MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
All media members working the game must request credentials from the athletic communications office. Early requests are helpful, enabling media to receive parking passes before the game. Please make requests at least one week before the game. Only working media will be granted credentials.

PRESS BOX
Press facilities are located in Bashinsky Press Tower on the west side of Seibert Stadium. Working media and scouts should enter through the gate on the west side of the stadium, at the gate just south of the press tower. To pick up unmailed credentials, go to the Will Call booth, also located at that gate.

Bashinsky Press Tower is a multilevel facility. Enter on the first level and use the stairs or elevator to reach the second, third and fourth levels.

Level 2: The second level contains boxes for visiting coaches and replay officials, separated by a box for guests of Samford's president. The visiting coaches' box is on the north end of the tower, located at the top of the first landing in the stairwell, directly in front of the elevator.

Level 3: The third level is reserved for print media and statistics personnel with separate booths for radio networks and home coaches. The athletic communications office also provides wireless internet access in the writers' area for use in covering the game.

Level 4: Exterior and interior filming areas are available for all television and team video crews. Priority is given to film crews and stations that cover Samford and the opposing team on a regular basis.

Radio Network: The visiting team's network is provided a broadcasting booth that seats three. One phone line and ethernet line is provided in the visitor's radio booth. If additional lines are needed, they must be secured by contacting Samford Telephone Services at 205-726-2996.

Television: Each Samford home game will be broadcast on either ESPN+ or ESPN3.

Sideline: Samford follows NCAA rules regarding media representatives on the sideline. Photographers are not permitted to stand between the 25-yard lines and must display their credentials at all times. Only photographers shooting for accredited news agencies, Samford University Photographic Services, freelance photographers shooting for the Samford athletic communications or football offices, or for the opponents' sports information office, will be issued credentials.

Media staffing the contest will not be allowed in the team areas for any reason. Anyone violating the sideline policies will be removed by Samford representatives responsible for sideline control.

PARKING
Press parking is at a premium at Seibert Stadium. Spaces are allotted on a first-come, first-served basis. Print media, television stations and radio network broadcast crews have priority.

Please request parking credentials at least one week in advance so they can be mailed to you. No one will be admitted in the press parking lot without a proper pass.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Statistics, weekly releases and game-day programs with flip cards will be distributed in the press box before the game. Play-by-play, complete quarter, halftime and final game statistics, defensive statistics and drive charts will be available shortly after the conclusion of the game.

A picnic-style lunch will be available in the press facility before the game. Soft drinks and water will be available throughout the game.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH CHRIS HATCHER
To set up interviews with Samford head coach Chris Hatcher you need to contact Football SID Joey Mullins by phone at 205-726-2799 or by e-mail at jmmulli1@samford.edu.

INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS
To set up interviews with Samford players you need to contact Football SID Joey Mullins by phone at 205-726-2799 or by e-mail at jmmulli1@samford.edu.

POSTGAME INTERVIEW POLICIES
At the conclusion of each game, the Samford athletic comminications staff will make head coach Chris Hatcher and requested players available to the media upon request.

For interviews with the opposing coach or players, please make arrangements before the end of the game with the sports information director from that institution.

PRACTICES
If you would like to cover a Samford practice, please contact Joey Mullins at 205-726-2799 or by e-mail at jmmulli1@samford.edu.

BULLDOGS IN THE NFL

James Bradberry was drafted in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers. Bradberry played four seasons with the Panthers and is now a member of the New York Giants.

Michael Pierce has had success as an undrafted free agent with the Baltimore Ravens. He spent four seasons with the Ravens and is now a member of the Minnesota Vikings.

Jaquiski Tartt became the highest NFL Draft pick in Samford history when he was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the second round of the 2015 Draft. Tartt enters his sixth season with the 49ers.

Nick Williams was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft. Williams also played with the Kansas City Chiefs, Miami Dolphins, Chicago Bears and is now a member of the Detroit Lions.

SEIBERT STADIUM

Seibert Stadium has been home to the Samford football team since 1958, one year after the campus was moved from East Lake to its present site. Over the years, the stadium has seen some memorable football, including the Bobby Bowden era (1959–62), a one-loss season in 1971 and the Terry Bowden era, which ended with a 14-game Bulldog winning streak in the stadium.

The stadium is named for the late F. Page Seibert, a Daytona Beach, Fla., businessman who donated money for the completion of the stadium in 1961 with the addition of stands on the west side. Originally, the stadium had the current gatehouse and seating on the east side.

The first game was played Friday, Sept. 26, 1958, with Samford losing to Sewanee, 21-0. Bobby Bowden brought Samford (then known as Howard College) its first win at Seibert on Oct. 3, 1959, as the Bulldogs defeated the Tennessee Tech "B" team, 34-0. The first win against varsity competition came two weeks later when the Bulldogs defeated Millsaps, 26-0.

Seibert Stadium has undergone numerous improvements during the past few years. Before the 2009 season, the Cooney Family Field House was opened in the South end zone of the stadium. The field house was renamed the Sullivan-Cooney Family Field House during the 2014 season.

The facility includes locker rooms, training rooms, meeting rooms and coaches offices for Samford's football program. A second-level terrace overlooks Seibert Stadium. A third level provides for future university expansion.

In fall 2005, the original grass surface was replaced with an LSR Blade Synthetic Surface. The turf was replaced with a similar surface prior to the 2014 season.

The four-level Bashinsky Press Tower was completed before the 1989 season. This Georgian-Colonial structure contains complete facilities for print and electronic media on the third level, reserved seating for 51 guests on the second level, and a concession stand and restroom facilities on the ground floor. A partially covered film deck is located atop the facility, and an elevator serves all levels.

At the same time, more than 200 theatre-type reserved seats were added in front of the press tower, bringing the seating capacity to 6,700. Aluminum seating replaced the original wooden seats. A scoreboard featuring an electronic matrix message board was added before the 1994 season. The improvements have made Samford's football facility one of the finest in the nation at the Division I-FCS level.

HEAD COACH

Entering his sixth season at Samford in 2020, Hatcher boasts a career record of 153-83 in 20 years as a college head coach, having previously coached at Murray State, Georgia Southern and Valdosta State. In his time at Samford, his team's have consistently been among the Southern Conference and FCS leaders in several categories.

In 2019, the Bulldogs led all of FCS football in punt return average (19.41 ypr.), and the team ranked second nationally in fewest penalties per game (3.58). Samford also led the SoCon in first downs (22.6 pg.), and the team ranked second in the league in scoring offense (32.2 ppg.) and passing offense (239.2 ypg.).

Hatcher's 2018 team posted the program's eighth-straight winning season, the longest streak in program history. Also during the season, quarterback Devlin Hodges became the FCS' all-time leader in career passing yards. Hodges also earned the highest individual honor at the FCS level, winning the Walter Payton Award. Additionally, he was named the Southern Conference's Offensive Player of the Year for a third-straight season.

Also in 2018, Hodges set school records for single-season completions (388), attempts (550), passing yards (4,283). Hodges was named the SoCon's Offensive Player of the Year and a third team All-American at the conclusion of the season.

In 2017, Hatcher led the team to an 8-4 record and a spot in the NCAA Division I-FCS Playoffs for a second-straight season for the first time since 1992.

As a unit, the 2016 Samford offense ranked third among all FCS schools in passing offense, averaging 349.4 passing yards per game. The offense also ranked sixth in the nation in red zone offense (90.2%), 11th in team passing efficiency (155.24), 12th in scoring offense (35.1 ppg.) and 14th in total offense (446.2 ypg.).

In his first season at Samford in 2015, Hatcher put his stamp on the Bulldog program. Samford finished the season third in the nation in passing offense (332.9 ypg.), seventh in the nation in total offense (479.7 ypg.) and seventh in fourth down conversions (66.7%). Hatcher's special teams also stood out, ranking fifth nationally in kickoff return average (24.34 ypr.).

Hatcher led the Bulldogs to a 6-5 record that first season, ending the season with a pair of impressive Southern Conference road wins at Wofford and Mercer. The 2015 team also produced a pair of All-Americans in cornerback James Bradberry and place-kicker Anthony Pistelli.

