in February of 2012 after accepting the position of defensive backs coach at Central Florida in December of 2011.

Ansley's two seasons in Tuscaloosa saw Alabama produce a 22-4 record and the 2011 BCS National Championship. The Crimson Tide went 10-3 in his first season at the Capstone, punctuated by a win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. The Tide went 12-1 to claim the national championship in 2011, featuring the nation's best defense, which ranked No. 1 nationally in scoring defense, total defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. He worked with All-Americans Mark Barron, Dre Kirkpatrick and DeQuan Menzie during his time at Alabama.

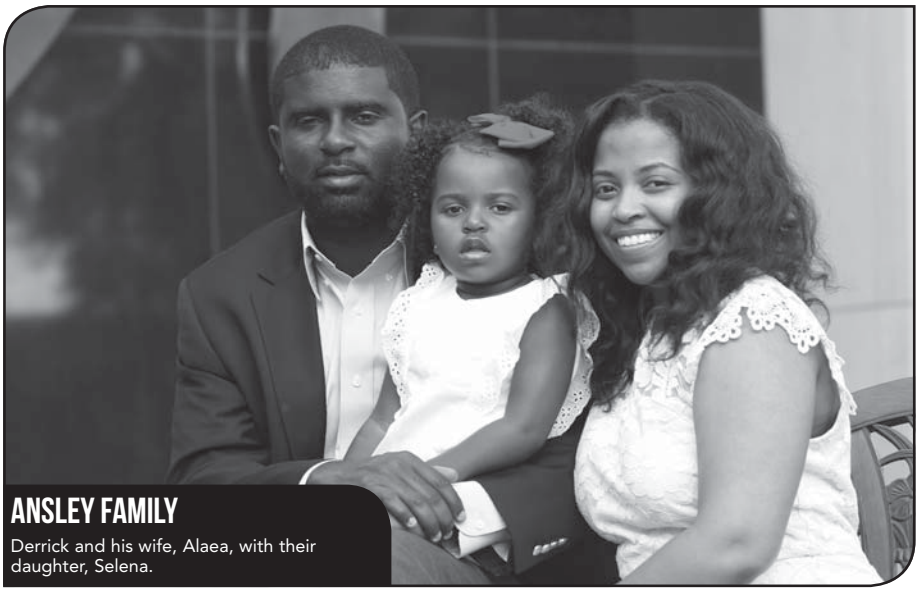

He spent five seasons coaching at NCAA Division III Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., before taking the graduate assistant position at Alabama. During his tenure with the Hawks, Ansley helped guide the team to its first winning season and the school's first playoff appearance. Huntingdon produced a winning record in four of the five seasons he was on staff with two eight-win campaigns.

The year before Ansley got to Huntingdon, the team had 12 interceptions and 23 pass breakups. Those numbers improved to 15 interceptions and 44 pass breakups in year one. In Ansley's final season with Huntington, the Hawks had 22 interceptions and an impressive 56 pass breakups.

Ansley starred on the gridiron at Troy University in the early 2000s, starting 40 consecutive games for the Trojans. A defensive back by trade, he finished third in the nation in interceptions as a junior in 2003 with nine picks. Ansley then garnered first team All-Sun Belt Conference honors as a senior in 2004, Troy's first season in the league.

He graduated in 2005 from Troy with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism and worked toward a master's degree in sports management in the human environmental sciences college during his time as a graduate assistant at Alabama.

A native of Tallassee, Ala., Ansley and his wife, Alaea, have a daughter, Selena.

BURTON BURNS

Assoc. HC/RBs/STs Coor. — 10th Year

NEBRASKA, 1976

Burton Burns is in his 10th season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program in 2016 as associate head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The New Orleans native is regarded as one of the best assistant coaches in college football and was named the Football Scoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season. Burns was also named one of the nation's top recruiters in all of college sports in 2011 by ESPN The Magazine.

Over 20 seasons as a college assistant, Burns has produced versatile running backs who have been effective in every phase of the game. His players have proven to be equally effective on the ground and in the passing game. Few in college football can say they have coached a Heisman Trophy finalist, but Burns can claim a trio dating back to the 2009 season, including the 2009 recipient Mark Ingram, 2011 finalist Trent Richardson and 2015 winner Derrick Henry.

In 2015, Henry stepped into the starting role and flourished with a school- and SEC-record 2,219 yards on 395 carries and 28 rushing touchdowns. His 2,219 yards were the fifth-most in a single season in college football history. He also became just the third back in league history to record four 200-yard rushing games, while setting the Alabama record for 100-yard rushing games with 10. Henry also became the second Tide player to win the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards and the first Tide player to capture the Walter Camp Player of the Year.

Burns had a pair of running backs on the cusp of 1,000 rushing yards in 2014 with Henry leading the team with 990 yards while junior T.J. Yeldon finished with 979 yards on the ground. The pair both finished with 11 rushing touchdowns apiece, while Jalston Fowler exceled in his role at fullback, becoming the top fullback prospect in the 2015 NFL Draft. The Tide averaged 206.6 rushing yards per game in 2014.

He turned in another masterful coaching job in 2013 with Yeldon cracking the 1,000-yard barrier as the back accumulated 1,235 yards and 14 touchdowns while backup sophomore Kenyan Drake accounted for 694 yards and eight scores, and true freshman Derrick Henry produced 382 yards on just 35 carries. Alabama ranked 25th nationally and fourth in the SEC in rushing offense, averaging 205.6 yards per game. Eddie Lacy, a second-round draft pick by Green Bay in 2013, earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 1,178 yards and 11 scores.

As injuries hammered away at the Tide's depth at running back in 2012, Lacy and Yeldon stepped to the forefront and combined to rush for 2,430 yards and 29 rushing touchdowns (32 total touchdowns). The pair became the first Alabama running backs to rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. UA ranked 16th nationally in rushing and second in the SEC with an average of 227.5 yards per game.

Under Burns, the 2011 Crimson Tide rushing offense ranked 16th in the nation and first in the Southeastern Conference, collecting 214.5 yards per game. In addition to being a Heisman Trophy finalist, Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the league with 129.2 yards on the ground per game. Richardson's 21 rushing touchdowns, set the school record and tied for second in SEC history. He equaled the school and SEC record with 24 total touchdowns. Lacy finished the 2011 season ninth in the SEC with 56.2 rushing yards per game and seven TDs.

In 2010, Alabama's ground game accumulated 2,378 yards to rank 29th in the country. Playing in only 11 games each, Ingram led the way with 875 yards and 13 scores followed by Richardson's 700 yards with six touchdowns. With two scores against Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl, Ingram set the Alabama career rushing touchdown record at 42. He finished his career fourth on the rushing yardage list with 3,261 yards in three seasons.

Under Burns' guidance in 2009, Ingram was awarded Alabama's first Heisman Trophy and earned unanimous All-America honors. Ingram set the school's single-season rushing record with 1,658 yards and 17 touchdowns while adding 32 receptions for 334 yards and three scores. Richardson, a true freshman, was the team's second-leading rusher (642 yards, 6 TD) and was a Freshman All-SEC selection. In the BCS National Championship Game against Texas, Ingram and Richardson both rushed for 100-plus yards to help lead Alabama to the school's 13th national title.

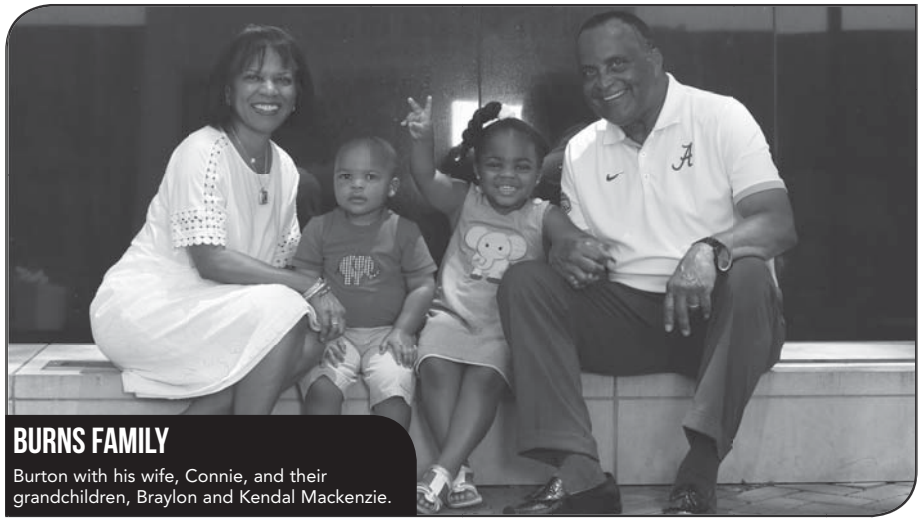

Burns also developed one of the nation's strongest running games in 2008, as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Glen Coffee, a first team All-SEC selection and third-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, led the way with 1,383 yards on the ground. That single-season total tied for second in school history and was third in the conference. Ingram was eighth in the SEC in rushing (728 yards), captured Freshman All-SEC honors and set a Tide rookie record with 12 rushing scores.

In his first year at Alabama (2007), Burns helped tailback Terry Grant set school records for rushing yards (891) and touchdowns (8) by a freshman. Grant was a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week honoree and was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team as well as Sporting News Freshman All-America team (honorable mention).

An assistant coach at Clemson for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top-10 offenses in Clemson history. As running backs coach for the Tigers, Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson, plus former New York Jets back Jerald Sowell at Tulane. In 2006, Davis led the Tigers with 1,187 rushing yards on 203 carries and scored 17 touchdowns, while Spiller had 938 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. The Tigers averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the 2006 regular season.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson, after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998. He logged nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans before joining Bowden's staff at Tulane. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993, his second stint at the school. His first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three other district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at New Orleans' Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhusker teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters, Amber, Christy and Erin, and a son, Damon. They have one granddaughter, Kendal Mackenzie, one grandson, Braylon and a son-in-law, Sylvester Anderson.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

Asst. Head Coach/T & TEs — Fourth Year

MIAMI (FLA.), 1993

Mario Cristobal is in his fourth season on the Alabama coaching staff as the assistant head coach and will coach tackles and tight ends in 2016 while adding the title of recruiting coordinator. He joined the Crimson Tide in February of 2013 as the offensive line coach. He had been the head coach at Florida International University (FIU) for six years (2007-12).

Cristobal's 2015 offensive line unit proved to be the best in the nation, winning the inaugural Joe Moore Award, which is given to the toughest, most physical line in the nation. Senior captain Ryan Kelly, a first team All-American, was also honored with the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Kelly went on to be a first-round draft pick by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2016 NFL Draft. The line, along with Kelly, consisted of LT Cam Robinson, freshman All-American LG Ross Pierschbacher, RG Alphonse Taylor and RT Dominick Jackson, and averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game and pass protected for another 227.1. Cristobal was also selected as the 2015 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com.

He engineered another productive offensive line in 2014 with a group adept at opening holes on the ground while providing first-year senior quarterback Blake Sims ample time to throw the football. Led by first team All-American Arie Kouandjio, the Tide ranked 14th nationally and second in the SEC in fewest sacks allowed, surrendering an average of 1.14 per game, while rushing for 206.6 yards per game on the ground. Senior Austin Shepherd allowed just one sack at right tackle and Kelly developed into one of the country's best centers. Cristobal also tutored Robinson, who became only the second player in school history to start at left tackle as a true freshman (Andre Smith, 2006) and earned Freshman All-America honors.

The Alabama offensive line faced many challenges at the start of the 2013 season, replacing three starters from the 2012 season who departed to the NFL. Cristobal's leadership melded together the 2013 line and produced another in a long line of outstanding Tide offensive fronts. Cyrus Kouandjio and Anthony Steen anchored the unit while Kelly (center), Arie Kouandjio (left guard) and Shepherd (right tackle) joined the starting lineup. Cyrus Kouandjio was a consensus first team All-American and garnered first team All-SEC honors along with Steen. As the season progressed, the group's chemistry became apparent, surrendering just 17 sacks on the year (only 10 by the starting five linemen) to rank 23rd nationally in sacks allowed (1.31 per game). The Tide ranked 25th nationally in rushing offense (205.6 ypg), as the offensive line helped propel the Tide to an average of 454.1 yards per game (33rd nationally). UA averaged a school-record 7.15 yards per play, the fifth-best average per play in the FBS and ranked 17th nationally in scoring offense (38.2 ppg).

During his six years at the helm of the FIU program, Cristobal was regarded as one of the country's top young college football coaches and was the architect of a successful program that went to back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011. The 2011 season was the most successful year in program history with the school capturing a program-record eight victories during the regular season, along with milestone wins on the road at eventual Co-BIG EAST Champion Louisville and at home against Conference USA power Central Florida.

FIU began its historic run during the 2010 season, when Cristobal led FIU to its first Sun Belt Conference championship and a bowl victory over MAC champion Toledo. For his efforts, Cristobal was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. He implemented his philosophy of hard work and dedication that paid quick dividends both on the field and in the classroom. During his time at FIU, Cristobal also proved to be an effective recruiter, with consecutive recruiting classes in 2011 and 2012 that were regarded among the best in the Sun Belt Conference. Cristobal's teams at FIU produced such NFL talent as third-rounder T. Y. Hilton, second-round pick Jonathan Cyprien and Anthony Gaitor.

Prior to accepting the head coaching job at FIU, Cristobal coached at the University of Miami for three years under head coach Larry Coker. The Hurricanes compiled a 24-12 record in that time, with appearances in the 2004 and 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowls and the 2006 Micron PC Bowl. Cristobal coached Miami's tight ends in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, tutoring 2005 Buffalo Bills third-round pick Kevin Everett, 2006 free-agent signee Buck Ortega and 2007 Chicago Bears first-round selection Greg Olsen.

In 2006, Cristobal took over a Miami offensive line that featured four new starters, including a true sophomore at left tackle and a true freshman at right tackle. Despite coaching a unit wrought with inexperience and riddled by injuries throughout the season, the Hurricanes offense saw a 39 percent decrease in sacks allowed from 36 to 22, only seven of which Cristobal's line was deemed responsible. Following that season, junior guard Derrick Morse was selected honorable mention All-ACC and true freshman tackle Jason Fox was named a second team Freshman All-American by Rivals.com. Fox was a fourth-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 2010.

While coaching at Rutgers from 2001-03, Cristobal helped set the table for one of the biggest success stories in the past 30 years of college football. Cristobal worked under head coach Greg Schiano, coaching the Rutgers offensive tackles and tight ends for two seasons before shifting his focus solely to the offensive line in 2003.

Cristobal was a critical factor in Rutgers' resurgence to competitiveness and helped lay the foundation in recruiting and coaching for a program that went from obscurity to college football's upper echelon in a matter of five years. During Cristobal's tenure at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights improved from records of 2-9 and 1-11 to a 5-7 mark in 2003, the school's best record since 1998. One of Cristobal's most accomplished pupils was tight end L.J. Smith, the Philadelphia Eagles' second-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft and an eventual starter.

Cristobal began his coaching career in 1998, when he joined the Miami staff as a graduate assistant, working with the Hurricanes for three seasons (1998-2000) under head coach Butch Davis. He helped his alma mater compile a 29-8 record while winning three bowls and a pair of BIG EAST Conference championships in that time.

A four-year letterwinner for the University of Miami from 1988-92, Cristobal played for Hall of Fame coach Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson. During his four years, the Hurricanes won a pair of national championships (1989 and 1991) while playing in two Sugar Bowls, one Cotton Bowl and an Orange Bowl. Cristobal was a first team All-Big East selection as an offensive tackle in 1992.

Following his college playing career, Cristobal signed a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos in 1994. He played for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1995 and 1996.

The Miami native was a prep standout at Christopher Columbus High School. He graduated from Miami (Fla.) in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and later earned a master's degree from Miami in 2001. Cristobal and his wife, Jessica, were married in June of 2006 and have two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.

KARL DUNBAR

Defensive Line — First Year

LSU, 1992

Karl Dunbar joined head coach Nick Saban's Alabama coaching staff as the defensive line coach in May of 2016 after spending the last 10 years in the National Football League.

Dunbar takes over a Crimson Tide defensive line that helped Alabama record the second most sacks in school history a season ago. The group returns the likes of Jonathan Allen, Dalvin Tomlinson, Da'Ron Payne and Da'Shawn Hand. That foursome returns 22.0 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks for the 2016 season.

Dunbar spent 11 of the last 12 years in the National Football League as a defensive line coach, most recently with the Buffalo Bills in 2015 under head coach Rex Ryan, where he tutored former Alabama great Marcell Dareus. It was the same position he held the previous three seasons under Ryan with the New York Jets from 2012-14. Prior to his time with Ryan in New York and Buffalo, Dunbar was the Minnesota Vikings defensive line coach from 2006-11 after also working as the Chicago Bears defensive line coach in 2004.

Dunbar helped the Jets make a quick transformation into one of the best rush defenses in the NFL, ranking third in 2013 and fifth in 2014. New York also finished the 2014 season with the No. 6 total defense in the league while ranking sixth in sacks. He coached defensive end Sheldon Richardson to All-Pro as well as Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2014 and defensive tackle Muhammad Wilkerson to second team All-Pro accolades in 2014.

During his time in Minnesota, the Vikings defense allowed the fewest rushing yards in the NFL (8,141) and led the league twice in sacks (2009 and 2011). The Vikings rush defense was the best in the NFL each season from 2006-08, marking the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger that a team has ranked No. 1 in rushing defense three consecutive seasons. The Vikings were eighth in total defense in 2010 and second in rush defense in 2009 while ranking sixth in total defense that season.

Minnesota also led the league in sacks in 2009 and 2011, with defensive end Jared Allen earning All-Pro recognition for his 22 sacks in 2011. Allen was also an All-Pro pick in 2008 under Dunbar's guidance along with defensive tackle Kevin Williams. Williams was also picked to the All-Pro team in 2009 when he recorded six sacks, a forced fumble and seven pass deflections.

In his only season with the Bears, Dunbar helped a Chicago defense increase its sack total from 18 to 35 and its takeaways from 20 to 29, while also setting a modern franchise record for defensive touchdowns with six.

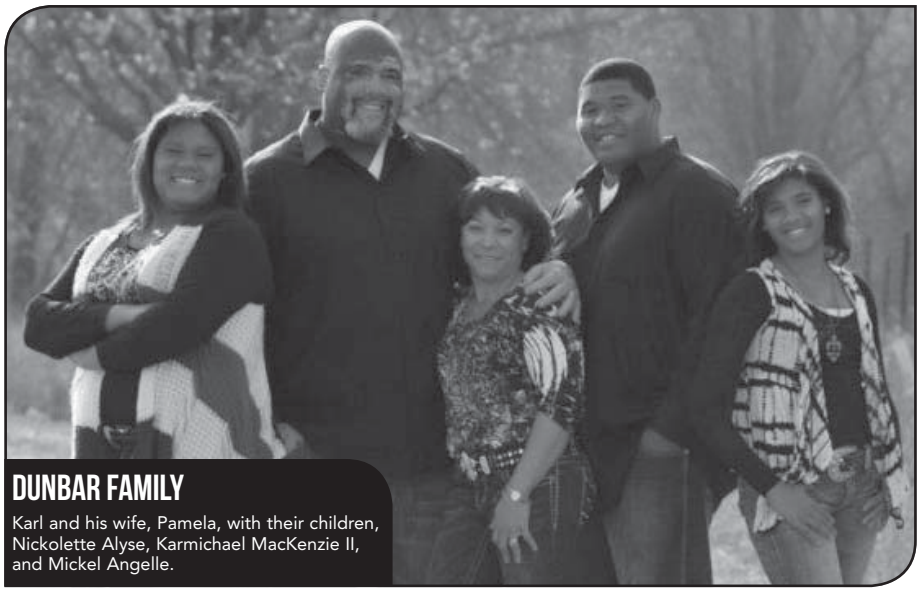

Dunbar has four years of college coaching experience on the defensive line, working at LSU in 2005 and spending two years with Oklahoma State prior to that in 2002-03. He got his start in college coaching at Nicholls State in 1998-99 as the Colonels' defensive line coach. He moved to LSU as a strength and conditioning coach for the 2000-01 seasons.

He helped LSU to an 11-2 record in 2005 and a win in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl as the Tigers defensive line coach. He guided defensive tackles Claude Wroten and Kyle Williams to first team All-SEC honors along a defensive front that helped LSU ranked third nationally in total defense (266.85 ypg) and scoring defense (14.23 ppg) while ranking sixth in rushing defense (91.54).

At Oklahoma State, Dunbar tutored defensive tackle Kevin Williams to first team All-Big 12 honors and helped him become the Cowboys first defensive lineman selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in 17 years.

Dunbar's is a native of Opelousas, La., and played collegiately at LSU, where he was an eighth round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He spent three years in the NFL, playing for the New Orleans Saints in 1993 and the Arizona Cardinals in 1994-95.

Dunbar graduated from LSU in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Pamela, have three children, Karmichael MacKenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse.

BRENT KEY

Guards and Centers — First Year

GEORGIA TECH, 2001

Brent Key begins his first season on Nick Saban's coaching staff at Alabama after joining the Crimson Tide in February of 2016 to coach guards and centers on the offensive line.

Key spent the past 11 seasons as an assistant coach at Central Florida, including the 2015 season as the Knights' offensive coordinator and running backs coach. He originally started as a graduate assistant at UCF in 2005

Key was Central Florida's offensive line coach for six seasons (2009-14), holding the title of assistant head coach from 2012-14. He also served six seasons as the Knights' recruiting coordinator (2007, 2010-14). Key coached the tight ends from 2006-08 and added the role of special teams coordinator for the 2008 campaign.

In 2012, 2013 and 2014, Key was selected as a national nominee for the Broyles Award, which is given out to the top assistant coach in college football. Key coached eight players to 16 all-conference selections during his time as the offensive line coach for the Knights. Jah Reid was a third-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft and three more linemen have signed NFL free-agent contracts since leaving Orlando.

During Key's time in Orlando, the Knights participated in seven bowl games and won four conference titles (2007, 2010, 2013 and 2014). Central Florida went 12-1 in 2013 and won the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl to finish No. 10 in the final rankings. Along the way, UCF earned its first two wins over top-10 teams (No. 6/5 Baylor and No. 8/6 Louisville), and it did not allow a sack against Penn State, Louisville, Connecticut and Baylor.

The UCF offensive line in 2013 paved the way for an offense unit that averaged 441.5 yards and 34.6 points per game, two of the highest marks in program history. It also helped provide plenty of protection for quarterback Blake Bortles, who would be named The American Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Key took over the offensive line for Central Florida at the start of the 2009 season and the progress the Knights' offensive line made was evident. UCF improved from 229.5 yards per game in 2008 to 340.8 in 2009, one of the five largest jumps in the nation that season.

While coaching tight ends for the Knights from 2006-08, Key helped tight end Mike Merritt develop into an NFL prospect. Merritt had 14 catches for 161 yards as a senior in 2007 and was a seventh-round selection of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2008 National Football League Draft.

A standout player at Georgia Tech under George O'Leary, Key was a four-year starter (1997-2000) for the Yellow Jackets at right guard. During his career, he helped Georgia Tech rank in the top three in the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing all four years.

Key started 44 games for the Yellow Jackets and was part of a senior class that earned four straight bowl berths, a first for the program since the 1950s. During Key's sophomore year in 1998, Georgia Tech went 10-2, earned a share of the ACC title and participated in the Gator Bowl. He was selected All-ACC as a senior in 2000.

He began his coaching career at Georgia Tech in 2001 as the offensive graduate assistant coach under O'Leary. Prior to joining the staff at UCF, he worked at Western Carolina in 2004, coaching the tight ends and running backs.

A native of Trussville, Ala., Key earned All-State honors at Hewitt-Trussville High School. Key graduated from Georgia Tech in 2001 with a degree in management. He is married to the former Danielle Cumm.

LANE KIFFIN

Offensive Coord./QB — Third Year

FRESNO STATE, 1998

Lane Kiffin is in his third season at Alabama as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and has had record-breaking success with the Crimson Tide's offense. For his efforts, Kiffin was selected as a finalist for the 2014 Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the country's best assistant coach.

In 2015, Kiffin oversaw the development of quarterback Jake Coker, who finished his career 14-0 as a starter at Alabama and led the nation in completion percentage over the final 10 games of the season at 72.2 percent. Coker threw for 3,110 yards with 21 touchdowns, which ranks as the second-most single-season passing yards in school history. On the ground, Kiffin fed Heisman Trophy running back Derrick Henry the ball a school- and SEC-record 395 times for a record 2,219 yards and 23 touchdowns. Henry's 2,219 yards was also the fifth-most rushing yards in a single season in college football history.

One of Kiffin's first responsibilities at Alabama was identifying a starting quarterback and then developing Blake Sims in 2014. With three-year starter and All-American AJ McCarron off to the NFL, Kiffin oversaw Sims' rise to the top of the Alabama depth chart en route to a school-record 3,487 passing yards and 3,837 yards of total offense while completing 64.5 percent of his passes. Sims ranked tied for fourth nationally in total QBR (83.7) and seventh in passing efficiency (157.9). He not only proved proficient in the passing game but gave Alabama a running threat at quarterback not seen during Saban's tenure in Tuscaloosa. Sims was selected second-team All-SEC, named to the Senior Bowl, tabbed as a finalist for the Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.

Kiffin's offense ranked 17th nationally in total offense per game (484.5) while scoring an average of 36.9 points per game. The passing game averaged a school-record 277.9 yards per game (3,890) to rank 28th nationally and fourth in the SEC. His squad also ranked fourth nationally in third-down conversion percentage at 51.5 percent, ninth in first downs (340) and 10th in team passing efficiency (155.7). Amari Cooper won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's best receiver, after catching a school- and SEC-record 124 passes for a UA-record 1,727 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns.

He spent the previous three-plus seasons as the head coach at Southern California, where he compiled a record of 28-15. Kiffin's 2012 USC squad went 7-6 overall and 5-4 in the Pac-12 South, good for second place. Wide receiver Marqise Lee was a unanimous first team All-American and won the Biletnikoff Award while also being named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Quarterback Matt Barkley, who won the Wuerffel Trophy, set conference records for passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Kiffin led the Trojans to a 10-2 record in 2011 and a sixth-place finish in the final Associated Press poll. The team finished first in the Pac-12 South with a 7-2 mark. His 2011 USC offense produced a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Three Trojans earned first team All-America honors (Matt Kalil, Robert Woods and T.J. McDonald) and five were named Freshman All-Americans.

