RANKED ON RANKED: Head coach Kalen DeBoer owns a 15-3 (.833) record in 18 career games as a head coach in ranked matchups at the Division I level. DeBoer's .833 winning percentage stands as the best winning percentage among all active head coaches that have appeared in at least 10 ranked matchups.

NEUTRAL SITES: Alabama is 99-53-4 (.647) all-time in 156 neutral site contests. The list includes all Alabama-Auburn games not played on campus, including Legion Field from 1948-88. Head coach Kalen DeBoer has produced a 4-2 record in six career neutral site games at the FBS level.

DOME SWEET DOME: The Crimson Tide is 35-8-1 (.806) all-time in domed stadiums. Since 2008, Alabama owns a 27-5 (.843) record in domes, including a 26-2 (.928) mark since 2009. In five career FBS games inside a domed stadium, head coach Kalen DeBoer is 4-1.

ALABAMA IN THE ATL: Alabama boasts an 18-1 record in games played in Atlanta since 2007, including 17 straight wins. The Crimson Tide is 7-0 in Chick-fil-A Kickoff Games, 9-1 in SEC Championship Games, 1-0 in the Peach Bowl and 1-0 in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game during that stretch with the lone loss coming to UF in 2008.

TIDE TOOK CARE OF BUSINESS: Alabama produced four consecutive victories over Associated Press Top 25 conference opponents in as many weeks following the Tide's 37-20 win over then-No. 11 Tennessee on Oct. 18. UA's streak of ranked wins over SEC foes also included a 27-24 win at then-No. 14 Missouri on Oct. 11, a 30-14 win over then-No. 16 Vanderbilt on Oct. 4 and a 24-21 victory at then-No. 5 Georgia on Sept. 27. The Crimson Tide is the first team in SEC history to defeat four straight ranked opponents with no open dates. Alabama also became the fourth team in SEC history to defeat four consecutive ranked opponents including open dates, with the Tide also accomplishing the feat in 2016.

BUILDING A RÉSUMÉ: Alabama boasts a superlative résumé entering Week 15. The Crimson Tide stands as one of just four teams in the nation with three wins over opponents ranked in the current AP Top 25. The Tide is also on a shortlist of four teams nationwide with five wins over Power 4 opponents that currently hold a winning record. As well, Alabama represents one of five teams in the country to produce at least four wins over opponents ranked in the AP Top 25 at time of the game. The Tide is also one of only four programs responsible for three wins over teams currently ranked in the CFP Top 25 and is one of only three teams with two defeats to own a win over an opponent currently situated in the Top 10 of the CFP rankings.

TEN WIN PLATEAU: Alabama secured its 10th win of the 2025 season following the Tide's 27-20 victory at Auburn on Nov. 29, marking UA's 17th 10-win season over the last 18 years. In the 16 previous 10-plus win seasons, the Crimson Tide finished with a 12-2 record in 2008, 2014 and 2023; 14-0 in 2009; 10-3 in 2010; 12-1 in 2011; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 11-2 in 2013, 2019 and 2022; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; and 13-0 in 2020.

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL: The Crimson Tide's No. 10 ranking in the Week 15 edition of the Associated Press Poll marked the 293rd consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 293 weeks more than doubles second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 147 consecutive weeks. Alabama's 293 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 105 consecutive weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not exited the 292 polls that have followed. According to the College Poll Archive, the Tide is the only team to be represented on all 293 editions of the poll from the start of the 2008 season to the current week. The next closest team is Ohio State with 278 appearances followed by Oklahoma at 259. Alabama has spent 91.8 percent of the 18-plus years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 76.5 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 110 times since 2008. Only 15 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Georgia at 40, while Ohio State owns the third-most appearances at 27.

ALABAMA HAS THE MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 218 games, which is the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. That sum is 14 more than Ohio State, who owns the next-closest win total over that stretch at 204.

As selected by their teammates, Parker Brailsford, Tim Keenan III, Deontae Lawson and Ty Simpson were each named permanent team captains for the season. The honor marks the second year in a row Lawson was voted a team captain, becoming just the 16th player in program history to be named a two-time team captain.

YEAR TWO UNDER KDB: Head coach Kalen DeBoer's teams have produced significant improvements in the second season of his previous coaching tenures. Following an 11-2 overall record and a berth in the semifinals of the NAIA Championship Series after his inaugural season at Sioux Falls in 2005, DeBoer advanced the Cougars to a perfect 14-0 record in 2006, winning the NAIA National Championship. After managing a 3-3 finish with Fresno State in his debut season in 2020, DeBoer proceeded to win six more games in 2021 with the Bulldogs finishing 9-3 under his watch. Most recently, DeBoer led Washington to a College Football Playoff National Championship berth in his second season with the Huskies in 2023, tallying a 14-1 overall record. Washington was 11-2 in DeBoer's initial campaign in Seattle the year prior.

DeBoer is among 28 head coaches within college football named to the "Bear" Bryant Award Watch List, an honor given to a coach whose contributions make the sport better for athletes and fans alike by demonstrating grit, integrity and a winning approach to coaching and life – both on and off the field. The ceremony, presented by Memorial Hermann Health System, will be broadcast on the CBS Sports Network. Alabama has had two previous winners of the Bryant Award, first with Gene Stallings in 1992 followed by Nick Saban in 2020.

