- It is the third consecutive Sweet 16 appearance for the Crimson Tide, marking the second time that's occurred in program history, with the only other time coming in 1985, 1986 and 1987 (vacated)
- Mark Sears moved into third on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,910 career points at The Capstone
- The Crimson Tide outrebound the Gaels 41-36 on the night and while outscoring St. Mary's inside the paint, 42-30
- Alabama led for all but 30 seconds of the contest, trailing only at 10-9 early in the first half
- Alabama captured its 12th win over an AP Top 25 opponent this year, as the

Gaels were ranked No. 20 going into Sunday's contest

(St. Mary's) is a tough team. We knew they were tough. We got up on them 13 at the half. We knew they weren't going to go away. They came out in the second half and were scoring on us a little too much. After they made a little run there, I thought our guys answered. We played well on the offensive end for most of the game. We had too many turnovers. They had zero turnovers at the half. We were able to turn them over six times in the second half which was big, helpful.

"I thought we had great leadership tonight, showed a lot of toughness. We said the tougher team is going to win this one, and that's one of the tougher teams in the country. Our guys really stepped up and met the challenge tonight."

When Nate Oats was formally introduced as head men's basketball coach at The University of Alabama on March 28, 2019, he promised fans would see an entertaining, up-tempo and fast-paced style of play. And that's exactly what he has delivered during his five years in Tuscaloosa highlighted by Alabama's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Final Four.

Oats continues to lead the Crimson Tide men's basketball resurgence to national prominence, having guided his team to 117 wins, highlighted by a pair of SEC Regular Season championships, two SEC Tournament championships, three trips to the Sweet 16 and the program's first ever appearance in the Final Four. Oats the only coach in program history to win multiple SEC regular season and tournament championships. He has compiled a record of 117-54 (.684) in his five years at The Capstone. In fact, in his nine years as a head coach, Oats owns an impressive record of 213-97 (.687) and has led his teams to NCAA Tournament appearances seven separate times with one of those years being the global pandemic.

After agreeing to contract extensions in 2021 and 2023, Oats received a third contract extension during the 2024 season that is set to keep him in charge of the Crimson Tide basketball program through the 2030 season.
