RISING

THIS IS RUTGERS.

Coming off a historic 2012 season, the Scarlet Knights enter 2013 looking for their second consecutive conference championship. Along with the upcoming realignment to the Big Ten in 2014, and a second consecutive top-ranked conference recruiting class, Rutgers football is RISING.

TRADITION

November 6, 1869; Rutgers hosted Princeton in the first college football game making Rutgers The Birthplace of College Football. The Scarlet Knights ultimately prevailed over their in-state rival with a 6-4 victory.

THE SCARLET WALK

The team takes the Scarlet Walk prior to every home game. Fans line the walkway as the team touches the base of the statue commemorating the first college football game.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

RUTGERS V. PRINCETON 1869

A+ ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

CHAMPIONS OF THE CLASSROOM

Rutgers football continues its established trend as one of the nation's top programs both on the field and in the classroom. The Scarlet Knights have been ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for six consecutive years.

BOWL SUCCESS

CHAMPIONS OF THE GRIDIRON

Bowl championships have become a part of the tradition at Rutgers with seven bowl trips over the last eight seasons. The most recent victory came at the 2011 New Era PinStripe Bowl over Iowa State. Playing in the postseason has brought an elevated level of excellence 'On the Banks'.

WHERE DREAMS BEGIN

Rutgers football has become one of the elite programs in the nation in developing players for the NFL. Since 2001, more than 60 Scarlet Knights have signed NFL contracts, including All-Pro Ray Rice along with first round draft picks Kenny Britt, Anthony Davis and Devin McCourty.

THE BIG GAME

Rutgers has also been well represented in the Super Bowl, with at least one Scarlet Knight suiting up in the big game in seven of the last nine seasons. Ray Rice and Alex Silvestro of the Super Bowl XLVII Champion Baltimore Ravens became the eighth and ninth Scarlet Knights to win a ring.

DRAFT PICKS

THE 2013 DRAFT

Continuing their NFL success, the Scarlet Knights had a school record seven players drafted in the 2013 NFL Draft, more than any other American Athletic or Big Ten school. Logan Ryan was one of three Knights drafted by the New England Patriots along with Duron Harmon and Steve Beauharnais. D.C. Jefferson was selected by the Arizona Cardinals, Jawan Jamison by the Washington Redskins and Marcus Cooper by the San Francisco 49ers rounded out the historic draft.

HIGH POINT SOLUTIONS STADIUM

HOME OF THE RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS

PACK THE POINT

High Point Solutions Stadium is the home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights and is located on-campus in Piscataway. Packed, loud, and 52,454 proud; The Point is the site for the ultimate college game day experience.

A wide-angle photograph of the interior of The Hale Center, a large indoor sports facility. The floor is covered in artificial green turf with white yard lines and a large red number '5' in the foreground. The ceiling is high with long, parallel fluorescent light fixtures. On the left and right sides, there are walls with large posters of Rutgers football players and equipment racks. In the background, more equipment and a sign that says 'RUTGER' are visible.

THE HALE CENTER

THE FINEST FACILITIES

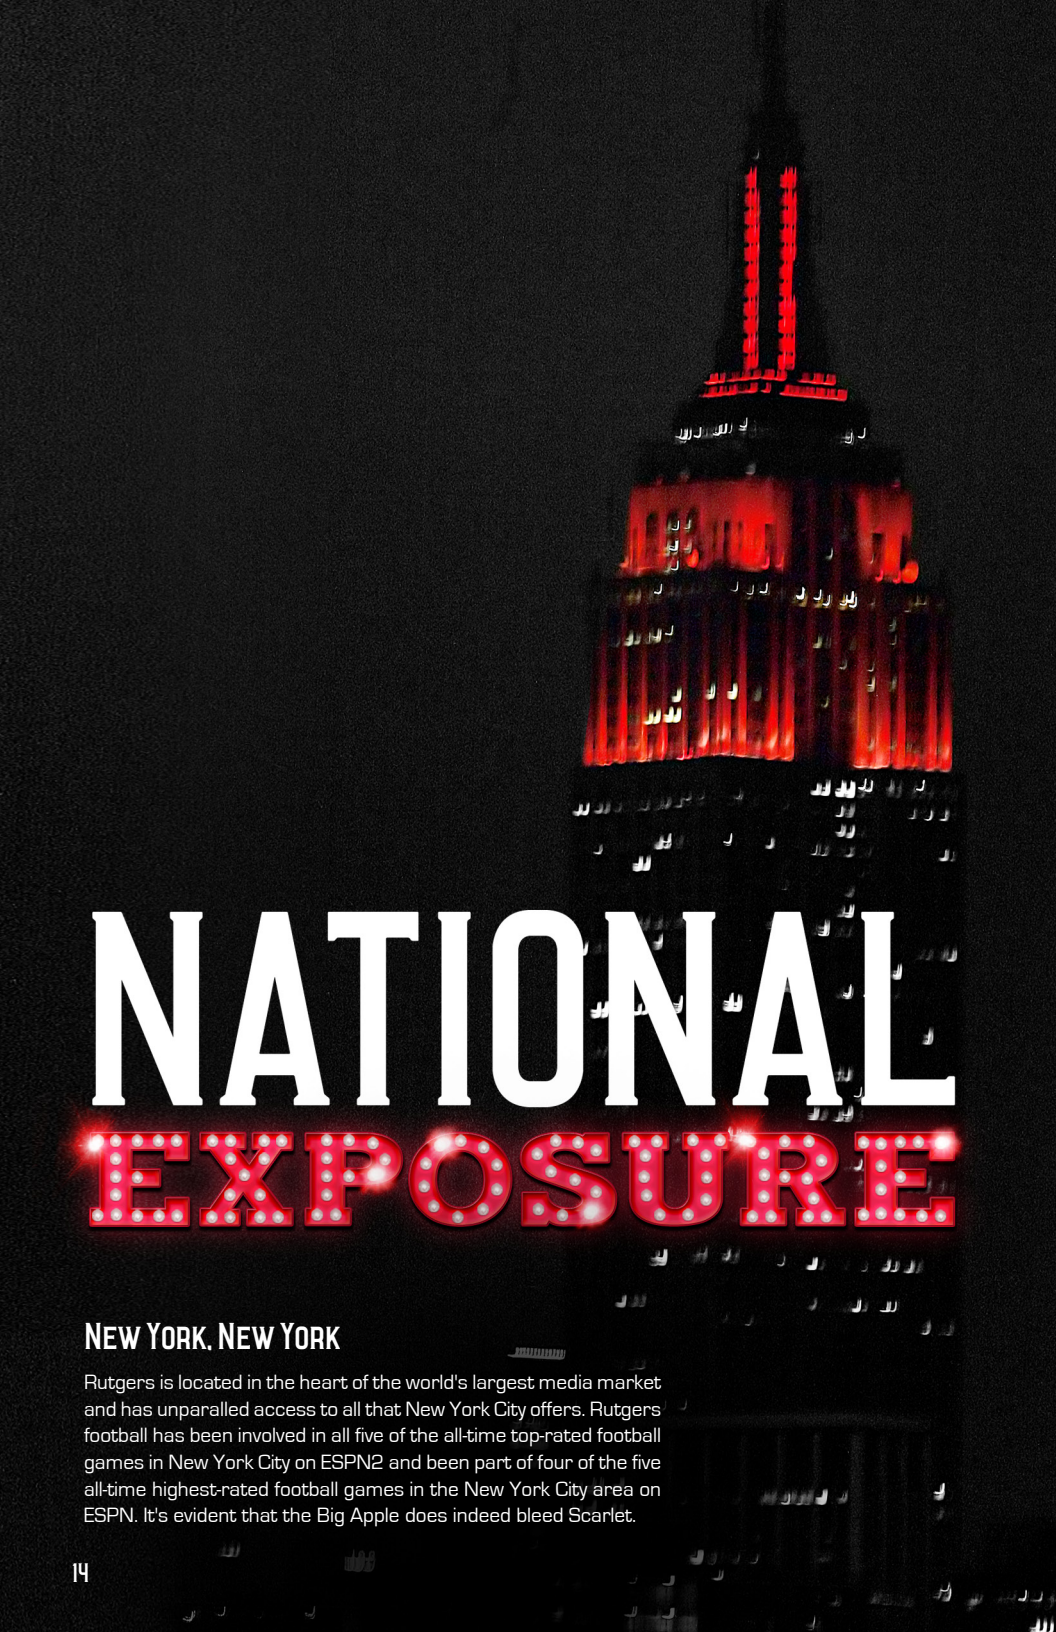

The Hale Center is the top football complex in the nation, featuring the best strength and training facilities in the country, state-of-the-art meeting rooms, a player lounge with all the latest technological advances and an in-house academic support center.

ACTS OF CHIVALRY

Each year, members of the Rutgers football program take time to give back to the community. From visiting local hospitals to raising funds and awareness for Hurricane Sandy victims with their Jersey Strong campaign, the student-athletes and coaches are focused on giving back wherever they are needed.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Rutgers is located in the heart of the world's largest media market and has unparalleled access to all that New York City offers. Rutgers football has been involved in all five of the all-time top-rated football games in New York City on ESPN2 and been part of four of the five all-time highest-rated football games in the New York City area on ESPN. It's evident that the Big Apple does indeed bleed Scarlet.

KYLE FLOOD

29TH RUTGERS FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

Flood was named the 29th head coach at the Birthplace of College Football on January 31, 2012.

Eight players garnered All-BIG EAST honors as the Scarlet Knights tied a school-record with a 5-2 league record. Khaseem Greene became the second player in league history to be named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year for two consecutive seasons. Greene also became the fourth player in school history to be named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation All-America team, joining former RU standouts Ray Rice, Marco Battaglia and Anthony Davis on the prestigious list. Greene and cornerback Logan Ryan both earned various All-America accolades after the 2012 campaign.

Following the championship 2012 season, a school-record seven players were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft. In addition, five players also signed NFL free agent contracts as a total of 14 players from the 2012 squad joined professional football ranks.

While being part of a program producing victories at a rate unprecedented in Rutgers' history, Flood has understood the value of academics for the Scarlet Knights. The Rutgers football program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for the sixth consecutive year in June.

In addition, Rutgers was the only institution to win four bowl games while earning the APR honor in the top 10 percent over the previous six-year span. The latest APR figure coincides with the best football team grade point average since 2000.

Rutgers finished the spring semester with a 2.98 team GPA as 21 players made the Dean's List with a GPA of 3.5 or higher.

Off the field, Flood has made an impact in community service. He has served the past two years as the honorary coach of the New Jersey Special Olympics, serves on the honorary board of directors for Lauren's First and Goal Foundation and has taken an active role with volunteering with Embrace Kids Foundation.

Flood was one of 17 people honored by the White House among Hurricane Sandy "Champions of Change," earning the nod for Rutgers' relief efforts after the deadly fall storm hit the Northeast region. The Rutgers football program under Flood's leadership has helped raise over $175,000 for the New Jersey Hurricane Sandy Relief Fund.

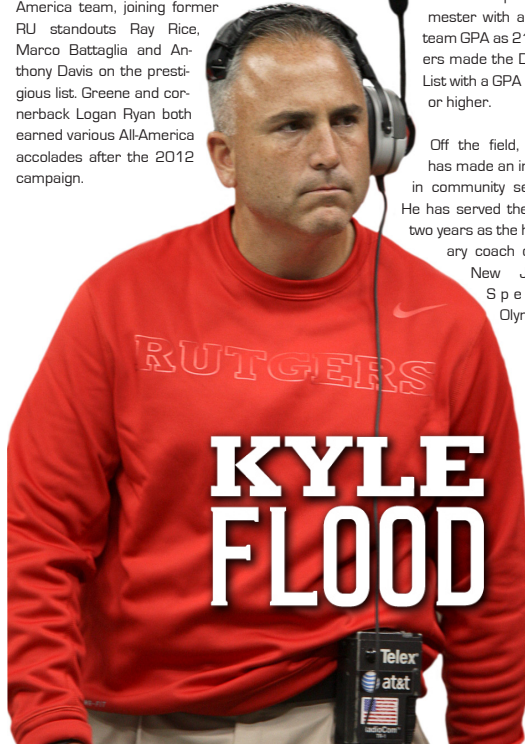

The Rutgers football team helped after Hurricane Sandy in several ways, including selecting 22 kids affected by Hurricane Sandy to play a flag football game in the final five minutes of the Scarlet-White spring football game, asking game attendees to make a $5 donation and working to remind everyone that there is still a lot to do before the state fully recovers from Hurricane Sandy.

