PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama on June 18, 2015. Currently in his 7th year of leading the University, Dr. Bell previously served the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering.

Under his leadership, the University developed and implemented a strategic plan, Advancing the Flagship, which promotes institutional progress with scholarship and teaching, research and creative activity, inclusion and diversity and the recruitment and retention of highly qualified faculty and staff. Since the plan's launch, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates; has increased faculty headcount to support the University's instruction, research and service goals; has witnessed the growth of sponsored program awards crucial to direct learning and experience opportunities for students; and has benefited from three consecutive historic fundraising years. New interdisciplinary research centers have also been established and join many other programs on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges.

In September 2021, Dr. Bell announced the launch of The Rising Tide, the largest capital campaign in University and state history. The transformative fundraising campaign will serve as a catalyst for heightened enrollment, advanced research and creative endeavors and expanded opportunities for students to benefit from the premier educational, leadership and research opportunities available as part of the Alabama experience.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering.

With research concentrations in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists. Dr. Bell was also inducted as an Engineering Department Fellow by UA's department of mechanical engineering. He was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineer's Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching and the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the College of Engineering.

Dr. Bell was also honored with the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, was selected as a recipient of the Dwight Look College of Engineering Outstanding Alumni Award from Texas A&M University and was elected to the Academy of Distinguished Alumni in Mechanical Engineering at his alma mater. He also recently joined the 2021-2022 SEC Executive Committee.

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen and three delightful granddaughters and a grandson. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed in his footsteps and are engineers. His daughter Stacy is a UA alumna.

ON CAMPUS

NOT ALL LEGENDS WEAR HELMETS

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through our teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, founder and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, "To Kill a Mockingbird"; Winston Groom, "Forrest Gump"; Kathryn Stockett, "The Help"; Mark Childress, "Crazy in Alabama"; and T.S. Stribling, "The Store."

CEO/Chairman of the Board/Executive Chairman/President/Senior Vice President/COO/Senior Director: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin (retired); W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company (retired); Sam DiPiazza, Mayo Clinic; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources (retired); Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum; Marie Robinson, Sysco Corporation; Nan Boden, Google.

Pioneers/Founders/Trailblazers: Millard Fuller, Habitat for Humanity; Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia; Joe Gibbs, Golf Channel; John Hendricks, Discovery Channel; Janet Gurwitch, Laura Mercier Cosmetics; Morris Dees, Southern Poverty Law Center; Autherine Lucy Foster; Wendell Hudson.

Science: Dr. Edward O. Wilson, biologist, researcher and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author; Robert Jemison Van de Graaff, scientist and inventor.

Film and Television: Chuck Gordon, producer of "Die Hard" movies and "Field of Dreams"; Sela Ward, television and film actress; Joe Scarborough, talk show host; Sonequa Martin-Green, actress; Jim Nabors, actor; Tom Cherones, director of "Seinfeld"; Rece Davis, sports television journalist; Michael Luwoye, Broadway actor.

Journalism: Howell Raines, Pulitzer winner at The New York Times; John Cochran, prize-winning television journalist; Rece Davis, ESPN journalist.

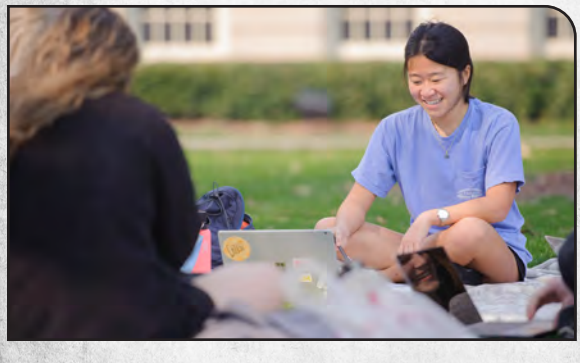

It matters where you go to college. The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars. The Fulbright Student Program recognizes UA as a top producer of Fulbright recipients. And for more than a decade, UA has ranked among the top six institutions for Goldwater Scholars.

McManus is the third student from the College of Communication and Information Sciences to win the award in the past four years that recognizes an undergraduate student for their outstanding display of a variety of public relations skills.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

GREG BYRNE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

With more than 25 years of experience in sports administration, Alabama Director of Athletics Greg Byrne has built an impressive career highlighted by consistent competitive success, innovative strategies, vigorous fundraising and a strong emphasis on academic excellence and student-athlete enhancement.

Named Alabama's 17th Director of Athletics on January 17, 2017, he made an immediate impact on the Crimson Tide, developing and implementing both The Standard, a strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics, and The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of infrastructure.

Additionally, The Standard provides benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity, while The Crimson Standard is designed to provide the foundation for future success in all aspects of the collegiate experience.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Crimson Tide has:

• Posted its highest finish in program history in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2020-21 season, placing seventh, as well as its second-highest finish at 14th following the 2017-18 season

• Added high-impact coaches Nate Oats (men's basketball), Brad Bohannon (baseball), Margo Geer (men's and women's swimming and diving), Glenn Putyrae (rowing) and Rashinda Reed (volleyball)

• Won the 2021 and 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, earned a place in the CFP Championship Game in 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022 and collected Southeastern Conference titles in football (2017, 2020, 2021), men's basketball (2021), gymnastics (2021), softball (2021, 2019) and men's indoor track and field (2018)

• Brought home individual and relay national titles in cross country, gymnastics, swimming and diving and track and field and produced more than 100 All-Americans in 12 different sports

• Earned 51 CoSIDA Academic All-America certificates as well as some of the nation's top academic honors, including the NCAA Top 10 Award, the NCAA Elite 90 Award, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, NCAA and SEC Postgraduate Scholarships

• Earned the H. Boyd McWhorter Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017 and produced 14 SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 10 different sports, including a conference-record eight during the 2019-20 academic year.

Another hallmark of Byrne's career has been both building and enhancing facilities to championship levels. In his first four years at Alabama, the Tide:

• Raised more than $300 million toward The Crimson Standard capital campaign, with over half of the 10-year goal completed in a little over two years

• Added a state-of-the-art, first-of-its-kind Sports Science Center featuring advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic care, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services

• Improved and renovated Bryant-Denny Stadium, including enhancements to all team and recruiting areas, renovations of multiple fan areas, including new Loge and sky boxes and a trio of club areas and an added student plaza

• Renovated and expanded the football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby within the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility

• Added and renovated multiple areas of the John and Ann Rhoads Softball Stadium, with upgrades to the press box and clubhouse, the addition of a new umpire locker room, new restrooms and a new concessions building, as well as new hardscape for the plaza and entryway along first base

• Revitalized the Alabama Aquatic Center with a renovation that included the addition of an outdoor pool

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including:

• United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council

• Division I Men's Basketball Committee

• National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches Coalition Academy

• Served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2020

The son of Bill Byrne, whose long and highly successful career included 30 years as an athletics director, Greg Byrne has spent a lifetime around major college athletics. That background has allowed the younger Byrne to consistently develop and grow as a dynamic and impactful administrator with each new role he has undertaken, with career highlights prior to Alabama that include:

• Serving as the University of Arizona's Vice President for Athletics (2010-17) and Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics (2008-10), making Alabama the third NCAA Division I program he has led

• Fostering major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both Arizona and MSU, raising the bar to new heights when it came to student-athlete enhancement and academic success in preparation for life after sports

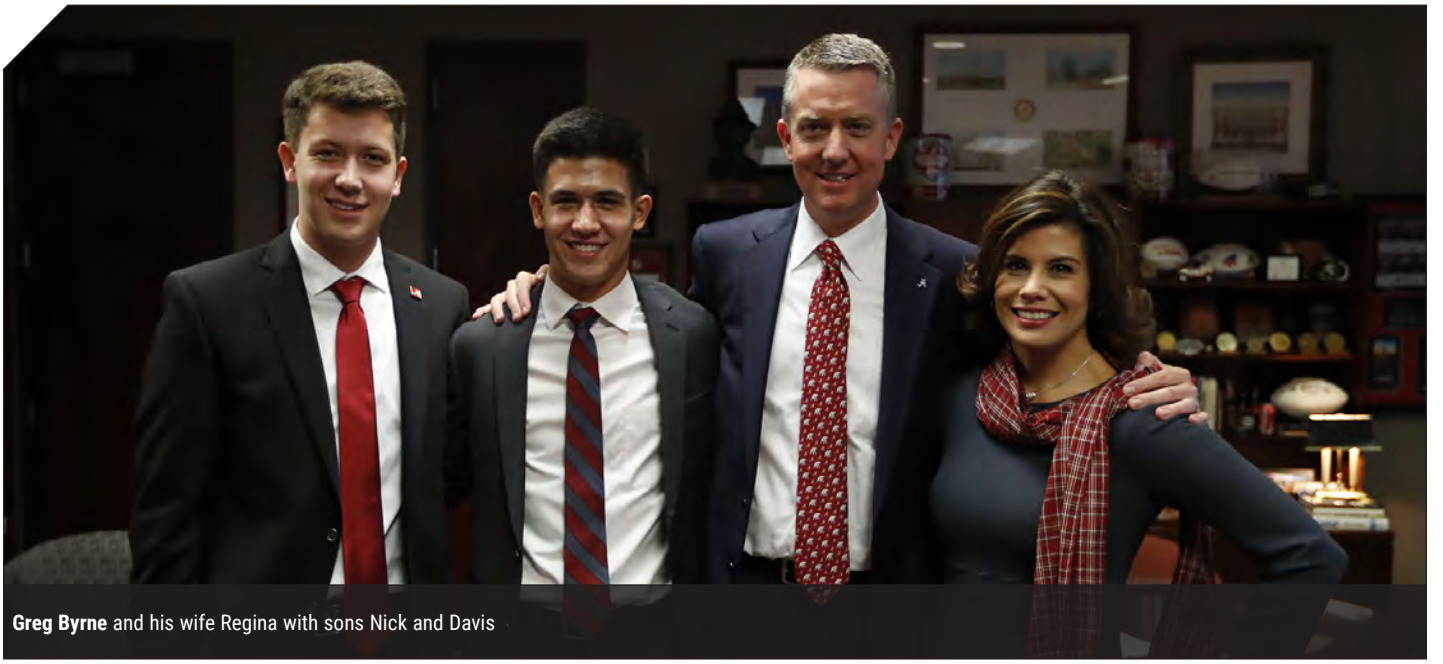

• More than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities at Arizona

• Serving as the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level while at Mississippi State where he oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen

• Experience in the Southeastern Conference, having spent 2002-05 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising prior to serving as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU from 2006-08 before becoming the Bulldogs' Director of Athletics

• Working at the Fiesta Bowl (1994-95), Oregon (1995-98) and Oregon State (1998-2002)

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

NICK SABAN

16TH YEAR • HEAD COACH • KENT STATE, 1973

A man of vision who has a proven record of championship success, head coach Nick Saban has taken The University of Alabama to the top of the college football landscape and kept it there with his commitment to building the total program. After the victory over Ohio State in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Saban passed Paul "Bear" Bryant to become the only coach to win seven national titles in the poll era of college football.

Now in his 16th season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in six national championships since 2009. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

The 2021 season proved to one of Saban's best coaching jobs, taking a team that lost 10 players to the NFL Draft – including eight in the first 38 picks and six in the first round – and leading them to an SEC Championship. The 2021 squad also used a victory in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic to earn a spot in the 2022 CFP National Championship Game for the sixth time in the last seven seasons.

In his 26 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Saban has compiled a 274-67-1 (.803) record, including a 183-25 (.880) mark in Tuscaloosa. His teams at Alabama have won eight SEC Championships while he has 10 SEC titles to his name (2001, 2003 at LSU) to go along with seven national championships (2003 at LSU).

His Alabama teams have posted a 128-13 (.908) record with seven SEC titles and four national championships in the last 10 seasons, which is the best of any major-college school over a 10-year span since Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma in the late 1940s through the late 1950s and his Alabama teams from 2011-2020 (.914 winning percentage). UA's 125 wins in the 2010s were also the most for any FBS school during a decade in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936).

Since Saban's second season in Tuscaloosa in 2008, the Tide has played just three regular-season games in which it hasn't been in contention for the national championship – the final three regular season games of the 2010 season – a staggering 163 of 166 games, while posting an astounding 176-19 (.903) record, including an 102-12 (.895) mark in regular season conference play.

In Saban's six national championship seasons at Alabama, his teams have gone 21-2 against top-10 opponents, and, since 2008, the Crimson Tide is 35-12 overall against top-10 teams. Alabama has also been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll for at least one week for 14 straight years, which broke the record of seven established by Miami (1986-92).

The 2021 season saw the Crimson Tide win its eighth SEC Championship under the Saban's guidance with a dominating 41-24 win over No. 1 Georgia in Atlanta. The win earned Alabama it's seventh College Football Playoff berth in eight years and a bid to the Cotton Bowl. The Tide dispatched of the Bearcats 27-6 in Dallas before Georgia scored 20 fourth-quarter points for a come-from-behind 33-18 win in the CFP National Championship Game. Alabama finished with a 13-2 record and a No. 2 national ranking that included a 7-1 mark in SEC play. UA finished sixth nationally in scoring offense (39.9 ppg) and 18th in scoring defense (20.1 ppg) while ranking seventh in both total offense (488.2 ypg) and total defense (304.1 ypg).

Sophomore quarterback Bryce Young won the Heisman Trophy, along with the Davey O'Brien Award, the Maxwell Award and the Manning Award. The first-year starter threw for a school-record 4,872 yards and 47 touchdowns while completing 66.9 percent of his passes. Outside linebacker Will Anderson Jr. was a unanimous All-American and won the Bronko Nagurski Award that goes to the national defensive player of the year after setting an NCAA record (since 2000) with 34.5 tackles for loss (-148 yards) and 17.5 sacks (-108 yards) while finishing with 102 tackles, nine quarterback hurries and three pass breakups. Along with Young and Anderson Jr., offensive lineman Evan Neal and wide receiver Jameson Williams also earned first team All-America honors.

