The award is presented annually by the WGCA to the best player in Division I women's golf.

Gillman, Knight and Stephenson Earn All-SEC First Team Honors

All six members of the Alabama women's golf team were honored when the Southeastern Conference announced its 2018 postseason awards on May 3. Sophomore Kristen Gillman and juniors Cheyenne Knight and Lauren Stephenson were named to the All-SEC First Team, while senior Lakareber Abe was a second team selection. Freshman Angelica Moresco received SEC All-Freshman Team honors. Senior Nicole Morales was chosen as the Tide's SEC Community Service Team honoree. The first-team selections for Gillman, Knight and Stephenson marks the fourth season in program history — and second in a row — that the Tide has landed three golfers on the All-SEC first team. In addition to the back-to-back selection of Gillman, Knight and Stephenson, Stephanie Meadow, Brooke Pancake and Jennifer Kirby were selected in 2012 and Meadow, Camilla Lennarth and Pancake were recognized in 2011. The All-SEC honors are the third for Knight and the second for Gillman, Stephenson and Abe. Knight was a first-team selection in 2016 and 2017 and joins Meadow (2011-12-13-14) and Lennarth (2009-10-11) as the only Alabama women's golfers to earn All-SEC first-team honors three or more times in their careers. Gillman and Stephenson were first-team honorees in 2017 while Abe was a second-team selection in 2016.

USGA Tabs Gillman and Stephenson for Curtis Cup Squad

The USGA's International Team Selection Committee selected the U.S. squad. Gillman and Stephenson will be the sixth and seventh UA women's golfers to compete in the Curtis Cup, joining U.S. selections Emma Talley (2014), Brooke Pancake (2012), Jenny Suh (2006) and Martha Lang (1992) and Great Britain & Ireland pick Stephanie Meadow (2012). Lang also served as the U.S. captain in 1996. The 2018 Curtis Cup will take place June 8-10 at Quaker Ridge Golf Club in Scarsdale, N.Y.

Crimson Tide Post Four Tournament Victories in 2017-18

The Alabama Crimson Tide recorded four victories in 10 outings this season, equaling the second-best total in program history previously achieved by the 2016-17, 2015-16, 2011-12 and 2010-11 teams. The Crimson Tide picked up its first win of the season at the Schooner Fall Classic, Sept. 23-25, in Norman, Okla. Alabama (281-281-269/831) finished at 21-under par as a team after a 15-under par third round to outdistance runner-up Clemson (285-286-277/848), which finished 17 shots back at 4-under par. The Tide's final score was the second-lowest in relation to par in the history of the tournament and ranks as the third-lowest 54-hole total and fourth-lowest score in relation to par in school history. Alabama's final-round 15-under par 269 was the second-lowest single-round score and tied for the third-lowest single round score in relation to par in UA annals.

The Tide picked up its second win of the season with an eight-stroke victory at Darius Rucker Intercollegiate, March 2-4, at Hilton Head Island, S.C. The win was the third in a row for the Tide at the Rucker and the fifth in the seven seasons the tournament has been played. Alabama previously took home team titles in 2012, 2013, 2016 and 2017. Alabama (286-291-289/866) finished at 14-over par, eight shots ahead of second-place Arkansas (290-296-288/874), which came in at 22-over par.

In its final regular season outing of the year, Alabama won the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic, April 13-14, in Athens, Ga. Alabama (276-286-287/849) jumped out to a 12-shot lead after two rounds on Friday and finished at 1-under par in Saturday's final round for a 15-under par weekend to take home the team title by 16 shots over runner-up Arkansas, which finished at 1-over par.

Alabama's most recent victory of the season advanced the Tide to the NCAA Championships as UA posted an eight shot win over host Florida State to capture the NCAA Tallahassee Regional, May 7-9, in Tallahassee, Fla. The Crimson Tide finished 33-under par (282-276-273/831) to set a school record for low score and low score vs. par in regional play. Alabama's 15-under par third round was also a UA regional record.

