KENT STATE, PLEASE...

Kent State University respectfully requests that the institution and its intercollegiate athletics teams be referred to as "Kent State" or "KSU" in shortened reference, as opposed to "Kent." Thank you.

EARLY SEASON ACCOLADES

- Kent State once again earned numerous pre-season honors from national baseball outlets
- The team was picked to finish in the top of the MAC by D1Baseball and Baseball America
- Junior left-hander Eric Lauer is full of preseason recognition. He is a USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Preseason Watch List honoree, Baseball America's Preseason MAC Pitcher of the Year and Second Team Preseason All-American, Perfect Game Second Team Preseason All-American and College Sports Madness Preseason MAC Pitcher of the Year
- College Sports Madness also selected Head Coach Jeff Duncan as the Preseason MAC Coach of the Year and put Conner Simonetti and Zarley Zalewski on the preseason First Team and Dom Iero on the Second Team

BIG LEAGUE BOSSES

- Kent State's coaching staff is certainly not lacking when it comes to having Major League Baseball experience
- Head Coach Jeff Duncan played professionally for nine seasons, including the 2003 and 2004 seasons in the MLB with the Mets.
- Associate Head Coach Mike Birkbeck played 14 years at the professional level, with his last ten at the AAA level or higher. In the majors, he most notably was a member of the Milwaukee Brewers. He also played two seasons of pro ball in Japan.

BIRKBECK CELEBRATES 20 YEARS

- Associate Head Coach Mike Birkbeck is celebrating his 20th season at Kent State
- Known as one of the top pitching coaches in the country, he has mentored 43 MLB draftees and six Major Leaguers
- Birkbeck has seen numerous pitching records broke under his watch and has won seven MAC regular season titles, nine tournament titles and has made nine NCAA appearances while winning 687, an average of 36 games a year, including 30 or more games for 17-straight seasons

PERENNIAL POWERHOUSE

- Kent State has become nearly untouchable when it comes to winning MAC championships
- The Golden Flashes have won either the regular season or the tournament title in 14 of the last 16 seasons
- They have boasted a conference winning percentage over .580 in 25 of the last 26 years
- The MAC coaches selected Kent State to win both the regular season and the tournament for the 6th-straight time in the conference's preseason poll

BIG DRAFT CLASS

- The Golden Flashes did not have a player selected in the 2015 MLB Draft (the first time since 1998), but that is sure to change this season
- Eric Lauer has been tabbed as the 23rd and 35th prospect in the country and fellow starter Andy Ravel has been ranked at 149 and 223
- Nick Jensen-Clagg, Zarley Zalewski, Conner Simonetti, Luke Burch and Alex Miklos are all draft-eligible this season and have a good chance of hearing their name called come June

FANTASTIC FACILITIES

- As a part of the Athletic Department's Building Champions Initiative, the Dave and Peggy Edmonds Baseball and Softball Training Facility opened last fall, thanks to generous donations from alumni Dave Edmonds and Tom Cole.
- New for 2014, a new parking lot was added and the Rollins' Way was rededicated
- A new Shaw Sports Turf playing surface debuted in the 2015 home season
- Improvements have been added steadily in the recent years to Kent State's baseball facility.
- The installation of FieldTurf in 2005 made it possible to play much more often in sometimes cruel spring weather in the North.
- The facility was improved again in 2007 with the addition of a home locker room, player's lounge, restrooms and concession stand.
- An updated scoreboard replaced the former one in right field in 2008.
- New for the 2013 season, lights now surround Schoonover Stadium, allowing for later dates and night baseball for the first time in Kent State home field history.