The Champions of Change program gave the White House a chance to honor groups of people doing great work in their communities.

One constant on any coaching staff with Flood is how successful those teams have fared. In 16 of Flood's 17 seasons as an assistant coach, his teams finished with winning records, including earning a National Championship at Delaware.

A highly respected figure in the coaching profession, Flood has served as the assistant head coach of the program since 2008 and has been a key part in Rutgers' six bowl appearances over his seven-year tenure as an assistant in Piscataway. In addition to his four years as the assistant head coach, Flood has been in charge of the offensive line since coming to RU in 2005.

During his time 'On the Banks', the Rutgers offensive line has consistently produced top-level talent, including several of which who have gone on to the National Football League. Most recently, Anthony Davis became the highest player ever drafted in Rutgers history as the 11th overall pick of the the San Francisco 49ers at right tackle and helped guide the 49ers to the Super Bowl in 2013.

In 2011, Flood helped tutor true freshman right tackle Kaleb Johnson into one of the nation's premier rookie offensive linemen, earning Freshman All-America honors. In addition, senior offensive guard Art Forst collected All-BIG EAST First Team honors while senior offensive guard Desmond Wynn was named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team. Wynn was signed as a free agent by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2012 NFL Draft.

Since arriving at Rutgers, Flood has coached 10 All-BIG EAST First or Second Team selections on the offensive line, one All-American and two Freshman All-America honorees.

Flood has helped engineer some of the most potent offenses in Rutgers history – evident in a record-breaking 2007 season. The Scarlet Knights' offensive line ranked second in the nation with just 10 sacks allowed in addition to an RU offense that became the first in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer, 2,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

The Rutgers offense was ranked 18th nationally in total offense in 2007. The offensive line featured two of the top tackles in the nation in Pedro Sosa and Jeremy Zuttah. Both players earned All-BIG EAST honors and were also invited to the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, with Zuttah becoming a third round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Flood added run game coordinator to his duties in 2007 and his offensive line helped pave the way for All-American running back Ray Rice, who rushed for a school and then-BIG EAST record 2,012 yards that season. Rice went on to become one of the most-recognizable faces in the NFL en route to consecutive Pro Bowl appearances in 2010 and 2011.

In 2006, Flood coached an offensive line that helped Rutgers to one of its most productive seasons, as the group relinquished the fewest sacks in the nation with just eight. His unit was regarded as one of the best in the country and featured Cameron Stephenson and Darnell Stapleton, both who played in the NFL. Flood's corps of hard-nosed blockers helped guide Rice to an All-America season, as he finished second in the nation with 1,794 yards.

Flood came to Rutgers after three seasons at the University of Delaware, where he helped the Blue Hens to a 30-11 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2003 en route to the NCAA FCS National Championship and a share of the Atlantic 10 title in 2004. He also served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator during his stint.

Prior to his three seasons at Delaware, Flood was offensive line coach at Hofstra from 1997-2001. While at Hofstra, he helped the Pride earn berths in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 1997 and 1999-2001. The Pride were among the top offensive teams in the nation during his tenure, ranking second in total offense, fourth in passing and fifth in scoring in 2001.

Flood, a 1993 graduate of Iona College, was a four-year letterwinner for the Gaels. A high school teammate of former Rutgers All-American tight end Marco Battaglia at St. Francis Prep High School in Queens, N.Y., Flood earned First Team All-Liberty Conference honors in 1991 and served as team captain of the Gaels in 1992.

Flood's first college coaching position came in 1995-96 as offensive line coach at Long Island University-C.W. Post. While coaching at C.W. Post, he helped the team to the ECAC Division II Eastern title in 1996. Flood began his coaching career at St. Francis Prep in 1993, as both offensive and defensive line coach in 1993-94.

Flood and his wife, Amy, are the proud parents of three children, Kyle, Isabella and Joseph.

1988-90 - Albany (linebackers/strength coach)

PLAYING CAREER

Two-year starter at defensive tackle and earned academic all-region honors as a senior at C.W. Post.

DAVE COHEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Dave Cohen is in his second year at Rutgers and first as the defensive coordinator. He also coaches the linebackers.

In his first season at Rutgers working with the linebacker unit, Cohen helped coach one of the best defensive units in the country. The Scarlet Knights finished fourth in the nation in scoring defense (14.15 points allowed/game), tied for ninth in turnovers gained (32) and 10th in total defense (311.62 yards allowed/game). Linebacker Khaseem Greene earned BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and All-America status after recording 136 tackles and six forced fumbles on the year.

Greene became just the second player in BIG EAST history to be named Defensive Player of the Year twice. He was a fourth round NFL Draft selection of the Chicago Bears while fellow starting linebacker Steve Beauharnais was a seventh round NFL Draft pick of the New England Patriots. Both linebackers were part of a stout Rutgers run defense that ranked sixth nationally allowing just 97.2 rushing yards per game. The 2012 squad was just the third team in school history to yield less than 100 yards rushing per game on the ground. In addition, Rutgers limited the opposition to just six rushing touchdowns in all of 2012 - tied for the third-fewest rushing scores allowed nationally. Cohen's linebacker unit was nationally known as one of the top position groups in 2012 as Greene, Beauharnais and Jamal Merrell combined for 302 tackles.

Prior to RU, Cohen spent two successful seasons as the defensive coordinator at Western Michigan. In 2011, his unit was 10th nationally in turnovers gained (31), sixth in red zone defense and first in the nation in fourth down defense. Three players earned All-MAC honors, with Drew Nowak being named an All-American.

Cohen was the head coach at Hofstra from 2006-09 before the university decided to drop the program. In 2007, the Pride recorded the second-most improved record in the FCS, going from 2-9 in 2006 to 7-4. For his efforts, Cohen was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which is presented annually to the top FCS coach in the country.

Cohen served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Delaware from 2002-05, coaching on the same staff as Flood. The Blue Hens won the 2003 National Championship at the FCS level, posting the first shut-out in championship game history with a 40-0 win over previously unbeaten Colgate.

Born in Huntington, N.Y., Cohen was a three-time league champion, all-county and All-Long Island selection at Com-mack North High School. A 1988 business management graduate of Long Island University-C.W. Post, Cohen earned his master's degree in education administration from SUNY-Albany in 1990. While at C.W. Post, he was a two-year starter at defensive tackle and earned CoSIDA Academic All-Region honors as a senior.

Cohen, 46, and his wife Denise have two sons: Charlie and Brian.

PLAYING CAREER

Played offensive line at Dodge City Community College (1988-89) before transferring to Appalachian State (1990-91).

RON PRINCE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ron Prince is in his first season as offensive coordinator for the Scarlet Knights. Prince worked as assistant offensive line coach last season for the Jacksonville Jaguars, holding the same title with the Indianapolis Colts in 2010 and 2011. In winning the AFC South in 2010, Prince assisted with a line that helped the team gain over 5,000-plus net yards. The offensive line tied for the NFL-low with 16 sacks in 695 pass attempts.

He last served as an offensive coordinator at Virginia from 2003-05 after working as the offensive line coach in Charlottesville for the two seasons prior. During Prince's time at UVA, 11 Cavaliers earned All-ACC honors, including the league's 2002 Player of the Year, Matt Schaub, and first-team All-Americans Elton Brown, D'Brickashaw Ferguson and Heath Miller. Overall, he helped develop nine offensive players into NFL draft selections. UVA won 37 games during that stretch and appeared in four bowl games, with the 2004 squad leading the ACC in rushing and total offense.

Prince was then hired for his first head coaching job at Kansas State in 2006. He became the first coach in Wildcats' history to lead his team to a bowl game in year one and also recorded the second-most wins (12) by a coach in school history after the first two years on the job. He saw 19 of his players earn All-Big 12 honors over three years, directed Kansas State to its first-ever road win over a top-10 team (41-21 at Texas in 2007) and coached the team's first-ever offensive consensus All-American (WR Jordy Nelson). He had players earn Academic Big 12 honors 21 times over three seasons.

During his time in Manhattan, Prince helped develop quarterback Josh Freeman into a first-round NFL draft pick with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Freeman was the first K-State quarterback selected in the first round of the NFL draft and just the fifth Wildcat overall to be a first round pick. He left as the school's all-time leader in passing yards (8,078), touchdown passes

(44) and completions in just three years before entering the NFL Draft.

Every starting quarterback Prince has had as an offensive coordinator or head coach has made it to the NFL (Matt Schaub, Marques Hagans, Josh Freeman). In addition, in nine years between Kansas State and Virginia, Prince has been part of three teams that totaled more than 5,000 yards of total offense in a single-season.

Prince began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Dodge City Community College in 1992 and also spent time as an assistant at Alabama A&M (1993), South Carolina State (1994), James Madison (1995-97) and Cornell (1998-2000). He served minority-coaching internships with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1996 under head coach Tom Coughlin), Washington Redskins (1997), Atlanta Falcons (1998) and the New York Giants (2000).

Born in Omaha, Neb., Prince, 43, played collegiately at Dodge City Community College (1988-89) and Appalachian State (1990-91). He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Appalachian State in 1992.

PLAYING CAREER

Four-year starter and three-time all-conference performer at Allegheny College, serving as team captain in 2000.

JOE ROSSI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Joe Rossi enters his second season as special teams coordinator at Rutgers. Rossi continued Rutgers dominance nationally in blocked kicks as the Scarlet Knights have led the nation in block kicks with 31 since 2009.

In 2012, the Scarlet Knights put together a strong special team unit, ranking first in the nation with blocked eight kicks, ninth in kickoff return yardage defense (18.09) and 34th in kickoff return average (23.21). He also assisted with the fourth-ranked scoring defense (14.2 points per game) in the nation.

Under Rossi's tutelage, kick returner Jeremy Deering ranked third in the BIG EAST and among the national leaders in kickoff returns in 2012. Rossi also oversaw the development of two first-year place-kickers in true freshman Kyle Federico and redshirt freshman Nick Borgese, who combined for 11 made field goals last season.

Rossi came to Rutgers after working along side former RU defensive coordinator Robb Smith at Maine (2007-08). Rossi, who coached at Maine from 2007-11, was promoted to defensive coordinator following Smith's departure to Rutgers after the 2008 season.

Maine annually had one of the top defensive units in the Football Championship Subdivision under Rossi's watch. In 2011, the Black Bears ranked 26th nationally in sacks, 31st in pass defense and 25th in pass efficiency defense.

In 2010, Rossi helped develop the Maine linebackers and secondary into two of the best positional units in the CAA. Linebacker Donte Dennis collected All-CAA honors for the second straight year and ranked sixth in the conference with 108 tackles.

In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2009, Rossi's unit totaled 19 interceptions (second in the CAA), led by All-CAA defensive back Steven Baker.

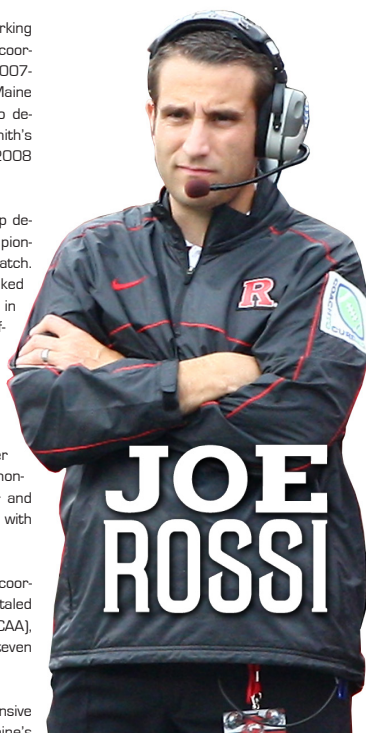

Prior to his promotion as defensive coordinator, Rossi directed Maine's special teams in 2007 and 2008. During those two seasons, the Black Bears totaled 16 kickoff returns of 30 yards or more. In 2007, punter Kash Kiefer set a school record with an 82-yard punt at Villanova.

Before arriving at Maine, Rossi coached six seasons at Thiel College in Greenville, Pa., including the final four years as defensive coordinator. In 2006, Thiel led the President's Athletic Conference in scoring defense, total defense, rush defense and pass defense.

In 2005, he was instrumental in leading Thiel to the PAC championship, as the squad made an appearance in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Rossi and his wife Lynsey reside in Bound Brook.

