COACHING STAFF

BUCKY MCMILLAN HEAD COACH

Bucky McMillan enters his fifth season as head coach of the Samford University Men's Basketball team. McMillan was named Samford's 29th head men's basketball coach April 6, 2020.

In just four seasons, McMillan has transformed the Samford program into one of the top programs in the prestigious Southern Conference. The 2023-24 season was the best in program history. The team set a school record with 29 wins, posting a 29-6 final record, marking the third-straight season of winning at least 20 games. The team won the Southern Conference regular-season title for a second-straight year with a 15-3 league mark, and the Bulldogs won the SoCon Tournament for the first time and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000. In the NCAA Tournament, the Bulldogs narrowly lost to perennial national power Kansas.

During the season, the Bulldogs went on a school-record 17-game win streak, and the team posted a perfect 18-0 record in the Pete Hanna Center. The Bulldogs ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, averaging 86.1 points per game. The team also ranked in the top 10 in the nation in three-point percentage (5th-39.5), turnovers forced per game (5th-16.66), bench points per game (6th-33.29), fastbreak points per game (7th-15.20), winning percentage (7th-82.9) and effective field goal percentage (8th-58.1).

Following the season, McMillan was named the SoCon Coach of the Year for a third-straight season. He was also named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 21 Coach of the Year. Individual player-wise, Achor Achor was named first team All-SoCon, and he was named the SoCon Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, Guard Rylan Jones was named the SoCon Newcomer of the Year, and he was joined on the third team All-SoCon team by A.J. Staton-McCray. Staton-McCray was also named to the SoCon's All-Defensive team. Achor was also named first team All-District by the NABC, while Jones earned second team honors.

In year three under McMillan, the Bulldogs earned their first Southern Conference Championship since joining the league in 2008 with a 15-3 conference record that earned them a share of the regular-season crown. For the first time in program history, the Bulldogs achieved 20 regular-season wins in consecutive seasons while also matching the 1998-99 team for most conference wins in a season. It marked just the fourth time in program history that the Bulldogs won 20 games in a regular season.

Following the 2022-23 season, McMillan earned SoCon Sports Media Association Anton Foy Coach of the Year for the second-straight year, while Logan Dye, Ques Glover, and Jermaine Marshall all garnered All-SoCon postseason accolades. Samford posted a record of 13-3 at home, including a mark of 8-1 in league play. The Bulldogs averaged 81.4 points per game and posted a +12.7 scoring margin in games played in the Pete Hanna Center. The Bulldogs opened up SoCon play 8-0, highlighted by nationally-televised home wins over Mercer (Dec. 28) and Chattanooga (Jan. 14) on ESPNU. The Bulldogs won seven of their last eight games of the regular season to finish tied with Furman at 15-3 in league play to earn the No. 2 seed in the SoCon Postseason Tournament.

Statistically, the Bulldogs made the second-most free throws per game (17.7) while averaging the fifth-most free throw attempts (23.6) in the nation. The Bulldogs ranked 28th in the nation in scoring offense (78.7 PPG) while ranking 20th in the country in bench points per game (26.53).

Year two under McMillan in 2021-22 served as one of the Bulldogs' most successful seasons in recent history. For the first time since the 1998-99 campaign, Samford men's hoops tallied 20 regular-season wins. McMillan's squad added 15 wins from the previous season, finishing 21-11. The Bulldogs posted a 10-8 mark in conference play, earning them the no. 3 seed in the SoCon Championship before eventually falling in the tournament semifinals.

McMillan was named the SoCon Sports Media Association Coach of the Year while sophomore guard Ques Glover earned All-SoCon First Team honors. Glover, who ranked third in the SoCon in scoring average (19.2 PPG) and second in assists per game (4.4) in 2021-22, was also named to the SoCon All-Tournament First Team and a finalist for the Lou Henson Award. The Bulldogs notched a pair of road wins at power-five opponents, knocking off Oregon State 78-77 on Nov. 18 and besting Ole Miss 75-73 on Dec. 21.

