NOTABLE

- Rutgers and Washington will meet for the second-straight year to open the season. The Huskies will be the third Pac-12 team all-time to visit Piscataway (Washington State in 2015 and California in 2001).

- Rutgers, "The Birthplace of College Football," begins its 149th year and 148th season of competition. The program has played the most games in the history of the sport at 1,325.

- The Scarlet Knights will begin a season on a Friday for only the fifth time in program history. The other occurrences were Sept. 2, 1977 against Penn State at Giants Stadium, Sept. 28, 1906 at Fordham, Oct. 10, 1884 versus Princeton and Oct. 24, 1873 at Yale. The last Friday home game overall was Nov. 26, 2010 versus Louisville. This contest breaks a streak of 35 consecutive regular season games played on a Saturday.

- Rutgers starts the season with three-straight home games for the first time since 2009.

- RU enters the season with 17 returning starters (six offense, eight defense, three specialists) with nine starters lost (six offense, three defense).

MEDIA POLICIES & INFORMATION

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is committed to assisting members of the media with their coverage of the Rutgers football team. Hasim Phillips serves as the primary contact for the football program with support from Jimmy Gill and Brad Derechailo.

The Athletic Communications Office is located on level one of the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at 732-445-7028, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Hasim Phillips at hphillips@scarletknights.com. To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. All interview requests must be directed to and arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Coaches, players and support staff are prohibited from participating in any interviews without prior authorization from the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests must be submitted via email to credentials@scarletknights.com. Admittance to the High Point Solutions Stadium press box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made formally to the credential email address.

Requests for game day credentials must be received at least two weeks in advance of the date of the contest to provide sufficient time for processing and mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at the West Gate Media Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Working space in the High Point Solutions Stadium Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next-day publication covering Rutgers or the current game opponent; (2) sports editors of newspapers in New Jersey, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers; (7) weekly press representatives; non-originating radio representatives of AM news stations; and Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally-recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space permits. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Sideline photographers and media members must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Green Lot, which is located adjacent to the Indoor Practice Bubble. To enter the Green Lot, take River Road to Sutphen Road. Once on Sutphen, make your first left at Fitch Road and attendants will direct you to the media lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking pass in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on gameday. Upon your arrival, you will receive information with a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game day notes.

The press box has wireless internet access. Login information will be provided on the day of game.

PHONES

A limited number of courtesy phones are available in the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium. The phones are all operator-assisted calls, or third-party billing calls can be made. Should you wish to have a phone installed at High Point Solutions Stadium, contact Verizon at 1-800-564-9911 or 9922.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Players are available in person on Monday at the weekly Rutgers football press conference, and following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, pending class schedules/availability.

Please consult with Hasim Phillips regarding availability as it will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and media member can be set up by the Athletic Communications Office. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

COACH ASH INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for Rutgers head coach Chris Ash must be arranged through Hasim Phillips. In addition to post-practice media availability, coach Ash will be available to the media every Monday morning at his weekly press conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center and on the weekly Big Ten teleconference on Tuesday at noon.

POST PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

On Tuesday, select offensive coaches and players will be available to the media post practice, while select defensive coaches and players will be available on Wednesday. Head coach Chris Ash will address the media following practice on Thursday.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The use of social media (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope) is strictly prohibited during practice. Live reporting is NOT permitted during practice. Live video/audio broadcast of any kind is also NOT permitted. This includes the use of social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope. All reports must be filed at the conclusion of any open media practice windows.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Chris Ash and select players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available for interviews after each game. Following home games, the press conference for coach Ash will take place in the team meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center, which is located on the east side of the stadium opposite the press box.

With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.

The visiting team's press conference will be held in the defensive line meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Requested players will be available each Monday at the Rutgers football press conference at 12:30 p.m. in the team room on the second floor of the Hale Center. Live video/audio broadcast of any kind will not be permitted during the weekly press conference. This includes the use of live video features on social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat, Twitter or Periscope.

RUTGERS RADIO NETWORK

All Rutgers football games will be broadcast over the Rutgers IMG Sports Network to 50,000 watt WOR 710-AM in New York City and Central Jersey's WCTC 1450-AM.

Play-by-play announcer Chris Carlin is well known to sports radio fans throughout the State of Rutgers. Carlin is in his 17th year with the Rutgers Radio Network, including his 14th as the play-by-play voice of Rutgers football. Carlin, who has nearly 20 years of experience in radio and television, is the afternoon host on WIP in Philadelphia. He began his career as producer with Mike & The Mad Dog on WFAN and later hosted joined SNY hosting "Loud Mouths," "Geico Sportsnite," as well as New York Mets pregame and post-game shows.