2017-18 ALABAMA WOMEN'S GOLF NOTES

Stephenson, Gillman and Knight Each Earn Medalist Honors in 2017-18

Alabama golfers earned individual medalist honors four times in 2017-18, equaling the previous season high set in 2010-11 when Stephanie Meadow (3 victories) and Brooke Pancake (1) combined to take home medalist honors in four tournaments.

Junior Lauren Stephenson posted a school record 54-hole score to share individual medalist honors at the season-opening Mason Rudolph Championship in Franklin, Tenn., Sept. 15-17. Stephenson (68-68-64/200) birdied her last five holes in the third round to cap off an 8-under par 64 round and tie with Arkansas' Maria Fassi for first place at 16-under par. Stephenson's final score and score vs. par were school records.

A week later, sophomore Kristen Gillman fired a personal-best 7-under par 64 in the final round to claim individual medalist honors and lead the Alabama women's golf team to the team championship at the Schooner Fall Classic, Sept. 23-25, in Norman, Okla. Gillman's win coupled with Stephenson's victory at the Mason Rudolph Championship, marked the first time since the 2008-09 season that two different Tide golfers claimed medalist honors in consecutive tournaments. Gillman (68-68-64/200) finished at a career-low 13-under par for the tournament to capture individual medalist honors for the second time in her career. The Austin, Texas, native equaled Stephenson's week-old school record for low 54-hole score.

Stephenson and junior Cheyenne Knight shared individual medalist honors at the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic, April 13-14, in Athens, Ga. The tie marks the first time in Alabama women's golf history that two Tide golfers have shared medalist honors at a tournament. Knight (-7, 65-71-73/209) and Stephenson (-7, 71-69-69/209) join Kathleen Ekey (2009) and Jennifer Kriby (2012) as third and fourth Crimson Tide golfers to win the Liz Murphey.

ALABAMA HEAD COACH MIC POTTER

POTTER

Head Coach

13th Year

CORTLAND STATE, 1977

Alabama head coach Mic Potter added national champion to his resume in 2012 and is in his 13th season with the Crimson Tide and 34th overall with another highly-ranked and talented roster for the 2017-18 season.

Potter had already established a Hall-of-Fame legacy before he arrived in Tuscaloosa thanks to his impressive work building Furman into a national power. His work over the past 12 years at Alabama has been historic, culminating with the school's first national championship in 2012. Three seasons later, Potter helped guide Emma Talley to the individual NCAA Championship to cap off the 2014-15 season, making her the first NCAA medalist in the program's history.

Potter, who came to the Capstone after 22 years at Furman, led the Tide to its second NCAA appearance in program history in his first year at Alabama and repeated the feat each of the last 12 years (2007-18). His 2012 national championship and 13 straight NCAA Championships berths (including the 2017-18 season) only reaffirmed his status as one of the most accomplished coaches in women's collegiate golf. His reclamation project in Tuscaloosa is one of the most impressive turnarounds in collegiate golf history.

With the recent success, the honors continue to pile up for Potter, who helped the Crimson Tide develop into a national power in the ultra-competitive SEC. The veteran coach has won 14 Conference Coach of the Year awards, including six in the SEC.

Throughout his career, Potter has developed a reputation for being an excellent teacher of the game as well as a builder of elite college programs. His student-athletes have consistently performed at a high level both in the classroom and on the course, with several carrying that level of excellence into the professional ranks. Potter's former players who have gone on to careers in the PGA include the legendary Dottie Pepper (who starred for his Furman teams) and several recent Alabama players, namely Kathleen Ekey, Jenny Suh, Brooke Pancake and Jennifer Kirby.

Alabama opened the 2016-17 season in record-setting fashion as the Crimson Tide stormed to a school-record 39-under par 825 to win the Mason Rudolph Championship in its first tournament of the fall schedule. Sophomore Cheyenne Knight set a school 54-hole record with a 14-under par 202 and junior Lakareber Abe also set a school 18-hole record with a 9-under par 63 in the final round.

