PROGRAM HISTORY

1974

Coached by Dr. Chuck Taylor, who was also the school's first athletic director, the Highlanders won their final two games of the year to clinch a winning record in the school's first year of competition. Wallace Foster averaged 22.4 ppg, setting a record for the highest scoring average that stood for 31 years.

1978

After four consecutive winning seasons, Dr. Chuck Taylor stepped aside as the basketball coach to assume full-time athletic director duties. Joe Davis was named as his replacement.

1979

Joe Davis finished his first season on the Highlander bench with a record of 23-4, including a school record 19-game winning streak. Included on that team was current North Carolina assistant coach Steve Robinson.

DECEMBER 9, 1981

The Highlanders defeated Pembroke State, 56-53, before a capacity crowd in the first game ever played in the Dedmon Center. The Dedmon Center was the 10th permanent structure in the United States with an air-supported fabric roof built.

1984

Radford, a charter member of the Big South Conference, began its first season of play as a Division I member by going 16-12.

1988

The Highlanders made their first-ever appearance in the Big South Conference title game, losing 71-56 to Winthrop. RU finished the season with a record of 16-14. After guiding the Highlanders to 165 wins, Joe Davis steps aside as the team's head coach and Oliver Purnell takes over.

1991

RU opened the year with a school-record eight straight wins and went on to post a 22-7 overall record. It was RU's first 20-win season as a Division I member.

APRIL 10, 1991

After one year as an assistant coach, Ron Bradley took over for Oliver Purnell as head coach, becoming the fourth coach in school history.

1992

Bradley's first squad etched their place in Highlander history by going 20-9 and capturing the Big South regular season title. The team, which rallied from a second half deficit in 12 of its 20 wins, was dubbed the "Never-Say-Die-landers" by the local media.

FEBRUARY 4, 1993

Doug Day hit his NCAA-record 364th career trey against Campbell. Day, who is still RU's all-time leading scorer, finished his career with 401 3-pointers.

1993

Doug Day became the first, and to date, the only player in school history to surpass 2,000 points.

1993-94

Widely regarded as one of the best teams in school history, the 1993-94 squad finished the season with a record of 20-8 but suffered a heartbreaking loss to Campbell in the semifinals of the Big South Tournament. On Dec. 30, The Highlanders went to Baton Rouge, La., and defeated LSU, 73-72, on a last second jumper by RU great Don Burgess.

1997

Anthony Walker became RU's career assists leader with 510. He also finished second in career points (1,601) and steals (183).

FEBRUARY 28, 1998

Kevin Robinson scooped up an offensive rebound and drained a 14-footer at the buzzer in the Highlanders a 63-61 win over UNCA, giving Radford its first ever Big South Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth. The shot capped RU's improbable rally from a 17-point first-half deficit.

MARCH 12, 1998

The Highlanders lose to Duke, 99-63, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Radford, the 16th seed, played in front of a then-school record 16,824 fans in the South Region contest held in Lexington, Ky., at Rupp Arena.

FEBRUARY 24, 2001

Radford closed out a perfect 10-0 record at home with a win over Liberty. The Highlanders ran their Big South home streak to 18 winning 27 out of their last 29 home conference games.

MARCH 21, 2002

Dr. Ron Bradley stepped down as head coach after posting a record of 193-124 in 11 seasons.

APRIL 8, 2002

Radford named Byron Samuels the school's fifth head coach. Samuels served as Bradley's assistant during the 2001-02 season.

MARCH 7, 2003

Samuels led sixth-seeded Radford to an upset of second-seeded Liberty on their own floor in his first season as head coach. Radford advanced to the finals of the Big South Championship for the fourth time in six years.

2006

Whit Holcomb-Faye finished with 669 points, the best single-season effort in Radford history and third best in Big South history. He also finished second in points at Radford with 1,856 and third in the Big South all-time.

2007

Byron Samuels resigns his head coaching position prior to the start of the season. He finished with a 58-87 record in five years. Chris Oliver finishes his career ranked third at Radford in scoring with 1,659 points.

MARCH 23, 2007

Brad Greenberg is hired as Radford University's sixth head coach after serving the previous three years as Virginia Tech's associate head coach.

NOVEMBER 14, 2008

With renovations to the Dedmon Center ongoing, Radford makes its first appearance in 500-seat Peters Hall since Feb. 24, 1981 with a season-opening 74-55 win over Brevard.

JANUARY 21, 2009

Following nearly $16 million worth of renovations on the Dedmon Center, including the replacement of its air-supported roof, the Highlanders re-opened the building in front of a capacity crowd with a Big South first-place battle against VMI.

MARCH 7, 2009

Behind a Big South tournament record scoring performance, Radford won its second conference tournament title with a nationally-televised 108-94 win over VMI at the Dedmon Center. Art Parakhouski, an AP Honorable Mention All-American, was named tournament MVP after a 26-point, 18-rebound performance to lead the Highlanders to their second NCAA Tournament appearance.

MARCH 19, 2009

Before a school-record 20,226 fans at the Greensboro Coliseum, 16th-seeded Radford made its second NCAA Tournament appearance, falling to eventual national champion and South Region No. 1 seed North Carolina 101-58. The Highlanders closed out the season winning 17 of their last 20 games on the way to the school's seventh 20-win year.