Saban has now coached four Heisman Trophy winners, joining Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for the most in college football history. He is the only coach to ever coach Heisman Trophy winners at three different positions.

One of Saban's best examples of overcoming adversity was the 2020 season where the pandemic gripped the world and required Saban to not only manage his typical football duties, both on and off the field, but required him to also manage a medical and social environment unseen in college football history.

Saban told his players when they arrived back on campus in June of 2020 that the team that could manage the distractions the best would have the best opportunity to be successful in a season that would be unlike any before. Those words proved to be prophetic as the 2020 Alabama football team managed their personal bubbles, handled their mostly virtual class work and formed a tightknit brotherhood that helped them accomplish the ultimate goal of every Crimson Tide football team – a national championship.

The 2020 season culminated with a 52-24 thrashing of No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. The Crimson Tide used a 28-point second quarter to put the game out of reach and claim the program's 18th national title. The victory added to Saban's impressive career record of 17-4 in championship games (SEC/National).

The 2020 season saw Saban win the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after navigating the Crimson Tide through an undefeated national championship season (13-0) while the world was in the grips of a pandemic. His team became the first in league history to win 10 SEC games in a season, defeating the 10 league opponents by a margin of 32.7 points per game. The Tide then took down No. 7 Florida, 52-46, to capture the program's 28th SEC Championship and the seventh during Saban's tenure in Tuscaloosa. Alabama followed the victory in Atlanta by overwhelming No. 4 Notre Dame, 31-10, in the Rose Bowl, which was played at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, due to state and local COVID-19 guidelines in California.

The Crimson Tide set a bevy of offensive records in 2020, posting season-high marks for scoring (48.5 ppg), passing yards (4,656), passing yards per game (358.2) and third-down conversions (59 percent). DeVonta Smith became Alabama's third Heisman Trophy winner and the first wide receiver to win the award since 1991. The unanimous All-American, who also won the Biletnikoff, the Maxwell and the Paul Hornung awards, led the nation and shattered both the UA and SEC records for receiving yards (1,865) and touchdowns (23). Quarterback Mac Jones threw for a then-school-record 4,500 yards while setting the NCAA mark for completion percentage (77.4 percent). He won the Davey O'Brien Award, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback and was a consensus All-American. Najee Harris was named the Doak Walker Award winner as the country's best running back and a unanimous All-American after rushing for 1,466 yards and leading the nation in rushing touchdowns (26) and total touchdowns (30). He finished as the SEC's career leader in touchdowns with 57, passing 2007 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow.

Alex Leatherwood and Landon Dickerson were named unanimous All-Americans on the offensive line with Leatherwood winning the Outland Trophy and Dickerson securing the Rimington Trophy. The duo helped make up an offensive line unit that earned the Joe Moore Award as the top line in the nation. On the defensive side of the ball, cornerback Patrick Surtain II was a finalist for numerous national awards while earning unanimous All-American honors. Joining Surtain II as an All-American was linebacker Dylan Moses, who led the team in tackles and was named a first team All-American by the AFCA. Long snapper Thomas Fletcher won the Patrick Mannelly Award to round out the award winners. The 2020 senior class finished with a 51-4 record that included two national championships and a pair of SEC titles.

The 2019 team finished the season with an 11-2 record after a 35-16 victory over the Michigan Wolverines in the Citrus Bowl. Injuries to quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, Moses and defensive lineman LaBryan Ray devastated the Tide throughout the season, forcing nine true freshmen – including six on the defensive side of the football – into starting action. That said, only a five-point loss to eventual national champion LSU and a three-point defeat on the road at No. 11 Auburn derailed the Crimson Tide's championship hopes.

Even after the loss of Tagovailoa, the Alabama offense continued to produce record-setting numbers, averaging 47.2 points per game that ranked second nationally while cranking out 510.8 yards of total offense per contest. Tagovailoa and Jones, who was then the backup, combined to throw for 4,449 yards and 49 touchdowns against only six interceptions. Harris produced 1,224 rushing yards and 20 total touchdowns while Smith caught 68 passes for 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns to go with Jerry Jeudy's 77 grabs for 1,163 yards and 10 more scores.

Saban's 2018 team compiled a 14-1 record, just his third team to go undefeated through the regular season at the time (2009, 2016) and his fourth to reach the 14-win plateau (2009, 2015-16). He won the Walter Camp National Coach of the Year Award and the Tide

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Only four coaches in the modern poll era of college football have won four or more national championships during their careers.

COACH	SCHOOL(S)	CHAMPIONSHIP YEARS
Nick Saban	LSU & Alabama	2004, 2009, 2011-12, 2015, 2017, 2020 (7)
Paul "Bear" Bryant	Alabama	1961,1964-65,1973,1978-79 (6)
Frank Leahy	Notre Dame	1943, 1946-47, 1949 (4)
John McKay	Southern California	1962, 1967, 1972, 1974 (4)

also qualified for its fifth straight appearance in the College Football Playoff, earning the No. 1 seed and a trip to the Capital One Orange Bowl to play No. 4 Oklahoma. The Crimson Tide cruised past the Sooners in the Semifinal by a score of 45-34, using an early 28-0 lead to ensure the victory. Alabama produced its most potent offense to date, finishing the 2018 campaign as the national leader in passing efficiency (197.34). The Tide also wrapped up 2018 ranked third in scoring offense (45.6 ppg) along with sixth in both total offense (522.0 ypg) and passing offense (323.6 ypg). The 2018 senior class also broke the NCAA record for wins, eclipsing the Tide's 2017 class with a record of 55-4 to match Clemson's 2018 senior class for the most wins in a four-year period.

As a sophomore, Tagovailoa quarterbacked the offensive unit, winning the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and The Sporting News Player of the Year while finishing runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting. Jeudy won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's best wide receiver while Quinnen Williams earned the Outland Trophy and led the country's No. 12 scoring defense (18.1 ppg). Alabama finished with six first team All-Americans (Tagovailoa, Jeudy, Q. Williams, offensive tackle Jonah Williams, safety Deionte Thompson and center Ross Pierschbacher). Both Jonah and Quinnen were recognized as unanimous All-Americans while Jeudy, Tagovailoa and Thompson were consensus All-America selections.

The 2017 Crimson Tide earned its fourth straight trip to the College Football Playoff and defeated No. 1 Clemson, 24-6, in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Tide finished the season with a 13-1 record and a share of the SEC Western Division title. Alabama had 10 players earn first team All-SEC honors while Minkah Fitzpatrick captured the Bednarik Award and the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Fitzpatrick and linebacker Rashaan Evans earned first team All-America honors. Saban's defense led the nation in scoring (11.9 ppg), total defense (260.4 ypg) and rushing defense (94.7 ypg) while ranking second in pass efficiency defense (96.78). The offensive side of the ball finished 13th nationally in rushing (250.6 ypg) and 15th in scoring (37.1 ppg). The senior class posted a then-NCAA-record 53-5 mark from 2014-17 and a 64-7 mark over a five-year span.

Saban's 2016 squad completed an undefeated regular season for the first time since 2009 and secured the program's 26th SEC Championship – the third straight for the program – and the fourth across five years. The Tide defeated Washington in the Semifinal of the CFP in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (24-7), before dropping a 35-31 game to Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. Alabama finished with a 14-1 record after defeating nine ranked teams and 11 teams that qualified for bowl games during the 2016 season.

Saban, who was named the SEC Coach of the Year and Munger Award National Coach of the Year (presented by the Maxwell Football Club), had five players earn first team All-America honors – Jonathan Allen, Fitzpatrick, Reuben Foster, Marlon Humphrey and Cam Robinson. Allen also captured the Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award along with the Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, while Foster won the Butkus Award that is given to the nation's best linebacker, and Robinson captured the Outland Trophy.

The 2015 team secured the Crimson Tide's fourth national championship in seven years. They became the first team to win back-to-back SEC Championships in 17 years (Tennessee, 1997-98) and were the only program to earn an invitation to each of the first two College Football Playoffs. Saban led his team to victories in the final 12 games of the season, including wins at No. 8 Georgia, at No. 9 Texas A&M, vs. No. 4 LSU, at No. 17 Mississippi State, against No. 18 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the Cotton Bowl and over No. 1 Clemson in the CFP Championship Game. The senior class won 50 games (50-6) over their four years with three SEC Championships and two national titles.

The 2015 Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry, who also captured the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Doak Walker Award. Ryan Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Linebacker Reggie Ragland was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, while A'Shawn Robinson was a finalist for the Outland Trophy. The offensive line was also awarded the Joe Moore as the award's inaugural recipient. All four of the Tide's finalists garnered first team All-America honors, while Eddie Jackson was a second-team selection.

Henry set school records for rushing yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), rushing attempts (395) and all-purpose yardage (2,310). A trademark of Saban-coached teams, the Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 1 in the country in rushing defense, No. 3 in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense while averaging 199.9 rushing yards and 227.1 passing yards per game on offense. Saban's on-side kick call in the national championship game proved key, propelling the Crimson Tide to the program's 16th national title. In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding, as UA had a nation-leading 29 graduates on the roster for the bowl game including three players with their master's degree in hand.

Saban became the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships at the end of the 2012 season, and he is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009-2012), joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He was also just the second (Leahy) to win four titles in seven years, a feat he has now accomplished twice (2009-12 and 2011-17).

The 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Saban led the Crimson Tide to the top seed in the first College Football Playoff at the 2015 Allstate Sugar Bowl, UA's 24th SEC Championship and a 12-2 record.

The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy finalist and UA's first-ever Biletnikoff Award winner, Amari Cooper, along with Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award finalist Landon Collins. In addition to Cooper and Collins, Ray Guy Award finalist punter JK Scott, linebacker Trey DePriest and offensive guard Arie Kouandjio garnered first team All-America honors. SEC Championship Game MVP Blake Sims set then-school records for total offense (3,837 yards) and passing yards (3,487), while Cooper established UA marks in every receiving category. The Tide checked in at No. 6 in the country in scoring defense and 15th overall in scoring offense. In the classroom, Alabama had 22 graduates on the roster for the bowl game (tied for the most in the nation) and seven players with their master's degree in hand (first in the nation).

Saban led the 2013 Alabama team to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, making a sixth straight New Year's Six bowl appearance and the third straight in a BCS bowl. That senior class posted a remarkable record of 60-7 over their five years with four bowl wins and three national titles. Their record in the classroom was just as impressive as 28 Crimson Tide graduates took the field for the bowl matchup with Oklahoma. Senior quarterback AJ McCarron was named a first team All-American, won the Maxwell and Unitas Award, and finished as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker C.J. Mosley took home Alabama's third Butkus Trophy and earned All-America honors for the second straight year.

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor over his previous four years.

The Alabama defense in 2012 led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and scoring defense (10.9 ppg). The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game, 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game and set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012. The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy and the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set then-school and SEC records for wins, while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's NCAA record 49 wins from 1994-97.

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and an 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response in the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced one Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas, 37-21, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On Dec. 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad captured numerous other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award and six players earned first team AP All-America status.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN College Football Awards Show and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, AP, The Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the AP and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the AP in 2003) while at LSU.

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC titles.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Victories over Tennessee and Mississippi State highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as LSU outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. They won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

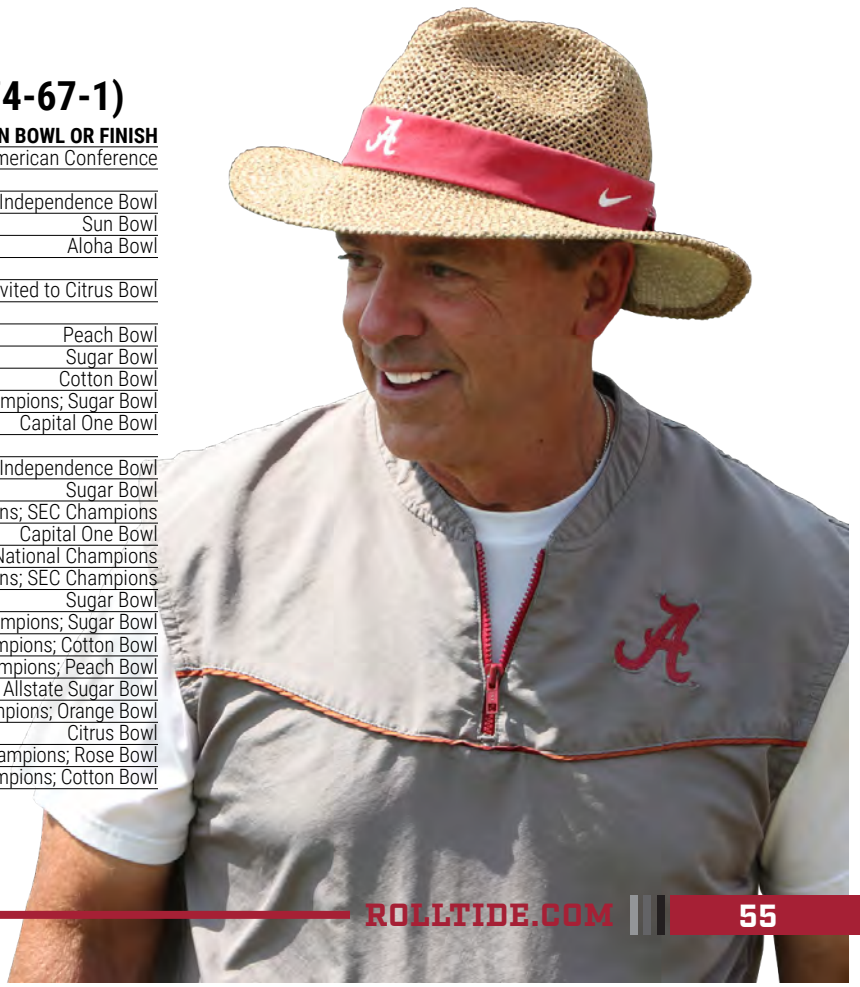

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a then-school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting OU to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and was also heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 record, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 ypg) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 ppg) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

A native of Monongah, W. Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have been married for 48 years and are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Amélie, son-in-law Adam Setas and grandson, James.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, documenting his first two years at LSU. He then co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be?" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, almost $10 million has been distributed to students, teachers and children's causes at over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Foundation.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm on April 27, 2011, Nick and Terry visited shelters where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans joined with Habitat for Humanity in helping to rebuild 18 homes, one for each of the Tide's national titles.