WOMMACK TABBED BROYLES AWARD SEMIFINALIST: Alabama defensive coordinator Kane Wommack was named a semifinalist for the 2025 Broyles Award, the Frank and Barbara Broyles Foundation announced Dec. 2. Wommack is one of 15 semifinalists for the Broyles, an award recognizing college football's top assistant coach. The winner of the 30th annual Broyles Award will be announced live during a formal ceremony on Thursday, Feb. 12, 2026, in Hot Springs, Ark. Alabama has produced three Broyles recipients in its history, including Steve Sarkisian (2020), Mike Locksley (2018) and Kirby Smart (2009).

NOT SINCE 1931: Head coach Kalen DeBoer produced a 9-4 record in his inaugural season at the Capstone. DeBoer's nine wins finished tied for the most by a first-year head coach at Alabama, sharing the feat with Frank Thomas, who won nine games in his initial season leading the Crimson Tide in 1931.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in 207 of 213 regular season games that have had national championship implications. The final three games of the 2010 campaign and the final three weeks of the 2022 schedule marked the only six regular season contests without direct national championship implications over the last 17 seasons.

ALABAMA IN THE CFP

The College Football Playoff was introduced during the 2014 season with the first ever rankings being released on Oct. 28, 2014. The selection committee members meet weekly on Mondays and Tuesdays to produce rankings. The committee's rankings are announced on ESPN each Tuesday evening for the final six weeks of the season. Alabama holds the record for the most games played (14) and wins (9) in the history of the CFP and is one of only two teams to have been ranked in all 70 CFP Polls. The Crimson Tide has garnered the CFP Poll's No. 1 overall ranking in 24 of its 70 total polls, the most of any program. Alabama owns a 9-5 record in 14 overall College Football Playoff matchups. That mark includes 3-3 standing in CFP National Championship Games, claiming titles in 2015, 2017 and 2020.

FIRST YEAR STARTING QBs AT ALABAMA: With the exit of two-year starter Jalen Milroe, the Crimson Tide tabbed Ty Simpson as its starting quarterback in 2025. Prior to Simpson, a total of nine quarterbacks have maintained their starting role for 10-plus games of a season in which they were named QB1 for the first time. Dating back to 2009, the list of nine includes: Milroe (2023), Bryce Young (2021), Mac Jones (2020), Tua Tagovailoa (2018), Jalen Hurts (2016), Jake Coker (2015), Blake Sims (2014), AJ McCarron (2011) and Greg McElroy (2009). All but McCarron won an SEC Championship in their first season at quarterback while four upperclassmen (redshirt sophomore or above) won national titles - Jones (redshirt junior), Coker (senior), McCarron (redshirt sophomore) and McElroy (junior).

TY TAKES OVER: Ty Simpson was named the starting quarterback by head coach Kalen DeBoer on Aug. 11, replacing two-year starter Jalen Milroe, who was drafted in the third round (92nd overall) by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2025 NFL Draft. Simpson made his first career start at Florida State on Aug. 30, completing 23-of-43 passes for 254 yards and two touchdowns while adding nine carries for 17 yards. Simpson became the first UA quarterback since Bryce Young in 2021 to manage a touchdown pass in the first drive of his first-ever start, finding Josh Cuevas for a two-yard score. Simpson's 254 passing yards were also the fifth-most by a UA quarterback in his first career start in program history.

SIMPSON'S STATS: Ty Simpson has shined in his new role as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback. Through 12 starts, Simpson has completed 256-of-389 passes (65.8 percent) for 3,056 yards and 25 touchdowns while adding 75 carries for 126 yards and two scores. Below is a look at where Simpson stands in the SEC and nationally among signal-callers.

QB1 A FINALIST FOR MANNING AWARD: Ty Simpson was named a finalist for the Manning Award, the Allstate Sugar Bowl announced Dec. 4. Simpson is one of 10 finalists for the Manning, an award that honors the top quarterback in the country and is the only award that takes into consideration a candidate's postseason performance. The winner of the 2025 Manning Award will be announced following the conclusion of the College Football Playoff National Championship in January. The Crimson Tide has garnered two Manning Award winners, including Mac Jones (2020) and Bryce Young (2021).

TY TAMES THE TIGERS: Quarterback Ty Simpson was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in Alabama's 27-24 win at then-No. 14/14 Missouri on Oct. 11. Simpson led the Tide to its third consecutive AP Top 25 win, finishing 23-of-31 through the air with three touchdown passes. He completed at least one pass to nine different targets while also converting all three of the Tide's fourth down attempts. The weekly SEC accolade stands as the second in three weeks for Simpson, who was also named the East-West Shrine Bowl's Monday Morning Quarterback that same morning following the road victory over Mizzou.

WEEKLY HONORS FOR SIMPSON AFTER UGA: Quarterback Ty Simpson garnered numerous weekly honors following Alabama's 24-21 victory at then-No. 5/3 Georgia on Sept. 27. The Tide's starting signal-caller completed 24-of-38 passes for 276 yards and two touchdowns through the air, adding 12 rushing yards and a touchdown on four carries in the road win. Simpson's week began by being named the SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 29. That same day, Simpson earned Panini Senior Bowl Player of the Week honors while also being chosen among eight quarterbacks as one of the Manning Award's 'Stars of the Week'. On Sept. 30, the Martin, Tenn., native picked up additional accolades, including being recognized as the Maxwell Player of the Week as well as the Davey O'Brien National Player of the Week.

PERFECT FROM THE POCKET: Ty Simpson finished a perfect 17-of-17 for 226 yards and three touchdowns in Alabama's 73-0 win over ULM on Sept. 6. Simpson became just the third quarterback in SEC history to manage a perfect 100 percent completion percentage following a minimum of 10 passing attempts, as his 17 completions on as many attempts are the most by a quarterback in league history. Simpson surpassed LSU's Rohan Davey, who completed 11-of-11 passes against Western Carolina in 2000.

CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS: After a perfect weekend against ULM, Ty Simpson carried his streak of 17 consecutive completions into the following week's contest against Wisconsin on Sept. 13. Simpson completed his first pass against the Badgers to extend his streak to 18 consecutive completions before an incompletion on his second attempt. Simpson's 18 consecutive completions trail only Mac Jones' program record of 19 consecutive completions that spanned Oct. 17-24, 2020, against Georgia and Tennessee.

MIDSEASON AA HONORS FOR TY: Ty Simpson garnered multiple Midseason All-American honors from various outlets for his play over the Tide's fist six contests. On Oct. 15, Simpson was named a First Team Midseason All-American by the Associated Press, Athlon Sports and The Sporting News, in addition to earning second-team honors from Sports Illustrated.

MR. RELIABLE: Germie Bernard was one of the most consistent wideouts in college football a season ago and has maintained his form in 2025. After leading all Tide receivers in receptions (50) and finishing second in receiving yards (794) last season, Bernard currently paces UA wideouts in receptions (51) and receiving yards (700) while ranking second in receiving touchdowns (6). The Nevada native has also produced 101 rushing yards on 17 carries with two rushing scores while completing two passes for 15 yards on his only two attempts. The senior's six receiving touchdowns are tied for seventh in the SEC while his eight total touchdowns are tied for 14th among all SEC players. Additionally, Bernard leads all Tide pass-catchers with a 63.6 receiving yards per game mark.

HORTON KEEPS SCORIN': Isaiah Horton has turned into an impact player for the Tide after transferring from Miami this summer. In 12 games, Horton has accumulated 34 receptions for 418 yards with a team-leading eight touchdowns. The Tennessee native's eight touchdown catches are third-most among SEC pass-catchers and rank 21st in the nation. Horton managed three touchdown receptions at Auburn on Nov. 29, becoming the first Alabama player since Jameson Williams in 2021 to reel in three receiving scores, while also becoming just the third player in the last 30 seasons to produce three receiving touchdowns in the Iron Bowl, joining Jaylen Waddle (2019) and Amari Cooper (2014).

SOPHOMORE STAR: Ryan Williams was one of the most impressive freshman players in the country a season ago and has continued to create big plays for the Alabama offense this season. In 2024, Williams led the Tide in receiving yards (865) and receiving touchdowns (8) while finishing second in receptions (48). In his 11 games this season, the Mobile native is second among all Alabama wideouts in receptions (40) and receiving yards (598) while his four receiving touchdowns are tied for third-most. Williams' 54.4 receiving yards per game mark is second among Alabama pass-catchers, with his 15.0 yards per reception average sitting as the highest rate among UA wideouts.

A SWISS ARMY KNIFE: Josh Cuevas earned a more prominent role at tight end for the Crimson Tide in 2025 and has delivered in more ways than one. Cuevas has totaled 30 catches for 341 yards and four touchdowns in his 10 games this season, with his four receiving touchdowns tied for the third-most among the Tide's receiving corps.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 35 seasons (1991-present) with US LBM coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2023 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRAILSFORD: Alabama's Parker Brailsford was named the Southeastern Conference's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week, the league office announced Nov. 10. The honor was the second of the 2025 campaign for Brailsford, who picked up identical honors following Alabama's 30-14 win over then-No. 16/17 Vanderbilt on Oct. 4. Brailsford provided key blocks in the Crimson Tide's 20-9 win over LSU on Nov. 8, playing all 64 snaps at center. The redshirt junior did not allow a sack or quarterback pressure against the Tigers' defensive front, registering six knockdown blocks in the win. The weekly honor is the second of Brailsford's Alabama tenure.

NO BETTER CENTER: Center Parker Brailsford was named to The Sporting News' Midseason All-America Team, the outlet announced on Oct. 15. At the time of the announcement, Brailsford had yet to allow a sack across 245 pass blocking snaps according to Pro Football Focus, in addition to providing key blocks for an offense that was averaging 126.5 rushing yards per game.

BRAILSFORD NAMED SEC O-LINEMAN OF THE WEEK: Parker Brailsford was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week on Oct. 6 following the Tide's 30-14 win over then-No. 16/17 Vanderbilt on Oct. 4. Brailsford played all 69 offensive snaps against the Commodores without surrendering a sack, pressure or quarterback hit in the victory. The weekly SEC honor was the first in the collegiate career of the Arizona native.

THE BIG GUY: Alabama left tackle Kadyn Proctor has been among the most impactful offensive lineman in the country so far in 2025. Since Week 2, Proctor has allowed just two quarterback hits over his last 435 passing snaps while manning Ty Simpson's blind side. The intimidating left tackle has amassed an 83.6 overall grade from PFF, the second-highest grade among all SEC offensive tackles and the 10th-best grade among all Division I tackles. Proctor has also managed five carries for 16 yards, with three of the five runs converting Tide first downs.

PROCTOR NAMED LOMBARDI FINALIST: Alabama's Kadyn Proctor was selected as a finalist for the Lombardi Award, the Rotary Club of Houston announced Nov. 18. Proctor is one of four finalists for the Lombardi, which is presented annually to the college football offensive or defensive lineman who, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the character and discipline of NFL Hall of Famer Vince Lombardi. The winner of the 2025 Lombardi Award will be announced during a formal dinner and awards ceremony in Houston, Texas, on Wednesday, Dec. 10. Alabama has had three Lombardi winners in program history including Cornelius Bennett (1986), Jonathan Allen (2016) and most recently Will Anderson Jr. (2022).

