MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH :: FOURTH SEASON AT RADFORD

► @coachmcguire

► @mamcguire77

Radford University officials introduced Mike McGuire on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 as the Highlanders' seventh NCAA head women's basketball coach in program history.

Widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the country, McGuire has quickly laid a solid foundation for the program moving forward.

Despite a 2015-16 season ravaged by injuries, McGuire steered Radford to its most wins (18) since the 2007-08 season. The Highlanders, who tied for third in the Big South regular-season standings, advanced to the semifinals of the Big South tournament for the first time since 2013.

Defense was the cornerstone of Radford's success. The Highlanders concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (.333), 14th in scoring defense (53.3) and 16th in blocks per game (5.6).

Individually, two Radford players (Janayla White and Aisha Foy) were named to the All-Big South first team for the first time since 1992-93.

In just his second season at the helm (2014-15), McGuire guided the Highlanders to their third WNIT in school history. Radford, which finished with a 17-14 overall record, including a 14-6 Big South ledger, finished tied for second in the Big South regular-season standings. It was the Highlanders' highest finish in the conference standings since 2010-11.

McGuire's work did not go unnoticed as the conference's 11 head coaches selected him Big South Coach of the Year, marking the sixth head coach in program history to earn the accolade.

The Highlanders' 10-win improvement from the 2013-14 season to the 2014-15 season was tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, McGuire is the Big South Conference Captain, a role he will serve until 2018. He is also the women's basketball head coach representative from the Big South Conference on the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee, which is a three-year commitment.

Before Radford, McGuire spent 2008-13 as an assistant coach at the University of Richmond where he helped lead the Spiders to five straight postseason berths and a 101-60 overall record. For the second consecutive season in 2012-13, Florida Basketball Magazine named McGuire one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, and at the conclusion of the 2011-12 season, National Basketball Insider recognized him as one of the Top-14 Mid-Major assistant coaches in the country.

The Spiders posted three 20-win seasons during his tenure, including an appearance in the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game in 2009.

At Richmond, McGuire served as the scouting coordinator. He was also charged with scheduling and the recruitment and the development of post players in the program. He also served as the academic mentor for perimeter players.

Prior to his move to Richmond, McGuire led Hidden Valley High School (Roanoke, Va.) to back-to-back Virginia Group AA state basketball titles in 2007 and 2008. He posted a 55-5 overall record while leading the Titans.

McGuire is a 2000 graduate of Roanoke College where he spent one season after matriculating as the assistant coach for the men's basketball program. In that role, he served as the recruiting coordinator and junior varsity head coach. The Maroons posted a 17-10 record in his only season as an assistant.

McGuire and his wife, Nataleigh, reside in Riner with their daughters, Harper and Ellie.

LAST TIME OUT

FAIRFAX, Va. – Radford was unable to capture their third season opening win in the last four years as George Mason avenged last season's overtime loss to the Highlanders with a 70-56 win after shooting over 80-percent from the free-throw line, Friday night inside the EagleBank Arena

George Mason opened the contest with an early 12-2 lead, highlighted by a 10-point swing on seven Radford turnovers. Chinyere Bell contributed five points during the run. The Highlanders ended the Patriot run as Destinee Walker found Lydia Rivers in the paint for a layup as Radford headed into the second quarter trailing 16-5 after committing eight opening quarter turnovers.

Walker opened the second quarter with four straight points to cut the early deficit to 16-9 at the 9:17 mark. After Radford cut the lead to seven, the Patriots rattled off eight straight points as Tiffany Padgett's 3-pointer forced a Highlander timeout, trailing 24-9 with 7:06 remaining in the second quarter.

Coming out of the timeout, Radford's offense started clicking as Rachael Ross and Sydney Nunley collected back-to-back layups, pulling the Highlanders within 28-19. Khiana Johnson followed with a jumper at the top of the key for her first collegiate points, cutting the Patriot lead to 30-21 with 2:11 remaining in the first half.

After the Johnson jumper, George Mason closed out the opening half on a 7-2 run as Patriots took the ball coast-to-coast with five seconds on the clock. Kari Wright hit a running 3-pointer to beat the buzzer, sending George Mason into the locker room with a 37-23 edge.

George Mason shot 40-percent in the first half, while making 11 of 14 free throws. Radford only got two shots to fall in the first quarter, but added 18 points in the second quarter on six baskets and 5 for 7 shooting from behind the charity stripe.

The third quarter saw a three-minute span in which both teams only made one field goal, a Nunley jumper at the 3:39 mark. In the span the two in-state foes made 11 free throws.

Claudia Quevedo knocked down a 3-pointer to cut the George Mason lead to 49-36, before the Patriots closed out the quarter on a 7-0 run.

Radford outscored George Mason 17-13 in the fourth quarter on three 3-pointers, but wasn't enough as the Patriots cruised to a 70-56 season opening victory.