NORRIES WILSON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

Norries Wilson was named running backs coach for Rutgers football in March 2012 and was elevated to assistant head coach/running backs coach in February 2013.

In his first season "On the Banks", Wilson played a crucial role in the development on Rutgers' young running backs. Wilson helped sophomore back Jawan Jamison have one of the most successful seasons in school history as the ball carrier became just the seventh player in program history to record 1,000 yards in a season and the third since 1976 enroute to Second Team All-BIG EAST honors. Following his 1,000-yard season, Jamison was a seventh round NFL Draft pick of the Washington Redskins.

Under Wilson's guidance, both Jamison and sophomore running back Savon Hugins recorded 41 rushing attempts in single games in 2012, a school record. Jamison became the first Rutgers running back since Ray Rice to post six-straight 100-yard rushing games and was just the third player in the program's history to rush for 100 yards in six-consecutive games.

One of the top assistant coaches in the nation while at the University of Connecticut, Wilson became Columbia's 18th head coach in December 2005. Wilson's student-athletes earned 33 All-Ivy League honors since 2006, including two Rookies of the Year and 12 first team selections. Columbia had a total of eight student-athletes named All-Ivy League in football, the second most in school history.

In 2009, Wilson led Columbia to a fourth-place finish in the Ivy League, the Lions' best league finish in six years. Columbia also posted its most wins in six years as eight players earned All-Ivy honors.

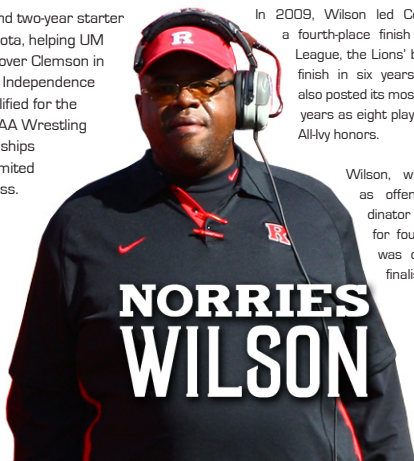

Wilson, who served as offensive coordinator at UConn for four seasons, was one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2004, a season in which the Huskies led the Big East in both total and scoring offense. In 2003, he guided UConn's offense that posted 477.5 yards per game, which ranked eighth in the nation. In 2002, Wilson was promoted to the Huskies' offensive coordinator after joining the UConn staff in 1999 as offensive line coach. He continued to work specifically with the Huskies' centers and guards.

Before UConn, Wilson spent four seasons at Bucknell. He was the Bison's offensive line coach in 1995 and 1996 before a promotion to offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998. He was also defensive coordinator at Livingstone College (1993), offensive line/tight ends coach at North Carolina Central (1991-92) and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota (1989-90).

Wilson was a captain and two-year starter for the Gophers. In 1985, the team defeated Clemson to win the Independence Bowl and competed in the Liberty Bowl vs. Tennessee the following year. He was a three-year letterwinner in football, and earned two letters and qualified for the NCAA Championships as a heavyweight in wrestling. He graduated from Minnesota in 1989 with a degree in psychology.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Wilson has served minority coaching fellowships in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs (1992), Jacksonville Jaguars (1995) under two-time Super Bowl champion head coach Tom Coughlin and the Indianapolis Colts (2000).

JEREMY COLE

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jeremy Cole is in his second season as Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach with Rutgers football after helping the program win its first BIG EAST title in 2012. He previously served as a strength and conditioning assistant for the Scarlet Knights since 2008.

Cole was a key part in seven Scarlet Knights who were drafted in the 2013 NFL Draft while another five players from the 2012 BIG EAST Championship squad signed NFL free agent contracts. Cole directs all aspects of the football team's in-season and offseason training in addition to numerous other responsibilities.

Cole served as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the University of North Carolina during the 2007 season. Primarily focusing on the Tar Heel football team, Cole helped train a UNC squad that scored conference wins over Miami (Fla.), Maryland and Duke.

Prior to his stint with the Tar Heels, Cole spent one season at the University of Kansas as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Jayhawk football team. The 2006 KU team reached six victories for only the third time in its prior 11 seasons, including a 39-20 rout of conference rival Kansas State.

Cole began as a personal trainer in the professional ranks, working for the National Football League's Indianapolis Colts from 2005-06.

A four-year letterwinner at Findlay, he played safety for the Oilers. Cole was an all-conference selection, team captain and team MVP. He is the son of former Pittsburgh Steeler and two-time Super Bowl Champion Robin Cole. Cole currently resides in North Brunswick and has a son named Jaylin.

JIM PANAGOS

DEFENSIVE LINE

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Jim Panagos is in his second season as defensive line coach at Rutgers. He has served both on the collegiate level and in the NFL during his career.

The Scarlet Knights finished fourth in the nation in scoring defense (14.15 points allowed/game), tied for ninth in turnovers gained (32) and 10th in total defense (311.62 yards allowed/game) in his first season at RU. Scott Vallone under the guidance of Panagos on the defensive line after recording 52 tackles and three sacks.

The defensive line was also a key part in a Rutgers defense that ranked 16th nationally with 7.31 tackles-for-loss per game in 2012. In addition, Rutgers ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense in 2012 yielding just 97.2 yards per contest. The 97.2 rushing yards allowed per game ranked as the third-best rushing defense in school history. Rutgers also allowed only six rushing touchdowns the entire 2012 season, the third-lowest amount in the nation.

Senior defensive end Ka'Lial Glaud signed a free agent contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2013 NFL Draft.

Prior to Rutgers, Panagos spent five years at UCF. During his time in Orlando, UCF appeared in three bowl games. In 2011, UCF ranked ninth nationally in total defense, ninth in scoring defense, eighth in pass efficiency defense, 16th in rushing defense and led Conference USA in total defense, scoring defense, pass defense and rushing defense.

In 2010, his defensive line was a key part in perhaps the best season in school history as UCF finished 11-3. UCF ranked in the top-10 nationally in both rushing and scoring defense during its 11-3 season. Leading the position group was Bruce Miller, who was named the C-USA Defensive Player of the Year for the second-straight season. Miller was selected by San Francisco in the seventh round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Miller graduated as the nation's active leader with 35.5 career sacks and ranked third with 57.5 career tackles for loss. After the 2010 season, Panagos was selected as a national all-star assistant by Rivals.com.

FootballScoop.com named Panagos its National Defensive Line Coach of the Year in 2009 after a season in which the Knights led Conference USA in several defensive categories and finished the season against Rutgers in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Miller (13) and Jarvis Geathers (11) both hit double-digits in sacks while tackle Torell Troup was a second round selection in the NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

In 2008, UCF's defensive line was one of the strongest in the country. The group helped the Knights rank first in C-USA in three categories - rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and tackles-for-loss. UCF recorded 8.62 tackles for loss per game, third nationally. In Panagos' first season in Orlando in 2007, The Knights' defensive front showed great improvement during the season by totaling 39 sacks, which ranked first in C-USA and 24th nationally.

Panagos helped three Knights gain individual honors during the 2007 campaign. Leger Douzable (49 tackles, 7.5 sacks) was an All-CUSA First Team pick and fellow senior defensive lineman Keith Shologan (33 tackles, 2.5 sacks) was named to the all-league second team.

Both Douzable (Minnesota) and Shologan (San Diego) signed free-agent contracts with NFL squads.

Prior to moving to Orlando, Panagos coached on the Minnesota Vikings staff in the NFL. During the 2004 campaign, Panagos tutored rookies Spencer Johnson and Darriin Scott take on starting roles at defensive tackle and defensive end, respectively. Panagos worked with Kevin Williams that season as the All-Pro led all NFL defensive tackles with 11.5 sacks.

As a student-athlete, Panagos played football at the University of Maryland (1989-92). A two-time letterwinner at defensive tackle, he led the Terrapins in sacks (5) and tackles-for-loss (12) as a senior.

Panagos earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Maryland in 1993. He attended East Islip High School on Long Island, where he earned first-team all-state honors in football. Panagos and his wife Maureen have three children: Jack, Hayden and Olivia.

Matt Simon is in his second year at Rutgers and will work with the wide receivers in 2013 after spending last season in player development. He brings playing experience from both the Division I and NFL levels.

In 2012 with the Scarlet Knights, Simon assisted the coaching and academic personnel in day-to-day duties, also aiding with special teams film breakdown and game plans. He worked with the scout team by utilizing weekly scouting reports on upcoming opponents. Simon helped with calls and adjustments during games.

After graduating with a bachelor's degree as a science in organizational management major, he signed a contract with the New Orleans Saints.

A native of Farmington, Minn., Simon currently lives in Piscataway.

Prior to arriving in Piscataway, he worked as an assistant coach at the University of St. Thomas (Minn.) for the 2011 season and focused on tight ends and all four special teams units. Simon performed breakdown of opponent film, also coordinating film responsibilities and data entry. He recruited the state of Florida (Dade, Broward, Lee and Collier counties).

Simon started his coaching career at his alma mater, Northern Illinois, in offensive quality control in 2010. He put together weekly opponent scouting reports after breaking down film to help formulate game plans.

A wide receiver, Simon earned four letters for the Huskies from 2004-08 and served as a co-captain. He collected 1,660 receiving yards on 96 catches for an average of 17.3 yards per catch. Simon caught passes in 20 straight games during one stretch and totaled five career 100-yard receiving games. During his senior year, he was one of only 22 players in nation selected to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for leadership and work in the community.

ROB SPENCE

ROB SPENCE

QUARTERBACKS

New York native Rob Spence begins his second season as quarterbacks coach at Rutgers. A 24-year collegiate coaching veteran, Spence has a wealth of experience under his belt, including serving as an offensive coordinator for 16 seasons. Among the schools he served as offensive coordinator include Clemson, Toledo, Louisiana Tech and Syracuse.

Spence joined Kyle Flood's inaugural coaching staff "On the Banks" prior to the 2012 season. Ironically, Flood was the first player Spence recruited at Iona in 1989 and the two coached together at Hofstra from 1997-99.

Spence's experience and knowledge of the most crucial position on the field proved beneficial to the Scarlet Knights in his first season. Under Spence's guidance, sophomore quarterback Gary Nova finished the year second on Rutgers' single-season touchdown passes list with 22 (a RU sophomore record) and fifth on the school's single-season passing yardage list with 2,695 (a RU sophomore record).

With Spence's help, Nova had one of the best games in Rutgers football history against Arkansas on September 22. The sophomore threw for 397 yards (third on RU's single-game list) and five touchdowns (tied for fifth on RU's all-time list), earning him BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Spence came to Rutgers after serving as offensive coordinator at Bethune-Cookman in 2011 for former Rutgers wide receivers coach Brian Jenkins. Spence's offense at Bethune-Cookman averaged 33.9 points per game (15th nationally) and averaged just under 260 yards rushing per game, fifth in the nation. B-CC ranked 12th in the Football Championship Subdivision in total offense (435.3 yards per game) and led the conference in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense.

A native of Pelham, N.Y., Spence spent 2010 as the wide receivers coach at Temple and the 2009 season at Syracuse as the offensive coordinator.

Prior to joining the Orange, Spence enjoyed a successful four-year tenure at Clemson. The Tigers were balanced on offense and then some during the last three years under Spence. In fact, one can make a case that Clemson was the most-balanced offense in the ACC, a contributing reason the Tigers had two top-25 seasons, went to three bowl games, and won 25 games, the most victories in a three-year period since the 1989-91 era.

The 2007 offense averaged over 400 yards and 33 points per game with a young group of Tigers at the skill position. James Davis was a 1,000-yard rusher and Aaron Kelly was a 1,000-yard receiver, just the second time that Clemson had one of each in the same year.

Clemson led the ACC in scoring offense twice under Spence. A Tiger led the ACC in receptions or yards over Spence's first three years at Clemson.

Harper's 2007 season was especially noteworthy, as he established 22 school records directly under Spence's guidance. That included his 27 touchdown passes against six interceptions. He led the ACC in passing efficiency, the first Tiger to pace the ACC in that category since 1983.

In 2006, his second year as offensive coordinator, Clemson gained at least 2,500 yards rushing and passing, one of just four schools nationally to exceed those marks. It was also just the second time in school history it had been done. Clemson led the ACC and was in the top 13 in the nation in total offense, rushing offense, and scoring offense. It marked just the third time in history that the Tiger offense finished in the top 20 in all three areas. In 2006, the Tigers led the ACC in yards per play (6.5), touchdowns (55), and third-down conversion percentage (42). The touchdown total and yards-per-play figures were Tiger records as well.