MIDSEASON HONORS FOR KP: Kadyn Proctor received numerous Midseason All-America honors leading into the Tennessee matchup. On Oct. 13, Proctor was first named a First Team Midseason All-American by CBS Sports before being bestowed identical honors from the Associated Press, Athlon Sports and Sports Illustrated on Oct. 15. Prior to the All-American reveal, Proctor had allowed just one quarterback hit and quarterback hurry over his last 190 passing snaps, including three notable carries for 15 yards with all three runs converting a trio of Alabama first downs.

PROCTOR'S WEEKLY AWARDS AFTER UGA: Kadyn Proctor received conference and national praise for his performance in the Tide's 24-21 win at then-No. 5/3 Georgia on Sept. 27. Proctor did not allow a sack or quarterback pressure across the Tide's 79 offensive snaps, adding a catch-and-run of 11 yards late in the second quarter that eventually led to an Alabama touchdown. The Des Moines, Iowa, product was first recognized as the SEC's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week on Sept. 29 before being named the Outland Trophy Player of the Week on Sept. 30.

FRESHMAN FORCE: Michael Carroll was named to On3's Midseason True Freshman All-American Team on Oct. 13, propelled by his stellar play early on at right tackle. Over his first five collegiate games, Carroll registered 142 snaps, surrendering just three quarterback pressures and one quarterback hit in that span without allowing a sack. When the announcement was made, Carroll owned a 73.1 grade from Pro Football Focus, the second-highest grade among Power Four true freshman offensive lineman with at least 100 snaps.

DISTRIBUTING THE WEALTH: The Alabama offense has seen a variety of pass-catchers make an impact through 12 contests. Entering the matchup against Georgia, the Tide has had 22 different players secure at least one reception so far this season, including nine different players with at least 11 catches. The same can be said about UA's scoring opportunities, with 10 different pass-catchers having secured at least one touchdown reception over Alabama's first 12 games.

TAKING CARE OF THE FOOTBALL: Over its first 12 contests, the Alabama offense has surrendered just 11 turnovers, equating to the third-fewest giveaways in the SEC while ranking 17th nationally.

THIRD DOWN CONVERSIONS: The Alabama offense has been among the most successful units in converting third downs so far in 2025. Through 12 games, the Tide has converted 77-of-166 (46.4 percent) third down tries, the fourth-best mark in the SEC and the 26th-best rate in the FBS. The Crimson Tide converted 13-of-19 third down opportunities in its 24-21 win at then-No. 5/3 Georgia on Sept. 27, the most third down conversions allowed by UGA in the last 30 seasons.

CRIMSON COUNTDOWN: The Alabama offense owns an average time of possession of 33:07 over its first 12 games, the second-best time of possession average in the SEC and the 10th-best figure in the country.

RAIDING THE AIR: The Alabama quarterback room is averaging 278.3 passing yards per game over its first 12 contests, the fourth-highest average in the SEC and the 17th-best figure in the nation.

BORN TO RUN: The Crimson Tide produced eight rushing touchdowns en route to a 56-0 win over Eastern Illinois on Nov. 22. Alabama's eight rushing scores were the most in a single game since producing nine rushing touchdowns at Vanderbilt in 1979.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

THIS IS THE BRAY: Bray Hubbard has been a force for the Tide defense through 12 games so far in 2025. The junior safety owns 60 total tackles, including three tackles for loss (-12 yards), to go with a team-high four interceptions, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles, one sack (-9 yards) and a quarterback hurry. Hubbard's 60 tackles are third-most among all Alabama defenders, while the Mississippi native's four interceptions are tied for the SEC lead and 16th nationally. Additionally, Hubbard owns an 86.3 overall grade from Pro Football Focus, the second-highest grade among SEC safeties and the NCAA's ninth-highest figure at the position.

IRON BOWL REWARDS: Bray Hubbard was named the SEC's Co-Defensive Player of the Week on Dec. 1 as the result of his impactful showing at Auburn on Nov. 29. Hubbard recorded just two tackles, but provided an interception late in the third quarter as the Tigers drove deep into Alabama territory. The hard-hitting safety then forced a fumble with just under 40 seconds left in regulation, stalling the AU drive and allowing time for the Tide to bleed the clock on the way to the eventual win. The weekly honor was the second of the 2025 campaign for Hubbard.

HUBBARD NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE POTW: Bray Hubbard was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 15 following his standout performance against Wisconsin on Sept. 13. Hubbard collected five total tackles and two interceptions against the Badgers, helping limit Wisconsin to just one offensive score and only 209 yards of total offense. The league honor was the first of Hubbard's Alabama career. Hubbard was also named the Panini Senior Bowl Defensive Player of the Week as well as the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Defensive Back of the Week for his efforts against Wisconsin.

LAYING DOWN THE LAW: Deontae Lawson has returned to form in 2025, serving as one of leading producers on the Crimson Tide defense once again. In 12 starts, Lawson has posted a team-high tying 69 tackles, including three for loss (-5 yards), to go with three pass breakups, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry. At Auburn on Nov. 29, Lawson recovered a key fumble with under 40 seconds left in regulation, allowing the Tide to bleed the clock en route to its sixth consecutive Iron Bowl victory.