In his first year as the head coach at USC, Kiffin led the Trojans to an 8-5 record (5-4 Pac-10). Before his arrival, the Trojans were averaging 26.5 points per game in scoring offense and 389.1 yards per game in total offense. In his first two seasons, those numbers increased to 31.0 points per game and 431.5 yards in 2011 and 35.8 points and 456.8 yards in 2012.

Prior to his tenure at Southern California, Kiffin served as the head coach at Tennessee in 2009. He led the Volunteers to a second-place finish in the SEC East and an appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Volunteers' offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over the 2008 figures. Tennessee improved from 17.3 to 29.3 points per game while going from 268.8 to 383.5 yards per game in total offense.

Kiffin came to Tennessee from the Oakland Raiders, where he served as head coach from 2007-08. At 31, he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. Oakland's offense significantly improved in his first year, up 7.2 points per game and 48.6 yards per game from 2006.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Kiffin spent six years as an assistant coach for Pete Carroll at Southern California, including two years as the offensive coordinator (2005-06). During his first tenure with the Trojans, USC captured two national championships and compiled a 65-12 record. Kiffin was promoted to passing game coordinator in 2004 and helped Matt Leinart win the Heisman Trophy as he passed for 3,322 yards with 33 touchdowns and just six interceptions.

He took over as USC's offensive coordinator in 2005 and led the Trojans to a scoring average of 49.1 points per game and 579.8 yards per game of total offense during his two years as offensive coordinator. Kiffin started at USC in 2001 as the tight ends coach and then coached the wide receivers during his remaining five years.

Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998. He moved on to Colorado State in 1999 as offensive line assistant. He spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control assistant with the Jacksonville Jaguars under Tom Coughlin.

Kiffin attended Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball. He has two daughters, Landry and Presley, and one son, Knox.

TOSH LUPOI

Co-Def. Coord./OLBs — Second Year

CALIFORNIA, 2005

Tosh Lupoi begins his second season at the Capstone after joining head coach Nick Saban's staff in 2015 as the outside linebackers coach. He served as an analyst for the Crimson Tide during the 2014 season after spending the previous six years at California and Washington.

When fall practice opens in August, Lupoi's unit returns several experienced veterans at outside linebacker including seniors Tim Williams and Ryan Anderson along with junior Rashaan Evans. The trio combined for 20.5 sacks last season. Alabama must replace Denzel Devall and Dillon Lee who combined for 32 career starts.

In Lupoi's first year with the outside linebackers in 2015, the Crimson Tide recorded the most sacks during the Saban era with 53, which ranked third nationally and was the second most in school history. The outside linebackers notched 22.5 by themselves, led by Williams' 10.5. Devall and Lee started at the jack and sam linebacker spots with Williams, Anderson and Evans coming off the bench to provide a spark.

Lupoi had previous experience in the 3-4 defense as an assistant coach at California and Washington, where he was responsible for coaching the defensive line as well as one of the outside linebacker positions.

Lupoi was an analyst for the defense during the 2014 season for the Crimson Tide. Prior to that role, he served as the defensive line coach and defensive run game coordinator at Washington in 2012 and 2013. The Huskies ranked fourth in the country in sacks per game (3.15) in 2013 while ranking among the top four in the Pac-12 both years in scoring defense.

Two of the players he coached at UW during that time earned All-America honors that season in outside linebacker Hau'oli Kikaha and defensive lineman Danny Shelton. Kikaha led the country with 19 sacks in 2013 while Shelton was tops among all interior defensive lineman with nine sacks on the season. Shelton would go on to be the 12th overall selection in the first round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Lupoi was the defensive line coach at California for four years, becoming the youngest full-time coach in Cal history when he joined the staff at the age of 26 in 2008. The Golden Bears led the Pac-12 in total defense in 2011, allowing just 332.9 yards per game. They were third in sacks that year with 34 and gave up the fewest first downs per game (17.4) and fewest passing yards per game (204.2). California also led the conference in defense and ranked among the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks, total defense and pass defense.

Lupoi was the Rivals Recruiter of the Year in 2010 and helped sign California classes that ranked No. 11 nationally in 2011 and No. 14 in 2010. He helped develop multiple NFL draft picks during his tenure at Cal, including future first-round selections Cameron Jordan and Tyson Alualu.

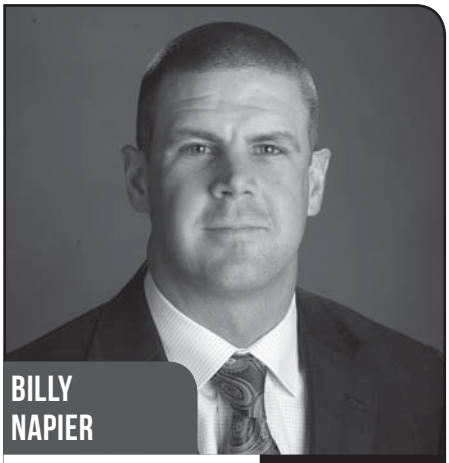

As a player, Lupoi was a defensive lineman for the California Golden Bears from 2000-05. He led the Bears' defensive line in tackles in 2003 and earned Pac-10 All-Academic recognition in 2005. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in American studies in 2005 and completed coursework toward a master's in education.

Lupoi played high school football at De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., one of the most successful programs in the history of prep football, where he earned All-State honors and won a national title. His father, John Lupoi, played collegiate football at Brigham Young and was later a part-time assistant coach at California. He is married to the former Jordan Pelluer.

BILLY NAPIER

Wide Receivers — Fourth Year

FURMAN, 2003

Billy Napier is in his fourth season on the Alabama coaching staff as wide receivers coach. Napier joined the Crimson Tide after serving as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain. Napier was an offensive analyst for the Crimson Tide in 2011.

Napier had to replace Amari Cooper in 2015 after the Tide's career receptions leader was taken No. 4 overall in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Sophomore ArDarius Stewart, senior transfer Richard Mullaney and freshman Calvin Ridley emerged as the Tide's go-to receivers after Robert Foster was lost in the third game to injury. Ridley led the team with a freshman-record 89 catches for 1,045 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart added 63 catches for 700 yards and four touchdowns, while Mullaney had 38 catches for 390 yards and five scores.

Napier's 2014 unit was led by Alabama's first Biletnikoff Award winner in Cooper, who caught a school- and SEC-record 124 passes for a UA-record 1,727 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns. Cooper led the country in receptions (124), was second nationally in receiving yards (1,727), receiving touchdowns (16) and catches per game (8.9) while ranking third in yards per game (123.4). A Heisman Trophy finalist and unanimous first team All-American, Cooper smashed all of the Tide's career receiving marks with 228 receptions, 3,463 yards and tied the SEC record with 31 receiving touchdowns. Senior DeAndrew White provided Alabama with a dangerous and reliable target opposite Cooper with 40 receptions for 504 yards and four scores. Christion Jones was third on the team with 19 receptions (264 yards).

In his first season as the Crimson Tide's receivers coach in 2013, Napier built a deep and talented group of wide outs. Alabama had four players with at least 32 receptions, led by Cooper's 45 catches for 736 yards. The wide receivers accounted for 72.1 percent of the passes caught in 2013 and 20 of the 30 passing touchdowns. Kevin Norwood produced a career year with seven touchdowns and 568 receiving yards on 38 grabs. Jones also caught 36 balls for 349 yards and White hauled in 32 catches for 534 yards and four scores.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season and M.J. McPeek following two weeks later, forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of their final five games.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2011 BCS national championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Prior to Alabama, Napier spent seven of the previous eight years in two different stints at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in Clemson history. In his first season as CU's coordinator, the 2009 Tigers scored a school-record 436 points and collected 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth best) and finished as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to have careers in the NFL.

Napier split his time from 2006-08 as Clemson's recruiting coordinator. In those three seasons, he compiled two top-25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier signed several players who went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist. Fourteen players from Clemson's 2011 two-deep roster were signed by Napier, including five who earned All-ACC honors.

Napier was the 2007-08 tight ends coach at Clemson, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest-scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson (2006), Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends but also was responsible for the punt team and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The 2006 Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense, advancing to the Music City Bowl. Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game and 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponent's totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception. Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL. He also worked with the special teams units, helping develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach and play caller at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2 and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing only 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited offensive tackle Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection and was drafted by the Detroit Lions.

Napier began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 2003-04. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was a graduate assistant on defense, and gained his first experience with recruiting off the field.

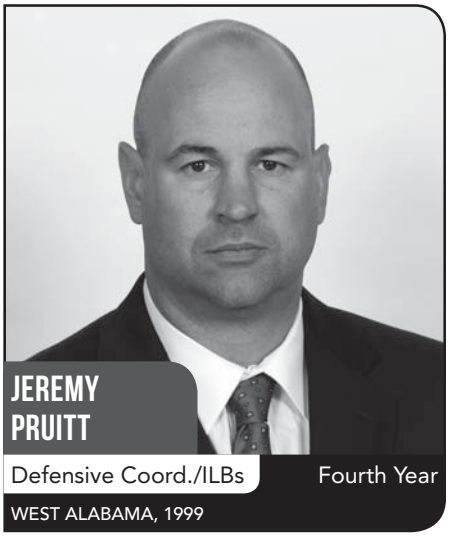

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship game, losing to Montana. He completed 64.8 percent of his career passes, setting a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier amassed 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding FCS offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Ga., and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and a son, Sammy Nelson. He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

JEREMY PRUITT

Defensive Coord./ILBs — Fourth Year

WEST ALABAMA, 1999

Jeremy Pruitt begins his second stint on the Alabama coaching staff in 2016 as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator. Pruitt, a former defensive back with the Tide, will also coach the inside linebackers.

Pruitt joins the Alabama staff after spending two seasons as defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Georgia (2014-15). Pruitt's 2015 Georgia defense ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 305.9 yards per game, led the nation in passing yards allowed per game (156.5 ypg), ranked third nationally in red zone defense (.676) and in first down defense (189), seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (104.99) and eighth in scoring defense (16.9 ppg). In 2014, Pruitt's Georgia defense ranked 17th nationally in total defense (337.2 ypg), fourth in turnover margin (+1.23) and was fifth in passing yards allowed (170.4 ypg).

Pruitt served as both defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Florida State in 2013 as part of a staff that led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the 2013 national championship. That Seminole defense ended the season leading the nation in scoring defense (12.1 ppg), and ranking second in team passing efficiency defense (93.77), third in total defense (281.4 ypg), and 18th in rushing defense (124.8 ypg).

Pruitt previously served on the Crimson Tide staff for six seasons (2007-12), coaching the Tide defensive backs from 2010-12. In that role, Pruitt mentored several notable Crimson Tide stars including safety Mark Barron and cornerbacks Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie and Dee Milliner. Pruitt originally joined the Alabama staff as Director of Player Development in 2007.

His 2012 Tide secondary was led by Milliner, a first team All-American and top-10 pick in in the 2013 NFL Draft. Alabama ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense while leading the nation in scoring and total defense en route to winning the SEC and national championships. Milliner led all defensive backs in tackles with 54 while recording two interceptions and breaking up 20 passes. Ha Ha Clinton-Dix, another future first-round pick, led the team with five interceptions while Vinnie Sunseri added 54 tackles and Robert Lester intercepted four passes.

The 2011 Alabama secondary was one of the best in the nation, boasting a pair of AFCA first team All-Americans in Barron, who was also a finalist for the Thorpe Award, and Menzie. Kirkpatrick made it three first team All-Americans in the secondary when he and Barron received that honor from the FWAA. Milliner also made significant contributions at corner and led the team with three interceptions on the season. Robert Lester, who started alongside Barron at safety, collected 39 total tackles, a pair of interceptions, five passes defended, one forced fumble and a blocked kick after leading the team in picks the year prior.

The defensive backfield had a lot of new faces on the field in 2010 with the loss of starters Javier Arenas (CB), Kareem Jackson (CB) and Justin Woodall (S) following the 2009 national championship. Under the tutelage of Pruitt, the young group came together quickly and helped Alabama lead the SEC in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense.

The 2010 secondary was anchored by Barron, who was named a first team FWAA All-American. He led the Tide with 75 tackles in 12 games in 2010, missing the Capital One Bowl with a shoulder injury. Lester also had a significant impact at safety, earning second-team Walter Camp All-American honors and ranking second nationally with eight interceptions. At corner, Kirkpatrick was a second-team All-SEC pick, while Milliner was a Freshman All-American and Freshman All-SEC selection.

Pruitt joined the Alabama staff as director of player development in 2007 after a successful stint as an assistant coach at Hoover (Ala.) High School. At Hoover, he served for three seasons as defensive backs coach with the final two as the defensive coordinator. He tutored a defense that helped the Bucs reach the Class 6A State Championship in 2004, 2005 and 2006, winning titles in 2004 and 2005. Pruitt served as an assistant coach under his father, Dale Pruitt, at Fort Payne High School from 2001-03.

Pruitt began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Alabama during the 1997 season, where he worked under defensive backs coach Curley Hallman. After one year on the UA staff, Pruitt joined his father's staff at Plainview High School as defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator in 1998 and 2000. He spent one season as defensive backs coach at the University of West Alabama, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1999.

During his collegiate career, Pruitt played at both Middle Tennessee and Alabama. He began his career at Middle Tennessee under legendary coach Boots Donnelly, where he was a two-year starter at safety and cornerback for the Blue Raiders.

After his sophomore season, Pruitt transferred to Alabama where he spent two seasons under Gene Stallings. As a junior, Pruitt saw time in nine games and recorded seven tackles. As a senior, Pruitt played in seven games as a backup defensive back and was a member of Alabama's 1996 SEC Western Division Championship team that beat Michigan, 17-13, in the Outback Bowl in Tampa.

A two-time all-state defensive back, Pruitt helped Plainview High School to a 48-8 record during his four-year career. He earned all-state honors in both 1991 and 1992.

Pruitt is married to the former Casey East and the couple has one son, Ridge. He also has a son, Jayse.

SCOTT COCHRAN

Strength & Conditioning — 10th Year

LSU, 2001

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach, who is a two-time national strength coach of the year, joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets of the NBA as an assistant strength coach. Cochran has been on Nick Saban's staff for all five national titles, as he served as an assistant at LSU in 2003.

Cochran, in his 10th year at Alabama, is nationally regarded as one of the best in the area of strength and conditioning – and the performances of Alabama's players on the field prove that to be true. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2011 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year, as featured in American Football Quarterly. He earlier was named the Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Prior to the start of spring drills, Cochran implements Coach Saban's offseason workout plan, which includes the well-known "Fourth Quarter Program" – a very important step in helping Alabama players develop physically and prepare for the upcoming practices.

It is not a coincidence that through improvements off the field in strength and conditioning, Alabama has become known as one of the most physically dominant teams in the country. The main goal of the program is to win the fourth quarter and wear down the opponent as the game goes on. On the way to the 2009 national championship, Alabama did just that as they won the fourth quarter by an astounding scoring margin of 121-32. The Tide continued the trend of finishing in 2011, as it again dominated the fourth quarter en route to the program's second national championship in three years with a 111-18 fourth-quarter scoring margin.

Cochran oversees Alabama's 37,000-square-foot weight room that is one of the largest venues of its kind in the country. The $9-million facility features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second level. The ground level comprises a weight room, highlighted by 20 combination racks that feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight room has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, plus physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While in the NBA with the Hornets from 2004-06, Cochran's duties included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he worked with NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis, David West and Tyson Chandler.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater Louisiana State as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS national champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran then was hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have three children, including one son, Beau, and two daughters, Savannah and Lucy.

JUSTIN DICKENS

Football Operations — Second Year

AUSTIN PEAY STATE, 2003

Justin Dickens is in his second year as Alabama's director of football operations after being hired in February of 2015.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to oversee the administration and operation of the football program.

Dickens spent the previous four years at the University of Michigan. He served as the director of football operations there in 2014 and was the public and media relations director for the football program from 2011-13.

Prior to joining the Michigan Athletic Department in May 2011, Dickens spent seven seasons with the Indianapolis Colts organization. He was an intern during the 2004 season before being hired as an assistant in 2005.

Dickens spent two years as an assistant (2005-06) with Indianapolis prior to his promotion to manager of publicity for the final four-plus seasons (2006-10). During his time with the Colts, Dickens coordinated the team's public relations efforts, including interviews, the production of written content and oversight of www.colts.com.

He worked with coaches Tony Dungy and Jim Caldwell and quarterback Peyton Manning. He helped coordinate the team's public relations efforts during Super Bowl XLI and XLIV in Miami, Fla.

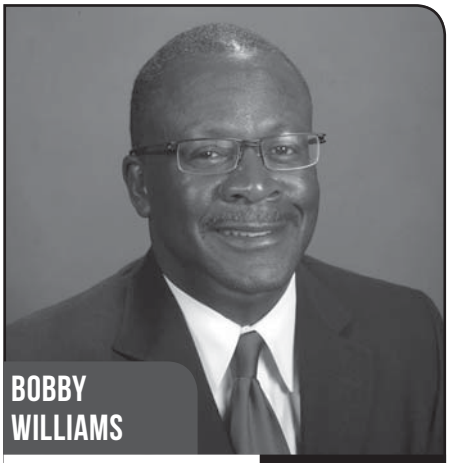

Dickens was a graduate assistant in the athletic communications office at the University of Georgia (2003-04) prior to joining the Colts organization. He was the primary public relations contact for women's soccer, men's and women's track and field and cross country programs and assisted with the nationally ranked football program and men's basketball team.

He earned a bachelor of science degree in public relations from Austin Peay State University in 2003. He completed work on his master's degree in education (sports management) from Georgia in 2004. Dickens and his wife Kaylee have two sons, Jacoby and Myles.

DICKENS FAMILY

BOBBY WILLIAMS

Special Assistant to HC — Ninth Year

PURDUE, 1982

Bobby Williams, in his ninth season in Tuscaloosa, moves off the field for the 2016 season as the special assistant to the head coach. He spent eight years in Tuscaloosa as the Crimson Tide's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. A veteran coach with both college and NFL experience, Williams is a member of head coach Nick Saban's coaching staff for the fourth time in his career, also working together at Michigan State, LSU and the Miami Dolphins.

The 2015 season saw tight end O.J. Howard rank third on the team with 602 receiving yards and tied for third in receptions with 38. Howard earned Offensive MVP honors in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game with five catches for 208 yards and two touchdowns. Place-kicker Adam Griffith earned second team All-SEC honors after making 23-of-32 field goals and averaging 63.2 yards on kickoffs with a career-best 55 touchbacks. JK Scott averaged 44.2 yards per punt with 21 over 50 yards and 25 inside the 20-yard line.

In 2014, Scott, a true freshman was named a finalist for the Ray Guy Award and earned All-America honors after averaging 48.0 yards per punt to lead the nation. He led the nation in percentage of punts inside the 20-yard line (54.2 percent) and net punting (44.67). Adam Griffith, in his first year as the starting place-kicker, hit 12-of-19 field goals. Christion Jones ranked 29th nationally and third in the SEC with an average of 25.0 yards. Howard led all tight ends with 15 receptions for 246 yards with Brian Vogler adding four catches for 18 yards and a score.

Williams' developed Howard into a freshman All-American and dangerous threat at tight end for the Crimson Tide as a true freshman. Howard averaged a team-best 19.2 yards per catch while grabbing two touchdowns. Williams' guidance also helped Vogler replace three-year starter Michael Williams at tight end with impressive results, while Jalston Fowler took over at h-back in the Tide offense. Vogler finished with eight catches for 71 yards and a touchdown, while Fowler was second on the team with five touchdown grabs on seven receptions. Senior punter Cody Mandell also flourished under Williams' tutelage with a school-record 47.1 yard punting average on 39 attempts, while leading the nation in net punting at 42.4 yards per punt. Christion Jones ranked second in the SEC in both kickoff and punt returns, while Cade Foster handled field goal duties and connected on 12-of-17 attempts.

Williams was a nominee for the 2012 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the national assistant coach of the year. Alabama's tight ends combination of Williams and walk-on senior Kelly Johnson performed well with 29 receptions for 222 yards and four scores. Jeremy Shelley was the only kicker in the nation to not miss a kick, going 69-for-69 on extra points and hitting all 11 of his field goals. Mandell turned in a career season with a 44.3 yards per kick average with 19 punts inside the 20-yard line and 14 punts of more than 50 yards.

In 2011, Williams' tight end duo of Brad Smelley and Michael Williams combined for 50 receptions resulting in 547 yards. Smelley recorded a team-best four receiving touchdowns, while Williams tacked on another two scores. On special teams, Marquis Maze ranked ninth in the nation and third in the SEC, averaging 13.2 yards per punt return with one touchdown. Those numbers earned Maze a spot on the All-SEC second team as a specialist. Alabama ranked 19th in the nation in kickoff returns (24.1 ypg). The Tide allowed only 11 punts to be returned in 2011, for a total of 51 yards.

Williams was instrumental in the development of Preston Dial in 2010, as the senior had a breakout season under his tutelage. On top of his exceptional blocking abilities, Dial hauled in a career-best 25 passes for 264 yards and three scores. Michael Williams also had an outstanding 2010 season as a dominating blocker on the edge in the Alabama running game, while catching eight passes for 100 yards and a touchdown.

The veteran coach had to replace both kickers in 2010, with the losses of Leigh Tiffin and P.J. Fitzgerald. Mandell won the punting duties as a true freshman and averaged 39.2 yards per kick, knocking 13 inside the 20. Fellow freshman Foster split field goal duties with sophomore Shelley. Foster drilled seven field goals, including five over 40 yards, while Shelley handled the closer attempts. Trent Richardson ranked 29th nationally in kickoff returns and Maze was 16th in punt returns.

During the 2009 national championship season, Williams had to replace a pair of senior tight ends from the 2008 roster. The Alabama offense did not miss a beat, as Colin Peek emerged as one of the team's top targets, earning second team Associated Press All-SEC honors with 26 catches for 313 yards and three touchdowns.

Williams also oversaw 2009 Lou Groza finalist Tiffin at place-kicker. Tiffin earned first team AP All-America status. Javier Arenas set the SEC career records for punt return yards and touchdowns. Fitzgerald had a career season for the Tide in 2009 by averaging 41.5 yards per kick, with 19 inside the 20-yard line.

The special teams in 2008 were a big weapon for the Tide under Williams. Arenas broke two punt returns for touchdowns, Tiffin was a Groza Award semifinalist and connected on 20-of-29 on field goals, while Fitzgerald had a then-career-best average of 41.1 yards per punt with 15 inside the 20. Tight ends Nick Walker and Travis McCall combined for 23 starts, the best seasons of their career in terms of production.

Williams spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the running backs coach with the Dolphins. In his first season, Miami averaged 118.6 yards rushing per game, the second-best figure by the team from 1985-2005.

In 2004, Williams served as the associate head coach/wide receivers coach at LSU, where he coached a pair of future NFL first-round picks in Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe. Davis and Bowe ranked in the top 10 in the SEC for both receptions per game and receiving yards per game in 2004. Prior to LSU, Williams had a one-year stint with the Detroit Lions as wide receivers coach in 2003.

Williams followed Saban as the head coach at Michigan State and served in that post from 2000-02. He led the Spartans to a victory over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl after the 1999 season in his first game as the school's head coach. He also guided Michigan State to a 7-5 mark in 2001, his second full season as head coach. That season culminated with a victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, as he became the first coach in Michigan State history to lead his team to victories in his first two bowl appearances.

Previously an assistant on the Spartans staff from 1990-99, Williams tutored the running backs under Saban. MSU backs produced nine individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Williams' 10 years in that post, led by T.J. Duckett, Atlanta's first-round draft choice in 2002.

Williams earned his start in coaching as running backs/defensive backs coach at Ball State from 1983-84. He followed that with a five-year stint (1985-89) as offensive backfield coach at Eastern Michigan.

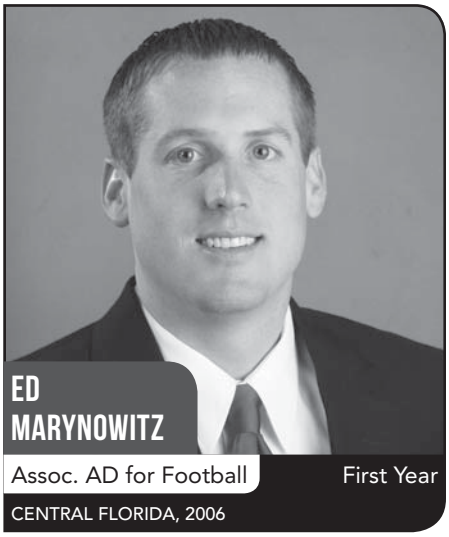

Williams is a 1982 graduate of Purdue, where he earned his degree in general management and was a four-year letterman for the Boilermakers. He started his career at running back before moving to the secondary and starting in his final three seasons. A tri-captain as a senior in 1981, Williams was a part of three bowl teams as a player. He then served one year (1982) as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

A native of St. Louis, Williams and his wife Sheila have a daughter, Nataly, and a son, Nicholas. Nataly earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and information sciences from Alabama in 2010. Nicholas played football at Alabama and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in commerce and business administration. He is currently the wide receivers and special teams assistant at Jacksonville State.

ED MARYNOWITZ

Assoc. AD for Football — First Year

CENTRAL FLORIDA, 2006

Ed Marynowitz returned to The University of Alabama as the Crimson Tide's associate athletics director for football in June of 2016.

In his new role, Marynowitz will work with the Crimson Tide's player personnel department and football operations while assisting with athletic administration.

Marynowitz served as the Philadelphia Eagles' vice president of player personnel in 2015. In that role he oversaw the Eagles player personnel department, ran their pro and college scouting office and handled the preparation for the NFL Draft and free agency. Marynowitz joined Philadelphia in 2012 as the team's assistant director of pro scouting and was later elevated to assistant director of player personnel.