Spence was the architect of one of the most-improved offenses in Tiger history in his first season. The 2005 Tigers improved 89 yards per game in total offense over 2004, the fourth-largest jump in school history and the eighth-best improvement among Division I-A teams.

Clemson's success on offense has been of no surprise to those who have followed Spence's career. The veteran assistant led Toledo to four straight top-13 final marks in total offense and helped the Rocket program to 35 wins from 2001-04. Twice in his four years, the Rockets were in the top 20 in the nation in rushing, and twice the team was in the top 20 in passing.

Spence came to Toledo after a year as co-offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he tutored freshman Luke McCown, who threw for 2,533 yards and 21 scores on the way to a freshman All-America season.

Spence was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Hofstra from 1997-99. In 1999, it averaged 34 points a game, and the team had an 11-2 record and No. 5 final national ranking.

Spence was an assistant at Maryland (1992-96) under Mark Duffner, as Maryland set 70 school offensive records. Spence worked as offensive coordinator at Hofstra in 1990, helping that program to a 12-1 record and No. 3 national ranking.

He earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Iona in 1981 and later earned his master's degree in education from Iona in 1990.

An avid runner who ran in the Boston Marathon in April of 2004, Spence and his wife Susan have two daughters, Samantha and Sydney Rae.

1996-98 - Rhode Island (defensive backs/wide receivers)
1988-95 - Woodrow Wilson HS (head coach)

PLAYING CAREER

A honorable mention Division I-AA All-America defensive back for Connecticut (1976-80), also playing one season for the New England Patriots (1981) and five with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (1982-86).

DARRELL WILSON

SECONDARY

Darrell Wilson, who spent the last 11 seasons at Iowa, is in his first season as the defensive secondary coach at Rutgers. He previously served as the running backs coach for the Scarlet Knights in 1999.

Wilson coached the defensive secondary for the Hawkeyes in 2012, while assisting with special teams. He worked with all the linebacker positions and special teams for the four seasons prior after working with special teams and outside linebackers in his first six seasons in Iowa City. He was named by Rivals.com in Feb. 2011 as one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation, primarily recruiting New Jersey, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Iowa won 89 games during his tenure, with 52 Big Ten victories. The program participated in 10 bowl games since 2001 with six taking place in January. The Hawkeyes finished ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past 11 seasons.

Iowa has ranked among national leaders in interceptions in recent years. The Hawkeyes collected 10 interceptions in 2012, returning two of those for touchdowns. Cornerback Micah Hyde was honored with the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year award, presented by the Big Ten, while earning first team all-Big Ten honors.

In 2010, the Hawkeyes ranked fifth in the nation in total defense (332.1), sixth in rushing defense (101.5) and seventh in scoring defense (17.0). Iowa also tied for seventh in turnover margin (+13) and 11th in interceptions (19). True freshman James Morris earned Freshman All-America honors at middle linebacker. Iowa's special teams ranked sixth nationally in punt coverage (3.9) and 12th in kickoff returns (25.3).

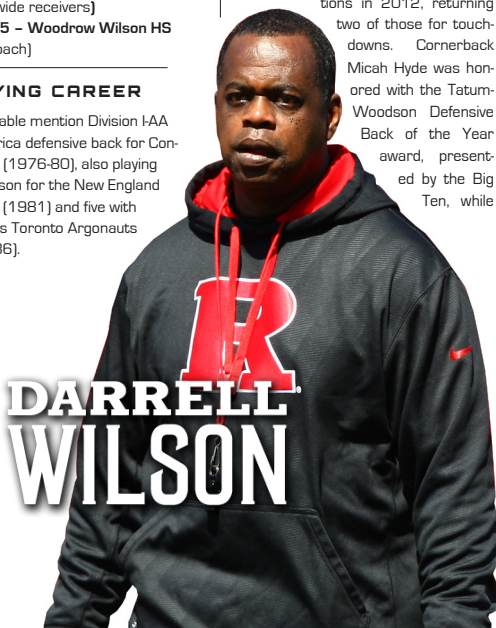

Wilson joined the Iowa staff after serving as outside linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at Wisconsin for two years (2000-01). One of his star players at Wisconsin was punter Kevin Stenke, winner of the 2000 Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award.

He also coached running backs at Rutgers (1999) and the defensive secondary and wide receivers at Rhode Island (1996-98).

Before his collegiate coaching career began, he compiled a 65-18 record as head coach at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. (1988-95). His Wilson HS teams won five conference championships and four times advanced to the South Jersey Group III state finals. Along with the outstanding success of his teams on the football field, Wilson was named Camden's "Citizen of the Year" by the Rotary Club in 1992.

A former honorable mention Division I-AA All-America defensive back for Connecticut (1976-80), Wilson was named to the Huskies' 100th anniversary all-time team in 1998. He played one year with the New England Patriots (1981) and five seasons (1982-86) with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. He was a member of the 1983 squad that won the CFL's Grey Cup.

Wilson graduated from Connecticut (1981) with a B.A. in sociology. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters, Brianna, Kayla, Kiana and Jehlani.

PLAYING CAREER

Four-year member of the Lafayette football team at center for head coach Bill Russo. Three-time All-Patriot League selection and earned the team's Stony Jones Award as the team Most Valuable Player as a senior.

DAMIAN WROBLEWSKI

OFFENSIVE LINE

Damian Wroblewski begins his second season as offensive line coach at Rutgers after a successful stint in his first year.

In his first season at the helm of the offensive line, the unit helped the Scarlet Knights to 100 or more rushing yards in eight games, including three contests with 150 or more and one with 234 yards on the ground. Under Wroblewski's tutelage, Rutgers allowed just eight sacks all season, the eighth-best mark in the country.

Under Wroblewski's watch, junior guard Antwan Lowery earned All-BIG EAST First Team recognition, sophomore tackle Kaleb Johnson earned All-BIG EAST Second Team accolades and senior tackle R.J. Dill was honored to CBSSports.com's All-BIG EAST Team. Dill signed a NFL free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars following the 2013 NFL Draft.

The group helped pave the way for sophomore running back Jawan Jamison, who became just the seventh player in Rutgers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Following the 1,000-yard campaign, Jamison was a seventh round NFL Draft pick of the Washington Redskins.

Wroblewski came to Rutgers after a five-year stint at the University of Delaware in the same capacity, along with serving as the Blue Hens assistant head coach since the 2008 season.

Wroblewski was the Blue Hens recruiting coordinator in addition to serving as the team's run game coordinator.

Wroblewski has a similar coaching path as Kyle Flood as both coached the offensive line at Hofstra and Delaware during their careers.

In 2011, Delaware finished 7-4 as the offense averaged over 165.5 yards per game rushing. His work with the offense in 2010, and specifically with the offensive line, helped Delaware post a 12-3 record, share the Colonial Athletic Association title and advance to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision title game.

The Blue Hens ranked second in the CAA in scoring offense (27.9), total offense (401.8/19th in NCAA), rushing offense (184.4), and third in passing offense (217.4).

Freshman running back Andrew Pierce, who led the CAA in rushing, and junior offensive guard Gino Gradkowski also earned All-American honors on the offensive side of the ball.

As offensive line coach in 2007, Wroblewski played a big part in Delaware's offense being among the top-rated units in the country. Led by All-American offensive linemen Mike Byrne and Kheon Hendricks, Delaware posted an 11-4 record and advanced to the FCS national title game. Hendricks also earned All-American honors as a senior in 2008.

A native of Westerly, R.I., Wroblewski attended Lafayette College and earned his degree in history in 1999. He was a four-year member of the Leopard football team at center for head coach Bill Russo. He was a three-time All-Patriot League selection and earned the team's Stony Jones Award as the team Most Valuable Player as a senior.

He began his coaching career at Bryant College in Smithfield, R.I. where he served as offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator.

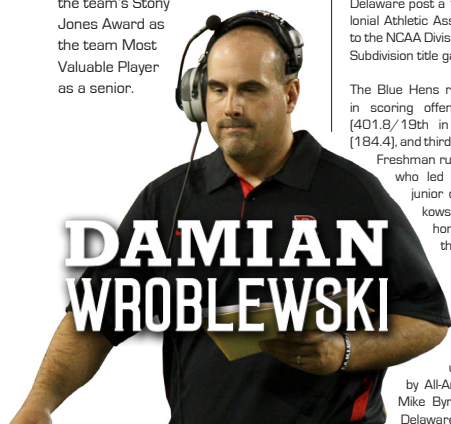

Wroblewski moved to the Football Championship Subdivision level in 2002 where he served as offensive tackles and tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under head coach Al Bagnoli at the University of Pennsylvania. He helped lead the nationally-ranked Quakers to a two-year record of 19-1, including a perfect 14-0 mark in league play as Penn captured consecutive Ivy League titles in 2002 and 2003.

While at Penn, he helped lead an offense that ranked second in the nation in scoring in (36.3) and seventh in passing (296.2) in 2002 and ninth in the nation in total offense (438.2) and 10th in scoring (34.6) in 2003.

After his stint at Penn, Wroblewski moved on to Hofstra, where he served for two seasons as offensive line coach under Joe Gardi, helping to lead the Pride to a two-year record of 12-10, including a 7-4 mark in 2005.

Hofstra led the Atlantic 10 in passing offense both seasons, ranking third nationally in 2005 (306.4) and fourth in 2004 (326.9). The team also ranked second in the Atlantic 10 in total offense both seasons and ranked No. 10 nationally in scoring in 2004 at 36.4 points per game. He coached three All-Atlantic 10 selections during his tenure, including NFL draft pick Willie Colon, a member of the 2009 Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

He and his wife, Kara, have one son, Damian, Jr.

CHARLIE NOONAN

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Charlie Noonan is back at Rutgers for his first season on the coaching staff, working as the defensive line assistant. Elected a team captain his senior year, he earned four letters for the Scarlet Knights from 2006-10.

Prior to returning his alma mater, Noonan spent one season as the defensive line coach at Thiel College (Pa.). He was responsible for teaching the proper technique and scheme of a 4-3 defense, also managing academic schedules, strength and conditioning, nutrition and recruiting. Three of his players earned all-conference honors, as the Tomcats ranked first in the league in sacks and rushing defense and second in tackles-for-loss and total defense.

Noonan started his coaching career in 2011 as a volunteer assistant coach with the defense at the Haverford School (Pa.).

Known as a hard-nosed player for RU head coach Greg Schiano, Noonan started two years on the defensive line and played in 48 games total after persevering through a pair of ACL injuries early in his career. He was presented with the Iron Knight Award at the 2010 banquet, given to the player who has demonstrated an exceptionally high level of mental and physical toughness throughout his career. Noonan collected 38 of his 72 career tackles as a senior.

In August 2011, Noonan was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles to compete for a position on their defensive line while working with line coach Jim Washburn.

Noonan graduated from Rutgers, with a bachelor's degree as an economics major. He is originally from Ardmore, Pa., and attended St. Joseph's Prep High School. As a senior captain, Noonan led St. Joseph's Prep to their fourth Catholic League Red title in five years while helping the Hawks earn a spot in the USA Today Top 25 rankings.

DARNELL STAPLETON

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Former Super Bowl XLIII starting right guard Darnell Stapleton begins his second season as an offensive assistant at Rutgers.

In his first season coaching "On the Banks", Stapleton helped develop a unit that ranked eighth nationally and first in the BIG EAST in sacks allowed. The offensive line paved the way for the program's seventh player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season in Washington Redskins draft pick Jawan Jamison.

Junior offensive guard Antwan Lowery was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection while sophomore left tackle Kaleb Johnson collected All-BIG EAST Second Team honors. Following the season, senior right tackle R.J. Dill signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The former Scarlet Knight center worked to the top of the National Football League with the Pittsburgh Steelers after signing as an undrafted free agent following the 2007 NFL Draft. Stapleton did not see action during the 2007 season only to break into the lineup for the 2008 season, starting in 12 of 14 appearances, including the Steelers' victory over the Arizona Cardinals to capture the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

Stapleton started all 13 games at center for Rutgers as a senior in 2006, earning recognition as a finalist for the Rimington Trophy. He anchored an offensive line that blocked for NFL Pro Bowl running back and former Scarlet Knight Ray Rice, who totaled 1,794 rushing yards that season. Stapleton started all 12 games for RU in 2005, securing the starting role after transferring from Hudson Valley Community College.