LAWSON A SEMIFINALIST FOR COMEBACK POTY: Deontae Lawson was named a semifinalist for the 2025 Comeback Player of the Year Award, as announced by College Sports Communicators in conjunction with the Associated Press (AP) and the Fiesta Sports Foundation on Dec. 3. Lawson is among 15 semifinalists up for the Comeback Player of the Year Award, which recognizes college football student-athletes for overcoming injury, illness or other circumstances. At the conclusion of each season, in a vote by a panel of college football writers, editors, and sports information directors, three college football student athletes are honored as Comeback Player of the Year Award winners. The 2025 recipients will be announced on Dec. 17 and recognized at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 8, 2026. Lawson would represent the first winner of the Comeback Player of the Year Award in Alabama program history.

BROWN ON LOCKDOWN: Zabien Brown has developed into one of the nation's most dependable cornerbacks. During his sophomore season, Brown has totaled 28 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss (-3 yards), while also contributing one interception return for a touchdown (99 yards), five pass breakups and one forced fumble in his 12 games. According to PFF, Brown has also provided important help at the line of scrimmage. The California native is responsible for an 88.5 run defense grade by Pro Football Focus, the second-best grade among SEC cornerbacks and the 13th-highest grade among all conrers in Division I. Highlighted by his 99-yard interception return for a touchdown just before halftime, Brown also contributed a career-high seven tackles while limiting the Volunteers' receiving corps to just 16 yards on six targets, equating to an allowed passer rating of 2.8 per Pro Football Focus. Brown was first named the SEC's Co-Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 20 before garnering national honors including Bronko Nagurski Player of the Week, Jim Thorpe Defensive Back of the Week and the Lott IMPACT Trophy Player of the Week.

BIG PLAY YHONZAE: Yhonzae Pierre was named SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week along with Zabien Brown on Oct. 18 for his efforts against then-No. 11/11 Tennessee. Pierre matched his career high with six tackles against the Vols, including a career-best three sacks (-31 yards), one of which led to a Tennessee safety. Pierre's three sacks were the most by an Alabama player since 2021 and came against a UT offensive line unit that had only allowed four sacks through six games entering the Third Saturday in October. In addition to earning his first-career SEC weekly honor, the Eufaula native was also named the Chuck Bednarik Player of the Week for his showing against the Vols.

DIJON MUSTARD: Dijon Lee Jr. has more than held his own during his first season of collegiate football. In 12 games, Lee Jr. is responsible for 30 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss (-12 yards), to go with two interceptions and four pass breakups. The 282.2 yards per game allowed stands as the third-best mark in the conference and the 12th-best figure in the country. Alabama surrendered just 34 yards of total offense against Eastern Illinois on Nov. 22, marking the fourth-fewest yards allowed in program history and the fewest given up in a single game since allowing minus-four yards against Houston in 1962.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP MEETINGS: Alabama and Georgia will meet for the fifth time in SEC Championship Game history on Saturday afternoon in Atlanta. The previous four contests between the Crimson Tide and Bulldogs came in 2012 (32-28), 2018 (35-28), 2021 (41-24) and 2023 (27-24) with UA coming out on top all four times.

ALABAMA SEEKS 31st SEC CHAMPIONSHIP: Alabama is attempting to win what would be an SEC-leading 31st conference championship when the Crimson Tide meets with Georgia in the 2025 SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide has more SEC Championships than any other school and is seeking its 10th conference title in the last 17 seasons. Alabama won the first SEC championship during the 1933 campaign as head coach Frank Thomas led the Crimson Tide to a 5-0-1 conference record. Thomas guided Alabama to four SEC titles. Paul "Bear" Bryant directed the Crimson Tide to six national championships and 13 SEC titles during his 25-year run in Tuscaloosa. Alabama won five straight SEC championships from 1971-75 and captured eight of the 10 SEC championships from 1970-79. In addition to Thomas and Bryant, Alabama has had five other coaches win SEC championships, including Harold "Red" Drew (1953), Bill Curry (1989), Gene Stallings (1992), Mike DuBose (1999) and Nick Saban (2009, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020, 2021 and 2023). In addition to its 30 SEC championships, Alabama also won four Southern Conference titles (1924, 1925, 1926 and 1930), giving the school 34 conference football championships.

TIDE MAKING 16th SEC CHAMPIONSHIP APPEARANCE: Alabama will be playing in its 16th SEC Championship Game on Saturday. The Crimson Tide earned a spot in Atlanta thanks to a 7-1 record in conference play, including a win over Georgia in Athens, as part of 10-2 regular season mark. Alabama enters Saturday's contest with Georgia having won nine straight SEC Championship matchups dating back to a win over Florida in the 2009 game. During the nine-game stretch, the Crimson Tide is averaging 38.2 points per game and outscoring the opposition, 344-206.

GENERAL NOTES

BALLOU HONORED BY MAXWELL : Alabama's director of sports performance David Ballou was highlighted for the Buddy Teevens Award Coaching Spotlight, the Maxwell Football Club announced Dec. 3. The Buddy Teevens Award was created to honor those coaches who have been innovators in growing and improving the game of college football. Named after the legendary Dartmouth College coach, the award recognizes outstanding achievement on the field, as well exceptional leadership that leaves a lasting impact on players, other coaches, and the sport at large. Ballou has become one of college football's most innovative performance minds, using advanced technology and a 15-station evaluation system to build fully individualized plans that correct weaknesses and maximize growth.

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama has seen significant success on the field over the last 17 seasons and that success has coincided with the Tide's efforts in the classroom. The 2025 squad is no exception as the Crimson Tide entered the season with 16 student-athletes who already had their degree in-hand. The list of student-athletes who entered 2025 with an SEC Graduate patch include: Parker Brailsford, Prince Butler, MJ Chirgwin, Josh Cuevas, Blake Doud, Nikhai Hill-Green, Justin Jefferson, Tim Keenan III, Peter Knudson, Jah-Marien Latham, Deontae Lawson, Danny Lewis Jr., Jam Miller, Jaeden Roberts, Ty Simpson and Geno VanDeMark.