The Bulldogs drew two of their largest home attendances in recent years in 2021-22, totaling 2,876 attendees against Belmont on Dec. 5 and 2,512 against Furman on Feb. 23. McMillan was named a finalist for the Hugh Durham Award on March 23, an accolade awarded annually to the top Division I mid-major coach in college basketball.

In his first season at Samford, the Bulldogs started the season 5-3 before injuries and COVID-19 setbacks slowed their progress. When the final horn sounded on the season, Samford went 6-13 overall and 2-9 in SoCon play.

"BuckyBall" had an immediate impact on the program, averaging 76.8 points per game, ranking fourth overall in the prestigious Southern Conference. Samford scored a school record 133 points in a blowout win over Belhaven (133-84) on Dec. 21, 2020. In an early season exhibition, the Bulldogs defeated Greenville 174-99 in a game that drew national attention from Sports Illustrated, ESPN and Fox Sports.

Individually, freshman sensation A.J. Staton-McCray shined in coach McMillan's system. The 6-5 guard from Charlotte, N.C., was named to the 2020-21 Southern Conference All-Freshman Team after averaging 10.0 points, 4.5 rebounds and 1.7 steals per game. His 30 steals led the Bulldogs and ranked second in the SoCon. He also finished the year ranked 30th in the league in points per game.

CHAMPIONS

McMillan claimed his first collegiate victory on Dec. 1, 2020 versus Covenant College, 98-73, and his first SoCon win came against VMI, 84-71, on Dec. 30, 2020 in the Pete Hanna Center.

McMillan came to Samford after serving as the head coach at Mountain Brook High School for the past 12 seasons. McMillan has led the program to unprecedented success, reaching the state finals in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020, and the team won the title in the state's highest classification in 2013, 2014, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

In 2020, the Mountain Brook program was ranked 13th in the list of top 25 public high school basketball programs in the United States over the last decade. In 2018, the National High School Coaches Association named McMillan its National Coach of the Year after his team finished the season with a 34-3 record and ranked No. 17 in the USA Today national rankings. His 2019 team finished the year ranked No. 5 nationally by USA Today. McMillan's teams were ranked No. 1 in the AHSAA state rankings during each season from 2013 to 2020.

McMillan was named USA Today's Alabama Coach of the Year in 2019; Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA) Coach of the Year in 2013, 2014 and 2015; Birmingham Tip-Off Club State Coach of the Year in 2012, 2015 and 2019; and Over The Mountain Coach of the Year in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2018 and 2019. He was selected to coach the Alabama All-Stars in the 2019

Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Game. That same year, he was named one of the coaches of Michael Jordan's "Jordan Brand" All-Star Classic.

During his 12-year run in charge of the Spartans' program, McMillan won 333 games, averaging nearly 28 wins per season. After posting an 18-12 record in his first season as head coach, McMillan's teams won at least 23 games in each of the next 11 seasons.

In addition to his work at Mountain Brook High School, McMillan founded the Bucky Ball Academy, a youth camp to enhance and unify basketball in the Mountain Brook community. He also founded the Alabama Flyers program that provides off-season basketball opportunities for the community's youth.

McMillan played his college basketball at Birmingham-Southern College from 2002 to 2006, where he was named to the Big South Conference Academic Honor Roll all four seasons, and to the league's All-Academic team as a senior. He also earned the distinction of being named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches Honor's Court. McMillan earned his bachelor's degree in education services from Birmingham-Southern in 2007.

While a student at Mountain Brook High School from 1999 to 2002, McMillan received All-State honors from the Birmingham News in 2002 and was nominated for the McDonald's High School All-America team. The Birmingham News also named him to its All-State Athletic Academic team.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH MCMILLAN

"As a former high school coach myself I am excited for both Bucky and Samford University. Bucky is someone who has put his time in and climbed the ladder to earn this opportunity. I have only known him a short time but have seen first-hand that he has the unique ability to connect and motivate his players, the knowledge to evaluate and develop them and the drive and passion it takes to coach at a high level. I'm confident he will do some great things at Samford."