Marynowitz originally joined the Alabama staff in December of 2008 as the director of player personnel. During his tenure with the Crimson Tide, Marynowitz was instrumental in helping construct three No. 1 recruiting classes with all four classes ranking in the top five nationally. The recruiting classes during his tenure produced nine players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft and Alabama posted a 36-4 record during his three seasons in Tuscaloosa.

With the Dolphins, Marynowitz worked under general manager Jeff Ireland and executive vice president of football operations Bill Parcells. He worked in both the pro and college scouting departments where he assisted with the advance scouting of opponents, evaluation of both draft eligible college prospects and NFL free-agents, the execution of free-agent workouts, the monitoring of daily league transactions, and the maintenance of Miami's scouting databases.

Marynowitz spent two years on staff at the University of Central Florida under George O'Leary. He served as a graduate assistant during the 2006 season, working primarily with football operations before joining the staff on a full-time basis for the 2007 season as the Knights' recruiting administrator. In that role for UCF, Marynowitz directed the on-campus recruiting efforts in addition to assisting with day-to-day operations of the program.

He began his collegiate playing career as a two-year starter at La Salle University in Philadelphia where he threw for 4,896 yards and 24 touchdowns as a freshman and sophomore. Marynowitz earned honorable mention All-America honors in 2003 as a sophomore and held a number of the school's passing records when he left La Salle. He finished his playing career at UCF as a reserve quarterback on the 2005 Hawaii Bowl team.

Marynowitz completed his bachelor of arts degree in business management in the spring of 2006 at the University of Central Florida. He finished his master's in business administration in December of 2007 and then a second master's degree in sports business management from UCF's DeVos Sport Business Management Program in May of 2008.

He is married to the former Codie Davis and the couple has two children, Ward and Whit.

MARYNOWITZ FAMILY

Ed with his wife, Codie, and their children, Ward and Whit.

JODY WRIGHT

Player Personnel — Second Year

TROY, 2000

Jody Wright returned to the Alabama staff in January of 2015 as the director of player personnel. Wright was the Crimson Tide's graduate assistant in 2010 and offensive analyst in 2011-12.

Wright's responsibilities with the Crimson Tide include the organization of all recruiting efforts. Alabama put together the No. 1 signing class in the country in February of 2015 according to three major recruiting services. He then followed it up with another top-ranked recruiting class in 2016 according to 247Sports, Rivals and Scout. Wright also works with compliance regarding initial eligibility and assists with coaching clinics, camps and other on-campus events.

Wright brings several years of SEC experience to Tuscaloosa. In addition to his three years at Alabama, he has also worked a graduate assistant and eventually the director of football operations at Mississippi State. Wright spent a total of five years in Starkville, where he also earned his master's degree in 2009.

Wright's previous two stops include a season at UAB in 2014 (assistant head coach/running backs/recruiting coordinator) and his alma mater, Jacksonville State, in 2013 (passing game/recruiting coordinator). In 2014, the Blazers rushed for 2,637 yards and 17 touchdowns for an average of 219.8 yards per game with five different running backs gaining at least 290 yards on the ground. Wright helped UAB (6-6) become bowl eligible for the first time since 2004.

The Gamecocks advanced to the third round of the FCS playoffs in 2013, finishing with a record of 11-4. JSU ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in total offense (442 yards per game) and scoring offense (35.2 ppg). He began his career as a student assistant at Jacksonville State in 2002. Wright helped JSU win the 2003 and 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championships.

Wright's time in Tuscaloosa (2010-12) saw the Crimson Tide capture back-to-back national championships (2011-12) and post a 35-5 record.

Wright played running back at Jacksonville State, where he earned his undergraduate degree in 2005. He played his high school football at Pickens Academy for his father, Lynn Wright, and was a member of three undefeated state championship teams.

In June of 2014, Wright married the former Meredith Hocutt of Tuscaloosa.

WRIGHT FAMILY

Jody and his wife, Meredith.

JEFF ALLEN

ASSISTANT A.D. FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine Jeff Allen is in his 10th season at The University of Alabama. Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all of the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

One of the most respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. He had work published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams. He earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Valdosta State University in 1995, while also serving as a graduate assistant for two years.

A 1993 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Allen and his wife Mary have one daughter, Makennah.

JEFF SPRINGER

ASSISTANT A.D. FOR EQUIPMENT

The all-important role of athletic equipment director is coordinated by Jeff Springer, now in his sixth season with the Crimson Tide. Springer joined the Alabama staff in 2011 after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

TROY FINNEY

ASSISTANT A.D. FOR SPORTS TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION

In his role as assistant athletics director of sports technology and innovation, Troy Finney oversees technology operations for all sports at The University of Alabama.

He is in his 12th season with the University and continues to ensure that Alabama Athletics is at the forefront of innovative IT solutions to remain among the top universities in the nation in sports technology.

Finney not only administers all video and technology for Alabama's football coaching staff, but he also produces selected segments for the "Nick Saban Show" and facilitates all production aspects of PSAs and commercials featuring Nick Saban. Additionally, he offers coaches the most up-to-date recruiting technologies in order to attract top talent to the university.

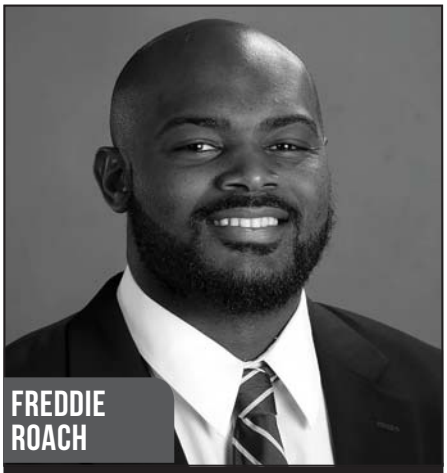

Within his field, Finney has assisted in the creation of a video exchange software to aid in the facilitation of football operations. He also conceived, created and implemented the only solar-powered video solution in the country.

Finney has been invited to present at national conferences in the field of video technology as well as for university fundraisers. He was voted SEC Video Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by his peers.

Before moving to Tuscaloosa, Finney spent two years as a video systems assistant for the Indianapolis Colts, working under head coach Tony Dungy. During his time in the NFL, Finney also worked for NFL Europe as video coordinator with the Rhein Fire and the Cologne Centurions.

Finney earned a Bachelor of Science from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University and, subsequently, earned a Master of Science in Marketing from The University of Alabama.

He and his wife, Sara, have one son, Maxwell.

FREDDIE ROACH

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Freddie Roach joined the Alabama staff in March of 2015 as the director of player development. Roach spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at South Alabama.

In his role as the Tide's director of player development, Roach's main focus is off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches, while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

Roach helped the Jaguars end the 2013 season third nationally in sacks per game and 21st in tackles for loss per contest, while finishing second in the Sun Belt in pass, total and scoring defense. The 2014 defense was second in the Sun Belt in total defense.

Roach went to USA from Murray State, where he was the Racers' defensive line coach while assisting with the strength and conditioning program during the 2012 season. The previous fall, he coached the defensive line and was the director of strength and conditioning at East Mississippi Community College, helping lead the Lions to the NJCAA National Championship.

Roach spent three seasons (2008-10) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Alabama, during which time the Crimson Tide won both the BCS national championship and Southeastern Conference title in 2009.

As a player, Roach was a four-year letterwinner for the Crimson Tide from 2002-05, during which time he was named the National Freshman of the Year, a freshman All-American, was twice selected second team All-SEC and named to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. He signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 2006.

A native of Killen, Ala., he made 194 tackles with 23 tackles for loss and six forced fumbles as a senior at Brooks High School. Roach earned his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2008. Roach and his wife, Ashley, have two daughters, Addison and Alexandria.

KERRY STEVENSON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kerry Stevenson joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama in February of 2013 as the Crimson Tide's director of player development. Stevenson came to the Capstone after spending 10 years (2003-12) as the head football coach at Vigor High School in Prichard, Ala. Stevenson spent the 2014 season as a strength and conditioning assistant for the Crimson Tide.

Stevenson returned to the director of player development role in 2015, with his main focus on off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes. He serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. Stevenson also assists with personal development programs, including the peer intervention group.

At Vigor, Stevenson won the state championship with a perfect 15-0 record in 2008. His 2011 team finished as the state runner-up with a 12-3 record. He coached former Alabama players B.J. Scott and running back Jalston Fowler. Before being named the head coach, Stevenson was an assistant coach for a year at Vigor in 2002. He spent seven years (1995-2001) as an assistant coach at Huffman High School and two years (1993-94) at Mariner High School in Fort Myers, Fla.

Stevenson attended Alabama A&M on an academic scholarship, receiving both his undergraduate (1991) and graduate (1993) degrees. He played high school football at Huffman and the team advanced to the state championship game in his senior year.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Stevenson and his wife Tracy have a daughter, Aisha, and a son, Jaylon.

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell is entering his second year as president of The University of Alabama. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered, comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bell has broad administrative experience and is a 30-year veteran of higher education. He previously served at UA for 16 years where he founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center.

"Our students continue to excel and represent the Capstone in the classroom, as well as in the laboratory, on the stage and on the field in ways that make us proud," Bell said near the end of the spring 2016 semester. "This is certainly an exciting time to be here at The University of Alabama."

Immediately prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. During Dr. Bell's tenure there and earlier at the University of Kansas where he served as dean of its College of Engineering, those institutions opened new facilities, and student recruitment, retention and success were emphasized.

First joining UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the UA College of Engineering's department of mechanical engineering, Dr. Bell was named department head nine years later.

With research interest in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in alternative fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies.

Dr. Bell was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching in 1988. He was presented the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the UA College of Engineering in 2001, and, in 2005, he received the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

He and his wife, Susan, have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen, and one granddaughter.

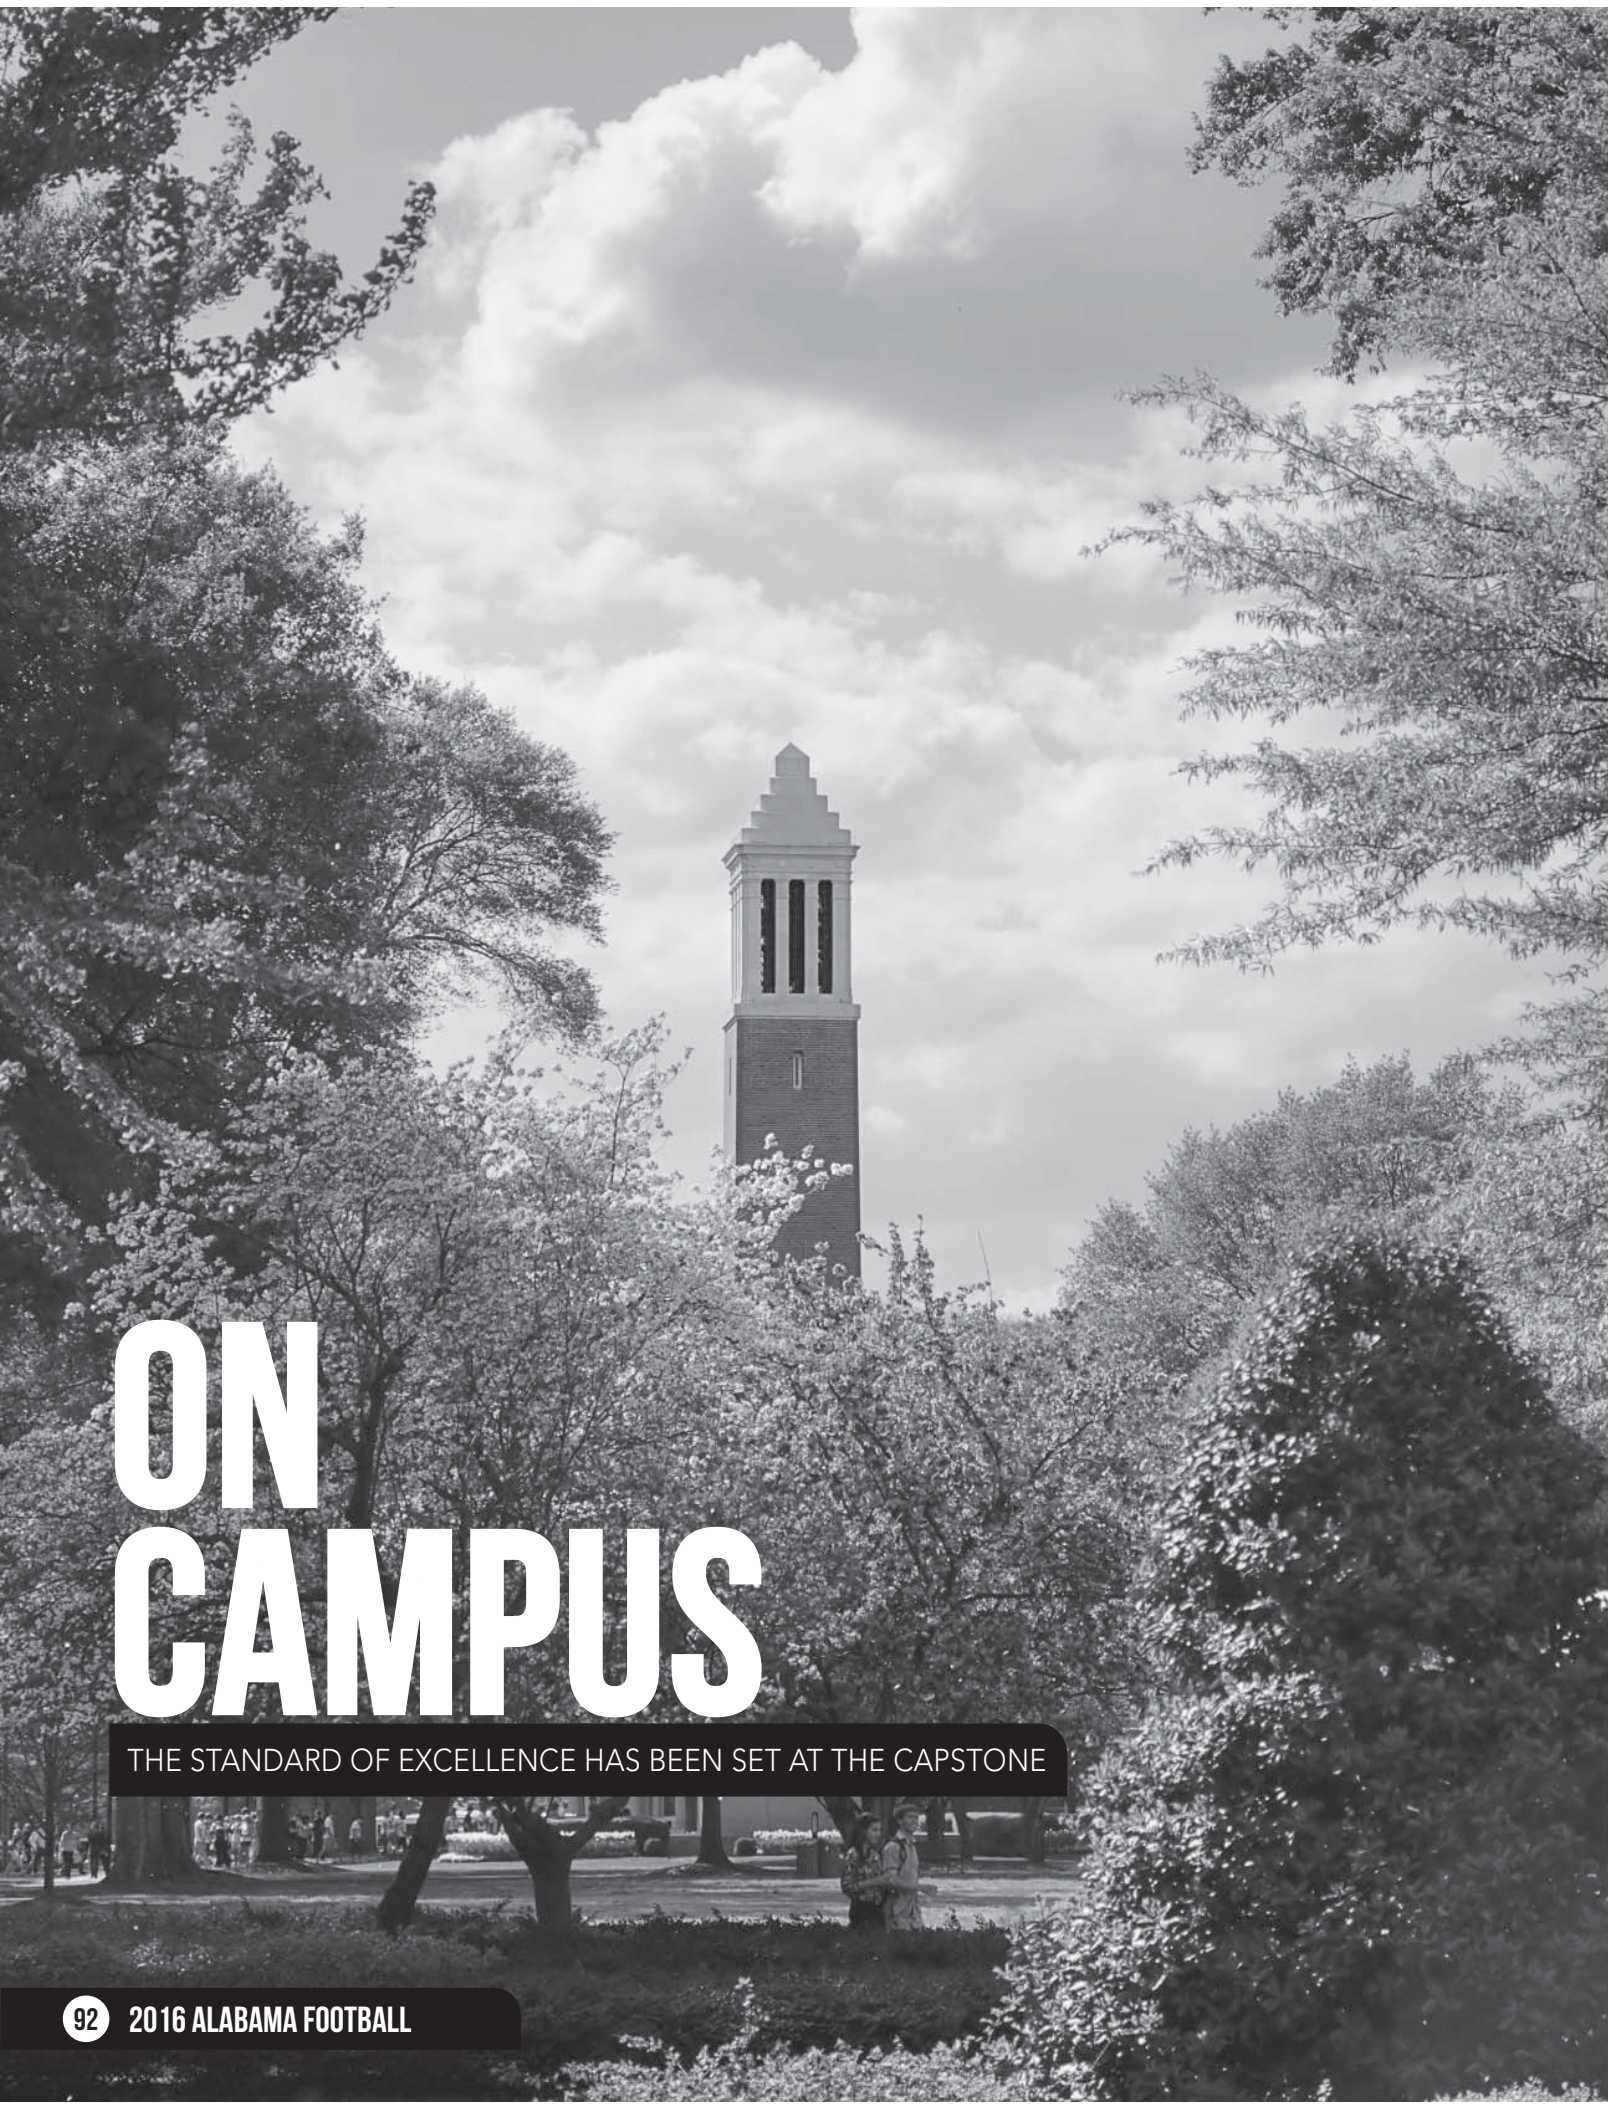

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

From the architecture to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama. With more than 200 academic majors, outstanding honors programs and a championship athletic tradition, UA offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Our undergraduate, graduate and professional programs give students the opportunity to interact with nationally ranked faculty and our distance learning programs offer learning that fits your life.

Life on the UA campus is defined by opportunities. Students who want to get involved can join one of more than 500 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, volunteer in the community, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

Students, faculty, staff and visitors can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. UA's fine museums house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

The Ferguson Center, UA's student union, was renovated and expanded in 2014, providing more space for student activities and a larger food court and Supply Store. The new Fresh Food Company as well as Lakeside and Burke dining halls offer a wide variety of food service options.

The Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space. An additional recreation and student center is conveniently located for residential students between the Presidential 1 and II residence halls.

Whatever your interests, you will find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP-RANKED UNIVERSITIES

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

- Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 37,100 for fall 2015. The entering freshman class, at 7,211 students, was the largest and best qualified in UA history. More than 2,100 freshmen (36 percent of the freshman class) scored 30 or higher on the ACT, placing them in the top five percent of students taking the ACT.
- The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities nationwide in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars with more than 600 currently enrolled.
- Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 43rd among public universities in the 2016 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:
- The School of Law is ranked 28th among all law schools in the nation (10th among public universities), spring 2016.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 18th nationally in the latest rankings for library schools, spring 2013.
- University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Forty-seven UA students have been named Goldwater Scholars, including two in 2016. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars, 16 Truman Scholars, 32 Hollings Scholars and six Boren Scholars.
- Thirty UA faculty have received NSF CAREER Awards, the nation's most prestigious recognition of top-performing young scientists, in disciplines ranging from nanoscience and engineering to biological sciences.
- Dr. Samantha Hansen, UA assistant professor of geological sciences, is one of many faculty recognized nationally for research. Hansen is one of 102 scientists who received the 2014 Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. government on science and engineering professionals in the early stages of their independent research careers.
- Seven University of Alabama graduates have accepted Fulbright awards to study and teach abroad during 2016-2017.
- U.S. News and World Report ranks The University of Alabama's Manderson Online Business Master's programs 12th in the nation, up from 75th the previous year. The rankings are based on level of accreditation, faculty credentials, admissions selectivity, reputation for excellence among peer institutions and academic and career support services offered to students.
- Public Accounting Report's 2014 rankings place UA's Culverhouse School of Accountancy's undergraduate and master's programs eighth in the nation and the doctoral program 12th.
- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation six times.

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle is in his fourth year as Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama. Since taking the job on March 22, 2013, (succeeding the late Mal Moore), Battle has not only maintained Alabama's unparalleled athletics success, but also has placed increased focus on the primary mission of Alabama Athletics: to recruit and develop student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in intercollegiate athletics, to educate and prepare student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in life after graduation, and to accomplish both with honor and integrity.

Battle took the job as Director of Athletics at Alabama after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently hallmarked by innovation and foresight. During Battle's tenure, Alabama has produced two NCAA team national championships (men's golf in 2014 and football in 2015); 10 SEC team championships in six different sports (two in football, two in gymnastics, one in men's golf, women's golf, softball and women's tennis); 16 NCAA individual champions; 27 NCAA Elite Award winners; 34 Academic All-Americans (leading the nation in that category in both 2013-14 and 2014-15); and 16 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship awardees.

Battle's vision has impacted the Alabama Athletics Department in numerous ways, particularly in revitalized fundraising efforts that directly enhance the daily experience of every Crimson Tide student-athlete. Battle spearheaded the redevelopment of Alabama's historic baseball facility, Sewell-Thomas Stadium, which opened in February, 2016. He also has led the drive for numerous other facility and departmental improvements, including a new rowing facility and plans for a new aquatics facility.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961, and was a three-year starter. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, Battle came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle earned a bachelor's degree in Biology (minor in Psychology) from The University of Alabama in 1963 and a master's degree in Education from The University of Oklahoma in 1964. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s. Alabama won three national championships in the decade (1961, 1964 and 1965).

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Battle embarked on a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties. The companies were sold to IMG in 2007, but he continued as chairman of CLC and consultant to IMG until March of 2013 when he was called back to Alabama.