Hatcher came to Samford after serving as the head coach at Murray State University from 2010 to 2014. In five seasons as the head coach of the Racers, Hatcher's teams employed the high-powered "Hatch Attack" offense to top the Division I-FCS football charts. In 2014, the Racers ranked second in the nation in passing offense, averaging 327.2 yards per game. The team also ranked 15th in total offense at 468.3 yards per contest.

MSU used a balanced attack in 2013. The Racers rushed the ball 424 times, while throwing it 458, in averaging 398.6 yards of offense. The offense was spearheaded by All-America wide receiver Walter Powell, who hauled in 66 passes for 837 yards and 13 touchdowns in just 10 games.

The 2012 Murray State offense led the Ohio Valley Conference for the third-straight season. MSU averaged a school-record 484.4 yards of offense per game, while also setting a new single-season record by averaging 348.9 yards through the air.

The 2011 season saw the Racers go 7-4 and post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since the 1999-2000 seasons. MSU closed the season winning five of its final six games, including going on the road and knocking off nationally-ranked Tennessee Tech.

The Racer offense was among the most prolific in the nation as MSU ranked third in scoring offense, fourth in total offense and seventh in passing offense. The 5,070 yards of total offense marked just the fifth time in school history MSU amassed over 5,000 yards, while the 460.9 yards per game were the third-most all time. The Racers also rushed for 152.27 yards per game.

The defense was not to be outdone as the Racers recorded their first shutout in seven years with a 39-0 victory over Mississippi Valley State. It also marked the first shutout on the road since 1986, and the first non-conference road shutout since the 1979 season.

In 2010, the Racer offense led the OVC in passing offense, total offense and scoring offense, while ranking fourth nationally in passing offense, fifth in total offense and fifth in scoring offense.

Hatcher is no stranger to the Southern Conference, as he served as the head coach at Georgia Southern from 2007 to 2009. In his first season with the Eagles in 2007, Hatcher led GSU to the second-best regular season turnaround in program history, a plus-4 improvement from 2006. The Eagles ranked among the national leaders in various categories on offense, defense and special teams.

He also coached five All-America players, including quarterback Jayson Foster, the second Walter Payton Award winner at GSU.

The Eagles returned to the national rankings after a 14-week hiatus as the Hatcher era got off to a 4-1 start. GSU climbed as high as No. 11, after the Eagles recorded three-straight victories at No. 5 Appalachian State, ending the Mountaineers 30-game home winning streak, at home against No. 25 The Citadel and at No. 10 Wofford.

The prolific offense ranked first in rushing, eighth in total offense, eighth in scoring offense and 23rd in sacks allowed. The defense was 14th in turnover margin and 17th in fumbles recovered, while the special teams ranked 25th in net punting.

The 2008 season saw Hatcher guide the Eagles to the program's 25th winning season in 27 years.

In late October, the Eagles set an NCAA record for the largest fourth-quarter comeback as GSU erased a 31-3 deficit for a thrilling 38-31 overtime victory at Western Carolina. The OT contest was just the first of an NCAA record four overtime games played by the Eagles in 2008.

Hatcher's team provided impressive numbers in all three phases. The offense ranked 20th nationally in passing and scoring, while the defense ranked 26th in sacks and 22nd in tackles-for-loss. The special teams units finished 14th in punt returns and 36th in kickoff returns.

All of this was done as Hatcher and his staff were forced to play close to 30 freshmen on a consistent basis throughout the season. In all, five Eagles received All-SoCon honors and seven freshmen representing offense, defense and special teams were named to the inaugural SoCon All-Freshman Team.

Prior to his time at GSU, Hatcher molded Valdosta State into one of the most dominant teams in Division II.

The winningest coach in Blazers' history, Hatcher was 76-12 at his alma mater. In his first year back at VSU, Hatcher took a 4-7 squad the previous year and produced a 10-2 overall record (8-1 in GSC action) and a berth in the Division II playoffs. He coached quarterback Dusty Bonner, who was a two-time winner of the Harlon Hill Trophy as the NCAA Division II Player of the Year, an award Hatcher won himself in 1994.

His 2001 and 2002 teams posted back-to-back undefeated records during the regular season, part of a Gulf South Conference record 35 straight victories during the regular season.

During the 2004 championship season, the Blazers lost their season-opener before rattling off 13 consecutive victories, capped by a 36-31 victory over Pittsburg State in the title game. Hatcher was named National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and was the offensive coordinator for the East squad at the Hula Bowl.

In 2005, Valdosta opened the season ranked No. 1 for four-straight weeks and saw the season culminate with a sixth-straight NCAA postseason appearance. Despite an 8-2 record in 2006, the 10th-ranked Blazers did not receive an invitation to the playoffs, marking the first time that occurred in the Hatcher era.

The 2006 team finished sixth nationally in passing offense (283 yards per game), 12th in scoring offense (34.9 ppg.) and 19th in total offense (389.9 ypg.). In addition to the offensive success, the 2006 defense ranked 27th nationally in scoring defense (15.7 ppg.) while the special teams ranked third in punt returns (17.3 ypr.) and blocked seven kicks.

The Macon, Ga., native spent one year as quarterbacks/tight ends coach at the University of Central Florida where he worked with future NFL quarterback Daunte Culpepper. He then spent three years working with the quarterbacks at the University of Kentucky where he worked under former VSU head coach Hal Mumme. During his time with the Wildcats, he coached the No. 1 NFL draft pick, All-America quarterback Tim Couch.

While at UK, Hatcher and the Wildcats played in the 1999 Outback Bowl, the program's first New Year's Day Bowl in 47 years, then followed that the following year with a berth in the '99 Music City Bowl. It marked the first time the Wildcats had consecutive bowl appearances in 15 years.

Hatcher carried his success on the playing field to help him develop into one of the nation's winningest coaches. A two-time All-American quarterback at VSU (1993 and 1994), Hatcher threw for 11,363 yards and 121 touchdowns during his stellar career. During his senior year in 1994, he led the Blazers to their first postseason berth, advancing to the quarterfinals, and when it was all said and done set 29 VSU passing and total offense records.

Among the national records he once set were a 68.5 career completion percentage and a streak of 20-straight completions in a game against New Haven. Hatcher held 14 Valdosta State, 13 Gulf South Conference and 17 Division II national records. He also started 41 consecutive games, posting a 29-10-2 record.

Not only did Hatcher excel on the field, he was just as successful in the classroom. Twice he received the Gulf South Conference's Commissioner's Trophy which is awarded to the league's Most Outstanding Student-Athlete. He finished his senior year by winning several national honors including: the NCAA Top Eight Award, the CoSIDA Academic All-America National Player of the Year and a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

At the time when Hatcher won the Harlon Hill Trophy, he won by the second-largest voting margin in the then-19-year history of the award. Hatcher was also voted to the GSC Football team of the 1990s.

The honors continued to add up even after his playing days. Hatcher was named to the Valdosta State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001, in his first year of eligibility. He was also elected into the Macon Sports Hall of Fame the same year.

In 2005, Hatcher was inducted into the Division II Hall of Fame. Hatcher was also inducted into the inaugural class of the GSC Hall of Fame in 2014.

Hatcher graduated from Valdosta State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education.

He and his wife, Lori, also a graduate of VSU, are the parents of a son, Ty, and daughter, Talley. Ty is entering his third season as a quarterback on the Samford team.

NICK BENEDETTO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Nick Benedetto enters his first season as the defensive coordinator for the Samford football team.

Benedetto spent the last three seasons as the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, the University of Sioux Falls. During his three seasons in charge of the defense at USF, the team compiled a record of 24-11. In 2019, Benedetto's defense ranked fourth in NCAA Division II in total defense and his 2017 defense ranked second. In his three seasons in charge of the unit, Benedetto's defenses gave up just 15.6 points per game.

Prior to his time at Sioux Falls, Benedetto worked as the defensive coordinator at West Virginia State (2013-16), as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Grand View University (2012) and as the safeties coach at South Dakota (2009-12).

Benedetto's 2013 WVSU defense ranked 11th nationally in interceptions among all NCAA Division II teams.

An outstanding recruiter, Benedetto was selected as one of the "Top 30 under 30" coaches in the country by the American Football Coaches Association and the NCAA in 2015. He was just one of two Division II coaches honored with the prestigious recognition from more than 300 coaches up for the recognition.