With support and donations from the Sabans, St. Francis Catholic Church in Tuscaloosa built the Saban Catholic Student Center, which opened in August of 2016. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for The University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans, as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

Most recently, the Sabans announced plans for The Saban Center in Tuscaloosa, which create a learning center on the Black Warrior River that brings together the Children's Hands-On Museum, Tuscaloosa Public Library and the Tuscaloosa Children's Theater. The Sabans made a personal gift of $1 million to the project and the Nick's Kids Foundation contributed another $250,000.

1ST YEAR

JOE COX

Tight Ends

GEORGIA, 2009

Joe Cox was hired in February of 2022 by Alabama head coach Nick Saban to coach tight ends for the Crimson Tide.

Cox arrives in Tuscaloosa after one season coaching tight ends for his hometown Charlotte 49ers.

He inherits a tight end room led by redshirt senior Cam Latu, who is coming off the best year of his career where he finished third on the team in receiving with 410 yards on 26 catches and second in touchdowns with eight. Robbie Ouzts also returns to bolster the unit after a solid freshman year.

Cox spent the 2020 season coaching wide receivers on Will Muschamp's staff at South Carolina. USC's receivers were led by Shi Smith who hauled in 57 receptions for 644 yards and a team-high four touchdowns in only nine games.

Prior to his time in Columbia, S.C., Cox spent five years at Colorado State beginning as a graduate assistant in 2015 and then coaching tight ends for three seasons (2016-18) and wide receivers in his final year in Fort Collins in 2019.

Cox helped propel a Rams' offense that turned in some of the most productive seasons in school history. CSU posted two of the top five scoring seasons in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense with Cox on the staff, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (and 4th —462.5 in 2016).

In 2019, the Rams ranked 14th in the nation in passing offense, averaging 305.3 yards per game through the air. Receiver Warren Jackson averaged 111.9 receiving yards per game, fourth in the country, on 77 receptions with eight touchdowns in 10 games. True freshman wideout Dante Wright added 57 catches for 805 yards and four scores.

In 2018, with Cox guiding a talented group of tight ends, the Rams ranked 13th in FBS in passing offense (304.9) and registered the fourth-highest mark in school history for passing touchdowns with 26. The tight end group played a significant role in the performance of the Rams' record-setting offense in 2017 as Dalton Fackrell tied for second on the team with six touchdown receptions. Freshman Cameron Butler burst onto the scene and added 12 receptions for 171 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2016 the Rams' tight end corps was instrumental in helping the Rams to rank fourth in FBS in red-zone scoring (94.6 pct.), as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). The unit also contributed to the Rams' stellar pass protection, which resulted in a No. 8 national ranking for fewest sacks allowed (1.0), including just one total in the final six games of the season.

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14, helping the school win back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

As Georgia's starting quarterback in 2009, Cox completed 185-of-331 pass attempts for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, at the time the second-best single-season total in UGA history. An offensive captain, Cox led the Bulldogs to a record of 8-5, and was named Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week for his five-touchdown, 375-yard performance at Arkansas. For his career, Cox completed 56 percent of his passes for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns.

Cox was the 2004 North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year and AP Prep Player of the Year, and a Parade Magazine All-American at Independence (N.C.) High School. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia (2009).

Cox and his wife Erica were married in March 2016 and have one daughter, Avery, and twin boys, Jace and Tate.

5TH YEAR

PETE GOLDING

Defensive Coordinator/ILB

DELTA STATE, 2005

Pete Golding is in his fifth year on head coach Nick Saban's staff coaching the inside linebackers and his fourth as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator after serving as the co-defensive coordinator in 2018.

The 2021 Alabama defense proved to be one of the best in the nation, ranking fourth in rushing defense (86.0 ypg) and seventh in total defense (304.1 ypg) while allowing just 20.1 points per game and holding opponents for a 31.1 percent conversion rate on third down, which was seventh nationally.

While middle linebacker Henry To'oTo'o led the team with 112 tackles, outside linebacker Will Anderson Jr. was the talk of the nation, setting the NCAA record (since 2000) for tackles for loss in a season with 34.5 while leading the country in sacks with 17.5. Anderson Jr. added 102 tackles and three pass breakups on his way to winning the Bronko Nagurski Trophy as the nation's best defensive player.

His 2020 defense led the SEC in scoring (19.0 ppg) and got better as the season progressed, allowing just 15 points per game over the final nine contests. The Tide ranked third in the league in total defense and rushing defense while the pass efficiency defense also led the league and ranked 18th nationally. Middle linebackers Dylan Moses and Christian Harris paced the Crimson Tide with 80 and 79 tackles, respectively, while combining for 13.5 tackles for loss and six sacks. Moses garnered first team All-America honors from the AFCA while Harris was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award.

Golding's unit was devastated by injuries in 2019 and forced the first-year coordinator into starting two true freshmen at the mike and will positions in the Tide's base 3-4 scheme. Expected starters at middle linebacker, Joshua McMillon and Moses, both suffered torn ACLs in fall camp. Those setbacks forced two true freshmen into the lineup in a trial by fire scenario that saw Shane Lee finish second on the team in tackles with 86, including 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks, and Harris rank fourth in tackles with 63 and 7.5 tackles for loss.

The inside linebackers at Alabama in 2018 were led by a pair of second team All-Americans in junior Mack Wilson and Moses. Both players started all 15 games at the mike and will spots, combining for 157 tackles. Moses was a finalist for the Butkus Award in 2018 and led all tacklers with 86 stops that year. He added 10 tackles for loss (-41 yards), 3.5 sacks, a pass breakup and a forced fumble. Wilson, who was a semifinalist for the Butkus, registered 71 tackles, two interceptions, five pass breakups and six quarterback hurries.

Alabama's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

Golding came to Tuscaloosa after coaching defensive backs and handling the defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017. Golding's 2017 defense at Texas-San Antonio ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19). UTSA's improvement during Golding's tenure were evident as the defense allowed 156 less yards per game and 16.8 less point per game in 2017 compared to the year prior to his arrival in 2015.

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, Golding helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game – the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), tackles for loss (77), sacks (27) and quarterback hurries (38). Individually, linebacker Josiah Tauaefa broke UTSA's season record for tackles with 115 on his way to becoming the program's first Freshman All-American (Football Writers Association of America) and collecting Conference USA Freshman of the Year and first team all-conference honors.

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southern) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record. Southeastern Louisiana advanced to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs in its first appearance and Golding's defense led the Southland in both total and scoring defense.

Before heading to Hammond, he was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesman to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Tusculum coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction. In 2007, Tusculum intercepted a program-record 14 passes and produced conference-leading marks in sacks and forced turnovers on their way to an appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Golding tutored six All-Americans during his 10-year coaching career before his time in Tuscaloosa, including 2012 FCS Defensive Player of the Year and 2013 second round National Football League draft pick Robert Alford, who was a cornerback under Golding during his senior season. He coached 18 Delta State players to All-Gulf South Conference and All-South Region teams during his tenure, while six Tusculum defenders received All-South Atlantic Conference accolades.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05).

A native of Hammond, La., Golding and his wife Carolyn have three children, Braxton, Bentley and Bailey. Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.

2ND YEAR

ROBERT GILLESPIE

Running Backs

FLORIDA, 2005

Robert Gillespie joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2021 to coach the Crimson Tide's running backs.

Known as one of the country's top recruiters, Gillespie arrived at the Capstone after three years coaching running backs at North Carolina for then-head coach Larry Fedora for a season followed by two years for head coach Mack Brown.

Over the course of his 17-year career in coaching, Gillespie has produced 12 NFL running backs, including 2017 Offensive Rookie of the Year Alvin Kamara. He will add one more to that list with Alabama's Brian Robinson Jr. slated to hear his name called in the 2022 NFL Draft. Including Kamara, Gillespie mentored three NFL backs at Tennessee, three at Oklahoma State and two each at South Carolina and West Virginia.

Gillespie's first season at Alabama saw Robinson Jr. rush for 1,343 yards and 14 touchdowns in 14 games, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2021 SEC Championship and advance to the CFP National Championship Game. Robinson Jr. was also fourth on the team in receiving, catching 35 passes for 296 yards and two touchdowns.

He guided two of the nation's finest running backs in 2020 at North Carolina as Michael Carter and Javonte Williams both recorded 1,000-yard seasons. Carter led the way with 1,245 yards on the ground and nine touchdowns while Williams scored 19 times on the ground and finished with 1,140 yards. In 2019, his running backs helped the Tar Heels rank 12th nationally in total offense while rushing for 188.2 yards per game. The backfield trio of Carter, Javonte Williams and Antonio Williams combined to rush for 2,258 yards (5.8 ypc) and 11 touchdowns, while catching 40 passes for another 334 yards and three scores. UNC averaged 193 rushing yards per game and 5.3 yards per carry in 2018, ranking 19th nationally.

Gillespie joined the Carolina staff after five seasons at Tennessee, where he served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the Vols' running backs. While in Knoxville, Gillespie coached several talented backs, including Kamara, Jalen Hurd, John Kelly and Rajion Neal.

During his time on Rocky Top, Gillespie directed a rushing attack that scored a rushing touchdown in a school-record 32 straight games. The Vols scored 31 rushing touchdowns in 2016 alone to go along with 2,668 rushing yards as a team, marking the first time since the 1992, 1993 and 1994 seasons that UT had topped 2,000 rushing yards in three consecutive years.

Prior to his time at UT, Gillespie tutored running backs at West Virginia for two years (2011-12), where he helped the Mountaineers to the 2011 BIG EAST title. The Mountaineers rushed for an average of 171.8 yards per game in 2012, a marked improvement of almost 50 yards per game.

Gillespie spent a pair of seasons as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State (2009-10) where he coached future NFL running backs Kendall Hunter, Joseph Randall and Keith Toston. Hunter was an All-American for the Cowboys in 2010, ranking ninth nationally with 1,548 rushing yards, and went on to play in Super Bowl XLVII for the 49ers. Gillespie coached three All-Big 12 runners at Oklahoma State in Hunter, Toston and fullback Bryant Ward. The Pokes averaged 187.8 yards on the ground in 2009 and followed that up with 174.4 rushing yards per game in 2010, which ranked 36th in the country.

Before his stint in Stillwater, Gillespie spent four seasons at South Carolina (2005-08), beginning his tenure as a graduate assistant in 2005 before being elevated to running backs coach in 2006 where he mentored Cory Boyd, who ended up being the first USC running back drafted since 1998. As a senior, Boyd piled up 1,308 yards from scrimmage and scored 10 touchdowns.

Gillespie was a four-year letterman at the University of Florida from 1998-2001, where he played running back for the Gators. He totaled 1,854 career rushing yards and was also a reliable receiver out of the backfield. Gillespie still ranks second all-time for the Gators in receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,091) by a running back. He served as team captain in 2001, helping lead the Gators to a 56-23 Orange Bowl victory over Maryland and a No. 3 final national ranking in the Associated Press and Coaches' polls. He also helped Florida win an SEC Championship in 2000.

Following his collegiate playing career, Gillespie played in the NFL for the Washington Redskins (2002-03) and the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003). A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Gillespie earned his undergraduate degree from Florida in 2005. He and his wife Crystal have two daughters, Nola and Sadie, and a son, Wynston.

1ST YEAR

COLEMAN HUTZLER

Special Teams Coordinator/OLB

SYRACUSE, 1991

Coleman Hutzler begins his first season on the Alabama coaching staff after head coach Nick Saban hired him in January of 2022 to coordinate special teams and coach Alabama's outside linebackers.

He arrives in Tuscaloosa after spending the 2021 season as the special teams coordinator at Ole Miss, where the Rebels ranked second in the SEC in punt returns and third in punt return defense while ranking fifth in field-goal percentage.

He inherits one of the best position groups in college football with Bronko Nagurski Award winner Will Anderson Jr., freshman All-American Dallas Turner and junior Chris Braswell along with an outstanding incoming freshman class.

Anderson Jr. recorded an NCAA-leading 34.5 tackles for loss (-148 yards) and 17.5 sacks (108 yards) in 15 games a season ago, while Turner started the final 10 games of the year and made 10 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

Prior to his time in Oxford, Hutzler spent one season in Texas in 2020 as the co-defensive coordinator. His defense ranked No. 9 in the FBS in fourth down conversion defense (.333) and Longhorn junior Joseph Ossai earned consensus All-America honors under Hutzler's guidance. Ossai ranked No. 14 in the country with 16 tackles for loss while registering 55 total stops and led the Big 12 in forced fumbles with three.

Hutzler spent four seasons at South Carolina (2016-19) as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. During his time at USC, the Gamecocks excelled on special teams. In 2019, the USC special teams units ranked in the top 20 nationally in two categories, including rating No. 10 in net punting (41.96 ypp) and No. 16 in punt return average (13.27 ypr). Punter Joseph Charlton earned second team All-SEC honors on his way to setting the school record in punting average (47.7 ypp).

In 2018, Hutzler mentored return specialist Deebo Samuel. Under Hutzler's guidance, Samuel tallied his school-record fourth career kickoff return for a touchdown, tying the SEC mark, and was named first team All-SEC as a return specialist.

In 2017, Hutzler was nominated for the Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach. Charlton logged another one of the school's top single-season punting averages at 43.5 yards per punt, while ranking among the nation's top 30. Samuel returned each of his two kickoffs for touchdowns in the season's first two games.

