Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials will open 14 days prior to the deadline date and close five days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Priority is given to outlets based on circulation size/household reach/unique site visitors
- Additional consideration is based on amount of original content generated, number of full-time employees of the outlet, length of existence of the outlet and the journalist experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities and the intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky both at home and on the road, also is considered
- Professionalism, which includes is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

Being granted credentials at another institution/event does not equate to meeting the criteria for the University of Kentucky. Being granted credentials for one UK event does not guarantee approval for other UK events. The University of Kentucky has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion. Credentialing also is dependent on space availability.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room.

Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference in the Rupp Arena interview room and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available in the interview room.

Kentucky Begins Two-Game Road Trip at Alabama

Following a 77-70 home win over Vanderbilt, Kentucky (18-4, 7-2 SEC) begins a two-game road swing Saturday at Alabama. Game time is 8 p.m. ET (7 p.m. CT in Tuscaloosa) and it will be televised on ESPN.

This is the first of two meetings within a two-week period, as the Crimson Tide will roll into Lexington Feb. 19. Kentucky leads the overall series, 114-40, but Alabama won both meetings in 2021. UK leads 31-25 in games played in Tuscaloosa.

Alabama is 14-8 overall, 4-5 SEC, and is coming off a 100-81 loss Tuesday at No. 1 Auburn. In the last home game, Alabama dispatched then-No. 4 Baylor, 87-78, in the Big 12/SEC Challenge. The Tide is 10-1 this season in the confines of Coleman Coliseum.

Junior guard Jaden Shackleford leads Alabama with 17.6 points per game and, although 6-foot-3, is the team's second-leading rebounder at 5.7 per game. Jahvon Quinerly is the No. 2 scorer at 14.8 points per game and leads the team in assists with a 4.3 clip. Another guard, Keon Ellis averages 12 points per game and paces the rebounding with a 6.2 average.

"Old Guys" Lead Cats Past Vanderbilt

During the John Calipari era at Kentucky, freshmen have typically led the way for Cal's Cats. But the 2021-22 Cats are Calipari's most experienced team during his UK tenure.

It was three of those veterans who led Kentucky to a 77-70 win over Vanderbilt on Wednesday night at Rupp Arena.

In the early going, Kellan Grady, playing his fifth year of college basketball, was lighting it up from long range. Soon thereafter, he was joined by Davion Mintz, who is also playing his fifth year, who hit two of his first three shots from three-point land.

The "old guys" helped the Cats establish a 10-point halftime advantage.

In the second half, when Vandy had climbed within a point at 44-43, it was Mintz who drilled a left wing three-pointer to give the Cats momentum. In fact, it sparked an 8-0 run -- completed with two free throws by Mintz -- that gave UK a 52-43 lead with 12:11 to play.

Also in the second 20 minutes, Keion Brooks Jr., another of the Cats older players, stepped up when his team needed him. After scoring a career-high 27 points on Saturday at Kansas, Brooks notched 20 points in Wednesday's win. It marked the first time in his UK career that the junior from Fort Wayne, Indiana, has scored 20 or more points in consecutive games.

Calipari challenged Brooks at halftime to be more active in the second half.

"I told Keion at halftime, 'You've got no rebounds.' What happened to that guy I saw?," Calipari said. "I told him that if you get five in the second half we'll win. Good news? He got four. He went out and got rebounds."

Mintz finished with 21 points, tying the career high he set last season against Florida.

Calipari was impressed with Mintz on this night.

"Davion played unbelievable today," Calipari said. "Like really, really good. He just is relentless. And he also runs the floor. He and Kellan spread the court out."

As for Mintz, he knows that Wednesday just happened to be his night.

"There's so many guys on this team capable of getting 20 points," Mintz said. "I can count five more guys on our team outside of that that can do it as well. Like I said, this team is very talented and what goes into that is that unselfishness."

MORE GAME NOTES

- Kentucky is 14-0 at home this season and has won its last 15 games in Rupp Arena.
- Kentucky forced 18 turnovers, third-most of the season, leading to a crucial 15-3 advantage to points off turnovers.
- With the help of the turnovers, Kentucky managed to win despite shooting only 38.6 percent from the field. UK is now 2-4 this season when being outshot by the opponent.
- Entering the game as the SEC's leading team in assist/turnover ratio (+1.42), the Wildcats had 16 assists and only 10 turnovers tonight. It is the fifth time in the last eight games that UK has had 10 or fewer miscues.
- With Mintz scoring 21, UK now has six players who have scored at least 20 points in a game this season, also Oscar Tshiebwe, TyTy Washington Jr., Grady, Brooks and Sahvir Wheeler.

Oscar-Worthy: Midseason All-American and National Player of the Year Candidate

At first Oscar Tshiebwe grabbed the nation's attention with historic rebounding numbers. Now he's making a run at national player of the year consideration with outstanding performances in all facets of the game.

This week, Tshiebwe was picked for the Wooden Award's Late Season Top 20 for National Player of the Year and named to the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Top 10 list for the best center in the country . Last week, he was tabbed to The Athletic's First-Team All-America squad. He also was named among the 15 players on the Naismith Men's Defensive Player of the Year Watch List. Additionally, Tshiebwe was chosen First-Team Midseason All-America by Sporting News and picked for the national player of the year watch list by the Lute Olsen Award.

It's easy to see why he's getting all the attention. Tshiebwe is not only averaging a double-double but doing so with a considerable margin -- averaging a team-best 16.1 points and a nation-leading 15.2 rebounds per game. He is looking to become the first Division I player to average at least 15.0 points and at least 15.0 rebounds per game since Drake's Lewis Lloyd and Alcorn State's Larry Smith each did during the 1979-80 season, and the first Wildcat to do it since Bob Burrow tallied 19.1 points and 17.7 rebounds per game in 1954-55.

In addition to his offensive and rebounding prowess, on the defensive end Tshiebwe is the only major conference player averaging at least 1.4 blocked shots and 1.8 steals per game. He has also snared 57 more rebounds than the next closest player this season.

Setting records what seems like every other night, Tshiebwe has captivated the country with his relentless work ethic and never-ending fight to grab every rebound and loose ball.

"There was actually a moment on the bench ... I was like, 'Yo, Oscar is really good.' It wasn't the fact we were surprised, but sometimes you've got to take the time to appreciate what somebody does," teammate Keion Brooks Jr. said after his eye-popping performance Jan. 11 at Vanderbilt. "Oscar has been tremendous for us all year. He's playing exceptionally well."

When Tshiebwe told everyone before the season that his goal was to average 20 rebounds per game, it was understandable for everyone to chuckle and chalk it up to a little hyperbole.

"We all laughed," teammate Davion Mintz said. "Like, c'mon man. Twenty rebounds?"

Nobody -- most notably opponents -- is laughing now.

"Big O," as his teammates call him, now has five performances of 20 or more rebounds this season, including back-to-back outings to open the season and two straight vs. Western Kentucky and Missouri. No one else in the country (through games on Feb. 2) has more than three 20-rebound games.

"Now, it's normal," Mintz said. "We're expecting him to get 20."

It seems unreasonable to expect it on a night-in and night-out basis considering the attention the opposition is paying him, but Tshiebwe continues to raise the bar -- and it's not just rebounding now.

On Jan. 25, Tshiebwe had a 21-point, 22-rebound showing in the overtime win vs. Mississippi State, the first 20-20 Wildcat in 46 years, when Mike Phillips produced two such outings in 1976.

"It's about fighting -- keep fighting for your team, for people, for everybody, not for you," Tshiebwe said after the MSU game. "I don't fight for me, I fight for people, for my family and everybody, because I want to inspire a lot of people."

Another eye-popping stretch was a combined 59 points and 30 rebounds in wins vs. Georgia and at Vanderbilt on Jan. 8 and 11. A game after posting 29 points and 17 rebounds vs. Georgia -- the first UK player with at least 29 points and at least 17 rebounds in a game since Jamal Mashburn totaled 38 points and 19 boards vs. Eastern Kentucky on Dec. 8, 1992 -- he went for 30 points and 13 rebounds at Vanderbilt. That marked the first 30-point, 10 rebound-game for a Wildcat since Patrick Patterson did it vs. Tennessee State on Dec. 22, 2008. The back-to-back performances also marked the first time a Kentucky player has scored at least 29 points in consecutive Southeastern Conference games since Kenny Walker in February 1985.

In addition to the season-long honors, Tshiebwe has earned national player of the week distinction from four outlets, the Naismith Trophy (Jan. 31), ESPN's Dick Vitale (Jan. 31), U.S. Basketball Writers Association (Dec. 28), NCAA March Madness (Dec. 28) and ESPN's Jay Bilas (Dec. 28).

Tshiebwe has been elite on the glass from the very beginning of the season. He set new records for the Champions Classic and UK debut with 20 boards vs. Duke in the season opener, nearly tied the Rupp Arena record with 20 rebounds in his first home game, and then shattered that Rupp record with 28 boards vs. Western Kentucky. That easily surpassed Shaquille O'Neal's previous mark of 21. It's worth noting Tshiebwe did that primarily against the tallest player in college basketball, Jamarion Sharp, who stands at 7-foot-5.

With 20 boards the following game against Missouri, his 48 boards tied for the most over a two-game span by any Division I player over the last 25 seasons (according to ESPN Stats & Info).

"I think you can call me a beast for a little bit," Tshiebwe said after the WKU game. "I don't think I qualify as a machine yet. If Coach Cal let me go for those two rebounds, then if I go out with 30, maybe you can call me a machine. Right now, probably call me a beast."

Machine, beast, whatever way you slice it, what Tshiebwe is doing on the boards is historic.

The last player in school history to average at least 14 boards per game in a season at Kentucky was Ed Beck with 14.1 in the 1956-57 season. Bob Burrow owns the Kentucky single-season record of 17.7 rebounds per game, which was set during the 1954-55 season. Only two players under John Calipari have averaged double-figure rebounds for a season: Anthony Davis (2012) and Julius Randle (2014) both hauled in 10.4 per game.

"Everybody wants to do fancy, different things, but for me, rebounding means a lot," Tshiebwe said. "Rebounding can help your team to win the game. You give one more chance to your team. Since I figured it out, if I have to fight, I have to work for the rebound, I'm going to fight for that rebound like no one believes."

Tshiebwe's focus on rebounding has paid dividends with second-chance scoring opportunities. He has scored at least 20 points in seven games. He is the first UK player to register three straight games of 20 or more points since Immanuel Quickley in February of 2020 and is also the first Wildcat to score at least 30 points in a game since Quickley had 30 at Texas A&M on Feb. 25, 2020. Through games on Feb. 2, he was third in the country with 16 double-doubles.

