KEY STORY LINES

LAST TIME OUT

In the latest matchup back on Dec. 12, 2017, West Virginia won 75-55 in West Virginia. Khiana led the Highlanders in scoring at 17, going three-for-four from the free throw line. Jen Falconer tallied eight points while going three-for-six from the floor. Radford tallied 10 points in the paint, 15 points off turnovers, and garnered 11 points from the bench.

West Virginia was led by Naomi Davenport's 20-points and Teana Muldrow's double-double (13pts, 13rebs0).

A RADFORD WIN WOULD...

- Stretch the Highlander winning streak to two games
- Give Radford a win in to bring the All-Time series to 1-2
- Give Radford their first win over a Big 12 opponent (*Beat Kansas State in 88-89, where still Big Eight Conference*)

A RADFORD LOSS WOULD...

- Slip the Highlanders to 1-2, a feat not seen since the 2015-16 season

- Give the Mountaineers the upper hand in the All-Time series at 3-0

HIGHLANDERS TO WATCH

Jen Falconer is 15 games away from tying Jayda Worthy (2014-18) for career games played at 123. Khiana Johnson is 58 points away from joining the 1,000 point club. Falconer & Johnson are also two and three in career three-point attempts at 332 and 301. Falconer is ninth in career assists at 260. Sydney Nunly has now solidified herself at No.7 in individual career blocks at 95.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

Back on Monday, Nov. 11th, West Virginia received votes in Associated Press Poll at 59 total, just one behind No. 25 South Florida. The Mountaineers have opened the season with on a two-game winning streak over Saint Francis (74-45) and Presbyterian (56-40).

UP NEXT

Radford will continue their four-game road trip, taking on East Tennessee State in Brooks Gym Thursday, November 21st at 11:00 a.m.

BY THE NUMBERS

29

Radford received a total of 29 votes in the College Insider Mid-Major Poll back on Nov. 4th, 2019.

FLYING FALCONER

Senior leader and floor general, Falconer scrapped her way through tonight's game with a newfound tenacity. She pulled down a career high eight rebounds while adding a steal, three points, and 50 percent shooting from the charity stripe.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

Amele Ngwafang has been on a terror to begin this season, scoring a career high 15 points and pulling down a career high 14 rebounds in the contest. She would mark the first ever double-double of her career. Alongside her battling in the post was the noted double-double machine, Nunley. She would finish the game with 12 points and 11 rebounds through her 27 minutes while adding a block and a pair of assists.

HIGHLANDER QUARTET LEADS THE WAY IN GAME TWO

Story headlines Radford's win at South Carolina State were back-to-back scoring outburst, career highs, and double doubles were the highlights for Jen Falconer, Khiana Johnson, Sydney Nunley, and Amele Ngwafang. For the second consecutive game, Khiana has scored in double digits while doing it efficiently.

AMELE'S AMAZING DEBUT

The sophomore had a phenomenal season opener, notching a near double-double with nine points and 12 rebounds. Her 25 minutes on the hardwood served as a career high. She led the team in rebounding and was the first one off the bench for the Highlanders.

She followed that performance with yet another career night at South Carolina State. She posted 15 points and 14 rebounds, career highs and season

The Highlanders scored 46 points in their season opener at Vanderbilt. This is the fewest points scored in an opener by any McGuire team, closest is 14-15 team @ Virginia (L, 47-75).

highs in both categories.

HEARING THE BLUES IN MUSIC CITY

Radford opened the 2019-20 campaign against SEC member, Vanderbilt on Nov. 8th. The Highlanders fell to the Commodores 80-46 but went into halftime only down by 12. Khiana Johnson was the prime scoring option for Radford ending the contest shooting an efficient 7-for-14 from the floor. Her 18 points led the Highlanders in conjunction with her 60-percent shooting from beyond the arc.

12-FOR-12

Coach McGuire and his staff emptied the bench tonight against Vanderbilt, playing a total of 12 Highlanders in the game. Several of them made their debuts in a Radford uniform.

BIRTHDAY BALLERS

Radford had a pair of teammates with birthdays on opening night, Tina Lindenfeld and Taiye Johnson. Joining the starting lineup on her birthday was Lindenfeld who dished out a trio of assists in addition to grabbing a pair of rebounds. T. Johnson saw some action and posted her first points as a Highlander.