The 2016 season saw the Gamecocks' kickoff return team lead the SEC and rank No. 8 nationally, averaging 25.8 yards per return. Samuel posted a 100-yard touchdown return and placekicker Elliott Fry became the school's all-time leading scorer, while snapper Drew Williams was recognized as a fourth team All-American.

Hutzler spent the 2015 season as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Boston College. During his year in Chestnut Hill, Hutzler was part of a staff that produced the nation's stingiest defense, as the Eagles allowed just 254.3 yards per game, 82.8 rush yards per game and a mere 24.1 percent of third down conversions. On special teams, Michael Walker ranked in the top 10 nationally in kick return average and BC blocked three punts.

Previously, Hutzler logged two stints at Florida, first from 2010-11 as an assistant to the linebackers and special teams coordinator, then again for the 2014 season, handling special teams and outside linebackers.

In 2014, Florida had the second-best punt return average in the SEC and the 17th-best unit in the nation. Punter Kyle Christy earned second team All-SEC honors after averaging 44.3 yards per punt, the nation's 14th-best average. OLB Dante Fowler was drafted third overall in 2015 by Jacksonville after producing 15 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks under Huntzler's tutelage.

Between his stints in Gainesville, Hutzler was the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at New Mexico from 2012-13. He coached punter Ben Skaer to first team All-Mountain West accolades and returner Carlos Wiggins to MWC Special Teams Player of the Year and a second team All-America honor in 2013.

Hutzler began his coaching career at the University of San Diego, working as a defensive assistant in 2006. He moved to Palo Alto to become a recruiting assistant at Stanford in 2007 and served as an assistant on the defensive side of the ball for the Cardinal in 2008 and 2009.

A native of Las Vegas, Hutzler played football at Middlebury College in Vermont, earning his degree in psychology. A linebacker from 2002-05, he was a team captain as a senior and left the program second in career tackles. Hutzler and his wife Cobey have a son, Micah, and a daughter, Leila.

4TH YEAR

CHARLES KELLY

Assoc. Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

AUBURN, 1990

Charles Kelly brought his defensive expertise to Alabama head coach Nick Saban's defensive staff in 2019 as the associate defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Kelly, a native of Ozark, Ala., joined the Crimson Tide's staff after one season as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach at Tennessee. Prior to Knoxville, he coached five seasons at Florida State (2013-17), including the final four years as the Seminoles' defensive coordinator. Kelly has coordinated defenses and coached the secondary at Jacksonville State (1994-98), Henderson State (1999), Nicholls State (2005), Georgia Tech (2012) and Florida State (2014-17). He has a decorated background on special teams, directing those units at Georgia Tech (2006-07), Florida State (2013) and Tennessee (2018). Overall, Kelly has coached 16 All-Americans and won five conference championships, including three ACC titles and a SEC Championship in his career. As a special teams coordinator, he has coached a Ray Guy Award winner and a Lou Groza Award winner.

In 2022, Kelly returns starting safeties Jordan Battle and DeMarcco Hellams along with versatile defensive backs Malachi Moore and Brian Branch, who each saw extensive action at the star or nickelback position in 2021. Hellams and Battle finished third and fourth, respectively, on the team in tackles in 2021, combining for 171 stops, six interceptions and six pass breakups. Branch was sixth on the team in tackles (55) and recorded a team-high nine pass breakups.

The trio of Battle, Hellams and Daniel Wright finished third, fourth and fifth on the team in tackles in 2020. The Tide secondary ranked 17th nationally with 12 interceptions and 18th in pass efficiency defense (119.37) during that national championship season.

Xavier McKinney and Jared Mayden roamed the safety positions in 2019 under Kelly's direction. McKinney led the team with 95 tackles and added three interceptions while Mayden paced the defense with four interceptions to go along with 59 tackles. Alabama ranked fourth nationally while leading the SEC in pass efficiency defense (109.75) during Kelly's first year in Tuscaloosa.

While at Tennessee, Kelly's special teams were solid, blocking five kicks (No. 5 nationally), ranking fourth in the country in punt return defense (2.00 yards per return) and fourth in the league in punt returns (12.80 ypr). His safeties Nigel Warrior and Micah Abernathy turned in solid seasons with Warrior finishing second on the team at 64 tackles while Abernathy made 38 stops with three tackles for loss.

Kelly spent five years at Florida State, serving as the defensive coordinator the final four years on Jimbo Fisher's staff after taking over for former Alabama defensive coordinator Jeremy Pruitt in 2014. His defenses in Tallahassee ranked in the top 25 nationally across his final three years, including No. 18 in 2017 after allowing only 331.1 total yards per game. FSU finished 22nd nationally in total defense in 2016 (349.1 ypg) and his 2015 unit ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.8 ppg).

He coached 10 NFL Draft picks as the coordinator for the 'Noles, including first round defensive backs Jalen Ramsey (No. 5 overall) and Derwin James (No. 17). He also mentored several first team All-Americans, including Tarvarus McFadden and Ramsey.

The Seminoles led the nation in sacks in 2016 (3.92 per game) behind 16 sacks from defensive end DeMarcus Walker. FSU also finished 22nd nationally in total defense (349.1) that season. The 2015 unit ranked ninth in the nation in scoring defense (17.8 points per game) and No. 19 in total defense (336.9). Kelly's defense in 2014 led Florida State to the first-ever College Football Playoff and helped the Seminoles produce a program-record 29-game win streak.

Kelly traveled to Florida State after seven seasons at Georgia Tech, where he coached special teams, defensive backs and served as the interim defensive coordinator during his tenure. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for the Yellow Jackets in the sixth game of the 2012 season when Georgia Tech had a 2-4 record. Kelly helped GT finish out the season 5-3, including a Sun Bowl victory over Southern Cal, where Kelly's defense held the high-powered Trojans' offense to just 205 yards and seven points.

In 2011, Kelly's defensive backs led a pass defense that finished No. 2 in the ACC. Two years prior in 2009, Kelly's unit helped Georgia Tech win the ACC Championship and go to the Orange Bowl, finishing 11-3. He served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007, coaching punter Durant Brooks to the Ray Guy Award in 2007.

Kelly coached at Nicholls State from 2002-05, serving as defensive backs coach for two seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator. They captured the Southland Conference title in 2005 and ranked No. 17 in the nation (FCS) in total defense. He was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who went on to be drafted by Jacksonville in 2004.

He spent two years at Eufaula (Ala.) High School after five years as a defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State (1994-98) and Henderson State (1999). He coached running backs and defensive backs at JSU and defensive backs at Henderson State. Kelly began his coaching career at Phenix City (Ala.) Central High School (1990-92) before returning to Auburn as a graduate assistant in 1993.

He is a 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in secondary math education. He then earned his master's degree in education from Troy in 2002. Kelly and his wife Kristy have three daughters, Caroline, Kathleen and Charli Grace.

2ND YEAR

BILL O'BRIEN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

BROWN, 1992

Bill O'Brien joined head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2021 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after six-plus years as the head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans.

In his first season in Tuscaloosa, O'Brien inherited an offense that had to replace five first round draft picks, including Davey O'Brien winner Mac Jones, Heisman Trophy winner DeVonta Smith, Doak Walker winner Najee Harris and Outland Trophy winner Alex Leatherwood.

The 2021 campaign saw O'Brien develop first-year starting quarterback Bryce Young into a Heisman Trophy winner. Along the way, Young set school records for single-season passing yards (4,872) and passing touchdowns (47). He earned consensus first team All-America honors and won the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and Manning awards.

The Tide's offense averaged 39.9 points per game while amassing 488.2 yards per game and finishing seventh nationally in passing yards with 338.2 yards per game. Alabama also finished third in third-down conversion offense (52.0 percent) and seventh in passing efficiency (166.47).

In addition to his role as head coach, O'Brien was also the Texans' general manager for one season (2020) and compiled a 52-48 (.520) record with four AFC South titles, four playoff appearances and two appearances in the AFC Divisional Round. Houston was one of just three teams in the NFL to win four division titles from 2015-2019 (Kansas City and New England), and its 21 wins over the 2018 and 2019 seasons were the second-most in a two-year span in franchise history (22 wins from 2011-12).

O'Brien's offenses in Houston proved to be balanced and potent with the Texans ranking in the top-10 in the league in rushing yards to pair with quarterback Deshaun Watson, who threw for 4,165 yards in 2018 and 3,852 yards in 2019. The 2019 team featured a 3,500-yard passer (Watson), a 1,000-yard rusher (Carlos Hyde) and a 1,000-yard receiver (DeAndre Hopkins) for just the fourth time in franchise history. Under O'Brien, Watson grew into a two-time Pro Bowler and the only player in NFL history to record consecutive seasons (2018-19) with at least 25 passing touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns.

The Texans won the division in 2018 with an 11-5 mark, going 11-2 over the team's final 13 games with another potent offense and six Pro Bowlers. Under O'Brien's tutelage in 2017, Watson put together a historic rookie season despite playing in just seven games before sustaining a season-ending injury. He set NFL records for the most passing touchdowns (19) through a player's first seven career games and for the most passing touchdowns (18, Weeks 3-8) by a rookie over any five-game span in league history. At the time of his injury, the Texans featured the league's highest-scoring offense (30.7 points per game).

In his first three years (2014-16), O'Brien led the Texans to three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and back-to-back AFC South division championships. He became just the 14th coach since 1978 to begin his NFL head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons.

Prior to joining the Texans, O'Brien took on one of the tallest tasks in college football history when he was named head coach at Penn State on Jan. 6, 2012. He spent two years leading the Nittany Lions program, posting a 15-9 overall record and a 10-6 mark in the Big Ten, while garnering national and conference Coach of the Year awards.

Penn State won eight of its final 10 games to finish the 2012 season with an 8-4 record. O'Brien, who also served as offensive coordinator for the Nittany Lions, was named the Bear Bryant, Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year after winning more games than any other first-year head coach in the program's previous 125 seasons.

A member of the Patriots' coaching staff from 2007-11, O'Brien helped lead New England to a pair of Super Bowl berths. He rose from offensive assistant to wide receivers coach in 2008 and then quarterbacks coach from 2009-10 prior to being named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011. The Patriots earned the top seed in the AFC with a 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI with O'Brien coordinating the offense in 2011. New England led the AFC in scoring with 32.1 points per game and was second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing (317.8). Quarterback Tom Brady threw for a then-career-high 5,235 yards (second in NFL) and 39 touchdowns during that 2011 campaign.

In O'Brien's second season as quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2010, Brady was selected as the first unanimous Associated Press NFL MVP after leading the team to an NFL-best 14-2 mark. While O'Brien was his position coach from 2009-11, Brady led the AFC in attempts (1,668), completions (1,096), touchdown passes (103), interception percentage (1.7) and passer rating (104.0) while ranking second in the conference in passing yards (13,533).

O'Brien last served as a college offensive coordinator at Duke during the 2005-06 seasons. Prior to his time with the Blue Devils, O'Brien was the running backs coach at Maryland (2004) after spending eight years at Georgia Tech in a myriad of roles, including graduate assistant, running backs, offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and assistant head coach (1995-2002). O'Brien started his career at Brown, coaching the tight ends in 1993 and the inside linebackers in 1994.

The native of Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien played linebacker and defensive end at Brown from 1990-92 and graduated with a double concentration in political science and organizational behavioral management in 1992. O'Brien and his wife Colleen have two sons, Jack and Michael.

3RD YEAR

FREDDIE ROACH

Defensive Line

ALABAMA, 2008

Freddie Roach was named the defensive line coach at his alma mater by Alabama head coach Nick Saban in February of 2020. He returned to Tuscaloosa after spending the previous three seasons at Ole Miss in the same role.

In his second season back at the Capstone, Roach's defensive line turned in an outstanding season that saw the unit get better each week. The Crimson Tide defense finished fourth nationally against the rush, allowing just 86.0 yards per game and seventh in total defense at 304.1 ypg in 2021.

Redshirt senior Phidarian Mathis led the group with a dominant season that included 53 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and nine sacks. He was joined by Byron Young, who finished with 40 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss, while Tim Smith recorded 24 tackles to go with Justin Eboigbe and DJ Dale, who each had 19 tackles apiece.

In 2020, Roach inherited a young but talented defensive front that steadily developed throughout the Crimson Tide's march to an undefeated national championship season. Redshirt sophomore Christian Barmore led the team and was second in the SEC with eight sacks while recording 37 tackles to pace all defensive linemen. He was named the Defensive MVP of the College Football Playoff National Championship with five tackles, including two key sacks. Barmore was then selected in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Patriots.

Mathis stepped up along the defensive front in 2020 as well, finishing with 31 tackles, five tackles for loss, three pass breakups and three quarterback hurries. Young added 6.5 tackles for loss while Dale finished with 22 tackles and Eboigbe had 19.

In his final season in Oxford, Roach's 2019 Ole Miss defensive line was led by nose tackle Benito Jones and defensive end Josiah Coatney. Jones recorded 10 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks while Coatney added 46 total tackles, four quarterback hurries, 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks.

In 2018, Coatney (63) and Qaadir Sheppard (48) combined for 111 tackles and three forced fumbles. Sheppard produced a season-high 10 tackles for loss, while Markel Winters (4.0) and Jones (3.0) solidified the defensive front. During his first season at Ole Miss, Roach developed a pair of NFL Draft picks in Breeland Speaks (2nd round) and Marquis Haynes (4th round). The two combined for 14.5 sacks while earning second team All-SEC accolades. Haynes finished as Ole Miss' career leader in sacks (32.0) and tackles for loss (47.5).

Roach was previously at Alabama from 2015-17 as the Tide's director of player development where his primary focus was the off-the-field activities of Crimson Tide's football student-athletes, serving as a resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also served as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics. During his time in that role, Alabama won back-to-back SEC titles and played for the national championships all three years, winning the crown after the 2015 and 2017 seasons.