TIDE THRIVES IN GSR: The University of Alabama matched its all-time high in overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 96 percent, a record that was set last year, in the most recent numbers that were released by the NCAA on Nov. 19. Alabama tied for tops among all Southeastern Conference schools and ranked seventh-best among NCAA Power Five public institutions. A total of 15 Crimson Tide athletics programs scored 90-or-better, with 10 earning perfect 100s. A collection of 11 teams led the SEC in their respective sport in the 2024-25 GSR figures, including 10 teams that scored 100. Football's score of 98 finished as not only the best in the SEC and fifth overall nationally but also as the highest GSR in program history. Only Long Island, Harvard, Northwestern and Wake Forest scored higher in football. The GSR measures graduation rates at Division I institutions. GSR is believed to be a more accurate measure of academic performance in athletics departments as it holds schools responsible for student-athletes transferring into the institutions and allows them to subtract student-athletes who leave their institutions prior to graduation but are otherwise academically eligible to compete. The average GSR for all NCAA Division I student-athletes is 90.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM: Alabama's achievements in the classroom have been most impressive during national title seasons. Those six squads (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) included 139 student-athletes who had earned their degrees prior to game time.

APR SUCCESS: According to the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) numbers that were announced by the NCAA in May of 2025, figures that cover the four-year period extending from the 2020-21 through 2023-24 school years, the Crimson Tide continued to score well above the national cutoff standard. The Crimson Tide boasted 10 teams that led their respective sport in the SEC in APR numbers with 12 UA squads setting or tying all-time program-high marks for the four-year average. Altogether, it adds up to an average APR score of 994.9 across the university's 21 sports. In fact, this year's report marks the fourth consecutive year Alabama's overall average score rated over a 992. A total of seven Alabama teams led the nation in APR rankings (men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, softball, women's tennis and volleyball), with women's golf earning the honor for the 14th consecutive year.

LEADING BY EXAMPLE: Alabama defensive lineman LT Overton has received national acclaim for his contributions both on and off the field. On Sept. 30, Overton was among 67 student-athletes selected to the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award Watch List, a unique award given to a player that demonstrates a record of leadership by exhibiting exceptional courage, integrity and sportsmanship both on and off the field. Overton was also one of 116 candidates named to the 2025 Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch List as announced by the Wuerffel Foundation on July 31. Overton has grown into a consistent volunteer since arriving in Tuscaloosa, using his platform to benefit the community and underprivileged youth. The Georgia native has made frequent stops at the Tuscaloosa Juvenile Detention Center to mentor at-risk children, also appearing at local schools in town to speak to students regarding the importance of academics. His service commitments also include the Boys & Girls Club and the Two Roads Autism Center, with Overton sponsoring a student at his alma mater, Milton (Ga.) High School, providing equipment funds for multiple sports. Former Crimson Tide offensive lineman Barrett Jones stands as the lone recipient of Wuerffel Trophy, earning the honor in 2011.

OVERTON NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST: Alabama defensive lineman LT Overton was named a 2025 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) announced Sept. 24. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Overton is on track to graduate this December with a bachelor's degree in sport management, owning a current a 3.81 GPA. The Crimson Tide has had two Campbell Trophy winners in its history, first with Barrett Jones in 2012 followed by Jalen Milroe last season.

OVERTON HONORED FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE: LT Overton was selected to the 2025 Southeastern Conference Community Service Team, the league office announced Thursday. The SEC names a Community Service Team for its 22-league sponsored sports, aiming to highlight a student-athlete from each school who gives back to his community through superior service efforts.

SABAN TO THE HALL: Former Alabama head coach Nick Saban was selected as part of the 2025 College Football Hall of Fame class, the National Football Foundation announced on Jan. 10. A seven-time national championship coach, Saban is the fifth Alabama coach to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and the 27th inductee in program history. He completed his Hall-of-Fame career at the conclusion of the 2023 season, winning six national championships with Alabama and seven overall with his first title coming at LSU in 2003. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban coached collegiate football for 28 seasons, producing a 297-71-1 (.806) record, including a 206-29 (.877) mark in Tuscaloosa. His teams at Alabama won nine SEC Championships while he captured 11 SEC titles in his career (2001 and 2003 at LSU).

230 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 244 GAMES: The Crimson Tide's matchup at Auburn on Nov. 29 was the Tide's 230th nationally televised or streamed game since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest since the start of 2014.

ALABAMA vs. No. 1: Alabama owns the NCAA record for the most wins all-time against the Associated Press Poll's No. 1 team since the poll was introduced in 1936. The Crimson Tide has compiled 11 wins against the AP's top-ranked team in program history, most recently against then-No. 1 Georgia in the 2023 Southeastern Conference Championship Game. Prior to that, the Tide downed the top-ranked Bulldogs in the 2021 SEC Championship Game.

ALABAMA REACHES 1K: With the Oct. 26, 2024 victory over then-No. 21/17 Missouri, Alabama reached 1,000 on-field wins. The Crimson Tide became only the second program in NCAA Division I history to record 1,000 wins (1,003), joining Michigan (1,012). Entering the 2025 season, the Tide's record, as recognized by the NCAA, stands at 974-341-43 (.733), accounting for vacated and forfeited victories.