The Tide would go on to win two other regular season tournaments as well as the NCAA Athens Regional, earn a runner-up finish at the SEC Championships and qualify for a 12th-straight NCAA tournament. Individually, Knight earned SEC Player of the Year honors and Kristen Gillman was named the conference Freshman of the Year. Knight and Gillman also earned first-team Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA) and Golfweek All-America honors, while sophomore Lauren Stephenson earned second-team honors from both groups.

The 2015-16 season saw the Crimson Tide win its third Southeastern Conference championship under Potter and qualify for the NCAA Championships. Knight was named the NCAA Freshman of the Year by the WGCA and a First Team All-American by the WGCA and Golfweek. Talley was tabbed a First Team All-American by the WGCA and joined Knight as a first team SEC all-conference honoree.

The 2014-15 season marked the 10th consecutive NCAA berth for the Crimson Tide. Alabama finished 14th overall at the NCAA Championships. But the highlight of the season was undoubtedly Talley's triumph to claim the individual crown, finishing three-under par for the tournament to bring home the NCAA title. She was named a first team All-American by both the WGCA and Golfweek. Talley also earned the Honda Award for women's golf, the second player in program history to do so (Pancake, 2012). Abe was selected to the 2015 SEC All-Freshman Team.

Stephanie Meadow led the 2013-14 team that finished ninth at the NCAA Championships and won The Landfall Tradition. Meadow became the school's all-time leading scorer and the program's first four-time First Team All-American. She was also named the SEC Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second time. She was named the NCAA Elite 89 Award winner. Talley garnered honorable mention All-America honors and helped lead the United States to victory at the Curtis Cup while Meadow played for the Great Britain and Ireland team.

The Crimson Tide's 2012-13 season was another for the record books as the program captured its second SEC championship and second NCAA East Regional title. Alabama won a school-record seven events, including six of eight on the spring schedule. Potter was named the SEC Coach of the Year and the SkyCaddie WGCA East Region Coach of the Year.

The 2012-13 team saw three players garner All-America honors, with Meadow a consensus first-team selection. Talley was a second-team pick by the NGCA and Jennifer Kirby earned honorable mention accolades. Meadow also became the first Alabama player to earn SEC Player of the Year honors and the third in conference history to also be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in the same season. Talley became the third Tide golfer to earn league Freshman of the Year honors. Hannah Collier garnered second team All-SEC recognition, along with Talley and Kirby.

The team's first win of the 2012-13 season came at the Betsy Rawls Longhorn Invitational, when they tied for first with Florida. The Tide then posted wins at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic, the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate, the Gator Women's Invitational and the PING/ASU Invitational along with SECs and NCAA Regional Championships.

The 2011-12 team captured its national title with a one-stroke victory over USC at the Vanderbilt Legends Club. The Crimson Tide spent most of that season ranked second in the polls and finished third in the SEC before tying for fourth at the NCAA East Regional leading up to NAAs. The Tide earlier posted team victories at the SEC/Pac-12 Challenge, the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate and the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic. Alabama finished second on three other occasions and finished outside the top four only once in 2011-12.

The 2011-12 season saw three Alabama players, Pancake, Kirby and Meadow, earn First Team All-America honors. Pancake won the Honda Award, presented to the nation's top collegiate golfer, while also being named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the third time, the SEC Female Athlete of the Year and the CoSIDA Capital One Academic All-American of the Year. Pancake (United States) and Meadow (Great Britain and Ireland) also participated in the Curtis Cup at Nairn in Scotland to cap the historic 2011-12 season.

Alabama's 2010-11 team turned in an outstanding season as the Crimson Tide continued its climb into the elite of women's collegiate golf. The Tide spent the entire season in the top five with a school-record five wins -- NCAA Fall Preview, Tar Heel Invitational, Lady Puerto Rico Classic, Liz Murphey Classic and the NCAA East Regional - before tying for eighth at the NCAA Championship.

Two Alabama players captured medalist honors during the 2010-11 season. Meadow, then a freshman, had a school-record three wins (Lady Puerto Rico Classic, Sugar Bowl Intercollegiate and NCAA East Regional). Pancake won the Tar Heel Invitational in the fall of 2010 with an 11-under-par 206 while the team set the school record with a 28-under-par 836.