Before his return to Tuscaloosa, Roach spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at South Alabama under head coach Joey Jones. Roach helped the Jaguars end the 2013 season ranked third nationally in sacks per game and 21st in tackles for loss per contest while finishing second in the Sun Belt in pass, total and scoring defense. The 2014 defense was second in the Sun Belt in total defense.

In 2012, Roach coached Murray State's defensive line while also assisting with the strength and conditioning program. The previous fall, he coached the defensive line and was the director of strength and conditioning at East Mississippi Community College, helping lead the Lions to the NJCAA National Championship.

Roach's first stint on the Alabama coaching staff came from 2008-10 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, during which time the Crimson Tide won both the BCS national championship and Southeastern Conference title in 2009.

As a player, Roach was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Crimson Tide from 2002-05. During his time at the Capstone, he was named the National Freshman of the Year in addition to earning Freshman All-America accolades and was twice tabbed as a second team All-SEC honoree. He was also named to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. Following his time in Tuscaloosa, Roach signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 2006.

A native of Killen, Ala., he made 194 tackles with 23 tackles for loss and six forced fumbles as a senior at Brook High School. Roach earned his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2008.

Roach and his wife Ashley have three daughters, Mattie, Addison and Alexandria, and a son, Freddie III.

1ST YEAR

TRAVARIS ROBINSON

Cornerbacks

AUBURN, 2007

Travaris Robinson joined head coach Nick Saban's coaching staff in January of 2022 to coach the Crimson Tide's cornerbacks.

Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Robinson, known as "T-Rob," is a native of Miami who boasts 16 years of college coaching experience, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at South Carolina from 2016-19.

Robinson spent the 2021 season coaching defensive backs at Miami and was retained on the Hurricanes staff by new head coach Mario Cristobal before coming to Tuscaloosa to coach the cornerbacks.

In his final season at South Carolina in 2020, Robinson mentored defensive lineman Kingsley Enagbare, a first-team All-SEC selection, and defensive back Jaycee Horn, a second-team All-SEC pick. In 2019, the South Carolina defense – led by first-team All-American defensive tackle Javon Kinlaw – held its opponents to 20 points or less in five games. Sophomore cornerback Israel Mukuamu earned second-team All-SEC honors, while Jammie Robinson and Zacch Pickens earned SEC All-Freshman accolades for the Gamecocks in 2019.

In 2017, South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of their 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average. South Carolina also tied for 10th in the nation in turnovers forced with 27 during the 2016 campaign, including 15 interceptions.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs before arriving in Columbia, S.C. as defensive coordinator – first at Florida (2011-14), then at Auburn (2015). The former Auburn Tiger standout began his coaching career at his alma mater, first as a staff assistant in 2006 while finishing up his undergraduate degree, then as a GA in 2007. Robinson spent one season each as a defensive backs coach at Western Kentucky (2008), Southern Miss (2009) and Texas Tech (2010) before joining the Florida staff.

In his first season at Florida in 2011, Robinson guided a UF secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense (166.8), while the Gator defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5). In 2012, Robinson led a secondary that was one of the best, ranking No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense (95.55), giving up just seven touchdown passes. Florida was seventh nationally with 20 interceptions and safety Matt Elam earned first-team All-America honors.

Robinson's secondary in 2013 was seventh nationally in passing defense and eighth in passing efficiency defense, while the Canes were eighth in total defense. Under Robinson, Vernon Hargreaves III was named the National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by College Football News.

In 2014 at Florida, Robinson again tutored Hargreaves III, who was a first-team All-SEC pick and named first-team All-America. Jalen Tabor received freshman All-America and freshman All-SEC honors. The Gators defense finished the 2014 regular season ranked ninth nationally in total defense, 14th in pass efficiency defense and 23rd in passing defense.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, he helped Texas Tech to an 8-5 record and a TicketCity Bowl victory over Northwestern. In his one season with the Red Raiders, Robinson had two defensive backs earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention recognition and a third that was named a freshman All-America honorable mention.

As a player at Auburn, Robinson was a first-team All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 2002 after recording 92 total tackles with four interceptions. He finished his collegiate career with 166 tackles and five interceptions. Before embarking on his coaching career, Robinson played two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Robinson was born in Miami and attended Coral Park High where he was a four-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Auburn in 2007. Robinson and his wife Mandisa have two sons, Tyson Jerod and Travis Jerod, and a daughter, Jordyn.

4TH YEAR

HOLMON WIGGINS

Asst. Head Coach Offense/Wide Receivers

NEW MEXICO, 2003

Holmon Wiggins is in his fourth season at Alabama on head coach Nick Saban's staff as the Crimson Tide's wide receivers coach and second as the assistant head coach of offense.

Wiggins came to Tuscaloosa after three years (2015-18) coaching wide receivers at Virginia Tech and another four seasons at Memphis (2012-15).

His first three seasons in Tuscaloosa have produced a Heisman Trophy and Biletnikoff Award winner, two Biletnikoff finalists and three All-Americans. He has developed four first-round NFL Draft picks, including Jaylen Waddle (No. 6 overall), DeVonta Smith (No. 10), Henry Ruggs III (No. 12) and Jerry Jeudy (No. 15) – and likely one more with Jameson Williams declaring for the 2022 NFL Draft.

Williams, a transfer from Ohio State, and junior John Metchie III became just the second wide receiver duo in Alabama history to each eclipse 1,000 yards in a season. Williams was a 2021 Biletnikoff finalist and first team All-American after catching 79 passes for 1,572 yards and 15 touchdowns. He averaged a school-record 19.9 yards per catch and earned SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Year. Metchie III led the team with 96 receptions for 1,142 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2020, Smith turned in arguably the best season by a wide receiver in college football history on his way to winning not only the Heisman and Biletnikoff but the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Paul Hornung Award. He caught 117 passes for 1,856 yards and 23 touchdowns, setting SEC marks for yards and receiving touchdowns, while finishing his career with the SEC records for receptions (235), yards (3,965) and touchdowns (46). Waddle got off to and even hotter start than Smith before an ankle injury caused him to miss eight games leading up to the national title, finishing with 28 receptions for 591 yards and four touchdowns in just five games at wide receiver. Metchie III also produced a breakout season, hauling in 55 catches for 916 yards and six scores.

Wiggins' first season in Tuscaloosa did not disappoint as he helped the vaunted Crimson Tide receiving corps improve on already stellar careers. Smith turned in an impressive season with 68 receptions for a team-best 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns. Jeudy led the team in receptions with 77 while recording 1,163 receiving yards and 10 more touchdowns to finish his career with 26 (third-most in school history). Ruggs III added 40 catches for 746 yards and seven touchdowns while Waddle added six more scores, 33 receptions and 560 receiving yards.

Before coming to Tuscaloosa, Wiggins oversaw the development of Virginia Tech's wide receivers for three years, highlighted by Cam Phillips, who established himself as Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards. Phillips caught 76 passes for 983 yards as a junior and then followed that with 71 catches for 964 yards as a senior.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Wiggins had four wide receivers catch at least 26 passes in 2018. Damon Hazelton led the group with 51 catches for 802 yards and eight touchdowns while Eric Kumah caught 42 balls for 559 yards and seven scores. Tre Turner averaged 20.6 yards per catch while Hezekiah Grimsley hauled in 31 passes for 382 yards.

The 2017 corps at Tech was led by Phillips who caught 71 passes for 964 yards and a career-best seven touchdowns as a senior. Phillips garnered first team All-ACC honors in 2017 and earned a spot on the Buffalo Bills roster in 2018. Phillips became Virginia Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards by the end of his time in Blacksburg.

Wiggins was part of a staff that helped guide Tech's offense to 10 single-season records during their first year in 2016, including: points (490), passing first downs (172), touchdown passes (31), total offense (6,223), completion percentage (62.1 percent), passing yards (3,660) and pass completions (279).

He helped continue the ascent of Isaiah Ford, who broke his own Tech single-season record with 79 receptions in 2016, registering 1,094 yards and seven touchdowns in the process. Phillips, who earned Belk Bowl MVP honors in 2016, concluded his junior campaign by setting personal bests in receptions (76) and receiving yards (983).

Wiggins was an integral component of Justin Fuente's staff that helped lead Memphis to 19 victories and back-to-back bowl appearances in 2014-15. Memphis receivers registered 148 receptions, 1,687 yards and four touchdowns in 2013 and upped that total to 205 receptions for 2,422 yards and 14 scores in 2014 before hauling in 255 passes for 3,277 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2015.

He drastically improved the production of the wide receivers corps at Memphis when he arrived in 2012, with the receivers accounting for 125 receptions and 1,417 yards. The Tigers registered 53 receiving touchdowns in 2014-15, compared to only 24 in the two seasons before Wiggins' arrival.

Wiggins joined the Memphis program after a one-year stint tutoring the running backs at Tulsa in 2011. The UT running backs combined for 2,006 rushing yards, while H-Back Willie Carter led Tulsa with 868 receiving yards that season, meriting a spot on the All-Conference USA second team.

Prior to Tulsa, Wiggins enjoyed a five-year stint coaching running backs at Illinois State from 2006-10, helping guide the Redbirds to the FCS quarterfinals in his initial season on the staff. Under his tutelage in 2006, running back Pierre Rembert earned All-America accolades and rushed for a school-record 1,743 yards. From 2006-08, Illinois State averaged 187.7 rushing yards per game and racked up 76 rushing scores.

Wiggins began his coaching career at his alma mater the University of New Mexico after an outstanding playing career with the Lobos. He was a three-year starter at running back, finishing his career with 1,833 rushing years while setting the Lobos' single-season record for punt returns (46) and punt return yards (392). He is a 2003 graduate of the University of New Mexico.

Wiggins and his wife Dominique have four daughters, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn and Journye and two sons Kingston and Legend.

1ST YEAR

ERIC WOLFORD

Offensive Line

KANSAS STATE, 1994

Eric Wolford joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2022 to coach the Crimson Tide's offensive line.

Wolford spent the 2021 season at Kentucky rebuilding a Wildcats' offensive front that lost three starters into a unit that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award. The Wildcats averaged 5.23 yards per carry last year while 53.1 percent of their rush attempts went for four yards or more, which led the nation.

Wolford inherits an Alabama offensive line that returns three starters off the 2021 SEC Championship team but must replace left tackle Evan Neal, who is expected to be a first-round pick in the 2022 NFL Draft.

A highly regarded recruiter, he arrives in Tuscaloosa with 26 years of coaching experience, including two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers in 2015 and 2016. Prior to Kentucky, Wolford spend four seasons on Will Muschamp's staff at South Carolina.

In 2020 at South Carolina, Wolford's unit helped pave the way for running back Kevin Harris to lead the SEC in rushing with 1,138 yards, becoming just the ninth player in USC history to rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2019, the offensive line helped five different running backs rush for more than 100 yards in a game.

During his first year in Columbia in 2017, Carolina's number of sacks allowed dipped from 41 in 2016, the year prior to Wolford's arrival, to 29 in 2017 and to 23 in 2018, the fewest since the 2013 season. Even more impressive, in SEC play the sacks allowed number dropped from 31 in 2016, to 18 in 2017, to just 12 in 2018.

Off the field, Wolford was named a top-25 recruiter by Rivals.com once the signatures were in for the 2018 signing class.

Wolford spent five seasons (2010-14) in his hometown as the head coach at Youngstown State. After a 3-8 mark in his first season, the Penguins compiled a 28-18 mark over his final four campaigns. His teams were ranked in the top-10 three times and broke 32 school records during his tenure.

Highlights included a 2012 win over Pitt - the first win over a BCS team in school history, and a 2011 win over top-ranked North Dakota State, while overseeing the squad's highest GPA on record for four consecutive seasons.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Wolford served as South Carolina's run game coordinator and offensive line coach in 2009 under head coach Steve Spurrier after a two-year stint at Illinois where he held a similar post.

Under Wolford's tutelage, the Illini, who played in the 2008 Rose Bowl game, led the Big Ten in rushing (2007) and passing (2008), while topping the 5,000-yard mark in total offense for just the third and fourth times in school history. Wolford was a Rivals Top-20 National Recruiter in 2008.

Wolford spent three seasons (2004-06) at Arizona as the offensive line coach, where he was on the same staff as Mark Stoops. UA led the league in fewest sacks allowed in 2004 and was second in 2005. He was also an integral part of back-to-back, top-25 recruiting classes.

Wolford spent the 2003 season at North Texas, where his offensive line paved the way for tailback Patrick Cobbs, who earned the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Award. Wolford also helped lead UNT to its third consecutive bid to the New Orleans Bowl.

Before joining North Texas, Wolford enjoyed three-year stints at both Houston and South Florida. While at Houston, he coached a number of positions, spanning offense, defense and special teams, while coaching five all-conference players. He had the unique experience of coaching in the first three seasons of the USF football program, helping to lead the Bulls to a pair of winning seasons.

Wolford began his coaching career at his alma mater Kansas State where he worked as a graduate assistant with the offensive line under John Latina. He then spent two years as the offensive line and strength coach at Emporia State.

Wolford was a four-year starter as an offensive guard at K-State under Bill Snyder, starting 34 games in his career. During his senior year, the Wildcats won the school's first bowl game in the 1993 Copper Bowl. After college, Wolford signed a free-agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals before returning to Manhattan to embark on his coaching career.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Wolford attended Ursuline High School where he was enshrined into the school's athletics Hall of Fame in 2009. He received his bachelor's degree in social sciences with a focus on monetary policy and banking from Kansas State in 1994. He and his wife Melinda have two children, Stone and Marlee.

Eric and Melinda started a non-profit organization, inspired by their son Stone who was diagnosed with Cardiofaciocutaneous Syndrome (CFC Syndrome) as a baby. Their foundation is called the No Stone Unturned Foundation and is dedicated to embracing, engaging, and empowering children with special needs and their families, with a major focus on any child with any disability. For more information on the No Stone Unturned Foundation, visit the website NSUF.org.