Some more of Tshiebwe's absurd numbers that haven't already been mentioned:

- He is currently leading the Wildcats in points per game (16.1), rebounds per game (15.2), steals per game (1.8), blocks per game (1.45) and field-goal percentage with a minimum of 100 attempts (61.0%). Since the 1978-79 season, only one Wildcat has led the team in those five categories (minimum 130 field-goal attempts) in a single season -- Anthony Davis in 2011-12.
- He is responsible for 36.9% of all of UK's rebounds thus far. Taking away team rebounds, that number jumps to 40.4%
- Tshiebwe's 28 rebounds vs. WKU tied for the sixth-most rebounds in UK history and the most in more than 45 years, when Mike Phillips corralled 28 caroms in an overtime game vs. Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1976
- The 28 rebounds marked the most for a Wildcat in a regulation-length game in more than 52 years, when Dan Issel grabbed 29 rebounds vs. LSU on Feb. 22, 1969
- According to STATS, his 28 rebounds vs. WKU are the most in Division I college basketball since Kendall Gray from Delaware State recorded 30 at Coppin State on March 5, 2015 and tied for the fourth-most rebounds in Division I college basketball dating back to the 1996-97 season
- Tshiebwe had more rebounds than Western Kentucky's entire team (27)
- His 80 rebounds through the first five games were the most by an SEC player in any five-game span since Ben Simmons during the 2015-16

season

- His 56 rebounds in his first three games were the most by a Wildcat to start a career since at least 1956-57 (as far back as comprehensive box scores go)
- His 56 boards through the first three games were the third-most through three games over the past 25 seasons in all of college basketball, behind only Kansas State's Michael Beasley (60, 2007) and Oklahoma's Blake Griffin (58, 2008)
- He is the first Wildcat with four straight double-doubles since Randle had four straight in March 2014
- His 22 offensive rebounds in the first two games tied Louisiana Tech's Paul Millsap for the most by an NCAA Division I player in any two-game span over the last 25 seasons
- He is second in the country in offensive rebounding percentage with a 19.6% clip. As a freshman in 2019-20 at West Virginia, Tshiebwe led the nation at 19.0%. The best offensive rebounding percentage dating back to the 2003-04 season is 23.6% by DeJuan Blair from Pitt in 2008-09
- He leads the nation in defensive rebound percentage at 37.1%
- Tshiebwe surpassed last season's rebounding leader, Isaiah Jackson, in total rebounds through 11 games with 170. It took Jackson 25 games to grab 165
- He is the first UK player with nine straight games with double-figure rebounding since Randle enjoyed a 10-game streak in 2013-14
- He is the first UK player with five games of at least 20 points and at least 15 rebounds since Kenny Walker did it five times in the 1984-85 season

Booker and Towns Named 2022 NBA All-Stars

Two Kentucky men's basketball alumni in Devin Booker and Karl-Anthony Towns were named to the 2022 NBA All-Star Game on Feb. 20 in Cleveland. Booker is making his third consecutive appearance, while Towns' selection is the third of his career and first since 2019.

Kentucky and Kansas are the only two programs to have multiple selections to the 2022 game.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under John Calipari. In the 12-plus seasons of the Calipari era, 43 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 32 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Towns and John Wall) and 21 lottery selections. A staggering 27 players from Kentucky were on 2021-22 NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive lists), the most of any school.

Calipari's players are not only reaching the next level, but they are also succeeding when they do. Since 2010, eight Calipari-coached players have garnered 28 All-Star selections with the latest picks. Derrick Rose (from Memphis) was named league MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, DeMarcus Cousins and Towns), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Tyreke Evans and Towns), Julius Randle was tabbed the NBA's Most Improved Player in 2021 and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

In addition to UK's two All-Star selections, Tyrese Maxey was named to the 2022 Rising Stars Game on Tuesday. Maxey is the 25h former UK player to make an appearance in the game as a part of All-Star Weekend festivities and he's the 18th member of the Philadelphia 76ers organization to appear in the game.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rajon Rondo) have amassed nearly $3.4 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 12 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $3 billion in NBA contracts.

Brooks Captures SEC Player of the Week Honors; Doesn't Slow Down Against Vanderbilt

Kentucky junior forward Keion Brooks Jr. was tabbed the Southeastern Conference's Player of the Week after leading the Wildcats in scoring at 19.5 points per game in a pair of victories last week. He is the fourth different UK player to earn an SEC Weekly honor this season, but this marks the first such accolade of his career.

Brooks was sensational for Kentucky in a career performance on the road at No. 5 Kansas. The Fort Wayne, Indiana, native scored a career-high 27 points and added eight rebounds as UK won 80-62 over the Jayhawks to help the SEC secure a 6-4 win in the Big 12/SEC Challenge.

It marked his second 20-point performance of the season and the 10th double-figure scoring effort of the year for Brooks. His ninth double-digit performance came earlier in the week as he scored 12 points in the overtime win over Mississippi State on Tuesday. Brooks had eight of his 12 points in the second half.

Then, he took things to another level against the Jayhawks.

Brooks scored 15 straight points for UK at one point in the second half as the Wildcats staved off a Kansas rally that got within 14 points, but no closer, in the second half. He made 9 of 10 at the free-throw line, both career highs.

He scored the most points for UK against a top-five Associated Press opponent since Tyrese Maxey had 27 points against No. 3 Louisville on Dec. 28, 2019, in a 78-70 home victory. It was also the most points on the road for a Wildcat against a top-five team since Derrick Miller had 32 on Dec. 9, 1989, at No. 2 Kansas in a 150-95 loss. Finally, the 27 points were the most on the road in a UK victory against a top-five team since Fred Cowan had 27 on Feb. 14, 1980, at No. 5 LSU. Kentucky won 76-74 in overtime.

Brooks and the Wildcats put together one of the most impressive performances of the season in their victory over Kansas. It marked UK's first win over a top-five AP ranked squad since defeating No. 1 Michigan State, 69-62, on Nov. 5, 2019. The last win over a top-five team in a true road game came on Dec. 27, 2014, when the Wildcats won at No. 4 Louisville, 58-50. Kentucky's 18-point victory marked the largest margin of victory in program history on the road against a top-five team and it was just the 16th loss in Allen Fieldhouse for the Jayhawks in 302 games under Bill Self.

Brooks followed his breakout week with a 20-point scoring night in the win over Vanderbilt on Feb. 2. It marked the first back-to-back 20-plus point scoring games of his career.

The Wildcats have now earned eight SEC weekly awards this season. Sahvir Wheeler and Oscar Tshiebwe have each won SEC Player of the Week once and TyTy Washington Jr. has claimed five SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

Kentucky has dominated the weekly SEC awards with John Calipari at the helm. UK has won more weekly SEC honors (118) than any other school during the Calipari era, including 90 SEC Freshman of the Week awards and 28 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Mintz Clutch Gene Resurfaces; Draws Inspiration From Fan

Kentucky's wins last season often featured late-game heroics from Davion Mintz and the clutch gene has been on display in recent wins at Texas A&M and at home vs. Vanderbilt.

On Wednesday, Mintz tied his career high with 21 points against Vanderbilt, including five of the most important of the game.

After a 16-point first-half lead had melted to a precarious 44-43 advantage in the second half, Mintz stepped up with a crucial 3-pointer, beginning an 8-0 run that blunted the visitors' momentum. Mintz bookended the run with two free throws to make the count 52-43 and the Wildcats went on to victory.

Going into the Vanderbilt contest on Feb. 2, Mintz had been in a slump that saw him total just nine points over three games, making only 4 of 19 shots. Following the VU game, he said his 21-point night was fueled by an encounter with a young fan.

"It was right after the Kansas game," Mintz explained. "I was walking out of the locker room and there was this little girl, she was probably a young teenager and she's crying her eyes out as she's walking up to me. She was like, 'I'm so excited to meet you. This is my first time and you're my favorite player. I've been waiting a year.' And I had zero points.

"My heart was kind of heavy because I knew I had been struggling a while. Just to realize that God made me somebody that could make someone else feel special about themself, that just sent me over the top. My parents saw it, my cousin was at the game, he saw it. She couldn't even keep herself together and that meant so much to me that it meant so much to her. That right there is what motivates me, that people can feel so special about themselves and it made me work hard and get in the gym. That's what turned out for today."

Mintz also helped shepherd Kentucky to a key road win in a hostile environment at Texas A&M on January 19.

Playing before the largest crowd in Reed Arena history, despite a season-high 17 turnovers and season-low 36.2 shooting percentage, the Wildcats gutted out a 64-58 win with Mintz leading the way down the stretch.

With UK trailing 48-45 and less than 10 minutes to go, the fifth-year senior warmed to the task. Mintz made two free throws to bring UK closer, and a couple of minutes later, swished a 3-pointer to shove the Wildcats ahead 54-52. After A&M knotted the count, Mintz drove the lane and made a nifty feed for a Jacob Toppin dunk, giving the Wildcats a lead they would not relinquish.

Mintz kept the home team at bay with three defensive rebounds in the waning minutes. With 10 seconds remaining, and UK clinging to a three-point lead, he went to the free throw line. Facing an ocean of white-shirt-clad fans and immersed in a sea of sound, he calmly rattled in the front end of a 1-and-1 to seal the verdict.

"Big rebounds, big rebounds, and that's why I put him back in the game," Coach John Calipari said of Mintz after the game. "I put him back in because I knew he'd do that. But that 3 in the corner out of the timeout, that was big. That kinda put everything on their heels. And I think it had our guys convinced 'oh we can win this.' I'm proud of him and how he's playing, he's doing all the little things."

"Honestly, I was just thinking about my team and my family," Mintz said of the final free throw. "A lot of thoughts were running through my head but I was just breathing and I was like 'Man, I got to do this for my family. I know they're back home, they're watching me and they're depending on me to make this shot'... Immediately as I was stepping up, all I heard was my teammates coming up to me – 'You're built for this, we believe in you' — and I felt like I had a responsibility to make that free throw."

A year ago in his first season at UK, Mintz made multiple clutch 3s late in games, including a go-ahead 3 with 34 seconds left in a win vs. Auburn and the game-winning 3 with 47 seconds left in a home win vs. Vanderbilt.

As the first player in the John Calipari era at Kentucky to return to school after leading the team in scoring the year before, it was natural for some to heap big expectations on the back of Davion Mintz this season.

With an influx of talent and depth, Mintz was faced with a new role in 2021-22 off the bench. When he missed three games at the end of November with an illness and then struggled to make shots after, it would have been easy for Mintz to lose his confidence.

But not this five-year veteran.

Mintz remained steady in his approach, and it has really paid off during a hot stretch in January. Mintz averaged 12.3 during a six-game stretch from December 31 to January 19.

"It had to pay off," Mintz said recently of coming out of an early season funk. "I have been working my tail off every day, every night, getting extra shots. Just working tirelessly. It can't rain forever. The sun has to come out eventually."

Mintz's January spurt was highlighted by a season-high 19 points vs. Georgia, thanks to a season-best five 3-pointers. The game before, at LSU, Mintz scored 16 points to reach the 1,000-point barrier for his career.

Now up to 8.8 points per game with 28 3-pointers this season, the veteran's consistent approach clearly paid dividends.

"Missing the number of games I did miss, it was tough just getting a rhythm back," Mintz said. "I think it was more of a mental thing for me and just getting a groove back. And getting to my spots again. Then honestly, just confidence. Knowing that I'm a shooter, and the team, and coaches don't care how much I miss they just want me to keep shooting."