A native of Union Township, N.J., Stapleton attended Union High School. He went on to earn a degree in Management & Labor Relations at Rutgers.

COACHING STAFF

SAM WILLIAMS

SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Sam Williams is in his first year at Rutgers as the special teams assistant. He spent 2012 in offensive quality control at Vanderbilt.

During his one year in Nashville, the Commodores went 9-4 – the program's best record since 1915 – and ended the year on a seven-game winning streak by defeating NC State in the Music City Bowl. Finishing the year ranked No. 20 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press Poll, Vanderbilt scored its most points since World War I (390). Prior to working with the Commodores, Williams spent four years on the staff at his alma mater, Shepherd [W.Va.] University.

Williams started his collegiate career in 2007 as a student assistant at Shepherd under highly regarded head coach Monte Cater. That season, he worked with inside linebackers and special teams during the Rams' 10-2 campaign.

From 2008-10, Williams served as Shepherd's quarterbacks coach. In 2008, Shepherd quarterbacks set a single season team mark by throwing for just five interceptions. In 2010, the Rams advanced to the NCAA Division II national semifinals during a 12-2 campaign.

Williams graduated from Shepherd in 2008.

TARIQ AHMAD

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Tariq Ahmad is in his fourth season as Director of Football Recruiting Operations after previously serving as Director of Player Development. Ahmad arrived "On the Banks" in 2007 and is in his sixth season overall as a member of the Rutgers football coaching staff.

In his current position, Ahmad is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the recruiting department. Rutgers' most recent recruiting class earned recognition as the top in the conference by Rivals, Scout and ESPN. The 2012 group earned Top 25 national billing from ESPN and Athlon, ranking 24th and 23rd, respectively.

During the 2007 and 2008 seasons, Ahmad served in offensive player development, assisting with the offensive line. His responsibilities included the breakdown and analysis of offensive game film and contributing to the operations of practice preparation.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Ahmad worked as an offensive graduate assistant coach at his alma mater Ithaca College. While there, he instructed the running backs with game strategies and techniques. Ahmad began his collegiate coaching career at Ithaca in 2004 as a volunteer assistant coach with the offensive line.

Ahmad also worked as an assistant football coach at Lakewood High School in 2005, guiding the offensive and defensive lines. In addition, he was the head junior varsity basketball coach and assistant track and field coach, overseeing the field events.

A 2005 graduate of Ithaca College, Ahmad was a three-sport star in football, basketball and outdoor track. He was a two-time captain and two-time First Team All-ECAC selection on the gridiron, including earning All-American honors. Ahmad was also a state champion discus thrower on two occasions.

WILL GILKISON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Will Gilkison enters his fourth season as Director of Football Operations and his eighth year overall in a full-time capacity on the football staff.

Gilkison's duties include the oversight of the day-to-day operations of the football program, along with logistical and budgetary responsibilities. He also manages team travel, organizes pre-season camp and serves as the team's liaison to other athletic department offices and university branches.

A four-year letterwinner at linebacker with the Scarlet Knights, Gilkison captained the 2005 Insight Bowl team and was the recipient of the Paul Robeson Award, presented annually to the individual whose performance, leadership, and dedication on and off the field during his career has had the greatest impact on Rutgers Football.

Gilkison became a member of the staff in 2006 as a student assistant. He was responsible for helping prepare and implement weekly practice schedules. Gilkison also worked as a strength and conditioning assistant during this time, creating and facilitating off-season training programs while instructing players in skill development.

In 2008, Gilkison joined the player development staff, serving as a mentor for first and second year players. He oversaw the transition of these individuals into the college environment, assisting them with basic life skills, time management, goal setting and prioritizing.

A 2007 graduate, Gilkison earned a B.A. in history and completed his graduate degree in elementary and special education in 2008. He and his wife Katie currently reside in Union Beach, N.J. The couple has two children, a three-year-old daughter, Margaret, and a two-year-old son, William.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER SERVICES

Mike Kuzniak is in his 10th year at Rutgers and sixth as the Director of Player Services. His primary responsibilities are to provide overall leadership, oversight and supervision of the daily operations and performance of the Athletic Equipment office and RU football team.

Kuzniak started as a student manager in the equipment room on Aug. 2004 and took charge of management of junior football managers. He also assisted with the shipping and receiving, handling and maintenance of athletic equipment, while creating an inventory database for indoor and outdoor equipment/apparel.

A two-time graduate of Rutgers, Kuzniak earned his Bachelor of Arts in 2006 as a world history major and psychology minor. He followed that with a master's of arts in teaching with a focus on elementary/special education in 2008, recording a 3.71 GPA.

Prior to arriving on campus, he served in the United States Marine Corps, with stops in Parris Island, S.C., Camp Pendleton, Calif., Little Creek, Va. and Okinawa, Japan.

Kuzniak and his fiancée Jamie Campesi reside in Old Bridge, N.J.

DAVID MCCUNE

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER - FOOTBALL

For over the past decade, the health and wellness of the Rutgers football team has been the responsibility of Head Football Athletic Trainer David McCune. In his 13th season with the Scarlet Knights, McCune oversees all aspects of athletic training from injury prevention to rehabilitation within the program. McCune also assists with the coordination of the entire athletic department's athletic training staff.

He has worked with head coach Kyle Flood since his arrival as an assistant coach in 2008. McCune worked for former head coach and current Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Greg Schiano for more than a decade, also serving as Coordinator of Athletic Training and Football Athletic Trainer at the University of Miami for four seasons (1997-2000), before joining the Scarlet Knights for the 2001 season.

McCune, a Virginia native, received his bachelor's degree from James Madison, and earned his master's degree from Missouri State University. He began his career as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Missouri State in 1989, where he worked for one year before being named Head Athletic Trainer at the University of Miami's Health South Sports Medicine Clinic (1989-93), and named the Director of the Clinic from 1993-95.

He then returned to his alma mater, James Madison, as Athletic Trainer, where he served from 1995-97 before joining the University of Miami program.

McCune and his wife Annie reside in Piscataway. He is the proud father of two sons, Devon and Braden.

DR. ROBERT MONACO

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/
SPORTS MEDICINE

Dr. Robert Monaco is in his 18th year as the Associate Director of Athletics/Sports Medicine and has served as Team Physician for the football program since his arrival in 1996. In addition to working with the football team, Dr. Monaco oversees the medical treatment for all of the University's sports. His responsibilities also include supervising a group of 11 full-time certified athletic trainers and a support staff in sports nutrition and psychology.

In addition to his work with the Scarlet Knights, Dr. Monaco is a clinical professor in the Department of Family Medicine at Robert Wood Johnson Medical School and assists with directing the school's Sports Medicine Fellowship Program.

His educational background includes a bachelor's degree from Columbia University, where he competed in wrestling and captained the team his senior year. He went on to receive his Medical Degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, where he was a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society. He completed his residency at UMDNJ Robert Wood Johnson Medical School and St. Peter's Hospital in New Brunswick, working with the Department of Family Medicine.

Dr. Monaco has also done postgraduate study and completed a fellowship in Sports Medicine at Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, which included work at Princeton University and the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City. In addition, Dr. Monaco holds a Master's in Public Health from Rutgers and UMDNJ Robert Wood Johnson Medical School.

A native of Nutley, N.J., Dr. Monaco comes from a family of physical educators, coaches, and athletes. Dr. Monaco and his wife, Carolyn, are the proud parents of two children, Antonio and Angelina.

RICKY PALMER

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Ricky Palmer enters his fourth season as video coordinator for the Rutgers football program after joining the staff in March 2010. The Collegiate Sports Video Association named Palmer the 2011 and 2012 Big East Video Coordinator of the Year.

Palmer was selected by a majority vote of his peers to receive the Video Coordinator of the Year honor for the past two seasons.

Prior to arriving at Rutgers, Palmer worked three seasons in the video department for the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals from 2007-10.

At Rutgers, Palmer's daily responsibilities include fulfilling all internal visual needs of the program, while being primarily in charge of filming and editing video for instant analysis by the coaching staff through the use the latest video technology. Palmer also oversees the Assistant Video Coordinator and a staff of several student assistants.

A 2006 graduate of Wilmington College in Wilmington, Ohio, Palmer earned a degree in communications. Palmer was also a four-year letterman on the football team at Wilmington.

Palmer began his career as an intern in the video department with the Cleveland Browns during the 2006 season.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Palmer currently lives in Piscataway with his wife, Eileen.

SHAWN TUCKER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/
STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Shawn Tucker is in his fourth season as Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development.

Tucker, a 2006 graduate of Rutgers University and a former standout at wide receiver on the football team, leads the Life Skills and development program for student-athletes. Through programming and counseling, the Life Skills initiative helps to fortify student-athletes at Rutgers with valuable information and tools to guide decision-making in critical life-shaping areas such as career choice, personal finance, leadership, civic involvement, and healthy lifestyle choices.

Tucker came to Rutgers from Douglas High School in Parkland, Fla. He was named team captain as a senior and helped lead Rutgers to its first of four consecutive football bowl championships in 2006. A four-year letterwinner for the Scarlet Knights, Tucker was a key member of two bowl squads during his career "On the Banks."

As an undergraduate, Tucker served on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. He graduated with a double major in Geography and Labor Studies in May 2007 and began working for the Office of Continuing Professional Education at Rutgers as a program coordinator for their T.E.E.M. Gateway program. While there, Tucker was a member of a staff that received the 2010 Diversity Leadership Award.

Tucker also participated in the implementation of the YE2S Center, a partnership among Rutgers, Newark Public Schools, the City of Newark and Communities in Schools of New Jersey focusing on providing education and employment services for youth in Essex County. Tucker has also mentored youth in Newark through the Rutgers Green Rangers Mural program, which focused on the beautification and revitalization of Newark through the Arts, while also serving as a key collaborator in the New Jersey High School Dropout Prevention Campaign.

Tucker also received a master's degree in city and regional planning from Rutgers. Tucker and his wife Maria, reside in New Brunswick.

SCOTT WALKER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Since his arrival at Rutgers in 2003, Scott Walker has worked diligently to put Rutgers Athletics on the map academically as the Director of Football Academic support and most recently as the Executive Director of Academic Support Services for Student Athletes. In his role, Walker oversees the entire academic program for Rutgers' student-athletes.

During his previous eight years at Rutgers, Walker has helped the football program establish unprecedented success in the classroom, further upholding the high academic standards of Rutgers University. The team has stood as a pillar for great achievement both on the field and in the classroom.

In the most recent NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR), the Rutgers football program was the lone state university on the list to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for the sixth straight year. In addition, Rutgers was the lone institution to win four bowl games while earning the APR honor in the top 10 percent over the previous six-year span.

The Rutgers football squad received a No. 2 ranking nationally in 2011. The prior year, Rutgers ranked first nationally in APR. During the last six years under Walker's guidance, the Rutgers football program has ranked in the top seven nationally and has achieved the top APR of any Football Bowl Subdivision state university in the nation.

Rutgers has had two National Football Foundation Scholar Athletes in Brian Leonard and Brandon Renkart during Walker's tenure. Leonard received the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

Prior to his tenure at Rutgers, Walker spent three seasons as an assistant football coach at Cornell. He was named the running backs coach at Cornell in the spring of 2001. Before joining the Cornell staff, he served five seasons at Georgia Tech, including three as the director of academics for the football team. In 1997, he was the assistant director of football operations. Prior to Tech, Walker was a coach at the University of Maine for six years, including the final two as the running game coordinator. Walker also spent time coaching at Purdue, Iowa and Texas.

Walker graduated from Princeton in 1984 with a bachelor of arts degree in geology. During his time at Princeton, he worked as the freshman defensive ends coach from 1982-84. In addition to attending college in New Jersey, Walker spent 15 years recruiting the New Jersey metropolitan area for various universities during his coaching career.

Scott and his wife, Michelle, have a son, Kyle.

2013 SEASON OUTLOOK

Coming off a BIG EAST Championship and a seventh bowl appearance in eight seasons, Rutgers football looks to continue to make strides in 2013. The team returns 14 starters, 43 lettermen and 22 redshirt freshmen in addition to welcoming 17 signees and two transfers to the roster. With the move to the Big Ten on the horizon, the Scarlet Knights will compete in the American Athletic Conference with several new conference foes lined up on the schedule.

Head coach Kyle Flood, the reigning BIG EAST Coach of the Year, enters his second campaign at the helm after becoming the winningest first-year coach in RU history with a 9-4 mark in 2012. He also helped eight Scarlet Knights earn All-BIG EAST honors, winning his first seven games to put Rutgers as high as No. 15 in the national polls.

