MASON SANTIAGO No. 36

Sophomore linebacker Mason Santiago passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, September 15, 2024, as the result of an automobile accident.

Mason was an outstanding, and recognized football player, at Providence Catholic High School before joining the Cougars. Mason was an extremely focused and intense individual. He was a fierce competitor and wanted to be the best at his position. Whatever he set his mind to doing, he attacked it with 110 percent effort, never taking shortcuts, and always in high gear.

"He was such a good kid, so well liked by his teammates and coaches. Our deepest condolences go out to Mason's family and loved ones," said head coach Mike Feminis.