The Cats are Winning Any Way They Can

Through games of Feb. 2, there were 10 teams in the country that ranked in the top 20 in efficiency in both offensive and defensive rating per KenPom.com. The Wildcats, with the fourth-ranked offense and the 19th-best defense, are among the eight teams.

Gonzaga, Baylor, Houston, Duke, Arizona, Auburn and UCLA are the others.

Following the overtime win over Mississippi State, UK has now won in a variety of ways: double-digit wins, an overtime win, wins dominated by offensive brilliance, and ones where defense has made the most impact.

This season the Wildcats have set a number of records both offensive and defensively:

- Kentucky is the first team ever to defeat both North Carolina and Kansas by at least 18 points in the same season
- UK's 18-point margin of victory at Kansas on Jan. 29 was the largest in school history against a top-five opponent in a true road game
- UK earned an overtime win over Mississippi State on Jan. 25. It marked the fourth straight win in an overtime game for the Wildcats. UK improved to 63-49 in such games
- On Jan. 19, Texas A&M shot 4.5% from 3-point range (1 of 22) which marked UK's best 3-point field-goal percentage defense ever in a game in which the opponent attempted at least 20 3-pointers
- Kentucky's 107 points against Tennessee on Jan. 15 were the most for UK against an AP Top 25 ranked team since scoring 107 against Vanderbilt on Jan. 4, 1994
- It was the most points Tennessee had yielded in 15 years
- Kentucky made 38 of 56 from the floor, 67.9% against the Volunteers. That marked the highest field-goal percentage in any game at UK under John Calipari

- The Wildcats became only the second team in the nation this season to shoot at least 65% and 60% from 3 vs. a Division I opponent when it turned the trick vs. Tennessee. It had only happened six times in SEC play since 1996-97 and only five times vs. a ranked foe since 1996-97
- The Wildcats have scored 90 or more in six games this season, the most since having six such games in 2017-18
- Kentucky held High Point to just 48 points on Dec. 31. It was the fewest points UK has allowed since holding Morehead State to 45 points on Nov. 25, 2020
- With 95 points against Western Kentucky and 98 against North Carolina, Kentucky scored 95 points in consecutive games for the first time since Dec. 29, 2016, and Jan. 3 and 7, 2017, when the Wildcats scored at least 95 against Ole Miss, Texas A&M and Arkansas, respectively

- Kentucky reached the 100-point mark with 100 points in a win over Robert Morris on Nov. 12. It was the first time UK had hit the century mark since scoring 107 vs. UIC on Nov. 26, 2017

Grady is Mr. 2,000

Kellan Grady entered his final season of college basketball having already achieved a lot. He was a 2,000-point scorer and a four-time All-Atlantic 10 recipient and averaged at least 17.0 points per game in every season while at Davidson.

He elected to use his final season of eligibility to challenge himself against the best of the best every day in practice at Kentucky. That challenge was evident early in preseason when Grady was missing open shots and attributed it to the new speed and pace at which his new team was asking him to play.

“It took a couple of weeks to just settle in and be more efficient as a shot maker and as a decision maker,” Grady said in the preseason. "In hindsight, I’m glad I went through two or three weeks of growing pains and having to overcome some adversity and just settling and trusting the process."

Throughout the opening month of the season, Grady was still finding his way. He had just two double-figure scoring efforts in the team's first nine games, including going scoreless against Ohio.

But, after the team's 2-for-19 outing from 3-point range in a loss at Notre Dame, Grady and John Calipari spent a little time together with the head coach demanding more from his most seasoned veteran.

"He and I went to the gym and I worked with him. I took him out at North Carolina," Calipari said. "He passed up on two shots, you're out."

Grady received the message loud and clear.

Over the last 13 games, Grady has made 47 of 101 (46.5%) from long range and is averaging 14.2 points per game.

"I realized quickly in the first half against Carolina that if I'm open, regardless of whether it's 26 on the shot clock or six on the shot clock, I'm supposed to shoot it," Grady said following UK's win over Western Kentucky. "So that was really all I needed to hear. I guess I kind of should have known that already, but it's great to have a coach that believes in you and wants you to shoot."

The coach's confidence was reinforced in Kentucky's overtime win vs. Mississippi State. Despite a difficult shooting night in regulation, Grady scored UK's first eight points of OT, highlighted by a pair of 3-pointers that broke open the game.

"I told him after he missed four wide-open shots, 'You'd better keep shooting it,' because he passed one up," Calipari said. "I've got a lot of confidence in him. He has shown that he can miss some shots and come back and make shots."

For the season, Grady leads the Southeastern Conference and ranks 13th nationally with a 44.2% 3-point clip.

With a season-high-tying 23 points against Western Kentucky, Grady reached 100 career games scoring in double figures. He is one of just four active players with at least 100 double-figure scoring efforts.

Grady's current rate of 43.9% from long range would rank sixth in UK single-season history. Travis Ford has the record with 52.9% (101 of 191) in 1992-93.

Wheeler a Finalist for Bob Cousy Award

The coaching staff challenged Sahvir Wheeler before the season to lead the nation in assists. So far, he's risen to the occasion, and his ability to both distribute and score has led to him being named a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award.

Through games on Feb. 2, the Georgia transfer ranks third in the country with 7.0 assists per game. He has dished out double-digit assists three times this season -- including a career-high 14 in the win vs. North Florida -- at least eight assists 10 times, and at least six assists in 15 games.

Wheeler's ability to get the entire team involved is shown by the fact that UK has five players averaging double-figure scoring. The only team in the Calipari era to finish the season with five players averaging double figures was the 2012 national champion team.

Wheeler is one of just 10 players on the Cousy finalist list. In addition to his assists, he is also a scoring threat by averaging 10.5 points per game.

"He's running it down your throat," Robert Morris head coach Andrew Toole said of the pressure Wheeler puts on defenses. "The way that he pushes the ball down the floor just encourages all those other guys to run so hard because he's so unselfish and he's able to get them shots early in the offense. ... He has such a good understanding of the pace, so as soon as there isn't anything there, he's able to organize and get into whatever action they're trying to execute. There were times in the game that even after a made basket where our guys were sprinting back as fast as they can just trying to keep up. It just adds an incredible amount of pressure to your transition defense. There's not many guys that can do what he does."

Wheeler led the Southeastern Conference in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio last season at Georgia. His 193 assists in 2020-21 broke Georgia's previous single-season assists record by 24 dimes despite a shortened season.

Wheeler's current rate of 7.05 assists per game is a shade ahead Tyler Ulis' 7.03 average when he set the UK single-season assists record in 2015-16 with 246 dimes. He entered the season ranked sixth among all returners nationally in career assists per game.

It might surprise some to learn that the guy most responsible for setting up his teammates to score also is one of four Wildcats who have scored at least 25 points in a game this season. That would be a sensational 26-point performance vs. North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic.

Just a week removed from going 0 for 5 at Notre Dame, a game in which the Fighting Irish backed off Wheeler and dared him to shoot, Wheeler bounced back with a 12-for-15 shooting night vs. the Tar Heels. Even when UNC tried to back off, Wheeler continued to drive the ball, probe the defense and eventually get to the rim. His 26 points were one off a career high.

Adding eight assists and a season-high four steals, Wheeler -- according to BigBlueHistory.net -- became the first player in school history post at least 26 points, at least eight assists and at least four steals in the same game.

Calipari was more impressed with Wheeler's leadership than any sort of response Wheeler made after the Notre Dame game.

"Lead us," Calipari said he told Wheeler. "If you're playing great, lead us and get everybody involved. If you're not making shots or you're a little confused, lead us. Lead. That's what he did."

Wheeler played just four minutes at LSU on January 4 and missed the next two games with a neck injury, but has bounced back to average 12.5 points over the six games since his return.

Washington a Finalist for West Award

With all the star-studded freshmen who have walked through the doors at Kentucky under John Calipari's direction, TyTy Washington Jr. is having one of the best seasons of all of them.

Washington is averaging 12.8 points, 4.2 assists and 3.8 rebounds per game, while shooting 48.7% from the field and 35.9% from 3-point range. The number of freshmen in the country averaging at least 12.0 points, at least 4.0 assists and at least 3.0 rebounds while shooting at 48% or better and 35% or better from the 3: just one, Washington. The total nationally regardless of class: seven.

NOTES

Even in that rare company and even after entering college as a consensus five-star prospect, Washington had slipped under the radar nationally for much of the season until recently. His quiet efficiency has earned a nickname with his head coach.

"He's like the silent assassin," John Calipari said. "Quietly, he tiptoes in and gets 15 points and nine assists."

Playing for a nationally ranked team, one can go unnoticed for only so long. The national attention is beginning to occur as Washington has been named a finalist for the Jerry West Award that goes to the nation's best shooting guard.

Washington is one of 10 finalists for the honor, the only SEC player and the only first-year player among the finalists.

Washington has a savviness to his game that is veteran-like. He can score with the best of them and has four 20-point games. He has posted double-doubles this season in both points and rebounds and points and assists, first Wildcat to do so since Ashton Hagans in the 2019-20 season.

When called upon to take the lead role as point guard, he goes and breaks a school record held by UK's first-ever No. 1 overall pick in the NBA Draft.

With starting point guard Sahvir Wheeler out vs. Georgia with a neck injury, Washington made his first start at point guard and put on a show. He scored 17 points and broke John Wall's single-game school record with 17 assists. Wall had 16 against Hartford on Dec. 29, 2009.

"I mean, John Wall, I watched him play, I watched a bunch of his highlights at Kentucky, I watched him in the NBA a lot,'' Washington said. ''For me to go out there and break the record is exciting because a lot of other great point guards came here as well. I could be the one who said, 'You know, I went to Kentucky, I set the record.' "

The next game, again without Wheeler, Washington posted 15 points and four assists in a dominating win at Vanderbilt.

Washington has moved into first in the Southeastern Conference and 29th nationally with a 2.59 assist-to-turnover ratio, through games on Feb. 2. He also is now sixth in the league and 102nd overall with 4.2 assists per game.

Washington has been able to provide a little bit of everything to the Wildcats this season. He has hit multiple 3-pointers in eight games and dished out at least three assists in 14 games.

"He is a play-making guard," Calipari said after the Georgia game. "Whether he is bringing it up or whether he is away from the ball, he is still a play-making guard who can shoot."

Washington's game has been recognized inside the league as he has reeled in five SEC Freshman of the Week honors. He is the first player in the SEC to win or share the honor in four straight weeks since former UK player Devin Booker won the freshman weekly award four straight times in the 2014-15 season. Coincidentally, that is also the last time a player in the league won SEC Freshman of the Week five times in one season, which Washington has now tied.

The Wildcats have been at their best when Washington is playing well. In Kentucky's 17 victories in which he has played (missing one because of injury), he is averaging 14.4 points per game. Washington is shooting 52.1% from the field and 38.6% from behind the arc in victories. He has scored in double figures in 13 of the 17 wins in which he has played, along with nine points in the dominating victory over North Carolina and eight in the win at Texas A&M. In the 17 victories, Washington is also second on the team in assists per game (4.4) and third in rebounds per game (4.2).

