TEAM NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

Radford 81, High Point 70 - 2/8/20

HIGH POINT, N.C. – Hot shooting by the Radford men's basketball team carried them to an 81-70 victory over High Point in the Millis Center on Saturday night.

Radford (14-9, 9-2 Big South) tallied a scorching 60.5 field goal percentage and nailed 13-of-26 shots from behind the arc to shoot 50 percent from 3-point range – the best in any game all season long.

After High Point (7-17, 4-7 Big South) scored the opening bucket, it was all Highlanders from that point forward as the team raced to an 11-0 run connecting on their first four field goal attempts, including two 3-pointers. After that, Radford continued the offensive pressure and eventually grew the lead to 19-6 with 11:34 to play in the first half.

The Highlanders shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the first half and hit eight 3-pointers to take a 44-24 lead into the locker room. The 20-point advantage at the half was the largest halftime lead against a Division I opponent all season long. It was a 23-point lead, which would've been the largest against any team, but Jamal Wright hit a buzzer-beater from the High Point logo just inside half court

Midway through the second half Radford used a 10-2 run to take its largest lead of the night pulling ahead by 26 points, 58-32, with 12:56 remaining in the game. Radford maintained a 20-point cushion throughout the majority of the second half but High Point used a 10-0 spurt to make it a 75-65 game with 2:35 to play.

The Panthers cut the lead to as little as eight points, with a little over a minute to play, but Josiah Jeffers knocked down a huge 3-pointer to put the Highlanders back ahead by double-digits. High Point missed its final three field goal attempts and Radford left the Millis Center with its fourth double-digit conference win this season – two coming against High Point.

Jeffers scored a carer-high 12 points and knocked down a career-high four 3-pointers going 4-of-7 from distance, while Devine Eke led the Highlanders at the charity stripe knocking down a season-high eight free throws. Travis Fields, Jr., made set his teammates up for success with a career-high eight assists.

High Point shot 36.3 percent in the first half and only connected on 2-of-9 3-pointers (22.2 percent). The Panthers shot better in the second half but ended the night with a 40.0 field goal percentage.

STAT OF THE GAME

Radford hit 13 3-pointers against High Point. The 13 long balls are the most in a conference game and tied the second-most in any game this season.

INSIDE THE BOX SCORE

Carlik Jones led all players with 20 points going 7-for-10 from the floor and knocking down a pair of 3-pointers.

Donald Hicks tied Jeffers with the most 3-pointers on the night with four to chip in 12 points. Wright and Denny Slay II led the Panthers each scoring 17 points.

RECORDS WATCH

- With 20 points against Northwestern, Carlik Jones became the 32nd player in program history to record the 1,000 point club. He had 19 and was fouled with under a minute to play. The Cincinnati, Ohio native stepped up to the line and drained the first one. The bench and Radford faithful erupted in cheer as they knew Carlik had just reached 1K.
- The redshirt junior keeps moving up the ladder and cracked Radford's top 10 in career points with 1,368.

- Jones already sits 4th in program history in career assists with 419 surpassing Mike Hornbuckle, Chris Hawkins, Roy Flynn, R.J. Price, Rod Cousin and Hall of Famer Whit Holcomb-Faye.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

- Carlik Jones has been named the Big South Player of the Week three times during the 2019-20 season.
- The first came on Nov. 25, 2019 after writing his name in the Radford record books with a 20-point performance against Northwestern that gave him his 1,000th career point.
- Jones averaged 17.0 points, four rebounds and four assists during the week as well, including a season-high seven assists against Northwestern.
 He went 11-for-27 from the field in a pair of games, shooting 40.7 percent. He also went 3-for-6 from 3-point range.
- The second came on Dec. 9, 2019 for nearly averaging a double-double against James Madison and UNCG.
- Averaging nearly a double-double through the two games, the Cincinnati, Ohio native was a man on a mission against James Madison and UNCG. He averaged 26 points, 8.5 rebounds and 6.5 assists through the pair of contests.
- He tallied his fifth career double-double in the 94-71 win over James Madison with 23 points and 10 assists. He was a rebound shy of his first career triple-double.
- The redshirt junior followed that up with a career-high 11 made field goals (11-for-15) against UNCG on Saturday. He shot 73.3 percent from the floor and went 5-for-7 from beyond the arc for 71.4 percent. The five 3-pointers mark a career-high and helped him lead all players with 29 points just two shy of a career-high.
- Jones also shot 62.5 percent (20-for-32) from the floor and 60 percent (6-for-10) from 3-point range for the two games.
- The third came on his birthday (Dec. 23rd) as he was very close to averaging a double-double through two games with 14.5 points and nine assists for