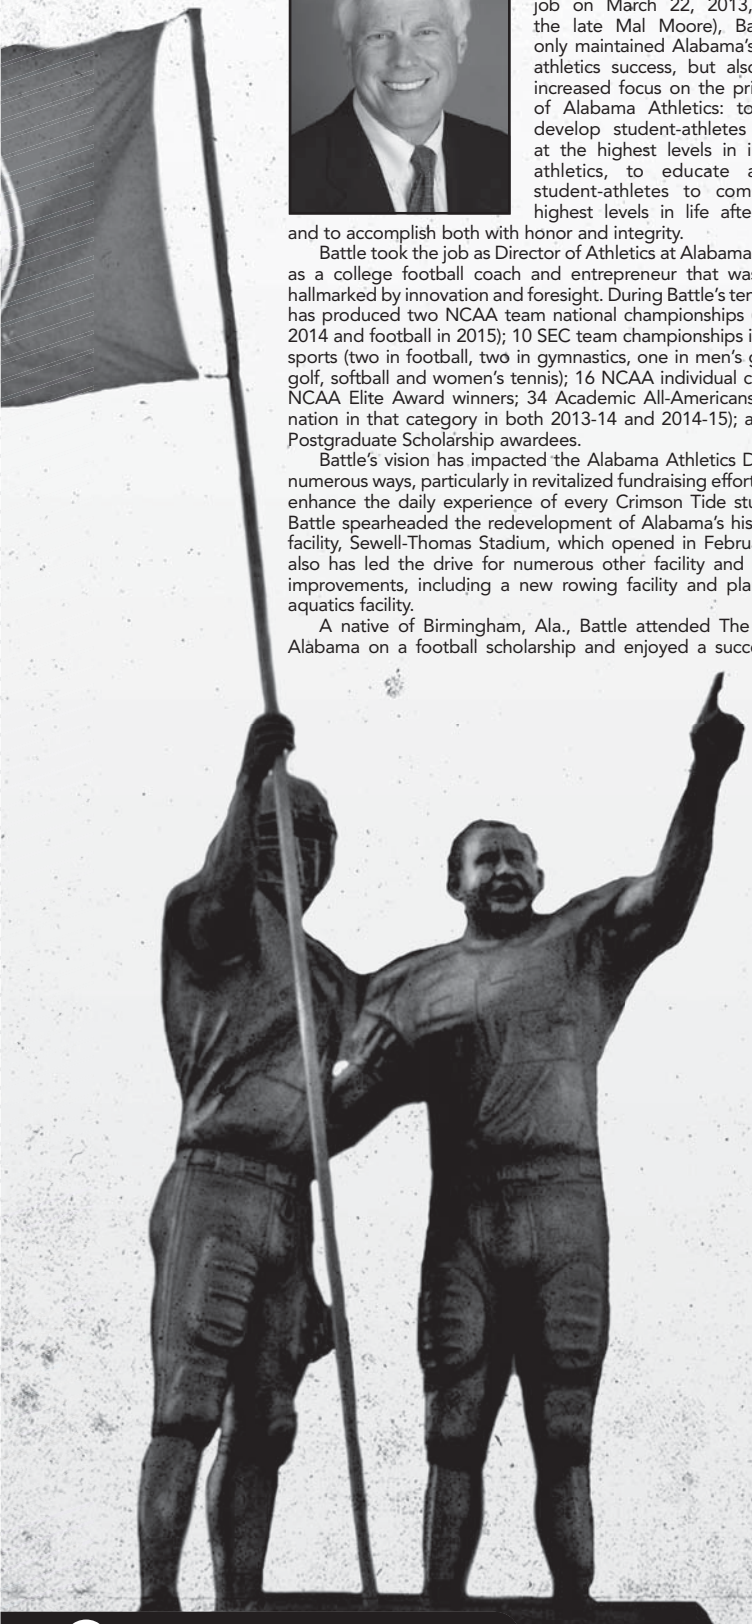

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, Bill was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. He is slated to be inducted into the Sporting Goods Industry Hall of Fame in May of 2016. He currently serves on the boards of the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife, Mary, is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas' School of Nursing with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Master of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. For many years Mary worked in the healthcare industry both in the clinical setting and for healthcare corporations that developed and managed physician provider networks including the development of strategically significant relationships with payors and business and industry.

Mary currently serves on the Arthritis Foundation National Board of Directors and is the chairperson of the Arthritis Foundation Leadership Council for the Birmingham market. She is also a member of the Volunteer Engagement Task Team for the Arthritis Foundation. In addition, Mary is an inaugural member of the UAB School of Medicine Board of Visitors and is active in fundraising activities for UAB that support research projects targeting more effective treatment for rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles are part of UAB's Stem Cell Institute Board and are both active in their support of UAB's Department of Rheumatology. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

Drawing from our rich heritage and TRADITION OF CHAMPIONS, The University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to DEVELOP FUTURE LEADERS.

"We want to be successful as students. I always tell players there's two things that we want you to do here, you've got two careers: one on the field, one off the field. The one off the field means you've got to graduate from college. That's the one that's going to have the greatest impact on the quality of your life forever. We want to have a great academic support program. We want our players to succeed as students."

BUILT FOR BAMA

WEIGHT ROOM

Alabama's state-of-the art 37,000-square-foot weight room is a showcase for the Crimson Tide's lauded training programs, such as the "Fourth Quarter Program." The weight room features 21,000-square feet on the lower level and 16,000-square feet on the second floor. The weight room is highlighted by 24 combination racks that have platforms built into the ground for a level surface, providing a safer workout environment, as well as a brand new dumbbell station. The upper level houses cardio stations, medicine balls, office space for team doctors and a rehabilitation center. The complex features a state-of-the-art nutrition bar, video monitor and sound system. The weight room seamlessly connects the Mal Moore Athletics Complex, where the football offices are located, to the Hank Crisp Indoor Practice Facility.

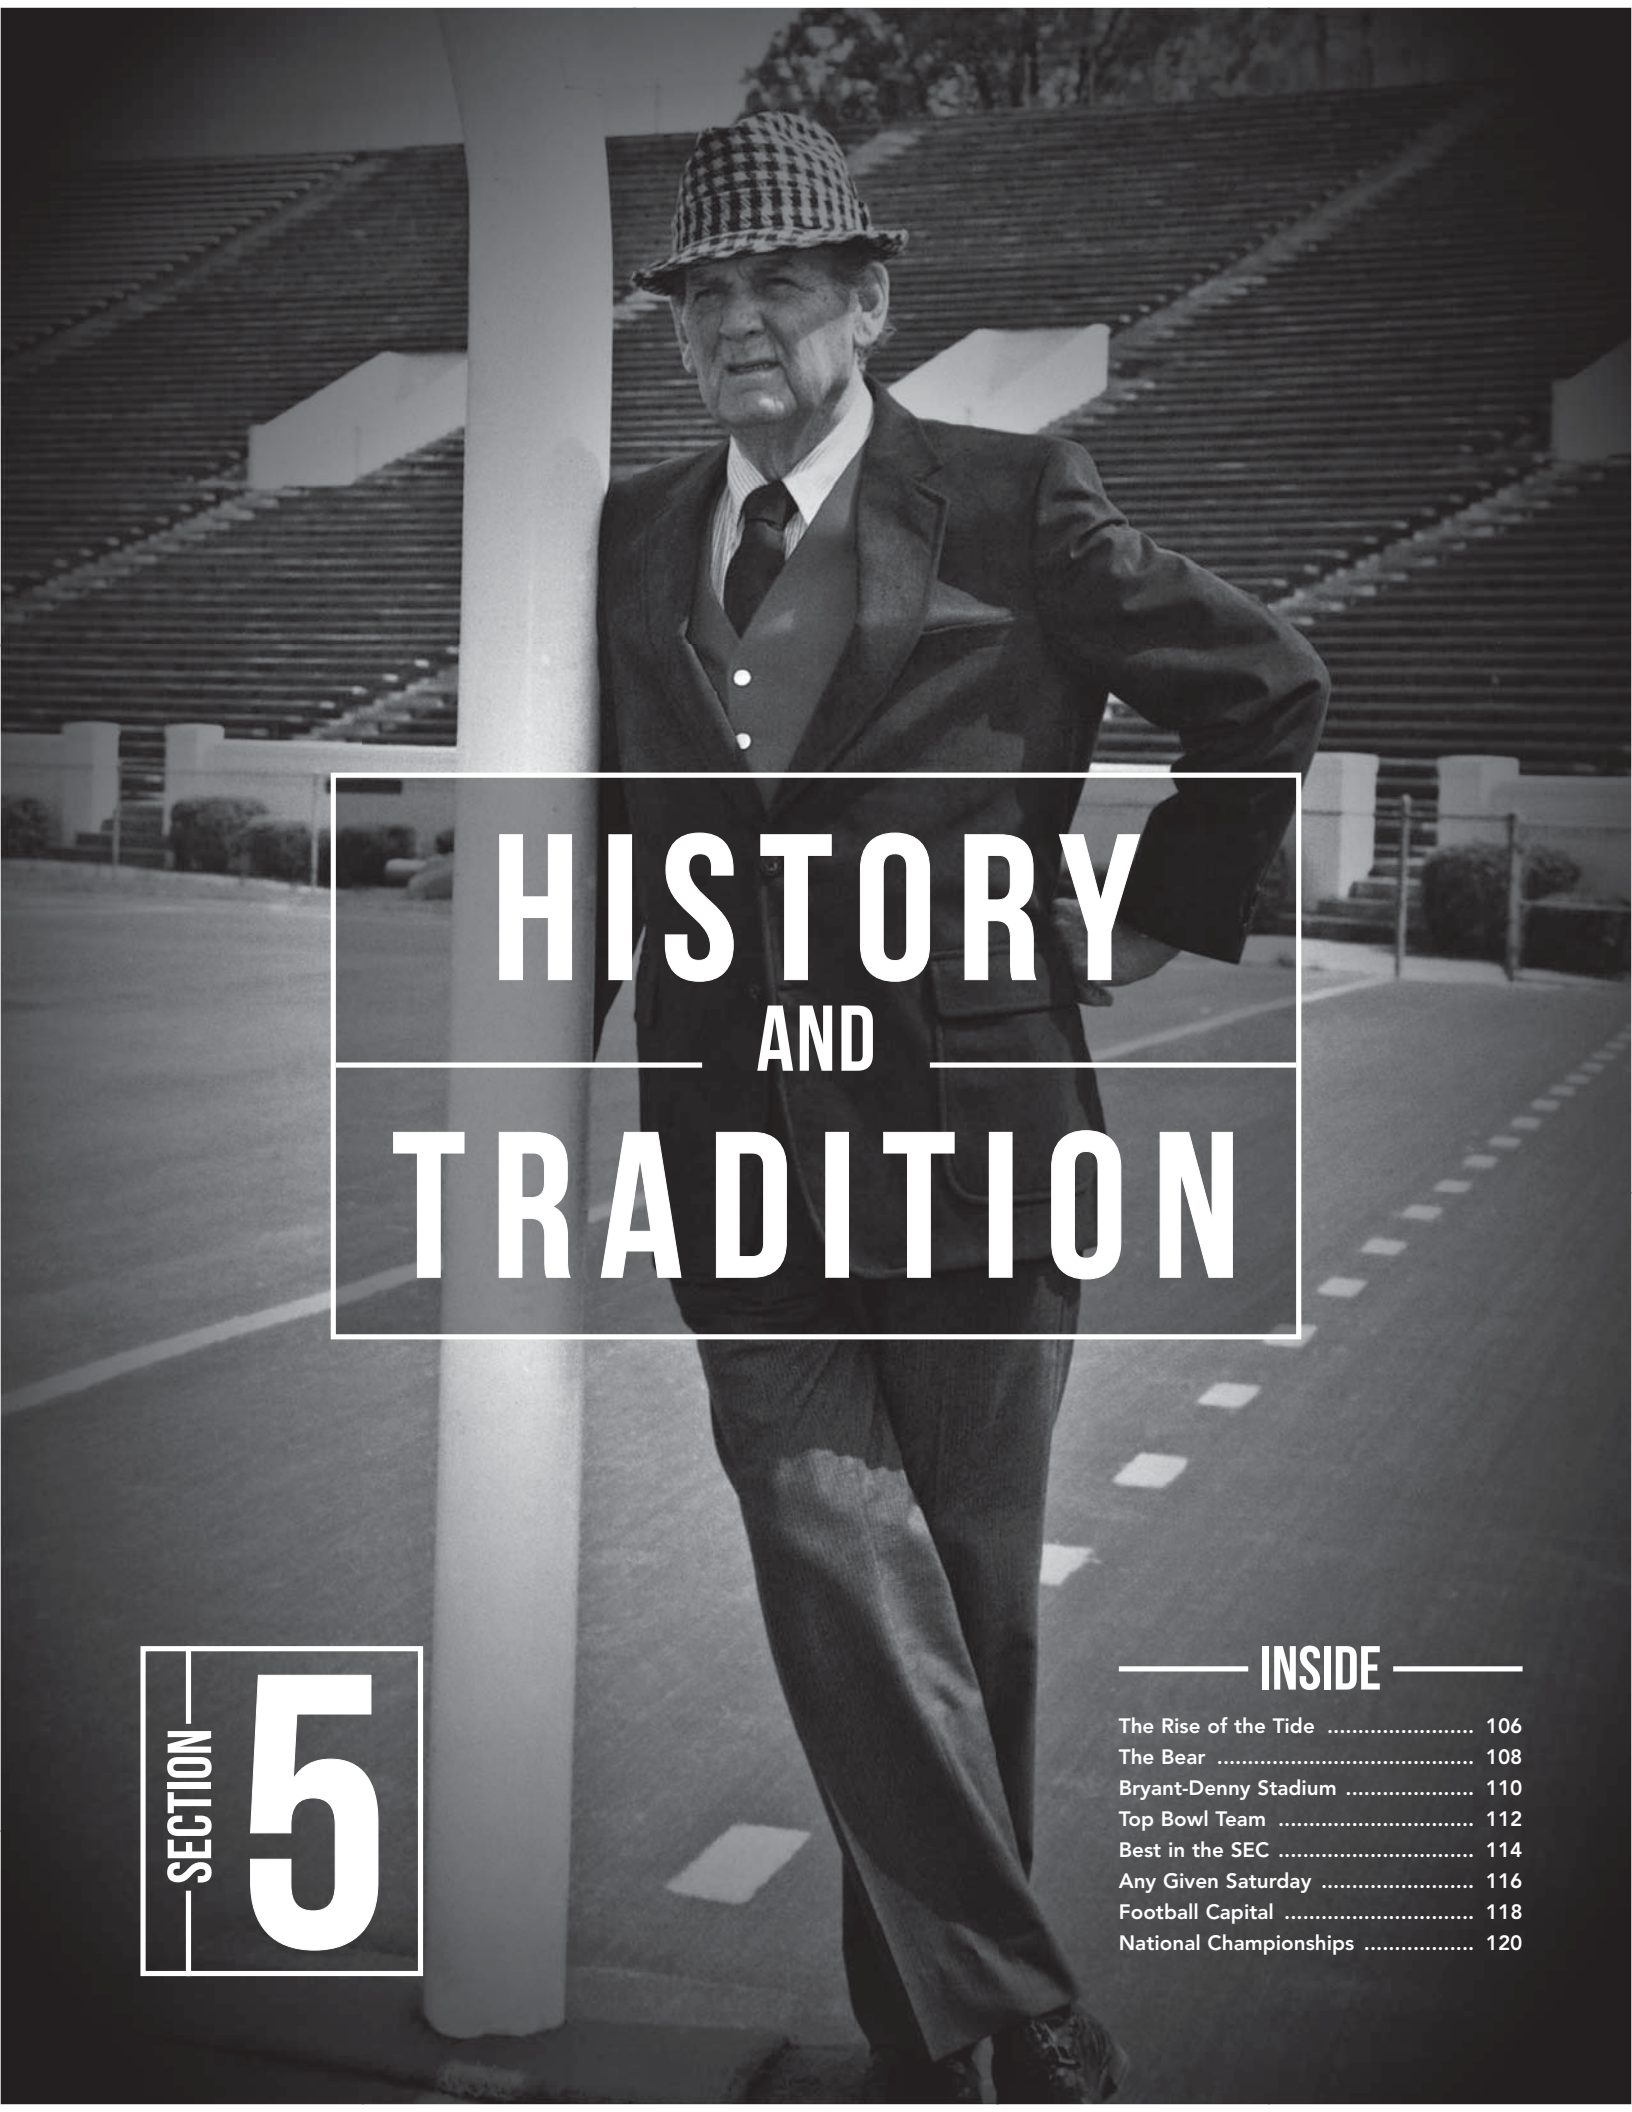

LOCKER ROOM/MEETING ROOMS

The latest renovations to the Mal Moore Athletic Complex feature a complete overhaul to Alabama's football locker room, meetings spaces as well as lounge and recruiting areas to give the Crimson Tide a premier player development hub. The transformation comprises a state-of-the art, redesigned locker room with new furnishings from top to bottom, including 137 custom-built lockers and a cascading built-in spa for post-practice recovery. The meeting rooms are built around a new theater-style team room that has 175 oversized seats and is equipped with a 300-inch projection screen. The renovations also feature eight new theater-style position meeting rooms. The player lounge area has an 80-inch high-definition television, an arcade room and three gaming areas along with pool and ping-pong tables.

THE RISE OF THE TIDE

A BRIEF LOOK AT THE ORIGINS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S GREATEST TRADITION

"To have a tradition like ours means that you can't lose your cool;
to have a tradition like ours means
that you always have to show class, even when you are not quite up to it;
to have a tradition like ours means that you have to do some things that you don't want to do
and some you even think you can't do, simply because tradition demands it of you.
On the other hand, tradition is that which allows us to prevail in ways that we could not otherwise."

David Matthews
Former University of Alabama President

Alabama football boasts a rich tradition that dates back for more than a century. The winningest program in Southeastern Conference (SEC) annals, Alabama has won 24 SEC championships and 15 national championships in its storied history.

It all began with University of Alabama law student William G. Little, who learned how to play American football while attending prep school in Andover, Mass. Little began teaching the sport to fellow Alabama students in early 1892. Later in the year, the school formed an official team of 19 players, with Little as captain and E.B. Beaumont as the team's head coach. Those on the team included William B. Bankhead, future U.S. Speaker of the House, and Bibb Graves, future governor of Alabama. The team was referred to as the "Cadets," the "Crimson White," or simply as "The Varsity". Following the 1907 season, the team adopted the "Crimson Tide" nickname.

Shortly after the end of the 1922 season, in which he led Alabama in the victory over Penn, head coach Xen C. Scott passed away and Brown University alum Wallace Wade was hired as Alabama's new head coach. Intent on building a dynasty after Wade had led the team to its first national championship with a win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl, University President Dr. George Denny took advantage of the team's newfound popularity and began advertising The University of Alabama in metropolitan New York City newspapers. Students, football players and fans alike from the Northeast began enrolling at Alabama at such a rate that by 1930, over one-third of the student body was comprised of students from outside of Alabama. Wade led the Crimson Tide to two more national titles before taking the head coaching job at Duke in 1931.

Frank Thomas, a former quarterback for a Notre Dame squad led by Knute Rockne, was hired to replace Wade. Thomas led the team to consistent success and two more national championships during a 14-year tenure with the team. Among the players that Thomas coached were Harry Gilmer, Don Hutson and Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Bryant returned to his alma mater as head coach in December 1957, leaving Texas A&M. In his fourth season at the Capstone (1961), Bryant led the Crimson Tide to its sixth national championship, which included Bryant's first bowl victory with Alabama. From 1961-66, Alabama went 60-5-1 (.917), won four Southeastern Conference Championships, enjoyed two undefeated seasons and won three national championships. During the 1970s, the Crimson Tide was one of the most dominant teams in college football history, winning eight conference titles and three national championships. Alabama posted a 103-16-1 (.863) record during the decade.

During his tenure, Bryant led Alabama to a 232-46-9 record. His achievements included six national championships, 13 Southeastern Conference titles and 11 bowl victories. In 25 seasons as head coach, he led the Crimson Tide to 24 consecutive bowl appearances. At the time of his retirement, he was the winningest coach in college football history.

Gene Stallings, a former member of Bryant's famed "Junction Boys" at Texas A&M, had a successful seven-year run with the Tide from 1990-96, leading Alabama to the school's 12th national title in 1992.

Alabama's current head coach Nick Saban has left his stamp on the football program at the Capstone in his 10th season. In 2015, the Crimson Tide went 14-1 en route to capturing Alabama's 16th national title in the College Football Playoff National Championship. The 2014 squad went 12-2 and earned a spot in the first College Football Playoff. The 2013 team posted an 11-2 mark and appeared in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In 2012, the Crimson Tide captured its third national championship under Saban, its second straight and 15th overall, with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 14th title during the 2011 season with a commanding 21-0 shutout of LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide went undefeated and claimed its 13th national championship in 2009 with wins over Florida in the SEC Championship Game and Texas in the BCS National Championship Game. The 2010 Crimson Tide posted a 10-3 record and won the Capital One Bowl. In 2008, the Crimson Tide went 12-2. Alabama has posted an 98-12 mark over the past eight seasons.

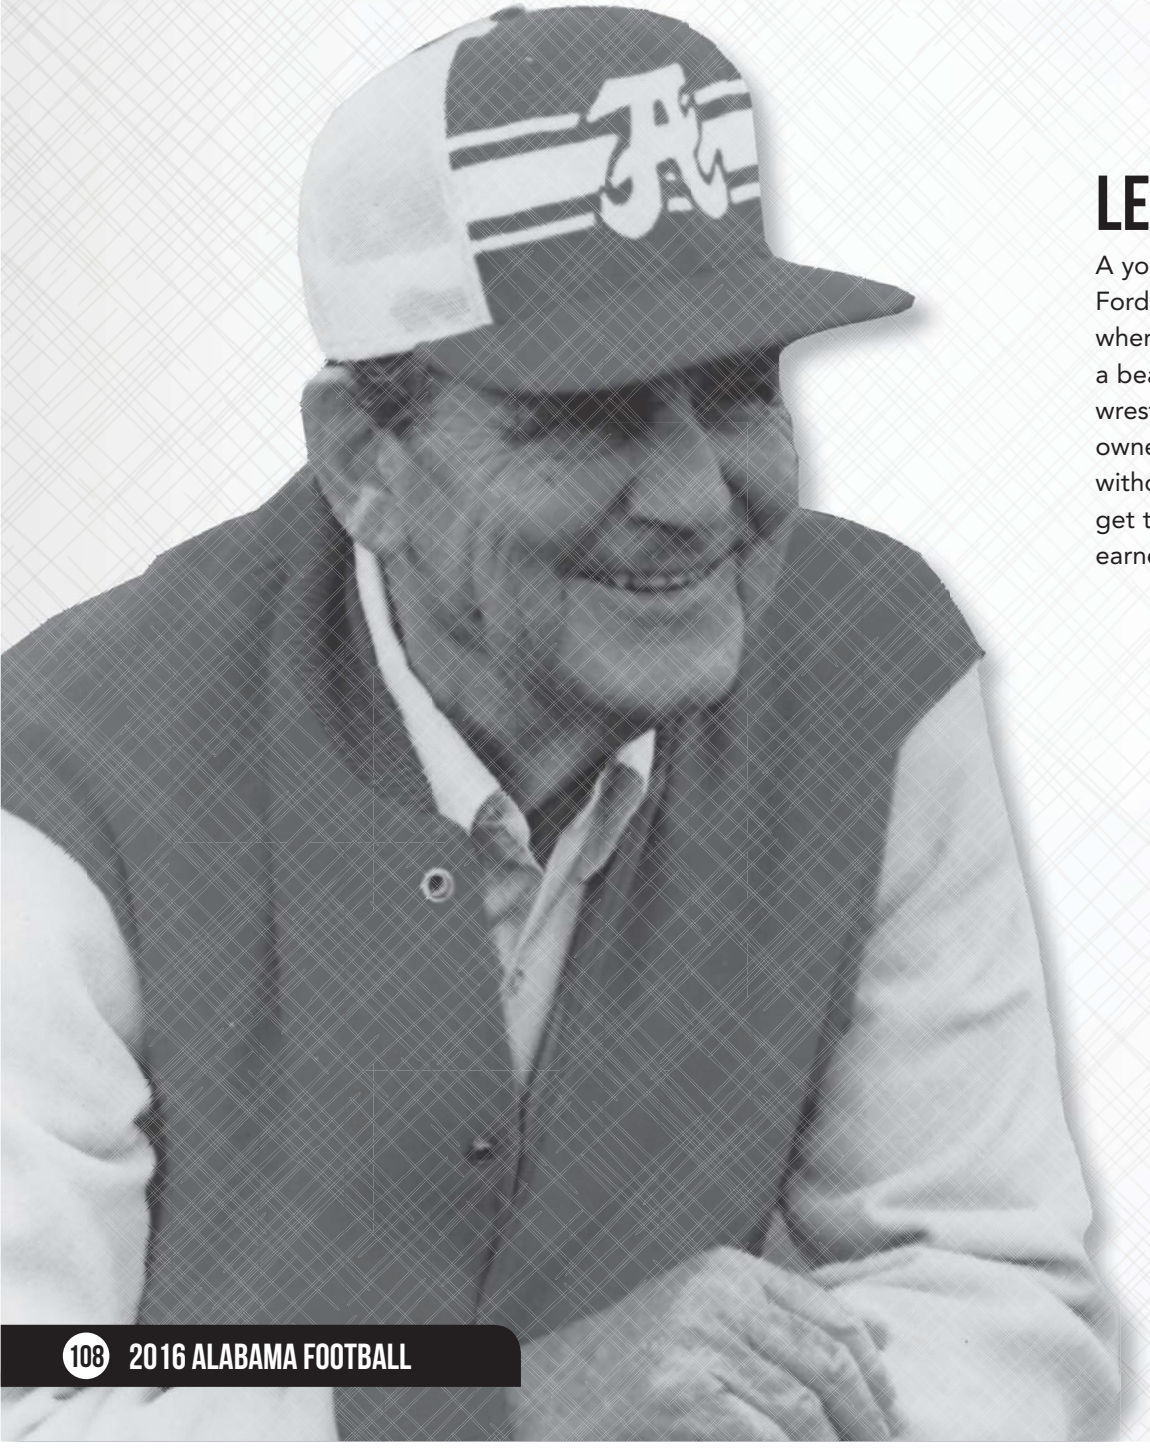

THE ORIGINS OF THE NAME CRIMSON TIDE

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as "The Varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." That nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of The Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

THE BEAR

"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
Alabama Head Coach, 1958-82

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. Bryant didn't get the buck that day, but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at The University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense in 1971 to revamp the Tide program. Over the next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and placing Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide win the initial SEC championship and a national championship as a player. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year he made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. Bryant guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama, across his illustrious coaching career.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

"Our stadium serves as the focal point for the many great things that Alabama football represents and brings to the forefront: the passion of our people, the commitment to victory and achievement of our student-athletes, and the great history that comes to life in the hearts and minds of all of us that love Alabama football."

Bill Battle
Athletics Director

With renovation projects of $47 and $65 million to renovate and expand the north and south end zones, Bryant-Denny Stadium truly is one of the top football facilities in the nation. The current seating capacity of 101,821 makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the nation's largest on-campus football stadiums.

The most recent renovation not only pushed capacity to 101,821, but it gave Bryant-Denny Stadium an additional 36 skyboxes and 1,700 club seats. The 2010 renovation marked the fourth expansion since 1988 of this magnificent edifice and was the seventh time Bryant-Denny Stadium has been expanded since it was originally constructed in 1929. Other expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998 and 2006.