ALABAMA-U.S. NAVY PARTNERSHIP: The University of Alabama announced on Sept. 3 a significant partnership with the U.S. Navy's Maritime Industrial Base (MIB) Program to expand workforce development opportunities across Alabama and strengthen America's shipbuilding industrial base. As part of the initiative Build Giants Alabama, Crimson Tide fans will notice the program's logo featured on Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium during all home football games this fall as well as in-venue messaging featuring former Alabama head football coach Nick Saban on the importance of the Build Giants Alabama initiative. The visibility highlights a larger effort to connect Alabama's statewide talent with a critical workforce development program for the state and the country.

BAMA IN THE NFL

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: As of the 2025 NFL Draft, Alabama has had more draft picks over the last 17 drafts (140) than any other program in the nation. The list of 140 features 16 Super Bowl champions, 44 Pro Bowl selections and 20 First Team All-Pro members along with one Defensive Player of the Year, one Offensive and one Defensive Rookie of the Year.

2025 NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw seven former players selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, including two first-rounders in offensive lineman Tyler Booker (No. 12, Dallas Cowboys) and linebacker Jihaad Campbell (No. 31, Philadelphia Eagles). The third round featured quarterback Jalen Milroe (Seattle Seahawks), while the fourth round saw defensive back Malachi Moore (New York Jets) and linebacker Que Robinson (Denver Broncos) selected by their respective franchises. Day three concluded with the Seahawks adding tight end Robbie Ouzts (fifth round) before defensive tackle Tim Smith was picked by the Indianapolis Colts in the sixth round.

QUICK HITS ON ALABAMA'S NFL DRAFT SUCCESS: Below is a look at some of Alabama's recent success in the NFL Draft.

- Over the last 17 NFL Drafts, Alabama has produced 140 total picks which is more than any other program in the nation. Of those 140, an impressive 49 (35.0 percent) have been first-rounders.
- Since 2000, the Crimson Tide has produced an NCAA-leading 51 first-rounders, a number that is nine better than the next closest school Ohio State (42)
- Since 2010, Alabama has had an NCAA-best 48 players selected in the first round, a number that nearly doubles the next closest school in OSU (29).
- With the selection of Tyler Booker in the 2025 NFL Draft, Alabama has had at least one player selected in the first round of 17 straight drafts (2009-present) to set the new NCAA record. The Crimson Tide passed Miami (1995-2008), who owned the old mark of 14 consecutive first-rounders.
- Alabama has produced multiple first round picks in 14 of the last 17 NFL Drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016.

Alabama had 69 total players (including reserve/practice squad) overall and 62 on an active 53-man roster in Week 1 of the 2025-26 regular season, the most of any program in college football. The next closest schools for active players were Georgia and Ohio State with 57 followed by Michigan at 44 and LSU and Notre Dame with 39 apiece to round out the top five. LEADERS IN THE LEAGUE: Every year, the National Football League allows each of its 32 teams to name up to eight team captains. The start of the 2025-26 season featured eight former Crimson Tide players who were selected as one of the permanent captains for their respective squads. The list of captains to start the year included Will Anderson Jr. (Texans), Bradley Bozeman (Chargers), Jalen Hurts (Eagles), Calvin Ridley (Titans), Tua Tagovailoa (Dolphins), Quinnen Williams (Jets), Mack Wilson Sr. (Cardinals) and Bryce Young (Panthers). Despite featuring Alabama players on their rosters, the Commanders, Cowboys, Packers, Ravens and Seahawks all do not name permanent team captains for the season or select captains on a game-by-game basis.

75 IN A SEASON: A total of 75 former Crimson Tide players appeared in a game and recorded at least one snap through all 18 weeks of the 2024-25 regular season, setting a new NFL record. The 75 topped the previous mark of 71, which was also set by UA during the 2023-24 campaign. Prior to that, the Tide became the only program to have 70 former players see game action in any regular season in league history during 2022-23 season. The number of former Alabama players to play in an NFL regular-season contest has now increased each year for eight consecutive seasons starting with 38 in 2016. The 2017 season saw 44 former players earn game action, breaking Alabama's previous record of 40 in 1987, and was followed by 52 in 2018. The total moved to 62 in 2019, followed by 64 in 2020, 68 in 2021, 70 in 2022 and 71 in 2023.

POSTSEASON TIDE: Alabama was well-represented in the 2024-25 NFL Playoffs with a league-high 38 former players spotting 12 of the 14 rosters. The Tide's postseason players were as follows: six apiece on both the Eagles (Dickerson, Hurts, Ricks, D. Smith, Steen, By. Young) and Texans (Anderson Jr., Averett, C. Harris, Metchie III, Smith Jr., To'oTo'o); four apiece on the Chargers (Bozeman, Eboigbe, E. Jackson, Scott), Lions (Arnold, Branch, Gibbs, Ja. Williams) and Ravens (Armour-Davis, Dalcourt, Henry, Humphrey); three apiece on the Commanders (Allen, Payne, Robinson Jr.) and Vikings (Reichard, C. Robinson, Turner); two apiece on the Bills (Cooper, K. Jackson), Packers (Jacobs, McKinney) and Steelers (Fitzpatrick, N. Harris); and one total on the Broncos (Surtain II) and Buccaneers (Braswell).

ALL-PRO DBU: Alabama had three defensive backs selected to the 2024 All-Pro Team, as voted on by the Associated Press. The trio included Patrick Surtain II (cornerback), Xavier McKinney (safety) and Marlon Humphrey (slot corner). Surtain II received the most votes of any defensive player with 49 first-team votes and one second-team selection out of the 50 total voters. Additionally, Derrick Henry was selected to the All-Pro Second Team at running back.