MAJOR IN THE MID-MAJOR POLL

Radford concluded the 2018-19 season ranked at No.25 in the College Insider Mid-Major Poll.

In the 2019-20 poll released on Nov. 4th, 2019, the Highlanders were noted as having received votes. Radford tallied 29 votes in the poll.

THE NCAA'S PREDICTION

On basketball eve (Nov. 7th, 2019), the NCAA released an article titled "The 2019-20 women's college basketball bracket, predicted in the opening week".

The Highlanders were predicted by the NCAA to notch the 15th seed, slated to take on UCONN in the First Round of the 2020 NCAA DI Women's Basketball Tournament.

The Highlanders were predicted to notch the 15th seed with the opportunity to head to Portland, Ore. slated to take on UConn in the First Round of the 2020 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament.

HONORED HIGHLANDERS

Radford recieved six first-place votes in the 2019-20 Big South preseason poll, ultimately being slated to repeat as champions. This makes for the 13th time in program history that the Highlanders were selected atop the conference and the third consecutive time in the McGuire era.

Sydney Nunley was tabbed as a Big South First Team honoree. Nunley, the Second Team All-Big South and three-time Big South Player of the Week selection, was rewarded for her dominance in the paint last season. The West Virginia native played in 29 games while starting in 22 of them. She averaged a near double-double at 10.3 points and 9.5 rebounds over the course of 24.5 minutes per game. In the Big South, she ranked second in rebounds per game, second in blocked shots per game, third in offensive rebounds per game, and third in defensive rebounds per game. She concluded the 2018-19 campaign with 267 rebounds, 47 blocks, 28 assists, and 13 steals. Joining the 500 career rebound club, she also registered 12 double-doubles including a stretch where she notched seven in a row. Nunley posted a season high 22 points on several occasions and pulled down 13 rebounds against Maryland in the NCAA Tournament.

Khiana Johnson was named to the Big South

BY THE NUMBERS

13

Radford has been picked as preseason favorites in the Big South 13 times in program history, and three times in back-to-back seasons under McGuire.

After the successful 2018-19 season the Highlanders set eight new records as a team in an array of categories both offensive and defensive.

10

McGuire welcomes 10 newcomers to the program, six players and four staff members.

Second Team. Johnson joined her teammate on the Second Team All-Big South last season. She tallied career highs in various categories such as points per game at 11, assists per game at 3.6, rebounds per game at 2.3, and 35.1 minutes per game which was the fourth most in the conference. In the Big South, she ranked fourth in total assists at 118 and fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.2. Johnson scored in double figures in 23 games including a career high 19 points at Campbell. She also notched her first career double-double against USC Upstate with 16 points and 10 assists.

WHAT'S AT STAKE

The Highlanders would slip to 1-2, if taking a loss in this matchup. A 1-2 start is a feat not seen since the 2015-16 season. West Virginia would also improve to 3-0 in the all-time series in the case of a Mountaineers victory.

FRESH FACES

The Highlanders are a fresh-faced team this year as head coach Mike McGuire welcomed six newcomers and several new coaches. The freshman class consists of Rachel LaLonde, Diane Nicholson, Taiye Johnson, and Kinsley Lewis. McGuire also brought in a pair of transfers in Aiden Rainford and Ariel Williams. On the bench you'll find Steven Rhodes (Belmont Abbey), Nikki Newman (James Madison), and Chrystal Starling (The Masters School).

Radford's returning core of eight players is led by a trio of seniors like Sydney Nunley, Khiana Johnson, and Jen Falconer. Nunley and Johnson were selected to the preseason Big South First and Second Teams respectively.

The Highlanders were selected to repeat for the third consecutive season under McGuire and the 13th time in program history, receiving six first-place votes.

STATS FLASHBACK

The 2018-19 Highlanders set eight new team top-10 program records in wins, field goals attempted, three-point field goals made, three-point field goals attempted, free throws attempted, rebounds, rebounds per game, and rebounding margin. That team is now 1st for wins (26), 6th in field goals attempted (1,986), 1st for three-point field goals made (164), 1st in three-point field goals attempted (574), tied at 10th for free throws attempted (646), 2nd in rebounds (1,447), tied for 7th in rebounds per game (43.8), and 10th in rebounding margin (+5.0).