The 2006 expansion project, which began immediately following the 2004 football season, also added three levels of premium seating, a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone, and state-of-the-art, wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

A unique aspect of the "new" stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 16 national and 25 SEC titles.

The 2006 expansion added 38 luxury skyboxes, bringing the total number of skyboxes in the stadium to 123. The most recent expansion (2010) increased that number to 159 skyboxes. Other additions included a club level area and traditional upper-deck seating. Office space was included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone. A state-of-the-art sound system was installed before the start of the 2015 season.

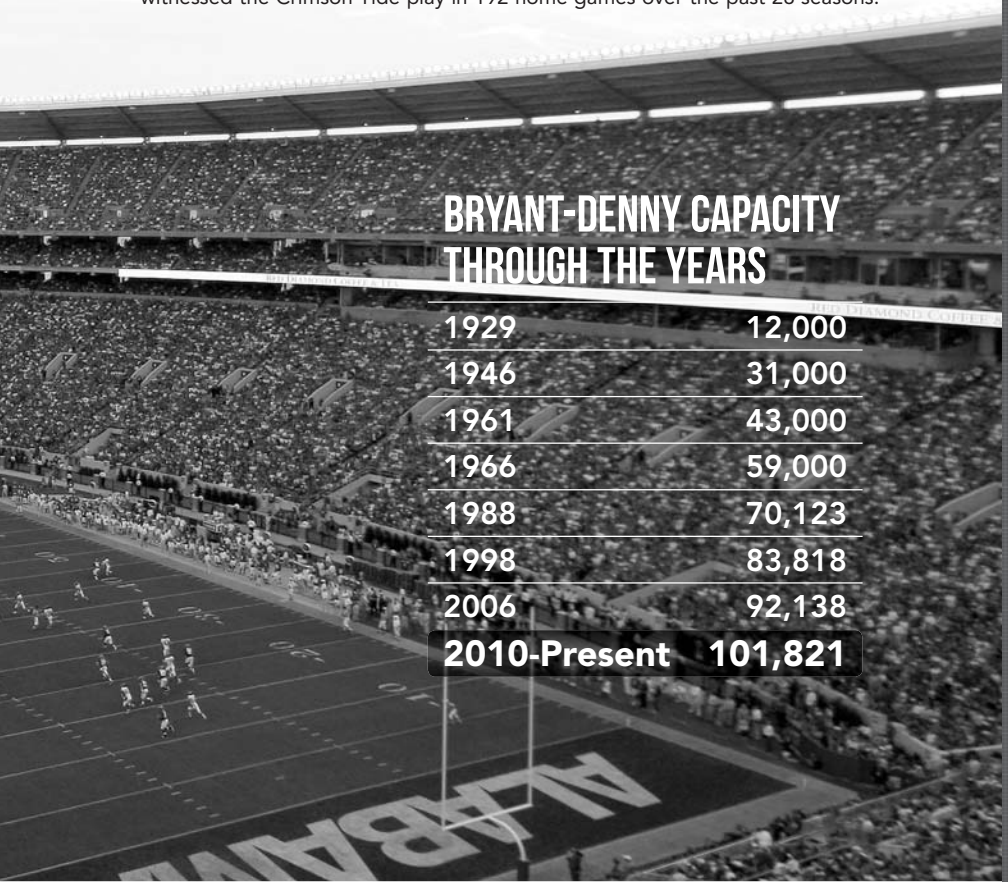

Since those early games, a number of projects have expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current capacity. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats for the Crimson Tide's 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

The 1998 east side expansion added 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, also were added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64). In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was installed in the south end.

Other additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The 2015 season was only the 15th time in the stadium's history that Alabama has played all of its home games at Bryant-Denny. From 1900 until 2003, Alabama played at least one home game at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 247-53-3 (.820) all-time record at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a 332-66-3 (.832) mark in all games played in Tuscaloosa. Dating back to the 1988 renovation of Bryant-Denny Stadium, more than 15.7 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 192 home games over the past 28 seasons.

TOP BOWL TEAM

The Crimson Tide earned a berth in its second consecutive College Football Playoff Semifinal in 2015, playing in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and also made its eighth straight New Year's bowl appearance under Nick Saban. It was Alabama's 12th straight bowl game, second only to the school record of 25 straight bowl appearances from 1959-1983.

The Tide has been to more bowl games (63) than any team in the country.

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 63 bowl appearances. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (63) and earned more bowl wins (35) than any team in college football history. Alabama made its eighth Cotton Bowl appearance at the end of the 2015 season before winning the College Football Playoff National Championship in Glendale, Ariz. The Tide has also made 15 Sugar Bowl appearances, the most of any program in the bowl's storied history, eight Orange Bowl appearances and played in six Rose Bowl games in its history. Alabama has been bowling for 12 consecutive seasons, something that has not happened since the Crimson Tide played in 25 straight bowl games from 1959-83.

THE BEST IN THE SEC

ALABAMA OWNS 25 SEC TITLES

ALABAMA HAS A WINNING RECORD AGAINST EVERY SCHOOL IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE.

The Southeastern Conference begins its 85th season of play in 2016. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record, and has won a total of 25 SEC titles in the school's illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season, while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season, and Texas A&M and Missouri began play in 2012.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST EIGHT SEASONS

Alabama dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a 16-0 combined mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back SEC Western Division championships and the 2009 SEC championship. The 2011 season saw the Crimson Tide win the program's 14th national championship but finish second in the SEC West to LSU, who the Tide would later defeat 21-0 in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 23rd SEC championship in 2012, followed by its 15th national championship. In 2013, the Crimson Tide tied for the SEC Western Division crown with a 7-1 record.

Alabama secured the program's 24th and 25th SEC titles in 2014 and 2015 becoming the first team to earn back-to-back SEC Championship Game victories since Tennessee did so in 1997-98. In 2014, the Tide captured the trophy with a 42-13 win over Missouri, while the 2015 victory came against Florida, 29-15.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and has been staged there ever since.

ANY GIVEN SATURDAY

MILLION DOLLAR BAND

The University of Alabama "Million Dollar Band" is an exciting part of Crimson Tide spirit and tradition. Comprised of 400 students with various majors and interests, the band is the largest single organization on campus.

"There couldn't have been a more electric atmosphere in Tuscaloosa. It was, by far, the loudest place I've been to in five years."

WALK OF CHAMPIONS

The Crimson Tide arrives at Bryant-Denny every week to the sounds of thousands of fans along each side of "The Walk of Champions."

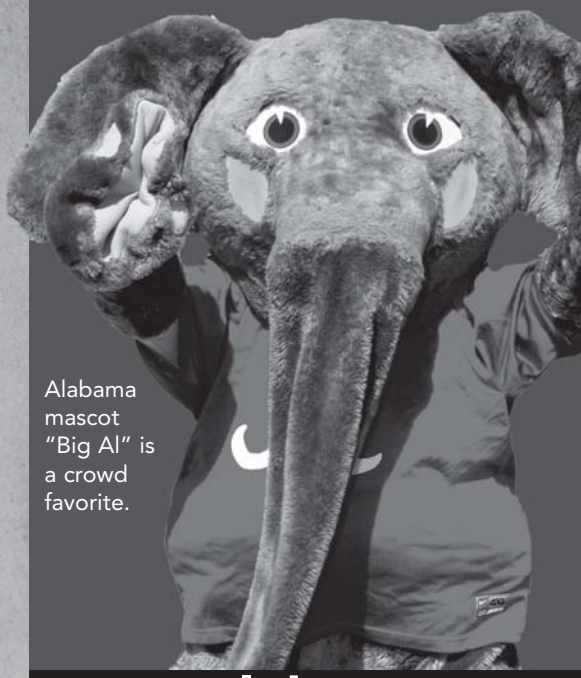

On any given Saturday during football season, it is not unheard of to have 20,000-plus fans outside the stadium during the game. Tailgating and hanging out on the Quad are part of the Alabama tradition. People arrive early to see the band as the cheerleaders lead the crowd, and they stay late to make sure they haven't missed anything, especially "Rammer Jammer."

DON'T FORGET THE LYRICS!

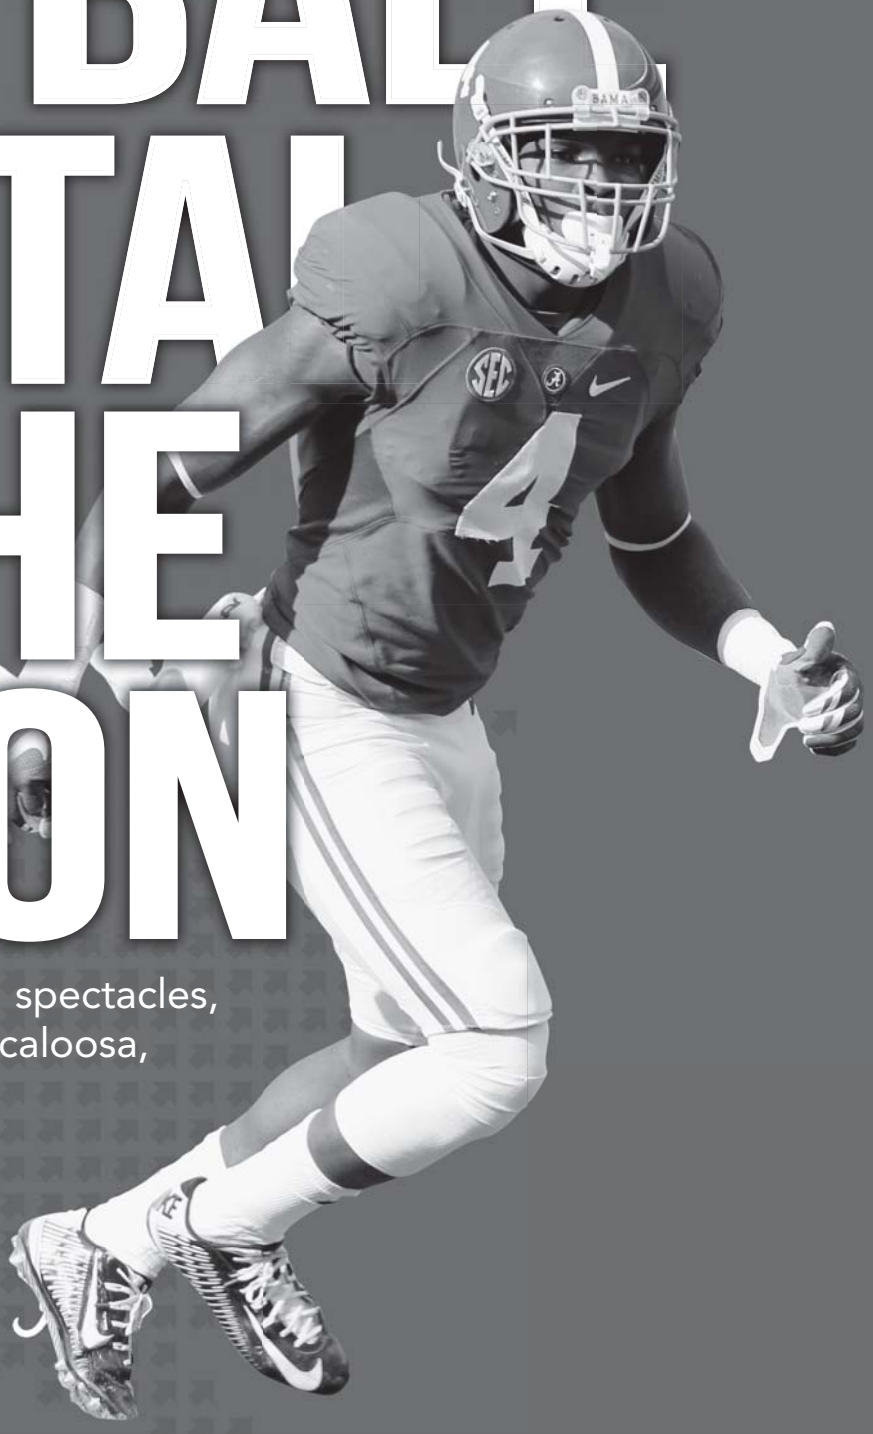

Alabama mascot "Big Al" is a crowd favorite.

Yea, Alabama

(Alabama Fight Song)

Yea, Alabama! Drown 'em Tide!
Every 'Bama man's behind you,
Hit your stride.
Go teach the Bulldogs to behave,
Send the Yellow Jackets to a watery grave.
And if a man starts to weaken,
That's a shame!
For Bama's pluck and grit have
Writ her name in Crimson flame.
Fight on, fight on, fight on men!
Remember the Rose Bowl,
we'll win then.
So roll on to victory,
Hit your stride,
You're Dixie's football pride,
Crimson Tide, Roll Tide, Roll Tide!

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

CHRIS FOWLER
ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised six of the last eight A-Day Games nationally on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast. The last 10 spring games have seen an average of 80,974 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium after 76,212 showed up in 2016. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance, 78,315 fans witnessed the 2013 event, 73,509 in 2014 and 65,175 in 2015. Over the past 10 years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 809,744 fans for its annual A-Day Game. Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their hand prints and foot prints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. The 2015 captains were quarterback Jake Coker, running back Derrick Henry, center Ryan Kelly and linebacker Reggie Ragland.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football due to its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was televised nationally 15 times in 2015 and has played in 93 nationally televised games since 2008. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at four of Alabama's 2008 games, three in 2009, two more in 2010, three in 2011, four in 2012, four in 2013, twice in 2014 and four times in 2015. Alabama's popularity also has been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated three times in 2015, twice in 2013 and 2014, four times in 2012 and three times in 2011. The 2015 covers were Derrick Henry, Reggie Ragland and Jake Coker on the national championship commemorative issue, Henry on the College Football Playoff preview and Kenyan Drake on the issue the week following the national championship game. The 2014 covers included Amari Cooper on a College Football Preview issue and Blake Sims' cover in December. The 2013 covers were T.J. Yeldon on a College Football Preview issue and AJ McCarron's "King Crimson" issue. In 2012, covers featured McCarron on the preseason college football issue and on the national championship commemorative issue. Eddie Lacy was highlighted on the issue leading up to the national championship game and following the title tilt with Notre Dame. In 2011, Trent Richardson was on the college football preview cover, Josh Chapman on the "Ram! Jam! 'Bama!" cover and the defense was featured in the Tide's 21-0 shutout of LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. Alabama made one SI cover in 2010 and three times in 2009, including the "Dynasty'" cover following Alabama's 37-21 win over Texas in the BCS Championship Game. In 2008, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes. Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

NATIONAL TITLES

AN UNMATCHED LEGACY

From the roaring 1920s and Wallace Wade, through legendary coach Frank Thomas, on to the dynasty that was the Paul "Bear" Bryant era, through Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team and, finally, Nick Saban's championships in 2009, 2011, 2012 and 2015, the Alabama Crimson Tide has helped define college football. The Crimson Tide has captured a college football-best 16 national championships and an impressive 29 conference titles, including a conference-best 25 SEC titles. Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wade won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history. Saban's 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. That 14-0 team produced the school and conference record for wins in a season, defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and bested No. 2 Texas in the BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major categories nationally, while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game. In 2012, Alabama beat LSU with a last-second comeback in Death Valley, escaped the SEC Championship Game with a 32-28 win over Georgia, and finished the year off with a crushing 42-14 victory over then-No. 1 Notre Dame in the BCS National Championship Game. In 2015, the Tide shut out Michigan State, 38-0, in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and followed that up with a 45-40 win over Clemson to claim Alabama's first College Football Playoff National Championship.

THE FIRST TITLE 1925

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena, and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope," Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler also were All-Southern Conference selections.

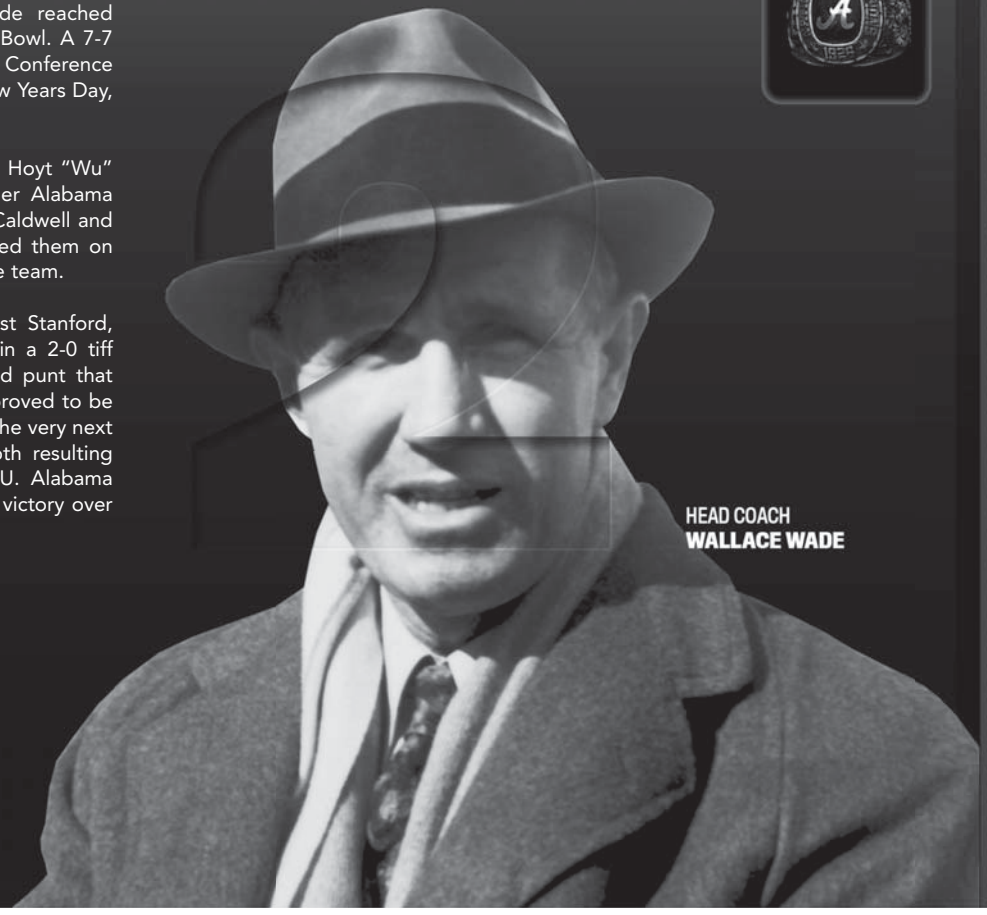

PASADENA BOUND 1926

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the 1926 national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanee. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanee contest. The very next week, Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. Alabama clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

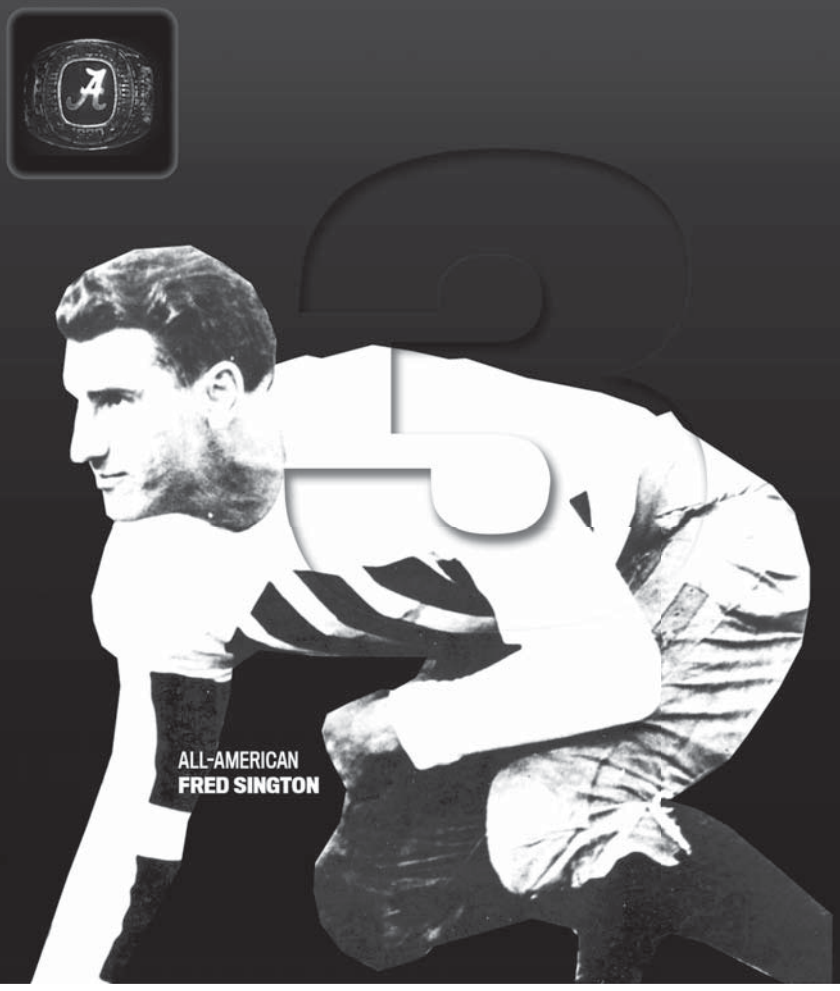

HEAD COACH
WALLACE WADE

1930 PERFECTION

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the 1930 All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second unit, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM" 1934

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief that the 1934 team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packers, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

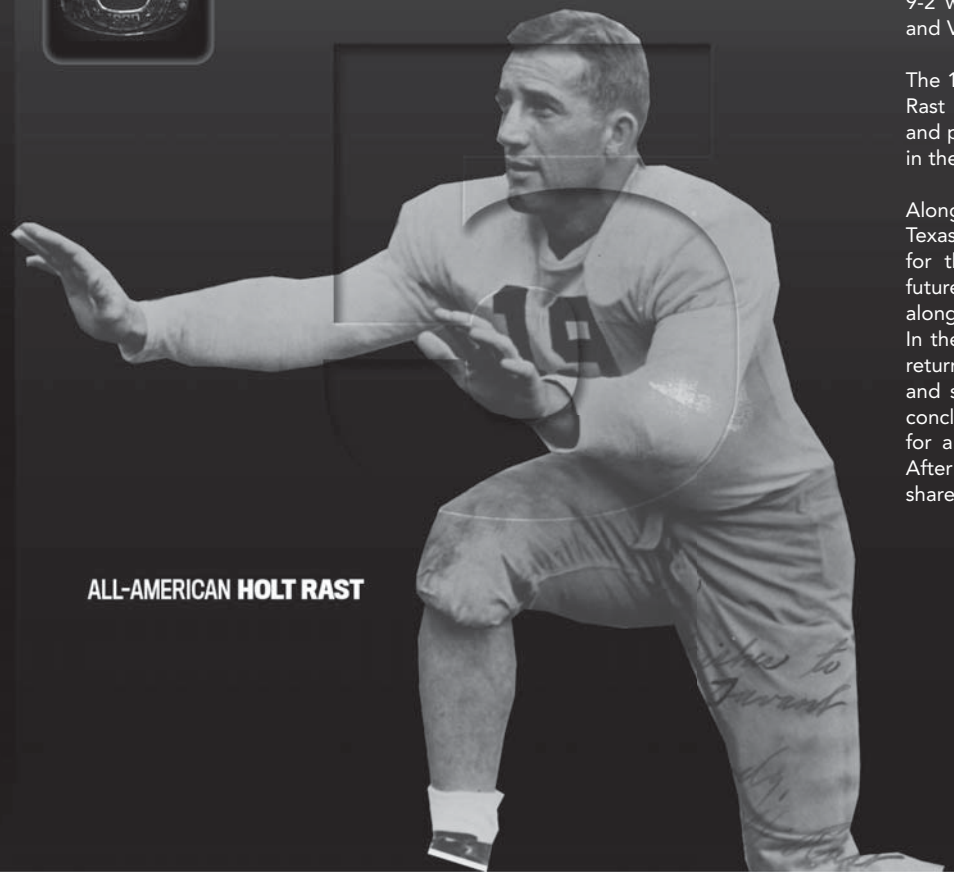

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another score. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing yards and 160 passing.