Before he moved into the coaching ranks Benedetto was a standout defensive back at Sioux Falls, serving as captain of the defense for the 2008 team that won the school's third NAIA national championship in a 14-0 season. Benedetto was part of one of the best defenses in school history as the team was ranked first nationally in nine statistical categories. A part of the 2006 team that also won a NAIA championship, Benedetto also started for the 13-1 team in 2007 that finished the regular season unbeaten and lost only in the title game, leaving them one win short of a three-peat. Overall, Benedetto played on teams that won 52-of-55 games during his playing career.

Benedetto is a 2009 graduate of Sioux Falls (B.S., Mathematics), and he earned a Master's degree in sports management in 2011 from South Dakota. Nick and his wife Kelsey reside in the Birmingham area and have two boys, Rocco and Ace.

RICKY TURNER ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

Ricky Turner enters his fifth year on Samford's football staff, his first as assistant head coach and third as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Turner spent two seasons as the program's General Manager, after serving the staff in a part-time capacity in 2015.

Turner's special teams unit led the nation in punt return average in 2019, averaging 19.41 yards per return. Punt returner Montrell Washington was named All-American by both STATS and HERO Sports.

In 2018, under Turner's tutelage, Samford led the Southern Conference in PAT kicking, and ranked third in the league in field goals made. The team also ranked second in the SoCon in punt returns.

Turner served the 2015 season on the Samford staff as the team's special teams quality control coach and player personnel assistant. He was responsible for analyzing and breaking down opponent special teams film, assisting with the preparation of the special teams game plan each week and making practice schedules and scout cards. He also assisted with on-campus recruiting.

Prior to coming to Samford, Turner served as a football intern at Kennesaw State from January to April of 2015.

Turner also worked as a student assistant at the University of South Carolina from 2011 to 2014.

Turner is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, graduating Cum Laude from the school with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sport and Entertainment Management.

SHAWN BOSTICK
OFFENSIVE LINE

In 2019, his offensive line was one of the strengths of the team, helping lead to a much-improved running game. Offensive lineman Nick Nixon was one of the leaders of the unit, garnering first team All-SoCon honors at the end of the season.

Bostick's offensive line helped the 2018 Samford offense lead the nation in passing offense, and finish fourth in the nation in total offense.

In his first season at Samford, Bostick's offensive line helped the unit lead the Southern Conference in scoring offense and total offense. Two of his offensive linemen, Armando Bonheur and Gunnar Bromelow earned All-SoCon honors. In his second season in 2016, Bonheur was named second team All- SoCon by the league's coaches.

Bostick came to Samford after spending the previus five years on Head Coach Chris Hatcher's staff at Murray State. Under Bostick's guidance, the MSU offensive line paved the way for the top offense in the Ohio Valley Conference throughout his time with the Racers.

The offensive line helped produce one of the nation's most balanced attacks in 2013. The Racers rushed for 1,886 yards, the most in nearly a decade. The team rushed for over 200 yards in four games, including rushing for 296 yards in an overtime victory at Jacksonville State.

The 2012 offensive line paved the way for an offense that amassed 5,328 yards of total offense, including 3,838 through the air.

The 2011 offensive line also had four players start at least 10 games. As a unit, they helped the Racer offense accumulate 5,070 yards of total offense, marking just the fourth time it has happened in school history.

Bostick came to MSU after serving as the offensive line coach at Georgia Southern the previous three seasons.

His arrival in Statesboro, Ga. ended an 18-year affiliation with Valdosta State, from his playing days to then assistant coach. Bostick served as assistant head coach in charge of the offensive line for eight years at VSU. His O-Line was part of one of the most productive offensive units in Division II.

Bostick was part of the 2004 National Championship team and the national runner-up in 2002. From 1994-95 he worked as a student assistant coach under Hal Mumme.

Bostick was part of the 1994 coaching staff, leading Valdosta State to its first-ever playoff appearance.

In 1996, he worked with the running backs, as the Blazers won their first conference championship. During the 1997 campaign, he served as a graduate assistant coach under Mike Kelley, returning to the offensive line. The next season, he moved into his first full-time coaching position and worked with the offensive line every year since.

Bostick played at Valdosta State from 1991 to 1993, starting as a walk-on, but eventually earning a scholarship. A 1997 graduate of Valdosta State, Bostick received his bachelor's degree in Education.

He and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Emma, and a son, Walker.

KEVIN CORLESS
LINEBACKERS

Kevin Corless enters his first season on the Samford football coaching staff. Corless will work with the team's linebackers.

Corless comes to Samford from Army, where he served as the inside linebackers coach from 2014 to 2019. He helped lead the Black Knights from a 2-10 season in 2013 to averaging nearly 10 wins a season over the 2016, 2017 and 2018 seasons, earning 29 wins. The 2018 team won 11 games, the most in school history.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided the linebackers and then served as co-defensive coordinator with Jack Curtin in 2013. The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 team beat Florida, but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt "Defensive Coordinator of the Year" for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Corless was at Northwestern State in 1995 as a defensive line coach and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 1999 with oversight of the linebackers during his final three seasons. Northwestern State made NCAA FCS playoff appearances in 1997, 1998 and 2001 and won two Southland Conference titles.

Corless played and graduated from Northwest Missouri State and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant where the team went 10-2 and qualified for the national playoffs. He moved to Montana Tech to mentor linebackers and serve as special teams coordinator. During his eight seasons, he helped the Orediggers transform from winless in three seasons into conference champions and an NAIA playoff team in 1992.

KYNJEE COTTON
DEFENSIVE ENDS

Kynjee Cotton enters his second season on the Samford football coaching staff. Cotton tutors the team's defensive ends.

Cotton came to Samford in 2019 after serving the previous year as an assistant coach at West Georgia. At UWG, he worked with the team's defensive line.

Prior to his time at West Georgia, Cotton spent the two previous seasons as a quality control assistant at the University of North Carolina. Previously, he spent the 2015 season as the defensive line coach at Birmingham-Southern. In 2014, he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line at UAB.

Prior to his stint at UAB, Cotton was a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Alabama during the fall of 2013, working with football, baseball and rowing. He also spent time as a strength and conditioning coach at Robert E. Lee High in Montgomery, Ala.

Cotton holds a bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Alabama State, where he was a standout on the field and in the classroom. He was a four-year letterman for the Hornets, earning Second Team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors while serving as a team captain in 2011. Also, Cotton was a member of ASU's Dean's List from January 2011 through his graduation in 2013.

DARIUS EUBANKS
DEFENSIVE BACK

Darius Eubanks enters his third season as an assistant coach at Samford. He is respoinsible for coaching the team's defensive backs. He spent his first two seasons on staff specifically coaching the Bulldogs' safeties.

Eubanks spent the 2017 season as a graduate assistant for defense at Arkansas. He joined the Razorbacks after seven years of playing at the collegiate and NFL levels.

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive back at Georgia Southern from 2009-13, Eubanks started 50 of 52 game played for the Eagles. He totaled 260 tackles, including 12.5 for loss, recorded four interceptions and broke up 18 passes during his career.

Eubanks ranked in the top five on the team in total tackles every season with a career-best 77 as a senior in 2013 en route to Southern Conference All-Conference first team honors from the league head coaches.

Following his collegiate career, Eubanks spent four seasons in the NFL playing for the Minnesota Vikings, Cleveland Browns, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

ALEX GARCIA
DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Alex Garcia enters his first season on the Samford football coaching staff. He specifically works with the team's defensive tackles.

Garcia spent the last season as the defensive line coach and equipment coordinator at the University of Sioux Falls. At USF, Garcia coached three All-Conference players and one Academic All-American.

Garcia came to USF from Montana Tech. He joined the Orediggers in 2014 as a defensive line coach. Garcia produced six Frontier All-Conference selections in four seasons including three-time first team honoree Tyler Sanders. Defensive end Luke Benz led the Frontier Conference in sacks in 2016. He also coached Chance Hansen was also a two-time all-league performer and had 127 sacks over four seasons.