Nate Oats, University of Alabama Head Coach

"Bucky is an incredible leader of young men. He is fully committed to his players' overall development both on and off the court. Samford just got a lot better by hiring Bucky!"

Travis Steele, Miami of Ohio Head Coach

"Great hire for Samford University. Bucky has been ultra-successful as a head coach at Mountain Brook and every coach I know who's seen him work all agree he can coach at this level. Bucky will be a force on the recruiting trail as well, having been a part of so many successful teams and players at Mountain Brook. One of the biggest bright spots of this hire is the excitement Bucky will bring to the program, to Birmingham and to college basketball in Alabama. We were able to tap into that when I was at Samford and it helped bring about the success we enjoyed. It's just an excellent hire by Samford University and Martin Newton."

John Brady, Former Samford University and LSU Head Coach

"I was an assistant coach at UAB in the mid-90's when a young, tough, smart little point guard came to our camp and led his team. Bucky was a good player at BSC before embarking on an incredibly successful high school coaching career at his alma mater. I'm truly excited for him as he embarks on the tremendous opportunity provided to him by Samford University!! Can't wait to watch him do great things at that great university!!

Andy Kennedy, UAB Head Coach

"Bucky McMillan has proven himself over the last few years to be one of the finest young coaching minds and tacticians in basketball regardless of level. Without question, he demands a high level of execution, team work and togetherness. It's been very impressive to see how he develops young people into a cohesive and team-first culture. I think Samford fans will be very excited and energized by Bucky and his program's upside and energy as he builds forward."

Tom Crean, Former Marquette, Indiana and Georgia Head Coach

MITCH COLE ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Mitch Cole is in his fourth season as the associate head coach at Samford.

Cole was the head coach at Berry College for the previous three seasons. At Berry, Cole posted a record of 51-17. In the 2020-21 season, Cole led the Vikings to both the Southern Athletic Association (SAA) titles. Cole was named 2021 SAA Coach of the Year. The 2021 Vikings also finished the season ranked No. 11 in the last NCAA Division III poll.

Regular Season and Tournament

Cole came to Berry after serving two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. He spent the previous five seasons on the staff at Texas A&M and was formerly the head coach at Birmingham-Southern College.

In Cole's time at Texas A&M, the Aggies won 49 games over two seasons, including a program-record 28 in 2015-16. TAMU climbed as high as No. 5 in the AP Top 25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll, the highest ranking in school history.

Texas A&M went on to win the regular-season SEC Championship in 2015-16 to earn its first league title since 1986. The Aggies reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

Cole came to A&M after one of the most successful seasons in Birmingham-Southern men's basketball history, leading the Panthers to a 23-4 overall record in 2010-11 and winning the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) Championship with a 14-2 conference mark. The Panthers ended the season by winning the NCAA Division III Provisional Tournament Championship. Cole earned D3hoops.com South Region Coach of the Year honors at the conclusion of the year.

Taking over as BSC's 12th head men's basketball in 2006, Cole was tasked with rebuilding the program from scratch as a result of BSC's move from NCAA Division I to Division III. He quickly built the Panthers into a contender, achieving a 13-12 record with 15 freshmen in 2007-08. Two years later, the Panthers went 20-5 and won the SCAC East Division title. The teams went 43-9 in his last two seasons at BSC..

Cole spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach at BSC under then head coach Duane Reboul, prior to taking over as head coach of the Panthers. He was instrumental in the success of a program that amassed over 300 wins during his tenure at BSC.

A New Orleans, La., native, Cole graduated from Holy Cross High School in 1988. He played collegiately at Montana State University-Billings, where he double majored in history and education and graduated in 1992. Cole went on to earn his master's in education from Auburn while working as a graduate assistant with the basketball team.