- the pair of contests against Mississippi State and Richmond.
- The Cincinnati, Ohio native tallied seven assists against Mississippi State and 11 against Richmond. The 11 assists tied a career-high and were four shy of tying a single-game Radford record. Along with the 11 dishes were Jones' 14 points, which gave him his second double-double of the season.
- Jones shot efficiently from the floor and even more efficiently from the 3-point line with a perfect 3-for-3 night from long range in Starkville last Wednesday. Against the Bulldogs, Jones led the team with 15 points going 4-of-8 from the field and added two steals defensively.
- More notably was the way Jones shot from the charity stripe. He went 12-for-14 from the free throw line and had an 8-for-8 day against Richmond on Sunday. Jones also had six rebounds against the Spiders and averaged 4.5 per game.
- The fourth came on Jan. 13 after the Cincinnati, Ohio native helped carry the team to a pair of victories over the 2019 Big South Tournament champs and the top seed in last year's conference tournament.
- He picked up 11 points and five rebounds against Gardner-Webb before scoring 22 points and tallying seven rebounds against Campbell. He went 3-for-4 from the 3-point line against the Camels as well.
- The fifth came on Feb. 3, as he averaged 22.0 points per game through two games, along with 5.5 assists and 4.5 rebounds.

- Of his 44 points scored, 32 of them came in the second half. He rattled off 12 second half points against Longwood on Thursday to total for 16 and tacked on 20 in the second half against the Bucs on Saturday.
- He currently has the most awards out of any player in the conference and Radford has the most of any team in the league.

Head coach Mike Jones has completed eight seasons at the helm of the Radford men's basketball program after taking the position on June 14, 2011. He and his teams have won 138 games at Radford, making him the third-winningest coach in program history. Seventy-two of those wins have come against Big South competition.

Sixteen players have been named All-Big South in his time at Radford and nine players have been tabbed VaSID All-State. Under Jones, both Javonte Green (2014-15) and Ed Polite Jr. (2018-19) were named Big South Defensive Player of the Year while Carlik Jones earned Big South Freshman of the Year honors in 2017-18. The 2014-15 campaign also featured a huge academic honor as Kyle Noreen was named a CoSIDA Academic All-District member.

The 2018-19 season was full of milestones for Jones and the Highlanders. The team went 22-11 and 12-4 in conference play, earning a share of the Big South regular season title for the first time since 2008-09. Radford went on the road and knocked off Notre Dame and No. 17 Texas, the first ranked opponent in Radford history. Radford began its conference slate a perfect 7-0 to become one of the final 15 teams in the nation still undefeated

The Highlanders remained atop the standings for nearly the entire season and as the No. 2 seed in the Big South Tournament, reached the title game for the second consecutive season. Four of the 10 20-plus win season in program history have now come under Jones.

For his success on the court and his high moral standing off of it, he was also named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year award following the 2018-19 season.

2017-18 was arguably Jones' most successful season to date, the season in which he was named Big South Coach of the Year and NABC District 3 Coach of the Year honors after leading the Highlanders to a Big South championship and playing in the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history.

Taking Coach Jones' lead, Radford set a Division I school record with 23 wins, completing the season at 23-13. The Highlanders earned victories over notable opponents such as East Carolina and James Madison during the nonconference schedule before compiling a 12-6 Big South record to finish the regular season in second place. He also became the third head coach in Radford history to reach 100 wins on Dec. 23, 2017 when the Highlanders topped UC Davis to clinch the Continental Tire Las Vegas Classic title.

The team's postseason run was one to remember. Thanks in part to Jones preaching toughness and hard work throughout his tenure, the Highlanders overcame several obstacles in the Big South Championships to top No. 10 Longwood, No. 3 Winthrop and No. 5 Liberty to take home the program's third ever conference title. The entire championship run culminated with "The Shot", as redshirt freshman Carlik Jones' buzzer-beating 3-pointer lifted Radford over in-state rival Liberty, 55-52, in front of a sellout crowd at the Dedmon Center.