In the four losses, Washington's averages dip down to 6.0 points and 2.0 rebounds per game, giving credence to the notion that as Washington goes, so does Kentucky.

The loss at Auburn proved the most significant for the Wildcats when they are without Washington. UK's dynamic freshman left the game having only played nine minutes with a left ankle injury. Kentucky was leading the game 25-16 and had led by as many as 10 in the opening half before Washington's departure. Auburn rallied to win, 80-71.

“TyTy is a playmaker for us, another scorer. He’s our second-leading scorer. So in a big game like this, you take away 14 points per game, it’s as simple as that,” Fifth-year guard Kellan Grady said. “We’ve got other guys who are able to step up, but he made some nice plays in just those nine minutes that he was in there, and I think that could’ve helped us. But even with me mentioning that, that’s not an excuse."

Injury Bug Biting the Cats

The Wildcats have battled injuries and illnesses all season. This does not include CJ Fredrick who is expected to miss the entire season with a hamstring injury.

Kentucky has played 11 games at full strength this season.

Keion Brooks Jr.: Missed the North Florida game with an illness
Davion Mintz: Missed the Albany, North Florida and Central Michigan games with an illness
Jacob Toppin: Missed the Robert Morris, Mount St. Mary's, Ohio and Albany games with a shoulder injury
TyTy Washington Jr.: Played nine minutes at Auburn, missed the Mississippi State game with an ankle injury
Lance Ware: Missed the Mount St. Mary's, Ohio and Albany games with an ankle injury
Sahvir Wheeler: Played four minutes at LSU, missed the Georgia and at Vanderbilt games with a neck injury

Milestones Approaching Worth Watching

Several Wildcats are approaching career milestones:

- Kellan Grady needs 53 more 3-pointers to become UK's single-season leader. Jodie Meeks (117) in 2008-09 holds the record
- Sahvir Wheeler needs 27 more assists for 500 in his career
- Wheeler needs 106 assists to become the UK single-season leader. Tyler Ulis (246) in 2015-16 is in first place in the record books
- Wheeler is five steals shy of 100 for a career
- Oscar Tshiebwe needs 66 more rebounds to become the seventh player in program history to have at least 400 in a single season

Cleaning the Glass

With the aforementioned Oscar Tshiebwe leading the nation in rebounding, Kentucky is one of the top teams in the country on the boards.

Through games on Feb. 2, Kentucky is first in the country in rebounding margin (plus-11.9 per game), ninth in total rebounds per game (41.1) and 17th in offensive boards per game (13.1). For comparison, the best rebounding margin of the John Calipari era was plus-9.4 in 2013-14 and again in 2018-19.

The Wildcats are 17-1 this season when winning the rebounding. UK has been at least plus-11 in 14 of the 17 victories.

Against Ohio, Kentucky outrebounded the Bobcats by 36, the top rebounding margin of the Calipari era and the school's best since the Wildcats outrebounded Vanderbilt by 39 (57-18) on Jan. 3, 1998, in a 71-62 win. Perhaps more impressive was the plus-18 advantage vs. a bigger, taller North Carolina team that entered its matchup with Kentucky on Dec. 18 ranked 13th in the country in rebounding margin.

With Tshiebwe's 19.6% offensive rebounding percentage, UK is fourth in the country in offensive rebounding percentage (38.1%) through games on Feb. 2, according to KenPom. The Wildcats have capitalized with the additional opportunities with 14.1 second-chance points per game.

Better Than All the Rest

A number of Wildcats are league leaders in statistical categories and rank among the nation's best (through games on Feb. 2):

- Oscar Tshiebwe is first in the country in rebounds per game (15.2)
- Tshiebwe is first in the nation in offensive rebounds per game (5.1)
- Tshiebwe is first in the country in defensive rebound percentage (37.1%) and second in offensive rebound percentage (19.6%) according to KenPom.com
- Tshiebwe is first in the Southeastern Conference and second in the nation in defensive rebounds per game (10.1)
- Tshiebwe is first in the league and third in the country in double-doubles (16)
- Tshiebwe leads the SEC in field-goal percentage (61.0%) and ranks 13th in the nation in the category
- Tshiebwe ranks fourth in the league and 92nd overall in blocks per game (1.45)
- Tshiebwe is fifth in the league and 134th nationally with 16.1 points per game
- Sahvir Wheeler leads the SEC and ranks third in the country in assists per game (7.0)

Sharpe Joins the Team

Shaedon Sharpe, originally a part of the 2022 signing class and the consensus No. 1 player in the 2022 class, has enrolled early at the University of Kentucky and is on campus.

Sharpe arrived the first week of January and is practicing with the team. His playing status for the remainder of the 2021-22 season has not been determined at this time.

"We will bring him along slow," John Calipari said in early January. "I want him in practice. I want to see him fly up and down the court and play that way and have that mentality. It takes time to teach it. I want to see if he can make shots when he's playing that fast and all that stuff. But he's not ready to be playing in games yet."

Calipari went a step further and said there isn't a plan in place for Sharpe to make his debut.

"I just wish we had a bunch of practice time where I had two weeks with him to where we could run three or four different things — and him defensively play because he's a terrific player. But I have told his parents that I'm not going to put him in a position where he hurts himself. I'm not," Calipari said following the game at Auburn. "We're going to do this, the process of this, (and) if he ends up playing this year because he's capable of doing it and he can play, we'll play him. But I'm not just shoving him in so we can win another game or stay close. I'm not going to do that."

Sharpe will wear No. 21 this season. The London, Ontario, native measured in at 6-foot-6, 200 pounds upon arrival on campus.

Sharpe averaged 22.6 points, 5.8 rebounds, and 2.7 assists in the 2021 Nike Elite Youth Basketball League this past summer. If the rankings hold and Sharpe remains in the 2022 class, he would be the first consensus No. 1 prospect to sign with Kentucky since Nerlens Noel in 2012.

Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,027-295 mark (77.7%) in regular-season conference play. Only Alabama has won more than 800 regular-season SEC games and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 88 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 49 SEC regular-season titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 29 SEC Tournaments (the 2020 one was not played due to the Covid-19 pandemic)
- UK has captured at least a share of six of the last 12 SEC regular-season championships under John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari's 12 seasons, winning six times
- UK won its 1,000th game in SEC regular-season action vs. Alabama on Jan. 11, 2020. Kansas has won 1,000 conference games when combining its records in the Big 6, Big 7, Big 8 and Big 12, but no other team in the country had won 1,000 or more regular-season league games in one conference alone
- Six teams made the 2021 NCAA Tournament field with Arkansas reaching the Elite Eight and Alabama making the Sweet Sixteen
- The SEC has had 21 NCAA Tournament selections over the last three tournaments, tied for the second most. Only the Atlantic Coast Conference (23) has had more
- The SEC went 7-6 in NCAA Tournament games in 2021. SEC teams are 73-43 (62.9%) in the NCAA tourney since 2012
- The league has advanced at least one team to the Elite Eight in nine of the last 11 tournaments and nine different SEC teams have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the last four NCAA Tournaments
- The SEC has held its own in the annual Big 12/SEC Challenge. The SEC leads 25-24 over the last five seasons in the yearly January showdown and won outright in 2021
- Four SEC teams are in the Jan. 31 Associated Press Top 25, with two more receiving votes
- Seven SEC teams are ranked in the top 50 of the Jan. 31 NCAA Evaluation Tool rankings, five are in the top 25 and four are in the top 15

Cats Don't Count on the 3

Kentucky has never been reliant on the 3 under John Calipari. Even with more shooters at their disposal, this season is not an exception.

So far UK is generating 24.0% of its points from beyond the arc, which is ranked 335th in the country (through games of Feb. 2), and 29.0% of its attempts are from long range.

Kentucky's perimeter shooting is led by Kellan Grady, who has sunk 65 of 147 for a 44.2% clip thus far, the best mark in the Southeastern Conference and 13th nationally through games on Feb. 2. Davion Mintz and TyTy Washington Jr. have 28 and 23 respectively. As a team, the Wildcats are connecting at a respectable 35.3% rate, tops in the SEC.

UK was expecting to add the nation's top 3-point shooter over the last two seasons (percentage with a minimum of 150 attempts) in Iowa transfer CJ Fredrick, but he is likely to miss the 2021-22 season after undergoing surgery to repair a left hamstring injury.

Even without Fredrick, this team has been capable of sinking the 3-point shot and shown signs of being able to make them in a flurry. The Wildcats made 52.2% against Robert Morris with 12 makes and made 17 of 35 (48.6%) vs. North Carolina and Western Kentucky. The Cats canned 11 of 18, a season-high 61.1 percent, vs. Tennessee.

If you have followed Calipari's teams over the years, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has generally bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited for that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter. That team is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky. The most attempts per game in the Calipari era was the 2016-17 squad that took 19.89 3-point shots per game.

Not relying on the 3 certainly hasn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-3 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range.

Transfer of Power

Kentucky has dominated the recruiting scene under John Calipari, ranking in the top three of every major national recruiting ranking until this past class.

UK's 2021 freshman haul is once again very good, but Calipari and his staff went a different route in restocking the roster for 2021-22: transfers.

With student-athletes in basketball now granted a one-time waiver to transfer without penalty, UK picked up three transfers in the offseason in Kellan Grady (graduate transfer), a

NOTES

2,000-point scorer from Davidson, Sahvir Wheeler, Georgia's single-season assists leader, and Iowa's CJ Fredrick, the Big Ten's top 3-point shooter over the last two seasons.

But those are just half of the transfers on the roster. Former All-Big 12 performer Oscar Tshiebwe transferred from West Virginia in the middle of last season and Kentucky returners Davion Mintz (Creighton) and Jacob Toppin (Rhode Island) changed schools before the 2020-21 season. Mintz was Kentucky's leading scorer last season and Toppin played major minutes.

UK's six transfers are its most on a roster in school history.

Taking out Mintz and Toppin, who had already played minutes at Kentucky prior to the 2021-22 season, UK's four newest transfers (Fredrick, Grady, Tshiebwe and Wheeler) combined for 3,538 points at their previous stops. That's the seventh-biggest haul in the 2021-22 transfer class in the country.

Their production additions are significant nationally. Grady, with 2,002 career points, entered the season with the second-most points in college basketball on an active roster (only Antoine Davis from Detroit-Mercy, with 2,040, had more). Fredrick had the top 3-point percentage in the country among all players with at least 150 3-point attempts starting the 2021-22 year. And Wheeler ranked sixth among returners nationally with 5.82 assists per game.

The transfers have made a big impact thus far. Through games of Feb. 2, Tshiebwe led the country in rebounding with 15.2 boards per game and paces the Wildcats in scoring with 16.1 points per game; Wheeler was third in the nation in assists with 7.0 dimes per contest; Grady is averaging 12.0 points per game and shooting 44.2% from long range, which ranked 13th in the country; Mintz is averaging 8.8 points per game this season; and Toppin's versatility and athleticism have added a great spark off the bench.