2ND YEAR

DAVID BALLOU

Director of Sports Performance

INDIANA, 2001

Regarded among the best in the field, David Ballou joined the Alabama program in March of 2020 as the Director of Sports Performance after two years at Indiana University where he was the Director of Athletic Performance.

Ballou brings a scientific approach to the Crimson Tide's tradition of hard work and dedication that is put towards getting faster and stronger. Ballou implements Coach Saban's offseason program, which includes the well-known "Fourth-Quarter Program."

Ballou and his entire strength and conditioning staff work in unison with athletic training and performance nutrition to create the optimal environment for training and development. At Alabama, Ballou oversees the Crimson Tide's 37,000-square-foot weight room that was updated in the spring of 2020 with 20 Elite Form Power Trackers and three 1080 Sprint devices from 1080 Motion.

The $9-million Alabama weight room opened in 2013 and features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second floor. The ground level is comprised of a weight room that is highlighted by 24 combination racks that feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight room also has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, plus physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While overseeing the Hoosiers, 11 players earned All-Big Ten honors in 2019 as Indiana went 8-5 and played in the Gator Bowl, the team's first Florida bowl game. IU's eight wins were also its most since 1993. Four IU standouts moved on to the NFL under Ballou, including Washington Redskins fourth-round pick Wes Martin. In total, Ballou has trained 31 NFL draft picks in his career.

Prior to Indiana, Ballou spent 2017 as Notre Dame's co-director of football strength and conditioning. In his lone season in South Bend, the Fighting Irish went 10-3 with a victory over LSU in the Citrus Bowl. Notre Dame had posted a 4-8 record prior to his arrival. During his time with the Fighting Irish, Ballou helped develop a Joe Moore Award-winning offensive line, honoring the best line in the country. Two of those linemen, guard Quenton Nelson (6) and tackle Mike McGlinchey (9), were drafted in the Top 10 of the 2018 NFL Draft while four ND players were selected overall.

Before his time in college, Ballou worked as the head football strength and conditioning coach at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., for two years, helping both the 2015 and 2016 teams go undefeated. In 2016, seven IMG players were laser-timed at under 4.5 seconds in the 40-yard dash one year after having no players reach that mark. Twenty-one of the 22 starters to open the 2016 campaign also started in the final game of the season.

Ballou's longest tenure was at Avon (Ind.) High School from 2002-14. During his time as the strength and conditioning coach, the teams won six state championships in multiple sports and seven others were finalists. He assisted in the development of 80 Division I athletes. In 2014, Ballou was a finalist for the NSCA National High School Strength Coach of the Year.

A graduate of Indiana in 2001, Ballou played fullback for the Hoosiers from 1997-99 and was recognized as the Hoosier Strength Challenge Champion. Ballou earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology while in Bloomington and obtained a master's degree in human movement from A.T. Still University in 2009.

Ballou has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist since 2001. He is married to the former Leah Horn, a Bloomington, Ind., native who was a pole vaulter and graduate at Indiana. The couple has two daughters, Mallory and Aubrey.

JEFF ALLEN

Associate AD, Sports Medicine

GEORGIA SOUTHERN (1993)

Associate athletics director for sports medicine Jeff Allen is in his 16th season at The University of Alabama and his 33rd consecutive season working as an athletic trainer in college football.

In his role at Alabama, Allen oversees a staff of 27 athletic trainers that are responsible for the medical care of all Alabama teams. Jeff is also a member of Coach Saban's original staff from 2007 and has been a part of all six national championships during Coach Saban's tenure at the Capstone.

Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

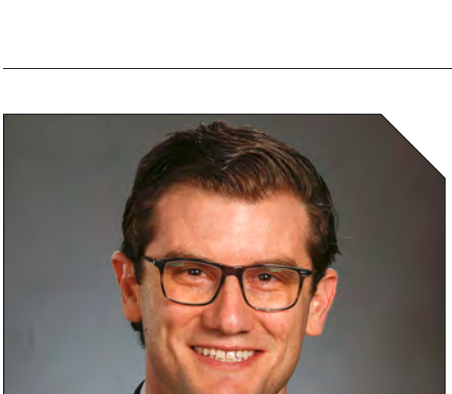

One of the most respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen was honored with National Athletic Trainers Association's Division I Head Athletic Trainer of the Year Award at their 2018 symposium for his work during the 2017 season. Through collaborations with the College of Engineering, Allen was the original inventor of the SidelinER, a medical tent that is now used on almost every sideline in college football and in the NFL.

He has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. His work has been published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams.

He earned a master's degree at Valdosta State University in 1995 and a bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern University in health and physical education in 1993. Jeff's wife Mary is a professor in the University of Alabama Speech-Language pathology program. They have one daughter, Makennah, who is a Crimsonette with the Millon Dollar Band.

7TH YEAR

ELLIS PONDER

Assoc. AD, Football/Football COO

ALABAMA (2010)

Ellis Ponder is in his seventh year as Alabama's Associate Athletics Director, Football Chief Operating Officer and his eighth year with the program. He was elevated to the director of football operations role in February of 2017 after spending the 2015 and 2016 seasons as the Crimson Tide's associate director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to oversee all day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program. Ponder provides oversight and direction for the football program in all off-field areas including the management of football operating budget, operations and all team travel. Ponder also serves as the football program's liaison to athletic administration.

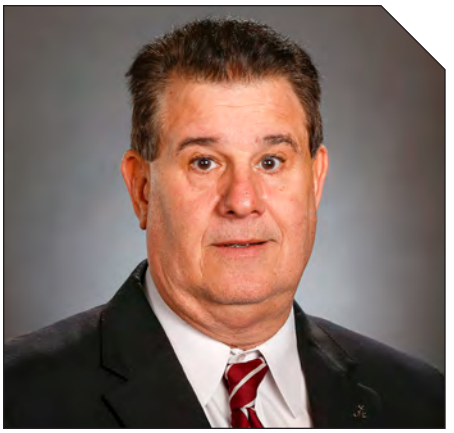

During his two years as associate director of football operations, Ponder also assisted with all team travel, logistics and the day-to-day operations of the football program.

A native of Fairhope, Ala., he spent the previous four years as an event director for the Bruno Event Team in Birmingham, Ala. Ponder helped manage a wide array of sporting events during his time with the Bruno Event Team, including the Regions Tradition, which is a major on the PGA Champions Tour, and the PGA Tour's BMW Championship.

`During his time with the Bruno Event Team, he also helped organize and run the SEC Baseball Tournament, the SEC Women's Golf Championship, the SEC and NCAA Gymnastics Championships, the NCAA College Cup, CrossFit Games, the Honda Indy Grand Prix of Alabama, the Magic City Classic and a wide range of Alabama High School Athletic Association events across the state.

While in school at the Capstone, Ponder served as a student assistant in the Crimson Tide football equipment room from 2006 through the spring of 2011. His last four years in the role he was assigned to offensive line coach Joe Pendry, assisting at daily practices while also working the 2006 and 2007 Independence Bowls, the 2009 Sugar Bowl, 2010 BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl and the 2011 Capital One Bowl.

Ponder holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, finishing his undergraduate degree in business administration in 2010 before completing his master's degree in marketing in 2011.

7TH YEAR

SAL SUNSERI

Special Asst. to the HC

PITTSBURGH (1982

Sal Sunseri, a former All-American linebacker at Pittsburgh, returned to the Alabama coaching staff in 2019 and moves off the field in 2022 as a senior special assistant to head coach Nick Saban.

Sunseri will assist the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including transfer portal, high school relations, defensive game preparations and breakdowns while also assisting with camps and clinics.

He spent the past three seasons coaching the outside linebackers at Alabama, helping guide Will Anderson Jr. to the Bronko Nagurski Trophy in 2021 as the national defensive player of the year. He recorded an NCAA record (since 2000) 34.5 tackles for loss with 17.5 sacks while freshman Dallas Turner added 8.5 sacks in the final seven games of the year. Anderson Jr. and Christopher Allen combined for 23.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks in 2020 as Anderson Jr. captured the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Award.

Sunseri returned to Tuscaloosa after coaching the defensive line at Florida in 2018. His front wreaked havoc on opposing teams' backfields as the Gators forced 11 fumbles and totaled 37 sacks in 2018, marking the first time the program achieved those combined totals since 2015.

He arrived in Gainesville after three seasons as the Oakland Raiders' linebackers coach (2015-17) tutoring the likes of Navarro Bowman, Bruce Irvin and Malcolm Smith.

Prior to Oakland, he worked on Jimbo Fisher's staff at Florida State in 2013 and 2014. Sunseri coached defensive ends and was promoted to defensive head coach in 2014. The Seminoles were 28-1 during Sunseri's tenure, winning the BCS national title at the end of the 2013 season and qualifying for the first College Football Playoff in 2014. The 2013 defense led the nation in scoring defense and ranked No. 3 in total defense.

Sunseri left Alabama following the 2011 season to serve as Tennessee's defensive coordinator. With the Vols, Sunseri coached two of the nation's top defensive players in linebacker A.J. Johnson and corner Byron Moore.

His first stint at Alabama came in 2009-11 coaching the outside linebackers. The Crimson Tide's 2011 defense proved to be one of the best in college football history, leading the nation in numerous defensive categories, while Courtney Upshaw was named a finalist for the Butkus and Lombardi awards. Sunseri was also named a finalist for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Before his time with the Crimson Tide, Sunseri coached a defensive line with the Carolina Panthers that was regarded as one of the best in the NFL from 2002-08. Defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker along with defensive tackle Kris Jenkins earned Pro Bowl honors during Sunseri's tenure.

Sunseri was a walk-on at Pitt in 1978 and ended his career as a team captain and consensus All-American in 1981. He was drafted in the 10th round by the Pittsburgh Steelers but had his pro career cut short by a knee injury in training camp. He received a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1982.

He is married to the former Roxann Evans, who was a varsity gymnast at Pittsburgh. The couple has two daughters, Jaclyn and Ashlyn, and two sons Santino and Vinnie. Santino (Tino) is an offensive analyst with the Tide while Vinnie begins his third year as a defensive assistant with the New England Patriots. Coach Sunseri and Roxann welcome their first grandchild Anthony Joseph.

2ND YEAR

DREW SVOBODA

Special Asst. to the HC

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN (1999)

Drew Svoboda was hired in March of 2021 by Alabama head coach Nick Saban to coach tight ends and coordinate special teams for the Crimson Tide and will make the move off the field as a special assistant to head coach Nick Saban in 2022.

Svoboda will assist the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including transfer portal, high school relations, offensive and special teams game preparations and breakdowns while also assisting with camps and clinics.

In 2021, Svoboda tutored Cam Latu to a career-highs in catches (26) and yards (410) while setting the Alabama record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end with eight.

After a successful run as a high school coach in the Houston area, Svoboda is beginning his fifth year in the collegiate ranks after three seasons at Rice. He spent the 2018 campaign as the Owls running backs coach before two years as the special teams coordinator (2019-20). Before joining the Crimson Tide, Svoboda coached at Memphis in the spring of 2021 as the Tigers' special teams coordinator.

At Rice in 2020, Svoboda's Owls played five games in the middle of the pandemic with the special teams producing at a high level. The place-kickers connected on 9-of-12 field goals while the punting unit averaged 42.8 yards per punt. Rice ranked 14th nationally in total special teams rankings in 2020 by Pro Football Focus.

Faced with the challenge of replacing the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year (Jack Fox) as well as kicker Haden Tabola in 2019, Svoboda's replacements surpassed their efforts. Former walk-on Chris Barnes earned second team all-conference honors while averaging 44.8 yard per punt and he combined to grad transfer Adam Nunez to rank fourth nationally in special teams grades from Pro Football Focus. ors.

In 2018, he coached the Rice running backs and saw his runners top 100 yards four times, capped by Juma Otoviano's freshman record 224-yard effort against Old Dominion in the season finale.

Svoboda made the jump to collegiate coaching in 2018 after guiding Klein Collins High School to five district championships, eight playoff appearances and a 93-24 record in 10 seasons as head coach of the Tigers. His .795 winning percentage ranked sixth among active Texas 6A head coaches at the end of the 2017 season.

He took over a program that was 1-9 the season prior to his arrival (2008) and two years later led them to a 12-1 mark and a district championship. For his efforts, he earned the first of five Touchdown Club of Houston Coach of the Year finalist awards as well as five District 15 6A Coach of the Year honors and the Houston Texans NFL High School Coach of the Year honors.

Svoboda was named Dave Campbell's Texas Football Preseason 6A Coach of the year in 2017 after leading Klein Collins to the state semifinals in 2016. He was also tabbed by VYPE Magazine as its Houston Football Coach of the Year in 2016. Prior to that season, he coached the East Team in the Bayou Bowl High School All-Star game.

Svoboda served on the President of the Greater Houston Greater Houston Football Coaches Association and was on the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA), serving as one of the Region Five Directors.

Svoboda was a tight end and fullback and two-time Academic All-Southland Conference at Stephen F. Austin. He helped lead the Lumberjacks to the 1999 Southland Conference title. He is a 1995 graduate of Tomball high school, where he lettered in football and track.

Svoboda and his wife Kristi are the parents of two children, daughter Austyn, and son Jack.

2ND YEAR

TODD WATSON

Special Asst. to the HC

UNIVERSITY OF MOBILE (1993)

Todd Watson is in his second year as a special assistant to head coach Nick Saban.

At Alabama, Watson will assist the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including high school relations, offensive and special teams game preparations and breakdowns while also assisting with camps and clinics.

Prior to Alabama, Watson spent three seasons at the University of Tennessee where he spent two of those years as the Director of Football Operations and his final season as the Director of Football Programming.