Prior to joining Montana Tech, Garcia spent two years as a graduate assistant at Midland University (Neb.) where he coached the defensive line. Under his guidance he developed two all-conference selections and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

Prior to coaching at Midland, Garcia was the outside linebacker coach at NCAA DIII Elmhurst College for two years. Elmhurst's 2012 team finished 10-2 and won the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. They finished with a No. 8 ranking in the country.

A native of Lombard, Ill (Chicago suburb), Garcia graduated from Elmhurst (Ill.) College in 2011 where he played on both offensive line and defensive line. At Elmhurst, he received a degree in philosophy with a minor in educational studies.

MACK HELMS
OFFENSIVE TACKLES

Mack Helms begins his first season as an assistant coach for the Samford football team. He assists with the team's offensive line, working specifically with the tackles.

Helms comes to Samford after serving as an offensive analyst at UNC Charlotte during the 2019 season. He worked specifically with the offensive line, and assisted with all phases of special teams. Helms helped the 49ers to the program's first bowl appearance and highest win total during the 2019 season.

Helms was part of an offensive staff that improved the team's rushing and passing attacks by more than 2,500 yards in the same season. The team's offense went from worst in Conference USA in 2018 to first in the league the following year.

Prior to going to UNC Charlotte, Helms served as an offensive graduate assistant at Tulane and East Carolina. He assisted with both the offensive line and tight ends at both stops.

During his time at Tulane, Helms helped lead the Green Wave to their first American Athletic Conference (AAC) Co-Division title. The team also earned the program's first bowl win in over 20 years.

Helms also worked with the 2014 East Carolina offense that ranked first in the AAC in passing offense, total offense and first downs. The offensive line he worked with helped quarterback Shane Carden to back-to-back 4,000-yard passing seasons.

Helms earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from East Carolina in 2014. He then earned a master's degree in homeland security studies from Tulane in 2018.

MITCH STEWART
WIDE RECEIVERS

Mitch Stewart begins his first season as an assistant coach at Samford. He works specifically with the team's wide receivers.

Stewart was the head coach at Murray State from 2015 to 2019. During his time in charge of the Racers' program, Stewart led K.D. Humphries to becoming the program's all-time leader in passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts and pass completions.

Stewart's 2018 team posted the program's best season in seven years. Six players off that team earned All-OVC honors. Stewart also led the Racers to the largest comeback in program history, overcoming a 31-point deficit to defeat Southeast Missouri.

His Murray State offenses ranked either first or second in the OVC in four of his five seasons, including leading the league in 2015 and 2016.

Prior to being the head coach at Murray State, Stewart served as MSU's offensive coordinator under current Samford head coach Chris Hatcher from 2011-14, and as the program's wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator in 2010.

As the offensive coordinator, Stewart's offenses consistently ranked among the OVC and national leaders in passing offense and total offense. His 2013 unit also rushed for 1,886 yards, the most for the Racers in nearly a decade.

During the 2010 season, while coaching the team's wide receivers, Stewart led the receivers to a pair of school records. Wide receiver Marcus Harris left MSU as the all-time leader in receptions (216) and yards (2,471) and earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and The Sports Network.

Prior to coming to Murray State, Stewart spent three seasons on the coaching staff at Georgia Southern, also under Hatcher. He worked with the team's wide receivers and handled team travel. In his second season, the Eagles' offense led the SoCon and ranked 20th nationally in passing offense.

In 2006, Stewart served as the offensive coordinator at Newnan High School. The NHS team won its first region title in 14 years and qualified for the state playoffs that season.

Stewart is a 2005 graduate of Valdosta State with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He and his wife, Rikki, have two daughters, Stella and Emerson.

STEVE ADAMS
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Steve Adams is entering his third season on the Samford football staff. He serves the staff as director of player personnel.

Adams is involved in all aspects of the football program. He organizes all recruiting efforts, manages the team's roster and scholarship count and he coordinates the program's summer camps.

Adams came to Samford after serving as director of player personnel and recruiting coordinator at Murray State University from 2014 to 2018. He also served Murray State as director of football operations and special teams assistant (2013-14), and assistant recruiting coordinator (2011-14) under current Samford head coach Chris Hatcher.

During his undergraduate days at MSU, Adams was a student coach for the Racers from 2010-13. Prior to his time at Murray State, Adams was a student coach at Butler Community College in Kansas from 2008-10.

Adams earned his Bachelor of Integrated Studies degree from Murray State in 2013. He and his wife, Sara have one son, Brayden.

BEN ASHFORD
DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Ben Ashford is entering his sixth season as Samford's director of football strength and conditioning.

Ashford develops and implements year-round training protocols for Samford's football student-athletes, and he oversees the football strength and conditioning and nutrition staff. He plans and manages budgets for football strength and conditioning and performance nutrition.

Additionally, Ashford works with athletic training to implement alternative strength programs for injured athletes. He also designed, implemented and currently leads an ongoing drug and alcohol monitoring and recovery program.

Prior to coming to Samford, Ashford worked as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Alabama from 2013 to 2015, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for baseball and men's tennis. He was a strength and conditioning intern at Alabama from 2012 to 2013.

Ashford earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Auburn University in 2004. He then earned a master's in human performance from Alabama in 2013.

JAMES CARLSON
DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT SERVICES

James Carlson is entering his 19th season at Samford. Carlson serves as the director of equipment services for the athletics department.

Carlson oversees all aspects of the equipment room. He orders and maintains all equipment for the all of Samford's 17 athletic teams. He also organizes and oversees transport of all football equipment for road games, and handles the coaches' sideline communication.

In addition to his duties as director of equipment services, Carlson is also responsible for the football facilities, including the Sullivan-Cooney Family Field House and Seibert Stadium.

Before joining the Samford staff, Carlson spent three seasons as the football equipment manager and video coordinator at Henderson State University, where he handled day-to-day operations of the equipment room, film breakdown and computer scouting. At Henderson State, he worked for two seasons under former Samford Offensive Coordinator Doug Meacham and former Assistant Coach Patrick Nix.

Carlson, a native of Warner Robins, Ga., is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. Carlson and his wife, Brena, reside in the Birmingham area.

PAIGE MATHIS
ASSISTANT AD FOR ACADEMIC SERVICES

Paige Mathis is in her seventh year in the Samford athletics department and serves as the department's Assistant AD for Academics.

In her current role, Mathis oversees the Academic Enhancement Program for Student-Athletes and is the primary academic counselor for the football team. She also serves on various committees on campus.

Mathis came to Samford in 2013 and served as the academic counselor for six sports and the tutor coordinator until April, 2016.

During Mathis's tenure at Samford, the school's student-athletes have posted outstanding results in the classroom, with a total of 1,353 student-athletes being named to the SoCon Honor Roll. Samford's student-athletes posted an impressive 97% in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report, released earlier this year, ranking No. 1 in the state of Alabama and 18th nationally among Division I institutions.

Mathis began her career in athletic academic advising as a graduate assistant in the Center for Athletic Academic Success at the University of Memphis assisting with baseball, football, women's soccer and track and field. During her time as a graduate assistant, she earned her Masters of Science degree in Sport and Leisure Commerce.

Prior to her time at Memphis, Mathis earned her Bachelors of Science in Sport Administration from the University of Louisville. While earning her degree, she worked in various departments within the athletic department.

2021 SAMFORD SPRING FOOTBALL
CHARLES WILLIAMS MEMORIAL JERSEY

On May 23, 2003, Samford junior cornerback Charles Williams died in a car accident. In only two seasons on the team, Williams emerged as a starter in the secondary in 2002. In addition to his success on the field, Williams also maintained one of the highest grade point averages on the team.

For the 2003 and 2004 seasons (what would have been Williams' junior and senior seasons) no one wore jersey No. 5, the number that Williams wore. Every year since then, a senior has been selected to wear the No. 5, the Charles Williams Memorial Jersey.

2021 SAMFORD SPRING FOOTBALL

HISTORY OF SAMFORD FOOTBALL

Since Samford University began playing football as Howard College in 1902, there have been numerous successful eras and memorable games. Houston Gwin, an ex-Auburn man, was the first coach, although just part time. Howard College's first intercollegiate opponent was Marion Military Institute. The game ended in a 6-0 Bulldog win and was played before "several thousand" (Birmingham Daily News) at the Alabama State Fair Oct. 25, 1902. Ten days before that contest, Howard College had a tune-up game "in the nature of a tryout for both teams" (Birmingham Age Herald) on a Wednesday afternoon at West End Park, the "Slag Pile," with Birmingham's University High School. The Bulldogs prevailed, 10-0.