Unfortunately, the Wildcats likely will be without Frederick for the remainder of the season after undergoing surgery for a right hamstring injury.

The Rookies are Still Good

Although the influx of transfers has stolen the headlines of this Kentucky team, don't overlook the freshmen. Just like every John Calipari team at Kentucky, this freshman class is loaded, albeit a bit smaller in terms of total numbers.

UK's three freshmen were all consensus four- or five-star prospects and all were consensus top-50 signees and have all played a key role in the first half of the season.

Forward Daimion Collins, a 6-foot-9 pogo stick who has drawn comparisons to Isaiah Jackson -- a first-round pick in the 2021 NBA Draft -- was ranked as high as No. 13 by 247Sports. He has shown his potential with three games of eight or more points and three games with three or more blocks.

Guard TyTy Washington Jr. rose up the rankings late in the spring cycle and was tabbed the No. 14 overall player in the class by Rivals and ESPN. Averaging 12.8 points, 4.2 assists and 3.8 rebounds per game, he is playing like one of the best freshmen in the country and is a finalist for the Jerry West Award as the nation's best shooting guard. He also set a UK single-game record with 17 assists in the win over Georgia as he primarily played point guard filling in for the injured Sahvir Wheeler, and in the first game following Wheeler's return, exploded for a career-high 28 points in a win over Tennessee.

And forward Bryce Hopkins, ranked as high as No. 33 by ESPN, drew rave reviews from Calipari in the preseason for his skill level and toughness. In his first extended opportunity vs. Ohio, Hopkins stepped up with Kentucky's front court in foul trouble and contributed seven points and seven rebounds in 16 minutes. He scored seven points in eight minutes vs. North Florida.

Of course, none of that factors in midseason enrollee Shaedon Sharpe, who was the No. 1 overall player in the class of 2022. Sharpe decided to enroll at Kentucky in January. His playing status for the remainder of the 2021-22 season has not been determined at this time.

The NBA has declared Sharpe eligible for the 2022 draft, although Calipari has stated that Sharpe still intends to be at UK in the 2022-23 season.

The class ranked outside the top three in the major recruiting services for the first time in the Calipari era but only because of the smaller class size. Don't expect it to be the trend as UK is already in the hunt for the top class in 2022.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 303-13 (95.9%) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

Ten of the 13 losses in the Calipari era are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 69.6% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 84.9% of Calipari's 357 career wins at Kentucky.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. Kentucky is a perfect 82-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 3-0 this season.

The Wildcats are 199-9 (95.7%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less, including 11-0 this season.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 218-24 (90.1%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percentage is 40% or less. Kentucky is 9-0 this season when limiting an opponent to 40% or less.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 66-41 record (62.9%) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 88-61, including a 57-33 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-20 record, including 16-13 at UK.

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the 2019-20 season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU to begin 2019-20, the Wildcats have nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries in program history.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 66-41 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 291-56 vs. unranked competition, 83.9%.

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season has been no different.

During the nonconference schedule, UK has played the likes of Duke in New York in the Champions Classic, at Notre Dame, a matchup vs. North Carolina in Las Vegas in the CBS Sports Classic and at Kansas in the Big 12/SEC Challenge.

League play has made the schedule even tougher. UK is playing its permanent home-and-away opponents of Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt twice, plus hosting and visiting Alabama and LSU. The Wildcats will face the remaining eight SEC opponents once. The league has earned 21 berths in the last three NCAA Tournaments, tied for the second most in college basketball in that time period.

Five Kentucky opponents are ranked in the Jan. 31 Associated Press Top 25. Nonconference opponents in Duke (9th) and Kansas (10th) are among the ranked teams.

In addition to the Wildcats, the other SEC programs ranking among the top 25 include Auburn (1), Tennessee (22) and LSU (25). Alabama, Arkansas and Notre Dame are receiving votes.

Kentucky has already played five foes who were ranked at the time of the game -- Duke, LSU, Tennessee, Auburn and Kansas. The Wildcats are slated for three additional matchups vs. currently ranked foes.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky is 21-3 against in-state foes with John Calipari at the helm, including an 11-3 mark vs. Louisville.

Two of the victories over the Cardinals were during postseason play. The Wildcats have won all six meetings played inside Rupp Arena, including a 29-point win in 2017-18, the third-largest margin of victory in the history of the series. UofL's three wins are by a combined nine points.

Here is a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs in the Calipari era:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at the KFC Yum! Center

One of the Most Experienced Squads in School History

This Kentucky team isn't just experienced by the standards of the usually green John Calipari era, it's historically experienced.

This group, stocked with transfers who played major minutes at other schools, key returners and only three freshmen, started the season with 13,385 total minutes at the NCAA Division I level. That is more than any team in the history of Kentucky basketball entering a season (minutes statistics available through the 1964-65 season).

Other metrics back up the experience. This team also returned 5,203 career points at the NCAA Division I level, the second most in school history. Only the 1995-96 national title team -- hailed as one of the greatest college basketball teams of all-time -- returned more with 5,232 points (that team, like 2021-22, was aided by transfers with Derek Anderson and Mark Pope).

The 2021-22 squad had played in 541 Division I games entering the season, the most by a Kentucky team since the 2002-03 group returned 559 games to its roster.

This team is also rather long in the tooth. Using strictly years, the 2021-22 team averaged 20.7 years in age as of Nov. 1, 2021. The 2019-20 group had an average age of 19.5 years old. The 2021-22 mark is among the top 25 oldest teams in the country. If one factors in a player's down-to-the-day age (in other words, their age number plus days), this team's average age is actually 21.2 years old, as of Nov. 1, 2021.

It should be noted with all the experience boosts that college basketball is collectively older with the NCAA's COVID-19 additional season of eligibility. Davion Mintz and Kellan Grady are using an extra season for Kentucky. And Kentucky's experience does take a hit with the likely season-ending loss of redshirt junior CJ Fredrick (hamstring).

Factoring in the midseason addition of Shaedon Sharpe, UK's roster features a sixth-year graduate, a fifth-year graduate, two redshirt juniors, five juniors, a redshirt sophomore, two sophomores, and four highly touted four- and five-star freshmen. Nine of the 16 players are juniors or above.

It is true that not all experience is equal. Experience in college basketball is not the same as experience at Kentucky.

But even by those standards, this is one of Calipari's most veteran groups. From just a UK returners standpoint, Calipari's squad returned 42.1% of its minutes, 41.9% of its scoring, 39.0% of the rebounds, 42.4% of the assists and 60.6% of the 3-pointers from a season ago. For comparison, the only two Calipari-coached Kentucky teams that returned more UK minutes and more points (in terms of percentages) than the 2021-22 team returns were the 2011-12 national championship squad and the 2014-15 Final Four team that started the season 38-0.

Mintz is the first Wildcat to return to school after leading the team in scoring average the previous season since Randolph Morris led the 2005-06 squad and came back to Kentucky for the 2006-07 season.

How big of a change is the returning experience for Calipari? All but one of his previous 12 teams at UK ranked in the bottom 20 nationally in Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings, including two teams that were dead last.

Despite that experience, the Wildcats only rank 208th in the country, according to KenPom.com, in terms of experience this season, through games on Feb 2.

"When you have veterans, they're on time," Calipari said. "Without even saying anything, they lead. That's been fun. I haven't had many teams with veteran kind of players on it, so I kind of forget that it takes one thing off your plate."

Tshiebwe Wins National Honors After 28-Rebound Performance

Oscar Tshiebwe's historic rebounding performance vs. Western Kentucky earned the junior forward Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association on Dec. 28.

Tshiebwe is the seventh UK player to win the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week award since its inception during the 2009-10 season. He is the first since Nick Richards claimed the honor on Dec. 31, 2019. Other UK honorees include PJ Washington (2018-19), Kevin Knox (2017-18), Malik Monk (2016-17), Julius Randle (2013-14) and Doron Lamb (2010-11). Anthony Davis won the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Year honor in 2012.

Tshiebwe was also named NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week on Dec. 27 after one of the all-time greatest rebounding performances in school history. The West Virginia transfer set a Rupp Arena record with 28 rebounds, breaking the previous mark of 21 set by Shaquille O'Neal (Feb. 15, 1990).

It tied for the sixth-most rebounds in UK history and the most in more than 45 years, when Mike Phillips corralled 28 caroms in an overtime game vs. Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1976. The 28 rebounds were also the most for a Wildcat in a regulation-length game in more than 52 years, when Dan Issel grabbed 29 rebounds vs. LSU on Feb. 22, 1969.

According to STATS, Tshiebwe's 28 rebounds are the most in Division I college basketball since Kendall Gray from Delaware State recorded 30 at Coppin State on March 5, 2015, and it tied for the fourth-most rebounds in Division I college basketball dating back to the 1996-97 season. Tshiebwe had more rebounds than Western Kentucky's entire team (27). He also added 14 points to notch his ninth double-double of 2021-22.

The Oscar Robertson Player of the Week honor culminates with the Oscar Robertson Trophy, awarded to the national player of the Year by the USBWA at the end of the season. It bears the name and image of Cincinnati Hall of Famer and two-time USBWA Player of the Year Oscar Robertson. It is the nation's oldest player of the year award and the only one named after a former player. Robertson was the first NBA player to average a triple-double, was an NBA champion (1971) and NBA MVP (1964) and was a two-time USBWA College Player of the Year selection (1959, 1960).

UK Leads With 27 on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The tipoff to the 2021-22 NBA season featured 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive players) who played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky, more than any other college program in the country. Duke, with 21, was the only other school with more than 20 players in the NBA.

With call-ups throughout the season, the number has ballooned to 32 players who have appeared on an NBA roster in 2021-22.

Of the 30 NBA franchises featuring a Wildcat to start the season, 17 had multiple UK players to open the season.

Arguably the two most visible and storied NBA franchises, the New York Knicks and the Los Angeles Lakers, started the season with the most.

The Knicks – nicknamed the Kentucky Knicks by much of Big Blue Nation for UK's significant roster presence – began the season as the leader in NBA Wildcats with four. Former Kentucky stars Kevin Knox II (2018), Nerlens Noel (2013), Immanuel Quickley (2019-20) and Julius Randle (2014) called New York their professional home at the start of the season. A fifth player, Derrick Rose, also played for John Calipari but at Memphis (2008), and assistant coach Kenny Payne was a longtime UK assistant. All played prominent roles in the Knicks' run to the NBA Playoffs last season.

The Lakers were just behind the Knicks with three former Kentucky players in Anthony Davis (2012), Malik Monk (2017) and Rajon Rondo (2005-06) to start the season. Davis and Rondo won NBA titles with the Lakers in 2020. Adding to the UK ties, is head coach Frank Vogel who is a Kentucky graduate and former Wildcat student manager and video coordinator.

Five other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Nick Richards [2018-20], PJ Washington [2018-19]), the Detroit Pistons (Hamidou Diallo [2017-18], Trey Lyles [2015]), the Los Angeles Clippers (Eric Bledsoe [2010], Brandon Boston Jr. [2021], the Miami Heat (Bam Adebayo [2017], Tyler Herro [2019]) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Karl-Anthony Towns [2015], Jarred Vanderbilt [2018]) – opened the season with at least two Wildcats apiece.

