QUICK FACTS

JASON ANDERSON

HEAD SOFTBALL COACH
2ND SEASON AT SAU
ARKANSAS TECH (2001)

Jason Anderson enters into his second season as the head coach of the Southern Arkansas softball program.

In his first year as the head coach at SAU, Anderson would win 26 games while also leading the Lady Muleriders to their fourth-straight GAC Tournament berth.

Last season, Anderson's Lady Muleriders tied or set seven single-game or single-season team records including Highest Batting Average in a Season (.313 | 438-for-1401), Highest Slugging Percentage in a Season (.495), and Highest On-Base Percentage in a Season (.405).

Additionally, his 2015 squad would set or tie six individual single-game or single-season records. Of those six individual marks, 2015 all-region second-team slugger Maddie Dow laid claim to five, including Most Homeruns in a Game (3) and Highest On-Base Percentage (.548).

A proven winner in his seven previous seasons as a head coach before coming to SAU, Anderson, a native of Sheridan, Ark. has amassed an outstanding career coaching record of 333-97 (.774).

The first 226 of those career wins came during a five-year stint at Central Baptist College (Conway, Ark.).

In those five seasons at CBC, Anderson lost only 38 games against his 226 wins as he compiled an eye-popping .856 winning percentage with the Mustangs. In each of his first three seasons at CBC, Anderson guided the Mustangs to a berth in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) National Tournament.

A five-time NCCAA Regional Coach of the Year, Anderson's 2010 CBC team would go a remarkable 52-1 (.981) en route to a NCCAA National Championship. Anderson would later be named the NCCAA National Coach of the Year that season.

In the two seasons following the 2010 national championship, Anderson's Mustangs would win 50+ games twice as they advanced to the NAIA National Tournament in 2011 and 2012. In each of those seasons, the Mustangs would end the season nationally-ranked in the top-five.

Following the 2012 season, Anderson left CBC and moved to the coaching ranks of NCAA Division II as he became the head coach at the University of North Alabama (Florence, Ala.). In his lone season at UNA, Anderson led North Alabama to one of the best seasons in school history. That year, the Lions put together a 40-20 record and were ranked as high as No. 10 nationally in the NCAA Division II polls (NFCA).

Anderson's UNA team in 2013 would set new single-season school records for wins (40), hits (572), RBIs (330), doubles (108), team batting average (.338) and games played (60), while qualifying for only the second NCAA Regional in UNA history.

A total of five players were named to the All-Gulf South Conference team at the end of the year, three of which also landed on the

QUICK FACTS

All-South Region squad.

After that one year at North Alabama, Anderson moved to the coaching ranks in the Great American Conference (GAC) as he was named head coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State University (Alva, Okla.).

While at NWOSU, Anderson would take a team that had not had a winning season since 2008 and turn them into a 41-15 club. Picked to finish ninth in the preseason GAC coaches' poll, Anderson would have his team end up second in the GAC regular season standings after his Rangers' club finished in a tie in the loss column, but one game back in the win column to regular season champs, Southeastern Oklahoma.

Statistically, Anderson's 2014 Rangers would set numerous records including the school record for wins (41) and winning percentage (.732). Offensively, his team would set new school single-season marks in batting average (.325), slugging percentage (.535), runs scored (351), hits (516), doubles (92), homeruns (79), RBIs (322), total bases (853), and walks (174).

Along with the team records set, Anderson would coach four players who would go on to set or tie 12 single-season individual records.

In his career, Anderson has coached the National Pitcher of the Year (2011, 2010), the National Player of the Year (2011), 14 All-Americans, 30 All-Conference honorees, and five All-Region players.

Anderson is married to the former Renee Byford and the couple has two children, Addison and Kyler.