Former Rutgers standout quarterback Ray Lucas begins his ninth season as the color analyst on the Rutgers Radio Network. The seven-year NFL veteran has also been an analyst for SNY on its New York Jets programming since 1996 and won a New York Emmy for best analyst in 2010 for his work on SNY.

Anthony "Fooch" Fucilli returns for his 14th season as the Rutgers Radio Network sideline reporter. Fucilli has also worked as a field producer and reporter for MSG Network since 1989.

Marc Malusis is back for his ninth year as the pre-game and post-game host on the Rutgers Radio Network. The pre-game shows starts one hour prior to kickoff while the post-game show stays on the air one hour following the game.

Former Rutgers defensive lineman Eric LeGrand begins his seventh season on the Rutgers Radio Network. LeGrand will provide insight and commentary on the pre-game show, halftime report and post-game.

RANKED OPPONENT

- Rutgers has four opponents ranked inside the AP top 25 on this season's schedule (No. 2 Ohio State, No. 6 Penn State, No. 8 Washington and No. 11 Michigan). Both OSU and UW qualified for the College Football Playoff last season.
- Friday's game marks the 11th contest versus a top-10 opponent on campus with it being the fifth since the beginning of 2015.
- The Scarlet Knights own nine victories over a ranked opponent in their history. The highest ranked opponent beaten was No. 2 USF in 2007. List of wins over ranked teams:

11/2/46 at No. 17/NR Harvard, 13-0
 11/3/79 at No. 17/NR Tennessee, 13-7
 11/10/84 vs. No. 19/18 West Virginia, 23-19
 9/10/88 at No. 15/14 Michigan State, 17-13
 9/24/88 at No. 15/13 Penn State, 21-16
 11/9/06 vs. No. 3/4 Louisville, 28-25
 10/18/07 vs. No. 2/2 USF, 30-27
 10/25/08 at No. 17/20 Pittsburgh, 54-34
 11/12/09 vs. No. 23/24 USF, 31-0

WAR BEFORE THE SHORE

- Celebrating the launch of Rutgers' new apparel partner, adidas, the first 5,000 fans into the stadium will receive a specially branded "War Before the Shore" beach towel. An exclusive student giveaway of a Rutgers football branded adidas tank top and a pair of sunglasses will go to the first 2,000 students in the student section. Piscataway will be transformed into an honorary shore town for the day with boats, carnival and boardwalk games along Scarlet Knight Way as well as Jersey-themed food trucks, and many other surprises and promotions. Inside the stadium, students will have the chance to view the game from the best seats in the house - a pool or Jacuzzi atop the student section. There will be boats in the north end zone with all fans given the opportunity to win a seat and watch the game from field level. The High Point Solutions Stadium concession stands will also feature Jersey Shore-oriented options.

BATTAGLIA PRACTICE COMPLEX

- Rutgers Athletics held a ribbon-cutting ceremony for the newly dedicated Marco Battaglia Practice Complex on Aug. 6. Named for the former consensus All-American and Big East Offensive Player of the Year, the complex will serve as the practice site for the football program. The upgraded practice facility features two new Kentucky Bluegrass fields equipped with a state-of-the-art drainage and irrigation system. A separate FieldTurf playing surface with CoolPlay technology was installed, providing the Scarlet Knights with an additional area for practice drills. The complex has been fitted with a high-powered Musco LED light system. Two permanent 54-foot film towers were constructed in the complex along with two new scoreboards, a new LED video board and six game clocks. A 5,000 square foot storage unit was installed along with new maintenance equipment and permanent restrooms. In addition to the functional improvements, the practice complex also underwent several aesthetical changes, including a new brick entranceway and wall, fencing around the perimeter and redesigned landscaping throughout the facility.