HEAD COACH
FRANK THOMAS

1941 COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

ALL-AMERICAN HOLT RAST

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frank Sinkwich, along with Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS 1961

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a 1961 national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

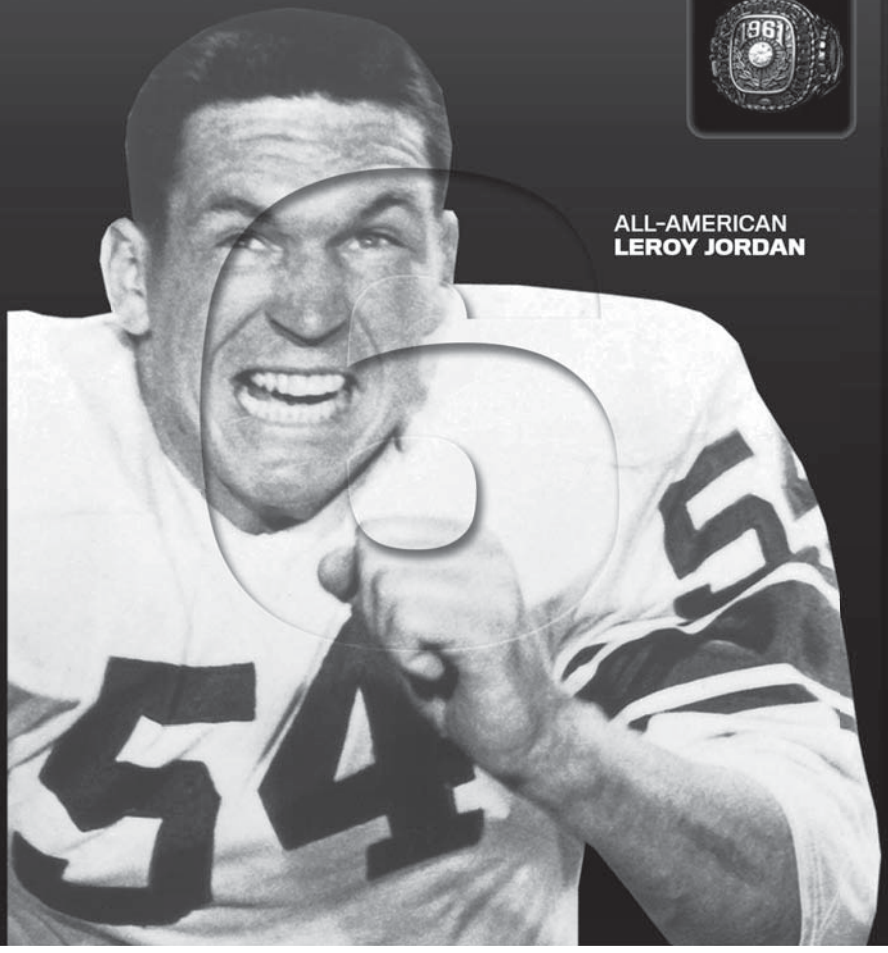

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its opponents 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7. The seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bear Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

1964 BROADWAY JOE

QUARTERBACK
JOE NAMATH

TV LEGEND
BOB HOPE

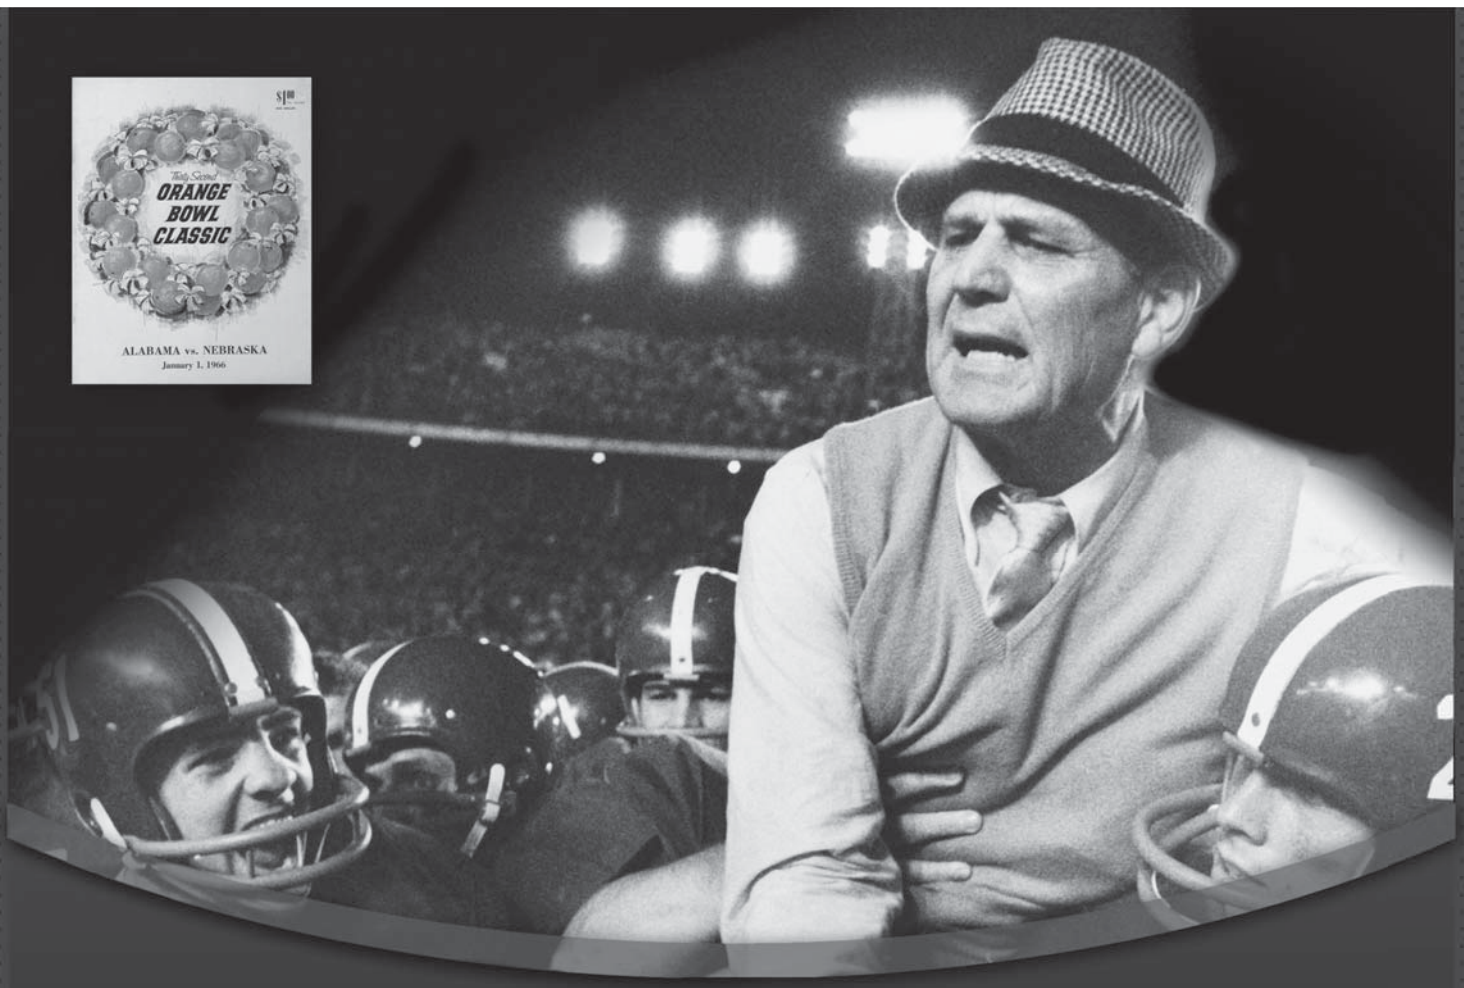

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then, and now, that the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the 1964 AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback/kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-America teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS 1965

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. The Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, its second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned the team a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams, but with No. 1 Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and No. 2 Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

STEVE SLOAN

1973 CLASH OF THE TITANS

HALFBACK
WILBUR JACKSON

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advanced publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

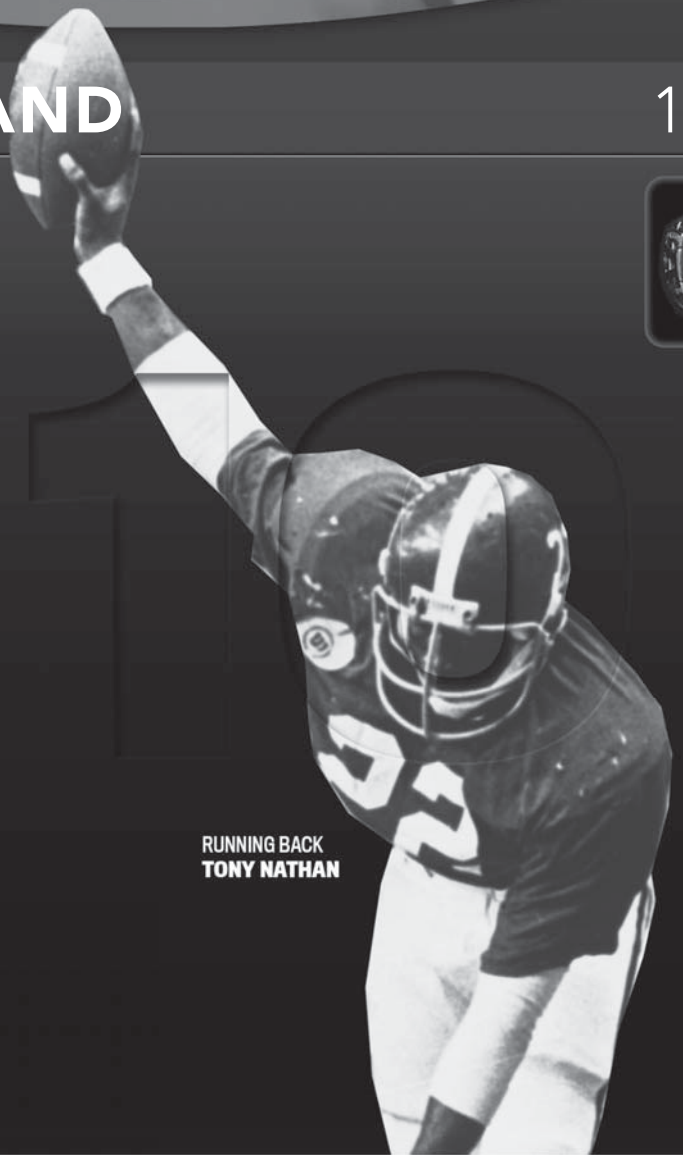

GOAL LINE STAND 1978

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama went on to win 11 games in 1978. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end of the game with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest-hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from the Alabama goal line, Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. Guman was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders, led by All-America linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman inches shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

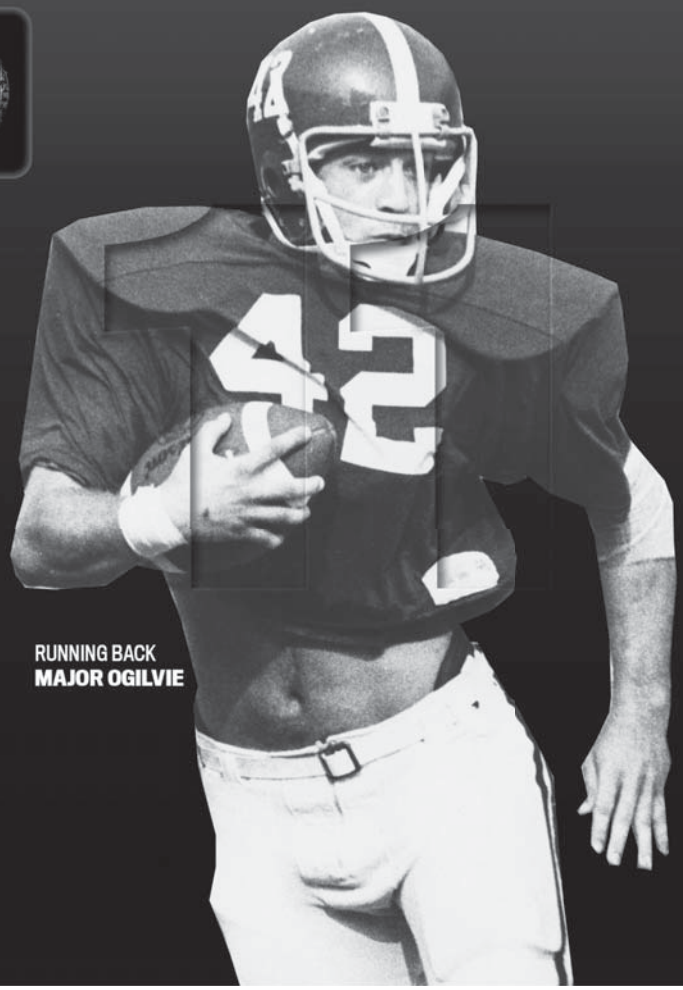

RUNNING BACK
TONY NATHAN

1979 BACK-TO-BACK

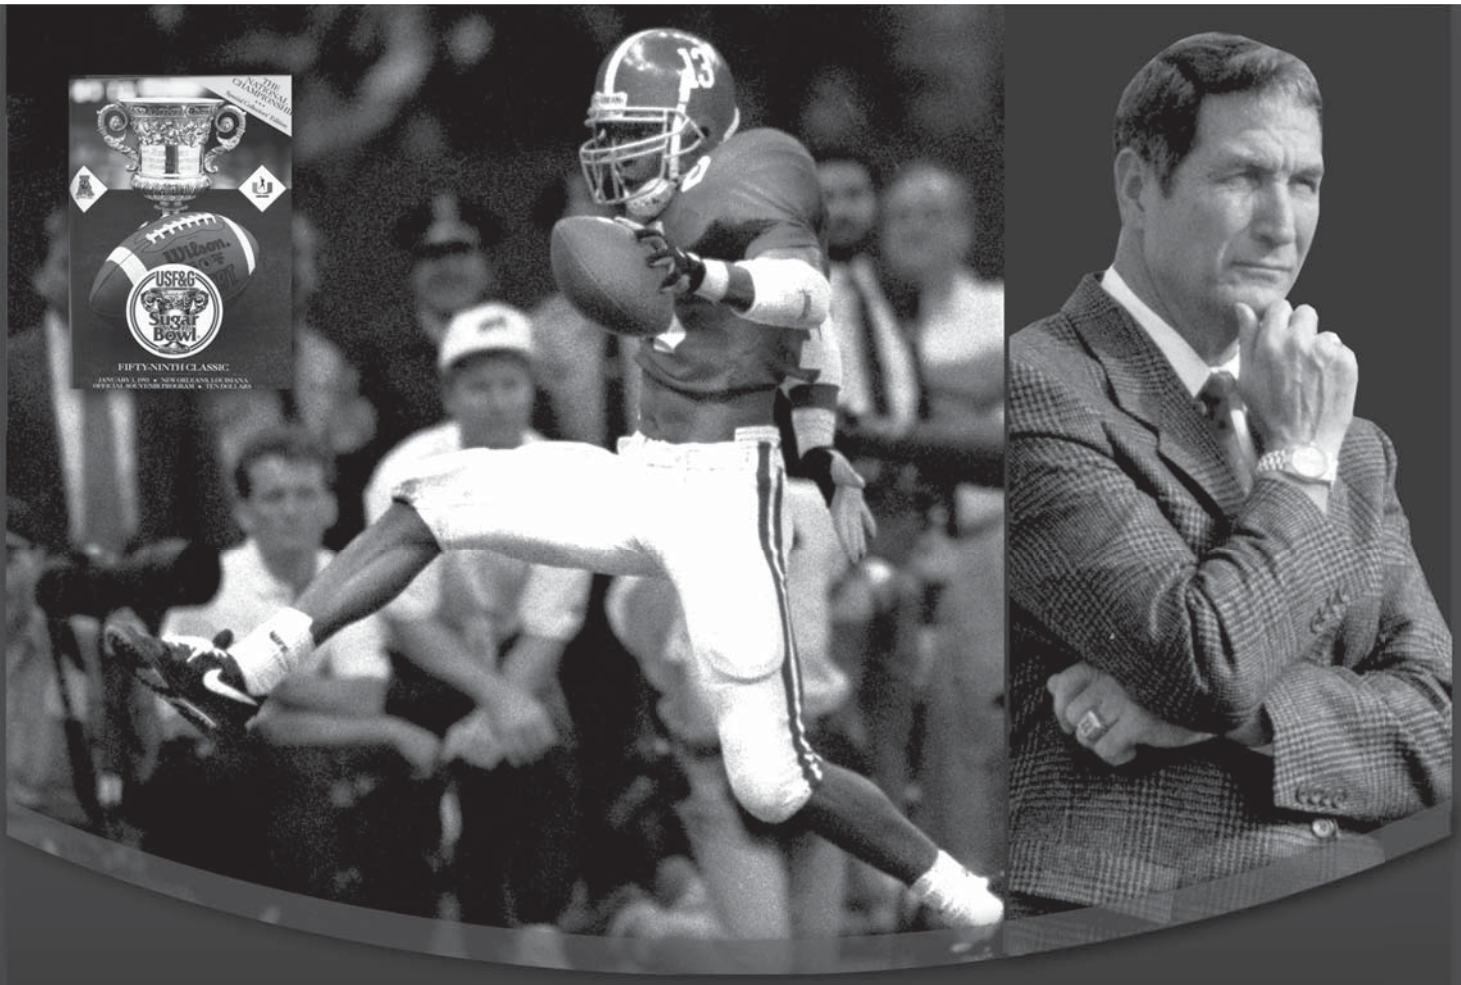

RUNNING BACK
MAJOR OGILVIE

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more with the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide faced its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who then were a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents under 12 points. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards, and the legs of running back Derrick Lassic, who ran for 905 yards. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions with defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague tied with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in-state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship Game.

Alabama's perfect regular-season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes en route to a 34-13 victory. Alabama finished the season with a 13-0 record and the program's 12th national championship.

LINEBACKER
ERYK ANDERS

Nick Saban's 2009 national championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 rushing yards with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six top-25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Ole Miss, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered by McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME 2011

The 2011 Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th national championship, handing the previously undefeated LSU Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones received the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Carson Tinker accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 rushing yards to go along with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) plus one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw only five interceptions or one every 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was only the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in school history.

2012 BACK-TO-BACK

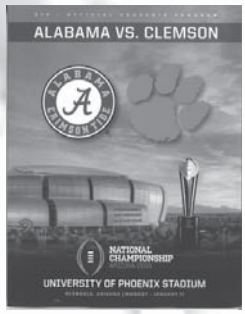

The Alabama football team established its dominance early against Notre Dame on its way to an overwhelming performance as the Crimson Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over a four-year span while losing only five contests. The 49 wins tied Nebraska for the most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11).

Alabama produced four first team All-Americans in 2012, giving them 22 All-America honors by 19 different players from 2008-12. The 2012 first team All-Americans included Barrett Jones, Dee Milliner, C.J. Mosley and Chance Warmack. D.J. Fluker was also a second-team All-American and AJ McCarron garnered third-team honors. Jones also became Alabama's first William V. Campbell and Rimington Trophy winner.

McCarron led the Alabama offense with a school-record 30 touchdown passes while leading the nation with a 175.28 pass efficiency rating. He threw for 2,933 yards with only three interceptions while completing 67.2 percent of his passes. Lacy led the way on the ground with 1,322 yards and 17 scores. Yeldon added a freshman record 1,108 yards and 12 rushing touchdowns. Cooper led all receivers with a freshman-record 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 scores.

Defensively, Alabama put together another outstanding season, leading the nation in three major categories: scoring defense (10.9 ppg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and rush defense (76.4 ppg). Alabama pitched four shutouts, the most since the 1979 team had five. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 445.5 yards per game while scoring 38.7 points per game. UA's 542 points in 2012 was a school record.

BACK ON TOP

In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40.

The title, Alabama's fourth in the last seven seasons, concluded a 14-1 year for the Tide while Clemson suffered its first loss of the 2015 campaign. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards on his way to Offensive MVP honors in the season's final game. Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, while running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and three scores. Senior Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff for 95 yards and a score to lift the Tide to the 45-40 win in front of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Alabama's 2015 senior class won a school record 50 games over a four-year span while losing only six contests. The 50 wins were the most in college football history. The 2014 Crimson Tide seniors and the 1997 Nebraska Cornhuskers, who posted a 49-2 record and three national championships, previously held the record for wins by a senior class. Alabama recorded 62 victories from 2011-15, the most in a five-year span in major college football history, surpassing the previously held record of 61 wins by the Tide from 2008-12.

The Crimson Tide had four first team All-Americans in 2015, including unanimous selections in Derrick Henry and Reggie Ragland, to go with consensus choices Ryan Kelly and A'Shawn Robinson. Eddie Jackson was chosen as a second- and third-team honoree, while first-year standouts Minkah Fitzpatrick and Ross Pierschbacher were each freshman All-Americans. Henry cleaned up on the awards circuit, highlighted by winning Alabama's second ever Heisman Trophy. The junior tailback was also selected as the Maxwell Trophy and Doak Walker Award winner, and the Walter Camp Player of the Year. Kelly brought home the Crimson Tide's second Rimington Trophy, awarded to the nation's top center. The conference also recognized a trio of Alabama players with its top honors, as Henry was the Offensive Player of the Year, Ragland the Defensive Player of the Year and Kelly the Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner as well as the Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Henry was the catalyst for the Alabama offense, recording school records in yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), attempts (395) and all-purpose yards (2,310). His 2,219 yards led the nation and shattered the SEC single-season rushing record previously held by Herschel Walker (1,891). First-year starter Jake Coker finished his career at Alabama a perfect 14-0 as the starting quarterback and recorded 3,110 yards through the air along with 21 touchdowns by season's end. His favorite target, Calvin Ridley, set the freshman record for yards with 1,045 receiving, eclipsing the previous freshman record of 1,000 held by Amari Cooper (2012). Ridley hauled in a team-leading 89 catches for a team-high 1,045 yards in 15 games (11 starts) and added seven touchdown catches. In total, the Crimson Tide's offense averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game and 227.1 yards through the air per contest.

Defensively, Alabama checked in as the nation's top-ranked rush defense, third in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense. Possibly the best defense during the Saban era, the Tide recorded 49 sacks, the most by a Saban-coached team and the third-most sacks in program history. The defense also forced and SEC-leading 27 turnovers, 19 of which were interceptions which also led the conference. The 442 return yards on those picks led the nation, while the four pick-sixes by Alabama's secondary ranked second in the NCAA. Senior linebacker and defensive captain Reggie Ragland led the Tide in tackles with 102, while defensive lineman Jonathan Allen paced the defense with 12.0 sacks (-80 yards) and 14.5 tackles for a loss (-92 yards). Eddie Jackson, in his first year as the starting safety, picked off six passes for an Alabama all-time record 230 return yards, including two scores.

The Crimson Tide won 14 games by an average of 20 points per game and outscored all opponents by a margin of 526-227. Alabama beat the likes of No. 20 Wisconsin in Arlington, No. 8 Georgia in Athens, ninth-ranked Texas A&M in College Station, No. 2 LSU and 17th-ranked Mississippi State in Starkville. Alabama downed No. 18 Florida, 29-13, to earn the program's 25th Southeastern Conference championship, before defeating No. 3 Michigan State, 38-0, in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the 2015 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

16 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1925 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Bruce Jones
Fact: Alabama outscored its 10 opponents by a combined total of 297 to 26, shutting out eight teams and clinching national honors with a monumental 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl.

1926 — 9-0-1

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Emile "Red" Barnes
Fact: The Crimson Tide won its second consecutive national title in impressive style, posting shutouts in six games and not allowing any opponent to score more than seven points in a game.

1930 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Charles B. Clement
Fact: What was perhaps Wallace Wade's greatest team was tested only twice - by Tennessee and Vanderbilt - on the way to an undefeated season in which Alabama outscored opponents by a combined total of 217 to 13. The Tide capped off the season with a 24-0 shellacking of Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

1934 — 10-0

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
8: William Lee
Fact: A tough October win over Tennessee (13-6) paved the way for the Tide's first national title under head coach Frank Thomas. Alabama closed its impressive undefeated season with a 29-13 domination of Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

1941 — 9-2

Team Captain: John Wyhonic
Fact: Rated the nation's best team by the Houlgate system, the 1941 Crimson Tide capped a 9-2 season with a remarkable 29-21 win over a powerful Texas A&M team at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

1961 — 11-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Pat Trammell, Billy Neighbors
Fact: A suffocating defense, a steady offense, and opportunistic special teams made this unit impossible to defeat. Alabama shutout six opponents overall, not allowing its final five foes in the regular season to score before capping the season with a 10-3 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

1964 — 10-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Joe Namath, Ray Ogden
Fact: Awarded the title on a consensus basis at the end of the regular season, this squad eked out close wins over Florida (17-14), LSU (17-9) and Auburn (21-14) to earn the national title. A controversial Orange Bowl loss to Texas, 21-17, was the only blemish on Alabama's glorious season.

1965 — 9-1-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Steve Sloan, Paul Crane
Fact: The nation respected this team so much that the Tide was named consensus national champions despite a season-opening loss at Georgia (18-17) and a midseason tie with Tennessee (7-7). Alabama's stunning 39-28 Orange Bowl win over previously dominant Nebraska removed any doubt of the Tide's legitimacy as national champions.

1973 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Wilbur Jackson, Chuck Strickland
Fact: The last national champions to be crowned at the end of the regular season, the Crimson Tide outscored its first 11 opponents 454 to 89 en route to a showdown in the Sugar Bowl with Notre Dame.

1978 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Marty Lyons, Jeff Rutledge, Tony Nathan
Fact: The Crimson Tide lost only to co-national title contender Southern California in the regular season. Alabama's memorable 14-7 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl was the climax of an impressive season.

1979 — 12-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Don McNeal, Steve Whitman
Fact: The consensus national champions outscored their 12 opponents by a total of 383 to 67. After a comeback win over Auburn (25-18) to end the regular season, Alabama dominated Arkansas and leaped to the top of the polls after their win in the Sugar Bowl.

1992 — 13-0

Head Coach: Gene Stallings
Team Captains: Derrick Oden, George Teague, George Wilson, Prince Wimbley
Fact: This team had it all. After a tight win over Florida (28-21) in the SEC title game, Alabama then crushed Miami in the Sugar Bowl to seal the title for its 12th national championship.

2009 — 14-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson, Rolando McClain
Fact: Two blocked field goals propelled the Tide to a midseason win over Tennessee and into the SEC Championship Game where they exacted revenge on Florida with a dominating 32-13 win. UA then blitzed Texas in the BCS National Championship Game, 37-21.

2011 — 12-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Trent Richardson
Fact: Alabama overcame an early November overtime loss to No. 1 LSU and earned a rematch in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. In the Bayou Bengals' backyard, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Crimson Tide won the title with a 21-0 shutout, which was the first in BCS history.