Howard College's first officially organized football season was 1906, with its first full slate of scheduled games and first full-time head coach, John Counselman, a former Michigan football player. The Bulldogs finished 6-2-1, losing only to Mississippi State and Alabama.

The Bulldogs have been a force in both Alabama and Southern small-college football for years. They have played most of the major state schools, and have played neutral-site games in Andalusia, Anniston, Athens, Decatur, Dothan, Huntsville, Montgomery, Russellville and Talladega. Besides Seibert Stadium, the Bulldogs have played home games at the old East Lake campus practice field, Legion Field, Rickwood Field, West End Park, the old Shades Valley High School, Woodlawn High School, Fairfield High School, Hewitt-Trussville High School, Tarrant High School and the Alabama State Fairgrounds.

Bobby Bowden played at Samford in the early 1950s, and he coached the Bulldogs from 1959 to 1962.

Chet Dillon had two stints as Howard College's football coach, first in 1919 following World War I, and then from 1927 to 1928. His teams had a .578 winning percentage (fifth all-time). He coached the Bulldogs to a 9-0 win over Birmingham-Southern in historic Legion Field's first game Nov. 19, 1927. He also coached the Bulldogs in Birmingham's first-ever night football game the following year, a 12-7 loss to Spring Hill of Mobile under the powerful Legion Field floodlights.

Head Coach Eddie McLane's 1931 Bulldogs finished 8-2-2 in the newly formed Dixie Conference's first year. The year featured a unique doubleheader: two victories in one night at Legion Field against Georgia State College (now known as Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College) and Bowdon College of Georgia. McLane's eight wins that season ranked as the most ever by a Samford coach until Bobby Bowden's 9-1 mark in 1959.

The Bulldogs' first Dixie Conference championship was 1933, when McLane led them to a 7-1-2 mark and their first postseason game, against the University of Tampa, held in Florida. The 1933 Bulldogs were also the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association [SIAA] champions. McLane was Samford/Howard's most successful coach before the Bowdens' arrival, with 28 wins and a .585 career winning percentage from 1929 to 1933.

McLane also scheduled Howard's first long-distance, intersectional football games. He took the Bulldogs on extended train trips to play Duquesne University at Pittsburgh in 1930 and the University of North Dakota in 1932. The Bulldogs lost by only 5 points, 14-9, to Duquesne, then a national collegiate power, at Forbes Field. (Forbes Field was the former home of major league baseball's Pittsburgh Pirates.) On the North Dakota trip, McLane and the Bulldogs got off the train for a day of practice at Chicago's Soldier Field before continuing to Grand Forks, N.D.

The most famous single result in Bulldog history was a 7-7 tie in 1935 with defending Rose Bowl champion, Alabama, a team that featured an end named Paul "Bear" Bryant. Coached by Billy Bancroft, the 1935 Bulldogs finished 7-1-2 and were Dixie Conference champions. Bancroft's teams (1935–39) won 22 games, placing him sixth of 34 coaches on Samford's all-time list, despite the handicap of an annual schedule that always included road games at Alabama and Mississippi State. His 1936 team also won the Dixie Conference championship.

Howard's biggest rival in the early years was Birmingham-Southern, before BSC discontinued football after 1939. Their annual contest was a major city event, held many times on Thanksgiving Day, and served as homecoming for both schools. The games often attracted crowds of more than 10,000 to Rickwood Field and Legion Field throughout the years.

The football program was suspended in 1942 for the duration of World War II. The Navy V-12 program that trained officers on campus fielded a team, known as the Howard Seadogs, with a limited schedule during 1943–45.

Football was not reinstated until a group of students formed the Howard College Sportsmen's Club in 1948. This student-financed and -led club represented Howard in contests mainly against state school "B" teams. It finished 4-4 and was coached by student Ted McCrary.

The Bowden Years

Some of the most prominent of Samford's 101 football seasons were the tenures of father and son Bobby and Terry Bowden. Both went on to successful head coaching positions at major college football institutions (Bobby at Florida State and Terry at Auburn). Their Samford records are even more impressive, considering that they both built scholarship programs from scratch.

In 1959, Bobby Bowden brought scholarship football back to Samford after an 18-year lapse. He produced a 9-1 record in his first year as head coach. His four years at Samford (1959–62) produced the highest career winning percentage of any Samford coach (.838, 31-6) and two small-college bowl appearances. He also made his mark as a player, receiving 1952 Little All-America honors at quarterback for the team.

Terry Bowden equaled his father's 9-1 mark during his first season at Samford (1987) and, like his father, brought back scholarship football to Samford the following year for the first time since 1973. His overall record (45-23-1) represents the most career wins by any Bulldog coach. His career at Samford (1987–92) climaxed with two straight berths in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs. The 12-2 run to the semifinals of the 1991 playoffs ranks as the most productive season in Samford history. It resulted in the most wins in a Samford season and the greatest national exposure.

The Bulldogs in Modern Times

John Lee Armstrong's teams (1966–68) were outstanding. His winning percentage (.677, 20-9-2) ranks second all-time. Armstrong's 1967 team finished 8-2-1 with a postseason win in Huntsville's Space City Classic.

Wayne Grubb's 1971 team won eight regular-season games and participated in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl (NCAA Division II West Regional Championship) in Phenix City, Ala.

Samford did not field a football team from 1974 to 1983. President Thomas E. Corts brought football back at the Division III nonscholarship level in 1984. In 1988, the school moved to the Division I-AA scholarship level. Samford played scholarship football during 1920–41, 1959–73 and 1988–present. Samford has displayed clear and sustained excellence throughout the years as a nonmajor college scholarship football program.

Samford's biggest historical football rival was Jacksonville State, a school Samford has played 44 times since 1905. The teams played consistently through 2007, until Samford left the Ohio Valley Conference for the Southern Conference in 2008. Seibert Stadium's first crowd of 10,136, an overflow throng, saw the opener of the 1989 season between Samford and Jacksonville State. It was the first night football game at Samford in 16 years, and the first game in which the Bashinsky Press Tower was occupied.

Interest, attendance and growth in Samford football has continued to show an enduring upward trend ever since the Bulldogs' move to Homewood from the East Lake campus in 1957. With two NCAA playoff appearances in the 1990s, several recent overflow capacity crowds, a full allotment of scholarships as allowed by the NCAA, and unprecedented internal and external support personnel and resources, the "good ole days" of Samford football are upon us now.

In 2003, Samford moved from being a Division I-FCS (formerly I-AA) independent to become a member of the Ohio Valley Conference. The Bulldogs competed as a member of the OVC through the 2007 season.

In December of 2006, Samford hired Pat Sullivan as its head football coach. Sullivan served as the program's head coach from 2007 to 2014.

Prior to the 2008 season, Samford joined the tradition-rich Southern Conference. In its first season in the premier Division I Football Championship Subdivision league, Samford finished fourth despite being picked to finish ninth in the nine-team conference.

The Bulldogs won their first Southern Conference title in 2013, earning a spot in the NCAA Division I-FCS Playoffs for the first time since 1992.

Chris Hatcher was named Samford's 36th head football coach on Dec. 11, 2014. Hatcher is entering his sixth season at the Bulldogs' head coach. He led the team to back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Division I-FCS Playoffs in 2016 and 2017, marking the first time the program reached the playoffs in back-to-back years since accomplishing the feat in 1991 and 1992.

THE BULLDOGS IN THE POSTSEASON

1933 Postseason

Samford 6, Tampa 6
Dec. 9, 1933, Tampa, Fla.

Howard College was invited to its first-ever postseason game after completing a 7-1-1 regular season and winning the Dixie Conference championship, though the game did not have a name. The heavily favored Bulldogs struggled to a 6-6 tie against the home-standing Tampa Spartans.

The game was played before 5,000 fans in a strong wind, which prevented any punt from traveling longer than 25 yards.

The Bulldogs got on the board first with Tom Everrett's 35-yard run, capping a 60-yard drive.