Rondo, now in his 16th season, remains the most experienced Kentucky player in the league. Boston Jr. and Isaiah Jackson (2021) are the youngest-tenured NBA Wildcats as rookies.

Of the 27 Wildcats on opening-day NBA rosters, John Calipari coached 26 of them. With Rose, a former Calipari player at Memphis, Calipari also coached 27 players on 2021-22 opening-day rosters.

More than 20 other Wildcats are slated to play in the NBA G League or play professionally overseas. Other notable alumni include, 1978 national champion Dwane Casey, who returns as head coach of the Detroit Pistons, and Pat Riley continues to serve as president of the Heat.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the 12 previous seasons of the Calipari era, 43 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 32 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Davis, Towns and John Wall [2010]) and 21 lottery selections.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 26 All-Star selections – all since 2010 – with Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, Towns, Randle and DeMarcus Cousins), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Towns and Tyreke Evans), and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. UK has produced more All-NBA players, more NBA All-Rookie and more NBA All-Defensive players than any other school in the Calipari era.

The 2020-21 season was another successful one for the former Kentucky stars. Randle was named the 2021 NBA Most Improved Player while Devin Booker (2015) achieved superstar status with a sensational run to the NBA Finals. Following the season, Adebayo, Booker and Keldon Johnson (2019) won gold medals with the U.S. Olympic Team at the Summer Games.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) have amassed nearly $3.4 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 12 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $3 billion in NBA contracts.

In the 2021-22 season alone, former UK players are slated to make nearly $340 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) will make about the same.

Calipari produced a top-10 pick in 11 straight drafts prior to 2020, a feat no other coach has ever accomplished. He has a streak of 14 consecutive drafts with a first-round pick. Calipari is the only coach in the history of the sport to have four players drafted No. 1 overall (Rose – 2008, Wall – 2010, Davis – 2012, Towns – 2015).

A breakdown of the Wildcats in the NBA can be found later in the notes.

Orlando "Tubby" Smith Forever in Rupp Arena Rafters

Orlando "Tubby" Smith, who coached the University of Kentucky men's basketball program to the 1998 national championship and several Southeastern Conference titles, had a jersey retired in his honor before UK's game vs. Smith's current squad, High Point, on Dec. 31.

Smith was head coach of the Wildcats for 10 years, from the 1997-98 season through the 2006-07 campaign. His first team became known as the "Comeback Cats" after the Wildcats erased multiple double-digit deficits en route to a 35-4 record and UK's seventh national title.

Trailing Duke by 17 points, with less than 10 minutes to play in the South Regional final, the Wildcats stormed back to win 86-84. Down by 10 against Stanford in the second half of the NCAA semifinal, the Cats clawed back to force overtime and an eventual 86-85 victory. And, it wouldn't have been fitting if UK hadn't trailed Utah by 10 points at halftime of the title tilt, again rallying to take the trophy by a score of 78-69.

During his 10 seasons, Smith coached the Wildcats to at least 22 victories each season, totaling a 263-83 record (76.0%). His teams won five regular-season SEC championships and five SEC Tournament crowns, featuring a league title (regular season or tournament) in seven of his 10 years at UK. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all 10 seasons, including six trips to the Sweet Sixteen, and had a 23-9 record (71.9%) in the national playoffs.

Smith was three-time National Coach of the Year (1998, 2003, 2005) as well as a three-time SEC Coach of the Year selection while at UK. He also spent two seasons at UK as an assistant coach, 1989-90 and 1990-91, helping rebuild the program and achieving a 22-6 record and SEC-best 14-4 league mark during the 1991 campaign.

"The biggest thing is I want he and his wife and the kids to understand that this place, these fans, this school, this state, absolutely appreciates what he did while he coached here," John Calipari said.

During his outstanding career, Smith also was head coach at Tulsa, Georgia, Minnesota, Texas Tech and Memphis before his current post at his alma mater.

Smith is the 44th retired jersey to hang in the rafters of Rupp Arena, including fellow national championship coaches Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall and Rick Pitino.

Smith was elected by the Retired Jersey Subcommittee of the UK Athletics Hall of Fame Committee. The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. There is a five-year waiting period, after leaving UK, to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. Hall of Famers are eligible for jersey retirement five years after they have been elected to the Hall of Fame.

"Kentucky United" Relief Efforts Raise Millions

In immediate response to the devastating tornadoes that tore through Western Kentucky on Dec. 10 and 11, the University of Kentucky athletic department, along with JMI Sports and WLEX-TV, produced a "Kentucky United for Tornado Relief" telethon that helped generate more than $3 million (with matching funds) to assist victims of the storms.

With an online portal that remained open through the rest of December and with a $100,000 donation from proceeds, the tabulation reached more than $5 million.

One hundred percent of the proceeds will go to the American Red Cross to aid in the relief efforts in Kentucky and to benefit the victims of the catastrophic event.

Every head coach who was in Lexington during the broadcast of the telethon volunteered his or her time. The coaches teamed with UK student-athletes, who took time off during exam week to handle the multitude of telephone calls.

In addition to Calipari and his wife, Ellen, contributing to the cause, several former players also provided support, including Bam Adebayo (2017), Eric Bledsoe (2010), Devin Booker (2015), Willie Cauley-Stein (2013-15), DeMarcus Cousins (2010), Enes Freedom (2011), Tyrese Maxey (2020), Malik Monk (2017), Jamal Murray (2016), Julius Randle (2014), Karl-Anthony Towns (2015) and John Wall (2010).

Spearheaded by Calipari, UK has held three previous telethons to assist with natural disasters. In 2010, Kentucky and Calipari used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. UK followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that generated $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and again in 2017 following Hurricane Harvey that devastated the city of Houston. Calipari also helped raise funds for West Liberty, Kentucky, after tornadoes ravaged the town in 2012.

In addition to the telethon, Calipari, UK Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart, and former players Jack "Goose" Givens and Darius Miller joined Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear and Lt. Gov. Jacqueline Coleman in Western Kentucky on Dec. 19 to hand out shoes to Kentucky residents displaced by the devastating tornadoes. The shoes were provided by Samaritan's Feet, an organization that provides shoes in need. Samaritan's Feet CEO Manny Ohonme also made the trip to deliver the shoes.

Approximately 5,000 pairs of shoes were on site for the two stops at Lake Barkley and Pennyrile state parks with another 5,000 expected to arrive soon after.

Beshear said on Dec. 19 that 944 people were being house by the state after their homes were affected by the tornadoes. Nearly all seven state parks were at capacity as of that Friday.

"The damage in the area is obvious and devastating, but buildings can be rebuilt," Calipari said of the visit. "Our focus right now is on the people in that area and the enormous toll this has take on them. How can we lift spirits and let people know we care for them and are there for them."

Wildcats Sign Four During Fall Signing Period

Even by John Calipari era standards, Kentucky 2022 signing class is shaping up to be one of the best in school history.

Skyy Clark, Chris Livingston, Shaedon Sharpe and Cason Wallace – all four consensus five-star prospects in the class of 2022 – signed national letters of intent with UK.

Sharpe enrolled at Kentucky for the 2022 spring semester and is now a part of the 2021-22 roster. Clarke, Livingston and Wallace will join the program for the 2022-23 season.

“I am really excited about this group,” John Calipari said. “When you watch these guys play, the talent and upside is obvious, but what stands out to me about all four of them is how much they want this and want to be here. Their mentality and their drive separate them from their peers. They all wanted to play with one another and wanted the challenge of competing against the best every day. Big Blue Nation, I can’t wait for you to meet this group and watch them play.”

With the spring signing period still to go, UK is going to be in the mix for one of the top classes in the nation yet again. Rivals and 247Sports currently rank it as the top haul of the fall with four signees.

In every season but one of the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking. With the fall additions, Kentucky has signed 66 top-50 recruits, 52 top-25 players and 29 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 14 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

The spring signing period begins April 13. UK can only comment on prospects who have signed official paperwork with the university.

Kentucky, Southern United For Unity Series

Kentucky's meeting with Southern was about more than just basketball.

The Dec. 7 matchup marked the first in five consecutive seasons of matchups between UK and institutions from the Southwestern Athletic Conference, which is made up of historically black colleges and universities. The annual series is called the Unity Series. The games will seek to raise awareness of the missions of the HBCUs and to raise funds to provide opportunities for students at their institutions.

This year's programming featured several events to provide educational opportunities for the teams and students at the two institutions, networking and community engagement.

The week began with a joint trip the National Underground Railroad Freedom Museum in Cincinnati on Dec. 5. Players, coaches and staff from both UK and Southern met at the Freedom Museum and received a guided tour. The museum was established in 2004 to reveal stories of freedom's heroes – from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times – and to challenge and inspire people to take courageous steps for freedom.

On the day before the game, the UK Healthcare John Calipari Show featured Southern head coach and UK Athletics Hall of Famer Sean Woods alongside Calipari. While the show was on the air, the Wildcats and Jaguars enjoyed a team meal together at Malone's.

Prior to the radio show, TJ Beisner, UK men's basketball's director of player development, met with the Southern players to outline trends regarding Name, Image and Likeness and provided coaching on personal branding and development.

"The way this world is right now, we need all to find a way to help one another," Woods said. "I think that's what this whole deal was all about. I'm just so thankful that Cal gave me the call first to do this because it was totally awesome."

At the game, 150 tickets were provided to three Lexington elementary schools identified by UK's Diversity Advocacy Council, who distributed them to students who are excelling in their classroom and school community.

Prior to the game, minority students currently enrolled at UK had the opportunity to meet with UK Athletics employees and gain foundational knowledge about the athletics department, the structure, its different units, and background information on the skill sets and personalities that might fit into those different areas. It was an opportunity for students to network with athletics department staff and learn more about the internship opportunities they may be interested in applying for in the future.

Later, the Unity Series will bring together faculty from the University of Kentucky's Sport Leadership Graduate Program and leaders from the Southern University and UK athletics departments for a virtual panel for all UK and SWAC undergraduate students interested in careers in college and professional athletics. The panel will discuss trends, hiring practices and cycles, internships, and any other topics and questions raised by students.

Also, the University of Kentucky's Stuckert Career Center, which provides comprehensive career development programming, resources and services to the UK student body, will partner with SWAC institutions to provide shared resources and support to students throughout the SWAC and at UK.

As a part of the Unity Series, in partnership with the John McLendon Leadership Initiative – a coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network, and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship – a position for a future leader will be created at the SWAC office in Birmingham, Alabama. The position will be funded by the University of Kentucky. Calipari spearheaded the MLI in conjunction with the Harvard men's basketball head coach Tommy Amaker, South Carolina head coach Frank Martin and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in the summer of 2020.

Reconnecting with Big Blue Nation and Giving Back

One of John Calipari's main missions this summer was to reconnect his team with the Big Blue Nation.