OVERALL EFFICIENCY

Last season the 2018-19 team overall, was ranked 11 different times in the top-10 in the Big South...

Scoring Offense: 5th (63.5 avg.)

Scoring Defense: 1st (55.1 avg.)

Scoring Margin: 1st (+8.4)

Field Goal Defense: 1st (.343 percent)

3-point Field Goal Defense: 1st (.255 percent)

Rebounding Offense: 1st (43.8 avg.)

Rebounding Margin: +5.0

Blocked Shots: 3rd (4.36 avg.)

Assists: 3rd (13.21 avg.)

Offensive Rebounds: 5th (13.79 avg.)

Assist/Turnover Ratio: 1st (0.95 ratio)

Nunley and K. Johnson were also ranked for their individual overall play. Nunley was second in rebounding average (9.7) and blocked shots (1.66). K. Johnson made the top-5 for assists per game (3.58) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.19).

A LOOK BACK: THE HISTORIC 2018-19 SEASON

41

Radford established a new program record with a combined total of 40 individual double-doubles last season. Lydia Rivers (15) and Sydney Nunley (12) were 1 & 2 in the Big South.

OCTOBER 22, 2018

The Highlanders were selected as the 2018-19 Big South Conference preseason favorites. Destinee Walker was placed on the preseason First Team All-Big South team with Lydia Rivers on the All-Big South Second Team.

DECEMBER 8, 2018

Radford defeated Virginia in Charlottesville, 57-44. It was the Highlanders first victory against UVA since 1979 as the Cavaliers had won seven straight in the series. It was also Radford's first win against an ACC team since they defeated Wake Forest during the 2016-2017 season.

JANUARY 8, 2019

Reversing an eight-point second half deficit, Radford pulled away from High Point late to win the game 80-58. The Highlanders outscored the Pathers by a 49-19 margin in the final 13 minutes of the game.

JANUARY 12, 2019

The shooting from behind the arc was impeccable against Winthrop as the team hit a season high 11 three-pointers in the 70-49 victory over the Eagles.

JANUARY 15, 2019

In a game where several players notched double-doubles, head coach Mike McGuire tabbed a recognition of his own. This 67-41 win against Charleston Southern earned McGuire his 100th win at Radford.

FEBRUARY 9, 2019

The Highlanders defeated High Point in double overtime to maintain the top spot in the Big South by reversing a 15-point deficit for their eighth consecutive win. The 10-1 conference campaign was the best conference start since the 1991-92 season.

FEBRUARY 23, 2019

Radford's gutsy come-from-behind win versus Campbell, helped tie the program record mark at 11 straight wins.

FEBRUARY 26, 2019

The Highlanders edged past UNC Asheville in a 45-44 win, to set a new program record at 12 straight victories. At this point Radford was 14-1 in the Big South and 20-6 overall, the third consecutive season reaching 20 wins.

MARCH 2, 2019

This win was extra special, as Radford captured the 2018-2019 Big South regular season championship in a 55-43 victory over USC Upstate on Senior Day. The win extended the winning streak to 13 games, a new program record. The Highlanders would also have home-court advantage during the conference tournament.

MARCH 6, 2019

The team avenged their lone Big South loss in an 84-59 win against Hampton to improve to 22-6 overall and 16-1 in conference play. The 16 league wins served as a new single-season program record.

MARCH 9, 2019

Radford completed their historic regular-season with a come-from-behind, 48-43 win over Presbyterian. The Highlanders finished the regular season with a 23-6 record and 17-1 in conference play. In addition, Radford won a school-record 15 straight contests heading into the Big South tournament as the No.1 seed.

MARCH 11, 2019

Winning the regular season title, six Highlanders captured postseason conference awards. Destinee Walker, Lydia Rivers, Sydney Nunley, Khiana Johnson, Jen Falconer, and Mike McGuire all garnered 2018-2019 Big South All-Conference Team honors. Walker and Rivers were both placed on the First Team. Nunley and Johnson were Second Team honorees. For the second season in a row, Falconer joined the All-Academic Team. McGuire touted the honor of Coach of the Year for the third time in his career at Radford.