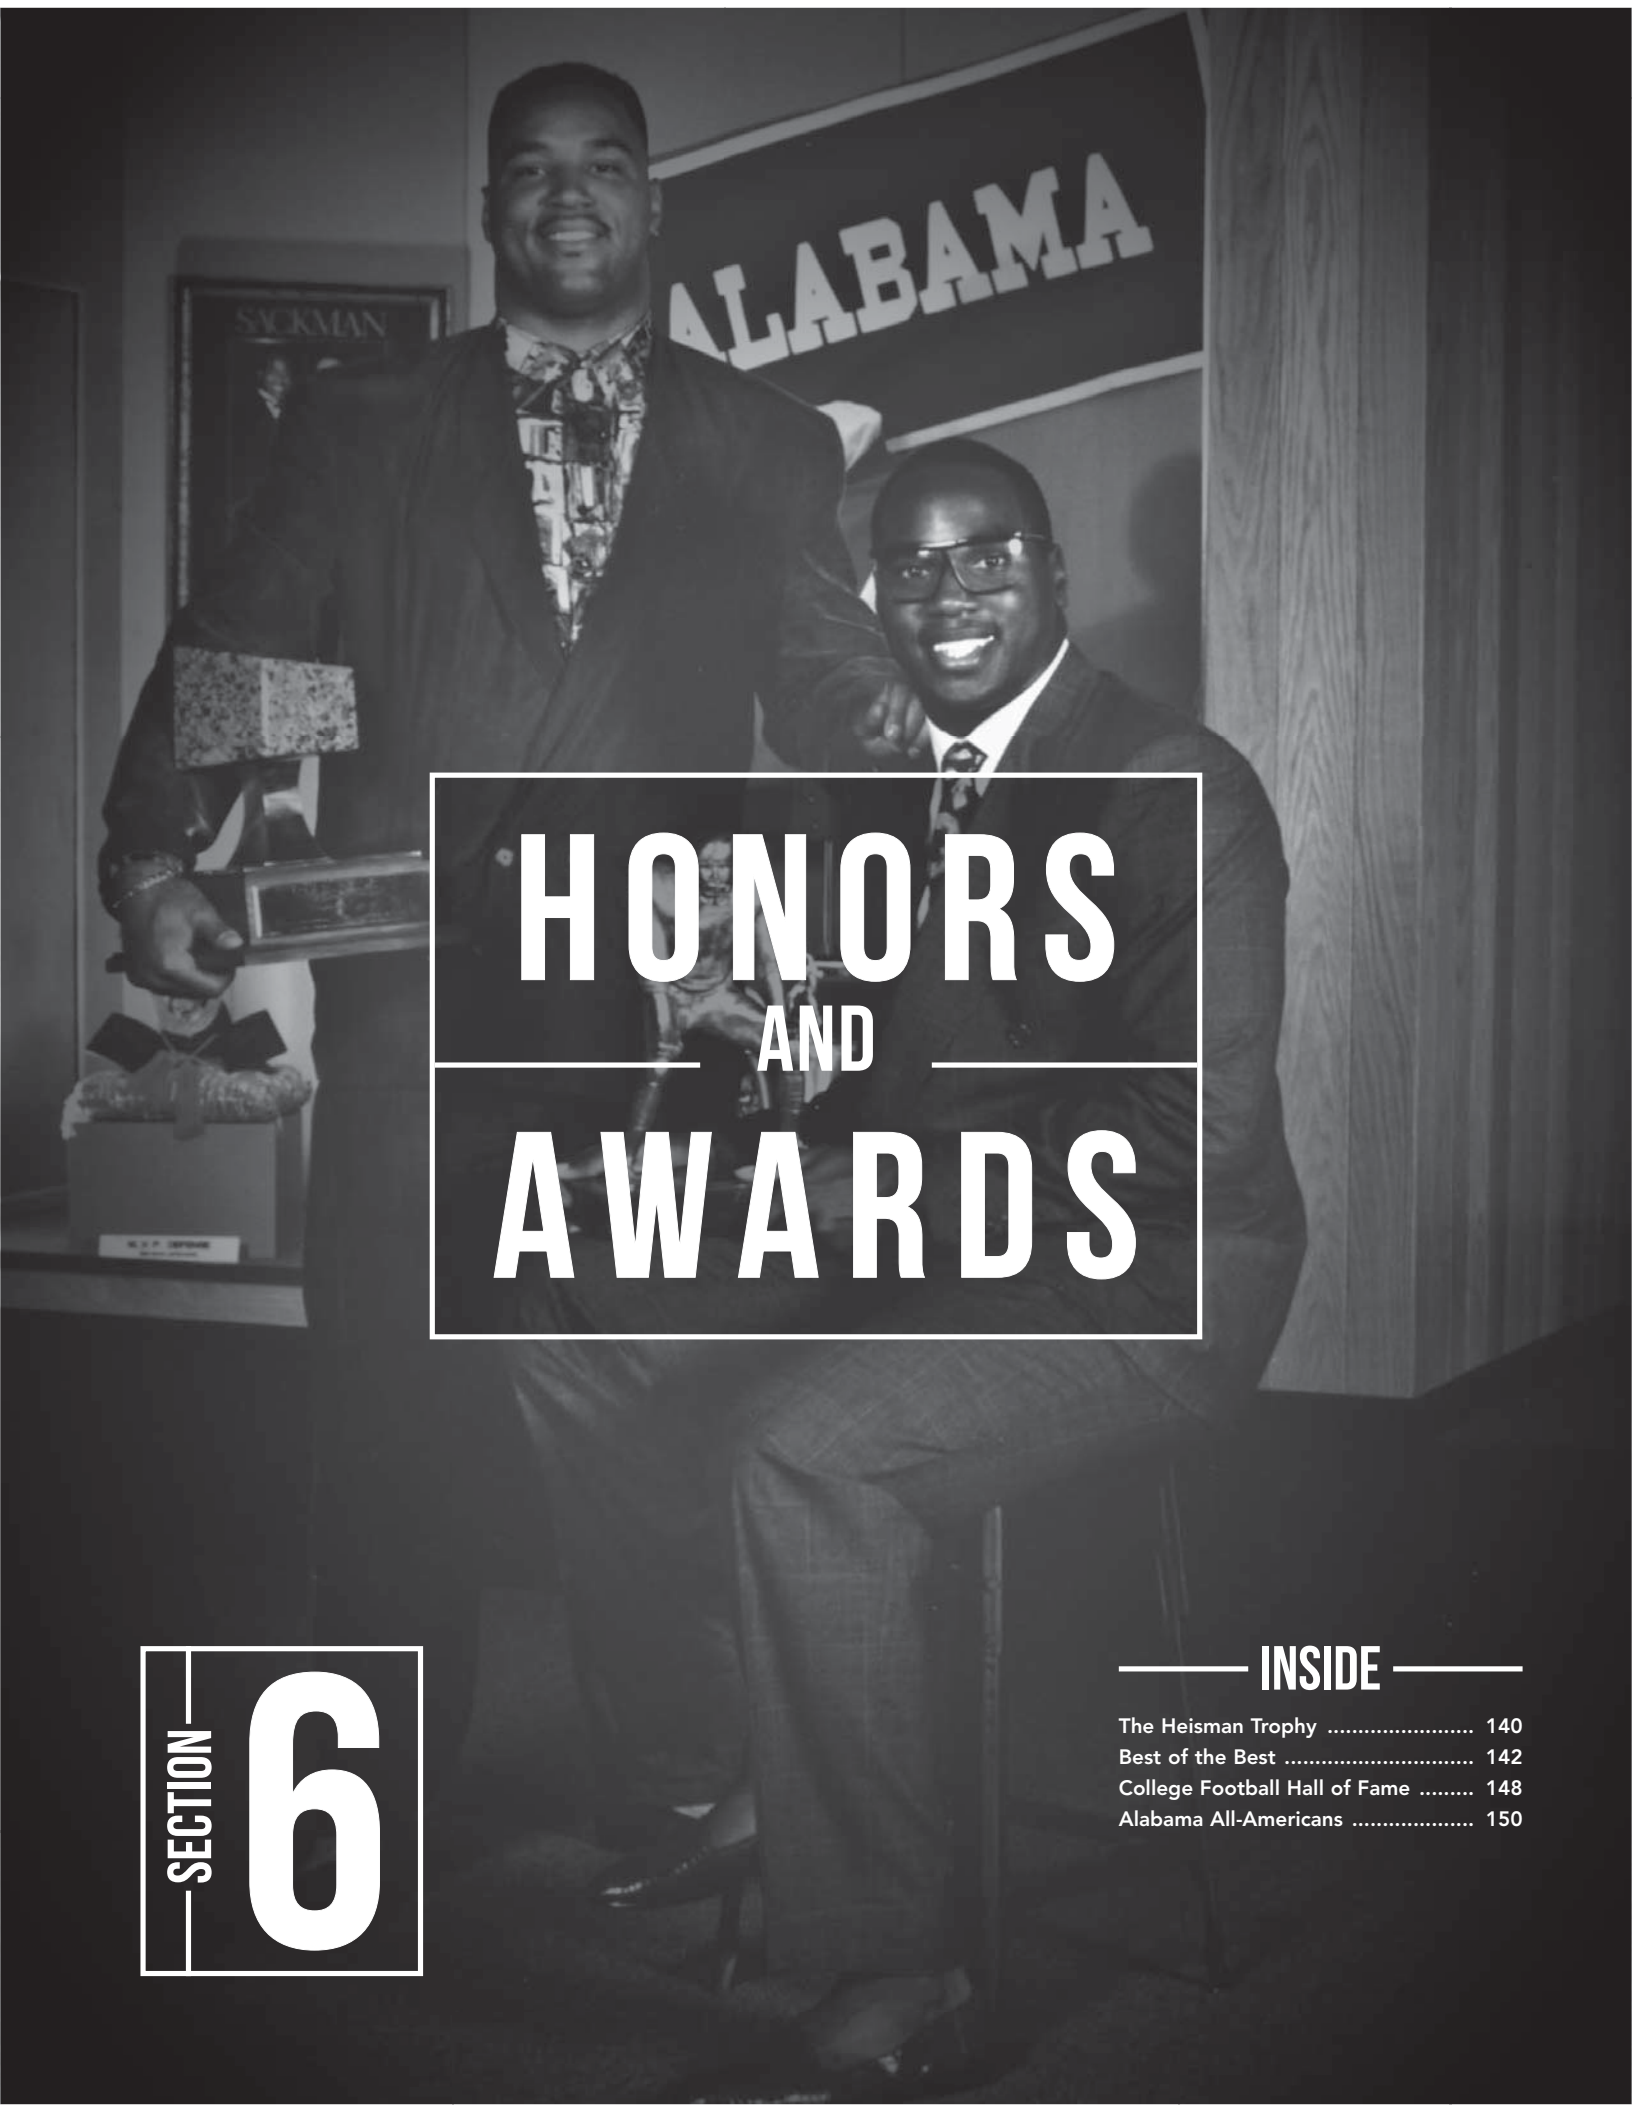

2012 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Barrett Jones, Damion Square, Chance Warmack
Fact: Alabama posted a last-minute comeback to win at No. 5 LSU and escaped with a dramatic 32-28 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide then rolled over No. 1 Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game, 42-14, for the program's 15th title.

2015 — 14-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Jake Coker, Derrick Henry, Ryan Kelly, Reggie Ragland
Fact: In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, Alabama showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

THE HEISMAN

In 2009, Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram became the 75th recipient of the Heisman Trophy and first Crimson Tide player to take home the honor.

Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's second Heisman Trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns, as he led the Crimson Tide to its 16th national championship.

Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. Alabama has won 16 national championships, 29 conference championships, produced 119 first team All-Americans, 24 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But, until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009, breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's history.

The Crimson Tide collected its second Heisman Trophy in 2015 as Derrick Henry, a native of Yulee, Fla., set the SEC rushing record with 2,219 yards on his way to victory. Henry earned 1,832 points to capture the Heisman, including 378 first-place votes that outdistanced Stanford's Christian McCaffrey by 293 points with Deshaun Watson third (1,165 points).

Ingram and Henry are among 12 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced five in the last seven years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida), 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn) and 2012 winner Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a then-school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for a 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards is the third-highest single-season total in school history. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent were ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards or 189.0 ypg, six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Henry's 2,219 yards in 2015 was the fifth-best rushing total by a running back in the history of the Football Bowl Subdivision. He also set school records for rushing touchdowns (28), rushing yards per game (147.9), all-purpose yards (2,310), carries (395) and points scored (168). He seemed to play even better against the best competition, averaging 138.8 yards per game (10 games) against teams with rush defenses ranked in the top 50 and 166.6 ypg against teams ranked in the top 25 (nine).

Known as the DAC Trophy when it first was presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on Dec. 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC Trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October, 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

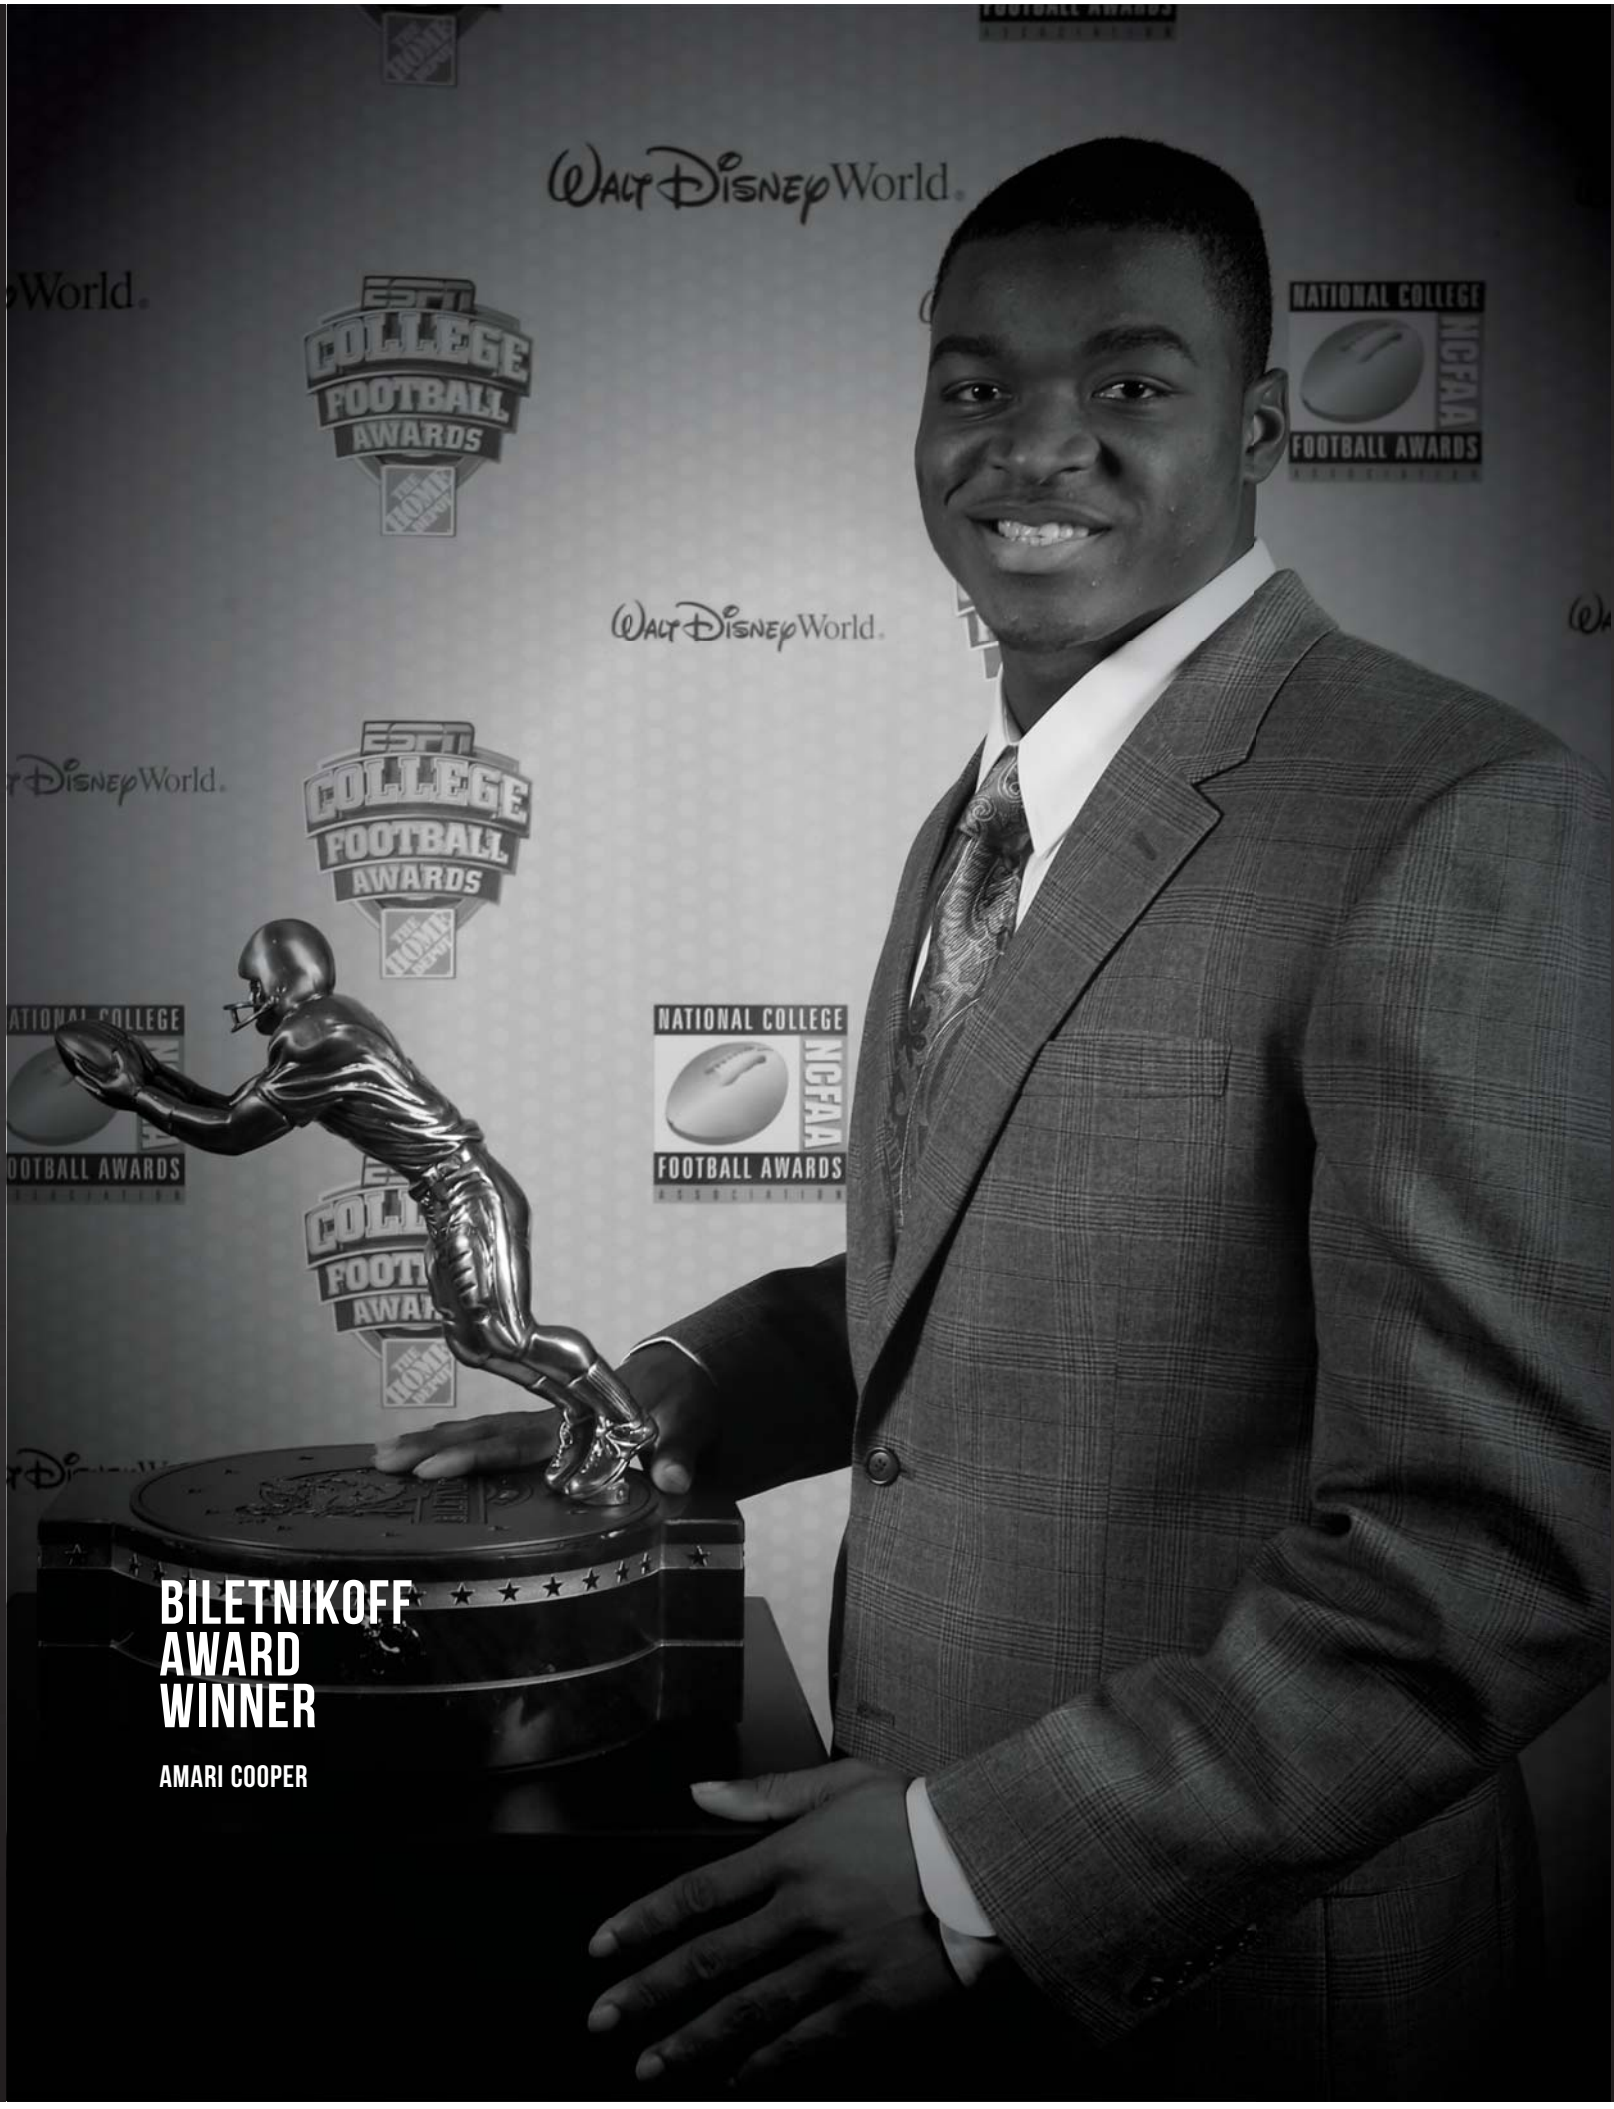

BEST OF THE BEST

COLLEGE FOOTBALL NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

AMARI COOPER

BILETNIKOFF AWARD

The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the nation's outstanding college football receiver (the award defines receiver as any player who catches a pass) by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc. Amari Cooper was the first Alabama football player to win the Award (2015) after a record-setting season with 124 catches for 1,727 yards and 16 touchdowns. Cooper was selected by the Biletnikoff Award Selection Committee, comprised of 265 distinguished college football commentators, journalists and former players. The award is named for Fred Biletnikoff, who starred for Florida State and then the Oakland Raiders.

BROYLES AWARD

The Frank Broyles Award was established to recognize some of the most dedicated, hardest-working people in America – the college football assistant coach. And, over the years, the award has done just that. Each year the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen from almost 1,500 assistant coaches representing the College Football Bowl Subdivision. Each head coach can nominate one assistant coach from his staff. Kirby Smart became Alabama's first Broyles Award Recipient in 2009. Smart guided one of the nation's top defenses as the Crimson Tide claimed the program's 13th National Championship.

BUTKUS AWARD

Created in 1985, the Butkus Award is given annually to college football's top linebacker. The award is named in honor of College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, widely regarded as one of the best linebackers of all time and a star at the University of Illinois and the Chicago Bears. A 1979 inductee of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Butkus played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and earned a reputation as one of the most intimidating players in the history of the game.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

The William V. Campbell Trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable "academic" award in college football. The trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership. The finalists receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. The winner of the Campbell Trophy has his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000. Alabama offensive lineman Barrett Jones was the sixth Alabama player selected as a finalist and became the program's first winner in 2012.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

Created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community, the Doak Walker Award is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification. Named for famed SMU running back Doak Walker, a three-time All-American and the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner. Trent Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the award in 2011 after rushing for 1,679 yards and 21 touchdowns. Derrick Henry was the second Crimson Tide player to see his name etched on the trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC-record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns.

LOMBARDI AWARD

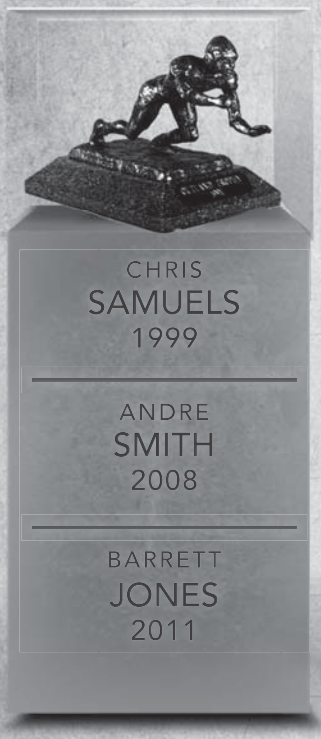

Begun in 1970, the Lombardi Award is hosted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits the American Cancer Society. The award goes annually to the college football lineman on offense or defense that, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi. As the legendary coach of the Green Bay Packers, Lombardi first made a name for himself as the smallest but toughest member of Fordham University's "Seven Blocks of Granite," renowned in their day (1934-37) for being the most unyielding line in college football.

LOTT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy is presented annually to the college football Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. IMPACT is an acronym for: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The award recognizes the personal character of the winning player as well as athletic excellence and is named in honor Ronnie Lott, a defensive back who starred at Southern California and for the NFL's San Francisco 49ers. Lott is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MAXWELL TROPHY

The Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Football Player of the Year. This award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. The award has been given annually since 1937 when Yale's Clint Frank was honored. AJ McCarron became the first Alabama player to capture the award in 2013 after leading the Crimson Tide to 36 wins and two national championships in his career. Derrick Henry became the second winner in 2015 after rushing for 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns. The Maxwell Award is voted on by head coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best United States college football interior lineman by the Football Writers Association of America. It is named after John H. Outland, one of a select few players ever named All-America at two positions. Outland earned consensus All-America honors in 1898 at tackle and consensus All-America honors at halfback in 1899 for the University of Pennsylvania.