Jones and the Highlanders earned a No. 16 seed in the NCAA Tournament and were selected to play in the First Four in Dayton, Ohio. It was there on March 13, 2018 that Radford won its first-ever NCAA Tournament victory – a 71-61 win over LIU Brooklyn.

The magical season came to a close with a tough loss to No. 1 overall seed Villanova who went on to win the National Championship. The entire experience was an incredible opportunity for Radford University, including students, alumni, faculty, staff and fans, to come together to support a common cause.

The seventh head coach in program history, Jones took over a program with just one win in the season prior to his arrival on campus and led a three-year turnaround that resulted in back-to-back 22-win seasons in 2013-14 and 2014-15. Radford competed in postseason play those three seasons as well, with the Highlanders taking home the program's first and second postseason victories over Oregon State and Delaware State in the College Basketball Invitational before the 2017-18 NCAA Tournament run.

During his tenure, the Highlanders have defeated opponents such as Texas, Notre Dame, Georgetown, Virginia Tech and Penn State. The success of the program has led to an increase in exposure all over the country with the team appearing on national and regional television countless times. Radford's success can be attributed to the foundation laid in Jones' first season in the red and white with Big South All-Freshman selections Javonte Green and R.J. Price. Green, who was Jones' first All-Big South performer, and Price spearheaded the Highlanders' resurgence to the top of the league.

Under Jones' tutelage, Green developed into one of the all-time greats in Radford men's basketball history. The Petersburg, Va., native finished his career second in scoring, first in rebounding, first in steals, second in free throws made, second in field goals made and first in games played. Price left RU ranked fourth all-time in scoring.

The duo represents two of eight Highlanders to turn pro following their career in Radford. Cam Jones, Rashun Davis, Cam Brown, Brandon Holcomb, Randy Phillips and Ed Polite Jr., have all gone from learning under Jones to extending their basketball careers into the professional realm.

The 2016-17 season saw the Highlanders reach the Big South Championship semifinals for the first time since 2010. Ed Polite Jr., led the Big South in rebounding and double-doubles (14). He also led Radford in scoring and steals, and ranked second on the team in blocks and third in assists. The 6-5 forward averaged 9.5 rebounds per game to rank 31st in the NCAA, while becoming the first sophomore in program history to reach the 500 career rebound-mark and the second to do so in two seasons of play.

The Highlanders opened the 2015-16 campaign with a double-overtime victory at Georgetown and followed up just 10 days later with a road win at Penn State, the program's first victory over a Big 10 opponent.

Jones spent the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons at VCU, which included a magical run to the 2011 Final Four with wins over USC, Georgetown, Purdue, Florida State and Kansas. While on Shaka Smart's staff, the Rams posted 55 wins over the final two seasons Jones was on the staff, the highest total over any two-year span in program history.

Prior to his second coaching stop in Virginia at VCU, Jones served a six-year stint on Dennis Felton's bench at Georgia from 2003-09. In 2008, Georgia advanced to the NCAA Tournament when the sixth-seeded Bulldogs won four games in three days to complete the most improbable SEC Championship run in conference history, which included a tornado striking the Georgia Dome and the tournament being moved to the Georgia Tech campus.

While at Georgia, Jones made a name for himself when Rivals.com selected him as one of the nation's Top-25 recruiters in 2005.

Jones also previously worked under John Beilein at Richmond from 2000-02 and during the early stages of Beilein's rebuilding project at West Virginia in 2002-03.

Jones' father Jimmy was a star guard in the ABA from 1967-74. In 1974, Jimmy Jones signed with the Washington Bullets in the NBA, where he remained until 1977.

Jones was a four-year standout at Howard, where he forged a connection with fellow Howard alumnus, Felton ('85), who he calls the biggest influence on his coaching career.

Once Jones graduated with a degree in Zoology in 1990, he began his coaching career as a high school coach at Sidwell Friends School in Washington, D.C. before moving to the collegiate ranks at his alma mater in 1994.

He currently resides in the New River Valley with his wife, Dr. Sharon Blackwell Jones, and his youngest son, Miles.