GREAT MINDS

- Kent State has been just as successful in the classroom as they have been on the field.
- The team posted a 3.27 grade-point average this past fall with four students posting a perfect 4.0 and 12 students with a 3.4 or higher
- Jared Skolnicki was named a Capital One Academic All-American following the 2015 season, being just the third student in program history to receive the honor

THE MATCHUP

- This is the first meeting between the two programs
- Radford picked up wins this season in game one of a double header with Georgia Southern in a 2-1 game. The second came in the finale with Hartford, 4-2
- The Highlanders are coming off two midweek games with No. 2 Vanderbilt, where they lost 13-4 on Tuesday and 12-0 on Wednesday
- They have a team batting average of .195 and ERA of 5.15

SUPER SEVEN

- Kent State has swept its last two weekend series, winning seven games in a row and outscoring opponents 54-29 in that span
- It started with a four-game sweep at the RussMatt Invitational where the Golden Flashes took down George Washington twice, Ball State 8-3 and Milwaukee 7-6
- Last weekend at Charlotte, Kent State won 4-3, 11-6 and 11-3
- Offensively in the last seven games, the team is hitting .302 with six players batting more than .300
- On the mound, the team posted a 2.91 ERA with four relievers having a 0.00 ERA and eight pitchers overall with a 3.00 ERA or better

MAC RANKINGS

- In the conference through this past weekend's games, Kent State has the best team ERA and second-best batting average
- The team also has the 5th-best fielding percentage and ranks 2nd in hits allowed per nine innings, 4th in on-base percentage, 3rd in runs, 5th in slugging percentage, 3rd in stolen bases and 1st in WHIP
- Individually, Zarley Zalewski is 10th in batting average, 3rd in runs scored, 6th in total bases
- Eric Lauer is 7th in ERA, 2nd in innings pitched, 7th in strikeouts and 6th in opposing batting average
- Dylan Rosa is tied for 5th in doubles
- Luke Burch is 7th in RBI and 4th in stolen bases
- Andy Ravel is tied for 2nd in innings pitched
- Eli Kraus is 6th in innings pitched

MAC POLL PICKS KENT STATE TO WIN MAC EAST AND MAC TOURNAMENT

- The Mid-American Conference Baseball Preseason Poll was released on Wednesday (Feb. 17) with Kent State picked to finish first in the East Division as was voted upon by all 11 head coaches.
- Ohio is predicted to follow Kent State in the East Division, followed by Bowling Green, Miami and Buffalo. Central Michigan is predicted to win the West Division. Ball State, Western Michigan, Toledo, Northern Illinois and Eastern Michigan round out the predicted order of finish in the West.
- Kent State was also picked to win the MAC Tournament in the poll, receiving four of the eleven votes.

HEAD COACH JEFF DUNCAN

74-48 (.607) Overall Record
34-20 (.630) MAC Record
Third Season

Jeff Duncan was named the head coach of Kent State baseball on June 25, 2013, by Director of Athletics, Joel Nielsen, following numerous years as a collegiate assistant coach and a lauded playing career.

In eight years of college coaching, Duncan has worked with 16 position players who have been selected in the MLB Draft, including 2012 Big Ten Player of the Year Kevin Plawewski who was drafted in the first round and currently plays for the New York Mets.

Duncan guided the Golden Flashes to a 33-21 record in 2015 including a Mid-American East Division title as the Flashes went 18-9 in conference play. Three of his players earned All-MAC recognition while two were named All-Region. Additionally, the team had eight Academic All-MAC students, the most for the program since the award was first given out in 1972. Sophomore Jared Skolnicki led the way in the classroom as he earned Academic All-America honors, just the third student to be named such in program history.

In his first year at the helm, Duncan led Kent State to a 36-23 season and a NCAA postseason appearance after a four-game sweep of the Mid-American Conference Tournament. His offense belted 22 triples, tying the most in any single season dating back to 1970. Four Golden Flashes earned All-MAC honors while two were named All-Region. Duncan also developed senior Cody Koch into a MAC Tournament MVP and NCAA All-Tournament honoree. Three three-year players were drafted in the 2014 MLB Draft.