RIMINGTON TROPHY

The Rimington Trophy was created to recognize the most outstanding center in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The trophy is named after former Nebraska center Dave Rimington, who won the Outland Trophy in consecutive years, was a two-time first team All-American and the 1982 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year. The trophy is presented by the Boomer Esiason Foundation, which was created when his son, Gunnar, was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis. The Rimington Trophy has played a major role in raising money to support the CF community and is essential in honoring one of the most pivotal roles on the football field. Ryan Kelly became Alabama's second winner in 2015 after Barret Jones was the first Crimson Tide player honored in 2012.

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

The Disney Sports Spirit Award has been presented each year since 1996 to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. The Alabama football team, represented by Carson Tinker, was recognized for its efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that tore through Tuscaloosa. The award is not based on statistics or other on-field records or achievements, but rather for bravery, courage, overcoming adversity, and the love of college football.

JIM THORPE AWARD

Created in 1986, the Jim Thorpe Award is annually presented to the top defensive back in college football. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. The award is named for Jim Thorpe, an Olympic gold medalist in 1912 who also played professional football, baseball and basketball. His football prowess enabled tiny Carlisle College to become a national college football power early in the 20th century. Thorpe was widely considered the world's greatest athlete of the first half of the 20th Century.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award is given annually to the nation's outstanding senior or fourth year quarterback in college football. It was established in 1987 by a foundation named for Johnny Unitas, the Hall of Fame quarterback who played at the University of Louisville before going on to a legendary career for the NFL's Baltimore Colts. Jay Barker (1994) and AJ McCarron (2013) both captured the award during their senior seasons at Alabama.

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. It is named for former University of Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the 1996 Heisman Trophy winner.

WALTER CAMP PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Walter Camp Trophy is awarded to the outstanding player of the year in college football who has exemplified the qualities of self-discipline, unselfish team play, desire to excel, mature judgement and respect for leadership. His performance on the playing field must be accompanied by an equally strong effort to contribute off the field. He must exhibit an awareness of the need to fulfill his role as a leader. He must espouse the ideals adhered to by Walter Camp, the "Father of American Football." Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's first Walter Camp Player of the Year honor in 2015 after rushing for 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns.

JOE MOORE AWARD

The Joe Moore Award, presented by the Joe Moore Foundation for Teamwork, awarded Alabama the inauguaral trophy in 2015. It will now be given annually to college football's best offensive line unit. The award is designed to preserve the legacy of Joe Moore, who coached most notably at Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. Moore was responsible for developing the skills of several All-Americans throughout his storied career, including Bill Fralic, Mark May, Russ Grimm, Jimbo Covert, Mark Stepnowski, Aaron Taylor, and Andy Heck. Coach Moore sent 52 players on to the NFL, several of whom are in the Pro and College Football Hall of Fame.

ALABAMA 1985-88

Former Alabama linebacker Derrick Thomas was named to the 2014 class of the College Football Hall of Fame the National Football Foundation.

Thomas, a native of Miami, Fla., and one of the Crimson Tide's all-time great linebackers, played for head coaches Ray Perkins and Bill Curry from 1985-88. A unanimous All-America selection in 1988 and a two-time All-SEC selection in 1987 and 1988, Thomas was the 24th Alabama player or coach to be selected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Thomas set Alabama and, per the National Football Foundation, NCAA records for sacks and tackles for a loss in 1988 on his way to winning the Butkus Award, CBS' Defensive Player of the Year and the Washington Pigskin Club's Defensive Player of the Year.

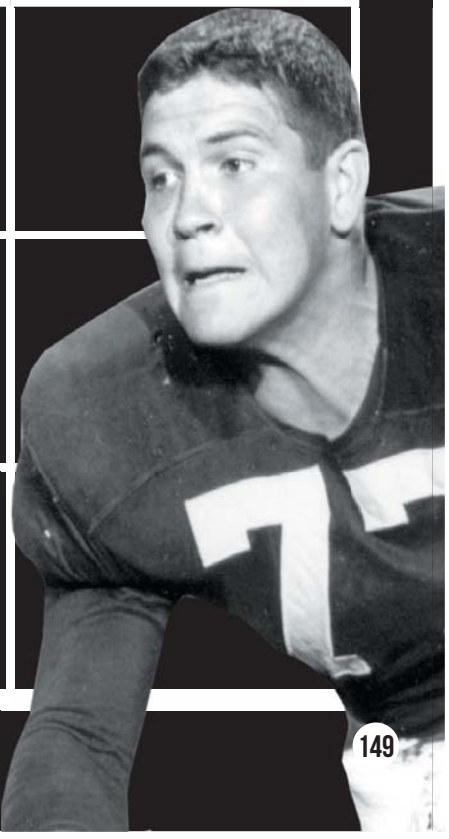

As a senior in 1988, Thomas recorded 88 tackles with 39 tackles for a loss of 250 yards while registering 27 sacks for a loss of 204 yards. He recorded 18 sacks for 142 yards as a junior in 1987 along with 67 tackles. He finished his career with 204 tackles, 68 tackles for loss (465 yards), 52 sacks (408 yards), 10 forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

Thomas led the Crimson Tide to a 35-15-1 record during his four years at the Capstone with four bowl berths, including wins in the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1986 and 1988 Sun Bowls. He was also a finalist for the Lombardi Award and finished in the top 10 in the Heisman Trophy voting while being named the 1988-89 Athlete of the Year across all sports by the Southeastern Conference. He served as a defensive captain for the 1988 team and was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century and the Defensive Player of the Decade of the 1980s.

The Kansas City Chiefs selected Thomas with the fourth overall pick of the 1989 NFL Draft. He spent his entire 11-year career with the Chiefs and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. Thomas was the 1989 Defensive Rookie of the Year and was elected to the Pro Bowl every year from 1989-97. Thomas was also named the 1993 Walter Payton Man of the Year. He holds the NFL record for sacks in a game with seven and was a member of the 1990s NFL All-Decade team. Thomas was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He was active in the community, starting the 3rd and Long Foundation in Kansas City to teach low-income children to read. Thomas passed away on Feb. 8, 2000, at the age of 33, following complications from a car accident.

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

NFL DRAFT

Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Joe Namath, Chris Samuels, Kenny Stabler and Derrick Thomas have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at Alabama. Recently, running back Eddie Lacy was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2013 and C.J. Mosley was runner-up for the AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2014. Alabama had one first-round draft pick in 2016, one in 2015, two in 2014, three in 2013 and four in both 2010 and 2011, while churning out 55 draft picks over the past eight years, including 18 in the first round. Those 18 first rounders are: Andre Smith (No. 6, Cincinnati, 2009), Rolando McClain (No. 8, Oakland, 2010), Kareem Jackson (No. 20, Houston, 2010), Marcell Dareus (No. 3 Buffalo, 2011), Julio Jones (No. 6, Atlanta, 2011), James Carpenter (No. 25, Seattle, 2011), Mark Ingram (No. 28, New Orleans, 2011), Trent Richardson (No. 3, Cleveland, 2012), Mark Barron (No. 7, Tampa Bay, 2012), Dre Kirkpatrick (No. 17, Cincinnati, 2012), Dont'a Hightower (No. 25, New England, 2012), Dee Milliner (No. 9, New York Jets, 2013), Chance Warmack (No. 10, Tennessee, 2013), D.J. Fluker (No. 11, San Diego, 2013), C.J. Mosley (No. 17, Baltimore, 2014), Ha Ha Clinton-Dix (No. 21, Green Bay, 2014), Amari Cooper (No. 4, Oakland, 2015) and Ryan Kelly (No. 18, Indianapolis Colts, 2016). If you count Courtney Upshaw (Baltimore), who went three picks into the second round, Alabama had five players drafted in the first 35 picks in the 2012 NFL Draft and four selected in the first two rounds in 2013 with Eddie Lacy going to the Green Bay Packers. Landon Collins was also taken with the first pick of the second round by the Giants in 2015. In 2016, six Tide players were selected in the first 60 picks.

HALL OF FAME

DON HUTSON
1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

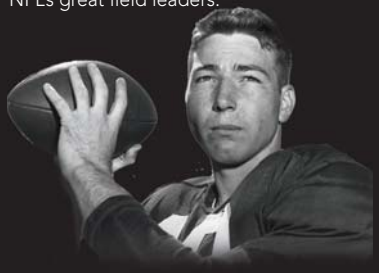

BART STARR
1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-71
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time still was limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Lombardi's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

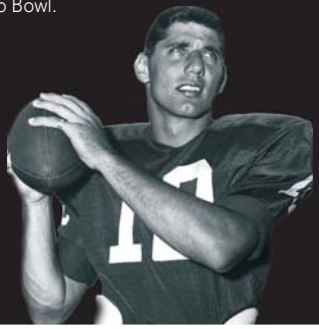

JOE NAMATH
1985

NEW YORK JETS 1965-76
ALABAMA 1962-64

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He also was elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

JOHN HANNAH
1991

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-85
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time gridiron All-America at Alabama.

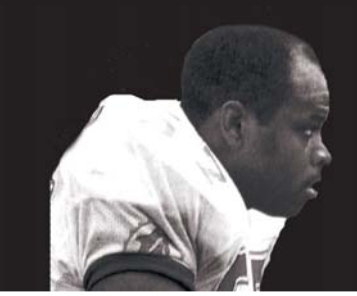

Hannah finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the veteran lineman.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1973-87
ALABAMA 1977-79

Dwight Stephenson was born Nov. 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C. He was a quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and possessed an explosive charge off the snap. Stephenson was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

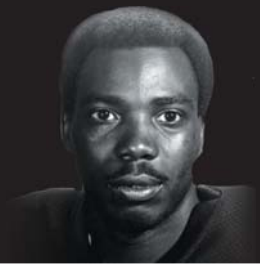

OZZIE NEWSOME

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-90
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth-leading receiver when he retired. Newsome is now the general manager of the Baltimore Ravens.

DERRICK THOMAS

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 1989-99
ALABAMA 1985-88

Derrick Thomas displayed extraordinary pass-rushing skills throughout his 11-season career that tragically was cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks, which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

KENNY STABLER

OAKLAND RAIDERS 1970-79
ALABAMA 1965-67

A four-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time AFC Player of the Year, Kenny Stabler led the Oakland Raiders to their first Super Bowl championship with a victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl XI.

Stabler was named the NFL's MVP in 1974 when he led the Raiders to a 12-2 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game. He remains Oakland's career leader in victories, passing yardage, completions and touchdown passes.

THE NEXT CHAPTER FOR THE SELECT FEW IS...

THE NEXT LEVEL

The University of Alabama hosted its annual pro day on March 9 with 19 draft-eligible Crimson Tide athletes participating in front of attendees from all 32 NFL teams.

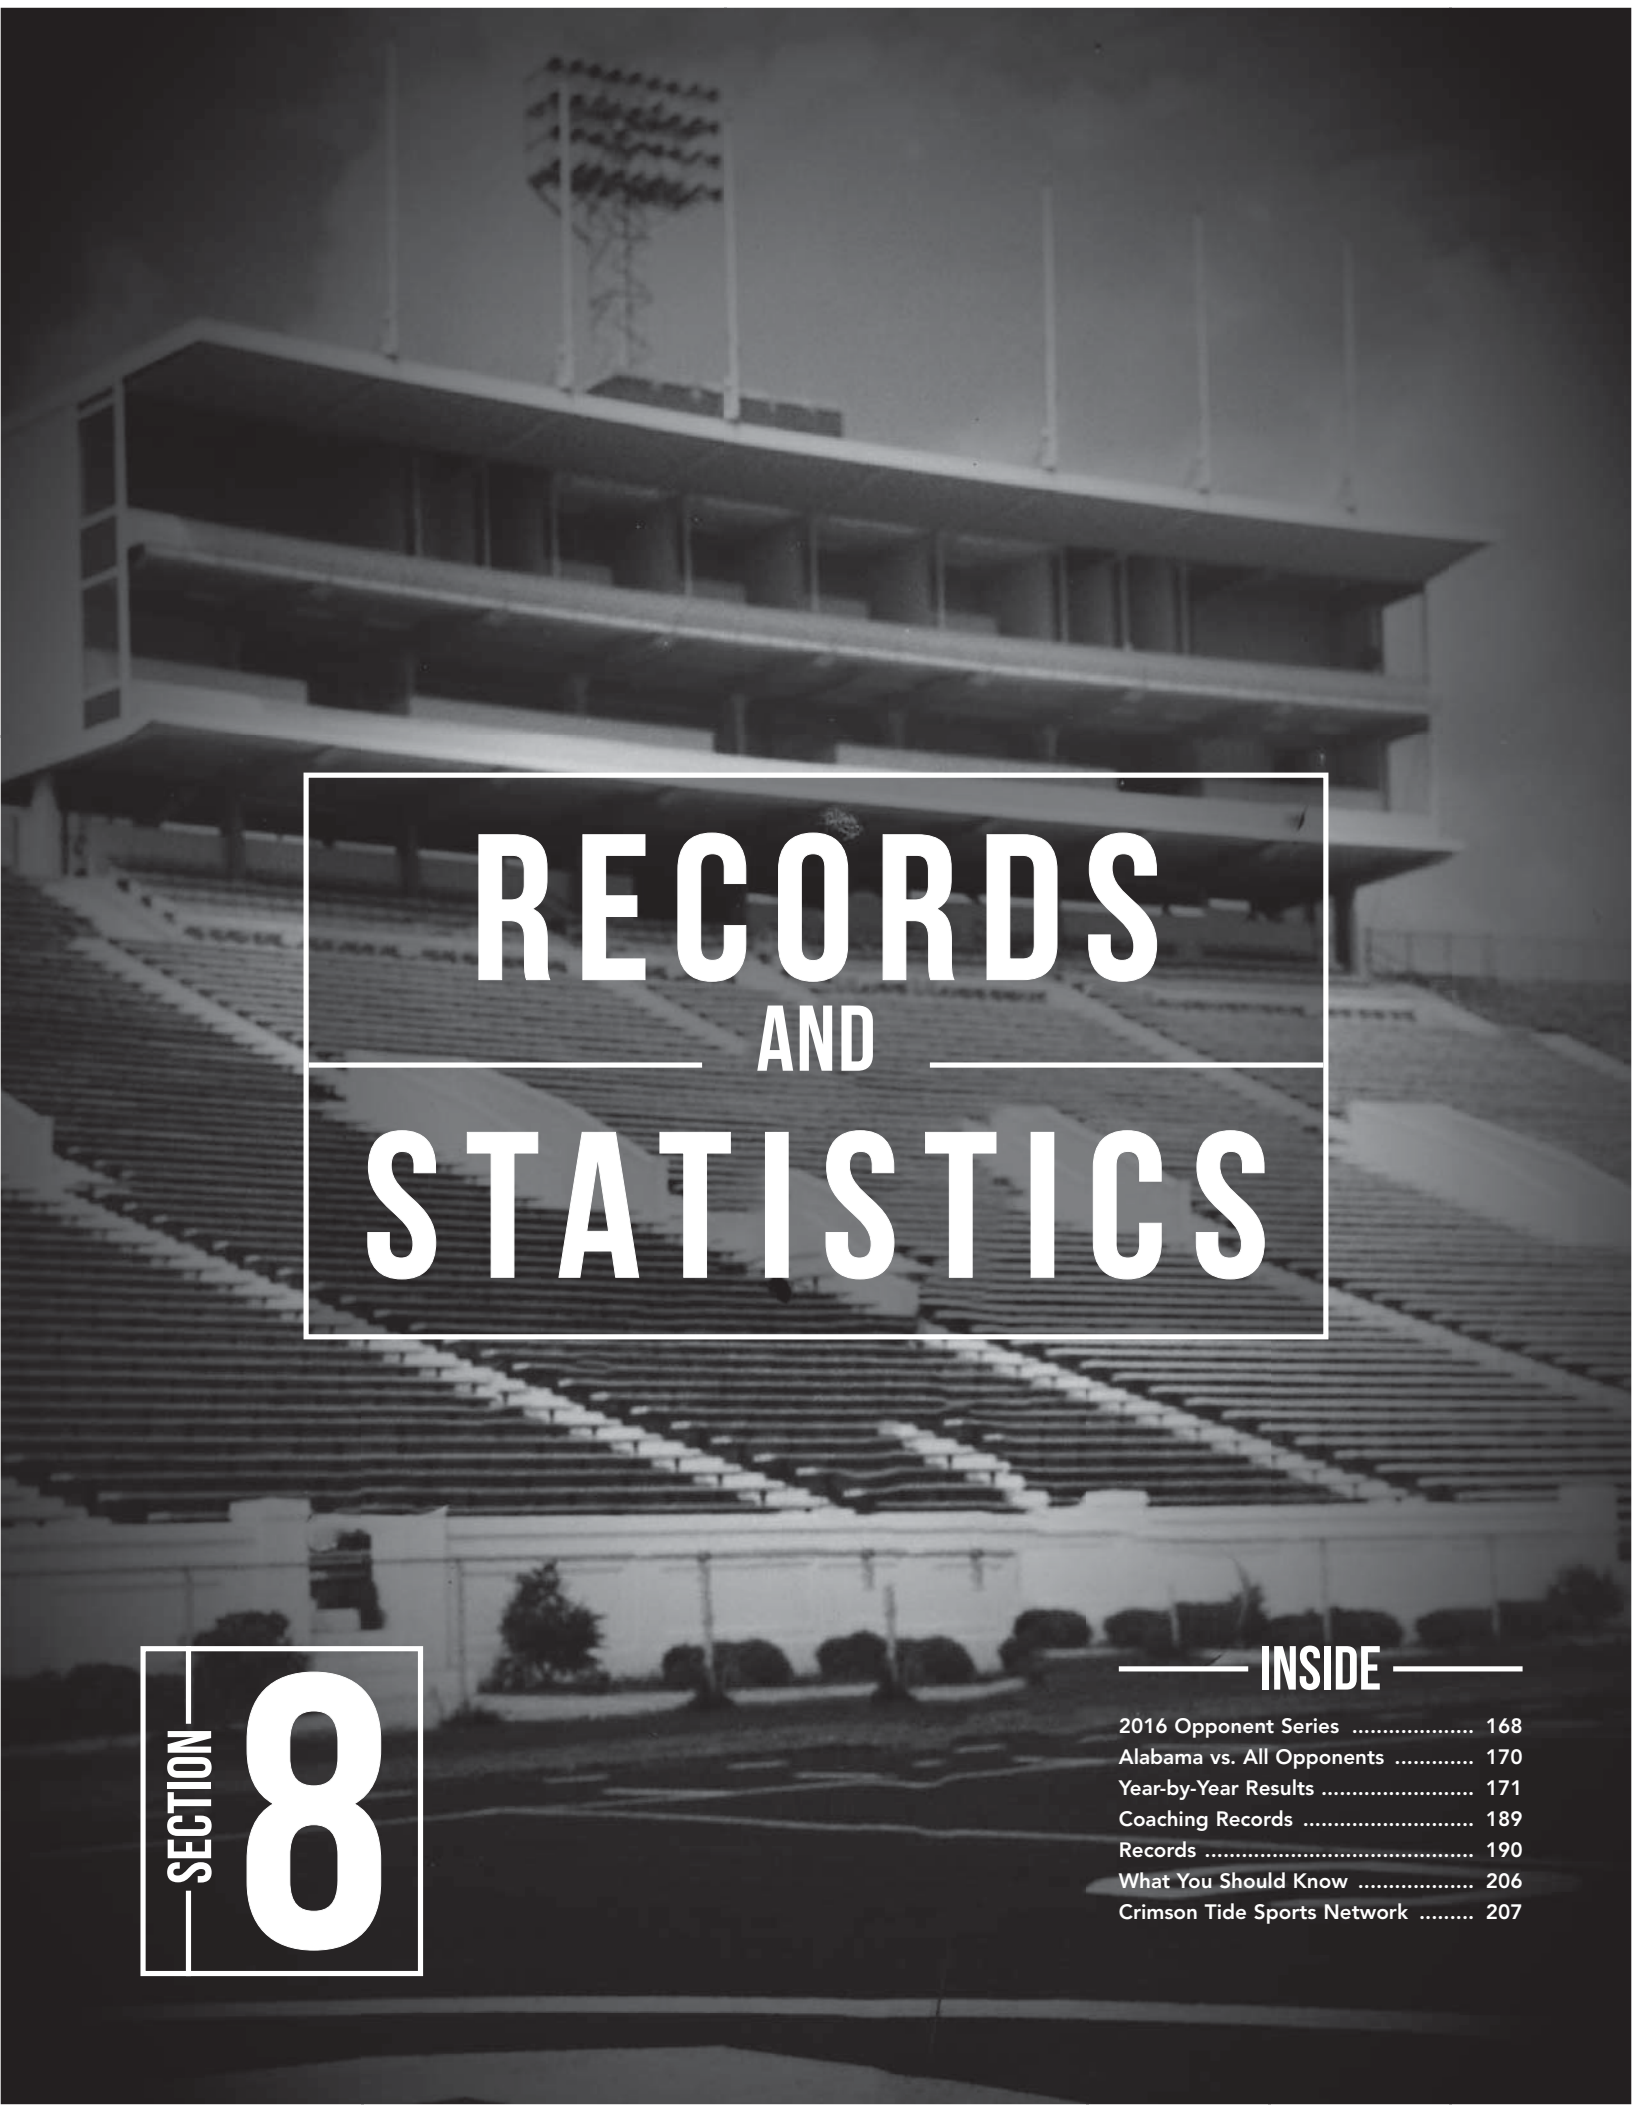

There were numerous general managers, head coaches, assistant coaches and scouts in attendance at the event. The list was highlighted by New England Patriots head coach Bill Belichick.

"I am just very pleased and happy that we have a great turn out here today to take a look at some of our players," said Alabama head coach Nick Saban. "This is a goal that a lot of our players have that they would like to have the opportunity to play at the next level someday. I know they've worked hard, they've done a great job for us, and we certainly want to do the best job that we can to help them fulfill some of those goals and aspirations after they did a fantastic job here at Alabama."

Draft-eligible players that participated in the day's events included: Jake Coker, Denzel Devall, Kenyan Drake (weigh-in only), TY Flournoy-Smith, Derrick Henry, Dominick Jackson, Cyrus Jones, Darren Lake, Dillon Lee, Geno Matias-Smith, Richard Mullaney, Michael Nysewander, D.J. Pettway, Reggie Ragland, Jarran Reed, A'Shawn Robinson, Bradley Sylve and Jabriel Washington.

The day began at 11 a.m. with heights, weights and measurements in the weight room. The players then followed with vertical and broad jumps, along with bench press for those who chose to participate in the particular tests. The Crimson Tide athletes then moved to the Hank Crisp Indoor Facility to test in the 40-yard dash, agility drills and position-specific drills for each respective player.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

when dealing with student-athletes.

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population:

- providing cash or loans, or signing for a loan;
- a guarantee of bond;
- the use of an automobile;
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards;
- gift of clothing or equipment;
- providing loans to relatives or friends;
- any tangible items, including merchandise;
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type;
- free or reduced-cost housing;
- gift of cash or like items;
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, haircuts, etc.);
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete;
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement.

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

SOMEONE WHO:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (i.e., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball);
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- Has ever helped to arrange - or has provided employment for - an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletic ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he /she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall or spring), registers, enrolls and attends summer school prior to initial full time enrollment, or participates in a regular squad practice or competition before the beginning of any term.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through the UA Athletics Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-4621.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect;
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability;
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus;
- Contact a prospect by telephone or by letter;
- Make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes;
- Provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect.

"THE NICK SABAN SHOW" AND "HEY, COACH"
Alabama fans again will have an opportunity to talk with Crimson Tide coach Nick Saban each Thursday night on his weekly radio show. Eli Gold hosts the 90-minute coach's call-in show following "Hey, Coach" each Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. The first broadcast is set for August 18. Fans can join the program by calling toll-free 877-202-BAMA (2262) or by going to Bob's Victory Grille at Midtown Village in Tuscaloosa. The "Nick Saban Show" begins on September 1.

"CRIMSON TIDE TODAY"
Alabama fans keep up with all of the Tide's players and coaches each weekday on "Crimson Tide Today," a daily update on all University of Alabama athletic teams with Chris Stewart.

"THE NICK SABAN TV SHOW"
The Crimson Tide's head coach will guide Alabama fans through the football season on his weekly television show, which is broadcast on stations in Alabama and the Southeast. The 30-minute TV show, hosted by Chris Stewart, features highlights, interviews and features with Alabama players. Check local listings for the time and station in your area. Veteran videographer Keith Dobbins will be at every game to shoot all of the action for the coach's TV show.

"TIDE TV THIS WEEK"
From the start of fall practice through the end of the spring sports season, Alabama fans keep up with all sports on "Tide TV This Week," a fast-paced 30-minute weekly TV show hosted by Chris Stewart. Reporter Christopher England and Hannah Chalker complete the crew for the weekly show. Check local listings for the time and station in your area.

CTSM

crimson tide sports marketing

From opening day on September 3 through the bowl game, Alabama fans will hear all the action of Alabama football on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). More than 60 radio stations in Alabama and around the south will broadcast Alabama football games in 2016.

Eli Gold is in his third decade as the voice of the Tide and has called the action of every Crimson Tide game since 1989. A nationally known sportscaster, Gold is also the host of "NASCAR Live," a weekly, nationally-syndicated radio call-in show. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

Providing the color analysis is former Crimson Tide assistant coach Phil Savage, who's been on the crew since 2008. A Mobile native and currently executive director of the Senior Bowl, Savage has extensive NFL experience as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns (under then-defensive coordinator Nick Saban), director of player personnel for the Baltimore Ravens and Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Browns.

Chris Stewart will patrol the sidelines during the games to keep fans up-to-date and then will head to the locker room for postgame interviews with coach Saban and Alabama players. A member of the crew since 1999, Stewart also is the voice of Alabama men's basketball and baseball.

Starting in 1984, Tom Stipe has produced the CTSN football broadcasts and he also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens has stood behind Gold every week as the spotter since 1989 and Brian Roberts has been keeping up with all the numbers as the statistician for the broadcast since 1998. Jim Carabin oversees the Alabama broadcasts in his role as general manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.