JUNE 14, 2011

Mike Jones named the seventh head men's basketball coach in Radford program history. Jones was a part of the VCU staff that made a trip to the Final Four with the Rams.

MARCH 19, 2014

Radford defeats Oregon State on the road in the opening round of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), 96-92. The win is the first NCAA postseason victory in school history and the 22nd of the season, which ties the Division I school record in a single season.

MARCH 4, 2018

Hosting the Big South Championship game in front of a sellout crowd at the Dedmon Center, No. 2 Radford tops No. 5 Liberty, 55-52, thanks to Carlik Jones' buzzer-beating, game-winning three-pointer to clinch the program's third conference title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

MARCH 13, 2018

With the nation's eyes squarely on the Highlanders as they played in the NCAA First Four in Dayton, Radford defeated LIU Brooklyn, 71-61, for the first NCAA Tournament victory in program history. The win also marked a program-record 23rd win on the season. Radford would go on to face No. 1 Villanova (the eventual National Champions) in the next round.

NOVEMBER 30, 2018

Defeated No. 17 Texas, 62-59, in Austin. It was the first ranked opponent Radford has defeated in program history.

FEBRUARY 27, 2020

Defeated Hampton, 81-78, to clinch the program's third straight 20-win season; the most in Radford men's hoops history

APRIL 21, 2021

Radford, Va. native Darris Nichols is hired as the eighth head men's basketball coach in program history.

MEN'S BASKETBALL IN THE HALL OF FAME

ART PARAKHOUSKI

(2008-10) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 2010

Art Parakhouski may have only been a Highlander for two seasons, but his list of broken records and awards won show just how dominant he was. The 6'11" center from Minsk, Belarus is the program's all-time leader in six different statistical categories, averaging 18.7 points and 12.2 rebounds per game for his career. He was twice named Big South Player of the Year and was an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American in 2010 after leading the entire nation in rebounds. Parakhouski scored 1,195 points in his Radford career and ranks third all-time in field goal percentage at .561, as well as sixth all-time in blocks with 115 in just two years.

WHIT HOLCOMB-FAYE

(MEN'S BASKETBALL / 2002-06)
CLASS OF 2019

Whit Holcomb-Faye showed star-studded potential right away, tallying 14.3 points and 4.0 assists per game as a freshman which garnered him the 2002-03 Big South Freshman of the Year award. He delivered on that potential with a phenomenal career and capped it with a stellar senior campaign that included 669 points and 23.1 points per game – both of which rank first in a single season at Radford. The Winston-Salem native sits third in career total points (1,856) and second in points per game (17.7), while also ranking inside the top 10 in field goals made, three-pointers made and free throws made at Radford. Holcomb-Faye finished his career eighth in scoring among all players in the Big South before beginning a professional career overseas.

CHRIS OLIVER

(MEN'S BASKETBALL / 2003-07)
CLASS OF 2017

Oliver ('07) had a stellar all-around four-year career for the Highlanders and is only one of eight players in the Big South Conference to record at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 100 steals, 100 blocks and 100 assists. A native of Winston Salem, N.C., Oliver ranks second in Radford history with 845 rebounds and fourth with 1,659 points. He ranks all-time in the Radford career top-10 in seven categories (total rebounds, total points, field goals made, free throws made, blocked shots, points per game and rebounds per game). As a senior, he set the single-season program record with 220 field goals made. The 6-7 forward was a three-time All-Big South Second-Team member and claimed five Big South Player of the Week awards.

DAN GRUBBS

(MEN'S BASKETBALL / 1978-80)
CLASS OF 2014

A two-year member of the Highlanders, Dan Grubbs ('80) was a force in the paint. In 1978-79, Grubbs set the single-season rebounding (269) caroms and finished with 511 career rebounds, which was second all-time upon his graduation. His career 9.3 rebounds per game stood as the program standard until the completion of the 2009-10 season. Grubbs pulled down a single-game record 19 boards as both a junior and senior. On top of those marks, he recorded the best single-season (.688/1979-80) and career (.652) field goal percentage in Radford history. Part of Radford's first scholarship class, Grubbs, a two-year captain, was a key cog on the 1978-79 squad that went 23-4, which remains the benchmark for victories in a single season.

DON BURGESS

(1990-94) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 2013

A first-team All-Big South selection in 1994, Don Burgess ('94) finished his career with 1,452 points, which at the time, was second on the Radford scoring list. This total currently ranks sixth on the all-time list for the Highlanders. More than just a scoring threat, Burgess also ranked in the top-10 in career steals (5th-162), rebounds (5th-614), and assists (9th-231) when his career ended. These totals currently place him sixth on the all-time steals list and 10th in rebounds. Burgess owns the Radford record for career free throw percentage as well (.842). During his career, the Highlanders posted a 48-4 record inside the Dedmon Center, including the only undefeated home season since becoming a Division I program in 1984-85 (13-0 in 1993-94).