MARCH 17, 2019

Radford defeated Campbell, 57-45, to win the 2019 Big South Tournament Championship for the first time since 1996 and for the 10th time in program history. Winning 18 straight games, the Highlanders went 26-6 overall and 17-1 in conference play, a program record. Rivers (MVP) and Walker were named to the All-Tournament Team.

MARCH 23, 2019

The historic campaign came to a close against the No. 3 seeded Maryland in the NCAA First Round, 73-51. Despite the loss, it was a historic season for the women's basketball program. The Highlanders won a school record 26 contests, including a record 17 conference victories. Radford (26-7) also posted a program-best 18 straight contests prior to this game. This NCAA Tournament game was Radford's first since 1994, and the 22-point loss was the closest margin of defeat in four NCAA Tournament appearances.

APRIL 23, 2019

Radford earned the No.25 ranking in the final CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll. The team performed extremely well outside of the conference as well, picking up non-conference wins against East Tennessee State, Temple, Virginia and VCU. The squad ranked 10th in the country in scoring defense and were eighth in field goal percentage defense.

*Team also earned program's first ever Sportsmanship Award and APR National Recognition.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH • SEVENTH SEASON AT RADFORD

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons.

With an overall record of 116-75 (.607) at Radford, McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage of any coach in program history. He has gone 78-36 (.684) in Big South play and has led the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships. Over the last three seasons alone, Radford is 74-25, the best three-year stretch in program history and has an impressive 40-2 record inside the Dedmon Center over that timespan.

Now entering his seventh season at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013, he is widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the nation. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition.

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat. His hard work and dedication to the program have been on display day-in and day-out for many years, proving that no one could be more deserving of that recognition.

Under his direction, 15 Highlanders have been named All-Big South, three have earned VaSID All-State honors and the Highlanders earned their first ever Big South Conference Sportsmanship Award following the 2018-19 season. The program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years.

Radford put together one of the greatest campaigns in school history in 2018-19, going 26-7 overall and 17-1 in Big South play to clinch the regular season title and the top seed in the Big South Tournament. McGuire and the Highlanders went on to win the Big South Championship and earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 23 years. Another impressive feat was the 2018-19 team earned a spot in the final College Insider Mid-Major Poll, coming in at No. 25.

During non-conference play, Radford took down Temple, VCU and Virginia to become battle-tested for life in the Big South. It was then that the Highlanders shined, going on an 18-game winning streak to close out the regular season and tear through postseason play. A 15-1 record inside the Dedmon Center treated fans to a near-perfect performance at home.

Destinee Walker and Lydia Rivers were voted First Team All-Big South, Sydney Nunley and Khiana Johnson made the Second Team, and Jen Falconer was selected for the All-Academic Team. Walker also made an appearance on the VaSID Second Team All-State team.

The 2017-18 season saw McGuire lead Radford to its second straight 24-9 mark, compiling a 48-18 record over the last two seasons, which ranks as the best two-year mark in program history. The Highlanders finished with a 15-3 clip in Big South play, the most wins in program history. For the second straight season, Radford dropped no more than two games in a row.

Leading Radford to its third straight Big South Tournament semifinal appearance, McGuire and the Highlanders made back-to-back WNIT appearances as part of a stretch that saw the team make the WNIT in three of four years. The Highlanders defeated Big Ten foe Penn State, 63-62, in overtime for the third postseason win in program history.

For the second consecutive season, Radford placed three on the All-Big South teams as Janayla White earned first-team honors, while Jayda Worthy was named to the second team. Destinee Walker earned a spot on the honorable mention squad.

Part of his first recruiting class at Radford, White and Worthy closed out their careers as two of the best to wear a Radford uniform. Worthy finished as the program's all-time leader in games played (123), while scoring 1,263 points for sixth best and grabbing 771 rebounds for seventh best in Highlander history. White tallied 1,121 points for 18th in program history, while her 980 career rebounds rank third. Tied for ninth in Big South history, White blocked 209 shots to rank second in Radford history.

