THIS WEEK

HURRICANE CLASSIC

Tulsa, Okla. - Reynolds Center

Friday Aug. 26 vs. South Dakota - 10 a.m. CT

Friday, Aug. 26 at Tulsa - 7 p.m. CT

Saturday, Aug. 27 vs. Incarnate Word - 11 a.m. CT

SCOUTING ALABAMA

- Alabama returns eight letterwinners from last season, including five starters, while welcoming eight newcomers to the roster.
- Alabama returns both of its AVCA All-Region honorees from last season in redshirt senior Krystal Rivers and junior Kat Hutson. The honor was Hutson's second accolade in as many seasons and Rivers' third, making Rivers the first three-time All-Region honoree in Alabama volleyball history. This was the third straight season in which the Crimson Tide has had multiple All-Region award winners. Prior to 2013, Alabama had never posted multiple All-Region honorees in a single season.
- Ed Allen returns for his sixth season at the helm of the program in 2016. He has guided the Crimson Tide to four-straight winning seasons, including two NCAA Tournament berths (2013-14), setting single-season win records at Alabama in each of those two seasons.

RETURN TO TULSA

This weekend's trip to Tulsa is the first in program history for Alabama but it marks a return visit for head coach Ed Allen, who spent five seasons (2006-10) leading the Golden Hurricane prior to his time in Tuscaloosa. There, he was twice named the Conference USA Coach of the Year, including AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors in 2010. Additionally, the trip reunites Allen with former Alabama assistant coach Ryan Willis, who is in his third season as the head coach at Tulsa.

KRYSTAL RIVERS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SEC

The Southeastern Conference released its volleyball preseason coaches' poll and its preseason All-SEC team, with Alabama redshirt senior Krystal Rivers representing the Crimson Tide as one of nine athletes on the preseason team.

This marks Rivers' third consecutive appearance on the Preseason All-SEC team for Rivers. Heading into her final season with the Crimson Tide, Rivers has earned AVCA All-South Region honors in each of the last three seasons, including Third Team All-America honors in 2014. Last season, she led Alabama with 410 kills (4.06/set) and a .300 hitting percentage and was second in the conference in kills-per-set. As a team, the Tide was selected sixth in the coaches' poll with 90 points. Defending champion Texas A&M was selected to repeat with seven out of a possible 13 first-place votes.

ALABAMA WINS AVCA TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD

Alabama was one of 131 Division I volleyball programs to win the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Team Academic Award for the 2015-16 season, announced in July. The award honors teams that displayed excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team grade point average on a 4.0 scale. This is the second-straight season in which Alabama has won the award and the Tide is one of four SEC teams on this year's list, along with Missouri, South Carolina and Kentucky.

2015 RECAP

- Over 15,000 fans packed Foster Auditorium during the 2015 season, marking the second-highest attendance total in program history. Alabama has seen attendance top the 12,000 mark every season since 2012.
- Redshirt junior Krystal Rivers and sophomore Kat Hutson earned AVCA honorable mention All-America honors after being named All-South Region earlier in the season.
- Sierra Wilson earned her second-consecutive First Team Academic All-America award, becoming the first two-time winner in program history.
- Alabama finished with an 11-7 mark in SEC play, its third straight season with double-digit conference wins. It is the longest such stretch in program history.

Head Coach

6th Year

ED ALLEN

Ball State, 1988

Ed Allen returns for his sixth season as the head women's volleyball coach at the University of Alabama in 2016. Allen was named the head women's volleyball coach at the Capstone on Jan. 10, 2011, after being named the 2010 Conference USA Coach of the Year and the 2010 AVCA Midwest Regional Coach of the Year at the University of Tulsa.

Allen, the fourth head coach in the history of the Alabama volleyball program, has led the Crimson Tide to a 96-67 overall record in his time at the Capstone. He has quickly built Alabama into a contender, earning the program's first winning season in four years in 2012 with 18 wins, the most since 2005. He improved even further on that mark in his third season, guiding Alabama to a 24-10 record in 2013 and its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2007. The 24 wins were the most for the Tide since 1995. His stellar 2013 campaign helped earn him AVCA South Region Coach of the Year honors. In 2014, the Tide improved even further, totaling a school-record 26 wins, including the program's first ever NCAA Tournament victory with a five-set win over Samford in the opening round. The 50 combined wins from 2013 and 2014 are the most in any two-year span in school history.

A winner at every level of coaching, Allen owns a career record of 590-250 (.702) in his 25th season as a head coach in 2016. The 2015 season was his 23rd winning season in 24 years as a head coach.