STAFF CHANGES

- Head coach Chris Ash hired three new members of the coaching staff in the off-season - offensive coordinator/quarterback coach Jerry Kill, cornerbacks coach Henry Baker and running backs coach Lester Erb.
- A native of Paterson, N.J., Baker spent the previous six years at Delaware. He coached cornerbacks with the Blue Hens from 2011-16 and served as special teams coordinator in 2012. In 2016, he was part of a defensive staff that ranked 19th nationally in fewest passing yards allowed per game (181.5), 21st in interceptions (15) and first overall as a team in fewest penalties per game (3.64). Baker also coached at East Stroudsburg (defensive backs) and at Maryland, his alma mater.
- Kill returns to the sidelines after spending the 2016 season as Associate Athletics Director for Administration at Kansas State. A three-time national coach of the year honoree with over 30 years of experience, Kill recorded winning seasons in 15 of his 22 years as a college head coach. He most recently coached at Minnesota from 2011-2015, where he guided the Gophers to three bowl games in four and a half seasons, including the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl in 2014. It marked the first Jan. 1 bowl game for Minnesota since 1962. For his efforts, Kill was voted the Big Ten's Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year by the conference's coaches and the Dave McClain Coach of the Year by the media who cover the Big Ten.
- Erb returns to the Big Ten after spending the last four seasons at Nevada. With over 25 years of coaching experience, he worked at Iowa from 2000-12. In his first season working with the Iowa running backs in 2008, Erb coached Shonn Greene to the Doak Walker Award and consensus All-American honors while being named the Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He rushed for 1,850 yards to set an Iowa single-season rushing mark and was the only running back in the nation to surpass 100 yards in every game during the season. A standout recruiter throughout his career, Erb was twice recognized by Rivals.com as one of the nation's top-25 recruiters in 2005 and 2011.

GAME 1: RUTGERS VS. WASHINGTON

CAPTAINS

• Rutgers football voted on its 2017 representatives for captain, selecting fifth-year senior offensive lineman Dorian Miller, fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Bolin, fifth-year senior defensive lineman Darnell Davis and junior linebacker Deonte Roberts.

• Miller: A fifth-year senior on the offensive line, who appeared in 26 career games with 22 starts. Sophomore offensive lineman Jonah Jackson on Dorian Miller during spring practice: "He's the calming factor. When I'm out there amped up, excited to go, he lets me know it's good (and that) there's no need to be nervous. He helps me with everything."

• Bolin: A fifth-year graduate transfer from Louisville, who appeared in 17 career games at quarterback. Head coach Chris Ash on Bolin in the offseason: "Kyle is really a grown man. He's mature. He's intelligent. You can tell he's been around a high-level game of football. He's been well-coached, understands offense and concepts. He's a competitor, and he's just a good teammate, too."

• Davis: A fifth-year senior defensive lineman, appeared in 34 career games, including eight starts. Had 41 tackles, forced two fumbles and recovered two others, including one for a touchdown in 2016. Davis on his decision to come to Rutgers: "I wanted to stay at home. A lot of guys don't stay at home. I got the opportunity to come to Rutgers. Rutgers is a great institution. I'm a business guy. This is a great business school. Football, I knew they were going into the Big Ten and that's one of the best conferences in the country."

• Roberts: A junior linebacker, who started in 13 of 24 career games and was second on the team in 2016 with 95 total tackles. Defensive coordinator Jay Niemann on Deonte Roberts during spring practice: "With his own play and the quality of where we were defensively at the end of the season, it wasn't where we wanted it or needed it to be. He's gone to extreme measures to push in the right direction and really get things going. You can't say enough good things about all the hard work he's put in."

BIG TEN BATTLE IN THE BRONX

• The Rutgers University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics announced in Sept. 2016 it will host the "Big Ten Battle in the Bronx," a football and wrestling doubleheader between the Scarlet Knights and Maryland, at Yankee Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017. The wrestling match, which will be the first in the history of the Stadium, will take place first, before head coach Chris Ash leads the football team into action later that day. "Never before has a doubleheader such as this taken place at a venue so iconic," said Director of Athletics Patrick Hobbs. "We are thrilled to provide our fans this one-of-a-kind experience while enhancing the Big Ten brand in the world's media capital. This is certain to be a very special day. We are thankful to the New York Yankees, the Big Ten Conference and the University of Maryland for helping to make it possible."

ADIDAS

• When the clock struck midnight to begin the month of July, the "Three Stripe Life" officially launched "On the Banks." Via a partnership originally announced on Feb. 13, adidas is now the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand of the Scarlet Knights through the 2023-24 season. "The excitement has continually grown since the initial announcement," said Director of Athletics Pat Hobbs. "adidas is a global brand that makes an impact not just athletically, but socially, due to its innovative design and initiatives. The positive sentiment that we receive from student-athletes and recruits on a daily basis is tremendous. adidas is the ideal partner for us to enhance and expand our brand." With the all-school deal, adidas will outfit RU's 24 athletic teams, including new strategic uniforms for the football and basketball teams. Additionally, Rutgers receives adidas' product & marketing expertise and the two will collaborate on marketing opportunities and the development and enhancement of the licensed retail landscape on campus.

