- Duke owned a 41-30 edge on the boards which marked just the seventh time on the year Alabama lost the rebounding battle (4-3 in those contests)
- It was the second time this season the Tide was held under 70 points this season, failing to 0-2 in those contests (lost to Ole Miss 74-64)
- The Tide finished the contest just 9-of-20 on layups and was outscored 40-28 inside the paint

COACH OATS POSTGAME COMMENTS

"Obviously a tough night for us. Duke had a big part to do with that. They're a great team. They've got great players. Coaching staff did a good job getting them ready. Only one team is going to end up cutting the nets down in San Antonio. It won't be us this year. I told our guys that we've raised this program to a level where the standard is really high. Ninety-nine percent of college basketball players would trade places with these guys with the year we had, but we're disappointed. We had bigger goals, and it's disappointing to go out like we went out. But I thought our guys stayed together. They kept playing hard. Duke was good. We didn't do a good job attacking their switching on defense. We've got to figure out ways to win when we don't shoot it well. The offensive rebounding was a big one we kind of said we need to be elite at, get to the free-throw line. We got to the free-throw line a fair amount, but it was not enough. We played two nights ago and it's tough within 48 hours from playing as well as we did to playing as poorly as we did. That's how the NCAA Tournament works in a one-game elimination tournament. You play poorly and you get sent home, and that's what happened. Duke is as good a team as we've seen all year. We've got some really good teams in the SEC, and they're at that level, and it wasn't meant to be for us tonight."