The season will start with a trip west to take on Fresno State Aug. 29 before returning home to face Norfolk State to start a slate of seven games at High Point Solutions Stadium. In one of the more anticipated games of the year, Arkansas will travel to New Jersey Sept. 21, becoming the first Southeastern Conference opponent to visit RU on campus. The Scarlet Knights will once again be featured in two Thursday primetime ESPN games at Louisville and at UCF, as the team will close the regular season with Senior Day against USF Dec. 7.

OFFENSE

Junior quarterback Gary Nova enters his second full year as the starting signal caller after tossing the second-most touchdowns (22) in a single RU season in 2012. He eclipsed 300 yards passing on two occasions, including a 397-yard, five-touchdown performance in a road win at Arkansas to earn BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week honors. The junior is 36-6 as a starter going back to his high school career. Senior Chas Dodd returns as the backup and brings 23 games of experience and over 3,000 yards passing to the table.

The top target on the outside this season figures to be junior wide receiver Brandon Coleman, who was named a Preseason All-American by the Sporting News. He tied a school record with 10 receiving scores a year ago and averaged 21.2 yards per catch. Additionally in the receiving corps, senior Quon Pratt and sophomore Leonte Carroo are expected to stretch the field in an offense that often takes shots deep. Redshirt freshmen Carlton Agudosi and Ruhann Peele along with junior Miles Shuler give Nova and company plenty of talented and capable receiving targets.

In the backfield, junior Savon Huggins takes over the first team spot at running back for the first time. The highlight of his season last year came in a 10-3 win at Cincinnati where the back tied a school record with 41 rushes, compiling a career-high 179 yards on the ground. Redshirt freshman Desmon Peoples emerged in spring practice as a player to keep an eye on in 2013, displaying shiftiness that could earn him valuable carries throughout the year. Junior fullback Michael Burton returns as the primary blocker with the ability to make occasional receptions, having recovered from an injury that cost him most of last season. Sophomore running back Paul James and true freshman running back Dontea Ayres are two other backs to watch for the RU rushing attack.

The offensive line is expected to be a team strength once again, having allowed the eighth-least sacks in the nation and paving the way for a 1,000-yard rusher last season. Four of the five positions return experienced starters, with junior Betim Bujari, senior Andre Civil and 2012 All-BIG EAST performers senior Antwan Lowery and junior Kaleb Johnson all back. Junior Taj Alexander broke through in the spring with potential to fill in the last spot, as redshirt freshman Chris Muller and sophomore Keith Lumpkin also are expected to contribute up front in one of the deeper groups on the roster.

Rutgers most uses the tight end position to supply extra blocking, as senior Paul Carrezola and sophomore Tyler Kroft both provide that with the ability to leak out in the red zone to catch touchdowns or convert on third downs.

Leading the unit will be veteran mentor Ron Prince, who enters his first season as the offensive coordinator for the Scarlet Knights. He brings 21 years of coaching experience at both the collegiate and NFL levels and will continue to run a pro-style offense in Piscataway.

DEFENSE

Rutgers will have a new look on defense having lost seven starters, but the attacking style has not changed in what should be a strong point once again. The 2012 unit finished fourth in the nation in scoring defense (14.15 points allowed/game), tied for ninth in turnovers gained (32) and 10th in total defense (311.62 yards allowed/game), seeing seven players earn NFL contracts. A total of 15 letterwinners from the group return, with contributions expected from several newcomers.

Senior linebacker Jamal Merrell brings back the most tackles among the returners, having picked up 83 in 13 starts. Junior Kevin Snyder and senior Nick DePaola both bring back playing experience at the position, while redshirt freshman Steve Longa, freshman L.J. Liston and redshirt freshman Quanzell Lambert all expect to see important time on the field.

The secondary will also see several new faces, as junior strong safety Lorenzo Waters is the only returning starters in the defensive backfield. Senior Jeremy Deering made the switch from wide receiver to free safety in the spring and immediately assumed a spot on the first team of the depth chart. On the corners, junior Gareef Glashen and sophomore Tejay

Johnson both saw action last season, but are projected to step up as full-time starters this year at the position. Redshirt freshman Ian Thomas and Western Michigan transfer Lewis Toler also should contribute right away.

On the defensive line, the Scarlet Knights are expected to continue a hard-nosed style with the ability to put pressure on the opposing offensive line and quarterback. Seniors Jamil Merrell, who will move inside to tackle, and Marcus Thompson, an end, will provide returning experience on the line, combining for 63 tackles and six sacks a year ago. Sophomore Darius Hamilton, one of three true freshmen to see playing time last season, looks to have a breakout season at tackle and will be pushed by classmates Daryl Stephenson and Djwany Mera. The other inside spot will be decided in camp between senior Isaac Holmes, who made four starts last year before going down with an injury, and experienced junior Kenneth Kirksey. The defensive line looks to be one of the deeper position groups heading into the season along with the offensive line.

Dave Cohen, who arrived at RU last season, takes over as the defensive coordinator and will continue to overlook the linebackers. He previously led defenses at Western Michigan, Delaware and Fordham, seeing his units rank among the best nationally on a consistent basis.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The place-kicking job will be fought for through fall camp, with sophomores Kyle Federico and Nick Borgese competing to earn the nod. Both saw action last season with Federico booting a 52-yarder amongst six successful tries and Borgese knocking through 17 extra points. Senior Robert Jones will assume the role as the long snapper for punt and field goals, having handled the job the last three seasons. Classmate J.T. Tartacoff is projected to be the holder once again.

There will also be a battle for the punting position in camp. Senior Nick Marsh, a transfer from Utah, brings two-years starting experience. Marsh additionally is likely to handle the kickoff duties after doing so for the Utes last season.

Deering will control kickoff duties with Miles Shuler, with Shuler working as the primary punt returner.

On the other side, the Scarlet Knights look to continue their tradition of blocking kicks. Since 2009, RU leads the nation with 31 and tied for the national lead with eight last year.

2013 OUTLOOK

Not entirely unlike the nation that provides its namesake, the American Athletic Conference was born from an ideal in which members with ambitious goals are provided with the means to succeed in their quests for excellence.

With roots that extend to three conferences, the American Athletic Conference membership in 2013 – its debut season – consists of 10 institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Louisville, the University of Memphis, Rutgers University, Southern Methodist University, the University of South Florida and Temple University. In 2014-15, East Carolina University, Tulane University and the University of Tulsa come aboard. The 2015-16 season sees the U.S. Naval Academy join the ranks in football only.

The American, which operated as the Big East Conference from 1979 to 2013, will immediately take a place at the forefront of Division I athletics, with schools that have played in a combined five Bowl Championship Series games, won four NCAA men's basketball titles since 1999, and won eight NCAA women's basketball championships since 1995.

Among the league's 2013 members, seven of The American's 10 football teams have been ranked in the top 13 in the BCS since 2006. Eight of the 10 teams have been in the BCS top 25 in that span. The 2013-14 membership will also include the most recent NCAA men's basketball (Louisville) and women's basketball (UConn) champions.

The 2013 season will mark the final year of a six-year arrangement with ESPN that gives The American national exposure on ABC television and the ESPN family of networks. ESPN, ESPN2 or ABC will carry a minimum of 19 American home football games each season. Championship Week in December includes three American games on either ABC, ESPN or ESPN2. At least four American games are featured on ESPN's Thursday-night package.

In addition, ESPN Regional Television will continue to produce and distribute its Game of the Week package to a nationally syndicated audience, reaching more than 30 million homes. Most of these games also will be available as part of the ESPN GamePlan subscription service. Finally, a minimum of five home games will be carried on ESPN.

Following the 2013 football season, the American Athletic Conference enters new television partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports which will give the conference unprecedented national exposure. The football portion of the contract, which begins in the 2014 season, calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which will be played in 2015, will be carried either on ABC or ESPN on Championship Saturday. In men's basketball, the new television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament will be televised, including the championship game, which will be either on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games will be carried on either national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3.

American Athletic Conference teams will have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure, both in the coming season and beyond. In 2013-14, the league champion will receive an automatic bid for the final edition of the Bowl Championship Series, including a spot in the VIZIO National Championship Game if it is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS standings. Moving forward, The American champion would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams following the regular season. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in either the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl or Peach Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

The American has additional partnerships with a number of bowl games that match conference teams against opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Big 12 Conference, the Southeastern Conference and Conference USA. The Russell Athletic Bowl has the first selection of American teams after the conference's BCS representative is determined. The Atlantic Coast Conference will provide the opposition for the Russell Athletic Bowl, which is played in Orlando, Fla.

The American also is a partner with the Belk Bowl in Charlotte, N.C. Played in Bank of America Stadium, the Belk Bowl will select its American Athletic Conference participant after the Russell Athletic Bowl with the ACC again providing the opponent.

The American and the Big 12 conferences partner for the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium in New York City. In the event that the Big 12 is unable to send an eligible team to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, Notre Dame could step in as the American team's opponent.

An American representative will face either an opponent from the Southeastern Conference or the Conference USA champion as part of arrangements with the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

The league also holds a partnership with the Beef 'O'Brady's Bowl at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Fla. The Beef 'O'Brady's Bowl pairs the American representative against an opponent from Conference USA.

The postseason lineup gives American Athletic Conference teams access to at least six postseason games.

The American Athletic Conference administers to its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, R.I. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools.

The conference headquarters is equipped with a complete video production studio and small- and large-scale meeting rooms to accommodate the many coaches' and administrators' meetings held on-site each year.

2012 SEASON REVIEW

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP IN THREE CENTURIES

Rutgers captured a share of its first BIG EAST Championship after finishing the season 9-4 overall and 5-2 in the conference. It also gave RU conference championships in three different centuries (1894 Middle States Football League Champions; 1958, 1960, 1961 University Division Champion of the Middle Atlantic Conference and 2012 BIG EAST). In its final season in the BIG EAST, Rutgers defeated league opponents USF, Connecticut, Syracuse, Temple and Cincinnati.

RUTGERS IN THE RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

The Scarlet Knights qualified for a bowl game for the seventh time in eight years, playing Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl. The Hokies won 13-10 in overtime to snap the Scarlet Knights' five-game bowl winning streak. Khaseem Greene scored RU's seventh non-offensive touchdown of the season just 17 seconds into the game by recovering a fumble in the end zone. The defense also held VT to three yards rushing and recorded four sacks and two interceptions. However, the Hokies were able to rally for 10 points in the fourth quarter and kicked a field goal in overtime to pull out the victory in the first meeting between the programs since 2003.

DE-FENSE, DE-FENSE

The Scarlet Knights finished fourth in the nation in scoring defense (14.15 points allowed/game), tied for ninth in turnovers gained (32) and 10th in total defense (311.62 yards allowed/game). In addition, Rutgers allowed 91 points in seven BIG EAST games, the eighth-lowest total allowed in league history.

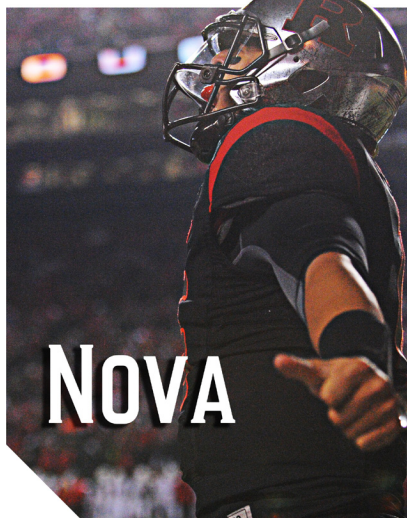

2012 SEASON REVIEW

JAMISON HUGGINS

CARRYING THE LUMBER

Jawan Jamison broke a school record that stood since 1972 with 41 rushing attempts in the 23-13 victory over USF on Sept. 13 in Tampa. Jamison rushed for 151 yards and a touchdown - and broke "JJ" Jennings' school record for single-game rushing attempts. Savon Huggins equaled the school record with 41 rushes for 179 yards in the victory at Cincinnati Nov. 17.

NOVA

SUPER NOVA

Sophomore quarterback Gary Nova threw for the third-highest yardage total in Rutgers' single-game history in the 35-26 win at Arkansas on Sept. 22. Nova set career-highs in passing yards (397), completions (25) and passing touchdowns (five) against the Hogs. For his efforts, he was named BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week and was named one of the Manning Award "Stars of the Week." The Davey O'Brien Award also cited Nova as an honorable mention national quarterback of the week. He finished the season 36-6 as a starting quarterback dating back to his high school days. Nova recorded 22 touchdown passes on the year, the second-best total for a season in program history.

