GAME NOTES

FIRST PITCH:

Marian University softball plays host to Edgewood and UW-Oshkosh for a pair of midweek doubleheaders.

CAN'T STOP KNUTH:

Junior Savanna Knuth continues to have a strong season in the circle leading the team in most statistical categories. Knuth has allowed just two runs and three hits over her last 21.2 innings.

DON'T SLEEP ON SCHLIEPP:

Senior Ariana Schliepp has been one of the top hitters so far in NACC action. In NACC games, Schliepp is 8-for-9 at the plate with three doubles and seven runs driven in. She has had multiple hits in each conference game so far this season.

CAGING THE EAGLES:

Edgewood is off to a 3-1 start in NACC play with a sweep of Alverno and split with WLC. The Eagles enter the week with the most home runs and runs driven in in the conference. Junior Lily Mabs leads the Edgewood offense and has five long balls.

STOPPING THE TITANS:

Nationally-ranked UW-Oshkosh enters the week after going 3-1 at a tournament hosted by Illinois Wesleyan. The Titans rank 11th in the nation for earned run average at 1.58. Offensively, sophomore Olivia Ullman and freshman Emma Bohn rank in the top 10 of the NACC for runs scored.

UP NEXT:

Marian continues its homestand hosting Rockford Tuesday, April 7 at 3 p.m.

MARIAN UNIVERSITY SOFTBALL HISTORY

- Marian University softball played its first season in 1988 going 9-9 under Cheryl Orcholski.
- The Sabres have won six conference championships, one of which came during the NACC era, and have earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament four times.
- Marian has posted a winning record in 11 seasons during the NACC era.
- The program record for wins in a single season is 28, which was accomplished in 2005 and 2008.

SMITH FIELD FACTS

- Smith Field has been the home of Marian University softball since 2004.
- The dimensions of the field are 220 feet down each line and in center field.
- The playing surface includes dugouts for each team and a bullpen near each foul pole.
- Other amenities at Smith Field include lights for night games, state-of-the-art scoreboard, and a concession stand.
- Bleacher seating is available behind home plate with plenty of grass seating in the outfield.
