SAU HALL OF FAME

Listed below are the 13 former baseball players/coaches who have been inducted into the Spring Arbor University Athletics Hall of Fame.

NEIL BRALY (2006)

Neil Braly was a two-time NAIA All-Region and First Team All-State selection in 1972 and 1973. He was also named to the American Association of College Baseball Coaches All-American Team in 1973 as well as earning the Louisville Slugger Hitting Award.

HENRY H. BURBRIDGE (1996)

Hank Burbridge served as the head baseball coach at Spring Arbor University for 40 years, retiring in 2004. During that time, the Cougars won numerous titles including three trips to the NAIA National Championship. In addition, they made 20 trips to the National Christian College Athletic Association National Tournament, winning the title four times. During the 2004 campaign, Burbridge gained his 1,000th victory, giving him a career record of 1,003 wins and 519 losses, which made him the 40th coach to reach the milestone in intercollegiate baseball.

Among the numerous honors Burbridge has collected, he has been named to five Halls of Fame. In addition to the ABCA, he has been inducted into the Halls of Fame of Spring Arbor University, Greenville College, the NAIA, and the NCCAA. He was also the recipient of the prestigious ABCA/Wilson Lefty Gomez Award in 2006.

Burbridge's talents have also been showcased for the global baseball community. In 1991, he was selected as head coach of the North squad during the Olympic trials in Homestead, Florida. Burbridge also served as head coach for the USA College All-Star Team which represented the United States in the Presidential Cup games in Seoul, South Korea, in 1992, and was head coach of the NAIA All-Star Team to the Czech Republic in the summer of 2000.

Burbridge coached the American Samoan National Baseball Team, which claimed the Southern Division Championship of Oceania in 1999. Later that year, he led the American Samoan National Baseball Team to a silver medal in the South Pacific Games and a silver medal in the Oceania Championship, both in Guam.

In 1996, he was chosen as a Technical Committee member for the Olympic Games in Atlanta, Georgia, to oversee and administer the baseball competition. In 1995, he was chosen to represent USA Baseball and the International Baseball Association as a Technical Commission member to oversee the Oceania Tournament in Lismore, Australia, for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Burbridge served on the ABCA Executive Committee and the All-American Committee. As a member of the United States Baseball Board of Directors, he served on the Senior Team Prep Committee and the Ambassadors Committee. In addition, he was a member of the Interaction Committee, chairman of the National Rating Committee, and the Past President's Nominating Committee. He was also the baseball chairman of the Midwest Region of the NCCAA and served as past president of the NAIA Baseball Coaches Association, chairman of the National Tournament Committee, the All-American Committee, and the Hospitality Committee.

The NAIA recognized Burbridge as the National Coach of the Year in 2004 and the recipient of the Robert E. Smith Achievement Award in 2004, which honors those who have given of themselves in an unselfish manner to the promotion of NAIA baseball and have distinguished themselves in the sport. The NAIA also named an award in his honor – the Hank Burbridge Champion of Character Award.

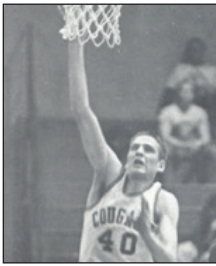

DARBY L. DECKER (1996)

Joining Coach Hank Burbridge in the inaugural SAU Athletics Hall of Fame class in 1996, Darby Decker was inducted for Athletics. He ranks among the program's all-time leaders in several categories, including single-season wins (13), ERA (0.80), strikeouts (119), innings pitched (109.0), career wins (30), ERA (1.96), strikeouts (259) and innings pitched (267.0).

Decker ('81) was named an NAIA All-American in 1979 and 1981 and helped lead the Cougars to NAIA and NCCAA District championships in 1981.

DAVID L. GARDELLA (2000)

Dave Gardella was a member of the Spring Arbor College baseball and basketball teams from 1986-89 and selected into the SAU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

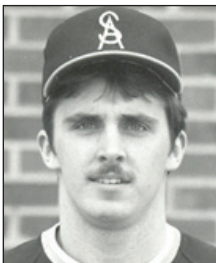

On the diamond, Gardella racked up numerous accolades. He was a two-time NAIA All-District selection, an NCCAA All-District performer, and was named the SAC Male Athlete of the Year in 1987-88. He ranks in the program's top-10 in career wins (30) and innings pitched (314.0).

ROLAND "ROCKY" KENT (2002)

Rocky Kent was inducted into the SAU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002 for Athletics. He was a member of the baseball and basketball teams from 1964-67. On the court, Kent was the first player in program history to score 2,000 points, averaging 20.1 points and 11.0 rebounds per game during his career.

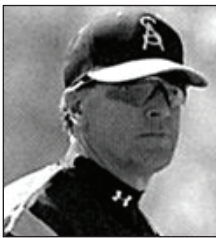

Kent was also an NAIA Honorable Mention All-American in baseball while also being named a two-time NAIA All-District selection in 1964 and again in 1967.

JAMIE PIPER (2012)

Jamie Piper was an NAIA Honorable Mention All-American in 1985-86. He was also named the NCCAA Tournament MVP in 1984 after leading the Cougars to the NCCAA Invitational Championship.

