KEY STORYLINES

HISTORY LESSON

Radford is in its 46th season as a varsity women's basketball program. RU has compiled a 685-542 record during that span. Fourth-year head coach Mike McGuire is the program's seventh all-time head coach. The Highlanders have captured five Big South regular-season titles and nine tournament titles, with the last coming in 1996.

POSTSEASON PLAY

RU qualified for the WNIT for the third time in program history last season, falling to East Carolina. The Highlanders have a 2-3 WNIT record, picking up a pair of wins in the 1989 tournament. Prior to 2015, Radford last appeared in the WNIT in 2008. RU has made six postseason appearances in all (three WNITs and three NCAA Tournaments).

A WIN WOULD...

Give the Highlanders three consecutive wins over the Mountaineers in Boone. Pull Radford within 11-9 of Appalachian State in the all-time series. Make Mike McGuire 2-1 against Appalachian State during his career. Give Radford its first 5-1 start to a season since the 1985-86 season, when the Highlanders started 7-1.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH :: FOURTH SEASON AT RADFORD

► @coachmcguire

► @mamcguire77

Radford University officials introduced Mike McGuire on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 as the Highlanders' seventh NCAA head women's basketball coach in program history.

Widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the country, McGuire has quickly laid a solid foundation for the program moving forward.

Despite a 2015-16 season ravaged by injuries, McGuire steered Radford to its most wins (18) since the 2007-08 season. The Highlanders, who tied for third in the Big South regular-season standings, advanced to the semifinals of the Big South tournament for the first time since 2013.

Defense was the cornerstone of Radford's success. The Highlanders concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (.333), 14th in scoring defense (53.3) and 16th in blocks per game (5.6).

Individually, two Radford players (Janayla White and Aisha Foy) were named to the All-Big South first team for the first time since 1992-93.

In just his second season at the helm (2014-15), McGuire guided the Highlanders to their third WNIT in school history. Radford, which finished with a 17-14 overall record, including a 14-6 Big South ledger, finished tied for second in the Big South regular-season standings. It was the Highlanders' highest finish in the conference standings since 2010-11.

McGuire's work did not go unnoticed as the conference's 11 head coaches selected him Big South Coach of the Year, marking the sixth head coach in program history to earn the accolade.

The Highlanders' 10-win improvement from the 2013-14 season to the 2014-15 season was tied for the sixth-best

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, McGuire is the Big South Conference Captain, a role he will serve until 2018. He is also the women's basketball head coach representative from the Big South Conference on the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee, which is a three-year commitment.

Before Radford, McGuire spent 2008-13 as an assistant coach at the University of Richmond where he helped lead the Spiders to five straight postseason berths and a 101-60 overall record. For the second consecutive season in 2012-13, Florida Basketball Magazine named McGuire one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, and at the conclusion of the 2011-12 season, National Basketball Insider recognized him as one of the Top-14 Mid-Major assistant coaches in the country.

The Spiders posted three 20-win seasons during his tenure, including an appearance in the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game in 2009.

At Richmond, McGuire served as the scouting coordinator. He was also charged with scheduling and the recruitment and the development of post players in the program. He also served as the academic mentor for perimeter players.

Prior to his move to Richmond, McGuire led Hidden Valley High School (Roanoke, Va.) to back-to-back Virginia Group AA state basketball titles in 2007 and 2008. He posted a 55-5 overall record while leading the Titans.

McGuire is a 2000 graduate of Roanoke College where he spent one season after matriculating as the assistant coach for the men's basketball program. In that role, he served as the recruiting coordinator and junior varsity head coach. The Maroons posted a 17-10 record in his only season as an assistant.

LAST TIME OUT

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Radford placed four players in double-figures, while Destinee Walker poured in a career-high 20 points to go along with 10 rebounds for her second double-double on the season as the Highlanders cruised to their four-straight win with a 70-54 decision over UNC Greensboro.

Radford jumped out to an early 9-2 on three straight 3-pointers by Claudia Quevedo and Walker. Walker's first 3-pointer came at the 8:21 mark, while Jen Falconer found Walker on the left side of the perimeter at the 6:04 mark.

Almost one minute later, Falconer pushed the ball up the right side of the court, finding Quevedo for a transition 3-pointer to give the Highlanders a seven-point lead with 5:16 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Highlanders closed out the first quarter with a strong showing as Quevedo and the Radford defense forced a turnover, leading Jayda Worthy to a transition three-point play. After sinking the free throw, Worthy collected a second chance basket on Radford's next offensive possession, giving the junior five straight points as the Highlanders ended the quarter with a 16-7 edge.

In the second quarter, Sydney Nunley (6) and Worthy (7) combined for Radford's first 13 points. Nunley outscored UNCG 6-2 in a 2:10 span in the quarter, knocking down back-to-back jumpers to give the Highlanders a 24-10 lead with 6:37 remaining in the first half.

Worthy added five points and Walker contributed two free throws as the Highlanders went into the locker room with a commanding 31-16 halftime lead.

Radford built its lead to 19 in the third quarter as Falconer found a wide open Quevedo in the corner for her second 3-pointer, giving the Highlanders a 38-19 lead early in the second half.

UNCG slowly chipped into the Radford lead, ending the third quarter on a 9-5 run, trailing 51-37. Khiana Johnson prevented the Spartans from making a run to end the quarter with five of her 10 second half points.

The Spartans opened the final quarter with five straight points, cutting the Highlander lead to 51-42 as the Highlanders would go on an 8-2 run.

The 8-2 run was highlighted by two 3-pointers from Falconer and Quevedo, while Walker finished off an offensive rebound putback.

Radford demised what comeback attempt UNCG mustered as the Highlanders finished the fourth quarter with three 3-pointers and four straight free throws from Falconer to collect their fourth consecutive win with a 70-54 decision.
