GAME NOTES

TIPPING IT OFF:

Marian University men's basketball travels to Aurora for the NACC Tournament Championship Saturday, February 28 for a 5 p.m. tip.

ROAD WARRIORS:

Marian is looking to become the first school in NACC Tournament history to win three road games in multiple conference tournament. The feat has only been accomplished twice with Lakeland becoming the first school to win three road games in the NACC Tournament in 2008 followed by Marian in 2022.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS:

Marian had four student-athletes earn All-NACC recognition for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. Junior Andrew Ayeni led the way being named First Team and senior Alex Vassilakis was a Second Team selection. The duo of senior Derek Lindert and freshman Marvin Haslett were All-NACC Honorable Mention picks with Haslett also becoming the first Freshman of the Year winner since 2012.

ALL ABOUT AYENI:

Junior Andrew Ayeni has done a little bit of everything for Marian this season and is coming off of a double-double in the NACC Tournament Semifinals. Ayeni paced Marian with his 25 points, 10 rebounds, five assists, and four steals. He enters the NACC leader with 56 steals and is one of only three student-athletes in the NACC with more than 100 assists.

DOMINATING DEFENSE:

The Sabre defense has once again been a strength for the Sabres ranking second in the NACC allowing only 68.6 points per game. The Sabres also rank second in the conference forcing 14.5 turnovers per game and lead the NACC with 247 steals.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ALRIGHT:

Saturday has been the best day of the week for Marian to play on boasting a 9-3 record. The Sabres have won their last three Saturday games with the last defeat coming in the first meeting against Aurora on January 31.

LONG RANGE LINDERT:

Senior Derek Lindert has been a strong addition for Marian this season and has been one of the top three-point threats in the nation. Lindert ranks inside the top 20 of the nation with his 73 triples, while his 39.3 percent shooting from beyond the arc leads the NACC. He has led Marian offensively in the NACC Tournament with his 24.0 points per game average.

LAST TIME OUT:

Aurora closed out the opening half on a 20-9 run to open up a 13-point lead at halftime in the first meeting between these two squads. Marian was able to outscore the Spartans in the second half but couldn't overcome that late spurt. Four Sabres had at least 18 points with senior Alex Vassilakis posting a double-double scoring 18 points to go with 12 boards.

CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY:

This is just the third time in program history Marian has reached the NACC Tournament Championship. The Sabres are 2-0 in the previous two championship games having beaten Edgewood at home 65-61 in 2014 and CUW on the road 77-71 in 2022.

UP NEXT:

The winner will earn the NACC automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament which is slated to begin Friday, March 6.

MEET THE COACHING STAFF

DRAKE DIENER

Head Men's Basketball Coach (8th Season)

Drake Diener joined the Sabre men's basketball coaching staff in May of 2018 after playing 12 years of professional basketball overseas in Italy. During his professional playing career, Diener played for nine different teams earning Italian League Championships in 2008 and 2014. The 2013-14 season also saw him earn Italian League Most Valuable Player honors. Diener also led his team to a Euroleague Final Four appearance in 2008 and is the all-time leading scorer in Italian Serie A. In his final season he was named a team captain for Vanoli Cremona.

Diener obtained his bachelor's degree in education from DePaul University where he was also a prominent member of the Blue Demons' men's basketball program. As a Blue Demon, he became the all-time leading three-point scorer and recorded the highest career free throw percentage. In his junior season, Diener averaged 12.6 points per game, third on the squad, leading DePaul to a conference championship and berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Demons earned the No. 7 seed in the West region in the tournament and defeated No. 10 Dayton in the opening round 76-69 behind a game-high 28 points from Diener. DePaul would be knocked out by the eventual NCAA Tournament champion, the University of Connecticut, in the second round. Diener then went on to earn third team all-conference honors as a senior after playing in all 31 games and ranking second on the team with 14.2 points per game with 2.8 assists per game, all while serving as a team captain.

Off of the court, Diener was named an Academic All-American three times, the Conference USA Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year twice, and the National Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015. Following his playing career with DePaul, he spent one season as a graduate assistant for the program where he analyzed video of potential recruits and assisted in the organization of daily activities for the men's basketball program.

Diener has also spent time as a scout and recruiter for College Life Italia where he evaluated and guided potential Italian student-athletes to American universities. This has allowed Diener to not only make several contacts throughout the United States and Italy but foster relationships to schools and young Italian student-athletes.

He joins his father and brother in the coaching ranks who have both shown the ability to build championship-caliber programs. His father, Dick, was a long-time head coach for Fond du Lac High School, while his brother, Drew, won a national championship with Cardinal Stritch University and was the head coach at Rockhurst University for nine seasons.