The COVID-19 pandemic limited the Wildcats' interactions with fans during the 2020-21 season. Between reduced attendance at Rupp Arena (3,075 fans), no Big Blue Madness and considerable restrictions with various fan activities throughout the season, the 2020-21 group was deprived of one of the staples of the Kentucky program.

With many of the health and safety protocols scaled back this summer, Calipari made sure to take his team on the road and get in front of the Kentucky fan base.

While touring the state for its annual satellite camp tour, the Wildcats visited local community centers, regional health facilities and spent a morning at Fort Knox. Players and staff continued the touch points into the fall with visits throughout the state for ticket giveaways.

The motivation for Calipari is obviously to give back to the community, but it also benefits his players to see firsthand the role they play in the state.

"I want these players to realize the impact that they have in our state," Calipari said. "You understand that this is important to our state and it's about bringing people together, doing things to make a difference for people's lives, not trying to separate."

In addition to the focus this summer, Calipari's Wildcats were able to return to doing two staples over the holidays.

Wildcats Give Back for the Holidays

In good times and tough times alike, Kentucky's commitment to servant leadership didn't waver this holiday season.

Dating back to his time at Memphis, John Calipari has worked with local businesses to partner and help families (usually around 10-12 families) in need for the holidays. Families are identified by local leaders and are uplifted with gifts, gift cards, food for the holidays, a new mattress and even rent checks. In a typical year, there is a reception inside with a holiday meal and Christmas carols sung by the players.

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced Calipari and his team to get a little creative these past two years, but the event has continued on.

To practice social distancing and to continue to mitigate the coronavirus, the reception was held outdoors this year on the back porch of the Wildcat Coal Lodge. The Christmas carols continued -- from a distance -- as the players sang as the families watched from the back porch. Players, with personal protection equipment on, delivered the gifts and food to the trunks of the vehicles.

Local businesses Kroger, Tempur-Pedic, Kentucky Branded, and Lundy's assisted with the gifts and food this year.

Additionally, during Thanksgiving, the Wildcats served Thanksgiving dinner and handed out posters and T-shirts to residents at the Salvation Army.

Antigua, Coleman Highlight New-Look Bench

The Kentucky coaching staff underwent an offseason transformation with a familiar face in Orlando Antigua returning to the UK bench and another top assistant from Illinois in Chin Coleman coming on board. Calipari also created a new position, hiring TJ Beisner as director of player development.

Antigua, a key assistant in the first five seasons of the Calipari era at Kentucky, rejoined the program as associate coach. Coleman joined the staff after four seasons with Illinois.

Antigua and Coleman occupy two of the three on-court assistant coaching positions on the 2021-22 staff. Jai Lucas remains in the other assistant coaching position and Bruiser Flint was elevated to associate to the head coach. Both Lucas and Flint are in their second seasons at Kentucky.

During Antigua's first stint at Kentucky, featuring the 2009-10 season through the 2013-14 national runner-up run, UK compiled a 152-37 record (80.4%) with a national championship, three Final Four appearances, and two Southeastern Conference regular-season titles and two SEC Tournament crowns.

Known for his eye on the recruiting trail, Antigua helped UK pull in five straight top-ranked recruiting classes (Recruiting Services Consensus Index). In his initial season with the Wildcats, Antigua saw three of his signees drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft. He was a central figure in the 2010 and 2011 No. 1 classes, which led UK to its eighth national title in 2012 and its first since 1998.

Coleman spent the previous four seasons with Illinois. He was instrumental in the development of Ayo Dosunmu, one of the country's best point guards over the last three seasons. Under Coleman's guidance, Dosunmu raked in dozens of national and conference honors, including USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year and NCAA Consensus All-America First Team honors. He averaged 20.1 points and 5.3 assists to lead Illinois to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

With Coleman on the bench, Illinois posted back-to-back 20-win seasons the last two years for the first time since the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons and finished second in the Big Ten in 2021. With Coleman serving as a defensive coordinator in 2020-21, the Illini finished seventh in the country in the Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive rankings and hovered around the top spot for much of the season.

Beisner, who has more than 15 years of experience in media, communications and digital marketing, oversees the execution of all elements of the student-athlete's off-court experience, including primary areas of player welfare and branding.

In concert with Kentucky's brand and content team and the Kentucky Road initiative – Beisner leads and supports the Wildcats' brand-building strategy in the new Name, Image and Likeness era, monitors all changes in NCAA legislation and trends across college athletics to develop strategies and solutions to keep Kentucky at the forefront of college basketball, organizes and manages the program's community service involvement, provides support to players on non-basketball issues, and develops team-wide events focused on educating student-athletes on personal and career development.

Brad Calipari and Riley Welch also joined the staff as graduate assistants. They are involved in on-court activities with the Wildcats, including practices, individual workouts and film sessions.

Calipari played for the Wildcats from 2017-19 and was a part of a program that won 88 games, advanced to the Elite Eight twice, won an SEC regular-season championship and two SEC Tournament titles. He finished his collegiate career at Detroit Mercy where he saw action in 33 games over two seasons for the Titans. During the 2019-20 season, Calipari averaged 6.1 points per game and connected on 51 3-pointers.

A 2019 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in communication, Calipari earned his undergraduate degree in three years. He was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member. At Detroit Mercy he completed a master's degree in liberal studies in May of 2021.

Welch just concluded a two-year career with the Wildcats and graduated in May with an undergraduate degree in liberal studies. He appeared in 34 career games as a Division I player split between two years at Kentucky and one at UC Irvine. Welch also played one season at the College of the Desert where he averaged 8.2 points and 5.0 assists per game.

Lucas Tabbed 'Rising Star' in The Athletics's '40 Under 40' List

Jai Lucas was ranked by the Athletic as one of the most influential people in college basketball younger than 40 years old.

The "40 Under 40" list is comprised of figures of all ranks, head coaches, assistants included and contributors to the game. The list is intended to "spotlight not only the most visible candidates (head coaches, broadcasters, players), but also a wide array of assistant coaches, writers, executives, administrators, bloggers, numbers crunchers and power brokers who give the sport its texture and flavor — and who themselves have a bright future."

Lucas, 32 years old, is in his second season as an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator for UK.

Seth Davis, managing editor of the Athletic, headed up the list wrote that Lucas "brings an invaluable pedigree to the job. … Lucas brings youthful energy to the gym and the recruiting trail, and his value to the program will only increase as he acquires more experience."

A former McDonald's High School All American and now a highly respected coach, Lucas joined the staff as a recruiting coordinator in August of 2020 and was quickly transitioned into a full-time assistant coaching role for the 2020-21 season.

As an assistant, Lucas has been tasked with taking a lead role in Kentucky's recruiting efforts while filling the traditional on-court roles of an assistant, including helping with game and practice preparation and playing a key role in player development through practice and individual workouts. Additionally, as recruiting coordinator, he manages official and unofficial visits and is responsible for the recruiting strategy for the program.

Fredrick Likely to Miss 2021-22 Season

Redshirt junior guard CJ Fredrick underwent surgery on Nov. 16 to repair a left hamstring injury and is likely to miss the remainder of the 2021-22 season.

"This news hurts so much because I love this team and we have a great group of guys," Fredrick said. "I have the best teammates, coaches, medical staff, friends and family that will get me back where I need to be. We have a very special team this season and I will do whatever I can to support the team. I am looking forward to working hard and being the player I want to be for next season. I appreciate all the support of Big Blue Nation during this difficult time. My journey looks a little different, but I will be back."

Fredrick, who transferred from Iowa following the 2020-21 year, entered this season as the nation's leading returner in career 3-point field-goal percentage (46.6%) with a minimum of 150 attempts.

"I really hate this for CJ," John Calipari said. "He worked so hard for us this summer and made such a positive impact on our team and our culture. He has been an unbelievable teammate. CJ has a bright future ahead of him, and after being evaluated by our medial staff and specialists, it was clear the best thing for CJ was to get this surgery done now and get him back on a path to getting back on the court at 100%. He's been great throughout this whole thing and is already itching to get this process going so he can get back to doing what he loves to do."

The Cincinnati native made 83 3-pointers in two seasons at Iowa. Fredrick started all 27 games he appeared in as a redshirt sophomore in 2020-21 and averaged 7.5 points and 1.9 assists per game. He made three or more treys in six games, shot 47.4% from 3 – the second-best mark by a sophomore in program history – and posted a 5.2 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Fredrick made the All-Big Ten Freshman Team as a redshirt freshman in 2019-20 after averaging 10.2 points and 2.8 assists per game. He made 47 of 102 from long range and was one of three players nationally and the only player from a major conference dating back to 1993 with 65 or more assists, 32 or fewer turnovers, and 46% shooting or better from 3.

Wildcats Scoring Well in NCAA Academic Progress Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2020 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a 994 out of a possible 1,000.

It marked the sixth straight year the men's basketball team has received the award and the seventh time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2015-16 through 2018-19 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in six of the last seven single-year APR rates that have been released (numbers were not released in 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic). Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

The Wildcats routinely perform well in the classroom, including posting a 3.122 grade-point average in the 2020 fall semester.

Three Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Kentucky basketball greats Ron Mercer (1996-97), Wayne Turner (1996-99) and Nazr Mohammed (1996-98) were inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in early November.

Mercer and Turner were enshrined as a part of the 2020 class and Mohammed was a member of the 2021 class. The 2020 class was unable to be recognized last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor athletes, coaches and contributors whose participation and achievements enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. The charter class included 88 individuals who had previously had their jersey retired by UK.

There is a five-year waiting period after leaving UK to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year.

Mercer was a member of the 1996 national championship team as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He was an NCAA Consensus All-America First Team member in 1997 and a two-time NCAA Tournament All-Final Four Team selection.

After making the Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team in 1996, Mercer was one of the top players in college basketball in 1997. In that season, he was named the NCAA Tournament West Regional Most Outstanding Player, Southeastern Conference Player of the Year by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and the 1997 SEC Tournament MVP. Mercer scored 725 points in his sophomore season, at the time the fifth most in a season in program history

Mercer is a member of Kentucky's 1,000-point club (1,013). He declared for the 1997 NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was drafted sixth overall by the Boston Celtics. He played eight seasons in the NBA.

Turner was a member of the 1996 and 1998 national championship teams as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He finished his career as UK's and the NCAA's all-time games played leader with 151 games (now ranks second), UK's all-time steals leader with 238, and a member of UK's 1,000-point club (1,170).

During his career, Turner helped the Wildcats to two SEC regular-season championships and three SEC Tournament titles.

Turner was named to the 1997 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional Team, the 1998 NCAA Tournament All-South Region Most Outstanding Player and the 1998 SEC Tournament MVP. He was also selected for the All-SEC Third Team and the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1999. He played one season in the NBA.

Mohammed is a two-time national champion having played pivotal role on both the 1996 and 1998 teams. He was the second-leading scorer on the 35-4 squad that was dubbed the "Comeback Cats." He averaged 12 points, 7.2 rebounds and 1.9 blocks in 1998.

Mohammed was an All-SEC First Team selection in 1998 and was also named to the SEC All-Tournament Team after helping lead UK to a regular-season and tournament title.