WATCH LISTS

• Janarion Grant: Maxwell Award (given to America's College Player of the Year), Hornung Award (most versatile player in the nation).

• Sebastian Joseph: Allstate AFCA Good Works Team (honors student-athletes for their dedication to volunteerism and enriching the lives of others). Joseph has dedicated time to numerous causes such as Saturdays in Motion, Bright Beginnings Learning Center, New Jersey Special Olympics, Read Across America, Rutgers Dance Marathon, Walk to Believe and more. He has also made trips to hospitals, served food to the homeless and volunteered at area youth football organizations. In addition, Joseph spent his 2017 spring break traveling to South Africa for a service trip through Athletes in Action. It involved visiting University of KwaZulu-Natal and UKZN Howard to start a ministry program.

LIFE BEYOND THE GAME

• Rutgers head coach Chris Ash instituted the "Life Beyond the Game" program, designed at preparing football players for their careers after their college playing days have ended. "The percentage of our guys going to the NFL is very small," said Ash. "Even if you do go to the NFL, your lifespan there could be very short and then what are you going to do for the rest of your life? Universities have programs set up to help the general students population with alumni, but I think it's our obligation to help student-athletes in their life after football."

PLAYER NUTRITION

• Upon taking over the Rutgers football program, head coach Chris Ash hired Allison Kreimeier, the team's first full-time director of performance nutrition who's responsible for making sure players understand the do's and don'ts of eating right and staying hydrated. "There is so much that we're putting into sports science and nutrition. We're trying to promote the right type of lifestyle that helps you maximize performance."

THE HUNT

• Throughout the Rutgers football facilities are signs that read "The Hunt." "The Hunt" is really the theme of the team," said Ash. "We're basically chasing the other teams in the Big Ten. We can't make any secret about that. To chase them, we gotta go hunt every single day. Whether it's in the weight room, out in the indoor (bubble) with our special workouts or in practice."

OFFENSE

• Under Jerry Kill, the Scarlet Knights project to be multiple on offense with elements of the spread and pro-style in the playbook.

Quarterbacks

Kyle Bolin

- Set to become the fourth different Rutgers quarterback to start the opener in as many years.
- Graduated from Louisville in May and transferred to Rutgers in the summer.
- Voted a team captain.
- Has 17 career games of experience with six starts. Served as the backup behind Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson last season.
- Owns 2,104 career passing yards with 13 touchdowns. Had a career-high 381 passing yards in a 2014 win over Kentucky.

Giovanni Rescigno

- Started the last five games of the 2016 season. Had three games with at least 200 passing yards.
- Threw for a career-best 258 yards versus Indiana with one passing and one rushing score. Accounted for seven touchdowns last season (five passing, two rushing).
- Made first career start at Minnesota and went 22-for-38 with 220 passing yards and three touchdowns. It was the most passing yards by a RU quarterback in their first career start since Chas Dodd had 322 versus Connecticut in 2010. Became just the eighth different quarterback to start a game for the Scarlet Knights since the start of the 2006 season (excluding the wildcat formation).

- Ran for a 42-yard touchdown on first collegiate carry versus Howard.

Running Backs

- Rutgers has three backs who average over 5.0 yards per carry in their career (Edwards 5.3, Hicks 5.2, Martin 5.2).

Gus Edwards

- Graduated from Miami (Fla.) in May and transferred to Rutgers in the summer.
- Owns 977 career rushing yards on 186 carries (5.3/attempt) with 12 touchdowns in 35 games.
- Has three career games with at least 100 yards, with the most recent being 113 yards in the 2016 opener against Florida A&M.

Josh Hicks

- Averaging 5.2 yards per carry during career over 244 attempts, tied for the fifth-best mark in program history with a minimum of 100 rushes.
- Had a game-high 70 yards rushing at Washington on 14 attempts.
- Rushed for 202 yards in the 2014 Quick Lane Bowl to become sixth Scarlet Knight in program history to reach 200 yards in a game.
- Owns four career games with at least 100 yards rushing, with the most recent being 113 versus Kansas in 2015.

Robert Martin

- Has led the team in rushing in each of the last two season with 625 yards in 2016 and 763 yards in 2015.
- Owns 1,822 career rushing yards, needing just 302 more to move in the program top-10 list.
- Ranks fifth in the school record books with 5.2 yards per carry.
- Has five career 100-yard games, with the most recent being a 106-yard performance against Iowa last season.
- Ranked sixth in the Big Ten with 5.17 yards per carry in 2016.
- Led Rutgers with seven rushing touchdowns as a freshman, the most for a Rutgers true freshman since Justise Hairston had eight in 2003.