The Spartans tied the score in the third quarter after the Bulldogs fumbled on their own 17. After a 14-yard run from scrimmage on the first play, Tampa running back Chaney scored on a 3-yard run. Both teams missed their extra-point attempts.

The Bulldogs had their chances to win in the fourth quarter but came up short on two field-goal attempts. The Bulldogs had eight first downs to Tampa's four.

1959 Textile Bowl

Samford 52, Gordon Military 20
Dec. 5, 1959, Fairfax, Ala.

Joe Milazzo, George Versprille and Buddy Bozeman led the Howard Bulldogs to a rout of Gordon Military College of Barnesville, Ga., in the first Textile Bowl.

Milazzo threw four touchdown passes in the game. He started the scoring with a 73-yard pass to Bozeman. He then threw a 17-yarder to Versprille near the end of the first half. Versprille also scored on a 9-yard run in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs continued to pile things on in the second half. Milazzo hit Versprille with a 36-yard toss that capped a 94-yard, eight-play drive. He finished off the scoring with a 59-yard pass to Bobby Jackson.

1962 GoldenIsles Bowl

McNeese State 21, Samford 14
Dec. 1, 1962, Brunswick, Ga.

In a game that was postponed a day because of rain, Samford fell to McNeese State, 21-14, when LSU transfer Tommy Thompson returned a punt 85 yards in the fourth quarter.

McNeese scored first after recovering a Bulldog fumble at the Samford 23. Samford followed up McNeese's score with a 90-yard drive. Reggie Allen gained 65 yards on the drive. The two teams were tied at seven at halftime.

McNeese again went ahead in the third quarter, but the Bulldogs struck back quickly, thanks to their defense. Ray Collins threw to Allen for the score after James Hallman intercepted a McNeese pass.

That was all the scoring in the game until Thompson fielded Collins' 50-yard punt and was off to the races. Collins averaged 44 yards per kick on the night.

It was the final game at Samford for Coach Bobby Bowden, who left at the end of the season to become an assistant coach at Florida State.

1967 Space City Classic

Samford 20, Arkansas A&M 7
Dec. 9, 1967, Huntsville, Ala.

Samford climaxed its second campaign under Coach John Lee Armstrong in a big way, taking a 20-7 win over Arkansas A&M in the second annual Space City Classic in Huntsville.

Junior quarterback Jim Lovette engineered the win, passing for 331 yards and all three Bulldog touchdowns. His passing yardage, 21 completions and 358 yards total offense, were all Samford game records at the time. The performance won him the game's Most Outstanding Back Award.

Junior split end John Easley caught a game-record-tying nine passes for 178 yards and two scores. His 18-yard touchdown reception early in the third period gave Samford a 12-7 lead after the Bulldogs trailed at halftime, 7-6. His 39-yard score late in the same quarter iced the verdict.

Lovette hit senior tight end Jim Jackson on a 16-yard score late in the first half after A&M scored in the first period on quarterback Phil Clem's 48-yard toss to end Larry Stanley.

NCAA I-FCS Playoffs

1991 FIRST ROUND

Samford 29, New Hampshire 13
Nov. 30, 1991, Cowell Stadium, Durham, N.H.

Making its first ever NCAA playoff appearance, Samford rolled over New Hampshire, 29-13, in the first round.

The Bulldogs went to the locker room at halftime trailing, 13-7, after scoring on their first possession. Samford scored on the first possession of the second half, and the defense allowed the Wildcats no more points as the Bulldogs ran up 22 second-half points.

Tank Edwards ran for 114 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading Samford's attack on a cold, wet field. New Hampshire tailback Barry Bourassa, who was leading the nation in all-purpose yardage, was held to 98 all-purpose yards. He had been averaging over 200 yards per game.

The Bulldogs drove 75 yards in eight plays that culminated in Edwards' 10-yard touchdown run for their first score. Then it was all New Hampshire for the remainder of the half.

The Wildcats put a couple of Lance Hjelte field goals on the board, the second coming with 5:10 left in the half, to cut the score to 7-6. The Wildcats drove 98 yards in the 1:05 left and scored on a 3-yard Matt Griffin-to-John Perry pass with 20 seconds left in the half.

Samford drove 58 yards in 14 plays on its first second-half drive. Tank Edwards scored again from 1 yard out.

Brian Moore blocked a punt for a safety early in the fourth quarter to give Samford a 16-13 lead. Michael O'Neal then made a pair of clutch field goals. The second was a 44-yarder with 3:37 left, which made the score 22-13. After New Hampshire turned the ball over on downs, Donnie Rory scored on a 5-yard run for the final margin.

1991 SECOND ROUND

Samford 24, James Madison 21
Dec. 7, 1991, Bridgeforth Stadium, Harrisonburg, Va.

James Madison's Trey Weiss was wide left on a field goal attempt with 49 seconds remaining as Samford held on for a 24-21 win over the Dukes in the second round of the NCAA playoffs.

The Dukes got the opportunity after tackling punter Russell Nolen on the Samford 29 with 2:28 left. JMU made one first down but was forced to try the field goal on fourth down.

Samford got things started when Tank Edwards ran 71 yards on the second play of scrimmage to give Samford a 7-0 lead. As in the first playoff game, the Bulldogs fell behind at the half, 14-7. Elvin Brown tied the game with a 2-yard run with 40 seconds left in the first quarter, and quarterback Eriq Williams scored on an 11-yard run.

Like the first round game, Samford took over in the second half. James Madison failed to move the ball to start the second half. On its punt attempt, Samford's Brian Moore broke through and forced the JMU punter to run with the ball and be tackled for a 10-yard loss. Samford took the ball and scored on a 10-yard pass from Ben Wiggins to Brian Fisher on third down.

JMU again did not move the ball on its next possession. The punter got the ball away, but David Primus returned it 67 yards for a touchdown, and Samford led, 21-14. On the next possession, Eric Skipwith came up with one of three Samford interceptions, which led to a Michael O'Neal 38-yard field goal.

The Bulldogs were about to put the game away in the fourth quarter as they drove deep into JMU territory. Two Ben Wiggins-to-Brian James passes netted 81 yards. The Bulldogs were stopped on a Tank Edwards sweep on fourth down at the three.

Edwards finished the game with 153 yards rushing. Kenny Sims rushed for 107 yards for JMU but missed the second half with a shoulder injury.

1991 SEMIFINALS

Youngstown State 10, Samford 0
Dec. 14, 1991, Stambaugh Stadium, Youngstown, Ohio

Youngstown State's defense shut down the Samford running game, and a cold, swirling wind throttled the passing game as the eventual national champions finished off Samford's season with a 10-0 win in the NCAA semifinals.

The Penguins ran up 394 yards in total offense, but the two scores came on fumbles. Defensive end Chris Vecchione returned a Ben Wiggins fumble 6 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. Jeff Wilkins kicked a 28-yard field goal in the third, following a 38-yard drive after a fumble for all the scoring in the game.

The gusting wind contributed to six interceptions in addition to the two fumbles. Ben Wiggins threw 43 times, completing 15 for 148 yards. Brian Fisher was the leading receiver with six catches for 54 yards.

Samford's defense kept the Penguins off the scoreboard enough to give Samford hope. It stopped Youngstown on downs on the 3-yard line and forced a fumble on the two. Youngstown missed two field goals.

Samford had its chance in the third quarter when it picked up a fumble at the 22-yard line. But Randy Smith came up with one of his three interceptions for YSU, this one in the end zone, to kill the threat. His remarks typified Samford's day: "[Brian James] had me beat, but I made a good recovery, and the wind knocked the ball down."

The Bulldogs had the ball just over 17 minutes compared to almost 43 minutes for Youngstown. Penguin fullback Tameron Smith carried the ball 46 times for 246 yards.

The loss snapped Samford's second six-game winning streak of the season.

1992 FIRST ROUND

Delaware 56, Samford 21
Nov. 28, 1992, Delaware Stadium, Newark, Del.

Delaware's Wing-T offense completely baffled the Bulldogs and made Samford's second-straight playoff appearance short-lived with a 56-21 win.

The Blue Hens ran to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter. Samford cut the score to 21-7 on a Ben Wiggins quarterback sneak. However,Delaware ran the two-minute drill to perfection and scored with seven seconds remaining in the half.