Cole and his wife, Amy, have three children: daughter Laura Kate and sons Carson and Joshua.

NEB EXANTUS ASSISTANT COACH

Neb Exantus enters his fifth season at Samford and his fourth year as a full-time assistant coach.

Prior to being promoted to a full-time assistant coach, Exantus served on the coaching staff in a graduate assistant role for the Samford men's basketball team under Coach Bucky McMillan.

Prior to Samford, Exantus was an assistant coach at Southern New Hampshire University, (Alma Mater, 2017) where he was able to help produce one of SNHU's best recruiting classes with the direction of Former Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Jack Perri.

Before SNHU, Exantus was key in the development of close to 20 Division I players in his tenure at West Oaks Academy including standouts that went on to play in the Big 12 and SEC. Throughout his career, he's worked with countless professional athletes including Anfernee Simons and John Mooney through his training company, Nexlevel Basketball based out of New England. Exantus also works with the Haitian National Team during the summer.

Exantus is a 2017 graduate of Southern New Hampshire University.

DANNY YOUNG ASSISTANT COACH

Danny Young begins his third season as an assistant coach on the Samford men's basketball staff.

Young came to Samford after spending the last 19 seasons as the head coach at the University of Montevallo, following two seasons as the head coach at Salem International University. In his 19 seasons at Montevallo, Young posted a record of 372-209, and he has a mark of 433-220 in 21 seasons as a college head coach.

In Young's 21 seasons as a head coach, his teams have advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen 10 times. Four of those teams advanced to the Elite Eight while his 2011-12 squad advanced to the NCAA Division II championship game.

Young was named the Gulf South Conference East Division Coach of the Decade for 2000-2010.

Prior to UM, Young was Athletic Director and head men's basketball coach at Salem International University in Salem, West Virginia. He was associated with the Top-20 ranked SIU program for seven years and posted a 51-11 (.823) record in two seasons as head coach. He guided the Tigers to a No. 18 NCAA Division II final national ranking in 2003, but SIU made it as high as No. 4 earlier in the season and appeared in the Top Ten both of his seasons as head coach.

In his coaching tenure, Young has coached 11 All-Americans and seven Conference Player of the Year selections. Former UM standout Marcus Kennedy became the first player in Gulf South Conference history to be named Division Player of the Year twice in a four-year career under Young.

A native of Duncan, Arizona, and standout athlete in high school, Young earned Honorable Mention All-American honors and was also nominated to the McDonald's All-American Basketball Team. In college, Young was coached by former NBA player, Paul Westphal. He later earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Grand Canyon University in 1990.

LORENZO JENKINS ASSISTANT COACH

Lorenzo Jenkins enters his second season as an assistant coach on the Samford men's basketball team.

Jenkins came to Samford from New Mexico State where he was a special assistant to the head coach in 2022-23.

Prior to New Mexico State, Jenkins was at Northwest Florida State in Niceville, Fla., where he served in 2021-22 and helped lead the team to a Junior College national title.

From 2017-21, Jenkins coached at Potters House Christian Academy in Jacksonville, Fla. During his time at Potters House, 13 of his players signed with Division I schools, and they attained a top-25 ranking. The teams also qualified for the SIAA Playoffs in three of his four seasons.

Jenkins coached at I Family in Orlando, Fla., from 2016-22. He coached a McDonald's All-American and Jordan Brand Classic All-American, while also having 20 players sign with Division I schools.

From 2015-17, Jenkins worked in player development overseas in Szekesfehervar, Hungary (2015-16) and Santiago del Estro, Argentina (2016-17).

From 2010-15, he worked with Showtime Ballers in Orlando, Fla., including serving as the head coach from 2013-15. There, he had 20 players from his teams sign with Division I teams. Also with the Showtime Ballers, he coached a McDonald's All-American and Jordan Brand Classic All-American.

