

HAWKS MEN'S LACROSSE NEWS & NOTES

SCOUTING SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE: With a 9-3 victory over Southern New Hampshire University on Tuesday, Saint Anselm has won five-straight games for the first time dating back to Mar. 30, 1999-Apr. 14, 1999 in which the Hawks rattled off five-straight victories en route to a 11-4 regular season...Saint Anselm has never won six-straight contests in program history...Sophomore attack Andrew Messner (Wakefield, R.I.) leads the team with 18 points (9-9=18) to his credit...Freshman attack Geoff Kennedy (Gloucester, Mass.) recorded his third-career four point game against the Penmen on Tuesday, scoring four goals (4-0=4)...Prior to Tuesday's contest against SNHU, goaltender Jonathon O'Reilly (Plano, Texas) ranked second in the nation amongst qualifying goaltenders with a .672 save percentage and fourth with a 4.63 goals-against average.

SCOUTING PACE UNIVERSITY: The Setters of Pace University are fresh off of a 16-5 victory over the Greyhounds of Assumption College on Tuesday, their first win in three games...Matt Mirabito led the charge against the Greyhounds with three goals and seven assists for 10 points (3-7=10)...Exiting Tuesday's contest, Mirabito is tied for second in the NE-10 with 16 assists to his credit...Senior John Kolesar ranks second to Mirabito for the team lead in points, scoring a team-best 10 goals alongside 10 assists for 20 points (10-10=20).

DID YOU KNOW?: Hawks goaltender Jonathon O'Reilly has tied the program record for consecutive wins with five. Saint Anselm netminder Troy Peters recorded five-straight victories from Mar. 30, 1999-Apr. 14, 1999, concluding the season with an 11-4 record. Peters, a four-year member of the team, holds the NCAA Division II single season record for saves with 335 in 2001.

WE'RE NO. 11!: The Saint Anselm College men's lacrosse team maintained their 11th place ranking this week following a poll of Division II coaches, according to the most recent United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association poll released Monday. The Hawks, who are nationally-ranked for the third-straight week, remain the 11th ranked team in Division II for the second-straight week after making their program debut on the poll with a 12th place rank on Monday, Mar. 12.

WHAT'S NEXT?: The Hawks return to action Wednesday, Apr. 4 as they host the Falcons of Bentley University at 7:00 p.m. under the lights at Grappone Stadium.
