COACHING STAFF

Jay Accorsi
Head Coach

The program's all-time leader in victories with 131, Jay Accorsi enters his 21st season as the head coach of the Rowan University football team in 2022 and is the longest-tenured coach in school history. The seventh coach in school history, he also serves as the special teams coordinator.

Accorsi, who took over as head coach in 2002 after nine years as an assistant coach, has guided Rowan to seven appearances in the NCAA Division III Championship Tournament, two trips to the national semifinals and seven New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) championships. His head coaching record stands at 131-63 in 19 seasons at Rowan while his college coaching career spans 27 years.

Due to Accorsi's guidance and work in the community, Rowan Athletics was named the recipient of the Dr. Harry Gamble Coaches Award by the Adam Taliaferro Foundation. The Profs have annually provided ongoing support for the foundation's events and has hosted the ATF Football Classic each June.

Rowan returned to action in 2021 after the 2020 season was canceled due to the pandemic, and posted a 2-7 record. The 2019 Profs faced a challenging schedule with four opponents either ranked or receiving votes in the Top 25. Rowan finished the season strong, winning three of its last four games to notch a 4-3 record in conference play, and a 4-6 mark overall. The Profs didn't get a chance to build on that momentum as the 2020 season was canceled due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

In his first year as head coach in 2002, Accorsi guided the Profs to a 10-1 record, the conference title and their 10th appearance in the NCAA Division III Championship Tournament. That effort led him being named the NJAC Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Rowan as a graduate assistant in 1993, Accorsi was an assistant football and baseball coach at his alma mater, Nichols College, from 1989-93.

The native of Somers, CT, graduated from Nichols in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned a master's in sports science from the U.S. Sports Academy (Daphne, AL) in 1992 and a master's in business administration from Rowan in 1997.

He is a member of the AFCA, Maxwell Football Club and the New Jersey Football Coaches Association and is on the South Jersey Chapter of the National Football Foundation committee. Accorsi served as a NCAA representative during the 2007 NCAA Division III Championship Tournament. He is on the Adam Taliaferro Foundation Advisory Committee and previously served on the NCAA Division III East Region Advisory Committee as well as the AFCA Program and Rules & Exhibits Committees. Accorsi is a voting member of the AFCA Division III Coaches Poll and the chair of the AFCA Division III All-America Team Selection Committee.

Accorsi continually attends various high school and youth organization clinics and is a common presenter for a wide variety of clinics and organizations. He has been the guest speaker for the Dr. Warren J. McClain Memorial Touchdown Club of Southern New Jersey and the Brooks-Irvine Memorial Football Club. In addition, Accorsi has been a speaker at the South Jersey Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame/Adam Taliaferro Foundation All-Star Banquet.

Accorsi and his wife, Nancy, have three children - Gabrielle, Rachel and Jack.

THE COACHES

2022 Rowan University Football Coaching Staff

Pat Lancetta

ties, quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends, while also holding the title of defensive coordinator.

He came to Rowan from Hammonton High School, where he was the offensive coordinator and an assistant coach from 1989-2002, helping the school produce two undefeated seasons, eight conference titles and three South Jersey Group II Championships. During his full tenure at Hammonton from 1996 to 2008 he was the head golf coach and a health and physical education teacher.

His football coaching experience also includes a stint as the offensive coordinator at Absegami High School in 2003 and an assistant at Bishop Eustace Prep in 1988, as the team won the Olympic Conference and South Jersey Parochial B championships.

Lancetta graduated from Rowan in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. An alumnus of St. Joseph High School in Hammonton, he was an assistant football coach for the Wildcats from 1985-87.

Cedric Dawkins

and conditioning program. During his time at Rowan, Dawkins has assisted with the defense that earned a Top 20 national ranking in total defense, and the number-one ranking in the NJAC, during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

Prior to joining the Profs, Dawkins was an assistant coach at William Paterson from 2008-10, where he worked with the defensive backs, tight ends and receivers and was the special teams coordinator in 2009 and 2010. He coached the NJAC Rookie of the Year and two All-Conference players at WPU. In 2007, he was an assistant coach at Globe Institute Technology College.

Dawkins coached at Poly Prep Country Day School in New York from 2004-06, helping the team go 20-10. From 2000 to 2003, Dawkins was an assistant coach at East Rockaway High School in Long Island, NY.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical activity and health from Eastern Oregon University in 2011. He attended Hofstra University from 1986-90 and was a two-year starter at running back.

In his eighth season as a full-time staff member in 2022, Cedric Dawkins starts his fourth year as the Profs' defensive coordinator, while marking his 10th year overall at Rowan. Dawkins also serves as the strength & conditioning coach for the Rowan athletic department, which includes directing the football team's strength ordinator and Lead Defensive Backs Coach. He also oversaw the program's social media efforts and will continue to do so in his new full-time role.

Kurt Kingett

Kingett was a defensive back for Rowan from 2011 to 2014 and helped the Profs to two NJAC titles and three appearances in the NCAA Division III playoffs. He was a two-time All-NJAC performer, being named to the First Team in 2014 after selection to the Second Team in 2012.

Kingett, who totaled 114 tackles and four interceptions in 38 career games, was named to the USA College Football All-America Second Team in 2014.

A team captain, he received NJAC All-Academic Honorable Mention in 2013 and in 2014, and was the recipient of the Richard Wackar Brown & Gold Gridiron Club Award, given to the senior player who most exemplifies Profs' Football.

The native of Sewell, NJ, and graduate of St. Augustine Prep, earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Rowan in 2013 and received his MBA in 2015.

Kurt Kingett was named Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Backs Coach for the Rowan football team beginning with the 2022 season.

A standout at Rowan as a player, Kingett was elevated to the position after spending the past five years on the Profs' staff, where he was the Co-Special Teams