DAVID GOOD ASSISTANT COACH

David Good enters his fifth season at Samford and his second as an assistant coach.

In his first three seasons, Good served as Samford men's basketball's director of player development and scouting

Good came to Samford after serving as an assistant coach on McMillan's staff at Mountain Brook High School since 2015. He helped lead the Spartans to three 7A state titles (2019, 2018, 2017), one 7A runner-up (2020), and an overall record of 152-22. During his time at Mountain Brook, the Spartans eclipsed the 30-win mark four times including a 34-3 record in 2018 while ranking No. 17 in the USA Today national rankings and a 31-3 record in 2019 while ranking No. 5 in the USA Today national rankings.

Prior to his time at Mountain Brook, Good taught physical education and coached basketball at Thompson High School and Thompson Middle School from 2012-2015.

From 2007 to 2012, Good was a video coordinator at UAB where he assisted in four straight 20-win seasons, a CUSA Conference Championship in 2011, four post-season appearances (NCAA-2011; NIT-2010, 2009, 2008) and a 107-57 overall record. Good also served as a Graduate Assistant at Eastern Michigan University from 2005-2007.

Good began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Shepherd High School in Michigan from 2004 to 2005, helping lead the team to a 19-2 record and a conference title.

Good earned a Master of Science in Education from UAB (2012), Master of Science in Sports Management from Eastern Michigan University (2010) and a Bachelor of Science in Sports Studies from Central Michigan University (2004).

Good and his wife, Lucy, a Samford graduate, have two daughters, Addie Mae and Evie Kate.

DUANE REBOUL SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Basketball coaching legend Duane Reboul enters his fifth season on the Samford staff. He serves as a Special Assistant to the Head Coach.

Reboul was one of the top basketball coaches in the nation during his 17 seasons as the head coach at Birmingham-Southern, where he was current Samford head coach Bucky McMillan's head coach. He led his teams to two NAIA National Championships, three NAIA Final 4 appearances and four NAIA Elite Eight runs. He was named the 1995 National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Reboul earned Southern States Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1990, 1993 and 1995. He was named State of Alabama Coach of the Year in 1990 and 1997, and the TranSouth Conference Division Coach of the Year in 1998. He led the program through its transition from the NAIA to NCAA Division I, earning Big South Conference Coach of the Year honors in 2004 and 2006, and his 2004 team won the Big South Conference title.

In his time as the Panthers' head coach, Reboul won 402 games, averaging nearly 24 wins per season. His teams posted an impressive nine consecutive 20-win seasons.

Reboul began his coaching career as the head coach at his alma mater, De La Salle High School in New Orleans, leading the school to the 1976 state title. He then served six seasons as the head coach at Jesuit High School before moving to the college ranks as an assistant coach at New Orleans and Mississippi State before being hired as the head coach at BSC. He graduated from the University of New Orleans in 1972 after captaining the basketball team to a No. 1 small college national ranking.

WARREN FITZPATRICK CHIEF OF STAFF

Warren Fitzpatrick enters his first season as the program's chief of staff and his fourth on the staff overall. He spent two seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations and one as a graduate assistant.

Before his time working with the men's basketball program,

Fitzpatrick was a four-year letter winner for the Samford Men's Track and Field Team. He was a part of three SoCon Championship squads and holds the record for the fastest indoor and outdoor 1600M (4x400M) relay times.

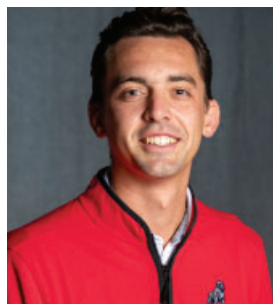

Fitzpatrick earned his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Samford in 2021, with a concentration in Sports Marketing.

An alumnus of Mountain Brook High School, Fitzpatrick played varsity basketball for Coach McMillan at Mountain Brook before his arrival at Samford.