In the classroom, Kent State continued its academic success. Six student-athletes were named Academic All-MAC. Duncan also had a student earn All-District Academic honors while the team maintained a cumulative grade point average above 3.1. The team posted its third-best spring semester GPA in recorded history.

Before coming to Kent State, Duncan spent four seasons at Purdue, helping lead the team to a school-record 45 wins in 2012, including a Big Ten Regular Season Championship, Big Ten Tournament Championship and a NCAA Regional Host. He was named associate head coach in September of 2012. Duncan was named the assistant in the Big Ten most ready for a head coaching job by College Baseball Insider and was listed as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation by Baseball America.

While a part of the Boilermakers program, Duncan served as the hitting, base running and outfield coach and also as the recruiting coordinator. He signed three recruiting classes that were ranked nationally by Collegiate Baseball Magazine. He helped lead the Purdue program to 133 wins in his four years on staff.

Prior to Purdue, Duncan was an assistant coach at Auburn University from August 2008-September 2009 where he served as the third base coach and assisted with the team's offense and outfielders. While there, he coached nine position players that were drafted by Major League Baseball and helped the team set a single-season record of 103 home runs.

Duncan played baseball professionally for nine seasons in the Mets, Padres, Blue Jays and Dodgers organizations. He spent two of those years at the Major League level with the Mets during the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Duncan was also a three-time All-Star selection while in the Minor Leagues. He was drafted twice: in the seventh round by the Mets in 2000 and in the 1997 MLB Draft by the Cubs out of high school.

Before going pro, Duncan played baseball at Arizona State. Batting .360 in his career as a Sun Devil, Duncan was captain of the 2000 team that went on to win a PAC-10 Championship.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MIKE BIRKBECK

20th Season

Alma Mater: Akron, '85

2012 Baseball America Assistant Coach of the Year

Mike Birkbeck, a former major league pitcher, was promoted to Associate Head Coach in July, 2004. The 2015 season marks his 20th season pitching coach for the Kent State program. Prior to Kent State, Birkbeck spent 14 years playing professionally. His last 10 seasons were spent at the AAA or major league level. He also spent parts of two seasons playing in the Japanese major leagues with the Yokohama Baystars in Yokohama, Japan.

Birkbeck has worked with 43 student-athletes who have been drafted or signed into professional baseball, including 2011 First Round Draftee Andrew Chafin. Six of his former hurlers, Matt Guerrier '99 (Twins), John VanBenschoten '01 (Pirates), Dirk Hayhurst '03 (Padres), Andy Sonnanstine '04 (Devil Rays), Chris Carpenter '08 (Cubs) and Chafin '11 (Diamondbacks) have all appeared in the major leagues. In addition, he has mentored 34 All-MAC, 16 All-MAC Tournament, nine All-Region and nine All-American honorees.

Several Golden Flash pitchers have broken single-season or career pitching records under his guidance.

ASSISTANT COACH ALEX MARCONI

3rd Season

Alma Mater: Kent State, '01

Alex Marconi was promoted to assistant coach of the Kent State baseball program by head coach Jeff Duncan after he spent the 2013 season as the volunteer assistant coach for the team. Marconi has Division I coaching experience in his young career.

Before his return to Kent State, Marconi was the head coach at fellow Mid-American Conference member Ball State beginning in 2010. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach for the Cardinals for five years. His coaching career began in 2005 when he was named an assistant coach at North Carolina.

Marconi was a four-year letter winner for Kent State baseball, earning First-Team All-MAC and All-Region honors in 1999, as well as First-Team Academic All-MAC recognition. He was a team captain in 2000 and went on to be named First-Team All-MAC for the second consecutive year and Second-Team All-Region.

After his career at Kent State, Marconi was drafted in the 27th round of the 2000 Major League Draft by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He reached the Triple-A level in 2001 and 2002, and was invited to Major League Spring Training with Tampa Bay in 2003. His playing career concluded in 2004 with the St. Paul Saints, a member of the Independent League.