Meadow and Pancake were selected as 2011 First Team All-Americans while Camilla Lennarth garnered third-team honors. The Tide also had three first team All-SEC selections (Meadow, Pancake and Lennarth) and one second-team choice (Kirby). Potter was named the 2011 SEC Coach of the Year, Pancake the Student-Athlete of the Year and Meadow was the Co-Freshman of the Year.

The 2010 SEC Championship was a springboard for the program's best NCAA Championship finish to date, a third-place showing that was only four shots off the winning score. Alabama also captured a team win at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic.

The Tide had three players finish in the top 15 individually at the 2010 NAAs, with Kirby tied for seventh, Pancake 12th and Lennarth tied for 13th. That trio garnered All-America honors, with Lennarth earning second-team accolades while Kirby and Pancake were honorable mention selections.

Lennarth and Kirby also were First Team All-SEC selections, with Kirby adding the 2010 SEC Freshman of the Year. Pancake was a Second Team All-SEC selection and the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She also was honored with the NCAA Elite 88 Award at the NCAA Championship as the player in the field with the highest grade-point average (4.0). Potter was named the SEC and NGCA East Region Coach of the Year.

In 2009-10, Lennarth set the single-season scoring record with a 72.59 average and Kirby broke the freshman scoring mark with a 73.06 average, shattering the mark of 74.06 set by Pancake in 2008-09. The team set a 54-hole scoring record with a 4-under-par 848 to clinch the SEC Championship. Two Alabama NCAA scoring records also fell with the Tide posting a 5-over-par 1,157 over 72 holes at the NCAA Championship on the Dye Course at Country Club of Landfall in Wilmington, N.C., and Kirby's individual 72-hole scoring mark of 4-under 284.

Potter's 2008-09 team finished the year 11th at the NCAA Championships while being ranked eighth in the final NGCA Coaches' Poll and seventh in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index. The Tide captured their fifth tournament victory under Potter's guidance in 2009 at the First Market Bank Intercollegiate. Alabama also tied for second at the SEC Championships and then was runner-up at the NCAA East Regional. The Tide's fifth trip to the NCAA Finals in 2009 produced another improvement with an 11th-place finish.

Alabama had two players, Ekey and Lennarth, earn first team All-SEC honors in 2009 while Pancake was selected to the league's All-Freshman Team and awarded second team All-SEC recognition. Ekey and Lennarth garnered 2009 honorable mention All-America accolades, with Ekey, Lennarth and Pancake all earning NGCA All-East Region honors.

The 2007-08 season saw Alabama put together what was the program's most successful season to date. The Tide earned its third straight berth to the NAAs and finished 12th at the 2008 NCAA Championship. Alabama won three tournaments in 2007-08, including the Crimson Tide Classic in record-breaking fashion. The Tide turned in a school-record 54-hole score of 861 (-3) at the Ol' Colony Golf Club. Alabama shot a final-round score of 279 (-9), also a school record. Five Tide golfers finished in the top 10 with Ekey carding a school record and women's course record score of 65 (-7) to finish with a 54-hole score of 203 (-13) and medalist honors.

The Crimson Tide also earned tournament titles at the 2007 Wildcat Fall Invitational with a score of 889 and at the 2008 Lady Puerto Rico Classic. After the Classic, Sarah Sturm was named the Golf World National Player of the Week. Ekey went on to earn All-American honors in her first season at the Capstone (2008) and broke Suh's single-season record for stroke average by posting a 73.30.

The 2006-07 campaign saw the Tide take another step forward in the development of the program under Potter's guidance. Alabama recorded five top-five finishes, including a runner-up showing at the Derby Invitational. For the second straight year the Crimson Tide earned a berth in the NCAA East Regional and finished seventh to advance to the NCAA Championship Finals for only the third time. Suh earned honorable mention All-America honors and became a two-time, first team All-SEC honoree after averaging 73.88 strokes per round.