Worthy became the fourth player in program history to earn Big South Defensive Player of the Year as the Highlanders finished with the fourth best scoring defense in the country. Radford ranked 18th nationally in three-point field goal percentage defense and 19th in field goal percentage defense.

Radford went 12-1 inside the Dedmon Center, holding a 28-1 mark since February 2016 as the Highlanders won 21 straight at one point, ranking as the third longest home streak in the country during the span.

The Highlanders have made a habit out of upsetting Power Five opponents under McGuire. In his six completed seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Virginia, Penn State and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNCG, Davidson and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

In his fourth season after taking over the reins of the women's program, McGuire put together one of the most memorable seasons in program history during the 2016-17 campaign. McGuire increased the program's win totals from seven in his first season to 17, 18 and 24 over the next three seasons. Since that 7-23 season in 2013-14, McGuire has compiled an 109-52 record.

Dropping no more than two games in a row throughout the season, Radford concluded its magical 2016-17 season with a 24-9 record, finishing with the second most wins in program history. Only the 1988-89 squad won more games, compiling a 25-7 record.

In Big South Conference play, Radford finished with a 14-4 record for the second most conference wins in the team's history, matching the record set during the 2014-15 season. Racking up the wins on the floor, Radford also racked up its first Big South Regular Season Championship in 25 years, defeating Campbell in a thrilling 49-48 win.

In addition, Radford collected its 700th win in program history on February 21, 2017, against Gardner-Webb to become the second program in Big South history to win 700 games.

Developing the nickname "Cardiac Kids," midway through the season, Radford played in nine games decided by three points or less with five coming in the last seven games of the season. The Highlanders compiled a 7-2 record in those games, which may be due to the calm demeanor of McGuire. During McGuire's tenure, Radford is 21-11 in games decided by five points or less.

Providing fans with suspenseful games all season long, Radford's lockdown defense was a major part of the season's success. The Highlander defense finished the season ranked inside the top 15 nationally in two defensive categories. Holding opponents to a mere 55.0 points per game, Radford ranked as the 10th-best defense in the country. The Highlanders ranked 11th with a 35.1 field goal percentage defense.

Individually, Radford placed four on All-Big South squads. Destinee Walker and Jayda Worthy earned a spot on the first team, marking the second consecutive season the Highlanders put two on the first team. Janayla White was named to the honorable mention squad and Khiana Johnson was on the all-freshman team.

Radford collected two three-point victories in the Big South Tournament, earning its first championship appearance since 2008. The Highlanders fell just short of earning its first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1996, dropping the championship game 49-48 to UNC Asheville.

The Highlanders made their second WNIT appearance under McGuire and the seventh postseason appearance in program history. Despite a 2015-16 season ravaged by injuries, McGuire steered Radford to its most wins (18) since the 2007-08 season. The Highlanders, who tied for third in the Big South regular-season standings, advanced to the semifinals of the Big South tournament for the first time since 2013.

Defense was the cornerstone of Radford's success. The Highlanders concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (.333), 14th in scoring defense (53.3) and 16th in blocks per game (5.6).

Individually, two Radford players (Janayla White and Aisha Foy) were named to the All-Big South first team for the first time since 1992-93.

McGuire's work did not go unnoticed as the conference's 11 head coaches selected him Big South Coach of the Year, making the sixth head coach in program history to earn the accolade. The Highlanders' 10-win improvement from the 2013-14 season to the 2014-15 season was tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation.

Prior to his time at Radford, McGuire served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Richmond. He helped lead the Spiders to WNIT appearances in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 and nearly guided the squad to an Atlantic 10 title in 2009. He was also a member of the Roanoke College men's basketball coaching staff in 2001-02, where he also graduated from in 2000.

His experience in the high school basketball ranks is extensive as well. McGuire spent time as the William Byrd High School girls' basketball head coach from 2002-06 before heading to Hidden Valley High School to assume the same role. It was there that he made a name for himself, leading his teams to VHSL Group AA State Championships in 2007 and 2008. He was named Coach of the Year both years.

McGuire is happily married to his wife, Nataleigh. The couple has three beautiful daughters named Harper, Ellie, and Reese.