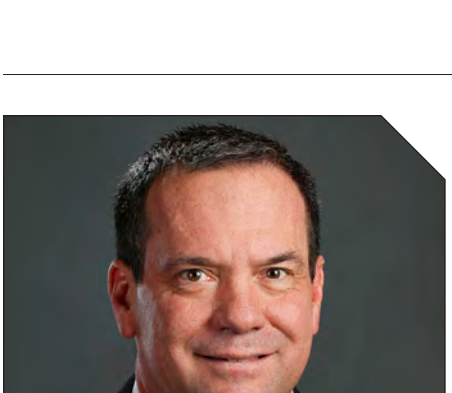

Prior to his time in Knoxville, Watson served as the Director of Operations and High School Relations at Troy from 2015-17. The Trojans combined to go 20-5 over his final two seasons and shared the Sun Belt Championship with Appalachian State in 2017, earning a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans finished 10-3 in 2016, including a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl.

Watson was one of the most successful high school coaches in Alabama before joining the staff at Troy. He posted a record of 80-36 in 10 seasons as the head coach at Foley High School, where he coached former Alabama standout and Atlanta Falcons' All-Pro Julio Jones along with future NFL players such as Robert Lester and D.J. Fluker.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Watson spent five seasons (2000-04) as the defensive coordinator at Hoover High School where he helped lead the Buccaneers to a 70-4 record and four Alabama 6A state titles. He compiled a 24-2 record in two seasons (1998-99) as the defensive coordinator at Bryant High School after five years as an assistant coach at Alba High School from 1993-97.

Watson's teams at Foley made the playoffs each of the 10 years he was at the helm of the program and reached the third round of the playoffs twice. He guided his team to a 16-14 victory over rival Daphne in 2007 in a game that was televised live by ESPN.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Mobile with a bachelor's degree in health & physical education, Watson is married to the former Christie Mallory of Mobile. The couple has two daughters, Micah and LeighAshton.

5TH YEAR

BOB WELTON

Director, Player Personnel

ADRIAN (MICH.) (1991)

Bob Welton joined the Alabama staff in May of 2018 as the Director of Player Personnel.

Welton's responsibilities with the Crimson Tide include the organization of all recruiting efforts while also working with compliance regarding initial eligibility and assisting with coaching clinics, camps and other on-campus events.

He came to Alabama after a brief stint as Nebraska's director of recruiting operations during the spring of 2018. Welton also brought several years of SEC experience to Tuscaloosa, serving as the director of player personnel at Tennessee for five seasons (2013-17). With the Volunteers, he helped Tennessee put together five top-25 recruiting classes, including two top-10 classes according to 247Sports.com, finishing No. 7 in 2014 and fourth in 2015.

A nine-year veteran of the NFL, Welton served as a college scout with the Browns from 2004-13 before moving on to Knoxville. Prior to joining the Browns, he spent seven years as a high school football coach.

His final stop in high school was at Coloma (Mich.) High School where he guided the team to its first undefeated season and first playoff victory in school history. After the season, he was named the Lakeland Conference and MHSFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year. He led South Haven (Mich.) High School for six years (1997-2002) where he helped revive the program and rebuild the school's football stadium.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, who grew up in Luna Pier, Mich., Welton graduated from Erie-Mason High School. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/health at Adrian (Mich.) College in 1991, where he played quarterback and was part of two MIAA championship teams. Welton and his wife Laura have a son, Tye, and a daughter, Brooke.

AMY BRAGG

Director, Performance Nutrition

Amy Bragg is beginning her 13th season as The University of Alabama Athletics Department's director of performance nutrition, a role that spans all 21 of the Crimson Tide's sports.

A registered and licensed dietitian (RD, LD) and board certified specialist in sports dietetics (CSSD), Bragg came to Tuscaloosa after seven seasons as director of performance nutrition for Texas A&M University Athletics.

A recognized leader in collegiate sports nutrition, Bragg has presented at numerous professional conferences. She was a founding board member and served as president of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA), and is a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND), Sports Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition (SCAN) and Behavioral Nutrition (BN) practice groups. Amy was given the Trailblazer Award by CPSDA in 2015 honoring her role in the advancement of the sports nutrition field, and named University of Houston College of Technology Distinguished Alumni in 2011.

Bragg uses a more hands-on approach in working with athletes, and has championed the changes allowing liberalized fueling for student athletes in NCAA athletics.

She developed Alabama's Performance Nutrition program from one full-time position to three full-time registered dietitians, one full-time performance chef, three full-time interns and 20-plus graduate and undergraduate student workers. She oversees and manages team meals, snacks and recovery nutrition, while meeting the demand for nutrition coaching and education, which are drivers for growth in nutrition services. Bragg and other members of the UA performance nutrition staff prioritize mentoring future sports nutrition practitioners in order to continue the advancement of RDs in sports.

Bragg earned a bachelor's of business administration from the University of Texas in 1995 and a bachelor's of science in human nutrition and foods from the University of Houston in 2000.

Bragg and her husband Bobby have a daughter, Rebecca, and a son, Beau.

DANIEL BUSH

Director, Recruiting

Daniel Bush joined the Alabama football staff in March of 2018 as the Crimson Tide's director of football recruiting.

He arrived in Tuscaloosa after a short stint as the director of player personnel at Colorado State. Prior to that, he served four seasons as Arkansas' director of personnel and assistant director of recruiting.

Bush's responsibilities at Alabama include the marketing and branding of the Crimson Tide program relative to recruiting as well as serving as a liaison between the football staff and creative media team. He is also charged with helping identify and evaluate potential prospects along with overseeing all aspects of the recruiting specialist students and management of the recruiting calendar.

During his four seasons at Arkansas, Bush maintained all recruiting boards and roster management charts and oversaw the staff of 15 quality control interns and students. He also aided in prospect identification and prospect evaluation. Bush also helped create and oversee the execution of the Razorbacks year-round recruiting marketing calendar while planning and executing on-campus recruiting events.

He came to Fayetteville after serving as a football operations and recruiting specialist at Alabama from 2011-2014. Bush worked with assistant coaches to maximize productivity in evaluating and recruiting prospects while updating prospect information and maintaining personnel boards.

He also spent the summer of 2013 with the San Francisco 49ers where he served as a research assistant. He conducted in-depth studies on both sides of the football while also analyzing results and creating presentations for the coaching staff.

Bush holds three degrees from The University of Alabama, including two masters. He graduated summa cum laude in mathematics from the honors college in 2011 and followed that with a masters in mathematics and then earned a master's of business administration in 2014.

Daniel and his wife Ashley have one son, Caleb.

JOSH CHAPMAN

Director, Player Development

Josh Chapman was named one of Alabama's directors of player development in February of 2020 after spending the previous four years working as a strength and conditioning assistant in the Crimson Tide's weight room.

In his role working as one the Tide's directors of player development, Chapman's main focus is the off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

Chapman originally joined the Crimson Tide staff in February of 2016 as part of the strength and conditioning staff. He returned to Tuscaloosa following a four-year stint in the National Football League with the Indianapolis Colts. The former defensive tackle helped lead the Colts to three consecutive playoff appearances, including the conference championship in 2014.

He was selected by the Colts in the 2012 NFL Draft after a standout career at Alabama. While with the Crimson Tide from 2008-11, UA went 48-6 overall and claimed the 2009 and 2011 national championships. He played in 44 total games while at the Capstone.

A native of Hoover, Ala., Chapman helped Hoover High School to the state title game as a senior. He was rated as the No. 12 prospect in Alabama coming out of HHS after recording 97 tackles, including 22 for loss and two sacks, with an interception as a senior.

Chapman earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2011. He is married to the former Kourtney Ancar. The couple has three sons, Abram, Joshua Jr. and Jru.

DENZEL DEVALL

Director, Player Development

Denzel Devall was named Alabama's director of player development in February of 2017 after a year as the associate director of player development in 2016.

In his role as the Tide's director of player development, Devall's main focus is off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

He joined the Crimson Tide staff in July of 2016 as the associate director of player development after an outstanding four-year career on the field for the Crimson Tide. He was part of two national championship teams (2012 and 2015) and helped win three SEC titles (2012, 2014 and 2015).

During his playing career, Devall saw time in 50 career games with 25 starts at outside linebacker while making 84 tackles with 14 tackles for loss and six sacks. He was a Freshman All-American in 2012 by the Sporting News.

A native of Bastrop, La., he was a 2011 Louisiana Sports Writers Association 4A All-State selection as a senior at Bastrop High School. Devall earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2015.

Devall has one daughter, Peyton.

DR. GINGER GILMORE

Director, Behavioral Medicine

Dr. Ginger Gilmore serves as the Director of Behavioral Medicine, where she oversees the behavioral and mental health care of the student athlete population. In addition, Ginger serves as certified athletic trainer for football.

Coach Saban hired her from a successful career with Alabama baseball program in 2007. He introduced the idea of joining his staff to create an awareness of and manage the mental wellbeing of student-athletes. Her focus is on the health and well-being of the student-athlete, on and off the field.

She facilitates the process of understanding the mental makeup of each athlete and modification of the approach to coaching, academics, and social aspects based on the individual's needs.

With degrees in Athletic Training (UA), Sports Administration (NSU), and Integrated Behavioral Health (ASU), Dr. Gilmore uniquely blends resources for the physical, mental, and behavioral health care needs of today's student-athlete. Her model of integrated behavioral health care for collegiate athletes serves as a benchmark for other collegiate and professional programs. She is called upon for speaking engagements, program consultation and development, and is considered an expert on the successful implementation of mental health resources in athletics.

Dr. Gilmore has over 29 years of practice as a Certified Athletic Trainer. She is a forerunner, paving the way for female athletic trainers in Division I football and baseball. Her athletic training experience includes women's basketball, the Olympic Games, and volunteer work overseas. Gilmore also serves on several boards and committees including appointment to the Graduate Faculty at UA.

Away from work, she competes as an equestrian on a national championship level in the discipline of Dressage. Her current pony Red Zone is competing for his first title. She is from Bay St. Louis, Miss.

JEREMY GSELL

Director, Football Rehabilitation Services

Jeremy Gsell is in his 17th season as an athletic trainer for the Alabama football program and his sixth as director of rehabilitation services.

In his primary role at Alabama, Gsell is charged with facilitating the long-term injury and post-surgical care and rehabilitation for all football student-athletes. This includes serving as the direct liaison to the Crimson Tide's weight room and team physicians.

He is the direct supervisor to the assistant football athletic trainers Bobby Feeback and Paige Ruden as well as performance analyst Clay Keith.

Prior to his arrival at Alabama, Gsell served as an athletic trainer at the University of Southern Mississippi for two seasons (2005 & 2006) where he was the Golden Eagles' primary trainer for men's basketball while assisting with football.

His first stint at Alabama came as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Crimson Tide football program from 2003-05. During his time at the Capstone, Gsell completed his master's degree in sports management in 2005.

Gsell spent a year interning with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts in 2002-03 where he covered practices, workouts and games while also overseeing inventory management. He assisted with the Colt's daily rehab and athlete treatment.

He is regular speaker at athletic training conferences, including the SEC Athletic Trainers Association, the Alabama state conferences for ALATA, ASMI and The University of Alabama Athletic Training Program. He serves as an adjunct professor at Alabama, teaching lab classes for principles of rehabilitation and reconditioning in athletic training.

Gsell is a 2002 graduate of Salisbury University with a degree in physical education, concentrating in athletic training.

A native of Rock Hall, Md., Gsell and his wife Dana have one son, Brayden.

DANIEL LYERLY

Assistant AD, Technology Operations

In his role as assistant athletics director of technology operations, Daniel Lyerly oversees technology operations for all sports at The University of Alabama.

He is in his 17th season with the University and continues to ensure that Alabama Athletics is at the forefront of innovative IT solutions to remain among the top universities in the nation in sports technology.

Lyerly not only administers all video and technology for Alabama's football coaching staff, but he also produces selected segments for the "Nick Saban Show" and facilitates all production aspects of public service announcements and commercials featuring Nick Saban. Additionally, he offers coaches the most up-to-date recruiting technologies in order to attract top talent to the University.

Before moving to Tuscaloosa, Lyerly spent two years as a student assistant at Coastal Carolina University in 2002 and 2003 working in the video and equipment departments, helping them form their first football team. Following that, he transferred to Alabama and received his undergraduate degree in political science with a minor in computer science.

Originally from Conway, S.C., Lyerly is an Eagle Scout member of Troop 804 and a Vigil Honor Member of Santee Lodge 116, Order of the Arrow, Pee Dee Area Council, BSA. He is married to the former Brandy Moore. They have one son, Benjamin.

SAM PETITTO

Director, Personnel Operations

Sam Petitto is in his sixth year as Alabama's director of personnel operations. He arrived in Tuscaloosa after two years as Georgia's director of player personnel.

At Alabama, Petitto assists the Crimson Tide's director of player personnel and director of recruiting while identifying and evaluating future prospects. He is also charged with updating prospect boards and assisting with the coordination of all on-campus recruiting events while working camps, junior days and clinics.

During his two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia as the director of player personnel, Petitto evaluated high school players from across the country while serving as the program's NFL liaison. He also coached defensive backs for the Bulldogs in the 2015 Tax Slayer Bowl.

Petitto's first stint at Alabama came during the 2008 season, working as a defensive analyst. Prior to that, he spent the 2007 campaign at North Carolina under Butch Davis where he worked as a defensive graduate assistant before becoming the Tar Heels' director of player personnel under the direction of associate head coach John Blake.

Petitto spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach at Grambling where he coached defensive backs and served as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator. He helped Grambling to the 2005 Black College National Championship and his secondary ranked first in the Southwestern Athletic Conference in five categories.

Before his first stint at Southeastern, Petitto had success in the Louisiana high school ranks with stops at Class 1A Kentwood (1998), Class 3A Amite (1999) and Class 4A Salmen High (2000). During his first three seasons in the high school ranks, Petitto helped each school to the Louisiana state championship, with identical 15-0 records at Kentwood and Amite – his alma mater.

Petitto earned his degree from the University of Louisiana Monroe in 1998 after attending Southwest Mississippi Community College on a baseball scholarship. He has one daughter, Malia.