Samford scored on its first drive of the second half on a Tank Edwards 1-yard run, giving the Bulldogs hope. Delaware again answered, this time with a 73-yard, seven-play drive. It then proceeded to add more. Samford scored again on the final play of the game.

Delaware ran up 586 yards in total offense, including 387 on the ground, the most Samford had allowed in more than three years. Blue Hen quarterback Bill Vergantino passed for 199 yards, completing 10 of 15, and rushed for 86 more. Fullback Daryl Brown rushed for 116 yards on 19 attempts.

"It was the best Division I-AA team we've played since we moved up," Coach Terry Bowden said. "We played Georgia Southern (24-31) when it won the national championship and lost to Youngstown State (0-10) last year when it won."

Edwards gained 77 yards on 13 carries, and Wiggins completed 15 of 28 passes for 118 yards.

2013 FIRST ROUND

#20 Jacksonville State 55, #16 Samford 14
Nov. 30, 2013, Burgess-Snow Field, Jacksonville, Ala.

The 18th-ranked Samford football team fell behind early and never could catch up on its way to a 55-14 loss at 20th-ranked Jacksonville State in the first round of the Division I-FCS Playoffs at Burgess-Snow Field.

For Samford in the loss, Jeremiaha Gates rushed 13 times for 63 yards, while Stanley Robinson rushed six times for 27 yards. Gates also caught three passes for 29 yards. The Bulldogs were playing without injured starting tailback Fabian Truss.

Senior quarterback Andy Summerlin completed 7-of-24 passes for 81 yards and a touchdown. Kelvin Clay had one catch for 37 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively for Samford, Jaquiski Tartt led the way with 12 tackles. Justin Cooper had 11 tackles for Samford.

For JSU, DeMarcus James rushed 22 times for 124 yards and two touchdowns. Quarterback Eli Jenkins rushed 12 times for 115 yards and a touchdown, and he completed 11-of-19 passes for 115 yards and a score. Defensively for JSU, Rashad Smith had eight tackles, including 1.5 sacks.

Jacksonville State jumped on top first. James scored on a two-yard run off of a direct snap to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead with 11:00 to go in the first quarter.

The Gamecocks added to their lead when Jenkins ran for a 72-yard touchdown to make the score 14-0 with 8:30 left in the first period. JSU made the score 17-0 when Griffin Thomas kicked a 37-yard field goal with 55 seconds left in the first quarter.

In the second quarter, JSU's Telvin Brown scored on a 47-yard touchdown run to make the score 24-0 with 8:47 to go in the second quarter. James scored from one-yard out with 2:42 to go in the second quarter to make the score 31-0. JSU added one final score before halftime when Miles Jones scored on a 12-yard run with 1:27 left to send the Gamecocks to halftime with a 38-0 lead.

Early in the third quarter, JSU's Brown scored on a 67-yard run to make the score 45-0 with 14:37 left in the quarter. Samford put its first points on the scoreboard when Summerlin hit Clay for a 37-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 45-7 with 11:31 left in the third quarter. JSU's Thomas kicked a 47-yard field goal with 6:41 left in the third quarter to push the Gamecocks' lead to 48-7.

JSU added one fourth-quarter score when Robert Gray scored on a one-yard run to make the score 55-7 with 6:34 to go. Samford's Tony Philpot put the final points on the scoreboard when he hauled in a pass on a trick play from Karel Hamilton with 2:36 to go to make the final score 55-14.

2021 SAMFORD SPRING FOOTBALL

2016 FIRST ROUND

#13 Youngstown State 38, #23 Samford 24
Nov. 26, 2016, Stambaugh Stadium, Youngstown, Ohio

The 23rd-ranked Samford football team was eliminated from the NCAA Division I-FCS Playoffs when the Bulldogs dropped a 38-24 decision at 13th-ranked Youngstown State at Stambaugh Stadium.

With the loss, Samford ends its season with a record of 7-5. Youngstown State improves to 9-3 and will advance to the second round of the playoff where the Penguins will play at Jacksonville State next Saturday.

Offensively for Samford, Devlin Hodges completed 33-of-51 passes for 372 yards and three touchdowns. Hodges' three touchdown passes give him 36 for the season, breaking the previous school record of 34 set by Jimbo Fisher in 1987. Kelvin McKnight caught 11 passes for 144 yards and three touchdowns, while Karel Hamilton had 11 catches for 147 yards.

The Samford defense was led by Jamerson Blount and Carter McManes with nine tackles each. Tonne Osaigbovo had eight tackles, and Deion Pierre had a fumble recovery to go along with his six tackles.

For Youngstown State, Jody Webb rushed 27 times for 174 yards and two touchdowns. Hunter Wells completed 8-of-12 passes for 142 yards. The YSU defense was led by David Rivers with eight tackles.

2021 SAMFORD SPRING FOOTBALL
HISTORICAL GLOSSARY

AMOS ALONZO STAGG BOWL
The 1971 Samford football team defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 20-10, in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl Nov. 25 to win the NCAA College Division West Region II Championship. The team finished the season with a record of 9-1 and ranked seventh in the national UPI poll.

BOWDEN, BOBBY
Bobby Bowden, longtime head coach at Florida State University and one of the winningest head coaches in college football history, played football at Samford University (then Howard College) and was its head coach for four years. Bowden played at Samford during 1950–53, and he was the school's head coach from 1959 to 1962. As Samford's head coach, Bowden compiled a record of 31-6, winning 83.8 percent of his games, the highest winning percentage for any coach in the school's history. During the 2013 season, a statue of Bowden was placed at the east entrance to Seibert Stadium.

Bobby Bowden was Samford's head coach from 1959 to 1962.

BOWDEN, TERRY
Terry Bowden was Samford's head coach from 1987 to 1992 before becoming head coach at Auburn University in 1993. He led Samford to NCAA Division I FCS (then I-AA) playoff appearances in 1991 and 1992, and his 45 wins at the school are the most for any coach in the program's history.

BRADBERRY, JAMES
Cornerback James Bradberry, who played at Samford from 2012 to 2015, was selected in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers. Bradberry was a four-year starter at Samford and was named to the STATS FCS All-America third team in 2015.

CHARLES WILLIAMS MEMORIAL JERSEY
The Charles Williams Memorial Jersey is given each year to a senior leader on the team. The No. 5 jersey is given in memory of former Samford player Charles Williams, who was killed in a car accident May 23, 2003.

FINNEGAN, CORTLAND
Cortland Finnegan, a 10-year NFL veteran, played at Samford from 2002 to 2005. At Samford, Finnegan led the team in tackles for three seasons, and he was named the Ohio Valley Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2003. He was named All-OVC in 2003, 2004 and 2005, and he was named All-American in 2003 and 2005. Finnegan was drafted by the Tennessee Titans in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft. During his career, he played for the Titans, St. Louis Rams, Miami Dolphins and Carolina Panthers. Finnegan retired following the 2014 season, but returned midway through the 2015 season to help lead the Panthers to the Super Bowl.

FISHER, JIMBO
Jimbo Fisher, current head coach at Texas A&M, played quarterback at Samford in 1987 after coming to the school from Salem College with then-head coach Terry Bowden. When he left Samford, Fisher held several single-season and single-game records, and his 34 touchdown passes set a Division III single-season record. He was also an assistant coach at Samford from 1988 to 1992. He won the 2013 national championship as the head coach at Florida State.

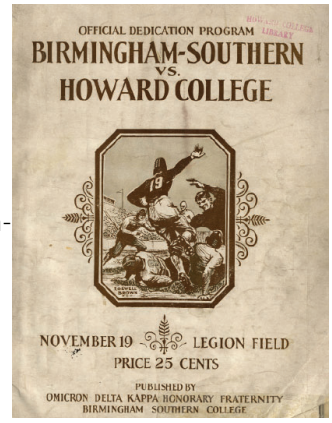
GAILEY, CHAN
Chan Gailey served as Samford's head coach in 1993. He later served stints as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys, Georgia Tech and the Buffalo Bills.