After just two seasons on the roster, Nova already ranks sixth in school history with 4,248 career passing yards, 337 completions and 33 touchdowns. He became the 11th quarterback in program history with 3,000 passing yards.

BIG EAST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior linebacker Khaseem Greene picked up right where he left off after being named BIG EAST Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 2011. The Elizabeth, N.J., native totaled 141 tackles in his first year at linebacker in 2011, which led the BIG EAST and ranked 12th nationally. Greene was the first Scarlet Knight to be named the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and earned All-America honors by SI.com and Phil Steele. In 2012, Greene led RU and the BIG EAST with 136 tackles. He also had six forced fumbles, two interceptions, 12.0 tackles for loss, 6.0 sacks and five pass breakups for the season.

Greene finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 387 tackles.

BIG PLAY BRANDON

Sophomore wide receiver Brandon Coleman quickly developed into one of the nation's premier deep threats. The Maryland native has a career yards per reception average of 21.2 and 10 of his 16 career touchdown receptions have covered 30 yards or more. Coleman's 10 receiving touchdowns in 2012 tied Marco Battaglia's school record for single-season receiving touchdowns set in 1995. Coleman is already tied for fifth in school history with 16 receiving touchdowns. Coleman has averaged 39.1 yards per touchdown reception in his career. In 2012, Coleman had 43 receptions for 718 yards and a team-best 10 receiving touchdowns.

BLOCK PARTY

Since 2009, Rutgers has led all schools nationally with 31 blocked kicks/punts and the special teams units have scored 11 touchdowns during that time span. Isaac Holmes blocked a PAT as Joe Rossi took over as special teams coordinator for RU to start the 2012 season at Tulane. In the Howard win, RU blocked two punts - one of which was blocked by Miles Shuler and recovered by Brandon Jones for a six-yard fumble return touchdown. Jamal Merrell blocked his fourth career kick as his blocked field goal vs. Syracuse was returned 75 yards for a touchdown by Duron Harmon to swing the momentum in the RU victory. In the Temple victory, freshman Leonte Carroo blocked his first career punt to lead to a touchdown on RU's ensuing drive. Against Kent State, Lorenzo Waters blocked the first kick of his career (FG). In the Army game, RU blocked two field goals in the 28-7 victory (Jamal Merrell, Marcus Cooper).

NEWS AND NOTES...

Kyle Flood announced four players were selected team captains by their teammates: senior LB Steve Beauharnais, senior LB Khaseem Greene, senior DB Mason Robinson and senior WR Tim Wright ... Rutgers played in four NFL venues in 2012 - Tulane (New Orleans Saints, USF (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Temple (Philadelphia Eagles) and Pittsburgh (Pittsburgh Steelers) ... Rutgers clinched its sixth winning season in the BIG EAST with its 35-10 victory at Temple ... RU has back-to-back winning seasons in league play for only the second time in school history.

ROBERT L. BARCHI is the 20th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey.

Since beginning his tenure on September 1, 2012, President Barchi has been overseeing preparations for integrating into Rutgers most units of the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, as outlined in the recently adopted New Jersey Medical and Health Sciences Education Restructuring Act. He has begun work on a university strategic plan (the first in more than 15 years) and was part of a statewide coalition of university, business, and labor leaders urging voter support of a $750 million bond act for higher education construction, which was approved by a wide margin in November. President Barchi announced on November 20, 2012 that all intercollegiate athletic teams on Rutgers' New Brunswick campus will join the Big Ten Conference at a date to be determined.

lectual activities of more than 120 faculty members. Dr. Barchi founded the Department of Neuroscience at Penn and served as its first chair; he also served as chair of the Department of Neurology. He was named the Fairhill Professor in 2002, a position that he still holds in emeritus status.

The University of Pennsylvania named Dr. Barchi as its provost and chief academic officer in 1999, and he served in this capacity until 2004. As provost, Dr. Barchi had responsibility for the university's 12 schools and their academic programs and budgets and Penn's intercollegiate athletics program, as well as for Penn's students and faculty. During his tenure, he worked with president Judith Rodin to reassert the primacy of the academic mission in the direction of the university. He recruited new leadership to nine of the 12 schools at Penn and established a number of universitywide interdisciplinary educational and research institutes. He also led the university through a comprehensive strategic planning process.

As president of Thomas Jefferson University, Dr. Barchi oversaw a period of tremendous growth. The university established three new schools—including the Jefferson School of Pharmacy, which graduated its first class in May 2012, and the Jefferson School of Population Health, the only school in the nation to offer a master's degree in chronic care management. Overall student enrollment increased by 51 percent and annual degrees awarded rose by 54 percent. Dr. Barchi also expanded the reach of the campus, inaugurating the Partnership in Healthcare Education, an academic affiliation with the University of Delaware that offers dual-degree programs between the two institutions.

Other accomplishments at Jefferson include successful implementation of an ambitious strategic plan that integrated the university's clinical, education, and research missions; a comprehensive facilities master plan that supports those missions; and a major fundraising campaign that provides the resources necessary for success. During Dr. Barchi's tenure, Jefferson established 22 new endowed professorships and 50 endowed scholarships, helping to ensure a healthy and diverse community of faculty and students. The university surpassed $300 million in fundraising under his leadership, twice the amount raised during the preceding eight-year period.

During his presidency, Dr. Barchi also oversaw the transformation of Jefferson's urban environment into a vibrant university campus. A coordinated construction program, coupled with improved landscape design and signage, helped provide visitors and the Jefferson community a sense of place and connectedness to the compact urban campus in the heart of the city's historic district.

Dr. Barchi is married to Francis Harper Barchi, a tenure-track faculty member of the Rutgers School of Social Work. Before coming to Rutgers, she was a senior fellow in the Center for Bioethics at the University of Pennsylvania, where she was engaged in education and research activities relating to international research ethics. Francis Barchi holds a Ph.D. in social welfare, a master's in bioethics, and a master's in nonprofit leadership from the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a bachelor's degree from Smith College. She is the former executive vice president of the Dana Foundation in New York, a post she assumed following a 20-year span as president of her own company, which provided protocol and strategic communication services for international clients. Francis Barchi's research focuses on the social and behavioral factors that influence women's health in southern Africa. In 2009, she completed the first major quantitative study on women's autonomy and gender-based violence in Botswana, and she is the principal investigator on a study in that country examining the extent to which women's understanding of HPV and cervical cancer influences their decision-making about prevention and treatment. She is currently part of a team responsible for ethics training of health professionals in Botswana, Tanzania, and Guatemala.

As an avocation, President Barchi is an expert in the history and mechanical development of clocks and watches. In addition to collecting and conserving examples of these timepieces from the 17th and 18th centuries, he designs and constructs his own precision clocks in his basement machine shop.

The Barchis, who have four adult children and one young dog, spend their leisure time at their home in coastal Maine where they are avid boaters and hikers.

From 2004 to 2012, Dr. Barchi served as president of Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, nationally regarded as a top university dedicated to health sciences education and research. Prior to Jefferson, he was provost and chief academic officer of the University of Pennsylvania, an Ivy League institution founded in 1740. There, he had responsibility for Penn's 12 schools, all academic programs, athletics, students, and faculty.

Dr. Barchi was born in Philadelphia but spent his formative years not far from Rutgers in Westfield, N.J. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Georgetown University, and Ph.D. and M.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. He completed specialty training at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and holds board certification in neurology. Throughout his career, Dr. Barchi has been active as a teacher and as an NIH-funded researcher in the fields of neuroscience and neurology, and he has published extensively in his field. He was elected to the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences in recognition of his pioneering research on the structure and function of voltage-gated ion channels in nerve and muscle, and on the role these critical molecules can play in human disease. He was also elected to the American Society for Clinical Investigation and the Association of American Physicians and named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Neurological Association, and the American Academy of Neurology.

In 1972, Dr. Barchi began his academic career as a faculty member at Penn. Within a decade, he rose to become the David Mahoney Professor of Neurological Sciences. Between 1983 and 1996, he served as director of the Mahoney Institute of Neurological Sciences—an interdisciplinary, universitywide entity that he expanded to become the focus for Penn's growth in neuroscience, encompassing the intel-

JULIE HERMANN leads Rutgers Athletics transition in 2014 to the nation's premier academic and athletic conference, the Big Ten. Hermann came to Rutgers after serving previously as the executive senior associate director of athletics for the University of Louisville.

JULIE HERMANN

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Hermann spent 15 years at Louisville as the Cardinals built one of the nation's most competitive athletic programs across the board.

Following a national search, Hermann was selected from a pool of 63 candidates. She is the first woman to serve in this capacity at Rutgers and will become the second female athletic director in Big Ten history.

"It's a pleasure to welcome Julie Hermann to the Rutgers community," said President Robert L. Barchi. "She is one of the most respected athletics administrators in the country and she was deeply involved in moving Louisville from Conference USA to the BIG EAST and from the BIG EAST to the Atlantic Coast Conference. Her 15 years of leadership experience will be an invaluable asset to the university as we prepare to enter the Big Ten."

One of the primary goals set by Hermann is to create a best-in-class student-athlete care system. She is committed to developing programs to support both athletic and academic pursuits after building one of the nation's premier systems for student-athletes at Louisville (L-Care).

Hermann served in a supervisory capacity of U of L athletics as the university garnered the 2013 NCAA men's basketball national championship; two BCS Bowl wins; two NCAA women's basketball national championship appearances (2013 and 2009) and one NCAA men's soccer College Cup national championship appearance (2010). Since joining the BIG EAST in 2005, the Cardinals claimed 64 conference titles.

Hermann oversaw 20 sports at Louisville, marketing, academics, sports performance, sports medicine, student development and athletic development. She worked to cultivate support for many of the U of L athletic venues that allowed the Cardinals to enjoy one of the nation's biggest and best building booms in college sports.

Before joining U of L, Hermann served as an assistant coach for USA Volleyball, helping the national team to a silver medal finish at the World University Games in 1997.

Prior to that she served as head women's volleyball coach at the University of Tennessee for six seasons. Under her watch, the Lady Vols advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in a decade.

Hermann is immediate past president of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators. She is the former chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee.

Hermann has served on numerous boards, including the Frazier Rehab Institute, the Louisville Sports Commission and the Kentucky Sports Commission.

Hermann and her partner Dr. Leslie Danehy are the proud parents of a seven year-old son, Aidan.

THE FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies.

An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of the Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in the Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable 'feed together,'" the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

The following is an excerpt from an article that was written by John Bruns, former long-time sports writer for the Home News, and the Easton Times-Express.

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in the first intercollegiate football game ever played in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There weren't tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900's, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 weren't matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight straight opponents.

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917. Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best.

Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-American end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton. Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Stiegman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings set single-season records for rushing yardage (1,353) and touchdowns (21) that still stand.

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance, the Garden State Bowl, at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 at Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "near-misses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored and No. 1-ranked Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. In a post game comment, Bear Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes lockerrooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season and his teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyronne Stowe and career kickoff return leader Eric Young.

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first-team All-State selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when it joined the BIG EAST Football Conference. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the BIG EAST, including a 4-2 BIG EAST mark in 1992, before slipping to 4-7 the following season.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium.

A new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played over 130 years ago. The Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan." After a less than stellar run through the mid-1990's under 1998 BIG EAST coach of the year Terry Shea, the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction.

On December 1, 2000, then Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers Football - Greg Schiano.

Schiano's 11-year tenure featured six bowl appearances in the last seven years, including the nation's longest active bowl winning streak of five games. While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, the Rutgers football team also committed fully to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers' football program ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate; in 2011, the team followed up with the nation's No. 2 ranking. Schiano's career record at Rutgers was 68-67 and he left as the third-winningest coach in Rutgers history.

In 2006, Schiano directed the Scarlet Knights to new heights as RU finished the season 11-2 overall and ranked 12th in the final rankings. Rutgers captured the nation's attention starting the season 9-0, including a magical 28-25 victory over previously undefeated and third-ranked Louisville in a November ESPN primetime contest.