Potter made an impact from the start. In his first season (2005-06), the legendary coach led his team to a tournament championship in his very first outing by winning Alabama's own Ann Rhoads Invitational. The 2005-06 team also recorded two top-five finishes during the spring season. After qualifying for the 2006 NCAA East Regional, the Crimson Tide put together a postseason run by defeating Virginia in a playoff to advance to the school's second-ever NCAA Championship.

Suh earned first team NGCA All-America honors in 2005-06 after shattering the school record at the time with a 73.44 stroke average. Looking back on Potter's resume, it comes as no surprise that he had his first Tide team competing for a national championship.

On June 17, 2005, The University of Alabama named the 1994 NGCA Hall of Fame honoree as its women's golf coach. By doing so, the Crimson Tide added one of the most illustrious names in women's golf to its golf heritage.

Potter proved to be one of the collegiate golf's outstanding teachers and coaches while guiding Furman, a school competing in the Southern Conference, to national prominence in his 22-year tenure with the Paladins. He also served for 10 years as Furman's

Director of Intercollegiate Golf. Potter guided Furman to 15 NCAA Championship berths and six top-10 national finishes, including an NCAA runner-up performance in 1987. He has yet to coach a season in which his team has not reached NCAA Regional competition, a streak dating back to 1993, the first season in which the regional format was established.

Potter's coaching accomplishments stand alone as an indication of the abilities of the Tide's mentor. In addition to these outstanding achievements, his players have recorded astounding success at both the collegiate level and in the professional ranks.

The ability to build and maintain a program certainly are among Potter's strengths when considering the amazing run of success he had throughout his career at Furman. Potter took the school, with an approximate enrollment of 2,500 students, into the upper tier of women's golf schools, leading the Paladins to unprecedented heights.

Potter was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year eight times and led his Furman teams to 36 tournament titles while his Tide teams have captured 27 tournament wins, which puts him among the leaders for all active women's golf coaches with 63 total victories. To put that remarkable statistic in perspective, the Alabama women's golf program had won only 19 team tournament titles through the beginning of the 2005-06 season, a span of 31 years.

Led by Potter, the Paladins won 10 Southern Conference Championships since the tournament's inception in 1994, including the 2004-05 championship.

Potter has coached 38 WGCA All-Americans, 36 WGCA All-Scholar Team selections, 66 all-conference selections, seven players to 17 first team All-SEC awards, 14 conference players of the year and seven conference freshmen of the year.

One of the most important standards of success for any coach in major collegiate athletics is the ability to place players into the professional ranks while guiding them to a degree. Measuring Potter by these standards again places him among the very best in the nation. Since Potter's arrival at Alabama, six of his players have earned their LPGA Tour card, with Hannah Collier, Kathleen Ekey, Jennifer Kirby, Stephanie Meadow and Brooke Pancake all full-time members in 2016. Meadow finished third at the 2014 U.S. Women's Open and earned her LPGA Tour card for the 2015 season.

In 2016, Potter added an Olympian to the list of his former players as Meadow represented Ireland in the inaugural women's Olympic golf tournament at the 2016 Games in Rio.

In the exceedingly competitive LPGA atmosphere, Potter's former players have enjoyed long, successful careers in professional golf. Through the end of the 2016 season, former Potter pupils had amassed 90-plus seasons on tour. Pepper - a former Furman standout and Paladin Hall-of-Famer - had an illustrious LPGA career, winning 17 events, including the 1992 and 1999 Kraft Nabisco Championships. She earned more than $5 million in career winnings before ending her 20-year professional career in 2003.

By any standard, Potter has proven to be one of the best women's golf coaches in the nation for more than three decades. He has built successful programs and maintained that standard by recruiting and cultivating talented players who advance to the professional ranks and obtain their degrees.

A 1977 graduate of Cortland State University, Potter majored in physical education while earning four varsity letters: three in soccer and one in golf. He is married to the former Kim O'Branski of Ithaca, N.Y. The couple has two sons, Ryan and Corey, and two granddaughters, Anna and Caroline.
