Radford University officials introduced Mike McGuire on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 as the Highlanders' seventh NCAA head women's basketball coach in program history.

Widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the country, McGuire has quickly laid a solid foundation for the program moving forward.

Despite a 2015-16 season ravaged by injuries, McGuire steered Radford to its most wins (18) since the 2007-08 season. The Highlanders, who tied for third in the Big South regular-season standings, advanced to the semifinals of the Big South tournament for the first time since 2013

Defense was the cornerstone of Radford's success. The Highlanders concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (.333), 14th in scoring defense (53.3) and 16th in blocks per game (5.6).

Individually, two Radford players (Janayla White and Aisha Foy) were named to the All-Big South first team for the first time since 1992-93.

In just his second season at the helm (2014-15), McGuire guided the Highlanders to their third WNIT in school history. Radford, which finished with a 17-14 overall record, including a 14-6 Big South ledger, finished tied for second in the Big South regular-season standings. It was the Highlanders' highest finish in the conference standings since 2010-11.

McGuire's work did not go unnoticed as the conference's 11 head coaches selected him Big South Coach of the Year, marking the sixth head coach in program history to earn the accolade.

The Highlanders' 10-win improvement from the 2013-14 season to the 2014-15 season was tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, McGuire is the Big South Conference Captain, a role he will serve until 2018. He is also the women's basketball head coach representative from the Big South Conference on the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee, which is a three-year commitment.

Before Radford, McGuire spent 2008-13 as an assistant coach at the University of Richmond where he helped lead the Spiders to five straight postseason berths and a 101-60 overall record. For the second consecutive season in 2012-13, Florida Basketball Magazine named McGuire one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, and at the conclusion of the 2011-12 season, National Basketball Insider recognized him as one of the Top-14 Mid-Major assistant coaches in the country.

The Spiders posted three 20-win seasons during his tenure, including an appearance in the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game in 2009.

At Richmond, McGuire served as the scouting coordinator. He was also charged with scheduling and the recruitment and the development of post players in the program. He also served as the academic mentor for perimeter players.

Prior to his move to Richmond, McGuire led Hidden Valley High School (Roanoke, Va.) to back-to-back Virginia Group AA state basketball titles in 2007 and 2008. He posted a 55-5 overall record while leading the Titans.

McGuire is a 2000 graduate of Roanoke College where he spent one season after matriculating as the assistant coach for the men's basketball program. In that role, he served as the recruiting coordinator and junior varsity head coach. The Maroons posted a 17-10 record in his only season as an assistant.

McGuire and his wife, Nataleigh, reside in Riner with their daughters, Harper and Ellie.

ASHEVILLE, N.C. - Radford cut a 17-point deficit to six late in the third quarter, however, the Highlanders were unable to complete the comeback in falling to No. 2 seed Liberty, 51-41, Saturday evening in the semifinals of the 2016 Big South Women's Basketball Championship inside Kimmel Arena.

After being held to a season-low 11 points in the first half and seeing Liberty increase its lead to as many as 17, the third-seeded Highlanders stormed back behind a 15-4 run to close the gap to six following Sydney Nunley's and-one with six seconds to go in the third quarter.

With momentum on its side, Radford looked poised to head to the fourth quarter on a high note. However, the Lady Flames' Jaymee Fisher-Davis collected a pass from Sadalia Ellis and swished home a 3-pointer from the right wing as time expired to put Liberty ahead by nine (37-28) heading into the final stanza.

RU could get no closer than seven over the remaining 10 minutes of the game, ending the Highlanders' incredible season with the most wins (18) since the 2007-08 campaign.

For the second straight game, Jayda Worthy led Radford in scoring with 10 points. She added seven rebounds, two assists, two steals and one block. Lydia Rivers (11) and Janayla White (10) pulled down double-digit rebounds, while Destinee Walker racked up a season-high five steals.

Liberty's strong start was a result of the Lady Flames cleaning up the offensive glass. Sixteen of their 30 rebounds in the first half were on the offensive end. They were able to visit the free-throw line 15 more times than the Highlanders, gaining an additional nine points from the charity stripe.

Fisher-Davis, who knocked down 3 of 6 from beyond the arc, led all scorers with 11 points off the bench for Liberty. Ellis and Catherine Kearney contributed 10 points apiece.

The future is bright for Radford as 11 Highlanders are set to return for the 2016-17 campaign, which will be McGuire's fourth season as head coach of the program.