DR. RON BRADLEY

(1991-2002) - MEN'S BASKETBALL (COACH)
CLASS OF 2012

During his 11-year tenure (1991-2002) as Radford's head coach, Dr. Ron Bradley compiled a 109-47 regular-season Big South record (.699 winning percentage) and was 193-124 overall (.609) -- becoming the Conference's all-time leader in both categories upon his departure in 2002. He held the overall wins record until 2007 and the Big South victory standard until January 2010. Inducted into the Big South Hall of Fame in 2010, Bradley led Radford to a 20-9 record and the school's first Big South Regular Season Championship in his first season (1991-92), earning Big South Coach of the Year honors. He also led the Highlanders to the 1998 Big South Tournament Championship and the school's first-ever NCAA berth. In all, Bradley had four 20-win seasons -- second most by a coach in Big South history, and directed the Highlanders to the Big South Semifinals in 10 of his 11 seasons. In addition, Bradley's squads won three regular-season Big South titles while advancing to the Big South Championship game in 1998, 1999 and 2001.

BILLY MYERS

(1982-86) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 2005

Billy Myers ('86) was one of Radford basketball's first four-year starters, entering school at a pivotal juncture as the Highlanders transitioned from NAIA competition all the way to NCAA Division I play. A pure shooter, Myers would score 1,178 points during his career, but was often asked to sacrifice his scoring to play point guard and his consistently hard-nosed defense. He started in 104 of 108 games and also ranks among the school's all-time leaders in steals. A team captain and recognized leader on campus, Myers graduated in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in statistics. The Highlanders averaged 15 wins a season during his career from

MEN'S BASKETBALL IN THE HALL OF FAME

1982-86, moving up a level in competition each year. The Blacksburg native became Radford's first Division I Academic All-American in basketball and was a Dean's Scholar nominee in math and statistics.

JOE DAVIS

(1978-88) - MEN'S BASKETBALL (COACH)
CLASS OF 1998

Davis successfully guided the Highlander men's basketball program from an unaffiliated small college entry all the way to the NCAA Division I ranks. He posted nine winning seasons in 10 years as Radford's head coach from 1978-88, including a 23-4 record in 1978-79 and a 16-12 mark in 1984-85, Radford's first Division I season. Davis left Radford as the Highlanders' all-time winningest coach, posting 165 victories and a .589 winning percentage. Davis earned his master's degree in physical education from Radford in 1970.

DOUG DAY

(1989-93) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 1998

Day completed his Radford career as the NCAA Division I career leader in three-point baskets made. He sank 401 three-pointers during his career from 1989-1993, and left Radford as the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,027 points. Day ('94) led the nation in three-point baskets per game with 4.03 per contest, and earned All-Big South honors during each of his four seasons at Radford. He averaged 17.3 ppg for his career, and left Radford ranked second on the Big South Conference career scoring chart. Day's offensive prowess helped Radford to back-to-back 20-win seasons in 1990-91 and 1991-92, and to the Highlanders' first regular season conference crown in 1991-92. Day earned a degree in education from RU in 1994.

STEVE ROBINSON

(1978-80, 1983-86) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
(STUDENT-ATHLETE/COACH)
CLASS OF 1997

Robinson ('81, '85) was one of the first scholarship athletes ever at Radford University. Robinson was a two-year starter and co-captain for the men's basketball team from 1978-80, averaging 10.8 points and 5.8 rebounds in 54 games. Robinson averaged 11.5 points and 6.8 rebounds during one of Radford's greatest seasons ever, the 23-4 year in 1978-79, under coach Joe Davis. He hit 51.7 percent of his field goals, and later distinguished himself as an assistant coach at Radford from 1983-86. The Roanoke native earned both his bachelor's ('81) and master's ('85) degrees from Radford, and has gone on to great success as a collegiate head coach. Robinson led the University of Tulsa to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances before landing the head coaching position at Florida State. Robinson is currently Roy Williams' top assistant at the University of North Carolina.

RON SHELburnE

(1987-91) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 1996

Shelburne, a native of nearby Snowville, Va., became only the fourth Radford men's basketball player to score more than 1,000 points and grab more than 500 rebounds in a career. A three-time team Most Valuable Player, he led the Highlanders in scoring in 1989-90 and earned Big South All-Conference honors in 1990-91. He never missed a game during his four-year career, playing in 116 consecutive contests. He averaged 11.5 points per game and shot 51.8 percent from the field, and 75.3 percent from the free throw line during his career, gaining a reputation as a clutch performer. Shelburne finished in 1991 as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,332 points.

DAVID SMITH

(1981-85) - MEN'S BASKETBALL
CLASS OF 1995

Smith finished his sterling four-year basketball career from 1981-1985 as the school's all-time leading scorer and rebounder. In the process, the 6-5 Amherst, Va., native keyed Radford's move from NAIA competition to NCAA Division II play and then Division I. A fierce competitor, Smith started each of Radford's 107 games during his career and shot 52.7 percent from the field. He scored 1,313 points and pulled down 739 rebounds, leading the team in rebounding and field goal percentage three years. Remaining active at his alma mater, Smith has served on the Athletic Association Advisory Council and on the National Alumni Association Executive Council.