JEFF SPRINGER

Associate Athletics Director, Equipment Operations

The all-important role of associate athletics director for equipment operations is coordinated by Jeff Springer, now in his 11th season with the Crimson Tide. Springer joined the Alabama staff in 2011 after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

J.T. SUMMERFORD

Director, Football Operations

J.T. Summerford is in fourth year as Alabama's director of football operations and his 10th season with the program. He was elevated to the director's role in February of 2018 after spending the 2017 season as the Crimson Tide's assistant director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to help oversee the day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program in consultation with associate athletics director Ellis Ponder. During his lone season as the assistant director of football operations in 2017, Summerford also served as an assistant to the director of player personnel and operations, while helping oversee the organization and execution of the recruiting department. He assisted with team travel, logistics and day-to-day operations.

Summerford began his career with the Crimson Tide as a recruiting specialist in May of 2012 before being promoted to head recruiting specialist in April of 2013 where he served for two seasons. He was promoted to recruiting analyst in 2015 and spent two seasons in that role.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Summerford holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, completing his bachelors of science in accounting and management in 2013 and then finishing his masters of business administration from the Manderson Graduate School of Business in 2015.

He has been a part of three national championship teams at Alabama (2012, 2015 and 2017) along with four SEC titles teams and trips to four national championship games, three Sugar Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Peach Bowl.

Summerford is married to the former Kelsey Cameron. His grandfather, Tom Danner, played football at Alabama from 1951-54 and also earned All-SEC recognition as part of the Crimson Tide's track and field program. Summerford's father John also served as a trainer at Alabama from 1976-79.

ATLANTA – The top-ranked Alabama football team scored on its first five possessions en route to a 44-13 decision over No. 14/16 Miami in the 2021 Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game on Saturday afternoon in Mercedes-Benz Stadium. With the win, the Crimson Tide claimed victory in its 15th straight season opener under head coach Nick Saban.

On offense, quarterback Bryce Young went 27-of-38 for 344 yards and four touchdowns in his first start for Alabama. The four touchdown passes set a new Alabama record for passing scores by a Tide quarterback in his starting debut, passing the previous record of three set by Joe Namath and Mac Jones. Two of his touchdowns went to Cameron Latu, while John Metchie III and Jameson Williams accounted for one each. Williams finished the game with four catches for a team-high 126 yards. On the ground, Brian Robinson Jr. carried 12 times for 60 yards, while Trey Sanders added another 41 yards on eight carries, one of which went for a touchdown.

Defensively, Will Anderson Jr. led the way with nine tackles, including one sack. Christopher Allen forced a first-half fumble, which was recovered by Phidarian Mathis, while Malachi Moore and Jaylen Moody each grabbed interceptions in the contest as the Tide forced three turnovers on the day.

Placekicker Will Reichard extended his streak of made field goals to 18 with successful attempts from 38, 51 and 40 yards out. He also tacked on five made extra points in as many chances.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 1/1 University of Alabama football team recorded its 100th consecutive win over an unranked opponent under head coach Nick Saban, defeating Southern Miss, 63-14, at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Quarterback Bryce Young set a school record for the best completion percentage in a single game (with a minimum of 20 completions), completing 20-of-22 passes (.909) against the Golden Eagles. Young threw for a career-high five touchdowns while adding 313 yards against the Golden Eagles.

Highlighting the Crimson Tide's nine touchdowns on the night were two kickoff returns by Jameson Williams who became the first Alabama player in school history to achieve that feat in a single game.

Running back Roydell Williams led all rushers with 110 yards and a touchdown on 11 attempts, followed by running back Jase McClellan, who totaled 97 yards on 12 rushes. McClellan also had one catch for nine yards and a touchdown in his first career start. Tight end Jahleel Billingsley tallied 105 receiving yards on five catches, including one touchdown, to pace the wideouts.

Defensive back Jordan Battle tallied seven total tackles to lead the UA defense, while defensive back DeMarcco Hellams and linebackers Christian Harris and Will Anderson Jr. secured five solo stops each. Hellams also snagged his first interception of the season during the first quarter to cut short a USM drive.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 1/1 University of Alabama football team recorded its 69th win against an Associated Press Top-25 team since 2008, and its third this season, defeating No. 12/12 Ole Miss, 42-21, at Bryant-Denny Stadium Saturday in the Crimson Tide's Southeastern Conference home opener.

Brian Robinson Jr. recorded career-high totals in both rushing yards (171) and rushing touchdowns (4) on the afternoon. He became the first Alabama running back to record four rushing scores in a game since Trent Richardson did so against the Rebels in Oxford on Oct. 15, 2011. Quarterback Bryce Young finished 21-of-27 for 241 yards with two passing touchdowns.

Wide receiver John Metchie III and tight end Cameron Latu both hauled in touchdown catches. Metchie's opened the game's scoring from 16 yards out, part of the junior's three receptions on the day, while Latu's was for three yards. Jameson Williams led all receivers with 65 yards on his five receptions, while Slade Bolden was second in yards with 58 on four catches.

Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams (11) and linebacker Henry To'oTo'o (10) both tallied double-digit tackles to lead the Tide, while defensive back Jordan Battle paced Alabama with seven solo stops. Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. and defensive linemen Phidarian Mathis each tallied a sack against the Rebels while Mathis also added a forced fumble.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas – After falling behind early, the No. 1/1 Alabama football team lost at Texas A&M Saturday night on a last-second field goal, 41-38, inside Kyle Field. The loss snapped the Crimson Tide's 19-game winning streak overall and 100-game winning streak against unranked opponents.

Quarterback Bryce Young completed 28-of-48 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns against the Aggies' stout defense. Running back Brian Robinson Jr. eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight game, tallying 147 rushing yards on 24 carries while adding four receptions for 60 yards by night's end.

Wide receiver Jameson Williams and tailback Roydell Williams each hauled in touchdown catches. Jameson Williams led all receivers with 146 yards on 10 receptions and two scores, while John Metchie III followed with 88 yards on seven catches.

Defensive back Brian Branch led the Tide defense with a career-high 11 total tackles, including career-best and team-high two tackles for loss (-9 yards). Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams tallied seven tackles and added an interception to his totals.

Ja'Corey Brooks blocked a punt in the third quarter that was recovered by King Mwikuta for a touchdown to highlight the special teams efforts. Additionally, placekicker Will Reichard added three field goals from 38, 26 and 22 yards out, respectively. He also tacked on three extra points during the matchup.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – The No. 5/5 University of Alabama football team held Mississippi State to less than 10 points Saturday night, defeating the Bulldogs 49-9 at Davis Wade Stadium in Starkville, Miss. It marked the 95th time the Crimson Tide has held an opponent under 10 points during Nick Saban's tenure as head coach.

Quarterback Bryce Young completed 20-of-28 passes for 348 yards and four touchdowns to four different targets against the Bulldogs. The sophomore was also 6-of-6 for 159 yards on third down, with three of those plays resulting in a touchdown.

Running back Brian Robinson Jr. rushed 19 times for 73 yards and two touchdowns to go with five catches for 68 yards and one score through the air. Wide receiver John Metchie III reeled in 117 yards and a touchdown off seven catches, eclipsing the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season. Jameson Williams had two catches for 77 yards, including a 75-yard catch and run for a touchdown, while Traeshon Holden added three catches for 70 yards and a score of his own.

Linebacker Will Anderson Jr., had a career night in Starkville, recording four sacks and four tackles for loss as part of his six total stops. Henry To'oTo'o led the Tide with a season-high 13 total tackles, including a game-high seven solo stops, while adding 1.5 tackles for loss. Jordan Battle had a career-high and team best two interceptions on the night, including a 40-yard pick-six in the first quarter, to go with his seven tackles. Battle's picks paired with Josh Jobe's first quarter interception to give the Tide defense a season-high three interceptions on the night.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 4/4 University of Alabama football team won its 18th straight Homecoming game and its 15th consecutive matchup with Tennessee by a score of 52-24 on Saturday evening at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The game remained tight through three quarters before the Crimson Tide outscored the Volunteers, 28-7, in the final stanza.

Quarterback Bryce Young completed 31-of-44 passes for a career-high 371 yards to go with two touchdowns through the air. The sophomore added 42 yards and two scores across his 10 rushes on the night.

Wide receivers John Metchie III and Jameson Williams both tallied 100-plus receiving yards, with Metchie III totaling 121 yards and two touchdowns off 11 catches, while Williams had six catches for 123 yards. Running back Brian Robinson Jr. rushed 26 times for 107 yards and three touchdowns on the night. The 100-plus yard performance was Robinson Jr.'s third this season.

Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. led the Tide defense with eight tackles, including five solo stops, and two sacks (-3 yards). Defensive back Jalyn Armour-Davis came away with a fourth-quarter interception, returning the pick 47 yards to the Tennessee 18 to set up an eventual Tide touchdown and seal the game in favor of UA for good.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 2/3/2 University of Alabama football team defeated New Mexico State Saturday, 59-3, holding an opponent to 10-points-or-less for the second time this season and the 40th time since 2015.

Quarterback Bryce Young completed 21-of-23 passes for 270 yards and five touchdowns in just over two quarters of work. He tied his own record from earlier this season for the second-most touchdown passes in a game with five against the Aggies, recording all five of those scores in the first half.

Wide receiver Jameson Williams hauled in three touchdowns and racked up 158 yards on a team-high tying six catches. Brian Robinson Jr. moved up the all-time career rushing yards list to No. 17 thanks to his 99 yards on nine carries, including two that went for scores. Robinson Jr. also added five catches for 36 yards in the receiving game. Trey Sanders followed Robinson Jr., tallying 66 yards and a touchdown on 12 rushes.

Will Anderson Jr. added two sacks on the day to push his total to 14.5 this season, part of Alabama's seven sacks on the day. Defensive back Jalyn Armour-Davis led the Tide defense with six solo stops and added a pass breakup.

ATLANTA – In the 30th Southeastern Conference Championship Game, the No. 3/4/2 Alabama football team beat No. 1/1/1 Georgia, 41-24, inside Mercedes Benz Stadium Saturday. With the win, the Crimson Tide has now won 29 SEC Championships, including one in each of the last two seasons.

After falling behind 10-0 to start the game, Alabama exploded in the second quarter, piling on 24 points before adding 17 more in the second half to account for the final 17-point win.

Quarterback Bryce Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player after setting an SEC Championship Game record with 421 passing yards on a night when he completed 26-of-44 passes for three touchdowns. He added 40 rushing yards on three attempts including a touchdown. Young's 461 yards of total offense (421 pass, 40 rush) also finished as a championship game record.

Wide receiver Jameson Williams recorded 184 receiving yards on seven catches, including two touchdowns, while John Metchie III added 97 yards and a touchdown on his six catches. Brian Robinson Jr. tallied 55 rushing yards on 16 carries.

Defensive back Jordan Battle returned an interception 42 yards for a pick-six, the Tide's final touchdown of the day. Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams led the Alabama defense with nine total tackles and added an interception of his own. Hellams, Henry To'oTo'o and Josh Jobe all tallied six solo stops against Georgia to lead the Tide. Will Anderson Jr. totaled six tackles including two tackles for loss and a sack.

ARLINGTON, Texas – The No. 1/1/1 University of Alabama football team won its 41st bowl game on New Year's Eve, defeating No. 4/4/4 Cincinnati, 27-6, in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the 2021 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, on Friday.

With the win, Alabama advances to its sixth CFP Championship Game in Indianapolis, Ind., on Jan. 10, when it will face the winner of the CFP Semifinal game between No. 3 Georgia and No. 2 Michigan. The Cotton Bowl victory also gives the Tide 41 bowl wins, the most in college football history.

Running back Brian Robinson Jr. was named the game's Offensive MVP, while linebacker Will Anderson Jr. brought home Defensive MVP honors. Robinson Jr. recorded a career-high and Alabama bowl record 204 rushing yards on 26 carries, while Anderson Jr. led a Tide defense that held the Bearcats to just 218 yards of total offense.

Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Bryce Young tallied 181 yards on 17-of-28 passing with three touchdowns through the air, giving him the Alabama single-season passing yards record with 4,503 through 14 games. Ja'Corey Brooks led the Tide's receivers with 66 yards on four catches including a touchdown. Slade Bolden hauled in UA's first score of the game, while Cameron Latu added another touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Safety Brian Branch led the Tide with eight tackles, including six solo stops and a sack to go with two pass breakups. Anderson Jr. added six tackles, including a team-high two sacks.

Will Reichard connected on a 26- and 43-yard field goal and added three extra points in the game.

INDIANAPOLIS – The No. 1/1/1 University of Alabama football team battled throughout its ninth national championship game appearance since 2009, but fell to No. 3/3/3 Georgia in the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship Game Monday night in Indianapolis, Ind. The Crimson Tide finished the season at 13-2 and as the Southeastern Conference and Cotton Bowl champions.

The game was tight throughout with the first half seeing five field goals and no touchdowns between the two teams, as Alabama took a 9-6 lead into the break. After scoring another field goal and a touchdown to open the fourth quarter, Alabama led 18-13 with just over 10 minutes to go before UGA scored a trio of touchdowns to secure the win.

Quarterback Bryce Young completed 33 of his 57 passes for 369 yards, recording one touchdown. Brian Robinson Jr. paced the team on the ground with 68 yards on 22 attempts while also hauling in four receptions for 28 yards through the air. Tight end Cameron Latu led the Crimson Tide with 102 receiving yards and a touchdown on five catches in the absence of John Metchie III and Jameson Williams, the latter leaving the game due to a knee injury in the second quarter.

Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams led the Tide with seven tackles while linebackers Christian Harris and Henry To'oTo'o recorded six apiece. Harris paced Alabama in tackles for loss with four (-37 yards), including a career-best and team-high three sacks (-34 yards), while freshman Dallas Turner contributed two sacks (-12 yards).

Will Reichard scored all nine of the Crimson Tide's points in the first half on field goals from 37, 45 and 37 yards out. He added a fourth field goal in the final quarter from 21 yards away.