Piper was one of the most prolific hitters to come through the program. He ranks top-10 in the Spring Arbor record book in single-season batting average (.426), career batting average (.372), single-season slugging percentage (.731) and career slugging percentage (.665).

J. SAM RIGGLEMAN (1998)

In his four decades as a college baseball coach, Sam Riggleman became one of the most successful in NAIA history. Riggleman accumulated 1,023 career victories and became just the 19th NAIA head coach to reach 1,000 wins in 2015.

Riggleman ('73) took the reins of the Spring Arbor program in 2005 and guided his alma mater to a 377-212 (.640) record with three regular season conference championships, two conference tournament titles and five NAIA National Tournament appearances. Riggleman's squad was runner-up in the 2007 NAIA World Series. That season, Spring Arbor went 48-5, had a 36-game winning streak and Riggleman was honored as the NAIA Baseball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year for the second time.

The 2007 season began a historic three-year run for the Cougars' program as Riggleman directed the team to three consecutive NAIA national tournament appearances including back-to-back NAIA World Series appearances.

The long-time mentor has amassed a 1,023-661-2 record over four decades. Prior to his arrival at Spring Arbor, Riggleman served three seasons as the skipper at Dallas Baptist University where he led the Patriots to two appearances in the NAIA World Series, highlighted by a runner-up finish in 2000. He earned his first NAIA Baseball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year that season.

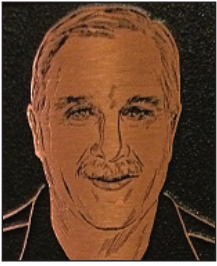

Riggleman spent five seasons at Bethel College before making the move to Dallas Baptist. While at Bethel, Riggleman's squad made the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) national tournament multiple times. He also had a seven-year stint at Southern Illinois University from 1988-94, which included an NCAA Tournament appearance. He started as the pitching coach at SIU before taking over the role of head coach for his final four years. After getting his start in coaching at John Wesley College, Riggleman spent nine seasons as the head coach at Mount Vernon Nazarene University.

Widely recognized for his leadership characteristics on and off the field, Riggleman has been selected into four Halls of Fame, including the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Hall of Fame in 2016. He is also a member of the Spring Arbor University Athletics Hall of Fame (1998), the NCCAA Hall of Fame (2007) and the NAIA Hall of Fame (2009).

Riggleman was recipient of the ABCA Ethics in Coaching Award at the 2011 ABCA Convention in Nashville. He joined longtime SAU skipper and former mentor, Hank Burbridge, who was a 2003 inductee in the ABCA Hall of Fame. Riggleman served as an assistant under Burbridge for two seasons prior to taking over as head coach at Spring Arbor.

SAU HALL OF FAME

DONALD ROTH (2010)

Don Roth was an NAIA All-State performer for Spring Arbor during the 1964 and 1965 seasons. He was also awarded NAIA MVP State of Michigan and NAIA Honorable Mention All-American honors in 1965.

Roth would go on to be drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 8th round of the 1965 Major League Baseball Draft.

SCOTT SALOW (2006)

Scott Salow, a four-year member of the program from 1988-91, was inducted into the SAU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006 for Coaching.

Salow has been the head coach at Homer High School (MI) since 2000, and has led the Trojans to unprecedented success with a pair of state championships in 2004 and 2006. Homer set a nation-wide record with 75 consecutive wins from 2004-05.

Salow is a two-time MHSAA Coach of the Year, a two-time Michigan Baseball Coach of the Year, and was honored as the National High School Coaches Association Coach of the Year in 2005.

FRED R. WHIMS (1996)

Fred Whims was a member of the inaugural SAU Athletics Hall of Fame class in 1996. Whims ('57) was a four-sport athlete at Spring Arbor participating in baseball, basketball, cross country and track & field.

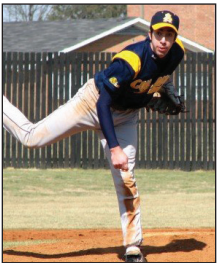

ALVIN WHITED (2008)

Alvin Whited was inducted into the SAU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008 for Athletics. Whited was a member of the Spring Arbor Junior College baseball and basketball teams from 1949-51.

1964 BASEBALL TEAM (2004)

The 1964 campaign was the first season of Spring Arbor College/University baseball. Under head coach Bob Briner, Spring Arbor posted an 18-8 record.

JESSE BACHMAN (2019)

Jesse Bachman was a four-year starter from 2006-09. Over those four seasons, he helped lead the Cougars to a 153-51 record, three conference championships, a NAIA national championship final appearance and a NAIA national championship semifinal appearance.

Bachman earned numerous individual accolades as well. In 2007 after guiding SAU to an incredible 48-5 record and a national runner-up finish at the NAIA World Series, he was named a First Team NAIA All-American, the NAIA Region 8 Player of the Year, and the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Player of the Year. He was also a two-time Mid-Central College Conference Player of the Year and a four-time All-League selection.

Bachman's name litters the program record book. On the mound, he held a career record of 35-10 with a 2.38 earned run average. His 35 victories rank third all-time at SAU while also ranking third in career strikeouts (300) and innings pitched (332.2), and he is tied for first in career shutouts (6). On the offensive side, Bachman holds program career top-10 marks in at-bats (604), hits (223), and stolen bases (63).