Mohammed entered the NBA Draft following his junior season and was selected 29th overall by Utah. He played in more than 1,000 career NBA games. He scored nearly 6,000 points and hauled in nearly 5,000 rebounds during an 18-year career. Mohammed captured an NBA title in 2005 as a member of the San Antonio Spurs. He now serves as a scout for the Oklahoma City Thunder.

Rupp Arena Renovations Continue

Renovations at Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center are continuing and nearing completion.

Originally announced when UK agreed to a new lease in December 2016, upper-level chair-back seating and new club areas were installed to Rupp Arena for the 2019-20 season with construction ongoing for club areas, expanded concourses, an exterior refresh and a new facade to the building.

Construction is expected to be completed in the spring of 2022.

Two club areas for season ticket holders have opened along with the president's suite. Fans in these new clubs are able to enjoy first-class amenities before, during and after games. These new clubs are crucial to providing the funds necessary for both the new lease agreement and the ongoing renovation of Rupp Arena. A third club area will be available for the 2021-22 season. Club membership does not include a ticketed seat and club members may have seats throughout Rupp Arena. Season ticket holders may purchase club memberships to accompany their season ticket package.

Construction will continue on the exterior of Rupp Arena with new metal "skin" and bold new metal and glass exterior that will wrap around the expanded concourse. The expanded concourse will feature 43,000 square feet of additional room once completed. Rupp Arena is also getting a new 85-foot tall multi-story atrium as its grand entrance into the renovated concourse. A 75-foot climate-controlled pedestrian bridge will provide a direct connection for fans from the Hyatt lobby straight into the Rupp Arena concourse.

This latest phase of Rupp renovations comes on the heels of the addition of a new center-hung scoreboard, ribbon boards, new sound system and lighting that have created a more dynamic game experience in Rupp.

The chair-back seating that was installed for the 2019-20 season was undertaken in response to years of feedback from fans asking for more comfortable seating in the upper level. The seating was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234.

After the seat renovations, Rupp Arena now seats 20,500.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 629-77 (89.1%) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- Kentucky is 341-46 (88.1%) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 12 seasons
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 45 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season, in 2012-13. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas are available to season ticket holders.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

Pack the House

Until reducing capacity for the 2019-20 season, Kentucky had led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of 24 seasons. That number included a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season, the first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500. UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Calipari Reaches 800 Career Victories in OT Win Over Mississippi State

With Kentucky's overtime win over Mississippi State on Jan. 25, 2022, John Calipari reached 800 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 22 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 14 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 800 on-court wins ever at 1,037 games. Only Adolph Rupp (972 games), Roy Williams (1,012 games) and Dean Smith (1,029 games) did it faster.

At Kentucky, Calipari owns the second-most wins in program history, trailing only the legendary Adolph Rupp, who led the Wildcats for 41 seasons and spanned 1,066 games.

Although Calipari is still climbing the charts, he is doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. When he and Kentucky defeated Ole Miss on March 5, 2019, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Coaching Win Totals with at least 10 seasons at Division I Level as of Jan. 29:

1. Mike Krzyzewski - 1188
2. Jim Boeheim - 1094

12. Eddie Sutton - 806
13. Rick Byrd - 805
14. John Calipari - 802
15. Rick Pitino - 800

Calipari Ahead of the Pack at Kentucky

Through 12 seasons at Kentucky, John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped it would when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he is the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade-plus. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet Sixteen appearances (eight)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)
- Third in wins (339)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (six)
- Third in NCAA titles (one)

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Calipari was inducted in Springfield, Massachusetts. Nearly 70 former players joined him on stage during his acceptance speech.

Coach Cal Immortalized at UMass with Statue Unveiling

John Calipari's Hall of Fame rise began at UMass, and the school honored his program's breakthrough in the 1990s by unveiling a statue of Calipari on the Amherst campus in September of 2021.

Calipari was one of four icons synonymous with UMass basketball to earn the honor. Calipari's statue was unveiled next to Marcus Camby, Julius Erving and the late Jack Leaman outside the Mullins Center.

At UMass, Calipari led the Minutemen to a 193-71 on-court record in his eight seasons as head coach from 1989-96. His .731 career winning percentage remains the best in school history, and he ranks second all-time at UMass in victories with 193.

Calipari led UMass to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1992 to1996 after UMass had gone to the NCAAs only once in the first 81 years of the program. His Minutemen made the Atlantic 10's first and only Final Four appearance during the 1996 season, during which they went 35-2 overall and spent 10 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. Following the 1996 season, Calipari was named National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, The Sporting News and Naismith.

UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and tournament titles under Calipari from 1992 to 1996, becoming only the second team in NCAA history to win its conference championships in the regular season and postseason for five consecutive years.

A three-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year selection in 1992, 1993 and 1996, Calipari coached a National Player of the Year (Marcus Camby, 1996), two First Team All-Americans (Lou Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996), three Atlantic 10 Players of the Year (Harper Williams, 1992; Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996) and a total of 24 All-Atlantic 10 selections during his eight seasons at UMass.

Calipari's 1996 Final Four Team was also inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame.

Coach Cal Court

Not only did John Calipari have a statue erected in his honor this past offseason, the court at Clarion -- Calipari's alma mater -- is now named after the Hall of Famer. The court in Tippin Gymnasium was officially renamed the John V. Calipari Court in September of 2021 and will be known as Coach Cal Court.

Like many coaches, Calipari began his career in basketball on the court as a player. He he was a star high school basketball player at Moon High School in Western Pennsylvania under another Clarion graduate Joe Sacco. Calipari started his college playing career at UNC Wilmington before transferring to Clarion in 1981, helping the Golden Eagles reach their first NCAA Division II Tournament in program history that year.

Under legendary head coach Joe DeGregorio, Clarion went 23-6 and reached the East Region championship game. Calipari was a key member of Clarion's 1981-82 team that started the season 7-0 and ranked third in Division II at one point.

Calipari has remained close with the program throughout his career.

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program in his first 10 seasons at the helm at Kentucky, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January 2020.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credited Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success – what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" – DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari … nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balances the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched.

"I knew we were going to make the program — and I said it at the press conference — it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

Calipari Receives Guardians of the Game Award

John Calipari was one of eight coaches to receive the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards in 2021 for his work with the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative.

The Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards represent the NABC's core values of advocacy, education, inclusion and leadership. Calipari was one of three coaches, alongside Harvard head coach Tommy Amaker and South Carolina head coach Frank Martin, who received the award for inclusion.

Calipari, Amaker and Martin were honored for leading and launching the McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network, and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship.

Calipari spearheaded the MLI after watching the nation confront issues of social injustice and racial inequality. He recruited Amaker and Martin, both members of the NABC Committee on Racial Reconciliation, to join him to make change on college campuses and present opportunities for minorities. His idea was to recruit minority candidates, known as MLI Future Leaders, and provide access and opportunity with real-world experience and networking platforms designed to elevate talented young women and men of color.

The initiative has drawn more than 80 coaches nationally from basketball, football and baseball across the country to serve as both MLI Ambassadors and be the primary source of funding.

In the first year of the initiative, more than 30 Future Leaders were hired at institutions and organizations and more than 20 landed full-time positions after a year in the program. In the early stages of year two, more than 40 Future Leaders are working at universities and college-driven sports organizations across the country. Nearly $4 million has been raised in funding for the initiative.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl, Ben Howland and Kermit Davis have eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Howland, Davis and Nate Oats).

Calipari has tallied a 374-118 (76.0%) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 166-52 (76.1%) record since joining the SEC.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-13 (81.4%) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-5 (82.1%) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

When Kentucky clinched a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship, John Calipari became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, '93, '94, '95 and '96, Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, '06, '07, '08 and '09, and Kentucky has captured the SEC six times in 2010, '12, '15, '16, '17 and '20.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (36 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

There's No Place Like Home

John Calipari-coached teams have posted an all-time record of 441-49 (90.0%) record at home in his stops at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky. At UK, Coach Cal is 202-17 (92.2%) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 12 complete seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 115-56 (67.3%) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 80-28 (74.1%) under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25.

Calipari has led seven of his 13 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 15 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (89.4%) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (89.6%) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (255), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of 89.4% trails only Wooden (95.2%) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (85.8%)
- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at UK after defeating Michigan State in 2019-20
- According to ESPN, his 60.0% winning percentage against AP top-ranked teams is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (23 of 23) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, current Wildcat Zan Payne, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in six of the last seven single-year reports (numbers were not released last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic).

UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2020, was a 994 out of 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the sixth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects over the past 13 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list is freshman signees only.

COACH CALIPARI

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 43 in his first 12 seasons at UK, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 43 NBA Draft picks, 32 first-rounders (more than the entire Big Ten during the same time span), three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 61 full-time scholarship players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari (did not transfer or leave the program early), 43 have been selected in the NBA Draft, a 70.5% success rate. Another seven of those made the NBA. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Of the 30 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft at the conclusion of their freshman seasons, 27 have been first-round picks. All previous players have played game in the NBA. He is 31 for 34 when including his players from Memphis. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012, Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts from 2008-19, the only school to do so during that time period
- Eight of his former players have been named NBA All-Stars (28 total and all since 2010), six have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three were named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at UK have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Davis won NBA All-Star MVP honors in 2017

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 40 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed who did not transfer or leave the program early (and aren't still actively playing at UK), 34 were drafted and 26 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros, they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Entering the 2021-22 NBA season, Calipari's NBA pros had amassed nearly $3.5 billion in career NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they have nearly $3 billion in career contracts.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 18 have earned second contracts in the NBA with 11 of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the four who haven't earned second contracts, all have been drafted in the last four years and are still on their rookie deal. Since Calipari's first draft class, 33 lottery selections have earned max contracts in the NBA. Eleven of those players are Kentucky alums. Duke (three), Georgetown (two) and Kansas (two) are the only other programs to have multiple lottery selections earn a max contract.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including six at UK. They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more once. Of course, the most famous streak was the 38-0 start during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari Nearly Perfect vs. Former Assistants

John Calipari has made it known that he doesn't enjoy coaching against friends. That hasn't stopped him from winning anyway. Calipari is 18-1 all-time when coaching against former assistants with a win over Tony Barbee and Central Michigan on Nov. 26, 2021. He suffered his first and only loss to a former assistant against former Memphis assistant Josh Pastner, now the head coach of Georgia Tech, on Dec. 6, 2020.

COACH CALIPARI

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 30-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up nearly 800 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari's career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari's first 12 seasons at UK, he has led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight). He is in the top three in total wins (339) in that time span.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at UMass, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 54 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he has had 43 players drafted during his first 12 years at Kentucky, including 32 first-round picks, more than the entire Big Ten combined in that time span.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 28 All-Star selections -- all since 2010 -- with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Seventeen of his last 20 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 23 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including five players who earned their degree in just three years, including redshirt junior Zan Payne who completed his degree in August. Calipari's teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey, and played a leading role in the "Kentucky United" efforts that generated more than $5 million for victims of devastating tornadoes in Western Kentucky in 2021.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."