Wide Receivers

Janarion Grant

- See page eight for notes.

Jawuan Harris

- Led the team with 39 receptions and 481 yards last season.
- Registered first career 100-yard game with 118 yards on a career-high eight catches against Indiana. Also forced a fumble on special teams.
- Had a 75-yard touchdown reception against New Mexico, the longest by a Scarlet Knight

HEAD COACH CHRIS ASH • SECOND SEASON

Chris Ash took over the helm of the Rutgers football program, his first season as a head coach in 2016, culminating a nearly 20-year career as an assistant coach.

A coach with a national championship pedigree, Ash enjoyed a decorated and accomplished career prior to arriving “On the Banks,” including five years in the Big Ten Conference (four as a defensive coordinator) with four Big Ten championships.

An accomplished and decorated coach, Ash built a reputation as a relentless and tireless worker throughout his various stops. Upon becoming the 30th head coach in the 147-year history at the Birthplace of College Football, Ash made clear his vision for the Scarlet Knights program - “I want to build a first-class program here, a program that the University, the State of New Jersey, high school coaches and high school players can be proud to say that this program is theirs and they want to come here and be a part of it.”

Ash has embarked on outlining the plans to complete that vision, which includes a mission to create an environment to develop student-athletes mentally, physically and spiritually to reach their full potential and to be successful in life after football.

In his previous post before Rutgers, Ash served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Ohio State and helped lead the Buckeyes to the 2014 national championship.

In his five seasons as a defensive coordinator, Ash pioneered four groups ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015. As the defense coordinator at Wisconsin in 2011 and 2012, the Badgers put together back-to-back seasons ranked 15th overall in total defense. The 2011 squad was 13th in scoring defense while the 2012 team turned in a 17th-place ranking.

Ash was hired by Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer in January 2014 to improve a Buckeye defense that placed 112th in pass defense and 47th in total defense in 2013. In his first season, OSU’s defense ranked 19th nationally in total defense and 29th in pass defense. The Buckeyes also ranked fourth in the country with 24 interceptions en route to Big Ten, Sugar Bowl and national championships.

In 2015, the Ohio State defense continued its strides under Ash, ranking second in scoring defense nationally and ninth-best in total defense. The Buckeyes earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the season with a 12-1 record after defeating Notre Dame in the bowl game.

The 2016 NFL Draft saw numerous players from Ash’s defensive unit selected, including the first overall defensive player in Joey Bosa, who was picked third by the San Diego Chargers. In all, the draft featured six defensive players taken from Ohio State with three in the first round.

Prior to taking over the OSU defense, Ash held the defensive coordinator post and coached the secondary at the University of Arkansas in the Southeastern Conference in 2013 under head coach Bret Bielema. He helped improve Arkansas’ pass defense in his one season in Fayetteville, with the Razorbacks’ defense finishing 72nd nationally in passing yards allowed after ranking 113th in 2012.

Ash was first promoted to the defensive coordinator role in the Big Ten while at the University of Wisconsin, where he spent three seasons with the Badgers. His 2011 defense led the Big Ten (conference games only) in total defense and pass defense efficiency, and it ranked fourth nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (163.6), 13th in scoring (19.0) and 15th in total defense (316.4). In 2012, the UW defense ranked 15th nationally in total defense (322.5), 17th in scoring (19.1), 18th in fewest passing yards allowed (193.6), 22nd in pass efficiency and 24th against the run (128.9).

Ash began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Drake University, in 1997. He was promoted to defensive coordinator for the next two seasons before moving on to Iowa State University in 2000. Ash spent eight seasons over two different stints in Ames, including the 2009 season, during which current Texas head coach Tom Herman was also on the staff. Ash progressed from graduate assistant with the Cyclones in 2000-01 to defensive backs coach for a total of six seasons.

Ash spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at San Diego State University as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach and College Football Hall of Fame inductee Chuck Long.

Ash has produced numerous instructional videos, including a three-video series -- “Aggressive 4-3 Defense” -- that includes shutting down the passing game and stuffing the run segments. He has coached 34 different players that have gone on to sign NFL contracts.

A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash earned his undergraduate degree from Drake in 1996, and was a two-time letterwinner at defensive back for the Bulldogs. He is one of three from that era of Drake football who became a FBS head coach, joining Dave Doeren (NC State) and Charlie Partridge (formerly with Florida Atlantic). Ash completed his master’s degree in education from Iowa State in 2005.

Ash and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of a son, Brady and daughter, Alexis. Ash also has a son, Tanner, and a daughter, Jacey.