CERTAINLY SURTAIN: Former Alabama defensive back Patrick Surtain II was named the 2024 Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year on Feb. 6, becoming just the second Denver Broncos player in franchise history to earn the honor and the first former UA player to be named Defensive Player of the Year since the award was created in 1971. Surtain is just 10th player in NFL history — joining the likes of Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Reggie White — to earn Defensive Player of the Year and a pair of first team All-Pro selections in his first four NFL seasons. In addition to tying a career high with four interceptions and posting double-digit passes defensed, Surtain II ranked at the top of the league in nearly every advanced metric. Among cornerbacks with at least 400 coverage snaps, Surtain II ranked first in fewest yards allowed (306), fewest yards allowed per coverage snap (0.6), lowest target rate (10.9 percent) and fewest air yards per target (7.1), according to Next Gen Stats.

DIVISION I: (56-15, .789)
TOTAL: (123-18, .872)

• Kalen DeBoer has produced unprecedented results at every stop of his coaching career. His hard work and dedication to his craft has shaped one of the most impressive resumes in college football after just 10 years as a head coach.

• DeBoer's coaching philosophy stresses the importance of class, integrity and academic success. He has a passion for bringing people together while building the total program. DeBoer believes in creating an environment that allows his players to thrive. He holds a deep commitment to developing the young men in his program and investing in them both on and off the field as they prepare for their next steps in life.

• DeBoer and his staff believe in developing players athletically, academically, socially and spiritually so that they leave the program as better men. Beyond winning football games, it is about building a culture within the program that is contagious and producing a team that loves each other and are willing to play for each other.

• There are three non-negotiables in DeBoer's program that have stood the test of time and resulted in stunning success: family, accountability and toughness.

• During his 27 years in coaching, he has consistently prospered at multiple levels and in different roles, helping to build and revitalize programs while establishing a diverse network of contacts across the country, in both coaching and recruiting. In his first 10 seasons as a head coach, DeBoer accumulated a record of 113-16, which includes a 25-3 record in his previous stop with the Washington Huskies and three NAIA National Championships at Sioux Falls.

• Entering 2025, DeBoer owned a 15-3 record against top-25 teams across his five combined seasons at Fresno State, Washington and Alabama. He also boasted a staggering 26-8 record in one-score contests across his first 10 years as a head coach.

• DeBoer took on an unprecedented challenge in his first season in Tuscaloosa, replacing arguably the greatest coach in the history of college football. The 2025 campaign saw the Crimson Tide finish 9-4, including a 3-1 record against ranked teams. DeBoer's nine victories matched Frank Thomas (1931) for the most wins by a first-year head coach in Alabama history.

• In 2023, he led Washington to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game with a victory over Texas in the Sugar Bowl. DeBoer's '23 group won the Pac-12 Championship and recorded the most wins in a season in program history (14). Additionally, he won the 2023 Associated Press, AFCA, Eddie Robinson, George Munger, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards.

• DeBoer became the first Washington coach to win 11-or-more games in consecutive seasons after going 11-2 in 2022 and 14-1 in 2023 and the first to win a bowl game in his first season with the Huskies. That success resulted in back-to-back Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. His Washington squads also went 10-1 against ranked teams, and he is 18-3 in playoff games as a head coach, including his stint at Sioux Falls.

• In his first year at UW, he led the Huskies to an 11-2 overall record after Washington finished 4-8 the previous year. They posted a 3-0 mark against ranked teams and a win over Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl. His Huskies swept their three Northwest rivals and finished in a tie for second in the Pac-12, while he was named Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year.

• Prior to his time at UW, DeBoer spent two seasons at Fresno State, which included the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. Under his guidance, the Bulldogs made great strides on both sides of the ball, posting a combined 12-6 record. Fresno was 4-8 in 2019 prior to DeBoer's arrival.

• In 2021, Fresno State went 9-3 under DeBoer. The 2020 season saw the Bulldogs finish at 3-3 overall.

• Prior to Fresno, DeBoer was on staff at Indiana University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide the Hoosiers to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Gator Bowl. IU's eight victories in 2019 matched their highest wins total in 26 seasons, and IU ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in total offense. Indiana averaged 432.8 yards of total offense per game, throwing for 302.4 yards per contest while rushing for 130.4.

• DeBoer joined then-head coach Jeff Tedford as the Fresno State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2017. In two seasons in that role, DeBoer helped the Bulldogs to overall records of 10-4 (2017) and 12-2 (2018), along with two division titles, two bowl game victories and the Mountain West Conference Championship in 2018.

• After the 2009 season, he took a job at Southern Illinois as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2010 through 2013. He moved to Eastern Michigan as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2014 through 2016, helping the Eagles to their third-ever bowl-game berth in 2016. plays (99).

• A school-record setting wide receiver at the University of Sioux Falls (S.D.), DeBoer later led his alma mater to three NAIA National Championships in five seasons as head coach, winning titles in 2006, 2008 and 2009, while also finishing as runner-up in 2007 and making the semifinals in his first season as head coach in 2005. During his five seasons at Sioux Falls, DeBoer compiled a 67-3 overall record, including a 49-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference play. He was NAIA National Coach of the Year in each of his three championship seasons at USF.

• A 1998 graduate of Sioux Falls with a degree in secondary education, DeBoer was a record-setting football and baseball student-athlete. During his football career, he compiled 3,400 yards and 33 touchdowns on 234 career receptions – all school records at the time – and played on the 1996 NAIA Division II National Championship team.

• He also played baseball for the Cougars, batting .520 (still a school record) as a senior in 1998. His career average of .492 is tops in USF history, as are his 37 career homers and .944 slugging percentage.