Rutgers Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Tim Perneti announced on January 31, 2012 the appointment of Kyle Flood as the 29th head coach at the Birthplace of College Football. Flood, who served on Rutgers' coaching staff for the previous seven seasons, assumed the head coaching vacancy created after Schiano resigned his position to become head coach of the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

One constant on any coaching staff with Flood is how successful those teams have fared. As an assistant coach, 16 of Flood's 17 seasons his teams have finished with winning records, including earning a National Championship at Delaware.

The last time Rutgers promoted an assistant coach on staff to the head coaching position was the naming of Frank Burns to replace John Bateman in 1973 — and Burns became the winningest coach in school history.

A highly respected figure in the coaching profession, Flood has served as the assistant head coach of the program since 2008 and has been a key part in Rutgers' six bowl appearances over his seven-year tenure in Piscataway. In addition to his four years as the assistant head coach, Flood has been in charge of the offensive line since coming to RU in 2005.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PAUL ROBESON

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. • In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record.... Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. [Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.] Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. • He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones", "Othello", "Showboat", as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." • Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915 he was the third black to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. • A true renaissance man, Robeson won 12 letters in four sports at Rutgers - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was recently commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. • Kroll followed end Paul Robeson, halfback Homer Hazel and coaches George Foster Sanford and Harvey Harman into this most cherished of college football's honors. Former athletic director George Little is also among the all-time honorees. • Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights under coach John Bateman were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-American honors from Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven TDs on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the endzone for the signal-caller. • He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. • Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. • Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

HARVEY HARMAN

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. • A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee [the University of the South], Pennsylvania and Rutgers. • It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. • Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

HOMER HAZEL

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. • A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. • Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. • He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 108-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. • After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. • The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. • Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. • Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the scrimmage line. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

RUTGERS BOWL HISTORY

1978 GARDEN STATE BOWL

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing TD to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Rutgers and Arizona State met for the second time in a bowl game, this time at Phoenix's Chase Field. The Scarlet Knights came up just short in the contest, losing 45-40 to the Sun Devils. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard TD drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON, Texas - Rutgers' most memorable season ended with the program's biggest milestone - the first bowl victory in the history of Scarlet Knight football. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown, while Tim Brown hauled in two TD passes as the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights defeated Kansas State 37-10. Rice eventually went on to be named the Texas Bowl's Most Valuable Player. In the first quarter, Mike Teel hit Brown in the end zone on a 14-yard touchdown pass and the pair later connected, this time with a 49-yard strike to give Rutgers a 14-0 lead. Jeremy Ito sent a 37-yard field goal through the uprights with less than a minute remaining in the first half to take a 17-10 lead at halftime. In the opening minute of the third quarter, Rutgers extended its lead on an interception returned for a touchdown by Quintero Frierson. The Scarlet Knights scored the final 23 points of the game as Rice added a 46-yard touchdown run and Ito converted a pair of field goals to give RU the 37-10 victory.

2008 INTERNATIONAL BOWL

TORONTO - In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA Bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a BIG EAST and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

2008 PAPAJOHNS.COM BOWL

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State 29-23 in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. • Leading the comeback - as he did all season - was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights (8-5) the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. • Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak after being booed at home when he was struggling earlier in the season. NC State (6-7) held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. • The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers (9-4) capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida 45-24 in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 19 at Tropicana Field. • The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. • Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a TD. • For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

2011 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State 27-13 in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl on Dec. 30, 2011. • The Scarlet Knights (9-4) ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. • The Cyclones (6-7) finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against Oklahoma State. • That night Jared Barnett threw for 376 yards. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. • After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. • It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. • Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 134 yards on 27 carries.

2012 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

ORLANDO, Fla. – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando on Dec. 28, 2012. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech QB Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers LB Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first BIG EAST Championship.

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Rutgers football program. The primary media contact for the Rutgers football program is Jason Baum while Jimmy Gill and Trey Miller will assist during the 2013 season.

The Athletic Communications Office is located in the Rutgers Athletic Center. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at 732-445-4200, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Baum at jbaum@scarletknights.com.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. Briefly, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance and all players, coaches and support staff will not take part in an interview unless scheduled by the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Rutgers will utilize an online credentialing system in 2013. For more information, visit www.scarletknights.com/credentials or contact Trey Miller at 732-445-7886.

Admittance to the High Point Solutions Stadium Press Box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made through Rutgers' online credentialing system.

Please request credentials at least two weeks in advance of the game to permit sufficient time for mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at Media Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium at Gate A.

Working space in the Rutgers Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next-day publication; (2) sports editors of newspapers in New Jersey, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers; (7) weekly press representatives; non-originating radio representatives of AM news stations; and Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally-recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space permits. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Sideline photographers and media members must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Green Lot, which is located next to the Indoor Practice Bubble. To enter the Green Lot, take River Road to Sutphen Road. Once on Sutphen, make your first left at Fitch Road and attendants will direct you to the media lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking credential in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on gameday. Upon your arrival, you will receive a press folder with game program, flip card, updated stats and game day notes.

The press box has wireless Internet access. Login information will be provided on gamedays.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Flood and players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available after each game to members of the media. Coach Flood's press conference will take place in the team meeting room of the Hale Center, which is located opposite the playing field from the press box.

MEDIA INFORMATION

With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.

Rutgers' locker room is open to the media following the conclusion of Flood's press conference. The visiting team's press conference will be held in the field hockey locker room, inside the Hale Center.

PHONES

A limited number of courtesy phones are available in the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium. The phones are all operator-assisted calls, or third-party billing calls can be made. Should you wish to have a phone installed at High Point Solutions Stadium, contact Verizon at 1-800-564-9911 or 9922.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance. Players are available in person on Monday at the weekly Rutgers Football Luncheon, and following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, pending class schedules/availability.

Please consult with Jason Baum regarding availability. Player availability at other times will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and the member of the media can be set up by the Athletic Communications Office. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

COACH FLOOD INTERVIEWS

All interview requests must be arranged through Jason Baum. Coach Flood will be available to the media every Monday at 10:30 a.m. at his weekly news conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center, Monday at 11:10 a.m. on the American Athletic Conference Teleconference and after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

COVERING PRACTICE

Rutgers' preseason practices begin August 2. Throughout the season, practice will be open to the media for the first 30 minutes on Tuesday and Wednesday. Practice is closed to the media on Sunday and Thursday.

VIDEO AT PRACTICE

On Tuesday and Wednesday, video and photo access is available during individual periods of practice. Tripods are not permitted on the practice field and media members must stand at least five yards off the sideline.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Requested players will be available each Monday at the Rutgers football luncheon from 11:30-12:30 p.m. in the Audi Rutgers Club.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for American Athletic Conference football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its eight member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

RUTGERS RADIO NETWORK

All Rutgers football games will be broadcast over the Rutgers Radio Network to 50,000 watt WOR 710-AM in New York City, Central Jersey's WCTC 1450-AM and WIP 610 AM in Philadelphia and South Jersey.

Play-by-play announcer Chris Carlin is well known to sports radio fans throughout the State of Rutgers. The 40-year-old Carlin is in his 13th year with the Rutgers Radio Network, including his 10th as the play-by-play voice of Rutgers football. Carlin is also the play-by-play voice for Rutgers basketball and is the host of the New York Mets pre-game and post-game shows on SNY and serves as co-host of "Loud Mouths" on SNY.

Former Rutgers standout quarterback Ray Lucas begins his fifth season as the color analyst on the Rutgers Radio Network. The seven-year NFL veteran has also been an analyst for SNY on its New York Jets programming since 1996 and won a New York Emmy for best analyst in 2010 for his work on SNY.

Anthony "Fooch" Fucilli returns for his 10th season as the Rutgers Radio Network sideline reporter. Fucilli has also worked as a field producer and reporter for MSG Network since 1989.

Marc Malusis is back for his fifth year as the pre-game and post-game host on the Rutgers Radio Network. The pre-game shows starts one hour prior to kickoff while the post-game show stays on the air one hour following the game.

Former Rutgers defensive lineman Eric LeGrand begins his third season on the Rutgers Radio Network. LeGrand will provide insight and commentary on the pre-game show, halftime report and post-game.

GAME DAY PARKING INFORMATION

Media Parking:

Media parking is located in the Green Lot, which is located next to the Indoor Practice Bubble. To enter the Green Lot, take River Road to Sutphen Road. Once on Sutphen, make your first left at Fitch Road and attendants will direct you to the media lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking credential in advance of the game.

Satellite Truck Parking:

Satellite truck parking is on a limited basis in the South End Zone driveway. To request space on a game-by-game basis, please contact Jason Baum in the Rutgers Office of Athletic Communications.

High Point Solutions Stadium Parking Lots:

- Scarlet & Green - Enter via River Road to Sutphen Road
- Brown and White - Enter via Campus Road

JASON BAUM Senior Associate Athletic Director, Communications

Office: 732-445-7885 • Cell: 201-966-6338 • E-mail: jbaum@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @JasonBaumRU

Jason Baum is in his eighth year as a member of the Rutgers athletics department and enters his second year in his current position as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications. As a member of the senior staff, Baum oversees the Office of Athletic Communications, the department's official athletics website ScarletKnights.com, the online digital network of Rutgers Athletics (RVision) and all broadcast opportunities [television, radio and Internet] for the athletic department. He is the primary media contact for the Rutgers football program and the department's primary spokesman. In addition, Baum serves as the football administrator, including game scheduling. He is also the executive producer of the "RFootball Show" and the "15 Days of Spring" documentaries on the Rutgers football program. Since arriving at Rutgers, Baum has successfully promoted 15 student-athletes who earned football All-America honors, including Ray Rice, who finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2006 and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award. In 2009, the Football Writers Association of America introduced its Super 11 Awards, designed to identify and reward the sports information departments and programs that exemplified excellent media relations. The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office earned Super 11 accolades in 2009 and 2010. Two areas of development under Baum's watch at Rutgers are the growth of RU's social media outlets and RVision. Baum created the budget and vision for the network by saving on the cost of printed media guides and allowed all of Rutgers' athletic teams to gain an increase in exposure. Rutgers was also the first school in the nation to broadcast its football Pro Day live on the Internet in 2010. Currently, RVision produces over 125 live events annually. Baum has served as the primary football media contact for two national coaches of the year - Greg Schiano at Rutgers in 2006 and George O'Leary at the University of Central Florida in 2005. Prior to Rutgers, Baum spent five years at UCF where he served as the primary contact for football and baseball along with men's and women's golf. Before arriving at UCF, Baum spent two years at the University of Maryland working with the football program along with baseball, volleyball and swimming and diving. The York, Pa., native got his start in Athletic Communications as a student assistant at West Virginia University. Baum is a member of the Football Writers Association of America and CoSIDA. A 2000 graduate of West Virginia, Baum and his wife Andrea reside in New Brunswick.

JIMMY GILL Assistant Director of Communications (Secondary Contact)

Office: 732-445-7884 • Cell: 732-991-9486 • E-mail: jgill@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @jgill027

Jimmy Gill is in his first year as Assistant Director of Athletic Communications at Rutgers, serving his second stint with the Scarlet Knights after being re-hired in January 2013. He works as the secondary contact for football and the primary for baseball and gymnastics. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at the University of Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. Duties with football included game notes, operation of weekly press conferences, practice coverage and more, while being the sideline contact at home games. After the season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as Athletic Communications Assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. He successfully promoted the BIG EAST Player of the Year for baseball in addition to expanding the social media presence for each of his four sports. A native of Lewes, Del., he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his Master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working towards his Master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UIM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior.

TREY MILLER Assistant Director of Communications (Credentials)

Office: 732-445-7886 • Cell: 814-574-8468 • E-mail: tmiller@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @TreyWMiller

Trey Miller enters his second season at Rutgers, serving as the primary media contact for volleyball and men's lacrosse, while assisting with men's basketball and football. He returns for year two as an Assistant Director of Athletic Communications after spending his first season as an Athletic Communications Assistant. Miller's initial duties in his first year included volleyball, gymnastics, tennis and baseball, before taking over wrestling and men's lacrosse in January 2013. Miller helped Rutgers host the 2013 EIVA Wrestling Championships, successfully coordinating with 14 teams and the EIVA Conference, producing the tournament program and running social media efforts. A native of Bellefonte, Pa., he earned an undergraduate degree in journalism with an emphasis in sports journalism from Penn State University in May 2012. During his tenure in State College, Miller worked as a student assistant in the department of athletic communications, serving as the Nittany Lions' primary women's golf contact for three seasons. A former contributing high school football writer for the Centre County Gazette, Miller received the Hearst Journalism Sports Writing Award in February 2012.