HALL OF FAME
Samford opened its Athletics Hall of Fame in the spring of 2017. The inaugural class consisted of Walter Barnes (basketball), Lauren Blankenship (cross country/track), Bobby Bowden (football), Wally Burnham (football), Cortland Finnegan (football) and Charlie Owens (tennis).

HAVANA, CUBA
On Nov. 28, 1927, Samford traveled to Havana, Cuba, to play the Havana National University. Samford won the game by a score of 20-6.

HOWARD COLLEGE
Samford was originally called Howard College. The name of the school was changed to Samford University in 1965.

LEGION FIELD
On Nov. 19, 1927, Samford (then Howard College) met Birmingham-Southern in the first game played at historic Legion Field. Samford defeated Birmingham-Southern, 9-0. Over the years, Samford posted a record of 34-17-3 in games played at Legion Field.



MEXICO CITY
In 1954 and 1963, Samford traveled to Mexico City to take on the National University of Mexico. The teams split the two games, with Mexico winning in 1954, 13-6, and Samford taking the 1963 meeting, 26-14.

NCAA DIVISION I-FCS PLAYOFFS
Samford's 1991 and 1992 teams reached the NCAA Division I FCS (then I-AA) Playoffs under Head Coach Terry Bowden. The 1991 team finished with a 12-2 record and reached the national semifinals. The 1992 team was 9-3 and reached the first round of the playoffs. The Bulldogs returned to the playoffs in 2013 after winning the program's first Southern Conference championship. The most recent FCS Playoff appearances came in 2016 and 2017, marking the first time Samford has reached back-to-back playoffs since 1991-92.

NICKNAME
The Howard College team was known originally as the "Baptist Tigers." However, rival Auburn also had "Tigers" as a nickname. Howard's teams went by "Baptist Bears" until Dec. 14, 1916, when the student body voted two-to-one for the "Crimson Bulldog" over the "Baptist Bears." Students decided that a bulldog could eat more Birmingham-Southern Panther meat than a bear could.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE
Samford was a member of the Ohio Valley Conference from 2003 to 2007. In its five years in the league, Samford earned a combined 13 team championships through all 17 sports.

RETURN OF FOOTBALL
Football returned to the Samford campus after a 10-year absence in 1984. Prior to the 1984 season, Samford had not fielded a football team since 1973.

SEIBERT STADIUM
Seibert Stadium, the current home of Samford football, opened in 1958. Samford has an all-time record of 166-78-4 in games played at Seibert Stadium. Bashinsky Press Tower was added in 1989, and in 2005, a new LSR Blade Synthetic Surface replaced the original natural grass field.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE
Samford played its first season in the Southern Conference in 2008. The conference is the fifth-oldest conference in the country. The league was created in 1921, and its charter members included Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. Along with Samford, the current football playing members are Chattanooga, The Citadel, East Tennessee State, Furman, Mercer, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford.

SULLIVAN, PAT
Pat Sullivan was named Samford's 35th head football coach on Dec. 1, 2006, and he served in that role through the 2014 season. Sullivan was named the 2012 Southern Conference Co-Coach of the Year. The 1971 Heisman Trophy winner at Auburn also led Samford to the 2013 SoCon title.

SULLIVAN-COONEY FAMILY FIELD HOUSE
Before the opening of the 2009 football season, Samford opened the Cooney Family Field House in the south end zone of Seibert Stadium. The field house was made possible with a lead gift from Birmingham business executive and Samford graduate Gary Cooney. In 2014, the facility was renamed the Sullivan-Cooney Family Field House to honor then-head coach Pat Sullivan and his family.

TARTT, JAQUISKI
Jaquiski Tartt became the highest NFL Draft pick in Samford history when he was taken in the second round of the 2015 Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Tartt played at Samford from 2011 to 2014 and he was a three-time All-American and All-SoCon selection. He became the first player in Samford history to be chosen to play in the prestigious Senior Bowl.

TIED TIDE
On Sept. 18, 1935, the Howard College football team traveled to Tuscaloosa to take on the University of Alabama Crimson Tide. The Bulldogs came away with a 7-7 tie with the Tide. A member of the Alabama team that day was a young Paul "Bear" Bryant. Samford's president, T. V. Neal, sent a telegram after the game to his wife that simply read "Tied Tide!"

WALTER PAYTON AWARD
In 2018, Samford quarterback Devlin Hodges became the first player in school history to win the Walter Payton Award, which goes to the top offensive player in all of FCS football. Hodges passed for 14,584 yards, breaking Steve McNair's career FCS record.

WHITE, COREY
Corey White was taken by the New Orleans Saints in the fifth round of the 2012 National Football League Draft. White played at Samford from 2008 to 2011. He was named first-team All-SoCon as a senior in 2011. In addition to the Saints, White also played for the Dallas Cowboys and Buffalo Bills.

WILLIAMS, NICK
Nick Williams was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft. Williams played at Samford from 2009 to 2012. He was named first team All-SoCon in 2012. Williams is currently a member of the Detroit Lions.

DEVLIN HODGES

2018 WALTER PAYTON AWARD WINNER

On Jan. 4, 2019, Samford quarterback Devlin Hodges was named the winner of the 2018 Walter Payton Award.

The Walter Payton Award is given annually to the top offensive player in all of FCS football. Hodges became the first Samford player to win the award. He edged out North Dakota State quarterback Easton Stick and Kennesaw State signal-caller Chandler Burks to win the prestigious honor.

Hodges was just the seventh player in Southern Conference history to win the Walter Payton Award. Hodges joined former SoCon standouts Michael Payton (Marshall, 1992), Adrian Peterson (Georgia Southern, 1999), Louis Ivory (Furman, 2000), Jayson Foster (Georgia Southern, 2007) and two-time winner Armanti Edwards (Appalachian State, 2008 and 2009) in the exclusive group.

Hodges set a school record for single-season passing yards, throwing for 4,283 yards during the 2018 season, breaking the old record of 4,088, set by Hodges in 2016. He led the nation in passing yards per game (389.4), total passing yards (4,283) and total offense per game (417.8).

For his career, Hodges became the all-time leader in career passing yards in FCS history. His 14,584 career passing yards broke the old FCS national record of 14,496, set by Steve McNair of Alcorn State from 1991-94. McNair earned the 1994 Walter Payton Award.

In addition to the FCS record for career passing yards, Hodges also set FCS records for career completions and attempts. Hodges has rewritten the Samford record book, as he will leave school owning 23 different school records.

NOTES

Homecoming, as a tradition, was started in 1919, the first full season after World War I. For the first 21 years, it was a dual homecoming with Birmingham-Southern played at Birmingham's biggest venues: Rickwood Field and Legion Field. This big event for the city attracted large crowds that still rank among Samford/Howard College's biggest. Many times in the early years, it was held on Thanksgiving Day. The 1927 game was the first game ever in Legion Field, a 9-0 Howard win. The dual homecoming tradition with Birmingham-Southern ended when Birmingham-Southern dropped football after the 1939 game.

The all-time homecoming record vs. Birmingham-Southern (homecoming games only) is 10-7-4, .571 (21 games).

There were no homecoming games during 1942–48 because of World War II and the lack of an officially recognized team.

The all-time Seibert Stadium homecoming record is 36-13-2, .730 (51 games).

The largest homecoming crowd, 17,000, attended the 1935 game at Legion Field, where Howard beat Birmingham-Southern, 7-0.

The largest Seibert Stadium homecoming crowd, 11,189, attended the 1994 game vs. Alcorn State, which ended in a 45-45 tie.

Samford scored the most points in a homecoming game in 72-10 victory over Maryville in 1987.

Samford gave up the most points in a homecoming game in a 63-13 loss to Dayton in 1985; it was also Samford's biggest margin of defeat in a homecoming game.

Samford has had two overtime homecoming games. The first was a 20-14 win over Wofford in 1996, and the second was a 17-14 win over Chattanooga in 2013.

The 1960 homecoming game with Mississippi College was the first game ever televised live at Seibert Stadium. The last homecoming televised live was the 2003 game against Tennessee State.

Samford had three nighttime homecoming games:
1957—a 33-20 win over Millsaps in a game played at the old Shades Valley High School Stadium (first year on the Lakeshore campus)
1961—a 20-14 win over Delta State
1963—a 6-0 win over Delta State
